Smiles Irradiate the Countenance

When those atrocious bodily troubles, chills and fever, dyspepsia, kidney or rheumatic disorders, yield, as they invariably do, to the benign action of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a remedy of comprehensive use, pure in composition, unobscurable in effects. Sick headache, loss of appetite, nausea and sleep, nervousness, heartburn, are among the physical annoyances obtained by the Bitters. They are in the nature of signals of distress displayed by a disordered stomach, liver and bowels, and disappear with the cause that produced them. But these signals should be heeded at once. Then the new, bright look of vigor and comfort restore a cheerful aspect to the face. That faithful index to the condition of the system never fails to wear a look of sunshine when the Bitters is used to dispel the

In this pamphlet, they have anticipated and answered about every question inventors have invented, and that is saying a good deal.

Araid of Salt.

Isaac Simon, a Russian merchant, applied to Mayor Keedy, of Hagerstown, for protection from the alleged witchcraft of a fellow countryman, named Solomon Saltzman. Simon accuses Saltzman of being possessed of a witch. He says every morning early he finds salt on his door and pavement and is afraid some morning he will not be able to open his store on account of the charm. He is also afraid that his wife will be spirited away. She is a very good looking woman.

Tried to Blow Her Up.

Persons from Highfield in Hagerstown Saturday reported that a well-known man of that place had attempted to blow up his wife with gunpowder by putting it in her bedroom and then setting fire to it. The wife said the flames went as high as the ceiling. She charges that on another occasion he gave an alarm that burglars were in the house. She ran down stairs and he, from above, she claims, shot, she thinks, at her. She will apply for a divorce, it is said. The couple have only been married about a year.—Fred. News.

Robbery of a Catholic Church.

Thieves broke into the Catholic Church on the Manor, Buckeystown district, this county, Saturday and stole the ostensorium, ciborium and chalice and other property of the church, valued altogether at $1,000. The robbery was not discovered until Sunday morning, when Rev. John J. Pendergrast went to celebrate mass and found that thieves had entered the edifice and stolen the articles. Ready For Business.

After considerable parleying over the selection of officers, the newly elected town Commissioners came to terms on Monday night, and organized by electing Mr. F. A. Maxwell, President of the Board; Mr. Oscar D. Fraley, Secretary, and Mr. J. Thos. Gelwicks, Treasurer, and the board is now in working condition.

What action will be taken by the new board in regard to lighting the town is not yet known, but is hoped that they will see the advisability of having the town properly lighted, moon or no moon, and lighted all night.

Graduated.

Among the list of graduates of the Maryland College of Pharmacy, Baltimore, is Mr. Thaddeus E. Zimmerman, son of Mr. E. R. Zimmerman, of this place. The commencement exercises of the college will be held in Baltimore this afternoon, when Mr. Zimmerman will receive his diploma. Dr. Zimmerman will return to this place and take charge of the new drug store of T. E. Zimmerman & Co., of which he is the head man. The Chronicle joins with his friends in wishing him a successful career.

Maryland Classis.

The Maryland Classis of the Reformed Church met Wednesday evening in Westminster at St. Paul's Reformed Church. Rev. Calvin S. Slagle, pastor. The retiring president, Rev. Dr. E. R. Eschbach, of Frederick, preached the opening sermon. The classis organized for the ensuing year by electing Rev. T. F. Hoffmeyer, of Middletown, president; Elder J. H. Apple, A. M., of Frederick, vice-president, and Rev. K. O. Spessard, of Union Bridge, corresponding secretary.

Thirty-seven ministers and 32 elders are entitled to seats during this, the sixty-seventh annual meeting of the classis. They represent 62 congregations, the aggregate confirmed and unconfirmed members of which is 13,949.

In addition to the usual business, two items of more than ordinary importance will claim the attention of this classis. One is the celebration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Rev. Michael Schlatter's first work as the pioneer of the Reformed Church in this country and especially in the State of Maryland. The Reformed Church in this country is making an effort to raise a Schlatter memorial fund of $100,000 to aid in carrying forward his mission work. The other item is the consideration of the new constitution prepared by the General Synod. Rev. W. C. B. Shulenberg, pastor of the Reformed Church, of this place, is attending the meeting.

New Assistant Treasurer.

The new United States assistant treasurer at Baltimore, Mr. James Muir Sloan, assumed charge of the office Wednesday and at that time relieved Treasurer Morgan of the responsibilities which have fallen to him since the death of Mr. Hammond. At the time Mr. Sloan took charge the count of the moneys in the sub-treasury began, Mr. Morgan representing the government. This formally is necessary before the office can be turned over to Mr. Sloan and in any event would be insisted upon by his bondsmen.

Mr. Sloan went to Washington with his bond, but upon examination it was found to be defective in some slight respect, and he at once returned to Baltimore to have the correction made and approved again just before the department closed with it in proper shape. The bond amounts to $150,000.

All patronage of the office practically is covered by the civil service rules, and Mr. Sloan has not as yet turned his attention to the matter of prospective changes.

The Commissioners also opened bids for the building of two iron bridges across streams in the county—one across Israel's creek in Woodsboro' district and the other at Summers' mill in Jackson district. The bids were as follows: Grotton Iron Bridge Company, of New York, $2,480; Henry Watson, $2,575; Nelson & Buchanan, $2,540; West Virginia Bridge Company, $2,510. Shot at by a Burglar.

About 1 o'clock Sunday morning, while Policeman Pennell was turning a corner in Cumberland, an unknown man suddenly came upon him and fired a pistol at his face at close range. The bullet scraped the officer's ear, which was blackened by the powder, and the noise of the discharge almost deafened him. The man escaped, the officer firing several shots after him as he retreated. It was afterward ascertained that the man had broken into the house of John Morgan, near by and, doubtless, thinking that the policeman had discovered him, tried to kill him. Burglars tools were found at the door, which has been already forced open.

Mountaineers Victorious.

Mt. St. Mary's College defeated Pennsylvania State College, of Bellefonte, on the College grounds Wednesday afternoon by a score of eleven to eight. The mountaineers had a good lead until the seventh inning. Kenna's wildness was partly responsible for the close finish, though he struck out eleven. The features of the game were Kelley's base running and Murphy's catching for the mountaineers, and the fielding of Hayes for the State College. Mountaineers—11 runs, 11 hits, 5 errors. State College—8 runs, 7 hits, 6 errors. Batteries, Kenna and Murphy for Mt. St. Mary's, and Brant, Finley and Spiesman for State College.

All friends are requested to furnish flowers for Memorial Day, which can be left with any member of the committee, or with Comrades Horner, McNair, Zeck or Fraley.

Contending Factions.

The Board of County Commissioners convened Monday and were called upon by two large delegations in regard to locating a new bridge.

Last month the commissioners visited the vicinity of Stull's Ford and Le Gore's, and after looking around came to the conclusion that a new bridge was needed in that locality. Since then delegations from each point have continually called upon the commissioners urging them to build the bridge at both places. The two delegations represented people of each vicinity. Those in favor of Stull's Ford say that a new bridge can be erected there at a cost of not more than $12,000, while an expenditure of $22,000 must be made for the same structure across the stream at Le Gore's.

The latter people claim that there will be no difference in the cost of building the bridge whichever location is determined upon. About 300 people reside in each locality, and the contesting locations for the bridge are less than one mile apart. The Commissioners say that the factions must get together and agree on a site.

Colored Republicans.

The colored republicans of Frederick are evidently not in sympathy with those in Baltimore city who are endeavoring to organize an independent movement. The Frederick colored people have passed the following resolution:

"We, the pastor, members and congregation of Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, Frederick, Md., numbering about 600 souls, the oldest and largest colored organization in Frederick city and county and perhaps in Western Maryland, and expressing the sentiment of Frederick county colored republicans, do hereby denounce the attitude and actions of that class of colored republicans in Baltimore city who are advising the overthrow of the republican party on the grounds of disappointment in office-getting, as unwise and unworthy of adoption by the colored republicans of the Commonwealth of Maryland, whose educational advantages and material chance in life at this time are worth more than mere places. We believe the solution of these and all other problems is through and in the republican party."

The resolutions are signed by the Rev. Abraham Beck, pastor; George T. Day, legal adviser; Henry Scott and Alex. Davis, committee.

Meeting of the Protestant Episcopal Diocesan Convention at Frederick.

The one hundred and fourteenth annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland met in All Saints' Church, Frederick city, Wednesday. The clergymen, numbering fifty-seven in their priestly vestments, walked in procession into the church. They wore black cassocks, white surplices and stoles of different colors.

Archdeacon Ingle and Bishop Paret, wearing his purple hood, were in the rear. As the procession entered the edifice "The Church's One Foundation" was sung. The clergy parted in the middle aisle and allowed the Archdeacon and Bishop to pass through to the chancel. The beautiful edifice was filled to its utmost capacity, many of the clergy of the city being present.

Bishop Paret preached the sermon and then called the convention to order for business.

Rev. Peregrine Wroth was re-elected secretary without any opposition.

TWO WORKMEN BADLY HURT.

Samuel Cool and John O'Conner seriously injured by the explosion of a blast. Both Men Sent to Philadelphia for Treatment.

Whilst engaged quarrying stone near this place, on Tuesday afternoon, Messrs. Samuel Cool and John O'Conner, employed at St. Joseph's Academy, met with an accident of a very serious nature, which may leave them crippled for life, and their narrow escape from instant death is miraculous. They attempted to set off a blast, charged with rock powder; the fuse burnt out, and the powder failed to explode.

After waiting a certain length of time, and thinking all danger of the powder exploding was over, they returned to the quarry for the purpose of drilling the powder out to rebad. Just as Mr. Cool struck the first heavy blow on the drill the blast exploded. Both men were thrown some distance and terribly injured. Mr. Cool's one hand and arm was very badly lacerated, his nose was split open, and his face disfigured in an ugly manner, besides being otherwise injured. Mr. O'Conner was also very badly hurt. His one eye is injured in such a manner as he may possibly lose the use of it, although there is a possibility of the eye being saved. He received other painful injuries. Both men were taken to their homes, where they received medical attention and their wounds were dressed.

Both men are married and have families depending upon them for support.

The Sisters of St. Joseph's Academy sent the unfortunate men to a hospital in Philadelphia, on Wednesday afternoon, where they will be attended by skilled physicians and trained nurses.

Led in Family Worship.

Commentated.

Last week the CHRONICLE announced the death of Lewis Beatty, another colored man, making the fifth of his race to be called away from this community within a few months.

Lewis was the nephew of "Uncle" Peter Brown, who died a few weeks ago, and like him, was ready for the summons of the Master. He was converted in early life and ever since lived a consistent christian, and under all circumstances had been able to testify to the saving and keeping power of the grace of God.

Lewis was the slave of the late John Stewart, the grandfather of Mrs. Rosa J. Annan, and her mother, Mrs. Grier, speaks with pleasure of his christian life as a boy and as a man, giving this instance of his being employed by a lady as her farmer: She had such a high regard for his christian integrity that he was often called upon to lead in family worship. He was a faithful member of the United Brethren Church in Thurmont, until about three years ago, when he united with the Methodist Church, of this place.

and womanhood as well, is an extremely critical period in every girl's life. At this time she needs advice, and, what's more—help of the right sort. If she puts her faith in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription it can bring only good results. It's a medicine that's made especially to build up woman's strength and cure woman's ailments—an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial, and bracing nerve; pure vegetable, non-alcoholic, and perfectly harmless. For all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weakness that afflict womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is specific.

Bishop Allen at the Mountain.

Rev. Edward P. Allen, Bishop of Mobile, came to Emmitsburg Monday evening, where he will spend a few days at Mt. St. Mary's College, over which he so successfully presided for the past thirteen years. Bishop Allen was accompanied by a large number of friends, who attended his consecration in the Cathedral at Baltimore last Sunday. Among the number were: Revs. Thomas H. Kinsella, Leavenworth, Kan.; Peter J. Kelly, Trenton, N. J.; John B. Baasen, Pensacola, Fla.; J. D. Savage, Montgomery, Ala.; D. A. Brady and Hugh A. O'Brien, Warrington, Fla.; D. P. O'Neil, New York city; John Sheridan, Louisville, Ky., and Charles E. Hartkoff, Mobile, Ala., and Hon. Charles P. Ernst, of Rochester, N. Y., a classmate of Bishop Allen. In addition to these were the members of the faculty of Mt. St. Mary's College, the seminarians and the graduates, all of whom assisted at the consecration.

Bishop Allen was enthusiastically received at the college. The buildings and terraces were beautifully illuminated and the students had prepared a magnificent fire-work display. While the party were entering the grounds the college band played and the students made the terraces ring with their class cheers.

Rev. William L. O'Hara, acting president, and other members of the faculty awaited the Bishop and assisted him in receiving the students, who came forward to receive the episcopal blessing. After supper was served the band serenaded the visitors and a pyrotechnic display, such as was never held in this vicinity, was given on the terraces.

Tuesday morning Bishop Allen celebrated mass in the college chapel in the presence of the faculty, visitors and students. A banquet was given Tuesday to the students in honor of Bishop Allen. At its conclusion an address was delivered by Wm. E. Kennedy, '97. Bishop Allen, Fathers Kinsella and Baasen and Judge Ernst also spoke. In the evening a musicale was given by the Orchestra and Glee Club. Bishop Allen will remain at the college for a few days, when he will leave for the scene of his future labors.

Small But Effective.

was the Little Monitor that met the Merrimac at Hampton Roads. So too are Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, effective in conquering the enemy—disease. When you take a pill it's an important point to have them small—provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You find what you want in these little liver pills of Dr. Pierce. They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge, old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"—grumpy, brack-headed and take a gloomy view of life, is these "Pellets," to clear up your system and start you liver into healthful action. Sick headache, bilious headache, constipation, indigestion, bilious attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved and cured. Put up in glass vials, and always fresh and reliable.
