VOL. XIX.

EMMITSBURG, MARYLAND, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1897

NO. 26.

AN OPEN LETTER To MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of hat Hitchers wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chart thickers wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President. Samuel Pitcherman. D.

American tools are sold all over the an American tool manufacturing establishment when asked where American tools were sent ran over the export ders received that day. They included orders from Hungary, Austria, Germany, France, England, South Africa and South America. There were altogether about 20 orders, and from some of the countries named there were two or three orders. The export orders of the previous day included orders from Russia, Australia and New Zealand, and these were not unusual orders, but such as are constantly received. In the shipping room at that moment stood cases marked for Java, for Ecuador and for Australia.

Many of these orders are small. The Foremost Position.

When "The Philadelphia Record" untook nineteem years ago to demon-trate that the best of morning newspapers could be made and sold for one cent, publishers were generally skeptical. But the world of readers was not asleep. Consequently "The Record" was not long in reaching a commanding position, and, improving upon this, its circulation and influence were finally recognized among the foreasest of America's great journels. Hence the complinent of inditation which is now paid to it in every city of rote from the Atlantic coast to the Mississippi Valley. Every city worth mentioning now has one or thore good one-cent morning dailies, though so recently as only 19 years ago Philadelplia and The Record" stood alone is this respect.

News Concisely Published without the omission of any essential feature is still the BEST NEWS, not-withstanding the once prevalent tenden-cy to pad it and stretch it out. The Busy Man's Paper therefore, still originates, still leads, and publishes MORE NEWS to the column than its neighbors of larger dimensions. THE DAILY AND SUNDAY

With their several inimitable and always instructive features in addition to the day's news from all the world, are now almost unrivaled in circulation as in good qualities. With an average daily circulation of over 166.000 copies, and an average of about 120.000 on Sundays, "The Record is still, regardless of all initation, easily a leader of leading newspapers. A paper so good, with 16 to 14 pages for one cent, is still very properly a favorite. Though low in price, it is never cheap, but spares no expense that will give its readers the very best and freshest information of all that's going on around them.
