THE CHRONICLE PIANO

INTEREST IN THE CONTEST GROWS FROM WEEK TO WEEK.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BEAUTIFUL INSTRUMENT.

Interest in THE CHRONICLE Piano Contest is getting more intense as the weeks pass by and from what is heard on all sides, the contest will be spirited up to the very last moment. Every one is pleased with the beautiful Mahogany instrument and all are delighted with its unusually rich tones. Ever since the piano arrived numbers of people have inspected it and all have pronounced it a prize well worth working for.

REMEMBER THE CONDITIONS OF CONTEST,

Coupons must be cut from THE CHRONICLE and the name and address of the individual to be voted for plainly written in the spaces provided and then sent to the Coupon Editor, EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE, before the date named on each coupon. The last coupon will be printed Friday, December 28, 1906, and no coupon will be counted unless received at the office of THE CHRONICLE on or before 12 o'clock, noon, Tuesday, January 1st, 1907, whether sent by mail or otherwise.

No employe of the EMMITSBURG CHRONICLE nor any member of an employe's family will be eligible to

This is not a lottery, or gift enterprise, nor is there any element of chance in the contest. The individual receiving the greatest number of votes will be declared the winner, the votes to be counted and the winner declared by a committee of citizens from Emmitsburg.

The name of the winner will be published in THE CHRONICLE Friday, January 4th, 1907.

CONTEST OPEN FOR ALL.

Anybody-child, adult, school, club, church, lodge or organization, may compete for the Piano, which will be awarded, free of any cost whatscever, to the person or organization receiving the highest number of votes by January 1st, 1907.

Yet he would be a dull man, who, at this season of each recurring year, looking over the broad land, and seeing issue from the portals of our countless universities, colleges and schools, armies of stalwart young men and bright eyed young women, should not be led to have at least some general reflections on the subject so commonly and so broadly termed, education. It is a much misunderstood, a much abused word.

A gifted poet, a brilliant son of our Alma Mater, looking rather at our failures in the work of education from his point of view than at our success in the real object aimed at, began his sharp little satire on the subject with the lines with which vou are all doubtless familiar : "O, land of lads, liberty and dollars; O Nation first in schools but last in

BY HERBERT BASHFORD

COME with me, O you world-weary, to the haunts of thrush and veery, To the cedar's dim cathedral and the palace of the pine;

Let the soul within you capture something of the wild wood rapture, Something of the epic passion of that harmony divine! Down the pathway let us follow through the hemlocks to the hollow,

To the woven, vine-wound thickets in the twilight vague and old, While the streamlet winding after is a trail of silver laughter, And the boughs above hint softly of the melodies they hold.

Through the forest, never caring what the way our feet are faring, We shall hear the wild bird's revel in the labyrinth of Tune,

And on mossy carpets tarry in His temples cool and airy, Hung with silence and the splendid, amber tapestry of noon.

Leave the hard heart of the city with its poverty of pity, Leave the folly and the fashion wearing out the faith of men, Breathe the breath of life blown over upland meadows white with clover,

And with childhood's clearer vision see the face of God again!
