Three Guilty Of Killing Illegal Deer
Two military men attached to President Eisenhower's Camp David mountain retreat, near Thurmont, and a tavern operator of near Thurmont, were recently convicted of illegal possession of deer out of season and each fined $100 by Magistrate Paul M. Little in Thurmont. The fines on James T. Duke, U. S. Navy from South Carolina and Harry W. Spade, U. S. Marine Corps, of Middletown, guards at Camp David, and Harry Robert Carson, operator of the Casablanca motel and tavern, north of Thurmont, were suspended by the magistrate when the prosecution failed to prove that the doe was killed illegally. According to testimony of Game Warden Richard W. Jacques and Robert Abraham, the skinned and butchered carcass of a doe was found in a walk-in refrigerator at the Carson property in November prior to opening of the season in Maryland. The wardens were assisted in the case by State Trooper H. J. Brown. State's Attorney Samuel W. Barick prosecuted and Edwin F. Nikirk represented the defendants, who pleaded not guilty.

BABSON

Writes . . .

BY ROGER W. BABSON

Babson Discusses Health

Babson Park, Mass., Jan. 8 —Every reader of my weekly column knows two things: First that I have just returned from a 20,000-trip to Africa; and secondly, that I am not a physician and have not the right to speak with authority on health.

The Report Of Doctors

I have had some rheumatism in my left leg, and Mrs. Babson has had some bursitis in her shoulder. We have been to nine doctors and all have told us: "Forget it. Almost every-one your age has aches and pains." The above doctors' comment may be true; but this is what I know! After two weeks on a cargo steamer of the Farrel Lines, during which time I had no mail, no cables, and no telephone calls, my rheumatism went away entirely and Mrs. Babson had no bursitis.

I exercised considerably, walking on deck, and went to bed leaving my portholes wide open. In fact, my cabin had good cross ventilation. During the time spent on the ocean and in the wilds of Africa, we were free of all aches, we "ate like pigs, and slept like babies." Upon returning home, I found my desk piled with mail; whether my rheumatism will return I do not know. But my guess is that many such aches are due to the unnecessarily busy and nervous lives we lead. Doctors should tell us to take our religion more seriously and practice more of Jesus' teachings against struggles and worries.

Is Warm Weather Climate Sufficient?

Many feel that if they go to some warm climate in the winter, it will solve their health problems. Perhaps so; but probably not, if they continue to receive too much mail, use the telephone too freely, and enter into the customary social life of southern winter resorts. I have a definite illustration in this connection which shows the need of exercise both in the house and in the fresh air. Let me tell you about this.

Among my acquaintances is the widow of a former president of one of the largest chemical companies in this country. They had a beautiful home in Florida and were very wealthy. She suffered greatly from arthritis in her hands. She finally sent North for the nation's most famous specialist in arthritis to come to Florida and spend a few days in her home where she was living with her six servants. When he returned North, the doctor left the following prescription. A Specialist's Prescription

"Sleep with windows open and a fan blowing in your face, as if you were sleeping on the deck of a steamer. Neither give nor attend cocktail parties, and always leave the dinner table a little hungry."

Then the specialist added:—"most important of all, after each meal let your hands soak in hot water fifteen minutes, as if you were washing dishes! Each morning, go out on the lawn and stretch as though you were hanging clothes to dry on a line! Finally, get an indoor bicycle to ride, and discharge five of your six servants, including the chauffeur!" In about a week came a bill for one thousand dollars.

Something I Do Know About

Africa is a most wonderful continent, rich in all natural resources except oil. It has four strong banks with hundreds of branches; these pay 4½% interest on time deposits. Africa has wonderful stores and factories of all kinds in such cities as Cape Town, Johannesburg, Pretoria, and especially Salisbury in Southern Rhodesia. In Johannesburg, sixty five years ago, there were only a few people and they all lived in tents. Today the population is six hundred thousand, and there are dozens of skyscraper buildings.

If I were a young man, I would seriously consider settling in Africa for health and a fortune. I would forget diamonds and gold, but invest in either the copper industry or the chemical industry. I am sorry to say that Africa, unlike Canada, is on the pound-shilling pence basis, which handicaps Americans who would like to invest therein. When, however, Africa goes on the decimal system, like Canada, there will be even greater opportunities, for both investment and profit. In conclusion, let me say that one need not take sea trips to Africa for either health or investment. Many

Assistance Available On Filing Income Tax Returns

The Internal Revenue Service during the 1959 income tax filing season will again stress self-help as its basic theme of taxpayer assistance, District Director Irving Machiz of the Baltimore office announced this week.

"The self-help program has now been in effect about four years," Mr. Machiz said, "and we believe that more and more taxpayers are becoming familiar with the requirements for sound preparation of Federal income tax returns. Essentially, self-help means that taxpayers complete as much of their returns as possible before asking help from us. Most taxpayers can do the whole job after a careful reading of the form itself and its accompanying instruction booklet.

We are still going to provide help to those who actually need it and we shall again stress our telephone assistance program, which will enable taxpayers with one or two problems to call us for a quick answer designed to enable them to complete preparation of their returns. Office assistance will be available where required but will naturally entail considerably more of the taxpayer's time.

The most important thing to the taxpayer in preparing a return or in seeking telephone or office assistance is to have all of his 1958 financial records at hand and to have all the necessary facts in mind. And again let me remind taxpayers that it will be much easier to prepare a return or to obtain any help needed early in the filing period, rather than waiting until the late stages of the season when telephone lines are jammed and offices are crowded.

If you have a tax problem, and the answer isn't in your instruction booklet received with your tax forms, call your local Internal Revenue Office.

Wheat Acreage Is Higher

The planted winter wheat acreage is slightly higher than a year ago, but yield and production are estimated below the 1958 levels, according to the first report on the 1959 wheat crop received at the Maryland Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

Total seedings of winter wheat for all purposes this fall are estimated at 45.1 million acres—12 per cent less than the average.

A 1959 winter wheat crop of 957 million bushels is indicated compared with 1 billion 180 million bushels the past year.

The crop report indicates that an increased amount of wheat acreage moved under the Conservation Reserve program for next year. Nearly 4 million acres of winter wheat were freed from the 1958 Acreage Reserve and presumably were available for seeding in 1959, the Department of Agriculture points out. A seeded increase of less than one million acres suggests closer grower adherence to allotments as well as a shift of some of the 1958 acres in the Acreage Reserve to the Conservation Reserve for 1959.

The same report indicates that the estimated rye acreage sown for all purposes in the fall of 1958 is 3.9 million acres, 12 per cent less than in the fall of 1957 and slightly below average.

Estimated figures for Maryland give a reduction of 2,000 planted acres, down to 177,000 acres for 1959. Increase in the estimated yield based on crop conditions as of December 1, however, indicate a five per cent increase in Maryland wheat production this year.

Sometimes on a quiet street of a sequestered village, one can sense the tranquility of yesteryear's simple life and sturdy virtues. Today's pace is faster, its problems more complex, but the virtue of thrift, so esteemed by our forebears, can still contribute most importantly to our peace of mind. Systematic saving remains today as always, the keystone of happy, contented living.

Heart Disease Is Nation's Leading Killer

Heart and blood vessel diseases were reported today to overshadow all other causes of death in Maryland. A compilation by the Heart Association of Maryland of date for the Maryland State Department of Health revealed that diseases of the heart and circulation account for greater than half of all deaths in the state. Figures were for 1957, the latest available. Of 26,213 total deaths in Maryland in 1957, 13,930 were traced to cardiovascular diseases. This is a percentage of 53.1, a slight change from 1956's 53.0%. In a statement accompanying the data, Maryland Heart Association president Nelson T. Offutt of Baltimore pointed out that the facts of mortality make the continued support of heart research, ed to cardiovascular diseases. The lowest mortality rate occurred in St. Mary's County, where only 39% was recorded. Mr. Offutt stressed in his statement that although these statistics demonstrate an overwhelming seriousness of the heart problem in Maryland, they fail to convey the "hopeful aspects." "There is a growing confidence among medical scientists," he noted, "that the more serious of education and community programs essential. He called attention to the fact that heart disease is not only serious in elderly persons, but that even among those under the age of sixty-five, heart and related disorders claim more lives than the next five causes combined, including all accidents.

In Maryland, in 1957, deaths from cancer accounted for 16% of the total. Accidents claimed 5%. Pneumonia, diabetes and tuberculosis accounted for 3%, 2% and 1%, respectively. Other causes were blamed for the remaining 20%.

Heart related deaths were most common in Garrett, Caroline, and Washington Counties, where more than 60% of all deaths were traced heart conditions will be overcome through the concerted effort which the Heart Association is carrying forward in research, in professional and public education, and in community programs.

Paul T. Frisch, Chairman of the 1959 Heart Fund campaign in Maryland, added that the coming drive is clearly worthy of exceptional support from the public. "The Heart Association of Maryland," he said, "is conducting this fight against our state's most serious health problem. If the people will consider the importance of the job, and give their support in proportion, we can be assured of the funds to help carry the fight to its conclusion."

Mr. David J. Kerrigan spent the weekend of Dec. 17 in St. Joseph, Mich., with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Kerrigan Jr., and a few days in Emmitsburg with Mr. and Mrs. J. Ward Kerrigan.

and Mrs. Thomas J. Berger and daughter, Helen, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reese and son, Bobby, and Steve, all of Baltimore, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Martins, St. Anthony's.

The Enemy Within

Hardly ever does the idea of a piece of Congressional legislation originate in the mind of a Congressman. It usually is suggested by individuals or groups who stand to benefit with passage of the legislation. But quite frequently the interested parties get a "water boy" or "bird dog" to make the suggestion and follow through on it. And these "water boy" lobbyists sometimes are in the form of respectable-sounding but misleading organizations. The pressure constantly applied in Washington for legislative action helpful to the international Communist conspiracy often appears to be coming directly from some of the nation's leading non-Communist citizens, moved to action by an organization.

The efforts of the Communists to wreck our immigration safeguards is a case in point. Recently the House Un-American Activities Investigating Committee held hearings on Communist political subversion, probing particularly into their organized efforts to weaken our immigration laws. "Within this one field of immigration," reports Richard Arns, director of the Committee staff, "we found 200 organizations recently created by the Communist Party in 15 key states, all of them set up for the purpose of engendering grass roots sentiment to destroy the immigration laws. Terrific Accomplishment"

Arens draws attention to the program of just one of these 200 organizations: "These are their accomplishments during one year as reported by their secretary: In this one year, this organization published and distributed more than 5,000,000 pamphlets; printed 142 memorandums and 98 leaflets; sponsored and initiated 62 radio programs — 19 on a network basis with nationally prominent speakers — provided speakers to 412 meetings of organizations and groups; provided special material which served as the basis for 14 articles in nationally circulated magazines; serviced newspaper columnists, editors and radio commentators; sponsored eight national and 27 regional conferences; and testified at 23 hearings before Congressional committees. This was one organization of the 200 created by the Communist Party for the one purpose of destroying our immigration laws.

"The Communists' greatest success is this tactic of persuading so-called liberals and the public at large that their program is not a Communist program but simply a program for liberalization, for democracy and for humanity."

Flooding The Country This floodtide distribution of propaganda by one Red-front outfit, prompted Mr. Arens to check the New York port-of-entry office in charge of processing literature shipments from the Iron Curtain countries: "I asked (the officers in charge) to hold for three days all the Communist propaganda coming into New York City. I thought he was joking when he said: "There would not be enough warehouses on Manhattan Island to hold it!" I went down there and I raised my hand over my head and walked through three warehouses.

"These warehouses were stacked with mail sacks piled up higher than my hand over my head. This was just one day's processing of Communist propaganda coming into the United States, all of it in violation of law. . . . Under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, a person who is an agent in the U. S. for the purpose of disseminating Communist propaganda originating abroad, must do two things. First, the Communist propaganda itself must be labeled and identified as political propaganda. Secondly, the agent must register with the Department of Justice under the Act. With State Department Approval

"We had noticed in the course of the last several years that this propaganda has begun to flood the country. We noticed it was being disseminated by consulates and embassies in the U. S., informational services and the like. We got in touch with the State Department people and said, 'How about this?' These people are not registering, yet they're disseminating this material all over the United States." They said, "We'll look at the law." The law on diplomats exempts them as long as they are engaged in activities which are recognized by the Department of State as being within the scope of functions of such officers.

"So the Department of State issued a ruling, which still is outstanding—a ruling that educational activities of this nature are within the scope of

Very Few Not Concerned With Social Security

Social Security is everybody's business. Those few people not directly concerned with social security become indirectly affected by the program, in one way or another. Wherever millions of people are receiving benefits it becomes a big factor in a nation's economy, and it is a foregone conclusion that our society will always be concerned with and responsible for the security of its aged people and for the protection of survivors of those who die or become disabled before they reach retirement age. Without social security every member of our society would have to "foot the bill" for these people in some other way.

Since the start of social security some twenty odd years ago, the Congress of the United States has periodically made changes in the law to make it more effective in one way or another. Recently the 85th Congress enacted legislation which will raise social security benefits beginning with January 1, 1959. All those people who are now receiving benefits will see this increase in the check they receive for the month of January, 1959. Any person already getting social security benefits need not apply for this increase since it will automatically be added to the January check received early in February.

This new increase in benefits is approximately 7% and here are some examples of this increase:

(1) An individual now receiving $70.00 a month as his or her own retirement benefit at age 65 or disability benefit at age 50 will get $75.00.

(2) A retired woman worker who elected to get her benefit at age 62 and now gets $86.00 a month will get $92.00.

(3) For a retired couple, if the wife started drawing benefits at age 62 if their present benefit is $148.00 it will be raised to $159.

Beginning January 1, 1959, the maximum monthly payment that can be made to any one family is $254.00; until these recent amendments the maximum monthly benefit to any one family was $200.

functions of such officers and they are not obliged to register or label their material."

So the floodtide of literature, skillfully prepared to subtly shape the thinking of people toward specific step-by-step Communist goals in America, flows into our colleges, libraries, schools, homes, industries and organizations. This is flow of poison and it should be so labeled with the Red label or abruptly halted!
