

A TUNNEL RAILROAD TO BROOKLYN.

The New York and Brooklyn Railroad Company filed its certificate of incorporation in the county clerk's office Wednesday. It is formed to operate a tunnel railroad between the two cities and its term of life is fifty years. The length of the railroad is specified as two miles. The New York end is to be at a point near Broadway and somewhere between Canal street and South Ferry. The Brooklyn end is to be near Fulton street, at a point between the city hall and the East river.

The company is capitalized at only $20,000 and the capital stock is all subscribed. It is divided in 200 shares of $100 each. The directors for the first year are ex-Gov. Alonzo B. Cornell, Benjamin S. Henning, Otto Andrae, Jr., Fritz Hill, John D. Miller, Jr., Paul C. Schnitzer, Sutherland R. Haxtun, E. R. Hoadley and Irving Washburn. The office is to be in New York city. The subscribers, who have taken all the stock, are the directors already named, together with Wm. S. Opdyke, Thomas R. White, Jr., William E. Bond, of New Canaan, Conn., Frederick W. Longfellow, Thomas J. Curran and H. A. Van Lieu.

SAVED IN JUDGE LYNCH'S COURT.

One of the most remarkable sessions of Judge Lynch's court ever held in Georgia was that in Effingham county last week. Saturday Capt. G. H. Berry was assassinated by somebody unknown. There was reason to believe that a negro named Henry Goldwire was guilty of the crime, and the circumstantial evidence against him was pretty strong. Saturday night thirty armed men went from Guyton to Goldwire's home, got him out of his cabin and charged him with complicity in the assassination. Although the evidence was very strong against him, it was decided to give him a fair trial. His father and mother begged for such a trial. They were formerly slaves in the Berry family and loved Captain Berry, they said, and if it were true that their son was guilty of the murder they wanted to see him punished. Goldwire was allowed to send for witnesses, and the result was that he proved a complete alibi. He was then turned free.—Sun.

SOFT COAL TRADE.

It is authentically stated that a plan is on foot to combine all the coal companies operating in the George's Creek region. It is claimed that while this region is the oldest large coal supply, and the tonnage has increased until it now amounts to fully 4,000,000 tons per annum, including the Davis tonnage, newer districts turn out an equal tonnage, which is marketed by a single firm or agency at a much less cost per ton than is achieved by the majority of the twelve large Cumberland operators, whose average tonnage, it will be seen, is only about 300,000 tons. It is claimed that all the business of the region could just as easily be handled through one office and thus the expense of maintaining many headquarters and officials could be done away with. The tonnage of the George's Creek region at present is divided—about thirty-five per cent. to the Pennsylvania Railroad and sixty-five per cent. to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and the Chesapeake and Ohio canal.

THE GIRLS ARE IN THE WAY.

In the October Ladies' Home Journal Edward W. Bok editorially discusses the complaint of certain authors, that young girls stand in our way of having a strong forceful literature. They argue that these offending young girls constitute the majority of book-buyers and readers, and that they insist upon having "smooth, pretty and conventional reading matter." Mr. Bok is evidently disposed to treat this protest in a facetious spirit, pointing out to the writers how they can pursue literature in accord with their own desires and aims, without disturbing the young girls, or publishers either.

"It is very strange," Mr. Bok well says, "that certain of our authors should so constantly complain of being circumscribed in this matter of writing about 'the great truths of life' and the problems of humankind." There is no reason why they should feel so. The world is large, and all ways are open to those who wish to travel them. If authors want to go into the darkest and vilest sewers of human life why should they not? Every man is his own master. And after any author with such a 'mission' has thoroughly saturated himself with the atmosphere of the places he has sought, then let him write of them. He will not offend any one. No one will disturb him—least of all, the publishers. Certainly the young girl will not. Refined and well-bred women will not annoy him. Decent men will not obstruct themselves upon him; they are busy with weightier affairs. So, why should not the author anxious to solve 'the problems of life' go ahead and solve them? There is no reason on earth why he should feel any sort of thralldom. His facts are to be had for the experience; ink and paper for a few cents. Beyond that, he need feel no anxiety. He need not worry about tyranny; there will be none. He need only satisfy himself; no one else. Not a human being will obstruct his going. And if, here and there, a stray specimen of the dreaded young girl happens across his path, he need give himself no uneasiness of mind. She will get out of his way. So, why this complaining?"

It Goes Without Saying that when you are suffering from catarrh, you want relief right away. What is the use then of experimenting with blood "cures" upon a climatic disease? Use a local remedy. Use Ely's Cream Balm, which relieves at once the attacks of catarrh and cures chronic cases. This remedy can be used by all without injurious results. It contains no mercury nor injurious drug of any kind.

A Pastor's Long Service.

A reunion was held in St. John's Reformed Church, Clear Spring, in commemoration of the thirty-first anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Wm. Goodrich, who was assisted in the services by the Rev. Dr. J. Spangler Kiefer, of Hagerstown. Dr. Kiefer reviewed the events in Rev. Mr. Goodrich's pastorate. The Rev. Mr. Goodrich had just returned from Bloomsburg, Pa., where a reunion was held in the church of which he was pastor before he went to Clear Spring, forty-three years ago. He is now seventy-one years old and is the oldest member of Maryland Reformed Church and has been the longest time in one pastorate.

A California man, despondent because of bad health, and having conscientious scruples against suicide, made a harrowing confession of a murder, filling it in with horrible details, in hopes of being lynched. It is doubtful if a brain of any but American ingenuity could have conceived such a plan of leaving life. He was disappointed, however, by the law-abiding sentiment of the community, which he had hoped to stir up.—American.

THE BUTTON OMAZE.

The button craze has become so marked among the pupils in the Hoboken, N. J., schools that President Edward Ross, of the school board, has decided to suppress it. The principals of the schools have notified the janitors to stand at the front entrances of the building in the morning and compel the children to remove the buttons.

WANAMAKER'S LARGE PURCHASE.

John Wanamaker has purchased the entire business establishment of Hilton, Hugos & Co., New York, the great dry goods house founded by A. T. Stewart & Co., and will conduct a store in the metropolis on the same lines that have made his Philadelphia house so successful. The price paid was over $2,000,000, it is said. This will give him the largest retail establishment in the world. Robt. C. Ogden will manage the New York house.

Marry This Girl, Somebody!

I have been reading in your paper about several men and women that have been very successful in selling self-heating iron, and I concluded I would see what a girl could do. I have worked 12 days and have sold 1200 of them. I have not left after paying all expenses. Everybody is delighted with the iron and I sell one almost every place I show it, as people think they can't afford to be without one, as they save so much fuel and time. I have made $1000 in 12 days. How is that for a girl? A GRADUATE. I am a girl, splendid. You are a true American girl. Anyone can get complete information about the self-heating iron by addressing J. P. CASEY & CO., St. Louis, Mo. It seems to be a winner, as everybody selling it writes in its praise.

It has come to the notice of the Hagerstown authorities that a regular organized band of thieves, having headquarters in town, are committing all kind of depredations in that vicinity, and they are so systematic in their work that they take a horse and wagon to haul their plunder in.—Williamsport Transcript.

The Tyranny of the Desk.

We will suppose that your occupation is sedentary—that you are chained, so to speak, to the desk in some counting house, or perhaps to the loom in some vast mill where you are compelled to labor from morning till night. Sunday is your only day of relaxation. You return home every evening weary mentally and bodily. Your health and strength begin to fail. What can most effectively recuperate your vital energy? The weight of evidence points to no other conclusion than that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is your safest most reliable sheet anchor. Use it persistently, and your system will soon regain its pristine vigor. Every function will receive a healthy impulse. There is no remedy so equal to the Bitters for nervousness and want of sleep, dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. It cures and removes all forms of malarial disease, and is a preventive of rheumatism and neuralgia.

Republican Meeting.

A Republican meeting is advertised to be held at Gelwicks' Hall, this place, under the auspices of the McKinley, Hobart and McDonald Club, this Friday evening. Reno S. Harp, Esq., of Frederick, will discuss the issues of the campaign.

Political.

On last Friday evening Rev. J. B. Kerschner delivered an address before the McKinley, Hobart and McDonald Club, in Gelwicks' Hall, this place.

At a meeting of the Bryan and Sewall Democratic Club held in the Opera House, this place, last Saturday evening, Dr. James A. Mitchell, president of the club, delivered an address.

That Joyful Feeling

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old-time medicines and the cheap substitutes sometimes offered but never accepted by the well-informed.

The four-horse farm team of Major E. Y. Goldsborough, frightened at the electric car on West Patrick street, Frederick, one day last week and ran away. The two lead horses ran into a tree in front of the store of G. Hoskins Morgan, at the top of the hill and were separated. No great damage was done.

On Tuesday and Wednesday the officers of registration for Emmitsburg District registered 170. The total number registered is 756, of this number 12 were stricken off Wednesday and 8 were placed on the suspect list, making the number of qualified voters to date 736.

Lewis Yeager Crushed to Death.

Lewis Yeager, aged about twenty-two years, was killed in the new yards, in South Cumberland, about 11:30 o'clock last Thursday night while filling the tender of a locomotive at the coal chutes. The locomotive was started accidentally, and Mr. Yeager was caught between the tender and the chute and crushed.

Kissed Three Men and Got 7 Days in Jail.

Justice J. E. Young, of Hagerstown, Monday night sent Susan Barger, a white woman, to jail for seven days for kissing three colored men on the street. Justice J. H. Beachley dismissed the case against Frank H. Walker, colored, for kissing on the same night Mrs. Nora Meads, white, who was walking along the street. Mrs. Meads refused to appear against Walker.—Sun.

Good Marksmen.

Colonel Heywood, commander of the United States marine corps, recognizes the marine guard at the Naval Academy Annapolis, as the best in the service as far as marksmanship is concerned. He sent Capt. M. C. Goodrell, assistant adjutant and inspector, to the Academy barracks to witness target practice, and Captain Goodrell went away satisfied that the Annapolis boys can do good work with the rifle. About 80 per cent. is the average of those who engage in the practice. Among the leading shots are Sergeant Stephens and Musician Mance, both of whom made 22 out of a possible 25 at the last target shooting; Sergeants Mays and Long, Corporals Spangler and Sullivan and Privates Parrell, Boisseau and Creighton. Lieutenant Doyen is also considered a good shot and frequently strikes the "bull's eye."

Free Delivery.

The Postoffice Department has selected Carroll county, in Maryland, as the place for an experimental free delivery system. The last postoffice appropriation bill set aside about $40,000 to be expended in rural free delivery experiments. The system involves the selection of some leading town in the county selected, which is made the distributing point for the county delivery. A carrier is appointed, who is paid from $200 to $400 per annum. The carriers make one delivery on his route every day. The route includes every available farm or hamlet in the county, as it is the ambition and the purpose of the rural delivery system almost as complete as that furnished in the cities. Out of the salary paid to him by the department the carrier is expected to furnish his own horse or bicycle, as it is plainly impossible for any man to cover the vast territory involved in his district alone. The system will be started in Carroll county in a short time.—Examiner.

A Dandy Windmill, Make It Yourself.

I have a neighbor that made one of the People's Windmills, and I have been watching it closely. It is the best mill I have ever seen and anyone can make one for less than $10. I am going to make two immediately and don't see why every farmer cannot have a windmill when he can make it himself for so little money. The mill is durable, powerful and runs easily. Any person can get diagrams and complete directions by sending in two-cent stamps to E. D. WILSON & CO., Allegheny, Pa., and any active man can undoubtedly make money anywhere putting these mills up for others, and I see no use of paying $30 or $50 for a mill when you can make one just as good for $10. Phenomenal Tides.

The high-water marks of several extraordinarily high tides have been kept at East Point, St. Michael's and Oxford, Md. What is known as the "centennial tide" of September, 1876, has held the record of the highest water mark and still holds it, although last Thursday morning's tide was within an inch of the centennial mark.

In some respects last week's flood was phenomenal. One is in the fact that the waters of Miles and Choptank rivers commingled across the land in three places down the isthmus and peninsula west of Easton. The first place was across Ship's Head and the Choptank river farm and meadows, three miles from Easton. The next, near Royal Oak, where a branch of Plain Dealing creek, on the Choptank side, united with the branches of a cove on Miles river side. The flow of the current was towards Miles river. There was a commingling of waters again at Cat Tail branch, below St. Michael's, and here the current set towards the Choptank. By these high tides there has been a flow across in one place, but never before in three places.

Another is the singular effect the high tide had on the flow of the artesian wells on Tilghman's Island. These wells average 400 feet in depth and many of them have a surface overflow, which increased fully double in velocity and more in volume when the tide was at its highest. It has been noticed before that any unusual high tide is perceptible in the effect it has on the flow of these wells.

A Living Skeleton.

A strange case is presented to the local medical fraternity in the person of the nineteen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Daniel Smith, widow, living along the National turnpike, near Boonsboro', Washington county. Two years ago she took to her bed with a malady which the physicians could not determine. Her form wasted away until she is but a mere skeleton. Apparently she suffers no pain. Up to within fifty-two days ago she partook of food, but since that time she has refused to eat. Dr. Harry Wade, of Boonsboro', attended her until he died, when his brother, Dr. Hobart Wade, attended her, and all that he gave her was whiskey injected hypodermically. Her case created notoriety, and many persons went to see the "living skeleton," as she is called, lying helpless in her bed.

A few days ago, it is said, she was seen walking around the room, and the supposition is that when no one is around she procures food. No one supposed she had strength enough to leave the bed. A watch has been placed upon her, and the physician says if she will eat he can save her.—News.

Fads in Medicine.

There are fads in medicine as in every thing else and a "new thing" frequently sells for a short time simply because it is new. But in medicine, as in nothing else, the people demand and will be satisfied only with positive, absolute merit. The fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla has stood its ground against all competition, and its sales have never wavered but have remained steadily at the top, demonstrates, beyond any doubt, the intrinsic virtues of this medicine. The new things have come and gone but Hood's Sarsaparilla rests upon the solid foundation of absolute merit and its power to cure, and its sales continue to be the largest in the world.

Mill Burned.

The Franklin Township Roller Mill, on Marsh creek, owned by Noah Sheely, and an unoccupied house and the stable were destroyed by fire on Sunday night. From the fact that bags of flour were found in the fields near by, presumably taken from the building before it was burned, the fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. Several hundred bushels of wheat were destroyed.

We understand that there was no insurance on the building, but the miller, Albert Reinecker, had $1,000 on contents.

This mill was just newly built, and was improved with all the best machinery, with water and steam power. It is now a complete wreck.—Gettysburg Compiler.

Death of Father and Son.

Wilbur Fisk Sullivan, of St. Michael's, Md., aged twenty-nine, died of consumption and was buried in Olivet Cemetery. At the precise moment when the coffin was being placed in the grave his father, William Sullivan, aged eighty years, who was ill when the son died, expired. The old gentleman had been sexton of St. Michael's Methodist Episcopal Church for many years. Several years ago a party of excursionists at St. Michael's tried to enter the church. The old sexton resisted them and was severely beaten. He never entirely recovered from it. Several of his assailants were punished.

Both Feet Crushed.

John Lyons, aged about eighteen years, whose father is a boss in the Koonitz mine at Barton, Allegany county was taken to Western Maryland Hospital, Cumberland, Tuesday night with both feet nearly mashed off. He was walking along the Baltimore and Ohio track above Keyser, and in attempting to get out of the way of an approaching train slipped on a piece of coal and fell on the track and the cars ran over him.

COMMUNICATED.

FAIRPLAY, Oct. 5, 1896.

To the Editor of the Chronicle.—As I noticed in an issue of the CHRONICLE several weeks ago that C. H. Wenschhof has taken upon himself altogether to sell the building belonging to the Camp of Sons of Veterans, of this place, against this unlawful act I beg leave to enter a formal protest. For first, there was not a quorum present at the last special meeting held at the Hall. Secondly, because there being no quorum present, they had no authority to declare the camp disbanded, in which they only wanted to cover their own fraudulent action. So let all parties, whom this may concern, understand that neither has the camp been legally disbanded, nor has the hall owned by the Camp, lawfully been transferred to the mortgagee, who has been unacceptably liberal with the proceedings of the superstitiously summoned deserters of the camp, who thus was going to break up the camp in the manner that they did, only to cover their own dishonesty, made it far more worse, and for C. H. Wenschhof doing so towards the camp in its infancy, he did not drive a nail or speak a word that he was not well and doubly paid for in the end. Now, I hope that in the near future all unpleasantness like this may be avoided and that all stolen property of the camp will be returned in good condition of the value thereof and it may avoid all unpleasantness for the camp, and that all books held by the Secretary, C. H. Wenschhof, and the Quartermaster, H. H. Wenschhof, will be returned properly at our next meeting on Oct. 14, 1896.

Very Respectfully,

WM. MCNABE, JR.

Frederick Politics.

The republicans of Frederick county held a mass ratification meeting in Frederick, Saturday night. The meeting was called to order by Hammond Urner. David C. Winebrenner presided and the speakers were Gen. George C. Hazleton, of Wisconsin; ex-Senator John B. Henderson, of Missouri; Capt. John McDonald, the nominee for Congress; Col. George A. Pearce, of Cumberland; and Ashley M. Gould, of Montgomery county. Ex-Senator Henderson concluded his speech by telling the colored voters that he was now seventy-one years of age and on his road to Heaven. He added: "If I ever find out that any of you colored men vote for a 53-cent dollar I shall see that St. Peter refuses you admission through the pearly gate." Captain McDonald expressed confidence in his election, as he had received assuring promises from all over the district, and was pleased to see the harmonizing of the factions in Frederick county.

Child's Teeth Crushed Out.

On Friday, near Wintington, Pa., about three miles south of Greencastle, occurred a most frightful accident. Galen, the four-year-old son of Jacob Fox, tenant on the Dr. Brown farm. The child was riding on a four horse wagon filled with corn and fell to the ground. The front wheel of the wagon, a broad tread, passed over the child's face and crushed all the teeth out of the upper jaw and many out of the lower. The child's skull was flattened and the wonder is that instant death was not caused. Dr. Joseph Snively, of Shady Grove, dressed the wound, and states that no bones are broken and if the child pulls through he hopes to save it from disfigurement. For the present he can take liquid food only.

Marriage of Twin Sisters.

The home of Councilman William H. Lantz, of Cumberland, was the scene at noon Tuesday of a double marriage, his twin daughters, Miss Lena and Miss Anna being the brides. Miss Lena was married to Mr. W. Cessna Burrall and Miss Anna to Mr. Scott Dean. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Gleesner, of Cumberland, in the presence of a large number of friends. The brides are lovely young ladies, while the grooms are popular young business men of that city. The couples were recipients of many presents. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dean took a Baltimore and Ohio train for a tour of the Eastern cities. Mr. and Mrs. Burrall will spend a portion of their honeymoon with Mr. Burrall's relatives at Eschol, Pa.

Old Rip Van Winkle went up into the Catskill mountains to take a little nap of twenty years or so, when he awakened, he found that the "crucial war was over," the monthly magazines had "fought it over" the second time and "blown up" all the officers that had participated in it. This much is history, and it is also an historical fact that, it took the same length of time, for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to become the most celebrated, as it is the most effective, Liver, Blood and Lung Remedy of the age. In purifying the blood and in all manner of pimples, blotches, eruptions, and other skin and scalp diseases, scrofulous sores and swellings, and kindred ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" manifests the most positive curative properties.

Printing the List.

The Frederick county supervisors of election last Friday awarded the contract for printing the list of registered voters to the Examiner, a republican journal, at 4 cents per name. This, it is alleged, was not the lowest bid and the award has created a great deal of dissatisfaction among the publishers of Frederick City. The competitors for the work were the News, 4 cents; the Citizen, 4.5 cents, and the Guide, 23 cents per word.—Sun.

Mr. Bowers, of the United States Geological survey, set up his tent, and instruments in Courthouse Park, Frederick, Tuesday, and is engaged in an effort to find the true meridian for that section. The work is being done in connection with the topographical survey that is being made of the state for the Maryland State Geologists.

FAIRFIELD ITEMS.

FAIRFIELD, Oct. 6.—Mr. A. G. Sanders, of this place, has a pumpkin vine that measures 424 feet, the main vine measuring 48 feet, having 17 large pumpkins on it. The weight of the pumpkins is 165 pounds. Who can beat that?

The storm on last Tuesday did lots of damage. It took a part of the roof of Sam Walter's barn off, also Ollie Benner's, and Grant Musselman's and uprooting a great many trees.

Miss Lizzie McGinley, of this place, has a nice lot of apples to sell.

Mrs. D. B. Martin and daughter, Hazel, are the guests of F. Shulley and family.

F. Shully, of this place, has some fine apples, one of which weighed 5 pounds and 5 ounces, of the Fallowater variety. Mr. Speilman, of Ronzerville, is a visitor to this place.

Mrs. Anna Heindel, of York county, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Dubs, of this place.

Fairfield borough can now boast of having two preachers, 4 churches, 4 dry goods stores, 2 grocery stores, 1 hardware store, 2 smith shops, 2 tinner, 2 shoe stores, 1 confectionary, 4 doctors, one saddler, 1 hotel, 1 boarding house, 2 millinery stores, 2 dress makers, 1 jewelry store, 2 butchers, one tailor, 2 bakers, 1 tanner, one knife manufacturer, 4 shoemakers.

Surprise Party.

Communicated. On Friday evening last a surprise party was given to George Gillelan, Jr., by a large number of his friends. Master George was very much surprised to find such a host of friends assembled in the spacious parlor when he made his entrance.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing games, dancing, etc. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room which was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, after partaking of ice-cream, candies and fruits of the season, the guests returned to the parlor, where they engaged in social chat. About 12 o'clock after bidding the host and hostess good night they returned to their homes much pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Among those present were: Misses Edith Nunemaker, Carrie Rowe, Bruce Morrison, Sallie and Fannie Hoke, Ruth Gillelan, Ruth Agnew, Nellie Eyster and May Kerrigan of Emmitsburg; Sallie Miller, of Rocky Ridge, Mary Schure, of Selings Grove, Pa. Messrs. Clarence Zeck, Annan Horner, Ralph and John Zacharias, Norman Hoke, Leslie and Rowe Maxell, and Joe Rowe, of Emmitsburg; John Martin, of Graceham; John Stoner, of Thurmont; Frank Martin, of Graceham; Ira Giesleman, of Rocky Ridge; Winfield Horner, of Gettysburg.

PERSONALS.

Rev. Charles Reinwald is in Cumberland attending the meeting of the Lutheran Synod.

Mrs. Lucinda Higbee and son, Mr. Lewis Higbee, are visiting in Lancaster, Pa.

Miss Eva and Rachel Shulenberg have returned home.

Mrs. Joseph Biggs and daughter, of Delaware, are visiting Mrs. Jesse Claggett, at Mother's Station.

Mr. Wm. P. Nunemaker, of Frederick, spent Tuesday with his family in this place.

Miss Helen J. Rowe and Miss Clara Steiner, of the Samuel Ready School, Baltimore, spent several days at Mr. N. Rowe's.

Master Geo. L. Gillelan spent last Saturday and Sunday in Westminster, with his brother Lawrence. He made the trip on his way to a school.

Mr. John H. Mentzer attended the York Fair.

Are You Tired

All the time? This condition is a sure indication that your blood is not rich and nourishing as it ought to be and as it may be if you will take a few bottles of the great blood purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Thousands write that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured them of that tired feeling by giving them rich, red blood.

Hood's Pills act easily and promptly on the liver and bowels. Cure sick headache.

Death of Henry E. Hoke.

Henry Elias Hoke, head of the largest dry goods firm in Chambersburg, died Monday afternoon after a brief illness, aged seventy-four years. He was born at McConnellsburg. Seven sons survive him—Ed. S. and John W. Chambersburg; Rev. George M. Altoona; Dr. Walter, dentist, Bordeaux, France; Harry, cashier of the Waynesboro' Bank; Howard M., attorney-general's office, Harrisburg, and Charles E., Baltimore.

Decision in a Turnpike Case.

A question of no little interest to persons traveling on turnpikes was decided in an opinion by Judge Jones in the Howard County Circuit Court Tuesday. The question involves the right of a turnpike company to charge more than one toll a day for a team passing through a tollgate oftener than once a day. The case was tried in that court several days ago on an appeal from a justice of the peace, whose decision was against the turnpike company. The court's decision was in favor of the turnpike company.

Public Schools in Hagerstown.

Examiner George C. Pearson has just completed a visitation to the Hagerstown schools, and finds them so overcrowded that he will recommend the erection at once in Hagerstown of a new schoolhouse. The primary departments are especially crowded. In the Antietam grammar school the eight rooms have a seating capacity of 352, yet the enrollment was 411. The other buildings are almost as badly crowded.

Great Damage to the Canal.

The Potomac river at Williamsport began receding Friday afternoon. The Chesapeake and Ohio canal has suffered great damage and it will take thousands of dollars and over a month's work to repair it. Breaks occurred at the Fourteen-Mile Level and at Big Pool. One veteran boatman tied up his boat sixty miles above Williamsport and went back on the flood with a new one, saying there would be no boat for at least thirty days.

THE PHILSON WRECK.

While a track has been constructed around the wreck on the Pittsburg Division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Philson Station, near Sand Patch tunnel, the trains are now being run as usual, but comparatively little of the mass of wreckage has been touched. This work will require some days, and until it will have been completed no conclusion can be reached as to the number killed. So far four unknown tramps have been recovered from the debris, one of them being a colored man. There was nothing on the bodies to identify them.

The tramps now at the Western Maryland Hospital, in Cumberland, say that at least fifteen bodies are buried under the wreckage. They were riding in the car ahead of the one in which the injured tramps were riding, and nothing has been seen or heard from them since the wreck occurred.

None of the trainmen were seriously hurt. Engineer Wm. J. Zane and Fireman Thos. Owen, on the runaway train, who were at the Western Maryland Hospital, have gone to their homes in Connellsville. Their story of the runaway train and the wreck is most thrilling.

The train left Sand Patch shortly after midnight Thursday of last week. Sixteen cars next to the engine were equipped with air-brakes. Before starting into the tunnel, which is very near a mile in length, the hand-brakes on three cars on the rear end were set. Two more were set after the brakemen noticed that the train was getting beyond control. By this time the east end of the tunnel had been reached, and Engineer Zane had the wheels of his engine and the sixteen cars following locked dead with air. The heavily loaded cars had attained such frightful velocity, however, that it was impossible to check their speed on the west rails. The brakemen and Conductor J. J. Harbaugh clung to the tops of the cars, making their way toward the rear end on all fours. Seeing that it was impossible to save the train, Flaggman Louis Geiger cut off the caboose two miles west of Bowman Station. Conductor Harbaugh and Brakeman C. J. Mickey uncoupled the three cars next to the caboose and stopped them. Brakeman Cornell stuck his post on the front end of the train until the light in his lantern went out. Then he went back over the train with Fireman Owens. The collision came before they had gone two car lengths.

Engineer Zane hung to the steps of his engine for four miles. He said after the wreck that he had fully made up his mind to jump at Bowman Station but his heart failed him and he climbed back up in the cab, resigned to meet what he thought was certain death. Bowman was the passing point for train 74 with west-bound train 95. Engineer Zane knew that he was sure to crash into the ponderous engine hauling No. 95 up the mountain within a few seconds, and he hung to the whistle lever until he saw the glimmer of its headlight. He scrambled over the tender and reached the first box-car before the two engines came together. He knew nothing after this until Friday morning. Brakeman Cornell and Fireman Owens were likewise hurled from the top of a car over a hill to the left of the track some twenty feet high. Both were severely cut and bruised, but managed to get among the wrecked cars first and help out the injured.

The force of the collision sent the east-bound engine plowing through the west-bound train a distance of 300 yards. The wreckage was piled into a miniature mountain, and the track for 300 yards was torn as if dynamite had been exploded every foot of the way.

Immediately following the collision was an explosion. Several cars on train 74 were loaded with flour. The supposition is that it was the flour dust that exploded. The report awoke the residents of Philson Station and sent up a cloud of milky whiteness. The cries of the injured tramps attracted the attention of the trainmen as soon as they regained their presence of mind and the work of rescue began. Brakeman Cornell corroborates the statement of the injured tramps that a large number of these gentry were beating their way over the mountain on train 74. There were about fifteen of them in a box-car about the middle of the train, and they had the door fastened on the inside to keep out the cold. Whether they are under the wreckage or whether they left the scene in the excitement that followed remains to be seen.

Blood has been discovered on splintered wood away from the point where the dead and injured so far known have been recovered. Additional forces have been dispatched to the scene of the wreck to help clear it away. The work thus far has simply been to the edges to permit the laying of a track. Superintendent Thomas Fitzgerald is quoted as saying that it was the worst wreck that he has ever witnessed. The loss to the railroad company is estimated at about $150,000.—Sun.

That Wonderful Churn.

I want to add my testimony to the fact of those that have used the Lightning Churn. It does all that is claimed for it, you can churn easily in one minute, and get a large percentage more butter than with the common churns. I never took the agency for anything before but so many of my neighbors wanted churns, that I ordered 20 and they are all gone. I think in a year every farmer will have a Lightning Churn in fact they can't afford to be without one as they make so much more butter, and a good little bit of money can be made in every township selling these churns. By mail to J. C. Casey & Co., St. Louis, Mo., you can get circulars and full particulars of the churn.
