Nothing was more welcome here than the rain that fell this week. It really made one feel exuberant and happy just to see the stuff fall and run down the gutters. It has been a long time, practically three months since we have had any measurable precipitation. It really made one feel like taking a walk in the stuff. It slowed business to a standstill here but merchants were quite happy just to stand in their stores and gaze out the windows at the downpour. It is hard to estimate the damage done this summer by the lack of rain but the amount is known to be a sizeable one with the farmers taking the brunt of the blow. Some will never recover financially and others will continue their struggle for existence hoping this is the end of the five-year drought cycle.

Those of you who are business and civic-minded are asked to attend the Chamber of Commerce to be held Tuesday in an effort to get the organization going again. It is common knowledge that we need some type of business group here and some effort must be made to obtain new business and industry. Ladies and gentlemen both are invited to join the membership and put their shoulder to the wheel. It is a community effort and YOU are invited to join. Should you like to go to the banquet and hear what you, as a citizen of Emmitsburg can really do to help the community, make a reservation at this newspaper or Myers Radio & TV or the Emmitsburg Feed & Farm Supply. You are welcome and you don't have to be a business man or woman.

While the Lions Club is busily engaged trying to get some mail boxes for the Town, I recently was in our neighboring friendly town of Thurmont. One quick glance showed me four mail boxes on just one of the main streets. I didn't have time to check the other main street or side streets but there are several more. It seems ludicrous that we don't have a single one here. Let's hope the Lions are successful in their efforts.

Well our local candidates in the just passed election didn't fare too well throughout the county, as was anticipated, but they did receive splendid support locally and that makes us very happy. We knew it was going to be an uphill fight from the very beginning and we were almost certain of the outcome. Anyway, we voted the courage of our convictions and the rest of the county knows now there is an Emmitsburg in the north part of our beloved county.

C. Of C. Will Reorganize

The Emmitsburg Chamber of Commerce, in an organizational drive, has invited numerous individuals to a dinner-banquet to be held at the Emmitt House on September 20, at 7:30 p.m. Annual dues are $10 and it is hoped to gain quite a few new members. Although invitations have been extended to some individuals it is to be understood that anyone interested in joining is welcome. The banquet is free to those attending, the expense being borne by the Chamber. Women members are encouraged and the deadline for reservations is Sat., Sept. 17.

Interested individuals are asked to immediately contact any of the following: Ralph D. Lindsey, Myers Radio & TV, or the Emmitsburg Chronicle.

Town Plans Water Dept. Improvements

Emergency water plans were discussed at the regular meeting of the Burgess and Commissioners of Emmitsburg held Monday night in the Town Office. All Commissioners were present but Mayor Guy A. Baker, Jr. was absent due to illness. Chairman of the Board Joseph M. Haley presided over the meeting.

Emergency plans for obtaining water were discussed as were plans for the installation of an impounding dam on the water shed. This new dam would provide a water resource estimated to be about double the size of our largest reservoir, Rainbow Lake, which has a capacity of some 30,000,000 gallons.

Present also at the meeting were the following citizens: Dr. George W. Green, Bernard H. Boyle, Frank S. Topper, Ernest Shriver, and the town's attorney, Fred Bower.

Dr. Green discussed water conservation plans and also called to the attention of the Board the condition of a number of side-walks in the corporation limits.

Frank S. Topper discussed the town's insurance set-up and was awarded, on a bid basis, most of the Town's necessary insurance business.

Ernest Shriver asked the Town if it were possible and feasible to obtain water and sewerage facilities for his property at the intersection of Creamery Road and Rt. 15 just east of Town. He was assured the facilities were available if he would bear the expense of running the lines to the nearest Town outlet.

Joseph Baldacchino appeared before the Board with a petition signed by several hundred signers calling for the Town to continue its garbage hauling agreement with the present collector, Charles R. Wetzel. The Board told him to present them with permanent copies for verification of signatures before any action could be taken. Sterling Orndorff was employed as assistant public works director at a salary of $4500 annually.

During the meeting the future improvement of the water system was talked over and it was decided to abandon any plans at this time for the erection of a pumping station at the Keilholtz farm on Toms Creek west of Town. A new pump has been purchased for a well at No. 2 reservoir and the old pump has been installed at No. 3 reservoir's second well. Well-drillers have been engaged in case of necessity and should the shortage of water continue one or more wells will be dug immediately. The dam would be built for use next year. Permission to locate a trailer on the Cloyd W. Seiss property on Federal Ave. was denied due to complaints of residents in the area. Commissioner Haley obtained permission of the Council to bring St. Clair Maxwell, the Town's engineer, here to discuss the installation of several water valve vaults on the Frailley property in an effort to control the water pressure before it enters the Town.

Bernard H. Boyle suggested to the Council that Stop Signs be supplied to the school patrol watching the intersection near his store where Mother Seton School children cross several times daily. The Town agreed to purchase the signs for all school patrols and ordered the assistant public works director to assist at the crossings while Chief Law is absent. Council ordered repaired the alley adjacent the Daniel Kaas property on W. Main St.

A special meeting was held on Aug. 26 to discuss the status of resigned Town Commissioner Norman Flax and to authorize him to work part time as Public Works Director. At another special meeting held Sept. 1 the Board met with Samuel C. Hays, former owner of the Water Company. The Board asked Mr. Hays to consider taking the job of Public Works Director on a full time basis but Mr. Hays declined, stating that he would assist in an advisory capacity at any time but under no conditions wanted the responsibility of a full-time position.

Ernest Shriver asked the Council to consider action to re-activate the Sixes Bridge Dam project which has been abandoned by the Army Engineers Corps. Council said it was interested and will meet with a representative at a future date. County officials also are asking for activating the project in the interest of obtaining more water for the area as well as becoming an economic stimulant to the community.

Mahoney, Burch, Goldstein, Elected By Democrats

GEORGE P. MAHONEY

While garnering only 1,295 votes in Frederick County, George P. Mahoney gubernatorial candidate, ran surprisingly strong state-wide and apparently won the nomination for Governor in Tuesday's primary election.

Thomas Finan carried the county by gathering 3,510 votes. His other strong opponent, Carlton Sickles, received 1,531.

Mahoney's victory was close and hard-fought and there still is some question as to the outcome before the election is officially closed. Latest figures Thursday had Mahoney leading Sickles by a scant 900 vote lead. All three Democratic aspirants received over 100,000 each.

Spiro T. Agnew, Baltimore County executive, tucked away the Republican nomination for governor with a state-wide landslide victory over Andrew J. Groszer, his closest opponent.

The race for Attorney General remained close as Clinton E. Bamberger and Francis B. Burch battled for the Democratic nomination, with Burch finally winning

In other state-wide races, Louis L. Goldstein won the Democratic nomination for comptroller and Charles S. Bresler the GOP nomination for the same office.

Mahoney, riding an apparent "white backlash", received most of his early support from popu-

The 64-year-old Baltimore contractor campaigned on "A man's home is his castle" platform in opposition to any open housing legislation.

But Mahoney lost ground to Finan and Sickles in the Washington suburbs in Prince George's and Montgomery Counties.

Among Maryland's more than one million registered voters, Democrats outnumber Republicans almost 3 to 1.

In addition to statewide races, there were contests in six of Maryland's eight new congressional districts drawn by a federal court. Nominees also were chosen for a 43-member State Senate and 142-member House of Delegates reappointed this year on a one-man, one-vote basis.

Car Completely Bi-sected

Thomas J. Ridenour, 39, Thurmont R2, was admitted to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, at midnight Saturday after his car struck a tree, split in half, and then part of the vehicle flew into the kitchen of a home near St. Anthony's.

State Policeman Tfc. E. W. Lennox, who investigated, said Ridenour was driving on Maryland Rt. 806, the former Rt. 15, at St. Anthony's, three-tenths of a mile from the intersection of the road with the Kelbaugh Road. Ridenour lost control of his car, applied the brakes, skidded 224 feet and struck a tree.

The vehicle broke in two and part of the auto went into the kitchen of the Ernest J. Andrew home.

Police estimated damage at $2,300 to the car and $2,000 to the home.

Ridenour was transported to the hospital in the VFW ambulance, where he was admitted suffering from lacerations of the nose and upper lip, contusions and abrasions of the forehead, face, chest and abdomen and a large laceration of the right forearm. X-rays indicated he suffered no broken bones.

Exit Drought—Enter Flood

DROUGHT?—The three-month drought was broken Wednesday as over nine inches of rain descended on the Emmitsburg District. Above photo shows Toms Creek at the foot of Toll Gate Hill overflowing its banks and flooding the state road. New chain link fence on both sides of the road located on the property of St. Joseph College was damaged by the flooding water.

RAIN DAMAGE—Flooding conditions are shown at Charnita as the nine-inch rain sent swirling water over the golf course and picnic area of the widely-known resort. Photo shows heavily flooded stream as it approaches the dam of Charnita's largest lake. Some damage to the breast of the new dam was evident.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Sanders, Emmitsburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Richard Leo Wivell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wivell, Emmitsburg.

Miss Sanders, a 1965 graduate of St. Joseph's High School, is employed at State Farm Insurance in Frederick.

Mr. Wivell, also a 1965 graduate of St. Joseph's High School, is employed at Black and Decker in Hampstead. No wedding date has been set.

680 Enrolled At St. Joseph College Now

Saint Joseph College opens its 157th year with the largest enrollment in its history according to Sister Felicia, Registrar. The student body of 680 represents a 5% increase over last year's registration. The entering class of 171 freshmen is also the largest ever recorded at the local institution.

The campus census lists 24 states including Alaska as home-towns, and several foreign countries including Germany, India, Japan, Italy, Switzerland, China, Bolivia, Paraguay, Guatemala, Puerto Rico, Cuba and Canada.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Warthen, Emmitsburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Audrey Estelle, to Kenneth Talbott Swomley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Swomley, Jr., Emmitsburg.

Miss Warthen, a 1965 graduate of St. Joseph's High School, will attend Frederick Community College this fall.

Her fiancé, a 1965 graduate of Mt. St. Mary's College, is employed on the faculty of Dillsburg Elementary School.

An August wedding is planned.

Voter Registration Dates Set

The Emmitsburg Democratic Central Committee announced that registration for the November election will reopen on Sept. 24. After that date citizens can register at the Supervisor of Elections Office in Winchester Hall, Frederick up until the closing date of October 3, prior to the General Election.

Candidates Elected; Light Voting

Frederick County went to the polls Tuesday in light voting to elect candidates for the numerous offices available. Emmitsburg voters probably number slightly higher than the rest of the County, due ostensibly, to the fact two local men were running for office.

Norman Flax, candidate for County Commissioner polled a total of 706 through the County, 273 of which came from here. Robert Muench, an aspirant to the Democratic State Central Committee, received 1,324 votes in County voting.

Democratic County Commissioners elected, unofficially, were Charles E. Collins, 3691; Lawrence A. Dorsey, 3204, and Wallace E. Hutton, 2914.

Republican candidates successfully elected for County Commissioner were: Russell Z. Horman, 2860; Bruce E. Crum, 2178, and Mrs. Lorene Bowlus, who topped this list with 2967 votes. Mrs. Bowlus is the first woman ever successfully elected to head the ticket for this office in this county. Crum with 2,178 votes narrowly nosed out J. Richard Hudson, who polled 2,121 votes. The other GOP candidates for commissioner were William G. Hill III, with 1,266 votes, and Charles W. Mumma, who polled 1,281.

In the only other primary contest on the county level, Crum-mell P. Jacobs won the Democratic nomination for sheriff, defeating former Frederick City police sergeant Denver J. Shook, 3,047 votes to 2,909.

Collins jumped to an early lead in the tabulation of returns, and was never headed. With 16 of the county's voting precincts counted, Collins had tallied 752 votes to 596 for Dorsey and 528 for Hutton.

At the half-way point in the count, Collins had piled up 1,805 votes, Dorsey had 1,515, and Hutton had 1,333. Other Democratic candidates for the three commissioner slots recorded the following vote, with 38 precincts reporting: Lloyd Stup, 1,155; Carroll Kehne, 1,041; Gordon Smith, 1,053; Daniel Poole, 533; and J. Norman Flax, 223.

On the Republican side, Mrs. Bowlus and Horman were the early leaders, and the race for the third slot on the ticket was neck-and-neck between Hudson and Crum. William G. Hill and Charles Mumma were far behind the front four.

Crum, who sought the office of commissioner unsuccessfully once before, drew most of his strength from the rural areas of the county, where he is well-known by virtue of his years in farming. Hudson, on the other hand, was particularly strong in the municipal areas.

Hudson, making his first bid for public office, campaigned heavily on the basis of his experience as a management engineer and his background in real estate management.

The Democratic primary contest for sheriff was a see-saw affair from the start. With 16 precincts reporting, Jacobs led by the slim margin of 34 votes, 597 to 563, but at the half-way mark Shook had pulled ahead, 1,430 to 1,386.

Carroll County Republicans, carried both senatorial nominations while Frederick Democrats captured their party's nod in runoff for the Carroll-Frederick district's two senate seats.

Mrs. Mary B. Bryson, and Joseph H. Hahn, Westminster mayor, both survived strong home showings by Frederick County candidates Mehrl F. Wächter and James S. Ensor to win the GOP nomination for the November general election.

Frederick Democrats Goodloe E. Byron and Charles H. Smelser both ran well against Thomas R. O'Farrell of near Westminster, and carried big majorities in more populous Frederick County to win the nomination.

The vote combined county totals: GOP—Hahn, 4,839; Mrs. Bryson, 3,812; Wächter, 3,764, and Ensor, 2,221; Democrats—Smelser, 6,634; Byron, 6,615; and O'Farrell, 5,106.

Incumbent Delegate C. Clifton Virts polled 4,974 votes to lead incumbent William M. Houck who had 4,496 and William F. Cramer, Jr., 3,546. Ruby V. Hahn, 2,630 and Alban W. Smith, 1,625, trailed the leaders.

On the Republican side incumbent E. Earl Rensberg polled 2,000.

Orientation Held At St. Joseph's

St. Joseph College's Senior Orientation Committee extended a welcome on behalf of the entire student body to the incoming class of 1970 on Sunday, Sept. 11. The Committee's greeting marked the beginning of an entire week of campus activities during which freshmen were introduced to the many aspects of life at St. Joseph College. Later in the evening following the college's official welcome by Sister Rosemary Pfaff, President, the seniors hosted a "Get acquainted party," for the Class of 1970.

Freshmen officially embarked on their college careers with registration for classes Monday morning. In the afternoon, Sister Gertrude, dean of students, met with the new students to familiarize them with college regulations. The convocation was followed by a faculty tea. A trip to Mt. St. Mary's Grotto, the Gettysburg Electric Map Museum and dinner in Gettysburg, filled the evening hours.

On Tuesday the sophomores and juniors arrived on campus, and the orientation program continued with an introduction to the Cooperative Government Association and the college's other clubs and student associations. Later in the day freshmen met with Sister Margaret Hughes, Academic Dean, who discussed the academic aspects of life at St. Joseph's. Tuesday night, juniors who serve as Big Sisters to the freshmen, met their little sisters with whom they corresponded during the summer.

Sister Rosemary delivered the President's address, "Saint Joseph College and the Role of Its Students," on Wednesday morning. In the evening the Senior Orientation Committee, headed by co-chairmen Beth MacPherson and Ann Wylie, introduced the freshmen to the town of Emmitsburg. Thursday marked the beginning of classes for the entire student body. Later in the afternoon, in the rustic setting of the log cabin at Tom's Creek, seniors and freshmen enjoyed a picnic supper, and on Friday night the freshmen will treat their senior counselors to dinner in Gettysburg.

The junior class will present the traditional "upperclassmen welcome to the freshmen" on Saturday night. At the conclusion of the program each little sister will receive the customary red bud and statue of the Blessed Mother from her junior big sister. Orientation week comes to a close on Sunday, and the official opening of the academic year 1966-67 will occur with the Academic Procession and the offering of the Mass of the Holy Spirit by Father John Hurley, C.M., College Chaplain.

Are We More Efficient Germ Spreaders?

In the past, people caught a relatively small number of illnesses. But many were more apt to last longer, or even be fatal. Today, due to the automobile and larger urban areas, we expose ourselves to strangers' germs more often. Annual Influenza Forecast Chances of influenza outbreaks occurring in Maryland this year may be slightly greater than forecast for the United States generally, according to Dr. John H. Janney, Chief of the Division of Communicable Diseases of the State Health Department.
"Past experience indicates that influenza outbreaks usually occur in two or three year cycles," Dr. Janney said. "In 1963, the Asian type influenza was reported in Baltimore in January and spread over the entire state, reaching a peak early in February.

"Maryland has not had an outbreak of either Type A or B influenza since that date. Consequently the chances of the disease appearing this year are perhaps greater than in other parts of the country where both types were reported rather widely in 1965-66."
The Public Health Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices, which annually issues forecasts and recommendations for the civilian use of influenza vaccines, advises that individuals in the "high risk" group be vaccinated irrespective of the forecast of the possibility of outbreaks.

Included in this group are those over 45 years of age, expectant mothers, persons of all ages who suffer from chronic debilitating diseases such as rheumatic heart disease, cardiovascular disorders, including hypertension, diabetes, broncho-pulmonary diseases such as chronic asthma, chronic bronchitis, emphysema and tuberculosis, and individuals in nursing homes or chronic disease hospitals where more crowded living arrangements may increase a risk of infection.

LOVING HANDS AT HOME

by Margie Blake, Carnation Teen Committee

Did somebody say the old crafts are dying out? He doesn't know the high school crowd! Flea markets are springing up everywhere—day-long or weekend-long sales in the biggest space in town, often the high school gym. Vendors rent space for a small fee and sell things they make themselves—and you should see what they make! Kooky earrings, leather pendants hung on thongs, carryall bags decorated with felt "pictures", and hand-printed shirts, to name a few. The craftsmen looked happy, as well they might—business was brisk the day we went!

And have you found out what's in those carpetbags so many girls are carrying? Embroidery, that's what! Which accounts for all the wild, Latin-looking flowers that decorate the side seams of blue jeans, the bell sleeves on dresses, and the bodices of plain, tank-style swimming suits. There's a lot of knitting going on, too, usually on needles about the size of curtain poles. The resulting bulky sweaters look great, and the work goes fast. And the clever girls who fashioned ponchos for winter are doing the same for summer—but making them out of two pretty, fringed bath-towels sewed together. The seam is open in the center so the head can slip through. They lay them on the beach or poolside for sunning, then pick them up and wear them home!

rudimentary plot are devised. The one we saw was an Adult Western—but a soap opera or Batman would be possibilities. Finally, as the tape whirled, an epic drama unfolded. It took several playbacks to hear it all, because we were laughing so hard. Do-it-yourself refreshments were a tray of sliced meats, tomato slices, and crisp greens; baskets of bread and sliced rolls; and little bowls of olives, pickles, mayonnaise, mustard, and catsup. Alongside was a chafing dish of creamy Carnation Cheese Sauce. The guests built open-face sandwiches and, with a ladle of cheese sauce, turned them into Sandwiches Benedict! Here's how to make the sauce: heat 1 large can Carnation undiluted Evaporated Milk seasoned with ½ teaspoon salt, until very hot but not boiling. Stir in 2 cups grated process-type American cheese.

The Carnation Teen Committee, made up of teens in schools across the country, makes suggestions for this column. If you have an idea or want a Teen Party Idea Booklet, write to CTC, 777 Third Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017.

"Each individual should consult his family physician regarding the advisability of vaccination in his particular case," Dr. Janney said. The epidemiologist pointed out that deaths from influenza and pneumonia in Maryland during the 1963 season were higher than during any epidemic in the past 20 years. Most deaths were in the 65 or older group and among those who had some type of chronic respiratory or circulatory disorder. Vaccination consists of two doses of vaccine given two months apart for those who have not had vaccine since July, 1963. The first injection should be obtained in September. For those who have had vaccine since that date, a single booster dose is sufficient. This should be obtained in November unless the appearance of influenza in the community makes an earlier vaccination advisable. In order to lessen absenteeism, which may reach crippling proportions during an outbreak, some industries and public agencies make arrangements with private physicians or the local health department to offer influenza vaccine annually to employees. In Maryland this has been done for several years by the State Police, State Roads maintenance crews, and local police and fire departments. The State Health Department encourages this program as a good occupational health practice.

Reds Consolidate War On U. S. The revelation by the Judiciary Committee of the U. S. Senate that World Communism has now made Red China the international headquarters for world-wide subversion activities and guerrilla warfare (such as that which initiated the war in Viet Nam) brings into sharp focus some of the reasoning of influential members of our Government who shape our foreign reasoning in the Pentagon, the State Department or the White House, the resultant strategy decisions could spell disaster for our nation. Just recently Congressman Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, while exploring what he described inconsistencies in Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's "theories" about objectives of the Soviet Communists, said in a House speech: "Mr. McNamara's point of view seems to assume that the Soviet and Chinese objectives are not sufficiently related in any real sense. More fundamentally, it assumes that the Soviets and the Chinese are pursuing different objectives and will continue to do so." Laird said he feared such a theory created a faulty appraisal of a world-wide menace bent on world domination. Soviets Calling Shots The shocking report just published by the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee presents documentation showing that the Russian and Chinese Communists have a common objective of world conquest and are working together to achieve it. Of equal importance is the proof that the Russian Communists are the rulers of the enemy forces and are calling the shots all over the world—in Viet Nam, in Cuba and Latin America, in Africa, in the whole of Asia, and in Europe and the U.S.A.

forces of the three continents in order to provide greater impetus to our common struggle against imperialism, colonialism and neocolonialism—led by the U. S. capitalists." Supplying Viet Nam Reds Rashidov said further: "The Soviet Union is supplying the fraternal people of Vietnam with the most modern weapons for meeting U. S. aggression. We are doing everything in order that the deliveries of Soviet military equipment—aircraft, rockets, artillery, ammunition and so on—will get into the hands of the Vietnamese freedom fighters as rapidly as possible . . .

"Socialism (Communism) is winning more and more the minds and the hearts of millions of people. Many nations of Europe, Asia, Africa, and Latin American are marching under the banner of socialism and are waging a struggle for the implementation of its ideals." (Please read Rashidov's next sentence carefully): "We are deeply convinced that socialism is the near future of all the peoples of the world." And the Soviet spokesman told his big Havana conference, representing Communist leaders from every nation:

At the recent Tricontinental Communist Conference in Havana, controlled by a delegation of 40 Red officials from the USSR, Sharaf Rashidovich Rashidov, head of the Soviet delegation, told the Red plotters from 83 countries (including Red China): "The Soviet delegation has arrived at this conference with the aim of giving all-round assistance to the unification of the anti-imperialist

U.S.A. is "The Common Enemy" "Throughout all its history the Soviet state, following the behests of the great Lenin, has been rendering all-round support to the peoples who are struggling against colonialism and imperialism (the U.S.A.) for their own national and social liberation. The peoples who rise to the great act of combating imperialism, no matter in what corner of the globe this may take place, can be assured that the Soviet people will always be at their side . . . Our common enemy is world imperialism, and first of all world imperialism led by the imperialism of the U.S.A."

Under Soviet direction, the Havana conference designated Cuba as the headquarters of the Red's world-wide subversion and guerrilla activities. The Committee on Security of the Organization of American States sounded the following warning to the free world concerning the Red activities now to be directed from Havana: "They constitute a positive threat to the free peoples of the world, and, on the hemisphere level, represent the most dangerous and serious threat that international Communism has yet made against the inter-American system. There has been no indication among our Governmental leadership in Washington that these warnings are being heeded. Cuba remains a Red sanctuary, its subversive and guerrilla activities aimed at every nation in the hemisphere. Why do our leaders ignore this fact? This question needs to be asked all over Washington, D. C.

BLINKERS vs. THINKERS BY DICK MANSFIELD

September is "Back-to-School" month for all the boys and girls in our state. With this influx of children crossing our streets—walking on highways—and playing in areas which should be restricted—the motorist must be more alert and safety-conscious than ever before. Accidents are the leading cause of death of school-age children, warns the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission. Motorists have a responsibility to protect the child life of our community, and so do the parent and teachers. The motorist must drive with care and always be aware of the child because children are impulsive and unpredictable when absorbed in play. The parent has a responsibility of living safely at home and on the highway, thus setting a good example for the child to follow. The teacher has a responsibility to teach the child safety in a way that he understands and that adds meaning to his everyday experiences. Everyone of us should accept our responsibility to our children—the goal is a rewarding one—the protection of our children. Let's send them back to school reassured that everyone is doing his part to protect all our children against death and destruction on the highways.

SUMMER SUGGESTIONS

IF the prospect of hot weather recalls previous summer sufferings, make yourself more comfortable this year by heeding these hints from Menley & James Laboratories: ONE GOOD WAY TO BEAT THE HEAT is with frequent showers. According to scientists, lukewarm water cools you off more quickly than cold water. THE BEST-SUMMER PESTS like flies and mosquitoes, limit your use of hair tonics and cosmetics, and use a residual insect spray on screens, around porches and doorways. FOR MORE FUN IN THE SUN on the beach or in the backyard, use a suntan lotion that blocks out the sun's burning rays and lets in the healthy tanning ones. TAKE A BREAK FROM HAY FEVER SYMPTOMS—if you're one of 22 million hay fever sufferers in the U.S.—vacation in a spot with a low pollen count. But if that is impossible, you always can seek relief with Contac capsules, the decongestant that helps reduce sneezing, running nose, itching and watering eyes up to 12 hours.

State Police Seeking Recruits

Colonel Carey Jarman, Superintendent of the Maryland State Police, announced this week that applications for the Trooper position are being accepted for the next Recruit Class to start early in January, 1967.

Young men who are interested and can qualify, are urged to go to the nearest Maryland State Police Installation at once for a personal interview with a uniformed member of the department. They will then be given the necessary applications for filing.

In order to qualify, an applicant must be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the State of Maryland; at the time of his appointment between the age of 21 and 31; minimum height of 5 ft. 10 in. and an approximate minimum weight of 160 lbs.; high school diploma or equivalent is required, with college credits desired. He must also be physically qualified and of excellent moral character.

Starting salary for the Trooper position is $5800.

The next written examination will be given by the Commissioner of Personnel, Saturday, October 15 in Baltimore City, Cumberland, Cambridge, and Hagerstown.

Closing date for acceptance of applications is September 18.

Soybean Support Rates Announced

County Support rates for 1966-crop farm stored soybeans in Maryland counties will range from $2.49 to $2.52 per bushel, for soybeans grading No. 2 containing 18.8 to 14 per cent moisture, James M. Voss, Chairman, Maryland Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, has announced. These rates reflect the increase announced earlier this year in the national average support rate, from $2.25 in 1965 to $2.50 in 1966. Terminal rates are not established for soybeans.

The higher rates for the 1966-crop are the result of higher market prices in recent years in relation to the U. S. average. Greater crushing capacity and larger export demand have brought about the changed market price relationships.

Premiums and discounts are unchanged from those prevailing for the 1965 crop.

Eligible producers may receive price support on their 1966-crop soybeans through farm - stored loans and purchases. Applications for support may be made at the ASCS County Office. Loans will be available through June 30, 1967. The loan maturity date will be July 31, 1967.

BABSON

Writes . . .

BY ROGER W. BABSON

Babson's Point Of View On: Wages, Prices, Controls, Taxes
BABSON PARK, Mass., Sept. 15 — As the wage-price spiral gathers steam, there is rising concern in business circles and in Washington. The need for a tax boost is everywhere discussed and there is renewed speculation that the Administration may also be forced to adopt wage-price controls.

Wage Settlements Inflationary
 President Johnson has repeatedly expressed the hope that voluntary wage and price restraint could be achieved through application of the guideposts of the Council of Economic Advisers. In pursuit of that goal, the President had cautioned labor to trim its demands so as not to rock the economy. Also, he had several times used the prestige of his office to persuade industry to forego or to rescind price boosts in selected industrial raw materials.

For a time it appeared that the Administration was succeeding in keeping wages and prices from upsurping too violently. However, over the last several months the White House has been fighting a losing battle with runaway wages and prices. Despite those price rises it did succeed in thwarting, quotations have been edging upward. And the final agreement between the airlines and the Machinists Union is the latest in a series of such settlements which have been clearly inflationary.

Living Costs Climbing
 The effects of recent unrealistically liberal wage settlements and of climbing prices are evident in the trend of living costs. In July, the latest month for which such statistics are available, the Bureau of Labor's Cost of Living Index increased four-tenths of one per cent over June. Higher transportation costs and a somewhat smaller-than-average boost in food prices were blamed for the upturn.

The Cost of Living Index is 2.8% above a year ago and promises to move still higher over the near term. It stands at 113.3. This means that it now costs the American consumer $11.33 for a typical selection of commodities which cost only $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

Are Wage-Price Controls Coming?

You can expect the cost of food, medical care, and other services to rise alarmingly over the next couple of months. But you can also expect the President to insist that it is too soon to do anything that would definitely put a lid on wages and prices. Mr. Johnson well realizes that inflation is a problem and that it spells danger in the period ahead. But he also realizes that the strong measures needed to combat it are unpopular and that they would have little chance of clearing Congress before the November election.

So we must wait until the votes are over, — hoping that by that time the economy will not be so overheated that a recession will be its only real cure. Because of the political realities involved, there will be no attempt to impose any system of wage and price controls upon the nation this fall. Any such move would probably be deferred until after the turn of the year. Even then it is unlikely to be resorted to until after takes have been hiked.

Tax Boost By January

To ease up-pressures on the economy stemming from record industrial activity and the escalated war in Vietnam, the Administration and Congress might have chosen, last spring, either to increase taxes or to cut federal spending. Instead, they did nothing.

We are spending so much, so rapidly, to support our effort in Vietnam that it is widely expected the President will ask Congress for an additional $12 billion for this purpose. Added to the $12 billion already budgeted for the Viet war, this would make a total of $58 billion to be expended for national security this year. It boils down to this: We cannot cut spending for the Viet war, and our leaders will not cut spending for Great Society programs. We just don't have enough cash to go around for both. So there'll be a tax boost—applying to both corporations and individuals—by January.

A change made in the social security law this year provides for a special cash benefit for older people, W. S. King, District Manager of the Social Security Office in Hagerstown, said this week.

Under the new provision a monthly payment may be made to persons 72 or older even though they never worked in employment under social security. A single man or woman born before 1896 may receive this special benefit of $35 a month. If you are married man and both you and your wife qualify for this payment, you receive $35 a month and your wife, $17.50 a month.

AMERICA'S OUTSTANDING WOMEN

MARIE GRABER was a private duty registered nurse when she noticed in the hospitals where she worked and at home, a particular window problem which couldn't be solved by the fixtures then available.

HER FATHER, JOHN GRABER, developed and patented an adjustable drapery crane. This one item was the foundation of the Graber Company started 26 years ago. Today, the firm is a major manufacturer of drapery fixtures with distribution throughout the world.

MARIE TURNED HER TALENTS TO THE FIRM during World War II. Today she manages the business with her brother, Joe.

AUTHRESS OF THE AWARD-WINNING "WINDOW DECORATING BOOK," Marie added the "women's touch" to the field of drapery fixtures. Many of her innovations are standard today.

Commission. Although blind, Mrs. Tullis is chairman of the Pedestrian Program of the Commission. She is well known as a lecturer, writer, and television personality. A graduate of Hunter College of the City of New York, and of Columbia University, Mrs. Tullis has been a speech therapist and a teacher.
Since 1957, Mrs. Tullis has worked with the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission to prevent traffic accidents—especially pedestrian accidents—through education. In these activities she is assisted by Victor, a Golden Retriever, who is indispensable when it comes to instructing elementary school children in an entertaining way. Mrs. Tullis and Victor has special during in crossing streets safely during the course of instruction at Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., San Rafael, Calif.
Mrs. Tullis showed a very informative film in the training of these dogs from birth to their actual use. German Shepherds, Golden Retrievers, and Labradors are used as guide dogs.
The dogs are tested for intelligence, even temperament, willingness to work, and keen senses, by licensed instructors that last from 3 to 5 months after the dogs reach the age of one year.
After the dogs are well trained, the blind students must study at the school for four weeks to work with their dog. During this period, the dog is exposed to every possible situation that he and his blind master will meet when they return home.
Not every dog given this extensive training will meet the rigid specifications. However, the school has a proud record of 95% accomplished guide dogs as compared with the average of 15% of other schools.
Mrs. Tullis considers her talks to adults very important since responsible and well-informed adults can set the proper example for children and reinforce the safety education they receive in classrooms and assemblies.

Firemen See Ladder Demonstration

Gettysburg Fire Co. members are shown demonstrating a 100-ft. aerial ladder at buildings on the Mt. St. Mary's College campus recently. Water was thrown completely over the top of the highest building at the college. The same night the ladder was brought to Emmitsburg where the firemen threw a stream of water completely over the top of the VFW building.

County Elects Candidates

993 votes to lead running mates Austin F. Angleberger, 2,754, and Lemuel D. Keller, 2,512, to their party nominations. Harry F. Roderick was fourth with 2,241 votes and right wing candidate Anthony J. Lazarewicz ran last with only 914 votes.

Rep. Charles McC. Mathias swept to an expected easy victory in the Sixth Congressional District swamping conservative challenger Marshall Peters.

The issue was never in doubt as the liberal Frederick Republican, a six-year veteran of the House of Representatives since he upset Royce Hanson in 1960, moved to an early lead which mounted steadily all night.

A whopping majority of Marylanders voted to call a convention next year to re-write the state's 100-year-old constitution.

Had the referendum been against the convention, voters would have had 16 more constitutional amendments on the ballot in the November 13 general election.

Twenty-six hours of time was donated to assist with the men's outdoor party held recently. Members who helped were: Ann Shorb, Kathleen White Shorb, Margaret Shorb, Madeline Harner and Mildred Harner.

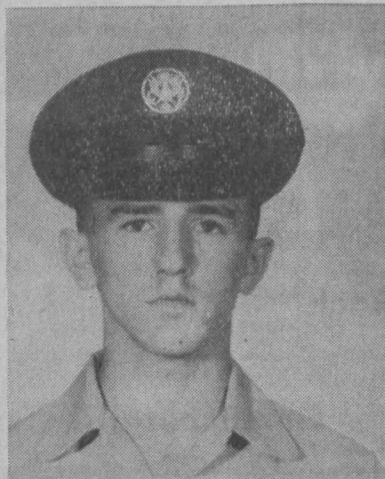

The following members were appointed to head the committees for the year. Education and Scholarship, Lois Hardagen; publicity, Virginia Sanders; music, Kathleen White Shorb; radio and TV, Betty Ashbaugh; parade, Beatrice Umbel; membership, Mary Theresa Miller, with co-chairman, Idella Fitez; rehabilitation, Virginia Sanders; child welfare, Carmen Topper; Americanism, Margaret Shorb; community service, Ann Topper; Gold Star, Madeleine Harner; Girl State, Melva Hardman; poppies, Anna Bushman; registration, Betty Goulden; national security, Jesse Knipple; Civil Defense, Loretta Hardman; foreign relations, Dian Small; Constitution and By-Laws, Idella Fitez; past president parley, Joan Topper.

Ann Topper was named Executive Committee Woman for the year.

The draw prize was won by Idella Fitez, and Mrs. Felix Hemler's name was called for the door prize but was not present.

Following the business meeting, the ladies joined the men of the Post for refreshments.

Drought Broken By 9-Inch Rain

A three-month drought which broke all records here was brought to a screeching halt Tuesday as light rains began to fall in the early evening. By Wednesday evening the downpour reached flooding conditions.

Streams which were bone dry, and have been so for months, suddenly were running over their banks as the rain continued. Heavy damage resulted to the Charnita golf course and picnic area and at times roads were a foot or so over-run with rushing water north and south of town. Toms Creek, to the south, left its banks and flowed over Rt. 806 and also at Flat Run on N. Seton Ave. the same condition prevailed.

Mrs. Paul Beale, weather observer here, reported that seven and a half inches had fallen in the 24-hour period between 6 o'clock Tuesday night to the same time Wednesday. Later reports had 9.12 inches as of 7 o'clock Thursday morning.

The drought was broken after setting records for high temperatures and dryness during the summer months and causing a water ban to be effected here about two months ago. It is not known at this writing whether the ban has been lifted but the rains have filled all four reservoirs of the town's water system.

The Vigilant Hose Co. was called numerous times by residents of the community Wednesday and proceeded to pump water from a number of basements and cellars.

Lions Club Seeks Mailboxes

President Norman J. Shriver presided over the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club held Monday evening in Mt. Manor Restaurant.

Lion Clarence G. Frailey advised the club that he had been in contact with Cong. Mac Mathias regarding mail boxes for several places in Emmitsburg.

Clarence Hahn reported an appraisal on the remaining Horse Show equipment and announced it was for sale as the show has been discontinued. Lion William Stlemmer reported on the Essay Contest and said he expected to contact the schools and colleges this week. The treasurer announced he would issue bills for dues quarterly to each member in the future. All members were urged to bring in old eyeglasses at the next meeting. The annual Kiddies' Christmas Party was discussed but no action taken. Lion Shriver announced he would extend an official invitation to the District Governor to attend a meeting in the near future.

Firemen Called

The Vigilant Hose Co. responded to an alarm at 8:45 p.m. Saturday evening. The firemen traveled to Zora where it was discovered the alarm was false.

On Sunday morning at 12:30 o'clock, the company was called to the scene of an automobile accident at St. Anthony's to stand by when a car crashed into a house.

Mrs. Charles Gillelan spent several days with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Kelly of Dundalk, Baltimore.
