Fatal Shooting Case At Brunswick. A tragedy occurred at 10:30 o'clock

Monday night at Brunswick, this county, in which James C. Walker, aged twentyeight years, fireman on a Baltimore and Ohio freight engine, was shot through the heart and instantly killed by Robert Keller, who keeps the bar at a saloon known as "No. 2," situated about a mile from Brunswick, on the road leading to Knoxville. Keller, was suppressed at one time because of the disreputable character of the place. The facts in the case show that Walker, and his one-legged brother, J. E. Walker, entered the saloon Monday night about ten o'clock. The day had been Walker advanced to the bar and asked for a glass of beer. An altercation, it is said, ensued between him and Keller, when the latter came around the end of the bar and the two men of a pistol was heard and Walker fell dead, the bullet from a pistol in the hands of Keller striking him in the

It was midnight before the authorities were notified of the affray, but Keller had made no effort to get away, and was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Emory Nelson, who took him to Frederick Tuesday morning on the early train and lodged him in jail, where he had been committed by Magistrate Hiteshew, of Knoxville. James King and two colored men, who were in the saloon at the time of the assault, testified that they er fall dead. Keller, who is a tall, brawny man, of rough appearance, seemed utterly indifferent when interviewed at the jail Tuesday morning, of Baltimore, and returned to her home and declared that he would not talk about the affair.

Gladness Comes With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual dis-ease, but simply to a constipated condi-tion of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its bene-ficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine arti-cle, which is manufactured by the Caliother remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
