United Nations and the Christmas Spirit—Concluded

The Second Piece of the UN Record of Accomplishment

II. Accomplishments in the Indirect Efforts for World Peace—by the development of friendly relations among nations on the basis of respect for national rights, and by the promotion of economic and social progress and respect for individual rights.

A. Thru the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council and its Special Commissions and the Affiliated Specialized Agencies, with the cooperation of the Secretariat (and consultative services of many international and national service organizations)

Assistance to European countries whose economic systems were demoralized by World War II, in the way of raising the level of economic activity in agriculture, lumber and coal and steel industries, transportation, etc.

(Assistance also in their peculiar problems resulting from the War thru other special Regional Commissions for Asia and the Far East and for Latin America)

Education emergency work in war-torn areas of Europe in the way of removing dangerously biased material from textbooks, and helping to restore schools, libraries, and other cultural institutions

Establishment of the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF) to care for children in the war-devastated areas of Europe and later in underdeveloped countries all over the world; by the summer of '52 aid in the form of food, clothing, health care, to children in 64 countries

Establishment of the International Refugee Organization (IRO) to carry on emergency relief work and assist in relocating refugees and displaced persons following the war; also arranging for work for the "Forgotten Elite," a refugee specialists overlooked in "the great post-war reshuffling"; by '52 almost 1,000,000 persons placed in over 50 different countries

Carrying out of "technical assistance" programs in underdeveloped countries requesting such aid and able to meet the condition of

"counter-part" assistance from the country itself

Organizing international teams of experts to teach and demonstrate improved methods and use of new machinery within a country

Providing fellowships for technical training abroad. Setting up technical schools for training within a country. Providing facilities to help countries secure supplies and personnel

Specific program carried out in Burma, for example—under direction of resident representative of the Technical Assistance Administration and with the cooperation of a number of the Specialized Agencies, as is usually the case:

Improvement in rice production (Burma's chief industry) Fight against malaria and work in maternal and child care

Elimination of animal diseases

Improvement in labor laws Development of educational program in some areas no schools for 10 years)

Adoption and recommendation to Member-Nations of the following "conventions" (previously explained as a set of standards for action in a certain field; especially influential if adopted in turn by individual UN Members, but of considerable influence in any case thru power of publicity):

A convention extending to women equal rights with men to vote and be eligible for public office

A convention known as the Declaration of Human Rights defining the basic rights of human beings everywhere without regard for differences of race, sex, language, religion (a document which, though not a law, has already apparently had much influence in the direction of more liberal policies by various nations and even in the making of new national constitutions, as in Haiti, Syria, Libya)

A convention outlawing Genocide (the mass destruction of a racial or religious group) and indicating its punishment

Supplying of fundamental education for millions of illiterates, and the further task of creating "a mental and moral climate favorable to peace" thru the spread of knowledge and understanding of different peoples of the world (thru the Specialized Agency, UN Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization—UNESCO).

B. Thru the General Assembly and the Trusteeship Council, with the cooperation of the Secretariat

(Note: Accomplishments listed below are in behalf of the dependent areas of the world, for many years completely under the control of various Western Powers, as noted in last week's edition, and now in small part (the 11 Trust Territories, also previously mentioned) under the final authority of United Nations itself. Some checking on the extent to which the Colonial Powers are living up to their pledged obligations to the people of their colonies and protectorates, by examining information submitted by these Powers on social and economic progress in these territories, and then making recommendations for their improvement; also focusing world attention on existing evils.

Exercising of final authority over the 11 Trust Territories (administered locally by the Western Powers that originally controlled them) thru the activities provided for in the Charter, as follows:

Requiring and careful examination of annual reports from the administering Powers and recommendations on the basis of these reports

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.—(Romans 6,23.)

The pleasures of the day may be many, and pursued in vigorous health. But in the stillness of the night, alone with his conscience, each of us yet will come to understand the truth of St. Paul's words, and to know that the choice is ours alone—no one else can or will make it for us.

for furthering political, economic, and social progress toward ultimate self-government or independence—for example, increasing wages, providing more hospitals and health services, intensifying efforts to increase educational facilities for all the people, natives as well as "foreigners", (and undoubtedly influence of such recommendations on the policy and conduct of the Powers concerned)

Sending out of Visiting Missions to observe, make direct contacts with the native peoples, and report back to Assembly and Council: (1) to East Africa (Tanganyika, Ruanda - Urundi), (2) to West Africa (British and French Togoland and Cameroons), (3) Pacific Islands (Nauru, West Samoa, New Guinea, Marshalls, Marianas, Carlines)

Receiving and considering hundreds of petitions from individuals with personal grievances and groups concerning alleged injustices under the administering Power, and adjustment of such as far as possible thru that Power.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Bad Case of the "Ztutters"

Our copyboy is out sick. So the editor (me) is taking over some of his chores—which include running the addressing machine on "mailing-out night."

Last week I didn't have the usual number of papers left over for sale at the office. Couldn't figure what had happened—until Chub Zimmer called to ask why he'd gotten 50 copies.

Then I realized—"Zimmer" is the last name the machine prints. Guess I forgot to turn it off... and it just kept grinding out Chub's name on all the remaining copies. That machine just didn't know when to stop.

From where I sit, people are like that sometimes. They often don't know when to stop. Like those who are prejudiced against someone with an accent, perhaps... or against someone who likes a cool bottle of beer with his supper. So, in these columns I try to persuade everyone to "throw the switch" on prejudice so it won't get repeated.

THE WAY TO A WOMAN'S HEART (FOR MEN ONLY)

There's no special trick in finding the way to a woman's heart... just go to her kitchen. There you'll find the "heart" of any woman's home—her range. If she's a modern housewife, chances are she'll have a modern electric range. And if it's electric, you'll find the range is just like every good heart should be—safe, dependable and matchless. (Actually, your wife will use her electric range to find her way to your heart, for as everyone knows, the way to a man's heart is through good cooking.) If you want your wife to have the very best but still have to stay within a limited budget, make sure she has a modern electric range. See these sturdy, time, money-saving electric ranges now.

A Red Professor Talks

There has been a great hue and cry in some circles against the investigations into subversive activities now being conducted by committees of Congress. It would be well for any interested citizen, before forming a conclusion in the controversy, to read the latest series of published reports by the Committee on the Judiciary, U. S. Senate. These reports, available to any citizen upon request, give the transcript of the actual testimony in the hearings on "Subversive Influence in the Educational Process."

When I was in Washington recently Dr. Belva V. Dodd, former school teacher and college professor and one-time member of the American Communist Party's national committee, was testifying at the hearing conducted by the Judiciary subcommittee on internal security. For 12 years she taught political science and economics at Hunter College, New York City, and infected a great many students with the Communist viewpoint. During this time she worked secretly with the Communists but did not formally join the party until 1943. Thereafter she helped gain Communist control over 11,000 teachers in the New York Teachers Union. She estimated there were 1000 Communist teachers in the union.

Worked With Reds

Professor Dodd left the Party in 1949 and has since endeavored to rectify the wrongs she did her country by warning the public of the menace of the Red infiltration in every walk of life. Among the educational profession in New York she obviously was an influential personage. Attractive, cultured and fluent in her speech, she was an effective witness at the Judiciary hearing. The room was crowded, and the hearing was televised. However, the utmost dignity was maintained.

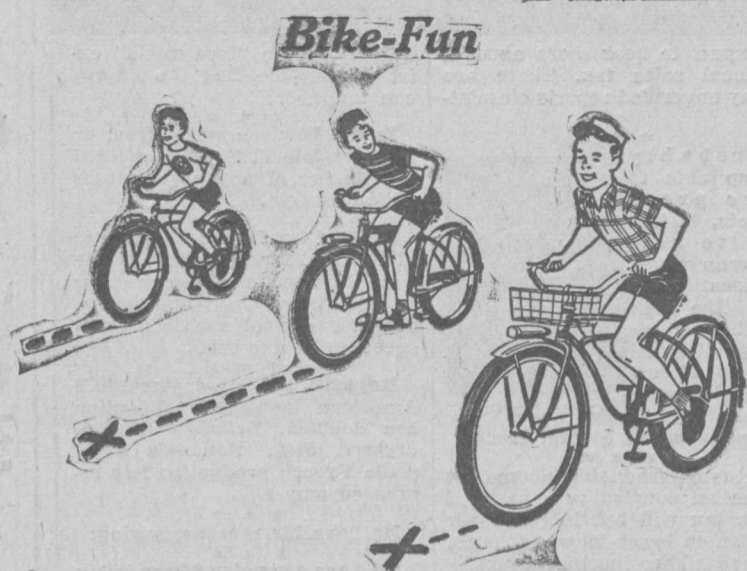

Two parts of Dr. Dodd's testimony especially impressed me as I heard it in Washington and then read it in the report just published. During a number of years while an influential professor at Hunter College she was secretly doing the Communists' work for them, although not officially connected with the party.

Fellow Traveler Menace

"I raised the question of whether I should or should not belong to the Communists," she testified. She was instructed by a Communist official as follows: "No, it is not advisable for people like yourself, who are in strategic positions, to become members of the Communist Party, to have a card or to attend meetings." Thus she was a fellow traveler, doing the bidding of the conspirators, while comparatively safe from exposure. Under these circumstances she was more valuable even than if she were a party member. The significant thing is that the Communists have claimed about 500,000 fellow travelers working in organizations and institutions throughout the nation, calling themselves "liberals."

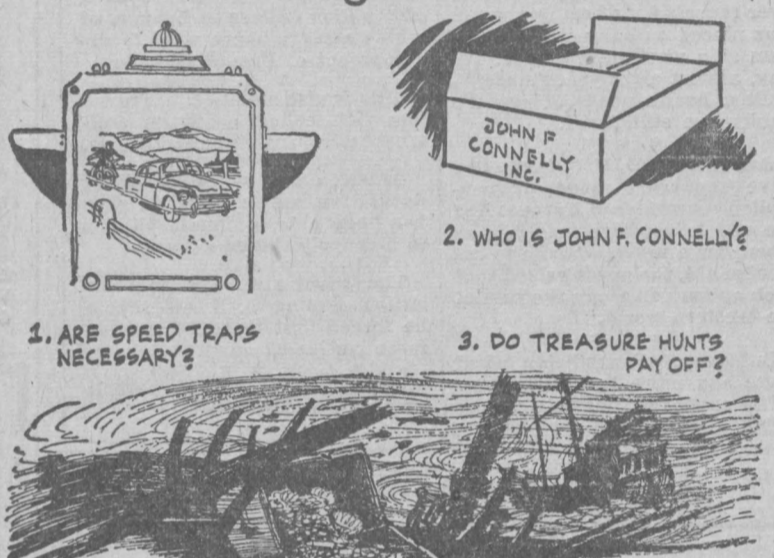

The other portion of Dr. Dodd's testimony, of special interest, concerned the smear tactics which the Communists use against anyone who effectively fights them. While she was a top official in the party, she said, "If anyone tried to attack the Communist movement, the Communist Party, immediately went among its allies, and on various bases got the support and help of these people to smear and to isolate any person who was hurting Communists."

Smear Their Enemies
Dr. Dodd testified: "There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that anyone in America who dares to buck the Communist conspiracy is going to receive very rough treatment from Communists, who learn how, unfortunately, to utilize many unsuspecting people who think they are supporting freedom of thought but who in reality are the best protections for the Communist conspiracy."

COASTING RACE—Here's a race that's lots of fun for bike riders. Participants pedal as hard as possible for at least 15 feet to a given starting line. Then the idea is to see which rider can coast the longest distance with his feet off the pedals. It takes some skill to keep the bike on a straight course. A referee marks the spot where each rider stops—and the next group tries to beat the last winner's marks.—from "Bike Fun," published by Bicycle Institute of America, New York, N. Y.

Knowledge is Power

1. ARE SPEED TRAPS NECESSARY?
2. WHO IS JOHN F. CONNELLY?
3. DO TREASURE HUNTS PAY OFF?

(1) William Lydgate, writing in Today's Family, states that they are not necessary. He points out that nearly half the states have speed traps, and that, in most cases, they are used to unjustly fine motorists. The out-of-town motorist is usually the goat. People who are driving through the state on their way home from a vacation cannot afford to wait until the local court opens to plead their case before the justice of the peace. So, the traffic cop makes them pay a heavy fine in cash on the spot. Often the policeman keeps part or all of the fine.

If you have been victimized by a speed trap arrangement, Lydgate suggests that you write a complaint to the Department of Public Relations, American Automobile Association, Washington 6, D. C.

(2) He's the Philadelphia man whose container plant was destroyed by fire in January. After his loss, offers of help poured in to his office. Six competitors began filling Connelly's orders with his labels on the finished containers. The goodwill became contagious, according to Cy Peterman's article in The Catholic Digest, and equipment manufacturers began diverting machinery to Connelly for his new plant. Many of his 360 employees pitched in with representatives of 13 different unions to refurbish the damaged plant.

(3) Many do not. One of the most-explored islands is Cocos, about 400 miles off the coast of Costa Rica. A sea captain named Thompson, who was skipper of the brig, Mary Dear, told a friend that he had buried gold, silver, and jewels on Cocos island in 1820.

For a century now treasure hunters have gone to Cocos with dynamite, spades and hot clues. Their hunt is described by Mary G. Reynolds in America's magazine. They have so changed the face of the island that an accurate map of the treasure location would be of little value now.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flick and children, Altoona, Pa., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sherwin over the weekend.

Robert Jordan, U. S. Army, Fort Devens, Mass., and Miss Mary Louise Jordan, Baltimore, spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jordan.

duties of general passenger agent for Blue Ridge—a post somewhat similar to his new position as it called for the development of transportation business within company-served territory.

Rises With Power Company

B. G. Atwood has been appointed Area Development Representative for the Potomac Edison System. As the title indicates, he will interest himself in those things concerned with the economic and industrial growth of this area.

In cooperation with others, especially local and state Chambers of Commerce, attention will be centered on helping bring in new industries and in assisting in the development of local industry. Vacant industrial buildings often attract industry. They can be listed with the nearest district manager of the Potomac Edison System, for Mr. Atwood's attention. Prospects developed will be referred to the owner for negotiation.

Atwood's appointment further enlarges these activities of The Potomac Edison System, which have been carried on for many years. In his work Mr. Atwood will report to PE's General Commercial Manager S. S. Bradford.

Mr. Atwood has had working experience with several phases of the company's operation, well fitting him for his new office. He started with PE in 1937 in the Hagerstown District as a civil engineer. In later years he held the posts of transmission engineer for PE and transportation engineer for the Blue Ridge Bus Lines. In '51 he took over the

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat
FREEDOM STILL RINGS
AMERICANS HAVE HEARD THE LIBERTY BELL ECHO THEIR FEELINGS MANY TIMES. IT HAS TOLLED MOURNFULLY FOR VARIOUS STATE DEATHS AND WARS—PEALED JOYFULLY FOR JUBILEES AND HOLIDAYS AND PEACE.

ON JULY 4, 1776—THE DAY WE CELEBRATE OUR NATION'S BEGINNING, THE DAY WHEN THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS ADOPTED IN CLOSED SESSION THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE, WITH A FIRM RELIANCE ON THE PROTECTION OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE—THE LIBERTY BELL HUNG SILENT.
NOT UNTIL JULY 8 WAS IT RUNG—TO CALL PHILADELPHIANS TO A PUBLIC READING OF THE DECLARATION, AND THEN TO JOIN ITS GREAT VOICE WITH THEIRS, IN REJOICING.
YET, FOR AMERICANS TODAY, THE DURABLE OLD BELL NEVER RANG AS LOUD AS ON THE DAY IT DIDN'T RING AT ALL.

Party Successful

The VFW block party held Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of last week was very well attended each night with a record crowd Saturday night. Music for the affair was furnished by the Emmitsburg Municipal Band under the direction of Walter A. Simpson. Two prizes were awarded each evening with the following winners: Mrs. S. V. Henshaw, electric iron; Mrs. Francis Little, gift basket; Mrs. Joseph Knott, suitcase; Mrs. Austin Nusbaum, basket of fruit and groceries; Eugene Eckenrode, McSherrystown, lawn mower, and Jerry Rightnour, 15 one dollar bills. The prizes were donated by local merchants. The annual party was for the benefit of the VFW ambulance maintenance fund and it is believed $1000 will be netted from the 3-day affair.

Personals

Mr. John J. Hollinger, Mr. Sterling White and Mr. Roger Adams attended the annual volunteer firemen's convention held last week in Ocean City, Md. They represented the Vigilant Hose Co.

Mrs. Agnes Garner returned to her home last Friday after visiting for two weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Gregg and three children, Cherry Point, N. C., and with relatives in southern Maryland. Her son, William, of Washington, D. C., joined her in North Carolina and accompanied her to southern Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sprigg and children, Camp Hill, Pa., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wivell. Mrs. Rita Felix, Harrisburg, also spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wivell.

Mr. Landon Edwards, Richmond, Va., visited over the weekend with his wife and children who were visiting her mother, Mrs. Valerie Overmann. Mrs. Edwards and the children returned to their home in Richmond with Mr. Edwards on Sunday. M/Sgt. and Mrs. Fred Bower and children of Jacksonville, Fla., are spending several weeks with Mrs. Bower's mother, Mrs. Roy Bollinger and with Sgt. Bower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bower, New Windsor.
