The near zero temperatures we have been enduring this week have shocked us into a state of realization that the advent of the Christmas season is upon us. . . in fact its just about here. Everywhere you go the spirit is prevalent. Practically all towns have adorned for the occasion. Stores are full of scurrying gift-seekers and the newspapers and television screens are chock full of Christmas advertising. Christmas is in my opinion, the most happy season of the year, barring none. Everyone appears mantled in friendliness. Even the advertising salesmen report warm receptions from prospective space buyers. When this happens we're certain the spirit it has been instilled. Even the boss is wearing a smile these days (something that'll disappear immediately after Christmas for another year). Anyone need a good reporter?

The opening of the new Frederick by-pass brings the county seat within a stone's throw, so to speak. No longer will motorists have to travel through the congested city area, but can breeze right past straight south in a matter of minutes. For the benefit of shoppers the new by-pass will prove to be a boon as it goes right by the new shopping center. It also will make entry into the city for those shoppers wanting to deal downtown, much easier. Our own new road when finished next year will wipe off minutes from the time it takes to travel to Frederick.

The town's new tax rate which will become effective in January, apparently has been fully explained to the general public after Monday's meeting when the town officials went into a huddle with a representative group of the citizenry. Many questions were asked and answered, I believe to the satisfaction of all concerned. I think it was just a case of feeling the pain before the injury. Everyone knew the tax rate would have to be increased to pay off the debt incurred by the installation of a new sewerage system but as the time went on apathy set in. It was not until last week that the citizenry stirred from its lethargy realizing that the first of the year is just about at hand and new tax bills will go out. Like a bear, freshly awakened from its hibernation and hungry, the public demanded the answers to a lot of questions. The Town Officials had those answers and the meeting went off in a pacific-like manner, despite previous intimations. This tax increase will be reflected down through the line to each and everyone of us. Over $300,000 has been borrowed and must be repaid. It will take exactly 30 years to do this little trick. Despite it all, Emmitsburg will be a vastly improved town by the new system and the cost of living here is absolutely no higher than any other town in the area. There will be some to disagree with this but in the final analysis our tax rate is comparable to any others of towns our size. Some towns have different methods or systems of levying taxes but it all comes out about the same. Some have low real estate tax rates while they make it up on high sewer rental taxes and tap-in charges. Take for instance Thurmont. The town's tap-in charge I understand is $75 while ours' is only $20. Other towns have similar charges but the final resultant charge is about equal to ours, so don't let anyone tell you it costs more to live here than any other town because they're actually talking through their hats.

Lions Club Ready For Xmas Party

The general public will be invited to view a movie film entitled "Wall Street" when it is shown at the Lions Club's January 26 meeting, it was decided at the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club held Monday night at Fitzgerald's Mason-Dixon Inn, Vice President Ralph D. Lindsey presiding. Twenty-five members were present at the meeting. The film is a highly recommended one documentary of the financial transactions Wall Street style and is being supplied by the A. B. Collum Co., Frederick. Charles R. Fuss was appointed to make arrangements for the projection of the film which more than likely will be shown in the Lutheran Parish Hall.

The presiding officer expressed his thanks and appreciation to the committee in charge of the recent Charter Night. The group agreed to suspend the second December meeting in lieu of the annual Kiddies' Christmas Party which will be held Dec. 24. A discussion took place concerning the location of the annual party on the Square. Safety measures were discussed and a number of other locations talked over. It was decided finally to again hold the event on the Square.

Mounties Are Off To Shoddy Start; Drop Three

Jim Phelan's Mt. St. Mary's College cagers split a pair of contests the latter part of the week, first winning handily over an Elizabethtown, Pa. aggregation 79-57 last Thursday on the latter's floor. The Blue and White struck a snag Saturday when Georgetown set them back 85-76 on the Emmitsburg floor.

The Phelanmen, enjoying a big height advantage, raced to an easy 79-76 victory over the Elizabethtown College dribblers Thursday evening at Elizabethtown to chalk up their first victory of the campaign after dropping their opening game to Steubenville. It was the initial game for the losing Bluejays.

Jim Phelan's Mountaineers were on top all the way. They used their fast-breaking tactics to good advantage early in the game and at halftime had piled up a commanding 43-25 lead.

Ernie Cage, the sharp-shooting Mount freshman, rammed through 24 points on 10 goals and four free tosses to lead the winner's attack and also to be high scorer for the evening. His 10 goals came on but 16 shots.

Bert Sheing contributed 19 additional points while seven other players broke into the scoring column.

After setting a brisk pace Saturday throughout the first three-quarters of the game, the Mounties yielded the lead and bowed to Georgetown University 85-76 at Emmitsburg.

The Mountaineers threw a big scare into the Hoyas by rushing off to a 14-2 lead in the first five minutes of play and at half time were on top 41-36.

Georgetown kept coming in the early minutes of the second half and took the lead for the first time on Tom McLaughlin's three-point play at 58-55 after 10:11 minutes. From that point on Georgetown was in front.

Ernie Cage, the Mount freshman ace, again topped his team in scoring with 24 points and sparked the Mountaineers throughout the first half. Other Mount players scoring in double figures were Bert Sheing with 16, Jerry Bohlinger with 12 and Jack Marshall with 11.

The Mount (1-2), opened its Mason-Dixon Conference schedule on Wednesday evening at the University of Baltimore.

YOUTHS CHARGED WITH LARCENY

Five Emmitsburg youths were apprehended Sunday evening and charged with the larceny of a quantity of beer from Ohler's Tavern, east of town. The arrests were made within a matter of hours by State Trooper William G. Morgan and Police Chief Robert L. Koontz. The loot was recovered by the two officers. Alleged to have participated in the theft were James Jones, Robert Crum and three juveniles.

After interrogating the five, authorities obtained information pertinent to several other unsolved petty larcenies which occurred here during the past year. Solved was the larceny of the Emmitsburg Recreation Center which was broken into last Thursday night and a sum of money taken. Robert Crum, Robert Carson and a juvenile were alleged to have made the entry. Also solved was the robbery last spring of Bowman's Garage and charged with the theft of money from the garage was the previously mentioned trio.

The older youths were given a hearing yesterday before Magistrate Charles D. Gillelan, Emmitsburg. The three juveniles will be held for juvenile court which resumes after January 1.

Frederick By-pass Opened

The $6,314,489 Frederick by-pass circling Frederick on three sides with 21 miles of super highway, ramps and interchanges opened Tuesday afternoon.

The official opening came at 3:25 o'clock when Governor Theodore Roosevelt McKeldin cut the black and yellow ribbon which was the only remaining roadblock to the by-pass entrance from U. S. 40 east of the city.

Participating in the by-pass opening ceremonies with the Governor were Mayor Jacob R. Ramsburg, County Commissioners Delbert S. Null, Merl H. Ramsburg, Senator J. Glenn Beall, Congressman-elect John Foley and other state, county and military officials.

Robert O. Bonnell, chairman of the State Roads Commission, opened the ceremonies at approximately 3 o'clock by saying, "we are all very proud of the road we are about to dedicate. The road system around San Francisco has nothing on this one."

"To mention just two of the contracts for the construction of the Frederick by-pass, the road between U. S. 40, U. S. 240 and U. S. 15 has four miles of ramps and interchanges alone which cost $825,000 for a total cost of $1,300,000," Bonnell said.

The other contract for one and three-fourth miles of by-pass between West Patrick street and Motter avenue, contains two an one-fourth ramps and interchanges at a cost of $1,022,000 for a total cost of around $2,000,000, plus $865,000 worth of improvements on Motter avenue itself," Bonnell continued.

The State Roads Board chairman introduced Mayor Ramsburg who spoke briefly, saying, "I will long remember this day of the realization of the end of traffic congestion in downtown Frederick. This is a great service for the city."

Mr. Null, president of the Board of County Commissioners, speaking for all three Commissioners, said he wanted to "thank the people of Frederick County for being willing to accept the cost of this new roads system which benefits the whole state."

Bonnell introduced the other notables on the dedication platform, Commissioner Ramsburg, County Attorney James McSherry, State's Attorney Samuel Barick, Delegates William Houck and Charles Collins, and SRC District Engineer Thomas G. Mohler, Colonel Joseph C. Prentice of Fort Detrick, Congressman-elect Foley and U. S. Senator J. Glenn Beall.

Local Woman Is Contest Winner

Mrs. J. Henry Troxell, 134 W. Main St., Emmitsburg, has been named a winner in the recent Frigidaire "Sweepstake" contest which was held throughout the country.

As a winner, Mrs. Troxell was awarded a new Frigidaire Custom Imperial automatic washer and dryer. The presentation was made by D. S. Dorman, Potomac Edison Sales Supervisor for this area, and S. E. Breth, PE local manager at Taneytown.

According to Supervisor Dorman, Mrs. Troxell's name was picked from thousands and thousands of entries. Mrs. Troxell, he said, learned of the contest while watching a daytime TV program which mentioned the event. She submitted her name and shortly afterwards became one of the ten top winners in this nationwide contest.

Roads Board Has Snow Plan

Temperatures outside were below the freezing point Tuesday night, but inside the meeting room they were described as more of a torrid nature as a verbal lambasting was delivered by an Emmitsburg representative at the regular meeting of the Frederick County Roads Board held in Frederick.

Edgar G. Emrich, representing the Emmitsburg district on the County Roads Board, threw a verbal jab at continued delay in launching the roads department's decentralization plan.

Emrich led other members in recalling the department's troubles at the time of the blizzards last winter, and stressing how the calendar warns that heavy snow conditions may again be near at hand. At the end of Tuesday's meeting of the Roads Board, Emrich noted he had called several months ago for rapid completion of the decentralization setup.

"What progress has been made?" he asked. "Is decentralization in effect, and if not, why not?"

"I resent it when a motion of mine is ignored. Are we going to have decentralization or aren't we? No matter how fast we may be going in setting it up, we aren't going fast enough."

"What's the reason for the holdup?"

(The Roads Board agreed earlier this year to try a plan under which the county will be divided into six districts, each of which will be made virtually independent in handling road maintenance in its own area. Overall general control will remain centered at the department's offices in Frederick. Such a system, operated through foremen named for each district, is designed to save the county money and speed maintenance.)

Board Member Austin Renn quickly joined Emrich in criticizing the delay in completing the decentralization experiment. Board Member Russell Keler of the Middletown district recalled some of his own experiences during last winter's emergencies.

All agreed that many of the complaints by the public during the blizzards last winter were justified, but Board President Delbert S. Null pointed out that many residents blamed county officials for blizzard weather conditions beyond everybody's control.

Null, who also heads the Board of County Commissioners, admitted however that "we've been slow in establishing decentralization."

County Engineer O. Wilson Runkles told the board that five districts in the new setup are already operating "on their own" and preparing to meet snow conditions. Only the Jefferson district, he added, remains to be organized.

Main cause of the delay in that part of the county, he said, is the lack of suitable land, available for county rental or purchase, to park equipment and store certain maintenance supplies. Also, he explained, his department ran into unexpected delays in selecting qualified men for the foremen duties.

General effect of the discussion was to put the new decentralization plan "on the spot," when hard winter strikes, even before its organization is complete. Much of the discussion centered on how early in the morning snow plows could start working, when needed.

All such matters, Emrich pointed out, would be made far easier through the decentralization plan. Last winter, he said, all the snow-clearing equipment had to be based at Frederick each night. Emrich asked for and was promised a report on progress in decentralization at next month's board meeting.

Town Council Explains New Tax Rate

Emmitsburg's proposed new tax rate which would cost the local taxpayers 70 cents every $100 on the assessed value of their properties, apparently will remain as proposed it was apparent after a public meeting held Monday evening in the Town Office.

Chairman of the Board of Commissioners Charles R. Fuss presided over the meeting. A group of about 30 local citizens and businessmen were present and many entered protestations pertinent to the newly proposed tax schedule. The officials of the town comprising the entire executive body, were present, including Attorney Edward D. Storm. Mayor Clarence G. Frailey, cited comparative figures with other nearby towns and it was generally accepted that Emmitsburg's new rate was not entirely out of line with these figures.

The meeting was one of an informative nature more so than one of amendments to the recently adopted rate schedule. Regarding the merchants' inventory tax which would have automatically been applied to the real estate hike, it is believed Council will draw up a new category of taxation making the inventory tax an entity to itself in order to be able to keep the present rate of 50 cents on the $100 status quo. Most businessmen present seemed in agreement with this plan.

Members of the Council explained the amount borrowed to finance the new sewer project and told the group that it was to be amortized over the maximum time limit of 30 years. Tap-in charges were raised from $2 to $20 and the annual sewer rent has been hiked from $5 to $25. Unquestionably the cost of financing this project will create an increase in the renting of houses and apartments. The consensus of the group present was that an increase of from $3 to $5 should cover the added increase of taxes. The Town Fathers adopted this new tax structure several months ago and apparently it will remain as adopted. Tax bills will be sent out early in 1959. In an effort to lessen the burden Council has deemed that the taxes can be paid on a quarterly basis for those desiring it, at no additional charge. Still under debate is a tax setup for business places, however, it is generally believed that the Town Solons will rate most of them on a family unit basis, exceptions being such public places as taverns, schools, restaurants, factories, etc.

LOCAL RESIDENT PREVENTS THEFT OF AIRPLANE

An Emmitsburg resident was among Air Force members who recently prevented a 35-year-old New Jersey man from stealing an air force training plane at Hanscom Air Force Base, Bedford, Mass.

The man, Donald Leo Lutman, of Bound Brook, N. J., said he planned to fly the plane to visit the ailing leader of a Hindu sect of which he is a disciple.

According to news stories from Boston, Lutman caused $2,500 damage to the plane when his attempts to start the trainer jet blasted off the canopy.

Two airmen, Staff Sgt. Maurice E. Fitz Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fitz Sr., DePaul St., Emmitsburg, and Tech. Sgt. Harold C. Smith were attracted to the ramp by the sound of the exploding charge which shot the canopy of the plane into the air. When they arrived Lutman ordered the two sergeants to "gas it up."

Fitz and Smith, after some discussion, induced Lutman to leave the plane and accompany them to headquarters where they turned him over to the FBI.

When patients pay their bills, hospitals frequently are compared to hotels in the rates they charge. The comparison is fallacious and indivious.

Hospital patients sometimes have trouble understanding what they pay for because their knowledge is limited to what they have seen from their rooms. In most hospitals only about one-fifth of the space is occupied by beds. In the other four-fifths are the expensive equipment and housekeeping facilities that are necessary for the care, comfort and treatment necessary to guard life and speed recovery. Here work the many employes seldom or never seen by the patient. Hospitals have two employes for each patient; hotels average one employe for every two guests.

tween hotels and hospitals. You sleep and eat in both. There the similarity ends. Even the check-in procedure is vastly different between a hotel and a hospital. At the hotel desk all that is required is your signature and address. For sound medical reasons a hospital must have much more information about you. At the hospital your admission is frequently followed by a recording of your medical history, extensive tests and examination by a doctor whose training has included nine or more years of post high school study.

You will, of course, find a bed for your use in both a hotel and a hospital. But your hospital bed incorporates an expensive device to raise and lower you, facilities for affixing various equipment for your treatment, and a buzzer to summon skilled people to your side.

For about 60 cents an hour a hospital patient in a semi-private room gets dozens of round-the-clock services. Touch your buzzer and your hospital dispatcher a competent young woman to your side. She will take your pulse, administer medicines, watch for and record changes in your condition, bathe you in bed, feed you when necessary, plump your pillow, and change your linen. Linen changes average 14 pounds a day.

Your hospital will serve you three meals a day in bed, depending on your condition, plus between-meal nourishment frequently. In many cases food must be carefully weighed to the last gram and specifically prepared to your own need as prescribed by the doctor.

In addition, there are "extras" which your hospital provides but which hotel and other businesses need not purchase, operate or include in their bills. Available in many hospitals are the services of a resident and medical intern staff. From one to a dozen laboratories are maintained on a ready-to-serve basis where skilled technicians test and analyze body fluids and surgical specimens. Complex X-ray machines, costing thousands of dollars, are operated by men and women with lifetimes of training.

Your hospital buzzes night and day because sickness and emergency do not await an 8-to-4 shift. This hammers at hospitals' efforts to keep their cost of operation down and their charges to a minimum.

Like neither hotels nor other businesses, hospitals treat, house, feed and care for people whether they can pay or not. In Pennsylvania this year the expense of this free or part-pay service will amount to a staggering $34,500,000. Money from government sources and contributions nowhere bridges the gap. Hospitals got no reimbursement at all this year for $18,000,000 of this care.

BY ROGER W. BABSON

Babson Discusses Surrendering Freedom For So-Called "Security"

Babson Park, Mass., Dec. 11—As I look back over my sixty-odd years as a voter and try to interpret the Democratic landslide of the last election, which happened while I was in Africa, I am forced to this conclusion: The average voter today is more interested in seeking "security" than he is in keeping "freedom." Now the only real security which I have been able to discover is spiritual security. This is confidence in one's God and in oneself so that, come what may, one can, and will, not only survive but meet competition successfully. So the thing that disturbs me most about the present wholesale desire for security, particularly in a time of plenty, is that it suggests a senile civilization, not the youthful, fearless men that made this nation great.

The Democratic landslide was a tremendous rebuff not only to the present Administration's "pay-as-you-go" domestic policy, but also to its foreign-aid policy. The voters seem to be saying, "We want peace, but we are unwilling to sacrifice for it." Our fathers knew that freedom and peace were conditions that had to be cultivated by each generation. Life, for our forefathers, was full of hazards. They were in danger of being scalped by the Indians, were often cold and hungry and without material comforts; but they were free men. Today we are slowly, but certainly surrendering those hard-won freedoms as we move in the direction of a welfare state.

Soak The Rich!

Subsidies and guaranteed "womb-to-womb" economic aids of every variety have to be paid for by someone. Uncle Sam has no mystical source of revenue. Money for your unemployment security or old-age pension comes out of your pocket, not Uncle Sam's. He has no pockets; and if he did, I am afraid they would be full of holes! When you put a ceiling on a man's earnings by taxing his initiative, man tends to give up. And when you soak business and industry, you begin to destroy those financial sources that built our great educational institutions, hospitals, research centers, and libraries. You then begin to scare away private risk capital because the return is just not worth the risk. Then government steps into the breach to subsidize those projects which private capital formerly undertook. This means that more money has to be collected from your pay check in the form of taxes. Furthermore, as government takes on these responsibilities, it also assumes control over them. Thus, the individual, little by little, surrenders certain aspects of his freedom in exchange for what he thinks is security.

In my humble opinion, it then becomes but a matter of time before national bankruptcy sets in; in that event, all of our economic legislation may not be worth the paper the laws are written on. It may not happen in your lifetime, or perhaps in your children's life span; but it can happen sometime. The history books will look back upon such a period as an era of economic leaches. I have long said that the next sizable depression will be brought about by organized labor's over-reaching itself. While we should be grateful for labor's watchful eye, we should at the same time be concerned about strikes and about any of labor's actions which result from the Anti-Trust laws.

Our Founding Fathers

Our founding fathers expressed their freedom in terms of responsibility. Each, indeed, was his brother's keeper. Men were close to one another. If there was a fire, they had to work together to put it out; if roads were to be built, the building became a community project; and the laggards were chastised by their neighbors.

One trouble today is that the average citizen has become so far removed from community responsibility that he has really lost touch with democracy in action. Too often the average man gives little thought to much of anything beyond the evening TV programs. It is almost as if he were unaware that freedom in our U. S. A. is fighting for its very life.

Record Volume Of Tax Returns Mailed

The largest direct mailing of Federal income tax forms in the history of the Baltimore collection district was announced this week by Irving Machiz, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue.

Mr. Machiz said 1,316,962 tax returns (Form 1040 and 1040A) for area taxpayers will be placed in the mail the latter part of December.

He said the annual job of designing the tax forms has been completed by the Forms Committee of the Washington headquarters of the Revenue Service, and that the presses of the Government Printing Office now are turning out the forms.

He further stated that returns for the Baltimore District taxpayers alone will require 124,720 pounds of paper. That is enough, he added, to make a single sheet large enough to cover 215 1/3 acres.

Looking Ahead

...by Dr. George S. Benson
DIRECTOR - NATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAM
Searcy, Arkansas

A Citizen's Political Responsibility

In the nationwide elections last month 46,000,000 people voted. That constituted about 60 per cent of the eligible voters in the United States. In other words, four out of every 10 eligible voters failed to exercise this great individual freedom and thus defaulted on their greatest citizenship responsibility. Even though only 60 per cent voted, this was a far bigger percentage than vote regularly in local, county and state elections. The sad fact is that counting all elections, only about 20 per cent of the eligible voters vote regularly.

Even among the 60 per cent who did vote last month, not more than 10 per cent actually worked in a precinct political organization trying to win victory for the candidates and issues of a particular political party. In other words, most American citizens are not active politically. The only political responsibility they accept is the casting of a ballot. They take no part in the actual selection of candidates or issues. They do not get down into the firing line of politics at the precinct level. All these responsibilities are left to a comparatively small group.

We Let "George" Do It

What this means is that a few thousand people in a given state, or a few hundred in a county or community, virtually run the politics, call the shots on candidates and issues. And their work on election day shapes the future of every American citizen. Look around you in your community and state. How well does the average voter or eligible voter know the candidate for whom he voted? Did you have a part in shaping the issues? Is the candidate the best man in the community, the best qualified for the office and service for which he is asking election?

If the answer to this last question is No; then you as a citizen in one of the few remaining free countries of the world are falling down on your political responsibility. You are jeopardizing freedom and all the potential blessings inherent in our American way of life.

Zealous Political Workers

Lenin in Russia 40 years ago set out to win a political objective. He had only 40,000 followers. But they were zealous in their cause. They were willing to work and make sacrifices of time and energy. This little group of Communists won their first objective—the overthrow of the Russian government and the establishment of a Marxist Socialist state. Today the Communist Party whose leaders run Russia (and have enslaved a big segment of the world's people) numbers about 6,000,000—or 3% of the population of Russia. They are working at, and winning control of the world.

In England during the last 50 years a tiny group of people who called themselves Fabian Socialists worked zealously and effectively in politics, and they finally won control of Britain and drastically changed the governmental structure. In a few years, they had so dissipated the economic strength of the nation that there is now serious doubt that Britain's 50,000,000 people will escape the quagmire of total Socialism or Communism.

Announcing A Filmstrip

Throughout history we find similar clear lessons reaffirming that no people can long default on their full political responsibilities and continue to be free. In our National Education Program workshop in Searcy, we have developed a dramatic sound-color filmstrip which brings this fact right to the doorstep of the families of America. It is being offered to individuals, groups, associations, political parties, industries, employee organizations, civic clubs and schools.

The filmstrip presentation is entitled "A Citizen's Political Responsibility." Its stated objectives are: (1) to promote better individual citizenship by motivating the citizen to understand politics and become active in the party of his choice; and (2) to inform the citizen in the practical aspect of political action at the precinct level. It might well be called "a blueprint" for individual or group political action. It is being distributed at production cost—$18 with turntable disc and $20 with tape recorded playback. This is another public service project of our National Education Program designed to strengthen and safeguard the structure of American freedom.

Xmas Seal Sale Big TB Aid

Red Schoendienst of the Milwaukee Braves recently developed tuberculosis. In a statement just received by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, Red said:

"I have recently been made acutely aware that tuberculosis is not a disease of the past and that it is apt to concern any of us at any time. New methods and new drugs have been developed, however, that are going to make my recovery quicker and more certain than it might have been a few years ago. This progress has been supported by the traditional sale of Christmas Seals, making it possible for TB associations throughout the country to carry on their fight against tuberculosis with education, case finding, research and rehabilitation. It really is a coincidence that my tuberculosis was first mentioned November 14. That's the day the Christmas Seals of the Tuberculosis and Health Society of St. Louis arrived at my home. I didn't realize how my friends I had gained through my efforts on the baseball field, but the hundreds of letters and the cards that have poured in since I entered the hospital are wonderful. I just hope that they will all have Christmas Seals on them, because that's what will knock TB out of the ball park! (Signed) Red Schoendienst" The 1958 Christmas Seal sale is now in progress and will last until Christmas Day. Frank T. Jones, Executive Director of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, has said that Maryland's TB rate is one of the worst in the entire nation. Christmas Seal money is used to control TB within the state.

Planned Exterior Colors Beautify Entire Community

Scientifically-planned color on the outside of homes makes a better neighborhood as well as better houses.

This is one of the axioms of color consultants Albert and Nancy Rubey, a man-and-wife team who are leaders in their field in the San Francisco Bay area.

Talents and training such as the Rubey's offer is one reason California development builders are leaders in offering entire developments that are planned to be more pleasing to the eye and to the inborn good taste of most prospective home buyers.

The photograph shows an example of one of the Rubey's most recently color-styled homes. The house, priced at $16,000 and located in a development of 275 homes in the East Bay area of Hayward, is simply styled with an asphalt shingle roof in sun-reflective silver gray,

Read 1 Corinthians 13:8-11. When the perfect comes, the imperfect will pass away (1 Corinthians 13:10 RSV.)

A saint loves everyone, but a witch hates everyone and loves only herself. This is the distinction made in John Van Druten's play about witchcraft entitled Bell, Book and Candle.

Gillian, the attractive young witch, works her magic. Her secret potions, however, begin to lose their control over her. Then she learns the truth of a old saying: "A witch loses her powers if she should ever fall in love." When genuine love destroys her secret witchcraft, the play closes with a happy ending.

An eternal truth is presented here. Love and evil cannot co-exist. When the perfect comes, the imperfect passes away.

This is the story of Christmas—Love incarnate coming into a world of selfishness and hate. And when Love enters the human heart, transforming life itself, the imperfect passes away and God's plan for us is fulfilled.

Conservation Reserve Contracts Ready For Signing

New Conservation Reserve contracts now being signed by farmers in Maryland will in general become effective on April 15, 1959 according to Julius P. Parran Chairman of the Maryland Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

All Conservation Reserve contracts require that the land included be devoted to grass, trees, or a water or wildlife conservation practice. If the conservation practice to be used on the designated land is performed before April 15, the contract becomes effective at the time the practice is started.

This means that 1958 crops on land put in the Conservation Reserve this fall can be harvested before the contract goes into effect. In addition, the land put in the Reserve for the first time this fall may be grazed until the contract goes into effect. After the contract goes into effect the farmer agrees not to graze the land or harvest a crop from it. He also agrees to refrain from harvesting Christmas trees and ornamentals from Conservation Reserve land on which forest trees have been planted.

Bids Opened On New Building

Five construction companies submitted bids for the two story addition which will be built at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary. It was announced by Page, Knight, Knight Commander and Grand Knight. Promotion will be dependent upon the boys' knowledge, conduct, spirituality and grade in school.

The first meeting of the group was held Thursday at 7 p. m. in St. Euphemia's Hall at which the following young men were installed as officers: Supreme Grand Knight, Lawrence Orendorff; Vice Supreme Grand Knight, Gerald Righthour; Secretary, Terence Byard; and Treasurer, Eugene Ling.

Fr. Martin Sleasman, C.M., is the Moderator of the group.

nounced this week by Rt. Rev. John L. Sheridan, president of Mt. St. Mary's College.

The bidders and their bids include:

Kirby and McGuire Construction Company, $193,700.

Henry A. Knott, Inc., $200,000.

Cogswell Construction Company, $209,000.

Although the contract was not let when the bids were opened Tuesday afternoon it is believed that the low bidder will receive the contract.

The addition will be two stories of cement block and native stone. It will have 20 rooms and two suites for members of the faculty.

The annex is not planned to increase the seminary enrollment but to relieve the present congested condition.

The low bidder, Lawrence Construction Co., built Pangborn Hall at the Mount several years ago.

Edward A. Tormey, the architect, representatives of the building and finance committee of the school were present when the bids were opened.

Work will start as soon as the contract is let.

It was also announced this week that Mt. St. Mary's has received an unrestricted grant of $2,000 from the Esso Foundation.

Public School Report Cards Being Studied By Various Groups

A revised system of report cards in the county's public schools has made its initial appearance—in which personal attitudes and habits of the pupils are reflected along with classroom progress.

Education, said the first reaction from parents has been generally good but he emphasized that the report card status is still subject to change.

He said that as pro and con reactions are received, modification will be considered, if warranted, and the report cards will then undergo further revision.

The new report card system is the outgrowth of a study initiated last year when Parent-Teacher organizations of all schools were asked to submit recommendations to the Board of Education. From these suggestions and information compiled by school officials, the new system was worked out.

The report cards in the elementary schools are somewhat similar to those used in Middletown school as a test last year. They hardly come under the old definition of a "card" since they are in booklet form, conveying information about subjects other than classroom study such as courtesy, ability to get along with others, etc. The student is graded as satisfactory or unsatisfactory in the classroom subjects taken.

In the high schools, in addition to the grades, the students are also rated as to the "use of ability." Another section of the report gives ratings to such matters as initiative, self control, courtesy, use of time, etc.

The old report cards reflected only the student's scholastic progress. The new cards go a lot further than that—reflecting the teachers' opinions on personal attitudes and habits of each student.

There are some who feel that the new cards—which would be called "progress reports"—are an improvement over the old style, although admittedly not perfect. And there are others who are dissatisfied with the new arrangement.

EHS LINERS TAKE TWO

Emmitsburg High School "Liners" made it two in row Tuesday as they beat Fairfield 50-45. The Liners led all the way, and had a 14-point advantage in the third quarter.

Humerick and Shriver fouled out of the game and Fairfield began to narrow the margin. High individual scorer for the night was Morris Zentz with 18 points. The Liner JV's took their second game 29-18.

The regular meeting of the Francis X. Elder Unit 121 of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Dec. 2 in the post home with 27 members present. Ann Shorb presided over the meeting. The minutes of the Nov. meeting were read by Secretary Ethel Baumgardner and Virginia Sanders, the treasurer, gave a report.

We now have 92 members paid up for '59. Last year (1958) we had 126 members and our quota for 1959 is 125. If you have not paid your 1959 dues, contact the membership chairman, Madeleine Harner.

The annual Christmas party of the Auxiliary will be held Dec. 16 at 7 p. m. Your 1959 card admits you to the party. Committees appointed for the party were as follows: Decorating, Madeleine Harner, Melva Hardman and Ann Shorb; food, Madeleine Harner and Ann Topper. Everyone is to bring a $1.00 gift.

It was reported at the meeting that Madeleine Harner, Ann Shorb and Jane Hess cleaned the meeting room last month. Many hours were spent on the project and they deserve a lot of credit. The gift box chanced off was won by Reba Ohler. The door
