READ the new advertisement of Mr.
Frank Rowe, which appears in another column. He is offering to the public a large lot of very fine slipper at cost, in order to make room for his fall and winter goods.

DEPUTY Sheriff James Harley took from the Maryland Hospital for the Insane, at Catonsville, nine inmates placed by the doctor and took them to Bellevue Asylum, near Hagerstown.
Some of the inmates were at the hospital twenty years and all were pronounced incurable. The object in putting them at Bellevue is to save the county expense. One of the inmates refused to go with the officer and was left at the hospital.

The Keystone of the Arch.

In the office of health is vigor, which means not merely muscular energy, but an active discharge of the various functions of the body, such as digestion, secretion of the bile, the action of the bowels, the circulation of the blood. Nothing more actively and thoroughly contributes to the unimpeded performance of these functions than the renowned tonic and regulator, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The result of its use is a speedy gain in strength, together with the agreeable consciousness that one is laying up a store of vitality against the inevitable difficulties which old age makes upon the system.
The fortifying influence of the bitters constitutes it a reliable safeguard against malaria, rheumatism and kidney trouble. Appetite and sleep improve through its use, and it protects the system from the effects of cold and damp.

The heavy rain storms of the past two weeks have prolonged the wheat and grass harvests, and have been, in general, a great inconvenience to the farmers in gathering their crops.

The Teacher's Convention at Blue Mountain House, appointed a commissioner to secure legislation looking to the establishment of public libraries throughout the state as aids to the public schools.

ing held on Tuesday evening decided not to hold any meetings during August and September. There will be no more meetings in this month. The next meeting will be held on the second Tuesday in October.

During the heavy rain storm that passed over Frederick county last Friday evening, the house of Scott Derr, near Feagville, was struck by lightning and seriously damaged. Mrs. Derr, who was in the house at the time, was stunned by the shock.

The price of wheat dropped 24 cents per bushel in Baltimore on Monday.
The closing price at the Flour and Corn Exchange was 67¢ per bushel. The new wheat crop, which is expected to be quite large, is the cause of the declined in price.

Our enterprising furniture dealer and undertaker, M. F. Shuff, of this place, has added to his line of business, bicycles, and will have in stock at all times new and good second hand wheels of leading makes,

A GERMAN carp, measuring thirty-five inches in length, and weighing 16 pounds was caught recently in Stonesifer's milldam in Taneytown district. As far as known, it was the largest fish ever caught in the waters of Carroll county.

A TEMPERANCE mass meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, in this place, on next Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. Full explanation of the "Local Veto Bill." Addresses will be delivered by Prof. Irving Strayer, of Baltimore, Revs. W. Simonton and Charles Reinwald. All are invited.

A Surprise Party.

A surprise party was given at Mr.
David Geise's on Tuesday evening by a party of friends. The evening was very pleasantly spent. Notwithstanding the surprise Mr. Geise did everything in his power to entertain his guests in a very elaborate manner. The guests were well pleased with the hospitalities that Mr. Geise tendered them.

Mad Dog.

A dog belonging to Mr. Singleton Dorsey, residing at the mountain west of town, went mad last Friday morning and was killed after it had bitten several other animals. It is reported that the dog bit two cows belonging to Mr.
Dorsey, and a dog owned by Mr. Wm.
Long. The dog has since been killed.

A FRACAS occurred between two women in Wilson's district, Washington county, early this week, which was at first deemed of little importance, but the affair may take a serious turn, as a wound received by one causes fears for her life. Her name is Anna Bower, and she was hit upon the head with a garden rake. Mrs. David Halbut had a hearing before Magistrate Huyette, on the charge of committing the assault.

Canal Trade at Williamsport.

Collector Geo. W. McCardell, of Williamsport, sent in his report of business for the month of June to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal trustees.
The total amount of tonnage for June was 10,184.02 tons. The miscellaneous tonnage amounted to 322.15 tons. The collections for the month amounted to $2,610.44. This report shows clearly the increase at this point in business along the old waterway. It is an increase of 5,328.10 tons over the amount of tonnage shipped during the same month of last year, and the collections show an increase of $1,385.47 over those of June, 1894. Ninety-five boats arrived and discharged their cargoes during the month, making an average discharge of four cargoes per day. The contract to supply the Western Maryland Railroad with coal has again been given to Messrs. Steffy & Findlay and Cushman & Sons for this year. They will use from 2,000 to 3,000 tons per month, which will all be supplied by boat via the canal to Williamsport.

Mrs. SPONSELLER, wife of Joseph Sponseller, who lives a few miles east of Frederick, was badly bitten on the hand on Saturday morning by a large copper-head snake, which was coiled up in a wood box in the kitchen. Her screams summoned the assistance of her husband, who readily dispatched the serpent and summoned medical aid.

On Monday afternoon John Constance, colored, while helping Messrs.
Patterson Bros., to haul wheat met with an accident which resulted in knocking the skin off of John's nose. This is how it happened. Harry Bollinger caught hold of the tie pole and in his endeavor to pull it down and fasten it, the pole broke, knocking John from the wagon. He fell on his face.

Shortly before midnight last Friday night, John Curtis, a night watchman at the Crawford Bicycle Works, Hagerstown, shot Charles E. Babylon, another watchman. The affair was accidental.
Curtis, a new man, mistaking Babylon for a burglar. The wound is in the groin, and may or may not develop conditions which will make it dangerous to the unfortunate man's life.

EMMITSBURG, this county, was the scene last week of many school commencement exercises—those of St. Eu-phemia's white and colored schools, St.
Joseph's Academy, and Mt. St. Mary's College. Excellent programs were prepared at all of them and the scholars acquired themselves admirably.
Emmitsburg as a seat of learning is thus surpassed by very few places in this county.—Frederick Citizen.

On last Saturday whilst Clarence McCarren, son of Charles McCarren, of near town, and Wm. Gillelan, of this place, were driving toward the railroad depot at a very rapid gait the two wagons collided in front of the creamery. The McCarren wagon was upset, and several cans of milk and about ten dozen of eggs were thrown to the ground. Some milk was spilled and the eggs were broken.

druggists. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only.

MISS MARTINA WHITE, a graduate of the Baltimore School of Expression, will give a lecture on "Vocal Expression" next Saturday evening, at Mt.
St. Mary's Hall, at 8 o'clock. Miss White will also give selections both comic and serious. She will be assisted by one of her pupils in the Delsarte movements. In addition to the lecture there will be also a humorous musical programme. Admission free and all are invited.

Against the Esler Bowman Faction.
The trustees of St. Paul's Evangelical Church of Hagerstown have filed a suit in the Court of Equity to oust Rev. J.
L. Miller, of the Esler Bowman faction, from the pastorate. The suit is brought by Rev. W. C. Griffith. A. C. Strite, attorney, claims the true claim in the deed for the property is invalid. The plaintiffs represent the Dubs faction, who were ousted last winter by a decree of Judge Stake, who determined that the Church and parsonage belong to the Esler Bowman faction.

Officers Elected.

Emmitsburg Council, No. 53, Jr. O.
U. A. M., recently elected the following officers: Junior Past Councilor, Wm. J. Stansbury; Councilor, Yost O.
Harbaugh; Vice-Councilor, Wm. Fair; Recording Secretary, Wm. D. Colli-flower; Assistant Secretary, John F.
Adelsberger; Conductor, Charles R.
Landers; Warden J. Singleton Dorsey; Outside Sentinel, Holland Went; Inside Sentinel, John P. Moser; Chaplain, Philip N. Stansbury; Trustees, Robert F. Zentz, H. A. Naylor, Denton Wachter.

One of the largest fires which has occurred in Waynesboro for fine years destroyed the building of the Waynesboro cannery factory Monday evening.
The fire had gained considerable headway before discovered and was beyond control before the fire company could arrive. The loss on building and fixtures is about $8,000. Insurance $3,500 on stock, $2,000 on building, and the Western Maryland Railroad about $3,500 for cars destroyed. The building was probably set on fire by incendiaries.

A FIRE from spontaneous combustion.
The village of Elam, West of Oxford, Pa., narrowly escaped destruction by fire Tuesday evening. The fire originated from spontaneous combustion, caused by green hay in the barn on the Paxson estate. The flames spread to the store building, blacksmith shop and other buildings. All were damaged and saved except the barn, which was burned to the ground. The store is conducted by Allen Brown, who moved from Rock Springs, Cecil county, Md., last spring to Elam. He is making repairs to the store building and had placed several hundred dollars' worth of goods in the barn on storage, which were burned. Mr. Brown had started for Peach Bottom after a load of lumber, and when a mile or more away saw the fire. He was so excited he left his team in the road and ran across the field. On reaching the orchard he fell exhausted and remained insensible for some hours.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

St. Joseph, Mo.

Death Relieved His Suffering.

Mr. Jacob Slagle Gelwicks, an aged and well-known citizen of this place, died at his residence on East Main Street at an early hour on Wednesday morning, after a lingering illness. In the eighty-second year of his age.
Nearly five years ago Mr. Gelwicks was stricken with paralysis, and ever since that affliction befell him, he has been a helpless invalid, being confined to the bed nearly all that time and was as helpless as a child, having very little or no power over his limbs, and for some time past could not move without assistance.
Mr. Gelwicks patiently endured his sad affliction, and no doubt looked forward to the time when the end would come, and he would be relieved of his suffering forever, and received into that haven of eternal joy and happiness, with a glad heart. To him death must have been a welcome visitor. Mr. Gelwicks' wife preceded him to the unknown world a number of years ago.
He leaves seven children, viz: Messrs.
George T., Joseph T., James K., Daniel R., Cornelius Gelwicks, of this place, William Gelwicks, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Charles S. Zeck, of this place.

His funeral took place at the M. E.
Church on Thursday afternoon. The services were conducted by the Rev.
Wm. Simonton, D. D., and Rev. Charles Reinwald.

Massasoit Tribe, No. 41, I. O. R. M., of which Mr. Gelwicks was a member, attended the funeral and took part in the services.

Had Checks Cashed.

The Frederick correspondent to the Baltimore Sun, under date of July 8, writes: Wm. C. Grimes, claiming Gaithersburg, Md., as his home, came to Frederick on Saturday and purchased two suits of clothes from B. Rosenour & Sons, together with a number of other articles of apparel. After securing what he desired Grimes produced a number of checks and offered one drawn by D. G. Carlisle, of Gaithersburg, in payment, receiving the difference in the amount in cash. He also had the firm cash one drawn on Jesse Rabbitt, of Rockville, Md. As he had purchased goods before from them, they felt no hesitancy in accepting the checks, as the alleged makers were well-known business men. Sunday morning Grimes hired a horse and buggy from Sinn's livery stable for a short drive, but had not returned yet this evening.
Growing suspicious, Mr. Sinn made inquiry and learning the party had checks cashed, concluded they were forgeries, as he had requested him to cash a few. Upon examining the checks they were both numbered 94, and, apparently, both drawn by the same person. Mr. Rosenour telegraphed to Mr. Carlisle, who replied pronouncing them forgeries.

Nervousness and Headache.

"I have been sick for two years and the doctors call my trouble nervousness and hysteria. I suffered terribly with my head and could not sleep, I had a burning sensation, and felt as though pins and needles were sticking in my head. I was very weak and could not eat. I tried various remedies but none did me any good. I was finally advised to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I am now on my fourth bottle and I am feeling stronger, have a good appetite and am able to sleep well at night." Mrs. Mary Smith, 2043 East Eager Street, Baltimore, Md.

Knocked in the Head.

Frederick city will not celebrate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of that city, as proposed. The project has been knocked in the head. This decision was reached at a meeting of the committee on Thursday evening.
The trouble was caused by many of the citizens of Frederick failing to take an active interest in the movement, and the committee to collect funds to be used in carrying the undertaking to a grand consummation, met with blank failure on nearly every hand.

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

FAIRFIELD, Pa., July 9.—Mrs. Amos Manherz, of York, and Mrs. George Manherz, of Waynesboro, are visitors to this place.

Messrs. Walter and Lower brought a fine lot of cattle from Virginia. Shul-ley and Riley purchased some of the cattle. Walter and Lower have no trouble to sell their cattle.

The farmers in this vicinity, have quite a lot of wheat to cut yet, on account of the fields being too wet and to soft admit the using of binders.

Mr. John M. Musselman, one of our merchants, has been on the sick list for several weeks. It is hoped that he may soon recover, as he is greatly missed.

Mr. Martin Myers, one of our masons, got lime in one of his eyes sometime ago, and last week he went to the city and had the eye taken out.

The G. A. R. of Fairfield, will likely hold their annual bean soup on the third Saturday in August. The date has not yet been selected.

It seems that the supervisors of Liberty township, Pa., have purchased a stone crusher. It was shipped to the Fairfield Station. The citizens of the township have gotten up a petition protesting against the purchasing of the machine, however, the supervisors have received the crusher, from the fact that they have taken it off the cars at the Station. A law suit will probably be the result, which will cost both company and township about the price of the crusher. It seems that the supervisors are in the habit of acting without consulting the citizens. The supervisors of Hamilton township purchased a crusher without asking the tax-payers whether or not they wanted one. The crusher certainly does good work, but whether the machine will prove a saving to the tax-payers will be found out during the year.

The Christian Endeavor Society held a social at the residence of Mr. F. Shul-ley. About thirty-two members met and a pleasant evening was certainly spent. The young folks indulged in games of various kinds, and their sweet voices could be heard at a distance.
The home was tastefully decorated and brilliantly illuminated with Japanese lanterns. Later in the evening the visitors were escorted to tables well filled with cakes, lemonade, and etc., which was greatly enjoyed by the young people. Each member brought something to be placed on the table.
Your correspondent was not left.
The chairman of the society, Miss Belle Sefton, deserves much credit, as she conducted everything just right, and saw that every person was helped to refreshments. Ladies call soon again.

Firemen Engage in Battle.

A fire broke out in a small frame residence on Bentz street Frederick, last Friday morning, during the progress of which the members of the Junior and Independent Fire Companies got into a quarrel. A water battle ensued, which threatened at one time to result in a riot. The Mayor and all the police were summoned to the scene, but were powerless to do anything, the firemen openly defying them. Several bricks were thrown, but no one was seriously hurt. The burning house was occupied by a colored man, John Diggs, and family.
The roof was burned off and the building drenched with water. The house adjoining, occupied by Westley Brown, was also drenched with water during the water battle and almost ruined.
Several of those who participated in the riot were arrested and fines imposed upon them.—American.

Reformed Re-Union at Pen-Mar.

The sixth annual re-union of the Reformed church at Pen-Mar, will take place on Thursday, July 18 with the following program: Vocal Solo, Prof. D. E. Roberts, Maryland; Invocation, Rev. Dr. J.
C. Miller, York; Greeting, Rev. J. B.
Shontz, Chambersburg; Address, Rev.
Miles O. Noel, Carlisle; Address, Rev.
W. E. Hoy, Sendai, Japan; Address, Rev. Dr. G. B. Russell, Zollinger; Vocal Solo, Prof. Roberts; Prayer, Rev. Dr. T.
J. Barkley. An orchestral concert will be given by the Second Reformed Church Orchestra of Harrisburg. Excursion trains will be run from all points.

A Strike in McSherrystown.

Cigar makers in the employ of Charles L. Busby of McSherrystown, are on a strike because of a reduction in their wages of fifty cents a thousand. They had been receiving $6 a thousand and Mr. Busby notified them that he could not afford to pay more than $5.50. His employees are members of the Union and were instructed by it to resist the reduction. The effort of Mr. Busby to secure non union hands was not successful, and the lock-out is complete. An effort is being made by S. L. Johns and representatives of the Union to adjust the difficulty.—Star and Sentinel.

A Suicide.

Information has reached Frederick of the death by suicide of Joseph Wagner, son of Isaac Wagner, who resides on the old Putnam farm, a short distance from Woodboro, this county. The unfortunate man was found hanging in a feeding room Tuesday afternoon by his wife in a lifeless condition. The exact time that he died was committed or the cause which prompted it cannot be surmised, as so far as is known nothing has been found that would give any reason for the rash act. The deceased was a young man between twenty-five and thirty years of age. He was married and leaves a wife and several children.—News.

The Deadly Kerosene.

The Waynesboro Gazette says: Mrs.
Annie Parvance, chief cook at the Hotel National, went to light her fire with the aid of kerosene the other morning, not knowing that there were some live coals in the ash pan which she had shaken down with the cinders some time before. The result was a sudden explosion and a badly burned face, hands and arms. Her eyebrows were burned off and her hair singed to the scalp. Her condition is still quite serious, her face being badly swollen.
The accident was very unfortunate, and the only palliating thing is that it might have been worse.

LITTLESTOWN, PA. ITEMS.

LITTLESTOWN, July 10.—A very distressing accident occurred here on Saturday, John, son of Geo. Dutera, of Silver Run, Md., aged about 18 years, was unloading some oats at Star and Sunder's warehouse when the log by which he was standing became loose and striking the young man on the head and driving his eye into an iron rod on the edge of the wagon bed, cutting his cheek and bursting the right eye ball.
Dr. Foreman dressed the wound and will accompany the boy to Baltimore in a few days and have the eye removed.

Miss Lettie Angell, of Baltimore, is the guest of her uncle, Mr. A. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Eline, of this place, and Mrs. Sneed and Mrs.
D. E. Keefe, of Bunker Hill, Ill., who are visiting here, spent Sunday in Emmitsburg, Md.

Thos. Eckenrode and wife spent Sunday among relatives in this place.

Miss Peeries Long visited in Columbia the past week.

Monday morning, at Mr. Appleman, section boss, was coming to town he discovered a man lying along the P. R. R. bleeding very profusely. He summoned Dr. Foreman, but the man was dead when he arrived. He had slept in Chas. Dutera's barn, with some other tramps. No one seemed to know the man.
He was a young man, well dressed and genteel looking
