Once again it is my distasteful duty, after much urging by various of the citizenry, to write a few paragraphs on the Blinker on the Square. Another year has rolled around and the outmoded "stump" continues to be a traffic snarl. Time and again the traffic becomes ensnared in a vehicular whirlpool as the trapped motorist becomes enraged and gives his machine the gas, looking desperately for escape, not realizing where he is darting to. . . Trucks and trailers, large as freight cars continue to roll around the iron stump and suddenly realizing they can not negotiate around the thing, dart suddenly to the left. . . Mind you, some day they'll be searching for pieces of somebody clear out at Mt. St. Mary's.

No, it isn't the fault of anyone here in Emmitsburg. The responsibility can be placed solely on the State Roads Commission which has been giving this town the run-around for a good many years. . . and not only on the Blinker affair. It is understood that the Town Council has been active on the matter of eliminating the Blinker for some time, but have been met with a deaf ear by a complacent Roads Commission. While dreams of super highways, bay bridges, etc., are envisioned by this Commission, one of the most dangerous spots in the county is permitted to exist right in the center of the main traffic artery to the Nation's Capital. Many out-of-towners have remarked while passing through: "What's that thing for?" To which Emmitsburgians readily reply: "Oh, why that thing is a monument to the stupidity of the Maryland State Roads Commission." Ain't it the truth?

Since writing these first few paragraphs, I have been informed that the Chamber of Commerce has gone on record as favoring the removal of the Blinker. State Senator Edward D. Storm has been appointed on a committee to send the thing into the oblivion the traffic impediment has deserved for a long time. According to information garnered recently, it was found out that the State Roads Commission hasn't even answered a correspondence of over a year ago from the Corporation of Emmitsburg concerning this matter. . . As you all perhaps know at this time Gov. Lane will be in town Monday and now wouldn't that be an excellent time to "talk the matter over" with his honor. The Gov. could really gain prestige in this 'burg if action on the Blinker was forthcoming in the near future. According to Old Abby's knowledge, the Commission is trying to make a complicated issue of the thing. The Town Fathers even offered to remove it at their own expense, but no permit has been granted for its removal. For years the Blinker has not "blinked." Seems as though the old girl can't stand the gas any more. To top the situation off, the Commission even painted over the red reflector lights on the lower half, making a perfect booby trap for somebody to knock their brains out. Get this in your head State Roads Commission—that Blinker has got to come out of there, whether you have any ideas or not. . . Get some, Emmitsburg means business about the whole thing, and if it means going over your heads to higherups, that's the way it has got to be. Take your choice. If one stoplight won't suffice, put two, or four, or six. The Blinker must go.

TURNIN' OUT
We really are talking politics seriously here in Emmitsburg. Both parties (thank God we have only two parties) have left no stone unturned to register every eligible voter in this district. The result is that Emmitsburg now has more registered voters on the books than ever before in its history.

C. OF C. BACKS IMPROVEMENT OF ROUTE 15

An advancement of Frederick County through improvement to Route 15 and 15-A, was the theme of Tuesday night's meeting of the Emmitsburg Chamber of Commerce. President B. J. Eckenrode presided over the session at which 35 members attended.

After reading and approving the minutes of the previous meeting, the membership heard a report from State Senator Edward D. Storm on a meeting held in Frederick last week. Mr. Storm, a member of the local organization, rendered a lengthy resume of the session at Frederick, attended by all nearby Chambers of Commerce.

Mr. Storm recommended that Emmitsburg co-operate with the Frederick Chamber of Commerce and to aid the Lafayette Highway Assn. in advertising Route 15 to the entire nation.

The highway association has as its aim the advancement of the route, which extends from Canada to Florida. This association's aim is to encourage inland travel by machine over Route 15, to improve and beautify the road, provide accurate maps, etc. The local organization heartily endorsed Mr. Storm's recommendation.

Two new committees were formed at Tuesday's meeting, viz., housing and zoning, headed by Mr. Herbert Neighbors, and national affairs, chaired by Ernest Rosensteel.

The advertising and education committee were instructed to work in close co-operation with town officials in having the houses properly numbered and street markers erected.

A labor survey was ordered and is expected to be presented at the next meeting, Nov. 21. Col. Thomas J. Frailey, chairman of the committee, which has been working in close harmony with the management of the Emmitsburg Mfg. Co., filed a report on activities and accomplishments.

The Chamber went on record as approving the removal of the blinker on the Square and the installation of traffic lights to regulate the flow of vehicular traffic. State Senator Edward D. Storm was appointed to head a committee to assist the Burgess and Commissioners in effecting the removal.

Mrs. Helen Daugherty, chairman of the special events committee reported on the Armistice Day program, and it was decided to cancel activities until next spring, as another local organization had made plans for a dedication that would conflict with those plans of the Chamber of Commerce.

A large delegation of local members will attend a national gathering of other Chambers of Commerce to be held at the Francis Scott Key Hotel in Frederick next Thursday evening. About 25 are expected to attend. The meeting is being held to prepare for a stand, in opposition, to many socialistic trends being injected into our national government.

Firemen to Meet

The Frederick County Volunteer Firemen's Assn. will hold its quarterly meeting at Graceham next Thursday evening.

The meeting will take place in the Moravian Church. Delegates from the Vigilant Hose Co. are expected to attend.

DECREE SIGNED

A decree was signed in Equity Court granting Mrs. Ruth A. Russell, Emmitsburg, an absolute divorce from Edward S. Russell, Gettysburg, Pa., Rt. 2. The plaintiff, who was represented by Edward D. Storm, is required to pay the costs.

DIRECTORS' MEETING

A directors' meeting of the Emmitsburg Baseball Assn., has been called by the president, Bernard H. Boyle, for Oct. 22, at 1 p. m. in the Fire Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Overholtzer, Philadelphia, Pa., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. C. Felix Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Overholtzer.

Chest Mobile X-Ray Unit Coming Here Wednesday

Mobile units of the Frederick County Tuberculosis Assn. will move into Emmitsburg for a one-day stand next Wednesday. The unit is being brought here by the Emmitsburg Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club.

The public is invited to take advantage of this excellent service, which is free. The whole procedure takes only about two minutes per person. Results remain in strict confidence of the health department and those persons afflicted with the disease.

This means of detecting the dreaded malady is becoming more popular each year, as thousands more are taking advantage of the service annually. The two sponsoring organizations urge every man, woman and child to take advantage of this opportunity Wednesday. The mobile unit will locate on DePaul St.

The schedule is: 11 to 12:30 at the Emmitsburg High School; 12:45 to 1:45 at St. Joseph's High School; 2 to 4, industrial, and 4 to 6 p. m., community.

Free chest X-rays will be taken of all adults 15 years and over. No undressing is necessary.

Green Parrot Reopens

A favorite eating place for hundreds from miles around in the past, reopened its doors to the public again, after four years of idleness.

Mrs. Leone Brown McNair, proprietress, opened the doors for business last week. Formerly operated on the Square, the Green Parrot Tea Room is now housed in a fine new building of its own, located beside the owner's home on E. Main St.

The building is finished inside in knotty pine with an acoustic ceiling. The diningroom is 28 by 30 feet, equipped to serve 75 persons at one time. The building itself is 32 by 60 feet. In decorating the diningroom, Mrs. McNair carried out her original color scheme of grey, green and yellow. The kitchen is modern and conveniently arranged for service, and the food is home-prepared.

The new tea room will be closed all day on Tuesdays, but open every day from 9 a. m. until 7:30 p. m. except Sunday, when it will open at 11:30 a. m.

Students Fined For Unauthorized Use of Automobile

Two Gettysburg College freshmen, who escaped without injury early last Sunday when a car in which they were riding crashed into a pole near Thurmont, were fined $50 each when they pleaded guilty to unauthorized use charges before Magistrate Edward J. Smith at a hearing Monday afternoon.

Parents of the two youths agreed to make restitution to J. B. Robinson, Haddonfield, N. J., owner of the car, which was taken from a parking place on the Hood College campus, Frederick, and almost completely demolished in the wreck.

Jurisdiction over one of the youths was waived by Associate Judge Patrick M. Schnauffer in Juvenile Court Monday morning.

The youths were identified as Don Robert Burns Jr., 19, Middletown, Pa., and Douglas Alan Newton, 17, Yonkers, N. Y. Both paid the fines and were released.

Mr. Robinson, whose daughter, Betsy, is a sophomore at Hood College, attended the hearing as well as parents of the defendants.

Burns and Newton had been held in detention quarters at Barracks B by State Police following their apprehension early Sunday near the scene of the accident.

State Police said Burns' father is a lieutenant colonel at the Air Force Base at Olmstead, Pa.

Troopers James H. Rouzee Jr., and H. J. Brown, who investigated the accident and took the youths into custody, said the Gettysburg students attended Campus Day activities at the college in Frederick and "appropriated" the Robinson car to return to Gettysburg.

Will Speak On National Affairs

LAWRENCE F. LEE

A big area conference on National Affairs has been set up for next Thursday. It will be held in Frederick at the Francis Scott Key Hotel in the form of a dinner meeting at 7 p. m.

Delegations from many communities in the state are planning to attend. From Taneytown a bus load of interested citizens is expected to go.

The purpose is to sketch plans on a national scale to stem the tide toward a socialistic government and Federal trends toward a colossus of wasteful power and invasion of the State and private rights.

Plans for this meeting were set up last week. On Thursday, Oct. 12, the executive officers of the Chambers of Commerce of this area, met for a luncheon meeting in Frederick. Its purpose was to plan better citizenship on the community level.

Representatives from Chambers of Commerce from many communities in the State were present as guests of the Frederick Chamber. Those who attended from Emmitsburg were B. J. Eckenrode and Ernest Rosensteel.

The guest speaker for this occasion was William J. Bird, National Affairs Advisor for the Southeastern states. This area comprises ten states in which Mr. Bird is advisor to more than 600 Chambers of Commerce. He spoke about the drift of the National Government toward a socialistic state and increasing trends of Federal power invading the states and rights of private citizens.

Mr. Bird pointed out that even now the man who works 40 hours per week must give the first ten hours to the government in taxes. He illustrated the point by stating that if you buy a car for $1800, you pay $450 of this amount in various forms of taxes. He emphasized that the greatest danger the American people face is not invasion from without, but from indifference from within. For this reason District Area Conferences are now being held all over America. And people of all classes and professions are becoming aroused about the matter.

The purpose of the preliminary conference last week was to set upon one of these organizations in this section. To this end it was decided to set up a National Affairs meeting in Frederick next Thursday. It will be a dinner meeting. Many communities have already indicated that they will bring one or two bus loads. It promises to be an outstanding event.

The guest speaker next Thursday at 7 p. m. will be Lawrence F. Lee, vice president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the American Bar Assn. and a prominent figure in the insurance world. Speaking on the "Challenge of Our Time," he will tell about the trends in the National Capital and conduct a round table discussion on how to sell good citizenship on the community level.

GIVES BLOOD TRANSFUSION

Allen Bouey, who was to have been the starting pitcher for the Old Timers baseball game last Saturday, was called to the Gettysburg Hospital to give a blood transfusion. The American Legion has sponsored a blood typing campaign locally and Allen was one of those whose blood was the type required to meet an emergency at the Gettysburg Hospital.

Fertilizer should be stored in a dry location under a good roof.

Proof Social Work Work Is Benefitting Europeans

Proof that the work and gifts of local church workers was not going amiss was received here this week when a local woman, Mrs. Robbie Stonesifer, received a letter from a German family, expressing their appreciation for the fine charity Mrs. Stonesifer, a member of the Lutheran Church were extending to the needy and desperate in Europe.

The letter translated from German to English read:

Dudweiler

Aug. 10, 1950

Very Esteemed Miss Hanlauff—

I received from our parish a very nice cloak for my daughter and in the pocket I found your address. I felt obliged to thank you cordially for your gift (love-gift). You have done us a great service. I am a widow: six years ago my husband was killed in Russia. I have three children, two girls, one sixteen and the other twelve and a son of nine years. I get a pension, of course, but is all too little to live on and too much. The children not only have to be fed but also to be clothed. One rejoices especially when good luck falls into one's lap: he looks upon it as a gift from Heaven. My Hannah is happy with your beautiful cloak. I hope you can read my writing because, unfortunately, I do not know a word of English. I would be sorry if you could not read my lines. I would be very happy if you could assure me that you received these lines and were able to read them. Cordial greetings and a thousand thanks from

GOVERNOR LANE SPEAKS HERE MONDAY

Harmony and enthusiasm keyed a dinner and meeting Monday night in Frederick of Democratic County leaders, successful and unsuccessful candidates in the recent primary election and those selected to lead the party drive for victory in the Nov. 7 general election.

Also present and addressing the gathering was Francis Petrott, leader of the forces backing the candidacy for George P. Mahoney for Governor. Mr. Bennett led the campaign for Gov. William Preston Lane Jr. for the nomination for re-election.

In his remark, Mr. Petrott drew vociferous applause with the statement that he is "for the ticket in its entirety."

The same general note of harmony added materially to the enthusiasm.

Participating will be Governor Lane, J. Millard Tawes, candidate (unopposed) for Comptroller; Hall Hammond, candidate for re-election at Attorney General; Millard E. Tydings, candidate for re-election as U. S. Senator; General Russell P. Hartle, candidate for Congress from the Sixth District, and all Frederick candidates, along with party leaders.

Monday's activities will conclude with a rally and mass-meeting at the State Armory, Frederick, in the evening, sponsored by the Young Democratic Club. Richard E. Zimmerman is chairman of the committee arranging that event.

On Saturday, Oct. 28, a rally will be held at Emmitsburg.

It was announced Monday evening that the additional committees to be named will include a veterans' group and that a full schedule of sectional rallies prior to the election will be determined within a few days.

In conjunction with the tour, Emmitsburg Democratic Chairman James L. Nester announced a giant rally to be held at the White House Inn here, Saturday, October 28, at 8 p. m. Many of the Democratic candidates for county offices will be present and it is hoped to have either Gov. Lane or Major Hartle as principal speakers at the rally.

SHORT STORY
Thanksgiving Turkey

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

IMOGENE sat at the kitchen table and listened stargazing while Tony read the letter. "Dear Tony and Imogene: I was sorry to hear about Tony's ill luck down there in Carolina, and know you must be having rather a hard pull. But things are bound to straighten out. Under separate cover I am sending you a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner. Please don't acknowledge its receipt, as your Aunt Sara might read the letter. She doesn't know I'm doing this, and I doubt if she'd approve—you know how she felt when you two got married and started out on your wild venture. My love to you both. Uncle Rufus." Tony pulled off the last wrapper and grinned happily. Within the cardboard box there nestled a handsome, fat turkey; a delicious, palatable turkey. Tony's mouth watered at sight of it.

Accompanying the bird were vegetables galore, nuts and fruit and a real plum pudding ready for heating. It was a complete, old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner.

At length Imogene stirred. She turned and looked through the window and there was something queer about the expression on her face. Tony saw the look and he came and sat down on the table and took her hand in his.

Imogene looked at him squarely. "I was thinking, Tony, about the Santrells. I can't help it, with this big turkey here in front of us." Tony's hand tightened its grip. "Precious," he said gently, "you're a dear."

He was silent, then, staring thoughtfully out into the yard. The Santrells, he reflected, had probably never had a turkey for Thanksgiving. It was doubtful this Thanksgiving if they'd have anything to eat. They were poor, dirt poor, and there were eight children in the family. Mr. Santrell was sick half the time; he couldn't work, even if work were available. Their plight was pitiful. They had been too proud to ask for help; had reached a state of near destitution, when the town discovered their condition.

PRESENTLY TONY turned. He said: "Listen, sweet, as far as I'm concerned, I'd like to live through one Thanksgiving without a turkey. I've had to eat one every Thanksgiving since I can remember, and the novelty of not having to will be a welcome relief. Besides, Thanksgiving down here doesn't seem to call for a turk. And we still have the smoked shoulder we'd planned on."

"Darling," she said, "I've been trying to figure out one good reason for marrying you since our wedding day."

And Imogene smiled in prodigious happiness and began re-wrapping Uncle Rufus's turkey. "Darling," she said, "I've been trying to figure out one good reason for marrying you since our wedding day. And now I've found it." Whereupon she kissed him and Tony held her tight in his arms.

And so they marched over to the Santrells and undid the package on Mrs. Santrell's kitchen table and watched with a curious tugging at their hearts as the eight Santrell children and the two grown-ups stared and stared at the great fat bird. They left very soon after that because Mr. and Mrs. Santrell seemed to have difficulty in finding adequate words to express themselves.

They raced up the walk of their little stucco bungalow—and stopped dead still on the veranda.

A great package reposed before the front door, and a letter lay atop the package.

Tony picked up the letter, stared at the package curiously and tore open the envelope. "Dear Imogene and Tony," he read. "Your Uncle Rufus wouldn't like it a bit if he knew I was doing this. You know how he disapproved when you two got married and went away down South. However, I know you must be lonesome and rather discouraged, and so, under separate cover, I'm sending you a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner. Please don't acknowledge its receipt; your Uncle Rufus might read the letter and I'd never hear from him. Love to you."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Norris and daughter, of Indianapolis, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Stinson and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Norris.

MARKETS

Baltimore grain markets were firm last week. Red winter garlicky wheat gained about one cent per bushel. Old crop yellow shelled corn showed no change; new crop advanced about one cent per bushel on the Baltimore market. Barley gained about two cents per bushel during the past week. Western white oats advanced about one cent per bushel. Soybeans lost about one cent per bushel on the Baltimore market.

National Grain Market

Grain markets turned weaker as prices declined moderately during last week, reports to the Dept. of Agriculture indicated. Wheat declined two to four cents a bushel influenced by a relatively large supply, a light export demand, and competition from Russian grain in European markets. Corn markets were very steady despite frost damage in some portions of the belt and a reduction of 45 million bushels in production estimates. Plentiful supplies of old crop grains were weakening factors. There was little change in the marketing of rye, oats, barley and grain sorghums, but prices of soybeans declined further as the marketing of the new crop increased.

Maryland Feed Market

The Baltimore feed market showed a downward trend last week. The only feed showing any noticeable change was 17% dehydrated alfalfa meal with an increase of over 2%—$1.62 per ton higher.

During last week, Maryland broiler producers received an average of 25¢ per pound for broilers and had to pay an average of $96.58 per ton for feed. Based on this average retail cash price of 20¢ broiler mash on Lower Eastern Shore, one pound live weight of broilers would buy 5.2 pounds of feed.

National Feed Market

Feedstuff markets were unsettled during last week and prices of most feeds showed further declines, according to reports to the Dept. of Agriculture. Demand was generally slow, influenced principally by large supplies of grown grains and good fall pasturage in important feeding areas. Oilseed meals were offered more freely as production of new crop meal expanded and prices averaged about $1 per ton lower than a week ago. The index number of wholesale feedstuff prices declined two points, to 213.2 compared with 214 a year ago. Reflecting a decline of about $1 per ton in corn and oats prices, the feed grain index dropped about 4½ points to 207.7, compared with 178.1 a year ago.

Fall pastures were furnishing abundant feed for livestock in nearly all parts of the country this year, with the condition for Oct. 1 being the third highest for the date in 36 years of record. For the country as a whole farm pastures averaged 87 per cent of normal, six points higher than on Oct. 1 a year ago and 13 points above the 1939-48 average for Oct. 1. Milk production in September totaled 9375 million pounds, or slightly less than for the same month last year and about two per cent less than the record high in 1945.

Farm Bureau
Spearheading Drive
For Ober Law

The Maryland Farm Bureau is taking a leading role in the campaign to retain the Ober Law by educational activities in the Maryland counties, it was announced today by Wilson A. Heaps, president of the Farm Bureau.

Mr. Heaps, of Harford County, said that each of the 133 planning groups of the bureau is holding discussions of the Ober Law at meetings prior to the General Election, Tues., November 7, when for statute comes before voters as a referred question.

Urging voters of the state and the 12 organizations affiliated with the bureau to support the Ober Law, officially entitled the Subversive Activities Act of 1949, Mr. Heaps declared:

"It would be strange, indeed, if Maryland men and boys are giving their lives to fight the Reds in Korea.

"The Ober Law is being fought tooth and nail by the Communists, of course, and the misguided people who are following their lead. This law safeguards our basic freedoms, our government and our homes, simply by forbidding any ACT, or the advocacy or teaching of such an ACT, which has as its purpose the overthrow of the Government of Maryland, by revolution, force or the United States or the State of violence.

"Because of the many false charges against the Ober Law by the Communists, many people are being misled. We must do everything we can to combat this unreliable propaganda. We must keep the Ober Law in effect in Maryland, so that we can smash the Reds who seek to operate in our own state."

Mr. Heaps pointed out that the Maryland Committee Against Un-American Activities is spearheading the over-all campaign to keep the Ober Law in force. Full information, he said, can be obtained as to membership in the committee and how citizens generally can assist with the fight to retain the Ober Law, at the committee's headquarters, Room 201, Southern Hotel, Baltimore.

INSOMNIA

Insomnia, the inability to sleep when sleep is ordinarily to be expected, is a symptom rather than a disease itself. Most people who find it impossible to sleep at night are actually suffering from some mental or physical disorder, or a combination of the two.

It is not uncommon for people to have difficulty in getting to sleep once in a while, usually for easily explainable reasons. The majority of us are wakeful at night during oppressively hot weather or if we are excited just before bedtime, or if we eat a heavy meal late at night. But these conditions are temporary and are seldom a serious threat to health.

But of real concern is "true insomnia," the condition whereby a person goes night after night without sleep. This situation is one of nature's warnings that there is something mentally or physically wrong with the sufferer which calls for medical diagnosis and treatment. The person who, for unexplained reasons, cannot get the sleep which his body needs should see his doctor without delay.

Since insomnia is a symptom of some other disorder, and not a disease in itself, the doctor is the person to detect the source of the trouble and prescribe the proper treatment so that the patient will get relief and at the same time avoid further impairment of health.

The person with insomnia who delays visiting his doctor harms himself in two ways. He puts off finding the real source of his trouble, perhaps letting a serious illness get the upper hand. Meanwhile, he suffers needlessly from the frustration of trying to make himself sleep, and then drags himself around miserably during the day without the energy to perform his normal tasks.

Sleep, and enough of it, is necessary to health, efficiency, and full enjoyment of living. Sleep does certain necessary things for the body which nothing else can do. It restores muscles and tissues which are fatigued or broken down. It also

At some time in the future, it will be possible for you merely to pick up the telephone, dial the proper ten digits, and get anyone you wish to talk to, any place in the country! That's the forecast of telephone experts, based upon the theory and experiment already substantiated and proved as of today.

Teamwork smoothed the way
And teamwork can make a party line run smoothly, too. For instance, when you have a number of calls to make, it's better to space them out, and give your neighbors a chance on the telephone. And when you hear someone already on the line, hanging up gently is almost sure to get you the same treatment in return.

Look before you loot
A young bandit in Canada pushed the woman in charge of a restaurant into a small enclosure and slammed the door. Then he proceeded to rob the till. Danger On The Air America's most strategic communities, in which large concentrations of people or important groupings of industries are centered, have begun to organize for the eventuality of an atom bomb attack and other forms of airborne invasion, such as, for instance, paratrooper raiders. If the day comes when Soviet military power strikes boldly at the heart of our nation's strength, the population in these strategic communities will be alerted by radio and other means, setting into motion intricately worked-out mass evacuation and defense plans.

For successful execution of such emergency plans, the whole population must spring into action within the space of a few minutes. Sirens, mill whistles and other signals will set plans in motion and summon the population to radio sets, telephones and public loud speakers for detailed instructions. Thus the mass communication facilities become the very heart of our civilian defense—and also the No. 1 objectives for invading forces and their fifth columnists.

The Technique

Hitler's tacticians found it of great strategic importance to send squads of parachuting raiders into cities in the pathway of the Wehrmacht and seize the radio stations. In some countries, Nazi fifth columnists who had been posing as loyal citizens suddenly produced machine guns and seized the stations. Then an unsuspected French or Belgian or Dutch announcer would interrupt programs and announce: "Emergency orders! All citizens remain indoors with blinds drawn!" The civilian population was thus perfectly controlled by the invaders.

The Communist Red Army and its far-flung fifth column, highly organized in every nation in the civilized world, have perfected this Nazi total war strategy and added the diabolical infiltration technique. They used it with decisive effect in Korea. In the United States where virtually every family has a radio, radio stations would be invaluable. In fact, our radio industry long has been one of the high priority objectives of infiltrating Communists.

"One Voice . . ."

In a recent issue of the "Radio-Television Daily," important publication of the industry, the danger of American fifth column Communists and fellow travelers was recognized in the following terse warning: "In an emergency (at any given time) it would require only three persons (Communists or sympathizers) TO REACH 90 MILLION PEOPLE WITH A MESSAGE! One engineer in master control at a radio network. One director in a radio studio. One voice before a microphone."

The popular magazine, "Broadcasting," also warned: "Can you conceive of anyone more potent when an emergency strikes than the man at the network mike? That should

Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, who will have the responsibility of "neutralizing" the fifth column in any emergency, told a Congressional Committee: "Communist efforts toward infiltration have been intensified in . . . the communications industry."

Red Influence

In view of these facts, the recent publication of a report by a group of former high placed FBI men would be of interest to the American public. The report said, in part: "With radios in most American homes and with approximately five million TV sets in use, the Cominform and the Communist Party USA now rely more on radio and TV than on press and motion pictures as 'belts' to transmit pro-Sovietism to the American public." The 215-page report, entitled "Red Channels," lists approximately 150 actors, directors, commentators, writers, technicians, announcers, musicians, and producers of radio and TV and gives the Communist or Communist front organization to which they reportedly have belonged, affiliated with, or in whose activities they've participated. The former FBI men responsible for this report are not "witch hunters." They have a genuine concern for the safety of our nation. They say Communism has gained powerful influence in the strategic communications field. They want the public to know the facts. They are putting their finger on a real danger—when the time is not yet "too late."

Major Hartle Takes Stand For Ober Law Passage

Maj. Gen. Russell P. Hartle, Democratic candidate for Congress from Maryland's Sixth District declared today he is unequivocally for Maryland's Ober Act and is prepared to do everything in his power to have it upheld and enforced.

"The Ober Act is a big step toward stamping out Communism and blocking its insidious methods of destroying our way of life. To survive as a free nation, we must not be undermined. A real, true Marylander has nothing to fear under the Ober Act. It is only that individual who can't stand the light of the sun who may want to see it rejected," Gen. Hartle said.

The General added that "the soul of the world is sick, and the people of the world are now looking to the United States for leadership and hope. They are looking to us for leadership in a great moral crusade—a crusade for freedom, friendship and faith throughout the earth."

"Don't we have to keep our own house in order to impress the world with our leadership? To keep it in order we need such laws as the Ober Act," he added.

BABSON

Writes . . .

By ROGER BABSON

BABSON PARK, Mass., Oct. 20—It is amazing that so many millions of people in this "land of the free" have so little idea or concern as to what is done with their hard-earned cash after paying it to the government in taxes.

The American people have acquired a reputation for having made democracy work as neither it nor any other system of government has thus far worked in the history of the world. Yet, few of our citizens really know much about how the government spends or what benefits the people actually receive from this vast sum of money.

We all should know where our tax dollars are going and whether they are being wisely spent. Our children should know more about money matters, especially as they concern Congressmen as they make appeals for re-election. If more Congressmen had a better understanding of the value of a dollar and a better appreciation of true social welfare, it would not be so easy for bureaucratic parasites to waste our money.

The Tax Load

In view of the coming elections, I will confine myself here to Federal taxes and expenses, though much of what I mention might just as well be applied to state and local government taxes and expenses. Federal taxes have been increasing since the early part of the present century. Naturally, the national growth created the need for expanding our government expenditures; but unfortunately, as government grew bigger, individual and corporate incentive and initiative have been steadily undermined. This has been the fault of our Congressmen.

A review of our Federal tax structure would reveal an astonishing number of taxes, still in effect, which were enacted as "temporary" measures, throughout the past 50 years. The most recent examples are the obnoxious excise taxes placed on the statute books early in World War II. Our Congressmen have added to the tax burden slowly so as to attract a minimum of unfavorable public attention. Now they try to sell us the idea that all these increases were necessary steps in the process of our coming of age as a nation. This is not true.

Time To Be Alert

Now the bureaucrats are asking for more billions of dollars and already are framing laws which will make it possible for Uncle Sam to help himself to a much larger share of your income and mine. In these days of "inflated values," it costs a great deal to carry on a military campaign even in an area as limited as Korea. Thus, I suppose we must be resigned to this demand for more taxes. Let us not, however, be so carried away by the tension of the times that we surrender any more of our hard won liberties and rights to the bureaucrats. Let us make our Congressmen responsible to us in fact as they are in theory.

Indifference was chiefly responsible for our getting into the jam in which we now find ourselves as far as taxes are concerned. We were too ready to agree to the imposition of additional tax burdens in years past because we were high-pressured or cajoled into thinking there was no other course open to us. Businessmen, who knew better, contented themselves with merely denouncing our tax policies, and their protests were largely ignored. I hope we will all be more realistic about taxes in the future and that we will make our voices heard and our wills felt in the coming elections. If we fail to do this, we shall certainly lose more than our dollars in the critical times ahead.

Freedom Crusade Gains Momentum

"The anti-Communist Crusade for Freedom is continuing to gain momentum in all parts of Maryland. At the end of last week more than 100,000 signatures on Freedom Scrolls had been received at State Crusade headquarters in the Southern Hotel, Baltimore, and by the end of the campaign, on United Nations Day, Oct. 24, it is expected that at least 400,000 Marylanders will have joined the Crusade for Freedom," according to a statement by William G. Purnell, State chairman of the movement.

In all sections of Maryland, Freedom Scrolls bearing the declaration: "I believe in the sacredness and dignity of man. I believe that all men derive the right to freedom equally from God. I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth," are being circulated by Boy Scouts, Veterans groups and their auxiliaries, religious leaders, farm, labor, social, civic and patriotic groups. Children in private, parochial and public schools are being told the story of Freedom, and what our democratic way of life means. After being told of our free heritage, children will be given an opportunity to sign the Freedom Scrolls, and to circulate them among their families and neighbors.

The Crusade will be climaxed on United Nations Day, Oct. 24. At that time the World Freedom Bell will be dedicated in Berlin. Its sound will be broadcast to the people behind the Iron Curtain through the facilities of radio free Europe. This is the privately operated radio station that is now counter-acting Russian propaganda by getting the truth about democracy to Russian enslaved people. Through voluntary contributions to the Crusade for Freedom, facilities of radio free Europe are being expanded to a network of eight stations to carry the story of freedom, and messages of inspiration and hope to subjugated people.

The sound of the bell will be carried around the world through radio, and it is hoped that bells on churches, public buildings, and schools will ring out at two minutes after noon on Oct. 24, in an international recognition of the western world's opposition to Communism.

Catawba Honors Local Young Man

Robert Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Simpson of Emmitsburg Rt. 2, who was recently selected to sing in the Catawba College Men's Octet, has been elected treasurer of the Catawba College Choir.

A 1945 graduate of Emmitsburg High School, Mr. Simpson attended the University of Maryland for two months before he was drafted into the armed forces. After his release from the service, he enrolled at Catawba to secure his degree in business administration.

This year's choir is the largest in the history of the institution. The organization made its first appearance of the year at Formal Vespers on Sunday, Oct. 1, singing "Onward Ye Peoples," by Sibelius. Under the direction of Dr. Christopher J. Thomas, well-known composer and choral director, and accompanied by Winifred Macbride Thomas, renowned concert pianist, the choir is looking forward to a most successful year of appearances over the state.

Miss Sue Little, Baltimore, spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Kelly.

cash to support certain groups or classes of the people at the expense of all the people. That is undemocratic. It is also financially dangerous, especially when we need all our money for productive things. I am not against moderate farm supports for basic farm products, but I am opposed to the indiscriminate use of tax dollars which tends to make dairy or potato farmers a favored class.

A foolhardy farm support program might not break the country financially, in the years ahead, but eventually it could lead to the enslavement of the farmers themselves. New and higher taxes we shall probably have. They need not be much higher if each of us will take the time to impress upon those who are now up for election the acute need for drastic cuts in non-essential Federal spending.

POULTRY POINTERS

DUCK RAISING

Ducks are not only popular exhibition projects, but also excellent meat producers. There is not as large a market for ducks as for chickens, but duck raising particularly, should be considered by producers who do not have good luck with chickens. Ducks also get sick, but diseases among ducks are rare; they gain weight very efficiently; managing and feeding practices will be explained in the next Pointer.

Which Breed to Choose?

There are many breeds of ducks, but only the Pekin should be used for meat production. The Muscovy ducks are probably one of the best adopted general small farm flock birds. They are one of the best utilizers of forage, and also (as far as it can be said about ducks at all), the least noise makers. But they are not economical for commercial duck raisers. Some reasons are that drakes are much larger than ducks. Therefore, marketing is more difficult, moreover, Muscovy ducks are too good flyers for average poultry fence, and they are hard to keep confined. Their incubation period is 35 days, while all other duck breeds hatch in 28 days.

The Pekin Duck

This species which originated in China (before it became Red), should be absolutely white. Adult drakes should weigh nine lbs. and ducks about eight lbs. The color of the skin is yellow, shanks and toes should be reddish orange, and the bill should be orange-yellow, free from black. They are practically nonsitters and mainly adapted for meat production. One can keep them easily confined by low fences.

Brooding

The brooder house should face South, and each duckling should be given one square foot of floor space. Heat requirements are the same as for chicks, however, you can turn off heat for ducks at six weeks, while chicks should not be heatless for longer than seven or eight weeks.

HOMEMAKERS' CORNER

Plaid Pointers

Plaids, so popular in the fashion picture this fall, offer a few special problems in home dress making, according to Helen Shelby, extension clothing specialist. It is usually necessary to buy more material than the pattern calls for to make the plaid match at seams. Large plaids and those with up-and-down or right-and-left design take the most.

When choosing a pattern to make up in plaid, look for simple lines and little decorative detail. The plaid itself offers enough decoration so that fancy extra touches are not needed, and the fewer pattern pieces, the less difficulty in matching the design when putting the garment together.

Liver To Your Liking

Let's face it. Liver is not one of the more popular meats. But because it has such high nutritional value, it's an important addition to your family's diet. Apparently it's up to the cook to make this food delicious as well.

According to Nutrition Specialist Mrs. Natalie Russell of the University of Maryland Extension Service, the most important rule for tenderness and fine flavor is: Don't overcook. Use moderate heat and cook just long enough for the red color to disappear. Liver is a protein food, and proteins toughen with too high heat and too long cooking. Overcooking also makes the flavor stronger.

Also important is careful preparation before cooking. Remove the thin covering or bits of membrane which become even tougher when cooked. Seasoning counts, too. Try such flavorful foods as bacon, ham, onion, celery, or tomato.

A sponge placed under the bar of soap on a soap dish will keep the soap dry and prevent waste from melting. When the sponge gets soapy, it can be washed out in dishwater or wash-water so the soap is not wasted.

More than 160 varieties of fish are on the market.

Hood College Now Offering Series Of Free Public Classes

An enlarged program of evening courses for the Frederick community has been announced by Hood College for this fall, following the success of last year's offerings.

Dr. Elizabeth Eckhardt May, dean of the faculty, has arranged two units of weekly evening classes which began Wednesday and will end December 6. Eight-session classes will be: "The Nature of Music," "Characteristics of Modern Art," "Square Dancing Leadership Training," "Better Buying for the Home" and "Library Training for Church Librarians."

In addition, "American Political Parties" will be offered the first four weeks and "Women and the Law," "Chapters from English Literature" and "Background for the News" the second four. All are non-credit courses open to the public.

Teachers or others interested in studying for credit will have an opportunity to take a full-semester course in "Introduction to Modern Civilization" under Dr. James B. Ranck, head of the department of history. This class began yesterday.

Special arrangements have been made by Hood's physical education department to provide instruction in swimming for adults and children in Hodson pool. All teaching will be done by members of the Hood faculty.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Ida Goulden were Mrs. Margaret Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell and children, Charles, Russell, Patrick, John and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hirley and son, James, and Joanne Wisenna, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hirley and children, Arthur and George of Mt. Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Goulden and children, James and Mary Ida, of White Plains, N. Y.

Mr. Boh wrestles a tough problem!

1. Mister Boh was in his glory, as the announcer called his name. But when the champion he did see, he was sorry that he came.

2. "No pinching, gouging or kicking shins, and you can't pull hair or scratch," said the referee to the two of them at the beginning of the match!

3. As the bell rang out they tangled, and fell with an awful thud. Our Boh was surely losing, but in his eye there was blood!

4. "Boh" came back with a vengeance, set the champion on his ear. The crowd went wild for Mister Boh and National Bohemian Beer.

Miss Topper Church Bride Last Saturday

Miss Paula Elizabeth Topper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob J. Topper, Emmitsburg, became the bride of Robert Joseph Kaas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Kaas Jr., of New Market, last Saturday morning, Oct. 14, at nine o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg.

The Rev. Fr. Stanley Scarff, pastor of St. Anthony's Shrine Church and former pastor of the bridegroom, officiated at the nuptial mass and double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in an ivory satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in a point over the hand, fitted bodice and a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a headdress of seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white pompons and mums tied with a white satin ribbon.

The bride chose as her maid of honor, Miss Marie Kaas, sister of the bridegroom, who wore an aqua satin gown with high neckline and full skirt. She wore a floral headdress and a strand of pearls. Her bouquet of white and yellow pompons was tied with matching ribbons.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Kaas, sister of the bridegroom, and Anna Topper, sister of the bride. Miss Kaas wore a blue organdy dress and Miss Topper a pink organdy, and they carried mixed bouquets tied with matching ribbon and matching headdresses. They each wore single strand pearls. Little Miss Rosalie Kaas, sister of the bridegroom, who served as flower girl, wore a yellow organdy dress and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

David Topper, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Clarence Orndorff, cousin of the bridegroom, and Robert Jordan, cousin of the bride. Johnny Topper, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The traditional wedding marches were played by the church organist, Miss Euphemia Roter, and Prof. William Sterbinsky was violinist. Mrs. Bernard Grazer, Gettysburg, was the soloist.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a grey print dress with black accessories.

Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Beegle were in Baltimore over the week-end where Dr. Beegle attended the Maryland Chiropractic Conference at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Governor Promises Tax Reduction If Elected

Gov. Wm. Preson Lane's first official act if he is re-elected on Nov. 7 will be to call a special session of the Legislature for the purpose of reducing the Sales Tax.

The Governor announced that he will issue the call for the special session on Nov. 10, three days after the election.

The General Assembly is expected to be ready to meet by Nov. 20, and the Legislative program cutting the Sales Tax is expected to be enacted and become effective by Dec. 1.

Pointing out that the Democratic platform pledges the candidates to "carry out tax reduction wherever and whenever possible," the Governor said:

"I, therefore, when re-elected, will consider the action of the voters a mandate to make the reductions immediately.

"I will, when it is made my responsibility to do so, call a special session of the General Assembly on Nov. 10 in order to submit to it legislation for putting certain reductions in the sales tax into effect on the date of its passage."

The reductions to be submitted to the Legislature by the Governor will consist of eliminating the two per cent sales tax from all purchases under 50 cents; the removal of the sales tax from all foods, and from such household articles as soaps, cleansers, and products used in the care of infants.

When originally passed, the law taxed all purchases starting at nine cents. In November, 1947, Gov. Lane called the Legislature into special session to raise the starting point of tax collections to 14 cents.

Last July 21 Gov. Lane was the first of the major candidates for the Governorship to make a concrete suggestion as to how the sales tax might be reduced. At that time he said there was a very definite possibility of starting the sales tax at 24 cents, and expressed the hope that "if the finances of the State would permit, that this exemption bracket for all purchases could be increased to as much as 50 cents."

Commenting on this early forecast, the Governor added: "Since that date the economic result of the new defense program has become more clearly defined in the pattern of collections, and my July forecast has been confirmed."

U. S. plans to expand information work in Western Europe by 1955.

Miss Carolyn Cadle, student nurse at the University Hospital, Baltimore, visited with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Cadle over the week-end. The Cadles were dinner guests of Mrs. Donald Boyer Lower and her son, William Lower, near Arendtsville, Sunday.

Catoctin Parish, Rev. Dr. Oscar F. R. Treder, Thurmont. Also,
the west window of St. Stephen's Chapel on E. Main St., Thurmont, in charge of Dr. Treder, was evidently used as a target. The window, which is circular, composed of stained and colored glass, and of generous size, was pierced by over a score of bullets or other missiles.

Dr. Treder estimated the damage to the Ford windshield and the window in the church edifice at not less than $150. He reported the situation to Thurmont and State authorities.

Landlords Granted 15 Per Cent Increase

Hundreds of landlords in Frederick County who have not received a rent increase up to 15 per cent since June 30, 1947, will be in a position to receive such an increase in the immediate future to compensate them for higher costs of operating and maintaining their property, Dr.
William E. Trail, chairman of the Frederick Rent Advisory Board, and Thomas E. Jarrett Jr., acting area rent director, announced this week.

A simple, one page petition form has been prepared for landlords to sign to secure the 15 per cent increase, it was learned.
The form gives the landlord's name and address, the tenant's name and address, the June 30, 1947, maximum rent on the accommodation, and the new rent
the landlord desires to charge.
In order to place the plan into effect as soon as possible and to make it convenient for landlords to take advantage of it,
Mr. Barrett announced the Frederick area rent office on the 3rd floor of City Hall would be open
Oct. 23 through Oct. 27 from 10
a. m. to 4 p. m. Landlords may appear at that time and secure the proper forms.
