

THE ELECTION.

Last Tuesday was election day and the voters of this country expressed their sentiments at the ballot box in thunderous tones. The verdict rendered by the people on Tuesday, was in direct opposition to that expressed at the polls in 1892, and the issues at stake in the campaign just ended, were almost identically the same as those before the people two years ago, when an almost unprecedented democratic victory was won for tariff reform. On Tuesday the country was again visited by another political landslide, advocating the principles of Republicanism, and condemning the work of the fifty-third congress. The Republicans were more or less victorious nearly every state in which there was an election. When the fifty-fourth congress convenes the House of Representatives will be republican by a large majority, and the returns received from the States indicate that the House of Representatives will be composed of 117 democrats, 225 republicans and 14 populists. These figures may be somewhat changed, owing to the close vote in some of the congressional districts. The Senate will probably be republican. The present House of Representatives is composed of 215 democrats, 126 republicans and 12 populists.

The vote in the States resulted as follows. In Virginia, Walker, republican, to Congress in the ninth district, and in the other nine districts democratic congressmen have been elected. In West Virginia four republican congressmen and a republican legislature, which will elect a United States Senator. Returns from North Carolina indicate the election of the fusion State ticket and the republican-populist combination has elected six out of nine congressmen. The Maryland delegation in the next House will be three democrats and three republicans. Delaware elected a republican governor, congressmen, and a majority of the legislature. California elected a democratic governor. The republicans elected six out of seven congressmen, Illinois gave a republican majority of about 150,000. Out of 22 congressmen one democrat was successful. New York's delegation in congress will stand 30 republicans to 4 democrats. Mr. Morton was elected governor by a plurality of 130,000. In Pennsylvania 28 republicans and 4 democrats were elected. Gen. Hastings, rep., was elected Governor by a plurality of 233,000. Idaho went republican. New Mexico elected a republican congressman. The result in Tennessee is in doubt as to the governorship. In Ohio the republicans elected all the congressmen, except two democrats. Indiana republican by 50,000 majority. Iowa will send a full republican delegation to congress. Minnesota elected 7 republican congressmen. Wisconsin a solid republican delegation. Colorado, republican governor and the two congressmen. North Dakota republican. South Dakota 100 republicans and 26 democrats to the legislature. Wyoming republican. Washington State republican. New Hampshire republican governor and two congressmen. Massachusetts republican governor. Rhode Island elected both republican congressmen. In Connecticut the republicans elected a governor and the congressmen.

RETIRED BY THEIR AGE.

The senior officer of the navy and the second ranking officer of the army lay down active duty this week for the comfortable billet offered by the retired list. On the 8th inst. General Howard, the second major-general, commanding the Department of the East, retired from service under the sixty-four year clause, and two days later Admiral Bancroft Gherardi, senior officer of the navy, will relinquish duty because he has reached the age of sixty-two. General Howard's successor will be Major-General Miles, now on duty at Chicago, and Admiral Gherardi's successor will most probably be Commodore Montgomery Seward. Both are officers of great distinction in their respective services, and while General Miles is entitled to the transfer by reason of seniority, Admiral Seward will come into his billet because the secretary regards him as the best equipped man to command the important post of the New York navy yard. Upon the assignment of these officers, who are just now much exercised as to what they will require.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh, Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

EUGENE OUDIN, the well-known American singer and composer, who was recently stricken with paralysis, died in London, Sunday.

USE IT IN TIME. Catarrh starts in the nasal passages, affecting eyes ears and throat, and is in fact, the great enemy of the mucous membrane. Neglected colds in the head almost invariably precede catarrh, causing an excessive flow of mucus, and if the mucus discharge becomes interrupted the disagreeable results of catarrh will follow, such as bad breath, severe pain across forehead and about the eyes, a roaring and buzzing sound in the ears and oftentimes a very offensive discharge. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles.

ARMY AND NAVY CIRCLES.

There seems to be more difficulty in securing men to man our new warships than in getting them completed and in service. Congress for years has failed to listen to appeals of Secretaries and bureau chiefs for an increase in the number of enlisted men to properly man the great steel cruisers and battleships, and the point has now been reached when we have lying idle half a dozen first-class ships, which must remain at navy-yards for lack of men to work them. Fortunately for the navy two of these vessels, the monitors Miantonomoh and Monterey, are of but little service in peace times, and might as well be laid up, so that their crews may be transferred to ships intended for active cruising.

The crews of these ships will be used in fitting out the Cincinnati, and the crack cruiser of the navy, the Olympia, now at San Francisco. Saturday orders were given countermanding those of some weeks ago directing the Marion to be commissioned, this action being necessary by the scant number of sailors available for naval duty. Nearly every ship in service is short of men and not one has the full complement allowed. Under the present law the enlisted force is limited to 7,500 men and 1,500 apprentices, but this number is said at the Navy Department to be fully 2,000 short of the actual requirements of the service. Admiral Ramsay will recommend in his annual report a considerable increase, and his views will have the cordial approval of the Secretary. —Sun.

Like a New Man

Alderman Fretenscher Tells How He Was Cured of Neuralgia of the Stomach—Great Benefit to Wife and Family. The following letter has been received from Mr. Frederick A. Fretenscher, a well known jeweller and engraver of Newark, N. J., and a member of the board of aldermen: "G. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: I give this statement for the benefit of other sufferers. I was in poor health, troubled with Neuralgia of the Stomach and had given up all hope of getting well. I had been doctored and tried many different remedies but all in vain. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me and I took four bottles of it. I feel like a new man again. It has Perfectly Cured Me. It has also done my wife and three children much good. They took it as a blood purifier. I will gladly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all who are afflicted with this disease."

YOUNG MEN TAKE WARNING. Alas, how prevalent are those distressing diseases and weaknesses which make young men prematurely old, pale, listless, low spirited, languid, easily tired, forgetful and incapable; fill mad-houses and swell the lists of suicides; separate husbands and wives; bring untold suffering to millions, even unto the third and fourth generations. The afflicted will recognize only to plain-ly to what class of maladies we refer. A complete and scientific treatise (sent only in plain sealed envelope) on receipt of ten cents, (the cost of postage,) if inclosed with this notice to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

OUTPUT OF THE MILLS. The Minneapolis, Minn., mills last week made next to their highest run, grinding 243,145 barrels of flour, or 43,175 barrels daily, says the Miller. This week there is a little less capacity in operation, but the output may not show much of a decrease. Some steam is being used, but not on account of the lack of water. The flour market is still characterized as being terrible dull, and not offering the least consolation for the manufacturer. In small lots, however, there is a good deal sold right along, the aggregate sales last week approaching 175,000 barrels. It is the unremunerative prices that have to be accepted which try the millers' souls.—Tribune.

Flower Show.
The fourth annual exhibition of the Frederick Floricultural Society was begun Wednesday in the large rink building, Frederick, and has scored a great success. It is one of the largest and finest exhibitions of chrysanthemums and cut flowers ever seen there, exhibits being made by both amateurs and professionals. An orchestra was stationed in the gallery and the building was crowded with spectators all day and evening.

Political Meetings.
A republican meeting was held in Gelwick's Hall last Friday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Hon. Milton G. Traer, of Frederick, was present and delivered an address on the issues of the campaign.

On last Saturday evening, a Democratic meeting was held in the Opera House. The question of tariff reform was discussed by Hon. Fred. J. Nelson, Dr. McGill, and Mr. J. Ritchie, of Frederick. The meeting was called to order by Vincent Sebald, Esq., and Mr. E. S. Tatey acted as chairman.

A Robbery in Carroll.
The store of John W. Nelson, Westminster, was entered by burglars between the hours of midnight on Saturday and Sunday morning. They had secured tools from the carriage works of Herr Bros., and pried off the fastening of the door. After securing $20 in money and a box of cigars they took a quantity of vegetables from the neighbor's gardens, and going over to the West End school house, cut a panel out of a shutter and opened a window and got in. As a number of school books were missing and burnt paper was found about the school room, it is supposed they built a fire and roasted the potatoes they had stolen.

Ringing Noises.
In the ears, sometimes a roaring, buzzing sound, are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood.

Hood's Pills are the best after dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation.

Death Instead of Marriage.
The funeral of Miss Rattie T. Miller, daughter of Mr. Benjamin H. Miller, of Sandy Spring, Montgomery county, took place Wednesday afternoon at the Friends Meeting-house, Sandy Spring, the interment being in the Friends' burying grounds. The funeral was the largest held in the county for years, being attended by about five hundred people. Miss Miller was to have been married last June to Professor Wm. Hull, of Swarthmore College. About two weeks before the wedding was to have occurred, Miss Miller was taken ill with the measles. This disease left her with a lingering fever, which ultimately caused her death. She was taken to Warrenton, Pa., for treatment, and was taken home in August apparently much improved. She was president of the Band of Hope, at Ashton, and a prominent teacher of the First Day school.

Haunted!
A haunted house in these practical and unromantic days is something of a rarity, but an individual haunted with the idea that his ailment is incurable is a personage frequently met with. Disbelief in the ability of medicine to cure is only a mild form of monomania, although in some cases repeated failures to obtain relief from many different sources would almost seem to justify the doubt. Hostetter's Stomach Bitter has demonstrated its ability to overcome dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, neuralgia, headache, and nervousness, and its recorded achievements in the curative line ought at least to warrant its trial by any one troubled with either of the above ailments, even although his previous efforts to obtain relief have been fruitless. Used with persistence the Bitter will conquer the most obstinate cases.

COUNTY AND STATE ELECTION.
Election in Emmitsburg District.—The County Republican—Wellington, Republican, Elected.—In the State.

The returns from Tuesday's election indicate heavy republican gains in nearly all the districts in Frederick county. Hon. Geo. L. Wellington, the republican candidate for congress in the sixth congressional district, was elected by a plurality of 2,966.

Keracofe, populist, 1. There were 18 spoiled tickets, and some person voted two tickets folded together, which was not detected by the ballot clerk. Two persons applied to vote who were registered, but whose names were not on the poll book. These names were accidentally omitted in transferring the names to the poll book.

The vote in Frederick county was as follows: Williams, democrat, 5,240; Wellington, rep., 5,818; Shoemaker, prohibition, 355; Keracofe, populist, 12; Wellington's plurality in the county is 578. A Child Drowned in a Slop-Barrel.
The particulars of a distressing accident which occurred at Lambson's Station, two miles from Galena, Kent county, on Friday afternoon, are as follows: The two-year-old son of John Reed was drowned in a slop or swill-barrel, within a few feet of the kitchen door of his home. The little fellow was accustomed to play around the premises unattended and without any one paying close attention to his movements. The fatal barrel was too high for him to reach from the ground, and danger from that source was never for a moment dreamed of. When last seen alive he was playing in the yard, near the door. This was about a quarter to 4 o'clock. About 4 o'clock his mother missed him, and called him, but receiving no answer she became alarmed, and began a search of the yards and the out-houses, but finding no trace of the missing child she hastened for her husband, who was husking corn nearby, in the field of Mr. Woodall. All the neighbors were notified and a systematic search was about to be made when Mrs. Erskine, a neighbor's wife, thought of the swill-barrel, and upon going straight to what had proved to be a deathtrap, was horrified to see the little fellow's feet protruding from the contents of the barrel. Mr. Reed pulled the unfortunate child from the barrel, but he was dead, having fallen in the swill quite or nearly two hours before. Near the barrel was a peach basket turned bottom up, and it is supposed that the child was standing on the bottom of the barrel, and lost his balance and fell in.

Hood's Cure in Baltimore.
"From a grateful heart I write what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. My husband's system was a total wreck and Hood's Sarsaparilla has done wonders for him. His face was pale and his hands and arms were numb. He had no appetite and would not sleep. I am taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for a stomach troubles and it has benefited me wonderfully and have gained in flesh. I have also given Hood's Sarsaparilla to my baby, now two years old, and she appears like a different child since she began taking it. She is growing fleshy and can walk better and looks the picture of health, while before taking Hood's Sarsaparilla she was pale and sickly."

Mrs. SCHULZING, 18 Loudon Ave., Millington, Baltimore, Md.

Savings Bank Losses.
The receivers of the Washington County Savings Institution say the loss to the depositors will amount to as much as 25 per cent. When the bank first went into the receivers' hands it was given out that the assets and liabilities were about equal, and that the loss to the depositors would not be more than 5 per cent, at the outside. As the investigation into the affairs of the institution proceeds the receivers find them more and more complicated, errors being found that were made by Treasurer Thomas Taggart as far back as five years. Some of the institution's money was loaned in Baltimore county. Some of its loans cannot be collected. The effects of Mr. Taggart will be sold at public sale next Tuesday. Before he died he made the request that the money derived from the sale be applied to the liquidation of the bank's debt.

Sunday School Convention.
The closing sessions of the State Sunday School Convention were held at Frederick, last Friday, and were largely attended. A large number of delegates, who had been delayed by threatening weather, arrived on the morning train. The devotional services at the morning session were conducted by the Rev. Dr. David J. Beale, of Frederick.

A conference on problems in the schools was then held. The subject of "Fardiness" was discussed by Mr. D. H. Wyan and others. An address on "How Should We Provide for Successors," was delivered by the Rev. Robert H. Williams, of Baltimore, and then Rev. Henry Branch, delivered an address on "The principles of teaching." A committee on resolutions was appointed, and Rev. Mr. Caton closed the session with a prayer for divine power in the Sunday School work.

Montgomery Court Decisions.
Judge James McSherry has filed an opinion in the case of Annie M. Hartford against James B. Henderson, which was argued in the Circuit Court Rockville last Saturday. The argument was heard on a motion to dissolve an injunction restraining James B. Henderson, assignee, from selling property under a mortgage from Kenneth Murchison to Daniel W. Brown. This land is a part of the Forest Glen subdivision, now owned by the Forest Glen Improvement Company, and the bill for injunctions was filed by Annie M. Hartford, the owner of the lots in the subdivision, who claimed that her interests would be injured by the sale of the balance of the property as a whole. The court decided that the injunction be dissolved and that Mrs. Hartford had a right of way from her lots to the Seventh street turnpike.

MEMORIAL PULPIT.
The Gift of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Miller—Old Documents Found Under the Old Pulpit.

The old pulpit which had been in the Lutheran church, in this place, for a great many years was taken out of the church last week, and replaced with a very handsome memorial pulpit of modern design. The platform on which the old pulpit stood was torn down and remodeled several weeks ago by Mr. Eugene E. Zimmerman. But owing to the new pulpit not arriving until last week, the old one was again placed in position and used until last Sunday, when the new one was used for the first time.

The new memorial pulpit is the gift of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Miller, of Baltimore, and was presented to the Lutheran church, in memory of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sheets, both of whom are buried in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pulpit is very handsome, and is made of black walnut, and has a natural finish. On top of it is a solid silver memorial plate, and a very pretty silk plush cushion adorns the pulpit. The gift is highly appreciated by the members of the church.

In tearing down the platform on which the old pulpit stood, a box was found which contained a lot of old papers and several articles concerning the remodeling of the church. These documents owing the great age they had attained, made them very interesting, and were much admired by all who were given the privilege of looking over them.

The names of the papers found in the box, together with the date of publication, follows, and the names which follow the year, were written on the margin of the papers: Baltimore Sun, Oct. 29, 1858, F. A. Row; Fredericktown Herald, Jan. 29, 1853, John Caff; Fredericktown Herald, Oct. 30, 1852, volume 1, No. 20, John Caff; American Messenger, Oct. 15, 1858, M. F. Eichelberger; Baltimore American and Commercial Advertiser, Oct. 23, 1858, J. Motter and Sons; Child's Paper, Oct. 1858, Sheets; Child's Paper, Oct. 1857, J. W. Eichelberger, Jr.; Lutheran Observer, Oct. 22, 1858, Jos. Rowe; German Reformed Messenger, Oct. 20, 1858, H. Motter; The Examiner, Oct. 27, 1858, J. Motter, H. S. Pearson and J. W. Eichelberger, clerks; Home Journal, Oct. 18, 1858, M. E. Eichelberger; Frederick Herald, Oct. 5, 1858, J. H. Motter; Youth's Penny Gazette, Sept. 29, 1858, Anna Eichelberger.

The following was written by Mr. Israel Gelwick, and was in a state of good preservation, and the penmanship is excellent:

"In the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and thirty-five the Lutheran and German Reformed Congregations convened in the Elias Church for the purpose of adopting ways and means for enlarging the church, it was unanimously agreed to, when Isaac Baugher and Joshua Motter were the appointed committee. James Storm and Joshua Shorb, Joiners; Solomon Slabaugh, Rev. Elias Heinener, German Reformed pastor; Rev. M. Finkle, Lutheran pastor.

Major Andrew Jackson, President of the U. S.

"Emmitsburg, Jan. 4th, 1836.

The following written by the late Mr. Eli Smith, was also found among the documents:

H. Stout and E. E. Zimmerman, written on the margin of the paper; Frederick Examiner, of Oct. 3, 1894, and the Lutheran Observer, of Oct. 5, 1894, F. A. FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

FAIRFIELD, PA., Nov. 6.—Mr. Robert Sanders, who was living in Mr. W. C. Roger's house, in Fairfield, moved last Tuesday in the house formerly occupied by Mrs. Thomas Stoops, on Centennial street, close to the blacksmith shop, which he is carrying on, being a smith by occupation.

Mrs. Frank Manshan, of Highland township, is spending sometime at Westminster, Md.

The weather is much cooler and more healthy winter is approaching.

Mr. Adam Diehl, of York, is a visitor to this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sefton, of Anderson, Pa., are visiting at this place.

Mrs. W. C. Rogers, of Fairfield, in looking over her strawberry bed noticed several stalks that had the second crop of strawberries, some of which were ripe and some were yet green and others were in blossom. The seasons are quite different from what they were forty years ago. The falls are about two months later than years ago, and every generation is getting weaker and wiser it seems everything else is changing.

Mr. John Marshall, of this place, and a Mr. Sanders, a drover of Franklin county, came near drowning on Saturday in crossing the creek at Mr. Diehl's mill, in Liberty township. The water running over the top of the boggy wheels and the current being very strong, it carried their horse and boggy down the stream a short distance. However, the horse plunging, brought them safely to the bank, although they received a good "ducking."

Serious Case of Hazing.

It was learned Thursday evening that a serious, and probably fatal, case of hazing took place at the agricultural College a few days ago. The victim, Edward Gott, Jr., son of Edward Gott, who will be secretary of state shortly, is lying critically ill from the rough treatment received from the hands of his fellow students in the preparatory class. It appears that the young men, in innocent sport, organized a court, and young Gott was indicted for a heinous offense, convicted and sentenced to be hanged. A large rope was procured and securely fastened around his arms and pillows being placed between the rope and his body, the rope thrown through a transom and young Gott proceeded to pay the penalty of his crime. Young Gott was very much frightened, but offered no resistance, and was apparently unharmed. He was down to breakfast next morning, but later in the day taken violently ill and since that time has been in a serious condition. He has had several spasms, and grows weaker as the result of each. Mr. Edwin Gott was telegraphed for at Annapolis, and went over to the college. The young man is too ill to be taken to his home at West River. About five or six of the members of the preparatory class, who are known to be implicated in the hazing, are being kept in close confinement, awaiting the result of the hazing. The affair has cast a decided gloom over the faculty and whole school. This is the first case of hazing of a serious nature that has occurred at the college for a number of years, and much sympathy is expressed for the young men involved. It is asserted that the hazing had nothing to do with the young man's illness further than to excite his nervous system, brought on by an aggravated case of the kidneys, from which young Gott is said to be a sufferer.—American.

THE MORNING BATH.

An Essential to Perfect Health, and it is becoming Popular.

There was a time, not so long ago when Americans, otherwise well trained, did not appreciate the virtues of the daily bath—a thing which in one form or another is as necessary to personal neatness and self-respect as the washing of the face and the wearing of clean clothes.

While the young American bicyclists, Messrs. Allen and Sachtleben, were crossing the desert of Gobi they heard much of a mysterious and powerful official called the Ling Darin. No one could tell who or what he was.

There are pink and white skins which indicate some form of disease, but there can be no really beautiful pearl and rose complexion of health without a daily bath to cleanse and freshen the surface of the body.

A brisk rubbing with a big bath towel rouses the glow that prevents cold taking. A little ammonia poured into the water is a good thing; so is the use of plenty of soap.
