Now that the big election is all over and past history, perhaps we can settle down to normal routine once again. Naturally there was some bitterness connected with the election, before and after, but time is a good healing agent and very shortly we will all be friends once more. Disappointments were numerous as candidates fell to the slaughter but on the other hand there was gladness for the victorious. Actually, the results took most of us by surprise. It was felt that inroads would be made by the Republican Party in Maryland but it was not generally felt that the State was ready for Republicanism. Now we wind up with a Republican Governor, Spiro Agnew who must face a predominantly Democratic House and Senate, along with other top State offices such as attorney general and comptroller, all Democrats. There was no doubt about it, the public was not ready for George Mahoney and he was the only top of the ticket Democrat to be axed . . . and by plenty. Regardless of the standing of things at present, it is anticipated that Governor Agnew will receive excellent cooperation from the Democrats now in office or who are about to take office. Maryland is a great State and it has proven that the two-party system has come back into its own, once again. Republicans are not demons and are not to be feared, nor are the Democrats. The two parties are composed of men and women who have the interest of the State and Country at heart and will work for the best interests of all concerned. It appears that the old-time "straight ticket" voters are a vanishing lot, as was manifested by the switch to Republicanism by a State which is normally three-to-one Democratic. Crossing party lines was rampant Tuesday and I suppose it was all for the better. Emmitsburg was relatively quiet this election. There was no fanfare, no loud speakers on the Square and no headquarters for either party candidates. It indeed was quite unlike the rabble-rousing days of a decade ago. One hardly knew there was an election going on. So much for the election. Congratulations to the winners . . . condolences for the losers.

Good news for all of us came forth from the Vatican this week when Pope Paul VI gave orders for the Catholic Church to work in harmony and unity with Protestants, Anglicans and Orthodox Catholics to produce a common Bible for all Christians. This Christian unity work is progressing very rapidly and it gives one an elated feeling to know that we are all working for a common cause and to our salvation eventually. Naturally it won't possibly come in our time, that is, us elderly folks, because it will take years to agree on translations, etc., but at least it is a step in the right direction.

K Of C Banquet December 3

The regular meeting of Brute Council 1860, Knights of Columbus, was held Monday night in the council home, Grand Knight C. Arthur Elder presiding.

John G. Humerick, chairman of the Open House affair held Thursday night, gave a preliminary report. Carl A. Wetzel was named chairman of the Manresa Retreat to be held in June. General Program chairman Eugene Rosensteel called on various committees for reports on several projects planned.

The Grand Knight announced that State Deputy M. D. Gilligan would be present at the annual Knight of the Year banquet to be held on Dec. 3 at the Cozy Restaurant, Thurmont. Thank-you notes were read from the Warren Gelwicks family and the Senior Citizens group.

The lecturer, Rev. Carl J. Fives, introduced the guest speaker of the evening, District Deputy John Codd, Catonsville, who spoke on the role of the Apostolate of the Laity.

GELWICKS-BEHRLE

The wedding of J. Alan Gelwicks to Mrs. Geda Behrle took place at Cape Gir, Mo., on October 22.

The ceremony was held in St. Vincent DePaul Catholic Church, Perryville, Mo., the bride's parish. Rev. Father Arthur D. Daspit, C.M., officiated at the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Behrle's two daughters by a previous marriage, were her attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Gelwicks returned to their Emmitsburg home October 26 where they will make their permanent residence. Mr. and Mrs. Gelwicks are employed by the Quality Tire Service, Emmitsburg.

Following the wedding a banquet and reception was held at the Intersection Cafe for friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Gelwicks returned to their Emmitsburg home October 26 where they will make their permanent residence. Mr. and Mrs. Gelwicks are employed by the Quality Tire Service, Emmitsburg.

Mrs. Gelwicks was given away by her grandson, David Knott.

Town Council Has Several Busy Sessions In Month

President of the Board of Town Commissioners Joseph M. Haley, presided at the regular monthly meeting of the Burgess and Commissioners held in the Town Office Monday night. Present at the meeting was Game Warden Ray Toms and the town attorney, Fred B. Bower. Warden Toms was present to help execute an agreement between the Town and the State Game Commission for the establishment of a game refuge on the watershed which had been discussed at a previous meeting.

The Council voted to pay $65 for a mortgage release on an acre of ground recently purchased from M. F. Keilholtz. A contract was awarded to Cities Service of Westminster to furnish gasoline for Town vehicles and to Lewis E. Hahn to furnish fuel oil for the Town Office. Discussed during the meeting was the retirement of some water bonds and payment of interest. It was unanimously agreed, Mayor Guy A. Baker, Jr., said, to transfer $24,000 from the general fund to the time deposit account which would begin drawing interest.

In the future, Town Clerk Yonnie Baker was instructed to issue warrants to the Police Dept. for all delinquent parking meter violators.

Police Chief W. E. Law's monthly report showed 10 motor vehicle arrests, 11 warnings issued and one criminal arrest. Complaints answered numbered five night, nine day. Five accidents were investigated or assisted with, one stolen motor vehicle recovered. Four trips were made to Frederick, three to Gettysburg and two to Fort Ritchie.

At a special meeting held Nov. 1, the Council met with Warden Ray Toms and Mr. Abrahams of the Maryland Game Commission, relative to establishment of a game refuge on the watershed. Attorney Fred Bower was instructed to draw up an agreement between the Town and the Commission. Sidewalks were discussed and some repairs to the pavement in front of the Town Office were ordered made. Council voted to purchase four Christmas bells for the Square to replace the old ones during the Christmas season.

On Nov. 3 another special meeting was held to discuss a local citizen who refused to pay five parking tickets and refused to get a new peddling permit. A right-of-way through the property of Dr. William Carr was discussed relevant to the laying of a new water line out the Waynesboro Road. The Council decided to abandon the plan by the Town engineer, Elmer St. C. Maxwell, to install a number of pressure valves to the water system just west of Town and to ask the engineer for the complete set of drawings for the water system in an effort to complete the project. The Town Fathers were of the opinion that a full-time engineer was not necessary and that perhaps professional advice could be obtained on several planned projects. (1) To provide up-to-date plans of the water system to submit to the State Health Dept. (2) Complete drawings for the installation of a water line out the Waynesboro Road; (3) A study of plans for the construction of an impounding dam near Rainbow Lake.

November 9 the group met again in special session to discuss the plans mentioned above, with Jack Gillett of Whitman, Reardon & Associates. This firm had previously been consultants to the former Emmitsburg Water Company.

PTA FAIR SATURDAY

The doors will be wide open to the "Village Fair" this Saturday at 1 p.m. in Emmitsburg at the Public High School.

Everyone come for a day of fun and entertainment—and enjoy the bargains to be found at the various booths.

You'll be thrilled with the goodies offered for sale in the "take-out" food booth. Home-baked and home-made goodies of all kinds to delight that special "gourmet" tooth!

If you are looking for an unusual gift for someone special this Christmas, be sure to visit the hand-craft booth.

The lovely flower arrangements and fresh cut flowers, and plants, to be found at the flower booths will enchant you.

Now is the time to stock up on records! We have a "record" supply of just the kind you are looking for in the music store—and at give-away prices!

There will on hand, artists who will do a charcoal "sketch" of yourself or of your children. Don't miss having your pictures sketched—good for keepsakes or pictures to give to Grandmas and Grandpas!

During the afternoon there will be entertainment and contests—among them a dance contest with prizes awarded to the winners. Also for the teenagers there will be a "Swing-a-long" dance in the evening.

Many more delights for your entertainment and the committee hopes everyone will come from far and wide for a day of fun and visiting with friends and neighbors.

And remember—don't let mother cook this Saturday night—bring the family for a Southern Ham dinner, served cafeteria style from 4 o'clock to 6:30—only $1.25 for adults and 60c for children.

See you Saturday at the Village Fair in Emmitsburg!

Bennett Cerf Here Monday

Bennett Cerf, president of Random House and popular author, editor and columnist, will speak at St. Joseph College on Monday, Nov. 14, at 7:45 p. m. in De Paul Auditorium.

A long-time panelist on TV's "What's My Line" show, Mr. Cerf's topic will be "What Are the Movies and TV Doing to Literature Today?"

The program is part of St. Joseph's lecture series and the public is cordially invited to attend—without charge.

Appreciation

Editor, Emmitsburg Chronicle: The Young Democrats of Mount Saint Mary's wish to express their appreciation to the staff of the Emmitsburg Chronicle and to the citizenry of Emmitsburg who helped to make the 4th annual Alumni Basketball Game such a great success.

We hope that you enjoyed the game as much as we did, and we are looking forward to seeing you again next year.

Guest Preacher At Mission

The Reverend A. O. Leonard, Pastor of Second United Church of Christ, Lexington, N. C., will be the guest preacher for the five evenings of the Littlestown Community Preaching Mission from Nov. 13 to Nov. 17. Dr. Leonard is one of the most outstanding evangelistic preachers today in the United Church of Christ. He has served as the pastor of Second U. C. C. Church in Lexington ever since the time of his ordination into the Christian Ministry in 1922. He has endeared himself in the hearts and lives of thousands of people in Central North Carolina as a prominent Christian citizen, Missionary, Evangelist, Pastor, Preacher, and Civic Leader. He was born in Davidson County, N. C. where he now resides, and was graduated from the Lexington High School in 1916, from Catawba College of Salisbury, N. C. in 1919, and he received his B.D. degree from the Central Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in Dayton, Ohio, in 1922.

He has served in many positions of prominence in his denomination. He was president of the N. C. Classis in 1931. He served as a delegate to the Special Meeting of the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church for Union Consumption at Cleveland, Ohio, in 1934. He also was a delegate to the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church in Lancaster, Pa. in 1940 and of the same body in York, Pa. in 1944. He served both as Vice Chairman and as Chairman of the General Synod's Commission on Evangelism.

He received Lexington's 1948 "Man of the Year" citation which was presented to him by former Governor J. M. Broughton. Catawba College, which was his alma mater and was a college of the E. & R. Church, honored him with a D.D. degree in 1952.

He has served tirelessly as a leader of his community and country. He was chairman of the Lexington, N. C. School Board in 1930 and 1931, and chairman of the Davidson County Library Board from 1943 to 1950. He was Chaplain of the American Legion Post No. 8 of Lexington from 1930 to 1948, and was a trustee of the Davidson County Hospital in 1943. He was Vice President of the Lexington Housing authority, and served on the Davidson County Mental Health Association.

Dr. Leonard was a member of the Board of Trustees of Catawba College and also of the Blowing Rock Assembly Grounds Board. He served on the Board of Trustees of the Lexington YMCA and was Vice President of the Board of Trustees of the Lexington Memorial Hospital.

During the 44 years of his unusual pastorate at Second Church in Lexington, N. C., he also served as the supply pastor of Emmanuel Reformed Church near Thomasville, N. C.; Hebron Church in Upper Davidson County; of the Mission Congregation in Asheboro, N. C.; of Calvary Church near Thomasville, N. C.; and of the following churches of his denomination in the Lexington, N. C. area: Hedrick's Grove, Mt. Tabor, Paul's Chapel, and St. Andrew Mission.

The themes of the messages of Dr. Leonard at the Community Preaching Mission which will be held at 7:30 p.m. each evening from Nov. 13 to 17 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on E. King St. in Littlestown, are as follows: Sunday, Nov. 13, "The Divine Saviour"; Monday, Nov. 14, "Singing Three Stanzas"; Tuesday, Nov. 15, "Some Secrets of the Christian"; Wednesday, Nov. 16, "The Cure for a Troubled Heart"; and Thursday, Nov. 17, "The Tragedy of Neglect."

Band To Form

The Emmitsburg Municipal Band will meet Tuesday night in the Lutheran Parish House to plan reorganization and to hold a rehearsal. All musicians invited!

Republicans Sweep State, County; Agnew Governor

Frederick County followed the state pattern in Tuesday's general election and helped elect Spiro Agnew the fourth Republican Governor in the 300-year history of the State. Over 19,000 voters turned out for what was expected to be a light election to help Agnew defeat the Democratic candidate, George P. Mahoney.

Agnew received over 52% of the County vote, ahead of Mahoney by some 2,193 votes.

In the race for Comptroller, Democratic Louis L. Goldstein bowled over his Republican opponent, Charles Bresler by more than 170,000 votes. County-wide, Goldstein polled 9,557 votes to Bresler's 7,830.

Democrat Francis Burch smothered his Republican opponent, William Doub, by over 200,000 votes. Frederick County gave Burch 8,794 to Doub's 7,828.

Unofficial tallies for Frederick County gave Mahoney 8,057; Agnew 10,200 and Hyman Pressman, Independent, 1,231. Mahoney was the only loser on the Democratic state-wide ticket.

In a not-entirely-expected upset, Crummell P. Jacobs unseated incumbent Republican sheriff Horace M. (Buck) Alexander, 10,534 votes to 8,022.

Jacobs, a former member of the county roads board and at present an employe of that organization, was Alexander's opponent in the 1962 general election but lost then, 10,422 to 8,610.

Jacobs steps into a job which carries a salary of $7,500 annually, and a house provided by the county.

Orphans' Court

In the race for the three seats on the Orphans' Court, the Rev. Ralph E. White, incumbent, became the only GOP member of the panel but led all candidates with 10,020 votes. Two Democrats were named to the court, Howard Z. Stup, incumbent, with 9,759 votes, and newcomer G. Raymond Shipley with 8,734.

Unsuccessful candidates for the probate court were Republicans Norvell Belt (7,585) and Mrs. Virginia Anders (7,259), and Democrat Mildred S. Fisher (6,350).

Register of Wills

Thomas M. Eichelberger, 40, a Democrat, handily won re-election to the post of Register of Wills, a job he has held for the past eight years. Eichelberger beat out his GOP opponent, Irvin C. Brandt Jr., 42, 11,644 votes to 5,679.

Circuit Court

Judge Robert E. Clapp Jr., running unopposed on a non-partisan ticket, collected 15,874 votes to win his first 15-year term on the bench of the Sixth Judicial Circuit.

Judge Clapp was appointed by Gov. Tawes to a new judgeship in the circuit, which included both Frederick and Montgomery Counties, in 1964 when the judgeship was created by the General Assembly. He joins Judge Patrick M. Schnauffer, Chief Judge of the Sixth Circuit, as resident judge in Frederick County.

Clerk of Court

Ellis C. Wachter, 57, unopposed, won an eighth term as Clerk of the Circuit Court with 11,604 votes. Wachter, a Republican, has been associated with the Clerk's office, both as an employe and as its head, for the past 39 years.

Treasurer

Mrs. Charlotte W. Yarroll, running unopposed, won her second elective term as county treasurer with 12,034 votes. Mrs. Yarroll, a Democrat and veteran of 37 years' employment in the treasurer's office, was appointed treasurer in 1960 following the death of James H. Falk, and was elected to the position for the first time in 1962.

State's Attorney

Robert S. Rothenhoefer, 44, also unopposed and a Democrat, was elected to his second term as the county's prosecuting attorney with 11,860 votes. Rothenhoefer first assumed the duties of state attorney in 1959, when he was appointed to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Edwin F. Nikirk.

State Senator

The Vigilant Hose Co. was summoned last Friday morning at 9 o'clock to extinguish a chimney fire at the property of Clyde Topper at Motter's Station. Chief Guy R. McLaughlin said the fire was confined to a pipe in a bedroom and damage was "slight."

Democrats swept four of five seats in the balloting for Frederick County's seats in the reappointed Maryland General Assembly.

Goodloe E. Byron, 37-year-old Frederick attorney and current member of the House of Delegates and Charles H. Smelser, 46-year-old dairy farmer and former state legislator, won seats in the state senate from the Frederick-Carroll district. Byron with a two-county vote total of 16,553 and Smelser, who polled 16,001 in the district, won over two Carroll County Republicans, Joseph H. Hahn Jr. (14,648) and Mrs. Mary B. Bryson (13,635).

House of Delegates

Incumbents C. Clifton Virts, William M. Houck, and E. Earl Remsburg, won seats in the House of Delegates. Remsburg was the only Republican to win a local legislative position.

Virts, one of the top local vote-getters in the local balloting, accumulated 11,280 Frederick County votes to lead the list of House candidates. Houck, who won statewide fame this year for his futile attempt to guide the Cooper-Hughes tax reform bill through the House, gathered 9,334 votes, while Remsburg, in his second general election appearance, was backed by 8,459 county voters.

Unsuccessful aspirants for the three House seats were Democrat William F. Cramer, Jr., with 8,296, and Republicans Austin F. Angleberger, 7,847, and Lemuel D. Keller, 7,527.

Congress

U. S. Rep. Charles McC. Mathias was returned for his fourth term in the U. S. House of Representatives with the biggest majority of votes polled in Frederick County this election.

According to unofficial results Mathias tallied 14,196 votes. His Democratic opponent for the Sixth District seat, Walter G. Finch, received 3,501 votes.

County Commissioners

Two Democrats—political newcomer Wallace E. Hutton and state legislator Charles E. Collins—and one Republican, incumbent Russell Z. Horman, won the honor of being the first commissioners elected to full-time jobs in Frederick County.

The six-man race for the three commissioners' jobs was close all the way, with less than 2,000 votes separating the top vote-getter, Horman, from the law man, Lawrence A. Dorsey, the other incumbent in the running.

The final unofficial totals read: Horman, Republican, 9,895; Collins, Democrat, 9,454; Hutton, Democrat, 8,935; Mrs. Lorene W. Bowls, Republican, 8,416; Bruce E. Crum, Republican, 8,013; and Dorsey, Democrat, 7,981.

Horman is thus placed in an unusual position—that of being the only member of his party on the board, but set for the post of president of the board. The highest vote-getter in the election is traditionally named president of the commissioners by acclaim.

The big surprise of the commissioner race was the poor showing made by Dorsey, a Woodsboro businessman and an active volunteer fireman who sought his second term on the board. In the 1962 election, Dorsey ran a close second to A. Irvin Renn, who was top vote-getter by less than 10 votes.

Dorsey polled 10,872 votes in 1962, compared to 8,986 for Horman in the same election. Collins, who ran for delegate to the General Assembly that same year, received 10,614 votes to run fourth for the six seats then held by Frederick County.

The three commissioners chosen by the voters will be the first to work for the county full time. The General Assembly last year approved a bill to put the commissioners on a five-days-a-week schedule rather than three work-days, and raised the pay for the position from $5,000 to $8,000 annually. The new salary and longer work week become effective at the start of 1967.

The team has toured throughout the world under the auspices of the French government.

Two Killed Near Frederick

Two men and a woman were killed Sunday afternoon in a three-car accident at State Routes 180 and 17 near Knoxville.

State police at Frederick identified the victims of Sunday's 3:41 p.m. accident as:

Theodore S. Lichtenstein, 34, of Frederick, who was pronounced dead on the scene with a crushed chest after his car, southbound on Rt. 180, was struck broadside.

Mrs. Beryle Nelson Lichtenstein, 48, his wife, who was pronounced dead on arrival at Frederick Memorial Hospital at 4:10 p.m. with a crushed skull.

Richard P. Barnhouse, 46, of Leesburg, Va., driver of the car which, police said, was going east on Rt. 17 and, failing to stop at the Rt. 180 intersection, collided with Mr. Lichtenstein's car. Mr. Barnhouse was pronounced dead on the scene with a crushed skull. A passenger in Mr. Barnhouse's car, Harold J. Karn, Hagerstown, was treated for minor injuries at Frederick Memorial Hospital and released.

Police said that, after the Lichtenstein car was struck, it spun into the northbound lane and collided with a third car driven by Vernon G. Keilholtz of Emmitsburg, who escaped injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones and family, Northfield, N. J., visited during the weekend with Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Charles Shorb.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Humerick, Dover, N. J., spent a few days recently with Mrs. Jackson Humerick.

Mrs. George Brown recently underwent surgery at Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Emma Lawson, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Oliver Sanders, Gettysburg, spent a few days with their sister, Mrs. Clarence Sanders.

Pvt. Richard L. Wivell is now serving in the National Guard at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gelwicks and daughters, Annapolis, spent the weekend with Mr. Gelwicks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Gelwicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wivell and family; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wivell and family; Mrs. Phil Topper and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Wivell and son; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wivell and children, visited Sunday with Sister Genevieve Wivell at St. Catherine Labourie Convent in Wheaton, Md.

J. Ward Kerrigan has returned home after spending some time with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Kerrigan and family, Libertyville, Ill.

Mount Harriers Win
Mount St. Mary's College added another cross-country victory to its impressive record Tuesday by defeating Richmond and Gallaudet in a triangular affair here.

The Mountaineers took first place with 37 points, Richmond was second with 44 and Gallaudet third with 45. The Mount is now 6-1.

Fractures Foot

David L. Copenhagen, 18, Emmitsburg R2, received treatment Tuesday at the Warner Hospital, for a compound fracture of a bone in his right foot. He was using a nail gun which fell and discharged with a nail entering his foot.

Mountaineers Lose

The Mt. St. Mary's soccer team lost its fifth decision by one goal when it bowed to Baltimore 2-1 Saturday afternoon at Baltimore in a Mason-Dixon Conference game. The Mounties' record is now 2-5-3.

Babson's Point Of View On: Christmas Sales

BABSON PARK, Mass., Nov. 10—Marketing and sales people seem confident about Christmas business. Most of them believe that this year's holiday sales will set new records in both physical and dollar volume.

Their optimism is warranted. How Retail Trade Is Faring

Retail sales this year have not consistently shown the same up-thrust as in 1965, but the trend has been generally encouraging. The cumulative total since January 1 topped that for the same period a year earlier by 9%. An even better record was chalked up by department store sales, which were 14% above those attained in the corresponding 1965 period. Without doubt, both retail sales and department-store sales for 1966 as a whole will better those of 1965 by wide margins.

Outcome of the congressional elections should not have any marked effect on retail sales prospects or on results in November and December. Nor will the tight money and credit situation do more than curb the degree of upturn.

Confidence that holiday business will be good is bolstered by the current very favorable employment-unemployment ratio, as well as by a still rising trend in personal income. At present the number of the nation's employed tops the year-ago level by 1.8 million and is close to the all-time record, while only 3 1/2% of the labor force is unemployed. Between now and year's end, there ought to be at least a normal seasonal rise in employment and we forecast that unemployment will be further downshaded.

Meanwhile, total salary and wage income is moving higher, reflecting the tenor of recent settlements with managements. The continued rise in salary and wage income also reflects a sustained flow of over-time payments as the factory work week holds somewhat above 41 hours on average.

At recent date, personal income in the U. S. was at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $589.5 billion,—up $37 billion, or 6.7% from the comparable month a year ago when the total had been boosted sharply by a $10.7-billion lump-sum retro-active payment of social security increases. More important even than this mighty gain in overall income is the fact that the rise exceeds price increases. This is a reversal of the forepart of this year when prices were rising faster than wages, salaries, pensions, and other income payments.

A survey of economic indicators suggests that both total personal income and income after taxes will make further gains in the final months of this year. This continued uptrend will permit consumer buying to be one of the chief supports of the economy. In other words, consumer purchasing power—which is still close to record levels—could show some further expansion.

While we confidently predict record 1966 holiday sales and feel that at least a 7% boost in dollar volume versus a year ago is fully attainable, this will not come about automatically. Despite near-record employment, there are some areas of high unemployment. Despite near-record industrial production, there are some manufacturing companies that are not doing as well as they did a year ago.

Also, it should be pointed out that price rises will account for a larger percentage of the 1966 sales gains than was the case a year ago and that profit margins will tend to narrow for those merchandisers who do not clamp a tight control on costs. In addition to clothes and toys, the items that should move best at Christmastime are recreational equipment, color-TV, furniture, and home appliances.

Preemies Thrive On Early Feedings

CHICAGO, Ill.—How soon after birth should a baby be fed? Although this remains one of the most controversial questions in the practice of pediatrics, several recent studies suggest that early feedings, even for premature infants, can be both safe and beneficial.

Dr. Paul Y. K. Wu reported recently that he and Dr. Peter A. Teilmann studied the effect of early feeding on 34 healthy but low weight infants born at Michael Reese Hospital and Medical Center in Chicago.

Half the babies were fed two hours after birth, the remainder not until 24 to 36 hours later, as is usual with preemies. They all received a formula that provided 20 calories per ounce; the other nutrients simulated breast milk.

What were the results? The babies fed soon after birth lost only 4.7 per cent of birth weight in the immediate postnatal period, while the babies whose feeding began later lost an average of 7.4 per cent of their birth weight. Most of the early feeders regained their lesser losses in a week, while it took the other babies 12.6 days to regain their weight.

The researchers also found that there was less of a substance called serum bilirubin in the blood stream of the babies fed soon after birth. This substance is found when jaundice occurs. These babies also had a significantly higher blood sugar level and a higher sugar store in the liver than the infants fed after some delay. High bilirubin and low blood sugar levels are two of the major causes of mental retardation in preemies. Imitating Nature

Commenting on the study, Dr. Wu said, "The fetus is continuously nourished while it is inside its mother. It would appear irrational to interrupt this process at birth and subject the infant to a period of starvation, particularly at a time when the infant is under intense stress."

Other studies at Chicago's Cook County Hospital, at the Yale University School of Medicine, and the University of Louisville seem to support Dr. Wu's finding.

Scouts Will Collect Clothing

The annual Boy Scout Clothing Drive to aid the handicapped workers of the Monocacy Valley Goodwill Industries, has been scheduled for November 12-13.

During the next week, local Boy Scouts will be distributing empty clothing bags to area homes. They will return to these homes to collect the filled bags on or before Nov. 19. Final collection of all filled bags will be made the afternoon of Nov. 19 by the Goodwill truck.

All clothing gathered will be used to help train rehabilitate the handicapped of this county in the store's headquarters on South

Rentz St., Frederick. It is very important to stress, explained Meredith L. Kinna, Goodwill manager, that all clothing collected will remain right here in Frederick for the local Goodwill program.

The clothing collected by the Scouts will enable all employees to continue working through the slow months of winter.

Fire Safety In The Home

Fire is still a major cause of death and injury in the home, in addition to destroying millions of dollars of property each year.

A majority of fires in the home can be prevented, according to Sentry Insurance. Here are several tips to protect your family and your property:

- Heating equipment, including furnace, chimney and flues, should be cleaned and overhauled by a professional yearly. Portable heaters should be maintained and placed away from combustible materials when in use.
 - Electrical appliances and wiring must be kept in top condition. Never run extension cords under rugs or across halls. Use fuses of approved, adequate rating.
 - Matches and flammable liquids must be stored out of the reach of children. Never use these liquids for cleaning clothes, and be sure they are in marked containers.
 - Rubbish should not be allowed to accumulate—spontaneous combustion or accidental ignition can result.
 - Your fireplace should be completely "out" before you retire for the night. Empty ash trays in a separate metal container, not in trash cans.
 - Place fire extinguishers in key areas in the home—one in the kitchen, one in the garage, and one upstairs.
- You and every member of your family should be thoroughly familiar with escape routes—two from each room—which can be followed in the dark. Call fire department before attempting to put out the fire yourself.

Let's Go Fishin'
BY BOB BREWSTER
Outdoor Editor,

HOT WATER BLUES

The best advice to fishermen during mid-summer lulls is to "go deep." But how deep is deep? And why?

Since fish don't measure their living levels in terms of feet, why should fishermen, ask the fishing experts at Mercury outboard? Instead, they suggest, gauge the proper depth by the factors that govern the fish.

The stratification of lakes mystifies most but the most learned. Reduced to the essentials, stratification merely means that large waters develop three different levels of oxygen and temperature.

The top area, called the epilimnion, is too hot for most game fish, though it is oxygen-rich.

The middle layer, tabbed the thermocline, is a mixture of temperatures fish can tolerate plus a favorable level of oxygen.

Below this line the hypolimnion, a cool region that is deficient in oxygen.

Obviously, then, the place to fish is the middle layer. But how does one find it?

The quickest way to pin point the thermocline is to use a fisherman's thermometer. Lower it away and methodically take readings at 5-foot intervals. When a sudden difference in the decrease of temperature is noted, you've entered the favored region. When the drop in temperature noticeably slows, you've left it.

Perhaps this scientific approach to fishing seems too much trouble, vow the Mercury folks, but it does constitute one positive method of fish finding.

Fish can find the best level, can you?

Governor Urges Control Of Measles

Governor J. Millard Tawes today called upon all parents and physicians in Maryland to join forces in an all out effort to eradicate measles, one of the many causes of Mental Retardation. The Governor coupled his plea to end measles menace with a proclamation designating November as Maryland Retarded Children's Month.

"Measles," the Governor pointed out, "is neither the inevitable nor the innocent childhood ailment that parents once believed it to be." He cited a recent U. S. Public Health Service statement that the disease is of particular concern because of its severity and frequent complications, including pneumonia, middle ear infections, and encephalitis. The encephalitis which follows measles approximately once per 1,000 cases often results in permanent brain damage and mental retardation.

"But there is no reason for any child in Maryland to suffer from measles or risk its grave consequences," Governor Tawes said. "Dr. William J. Peeples, the State Commissioner of Health, has advised me that there is available a safe, effective measles vaccine that should be administered to children on or soon after their first birthday.

"It is my earnest desire that every child in this State who has not had measles and who has not been vaccinated, be given the protection of this vaccination at the earliest practicable date. To that end, I am asking the State and local health departments to join with the private practicing physicians of Maryland in an intensive effort to inform all parents of the importance of administering measles vaccine.

"I further urge all parents, particularly those with pre-school age children, to seek the assistance and guidance of their family physician or health department in securing measles vaccination for their children," the Governor said.

Governor Tawes noted that the Maryland State Department of Health has been charged with responsibility for coordinating the Maryland Immunization Project; and that measles vaccination for all susceptible children is a major component of the program. The Immunization Project has been approved by the Medical and Surgical Faculty of Maryland.

OUR LIBRARY

New books recently added to the collection at the Emmitsburg Public Library from county services, headquarters in the C. Burr Artz Library in Frederick, are as follows:

"Sam Levenson, Everything but Money." Sam recalls the world of his childhood with the warmth and affectionate humor that has endeared him to millions of Americans. Home was a cramped New York tenement which he shared with his parents, his six older brothers and his sister. Theirs was "a life of plenty"—plenty of relatives, neighbors, boarders, janitors, hugs, slaps, books, music, weddings, illnesses, cats, dogs, and cockroaches!!! Sam Levenson's blend of sweetness, hilarity and wisdom, shines through every page.

"A Helping Hand," by Celia Dale. A Mystery, quietly in a commonplace setting and with commonplace incidents, suspense grows to a final crisis of irony and shock.

"The Secret of Santa Vittoria," a novel by Robert Crichton. A dramatic novel—roaringly human,

International Race At Laurel Today

Horse-of-the-World honors will be at stake when ten of the foremost thoroughbreds from seven countries meet in the 15th running of the $150,000 Washington D.C. International at Laurel Race Course on Veterans' Day, Friday, November 11.

Champions from four continents will come to determine the most elite thoroughbred in the world, and many of the top jockeys of the world will be on hand to pit their skills over the grueling mile and one-half battle on the grass that brings a $90,000 jackpot to the fortunate winning owner.

Laurel president John D. Schapiro scouted scores of foreign racing classics to assure the finest field of International representatives in the 14-year history of the Laurel classic. The American Selection Board countered with two of the finest horses in the United States, Assagai and Tom Rolfe.

Russia's Aniline and Canada's George Royal both are back for a second crack at the great prize. Three French horses are out to continue that nation's domination among the foreigners, while England is represented by the colt that could sweep it all—David Jack. France, which has taken four Internationals, has Silver Shark, Vasco de Gama, and Behistoun.

Rounding out this International classic field are Venezuela's Sope and Brazil's Folio, a new country introduced to the big International extravaganza. Brazil is the 19th country to have a horse in the International.

Read a Who's Who of Jockeys and you have the roster of riders for the International. There are Lester Piggott, England's premier jockey, aboard David Jack; Yves Saint-Martin, who piloted France's Match II to a 1962 thriller over Kelso and Carry Back, aboard Silver Shark for the Aga Khan; Willie Shoemaker, the world's top money-winning rider of all time, astride Tom Rolfe for Raymond Guest, American Ambassador to Ireland; Nikolai Nasibov, the great Russian saddle star, aboard Aniline. Riding in the International for his 8th time, Nasibov will break the existing tie with Eddie Arcaro, both having ridden in seven Internationals, more than any other.

Antonio Ricardo, whose 192 wins in 1957 is an all-time Brazilian record, rides Folio; Ismael Valenzuelo, Kelso's jockey, handles George Royal, the Canadian Champion; Larry Adams rides Assagai for Charles Engelhard, the world platinum king; Jean Defore, winner with Diatome last November, has Behistoun; Maurice Philippon rides Vasco de Gama; and Luis Bolivar, one of Venezuela's leading riders, handles Socopo.

Post time for the International is approximately 3:45 p.m. (est) with the first race at 12:20 on Friday only. On other days the first race is off at Laurel at 1 p.m.

The United States had an average of 50.5 persons per square mile of land at the end of the 1960 census.

STEWART HALL
Post Office Box 792
Wilmington, North Carolina

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
The Bill of Complaint is a suit to procure a divorce A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the Defendant, Stewart Hall.

The Bill recites that the Complainant, Alma Virginia Hall, is a resident of Frederick County, State of Maryland, where she has resided for more than one year last past; that the Defendant, Stewart Hall, is a non-resident of the State of Maryland, whose last known address is Post Office Box 792, Wilmington, North Carolina; that the parties to this cause were married on the 10th day of November, 1964, at Trenton, Georgia, by J. V. Jenkins, Ordinary, Dade County, Georgia, a person duly authorized to solemnize marriages; that as a result of the said marriage no child or children were born; and that the parties to this cause have voluntarily lived separate and apart without any cohabitation for more than eighteen months prior to the filing of this Bill of Complaint, and that the separation between the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

The Bill then prays that the Complainant, Alma Virginia Hall, may be divorced A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the Defendant, Stewart Hall; that she may be granted the right to resume her former name of Alma Virginia Crebs; and that she may have such other and further relief as the nature of her case may require.

ORDER OF COURT
It is thereupon this 25th day of October, 1966, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland, sitting as a Court of Equity, ORDERED that the Complainant give notice to the Defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the County of Frederick, once each week for four successive weeks prior to the 3rd day of December, 1966, commanding him to be and appear in this Court, in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 3rd day of January, 1967, and show cause, if any he has, why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

YOUR PERSONAL HEALTH

Diabetes
The week of Nov. 13-19 is National Diabetes Week.
As an editorial in the Journal of the American Medical Association points out, millions of diabetics are living essentially normal lives, and among them are many outstanding active and successful people. Beginning with the discovery of insulin, techniques for controlling diabetes have undergone tremendous development.

Diabetes is a chronic condition which develops when the body cannot make use of certain foods, especially sugars and starches.
Diabetes can be controlled in most patients, it cannot be cured, but it can be endured with a minimum of discomfort. The problem is to find those millions of Americans who have diabetes and bring them under medical care.
The American Diabetes Association estimates that one American in every 50 has diabetes, and that there are approximately 4,000,000 diabetics in the United States today. Of this number, about 2,400,000 know they have diabetes, and about 1,600,000 are still unaware of their condition. At least 250,000 new cases are being diagnosed each year.

The usual signs of severe diabetes are increase in thirst, constant hunger, frequent urination, loss of weight, intense itching, easy tiring, and changes in vision. However, diabetes may be present without any signs at all.
The most likely targets are persons who are related to diabetics, are overweight, or are past 40 years of age.

Diabetes can be controlled by diet, exercise, and, when necessary, insulin, or, in older and milder diabetics, one of the oral compounds. A planned diet is always a fundamental of diabetes treatment.

Goals of National Diabetes Week, sponsored each year by the American Diabetes Association, are four-fold—

Encourage everyone to be tested for diabetes, since there are many who have diabetes and do not know it;

Warn everyone of the dangers of hidden diabetes;

Inform those whose tests indicate a possibility of diabetes;

See that those definitely found to have diabetes receive proper medical care.

Diabetes ranks seventh in the list of causes of death by disease. Neglect of the disease can lead to such complications as heart disease, failing eyesight, hardening of the arteries, kidney disorders, gangrene, cerebral hemorrhage and diabetic coma.
A simple kit which enables anyone to take a test for diabetes at home, called Dreyapak, has been widely distributed to many communities for National Diabetes Week. It consists of a chemically-treated strip of paper which comes in a return envelope.

If the kits are available in your community, the American Medical Association urges everyone to use them. Or ask your family physician for his advice on testing your family for diabetes. This is a serious illness, but it can be controlled, with the help of your physician. To be controlled, it must first be discovered.

A Frenchman, Nicholas Appert, is credited with discovering the process of canning foods at the beginning of the 19th Century.

After-Game Party Wins Cheers For Hostess

Tingling weather and cheers in the air—it's the season for active sports. And it's the perfect time for gathering friends together for an informal after-game buffet.

Make the menu simple and hearty. Here's one that's sure to win you a letter as a hostess: Chili Con Coney, a spicy casserole served with a tossed green salad and toasted garlic bread. For a beverage, serve hot spiced cider. Nut-filled brownies topped with ice cream round out this easily-prepared after-game feast.

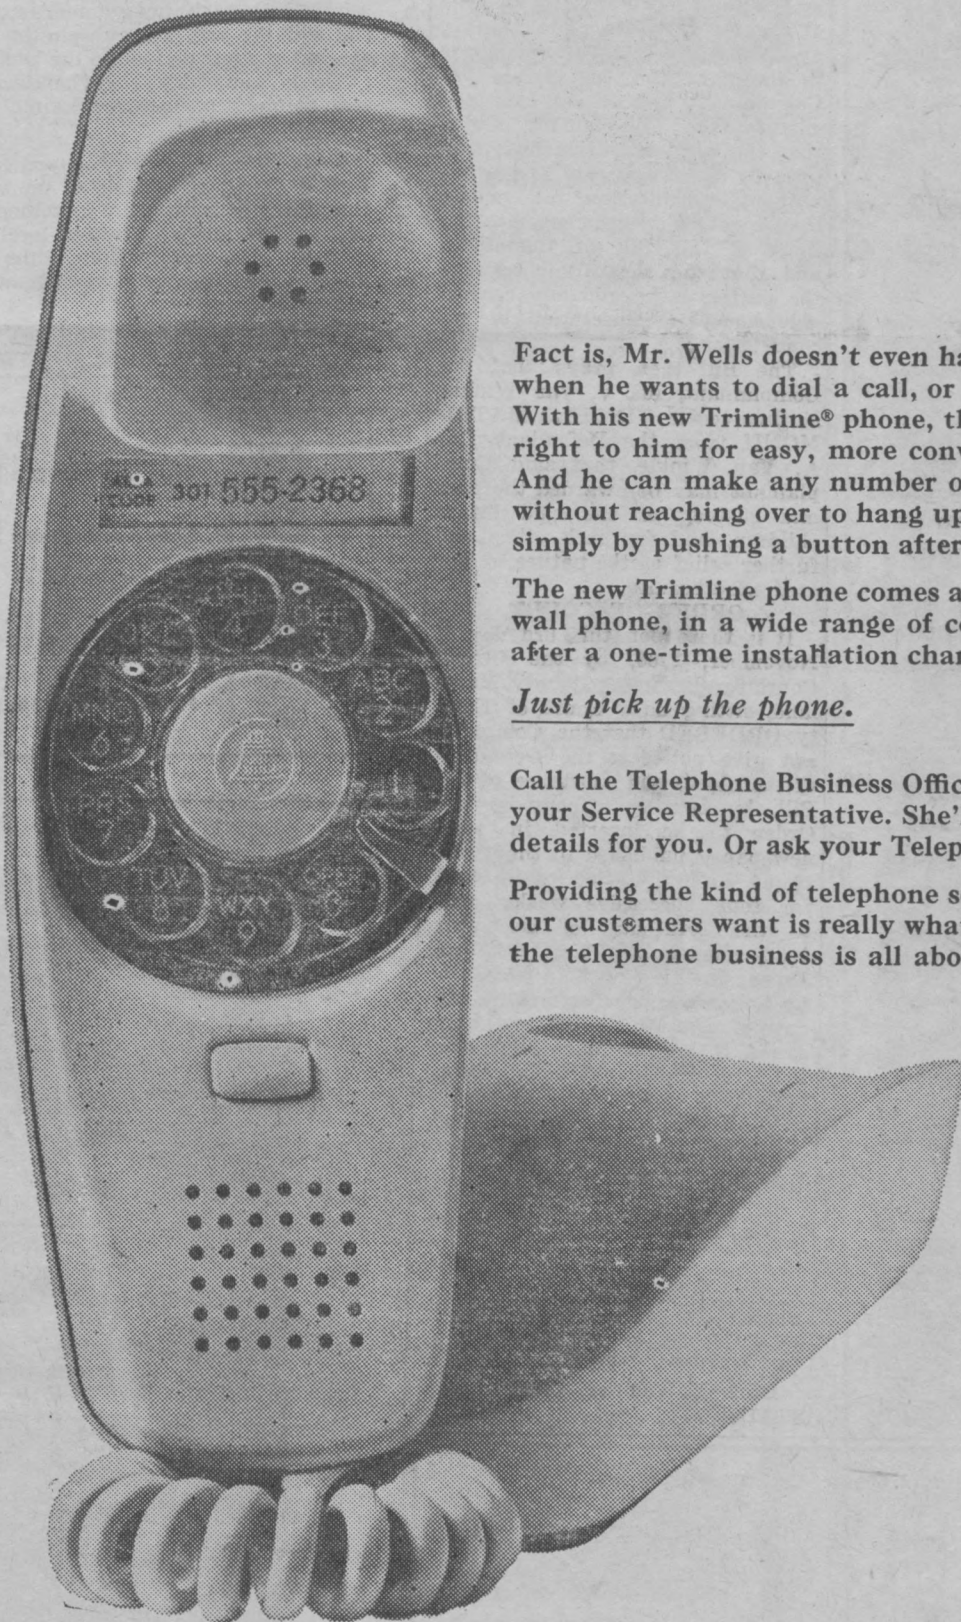

Set the buffet table ahead of time, using paper napkins and plates in the team's colors. Besides being decorative, they'll make cleaning-up after the party a matter of minutes. Create a centerpiece of chrysanthemums, leaves and, of course, the pig skin!

Chili Con Coney casserole can be prepared the morning before the game, refrigerated, then placed in the oven to bake while guests warm up. This delicious casserole adds a colorful touch to your party table, and can be easily recreated if the party list grows.

CHILI CON CONEY
2 cups corn chips
1 large onion, chopped
1 cup grated American cheese
1 pound Sugar-dale Conneys, cut into 2-inch pieces
2 1-pound cans chili with beans

Place one cup corn chips in two-quart casserole. Cover with chopped onion, and one-half cup grated American cheese. Cut one pound Sugar-dale Conneys into two-inch pieces; combine with two one-pound cans chili with beans and add to casserole. Sprinkle with additional one-half cup grated American cheese. Arrange corn chips around edge of casserole. Bake at 350° F. for 45 to 50 minutes or until heated through. Makes six servings.

Fact is, Mr. Wells doesn't even have to move when he wants to dial a call, or a series of calls. With his new Trimline® phone, the dial comes right to him for easy, more convenient calling. And he can make any number of calls without reaching over to hang up . . . simply by pushing a button after each call.

The new Trimline phone comes as a desk set or a wall phone, in a wide range of colors. Cost? $1.25 a month, after a one-time installation charge. To order—

Personal Problem: Achievement
Pressure and force are not the instruments through which the Negroes of America, or any other group in any other nation, can hope to achieve lasting economic and social gains. The preachments by some of the most publicized Negro "leaders," that massive economic and political pressure and even the stirring of violence will bring fulfillment of the aspirations of their followers, are the tactics of agitators, not leaders. They are tactics of warfare, not of social progress.

The Negro photographed carrying a TV set out of a looted Cleveland appliance store in the midst of burning and rioting degraded himself. But he has dramatized the essence of the fraudulent preachments. In his criminal act, caught by the lens of the news photographers, the Cleveland looter symbolizes the quality of this "Civil Rights" declaration—"If American society doesn't give us what's coming to us, we will take it." This is the threat intended in the "non-violent" open housing marches. It is the threat brandished by the Negroes violently demanding the firing of a Jew school principal in Brooklyn and his replacement by a Negro. These threats and violent actions won't work to achieve any lasting good for anybody.

No Easy Road
There is no automatic or easy road to the achievement of worthwhile advancements—for an individual, a group, race or community. A child doesn't take his first step in life—in Bombay, or Capetown, or Boston—by asserting his dignity or rights. He crawls, and falters, and falls, and takes many a hard knock. Only then does he walk. Even the very best parents can't get him there any other way! Building character and confidence in oneself is another personal challenge that no "system" or "society" can bring about for you.

There are sober-thinking leaders within our Negro community in America who are worried about the growth of the radical "pressure and force" teachings. One is Bryce C. Porter, who directs the work of Heritage Groups, Inc., in New York's Harlem. He says: "To give a Negro child the impression that he is going to get a better education by the mere process of sitting beside some distant white child must certainly undermine an already impoverished image and must, therefore, be destructive." "Within Oneself"

"Many of the most essential elements of the solution of our—the Negroes'—problems," he says, "lie within our own capacities and within our own communities. . . . Ultimately only self-help is going to solve our problems. . . . The short-changing Negro politician is a luxury which we at this juncture in our history simply cannot afford."

Mr. Porter's group is trying to spread such a philosophy throughout Harlem, then extend it outward across the country. His present work is among Harlem youth. He has overwhelming opposition from many publicity-minded "spokesmen" in the "Civil Rights" and "Poverty War" movements. "Millions of dollars are squandered through misused, misguided and frequently misconceived poverty programs," he says. "The 'leaders' lament that the heat and duration of the season can only be cooled and modified with more federal appropriations—welfare becomes a way of life"

Poverty War Fraud
"Here one must protest the prostitution of the term 'self-help' as seen in the performance and non-performance of some of the poverty programs swinging alternately between indescribable corruption and waste on the one hand, and equally indescribable childishness and inefficiency on the other."

This Negro citizen, who has watched the agitators at work and the protective police activities in Negro-populated Harlem, makes this significant statement: "The state of open warfare physically or psychologically which exists against the police in virtually every large city in the United States is an intolerable condition and must ultimately work to our disadvantage if uncorrected. . . . It must be understood that, in our society, the role of the police is basic, essential and indispensable." On this vital subject, former U. S. Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Whitaker recently said in analyzing "non-violent" demonstrations and "marches:"

"That conduct cannot honestly be termed 'peaceable,' for its avowed purpose was and is to force direct action outside the law." And his colleague, Justice Hugo Black observed: "Force leads to violence, violence to mob conflict, and these to rule by the strongest groups with control of the most deadly weapons." We must strive to make the words of Justice Whitaker, Justice Black, and Bryce Porter the voice of the majority. Today they are drowned out by the voices of radicalism.

LEGAL

NO. 21,437 EQUITY IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR FREDERICK COUNTY, MARYLAND
IDA V. VAN WINKLE
VS:
LEE A. VAN WINKLE

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
The Bill of Complaint is a suit of procedure to a divorce A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the Defendant, Lee A. Van Winkle.

The Bill recites that the Complainant, Ida V. Van Winkle, is a resident of Frederick County, State of Maryland, where she has resided for more than one year last past; that the Defendant, Lee A. Van Winkle, is presently residing McCoole, Allegany County, Maryland; that the parties to this case were married on the 17th day of March, 1937, in Weems, Virginia, by Rev. Good, a regularly ordained Minister of the Gospel; that as a result of the said marriage, eight children were born, six of whom are of legal age, and William W. Van Winkle, aged 16 years, David L. Van Winkle, aged 14 years, both of whom are in the care and custody of the Complainant and whose care and custody the Complainant seeks; that the parties to this have voluntarily lived separate and apart without cohabitation for more than eighteen months prior to the filing of this Bill of Complaint, and that the separation between the parties is beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

The Bill then prays that the Complainant, Ida V. Van Winkle, be divorced A VINCULO MATRIMONII from the Defendant, Lee A. Van Winkle, that said Complainant may be awarded the care and custody of the said infant children, and for such other and further relief as the nature of her case may require.

ORDER OF COURT
It is thereupon this 3rd day of November, 1966, by the Circuit Court for Frederick County, Maryland, sitting as a Court of Equity ORDERED that the Complainant give notice to the Defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the County of Frederick, once each week for four successive weeks prior to the 10th day of December, 1966, commanding him to be and appear in this Court, in person or by Solicitor, on or before the 10th day of January, 1967, and show cause, if any he may have, why a Decree should not be passed as prayed.

QUICK TIPS for Smooth Trips

By Paula Johnson
Woman's Representative
American Oil Company

Even with foam-cushioned seats and the posture-improving effect of good safety belts, driving—or just riding in a car—can put kinks in your muscles. Solution? Isometric exercises similar to those used by an astronaut in orbit. They relieve tiredness and tension, and they're good diversion for everyone in the car including the driver, who can join in without changing his grip on the wheel. Try the following pattern—every 30 minutes or so—on your next long-distance trip:

Tense the upper leg muscles, hold for a count of six, then relax. Repeat 10 times. . . . Do the same exercise with the upper arm muscles. . . . Next, sit up straight, pull in your stomach muscles, and count to six. Repeat 10 times. . . . To relieve tightness in the back of your neck, hunch your shoulders up to your ears. Hold as you count to 10 and . . . relax.

Halfway out on a family trip have you ever discovered that Dad has only a brown tie for his blue suit or a blue tie for his brown suit—or no ties at all? To prevent embarrassing color combinations or a frantic trip to the nearest men's store, always pack the tie for each suit with the suit. You can pin the tie inside the jacket or hang it through the tailor's loop in the jacket collar.

Do the same with pocket handkerchiefs. Put them with the suits—in the pockets—before packing.

Long-distance driving today is fast and easy on the Interstate. Like the strategic location of the country's increasing number of Interstate highways, there is method in their markings, too. Whenever you're confronted by a tri-level tangle of ramps and roadways, exits and entrances, glancing at the chart below might help. (Tape it to your sun visor or glove-compartment door.)

Interstate Highway Symbols

One- and two-digit signs:
through routes

- 4: Even numbers are East-West routes
- 25: Odd numbers are North-South routes

Three-digit signs:

- 474: First digit even: route through or around a city.
- 196: First digit odd: spur into a city.

power pole. The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said the death was caused by a badly crushed chest and head, including a compound fracture of the skull. Police estimated damage from the accident at $30,000. By mid-morning the tank carrying 56,000 gallons of latex had not been moved from the scene. Emmitsburg firemen were called to the scene at 5:05 and were unable to do more than provide light for workers at the scene. Emmitsburg Fire Chief Guy R. McLaughlin said Bloom was crushed in the cab of the truck by the tank trailer. Men at the scene said the tractor-trailer had apparently been completely upside down during one part of its fatal journey after leaving the highway and going down a slight embankment. There was dirt on the top of the cab and gouge marks in the field which indicated the completely upside down position of the vehicle at one time. Those arriving at the scene found the vehicle on its side, with the tank riding up over the cab. Emmitsburg firemen found that expert help had to be summoned to remove the tank portion of the vehicle. The aluminum construction did not permit ordinary methods by a tow truck crane.

The latex truck, owned by Shipley, Inc., was one of several headed east on Route 16 early Saturday morning. Bloom and other drivers in the caravan had stopped for coffee at Blue Ridge Summit. The other tank truck drivers, following Bloom down the Sunshine Trail, came upon the accident seconds after it happened and immediately summoned help from Emmitsburg. The firemen, an arrival with the VFW ambulance and fire equipment, summoned Pennsylvania State Police and Dr. Crist by radioing the Quick Call Center in Gettysburg. The tractor trailer traveled several hundred feet east after leaving the highway and came to rest about 100 feet south of the highway after smashing a South Penn Power Co. pole in three pieces. Dr. Crist said Emmitsburg firemen provided coffee for the workmen, police and others assisting at the scene. The body was released to the Wilson Funeral Home, Emmitsburg, by Dr. Crist, pending arrangements to be made by Bloom's family at Westminster.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Myers Funeral Home, Westminster, with Rev. Robert V. Johnson, his pastor, officiating. Interment was in Westminster Cemetery.

Firemen Hold Regular Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Vigilant Hose Co. was held Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, with President James Fitzgerald presiding. Chief Guy McLaughlin reported that there was one chimney fire since the last meeting, and that three service calls were made. Charles F. Stouter reported that the under ground gas tank had been installed in the lot behind the Fire Hall. Donald Byard, Jr., was appointed to arrange to have the equipment in the recreation room repaired. Chief McLaughlin reported that a representative of the Motorola Radio Corp., who will supply the Central Alarm equipment, had examined the hall and said that the equipment should arrive in the near future. He approved of the company's selection for the location of the antenna and base station. President Fitzgerald remarked that, "Contrary to an article which appeared in last week's Chronicle, the coming Central Alarm will benefit the people of Emmitsburg. It is true that the method for turning in alarms for this area has not been settled, and the Vigilant Hose Co. wants to assure the people who live in the vicinity that the service will remain as it is now unless the phone company can provide a better or equally efficient system to the Central Alarm headquarters in Frederick. The final decision on reporting alarms will be made after the phone co. advises the Fire Board on what services are available. It will then be discussed between the Fire Board and the Vigilant Hose Co. Then the Fire Board will go to the County Commissioners if it is necessary. The Vigilant Hose Co. has the people who live and own property in the Emmitsburg area as its prime interest and will not permit any changes to be made which may cause a delay or inconvenience in reporting an emergency."

Sterling White, chairman of the nominating committee, consisting of Arthur Damuth, Pat Boyle, Eugene Myers and Robert Wagerman, gave a report of their selections. Nominations were accepted from the floor and were closed. Voting for the 1967 officers will take place at the December meeting to be held on Dec. 13 at 7:30 p.m. Voting will take place from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and all members who have attended four meetings during the last year will be eligible to vote. Paul Keepers, Gene Myers and Mike Boyle were appointed to serve as election judges.

Charles Stouter reported that the shooting match which was held last month was a success. John Balmer volunteered to make arrangements for another shooting match to be held on Sunday, Nov. 20 at Stouter's Meadow. Turkeys will be prizes, just in time for Thanksgiving. Chief McLaughlin announced that the monthly practice will be held this Sunday at 1:30 p.m. He also announced that there will be a regional school in Libertytown on December 4. The refreshment committee for December will be James Pryor and Mike Byard.

MRS. WALTER E. SHORB

Mrs. Caroline R. Shorb, 71, of Fairfield, died Saturday at the Annie M. Warner Hospital in Gettysburg. She was the widow of Walter E. Shorb. Mrs. Shorb lived near Fairfield with her daughter, Mrs. John Brown. She was a communicant of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, and was a member of the Sodality of the church.

She was born in Baltimore, a daughter of the late John and Mary Boyle Horan. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Joseph Wivell, of Emmitsburg; a son, Joseph M. Shorb of Emmitsburg; 18 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at St. Anthony's Church with the Requiem Mass celebrated by Rev. Vincent Tomalski. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were James E. Brown, Kenneth W. Brown, Patrick L. Brown, Merle F. Shorb, Ronald J. Shorb, and Joseph D. Wivell, Jr.
