All the American troops have been turned over to the allies for such use as they see fit to make of them. American troops may soon be fighting side by side with their British and raging in northern France.

Frequently during the day heavy motor trucks skidded from the muddy roads into ditches, but they were quickly literally picked up by as many Americans as could get a hand on them and set back on the road and started again toward their destination. A little thing like lifting the end of a five ton motor truck from a ditch means nothing to Americans who are in a hurry to get into the fight.

Two of the Americans, officers, who were wounded, were brought back with the French captain, a member of the Dragoons. Each American wore a French war cross conferred on the battlefield. The French captain refused to receive attention until the Americans alongside him had first been nursed.

"They are the ones who should be congratulated," he said, calling upon the women of the Red Cross to look after the Americans.

The presence of American auxiliary troops on the fighting line in the great battle was the subject of much favorable comment, and when it became generally known that wounded American officers and men were being brought back with the French wounded from the region of St. Quentin American stock rose high. This report was received in the form of an unofficial dispatch from London, but it was officially confirmed by advices to Washington from Paris.

President Wilson sent a personal cablegram of congratulation to General Foch, and General Pershing placed at the disposal of the French commander the American forces now on French soil, General Foch has supreme command over all the men on the battle lines, and, in addition, has a strategic reserve force, the size and location of which is not known, but which, judging from reports, is very large.

The German offensive has slowed down. Instead of a sweeping advance its progress has been checked at all but one sector of the front, and there it has been merely creeping for the last two days—this fact even admitted by the German war office, which usually concedes nothing. From Arleux, north of Arras, to Albert, on the Somme, the British lines have been holding stubbornly and have thrust back the Germans at a number of points. From Albert south to Montdidier there has been a slow movement to the west, but the hills west of Montdidier are still being held by the French. No ground has been made against the French along the southern side of the salient driven into the allied lines, while it is asserted that the French counter attack from Lassigny to Noyon is still goin The extreme depth of the German wedge is now about 37 miles. Meanwhile the allied world is waiting for the entente to strike back at the Germans. When this blow, if it The Labor Planning Board has comes, will fall or where is sealed brought about an agreement between in the minds of the men directing the capital and labor for the duration of progress of matters, but seemingly it must come soon if it is to be effective. The German advance is now converging on Amiens, the railroad center of northern France, which is known to be the ganglion from which run the main communications of the British army in northern France. The railroad from Paris to Amiens was cut by the Germans at Montdidier, but this would not be vital if Amiens itself is held by the allies.

> Saloons Closed By War Department. 'The War Department has declared a "dry zone" within a radius of five miles of the Quartermaster's Mechanical Repair Shop Unit No. 306, near Colgate, Baltimore county, and officials of the Department of Justice will enforce the new regulation at once.

Establishment of the "dry zone" means that saloons in Highlandtown and Canton are doomed, as well as pleasure resorts, such as River View Park and the shores along Back river. All are within the five-mile radius of the Government station on Colgate creek. The regulations under which the saloons will be closed are the same as those which apply to Camp Meade and Annapolis, and provide drastic punishment for violations of the rule against selling or bartering, directly or indirectly, or even the giving or serving of alcoholic liquors.

Constipation and Indigestion.

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and con-stipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.

FREDERICK COUNTY.

Frederick is next to the largest of the counties of Maryland. In population and wealth it ranks next to Baltimore county. In the fertile ity and productiveness of its lands it ranks among the first in the Union, and especially in the produc-tion of wheat. The area of this great county is 633 square miles. The great body of the people are of German, English and Scotch-Irish descent, the progeny mostly of the early settlers. The land is mostly of fine limestone quality, and the greater part of the county is a valley of rolling lands lying between the Linganore Hills and the Catoctin Mountain. This splendid valley is drained by the Monocacy river, and is one of the best farmed and most highly improved and productive areas of the Union. The great crops are wheat and corn.—Maryland Manual issued by Board of Public Works.

Bones Discovered Prove That in the Miocene Period They Were Truly of Enormous Size.

In so far as birds are concerned, some of the oldest fossils, in the matter of time (Miocene), which have fallen into the hands of science, are those representing the great, flightless, fossil avian giants of Patagonia in South America. They belong to the phororhacidae, R. W. Shufeldt writes

Judging from such parts of their fossil bones as have been found, they were evidently great terrestrial birds of prey. Some of the species were small, but this is made up for by the others; and in the case of one of them (brontornis) it had a thigh bone considerably larger and longer than that

Of all the remarkable flightless birds of this group, however, was the giant eight feet in height, with a skull bigger than that of a full grown horse, and much deeper from above downward. We know little or nothing of It is sound business to buy these birds or what led to their extinction. With its great hooked beak and powerful claws of great size, phororhacos must have been a terror to the animals upon which it preyed. Skulls and some other bones of this bird have been discovered.

SOLDIERLY SUITS FOR SPRING

These trim, military suits that are among the offerings for spring, are not all camouflage. They bespeak alert ness and readiness to serve on the part of their wearers and they are brimming over with style. Made in brown, tan and khaki-colored woolens or cottons, they are as soldierly as can The skirts are plain and the coats belted and pocketed in approved mili-

When you shop for a new suit this spring you will find yourself on a voyage of discovery; so many altogether new styles entice the buyer. They are delightfully springtimy as may be gathered from a study of the suit shown above. All for the sake of conserving wool it has inlays of checkered silk at the sides and back of the short coat and its collar and cuffs are of white cloth-which may be wool but is more apt to be silk or cotton. The coat barely meets at the front and the skirt merely simulates a drapery.

MILAN HATS FOR LITTLE GIRLS

When little girls arrive at five years, and from then on until they reach the flapper stage, they come into possession of such fascinating straw hats as those pictured here. Easter will be joyous to the little miss who greets it in either of these hats. Both are of fine Italian milan. One has a sash of blue velvet ribbon and rows of blue satin buttons, and the other is adorned with velvet ribbon and bunches of grapes.

Serve Your Country By Saving Money!

You've always been told you ought to save money; every day some savings bank advertisement tells you so. The chief reason given for saving money has been that you'd have the money with interest later on, as a step to financial independence and

That is an excellent reason, but there's a better reason than that. 'Save because we have pledged the honor of our country and our people to fight this war to our last dollar and to our last man if necessary. America does not break her word.

Money saved makes of you a better man or woman, boy or girl; makes you dependable, responsible; increases self-respect, which increases your value. Save money to help your country by buying War Savings Stamps and U. S. Thrift Stamps.

- 1—War Savings Stamps are a promise to pay you the amount you invest, at the end of 5 years, with 4 per cent interest compounded every three month.
- 2—You can turn them into cash any time without looking for a buyer; just go into any postoffice and
- 3-You can invest in U.S. Thrift Stamps as little as 25

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE LEGISLATURE.

April 2, 1918

State House, Annapolis, Maryland.

The session of 1918 closed last night in the usual way. It was like all its predecessors since the Civil War, and of Conneautyille, Crawford Co., Pa., has were left in the files to the regret of no one and to the great benefit of the peo- Linn, Mrs. Alice Eiker and Mrs. M. ple of Maryland.

And the session was like most of its this state. predecessors in other ways. It started ish useless offices, to reduce taxes, and family of this place. to do dozens of other things which it was supposed were demanded by the Fitez made a business trip to Frederick people. As predicted in these letters Saturday afternoon. from time to time during the session, not one office was abolished, the State spending Easter in Frederick, Md. debt was largely increased, and the texning of the session up to the closi of Maxwell car. hour, the officeholders, whose offices it Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ruggles and was proposed to abolish, were on hano, family of Littlestown, Pa., spent Sunand together they planned an irresisti- day with Mr. and Mrs. James Sayler, of ble lobby, which easily prevented the Motters, Md. passage of any bill which interfered Those who called on Mrs. James Sayof the incumbent.

The main feature that stands out and makes this session unique and epoch is spending a few weeks in Altoona making in the history of the State, was the complete absence of any sign of Kelly. bossism. There were literally no bosses of any sort. Certain republican leaders tried to boss the job at the beginning of the session, so far as the members of their party were concerned, but they soon met with bitter failure. The Governor, who usually is able to exert great influence in shaping legislature, also met with failure and retired to his office, and, in the end, the legislature dominated His Excellency. The most influential figures in the whole body were the little group of Senators led by Senator Harrison and Senator Crothers, and these men in the end dominated the whole General Assembly, and did practically as they wished, with one or two exceptions, gaining every point for which they contended up to the very closing hours of the session. Of these, Senator Harrison was easily the dominant figure, and if any one stands preeminently before the people of Maryland as a future leader, the Senator from Worcester is the man. He has forged to the front to such an extent, that he can easily be ranked as the Eastern Shore leader, and, if he desires it, as one of the big figures in future democratic politics of the State. Whether he will attain his unconcealed ambition to be Governor of Maryland the future alone can tell, but the man who stands in his way will know that he has been in the fight.

It became generally understood here District. If Mr. Crothers goes into the fight he will have the backing of a large number of democrats from the different counties on the Shore, many of whom are leaders in their respective localities. The movement to induce Senator Crothers to enter the field has been going on in a quiet way from the beginning of the session, and it has only been evident during the last few days that he inhonorofherguests Misses Hilda Englar was seriously inclined to make the fight. Some of the leading democrats here, during the past week, believe it will be the part of wisdom for the other candidates to keep out of the fight, and allow the Frederick City Hospital very much the King presented to Colonel Boyd, Mr. Crothers to have the nomination improved. without a contest so that all the party strength may be reserved for the real fight before the election in November. If this plan should be followed there would be no doubt as to the election of the democratic candidate, for, with the party united, the democrats will be able business trip to Baltimore, Wednesday. to carry the District with ease. "Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the now famous "toasted" cigarette— LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something homelike and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This homelike, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the "slogan" that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys

COUNTY HEADQUARTERS AT "OVER THERE" CANTONMENT

A Glad Welcome to Be Extended to All Persons From This Locality.

Big Advance Sale of Tickets.

That the folks from "down home" may feel perfectly at home and welcome at the Fifth Regiment Armory when they visit the great Liberty Loan Cantonment, "Over, There," arrangements have been made by the committee to establish a county headquarters at the Armory.

Each county will have a committee, which will be in the nature of a reception committee, and when Jim Jones or Mrs. Martha Simpson visits the cantonment and finds herself unable to locate any of his or her friends, and when that little lonely feeling threatens to spoil one's good time, then Mr. Jones or Mrs. Simpson can go to the county headquarters, pick out the county from which they hail, and there be given the "glad hand" by those in charge of that particular county booth.

Nine times out of ten both Jim Jones and Mrs. Simpson will know intimately those in charge of their county booth, and in less time than it takes to tell they will soon get rid of the lonely feeling, and find themselves in the midst of old friends, and ready to enjoy the numerous attractions at the cantonment.

Through this arrangement it is probable that many old friendships will be renewed, and impromptu family reunions will be "the thing," by having the county folks meet at county headquarters.

Visitors to Baltimore on the opening day of "Over There," March 30, will be given an opportunity to not only see the war tank "Britannia" but also see it in action-doing stunts which caused consternation in the German Army when those monsters of destruction first made their appearance in battle. The tank will not be shown at the Fifth Regiment Armory, on account of its great weight -thirty-four tons. The Maryland Jockey Club, however, has consented to the use of the Pimlico Race Course for this purpose, and at its own expense, will erect a building fifteen by twenty feet, have trenches dug, mounds thrown up and other obstacles placed, it being the idea of those who have charge of this feature of the War Exhibition to make it as realistic as possible. The tank will be in Baltimore only on the opening day of the

The advance sale of tickets to "Over There," which is said to be the largest for any one show ever known, is still rapidly growing, approximately 400,-000 having been disposed of so far. The committee on admission of which Judge John C. Rose and Albert G. Towers are city and county chairmen respectively, are using every endeavor to give the tickets the widest possible distribution. Upwards of 8,000 letters were sent out last week to physicians. lawyers, preachers, architects, building and loan Associations, clubs, dentists, educational institutions, merchants, etc. Just how the committee in charge will take care of the vast crowds which the stupendous sale of tickets denotes will attend the Cantonment, was at first a question which gave much concern, but arrangements have now been made whereby there will be practically no difficulty experienced in handling the enormous crowds. There will be three exhibitions daily. The first will be from 10 A. M. to 12 M.; the second will be from 1 P. M. to 5 P. M.; the third from 7 P. M. to 11 P. M. This means that the Armory will be actually closed for one hour at the end of each exhibition during which time the building will be cleared of all visitors.

All the exhibits which will feature the Cantonment will be vivid and impressive. They will include demonstrations of practically every phase of war work there is. The Red Cross will have a field dressing station which will be an exact replica of those now in service behind the lines while other phases of Red Cross activities will be demonstrated. The Y. M. C. A. will show one of its travel huts which are doing such a vital work for the boys at the front, the Y. W. C. A. will have a miniature hostess house in operation, the Army and Navy will have splendid exhibits of their work, in addition to which there will be thrilling war movies, a war trophy exhibit of 1,500 pieces, an exhibition of thousands of war posters collected in all parts of the world, band concerts, prominent soloists, speakers-in fact, nothing has been neglected that will aid in making the Cantonment the most elaborate and spectacular show ever given in this country.

A unique feature of the entire production lies in the fact that there will be nothing sold except meals. The Cantonment is anything but a money making scheme, it having been produced with the sole idea of promoting the sale of the third Liberty Loan Bonds. Twenty-five cents of one's ticket is payable on a Liberty Bond.

Allies Winning, Says March. Washington.-In a statement Major General March, acting chief of staff, assured the American people that there is no cause for alarm in the advances made by the Germans in the great battle now raging in Picardy and expressed complete confidence in the triumph of the allied arms.
