OTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word

"Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth trawing. They are facts.

OUR LETTER FROM FREDERICK.

Cutting Afiray .- 3,000 Tons of Rock Loos ed by One Discharge .-- Arrested on Charge of Embezzlement. FEEDERICK, April 22.—Quite a serious cutting affray occurred on "Saint" Street, near the B. and O., depot in this city, on Friday night last.

The account of the fracas is to the effect that one Charles Barnes, colored, who keeps a saloon or eating house near by, attacked and cut and stabbed Nick Robinson, also colored, in several places. It seems that Robinson was in Barnes' saloon and a difficulty arose between the two men. In the fight which ensued Barnes used a razor or sharp knife upon Robinson with terrible effect. One wound was four inch es long, there was also an ugly cut near the jugular vein and two or three stabs in the body. Robinson fainted from loss of blood and was removed to his home. Barnes was arrested and com-

LOVE AND ROSES.

A wild rose drank of the morning dew,
A wild rose smiled at the morning sun,
A wild rose dreamed the warm day through, A wild rose died when the day was done.

And ever the rose was fair, was sweet, And ever the rose was shy, But a rose's life, like a dream, is fleet, And a rose in a day will die.

It fell on a day that love once grew In the loam of the heart like a rose, Like a rose it smiled in the morning dew, Like a rose it died at the sweet day's close.

And ever the love was fair, was sweet, And ever the love was shy,

But the life of love, like a rose, is fleet,

And a love in a day will die.

Superstitions About the Weather. Popular superstititions about the weather linger long, and in spite of the teachings of science people persist in be-lieving that seaweed hung up in a backyard will become damp at the approach of rain, or that a similar indication is to be found in the fact that a pig is seen chewing straw. Mr. Richard Inwards, macy and confidence that existed between the president of the Meteorological society, it is needless to say, has no belief whatever in such methods of prophesyrespective lives. "An unadulterated fallacy," such is what Mr. Inwards calls it, yet in spite of the evidence accumulated upon the subject by the Meteorological office, people go on putting faith in it as though there were no such thing as experience. Then, again, it is said that a full moon will clear away clouds, and that a change of moon on a Saturday or a Sunday is an indication of floods, although not a little evidence in favor of either belief has ever been adduced.-London News.

SOME SIGNS OF APPROACHING AGE. How a Man Showed That He Was Growing

A man, apparently slightly past midgray and noticeably thin on top, sat near me at a theater. As the curtain rose for the first time a spectacled man of about the same age entered and occupied the vacant seat between us. He looked at the other fixedly. The look was exchanged, and in a second each had the other cordially by the hand. The conversation told that they had been schoolmates who had not met in many years.

"By Jove, Charlie," exclaimed the first, "it does me good to see you. You "I told you so," said the man who had first cast his eyes in that direction, and I am not a day older than when we are first cast his eyes in that direction, got our diplomas.'

"I can't quite agree with you, Tom," answered the other, "but I don't feel very old yet. I see you still enjoy the theater, and I suppose you have kept up your literary tastes for the past 30 years. "Thirty years!" repeated Tom. "How the years fly! Do you remember how they used to drag? Theaters! Well, I do go now and then, but the plays and acting are not what they used to be. As to EVERY FRIDAY MORNI books, I still read them, but none of the modern trash. There hasn't been a good book written for a quarter of a century. The new ones give me the dyspepsia worse than what I eat. Do you remember the meals we had on the old Vermont farm? Those were happy days. Thirty years and more ago! Strange, but I don't show a sign of age. I wonder where this confounded draft is coming from. I feel neuralgia on top of my head now.

"Tom, old boy," replied the other, "you are deceiving yourself, for you have shown marked signs of approaching age within three minutes. Your belief that theaters and actors have degenerated, that new books are below the standard, that childhood cooking was perfection and that time flies so very fast are all indications that you are on the down hill side of life. The slight promptly, "inspired idiots. You see, we draft that you say brings a tinge of neuralgia to the top of your head, where, I notice, the hair is rather thin, wouldn't have been thought of 30 years ago. Then here you are in the very front seat of a theater. No use denying the signs, Tom. We are getting along and must admit what others plainly see."-New York Herald.
