The accusation and revelation this week by several boys of the Cullen Correctional Institution that beatings and sexual perversion was rampant at the investigation now planned by the Governor. At this stage of the game the charges are undocumented but I am certain that the proper procedure will be followed and the whole unpleasant matter checked into. Similar charges at the penal institution in Hagerstown resulted in a sweeping investigation and the dismissal of employees. This whole sordid mess should be cleaned up and the sooner the better.

A complaint on windowless schools has been voiced by a member of the School Board and I heartily concur with his line of thinking. I have personally been opposed to the idea from the very beginning. To think of being closeted in a building for eight hours a day without seeing the beautiful daylight, birds, landscape and sunshine makes me shudder. I doubt that I would consider holding a job in an office where I couldn't look out the window every now and then. The School Board and the County Commissioners should take a second look at any plans calling for windowless schools in the future.

The on again off again swimming pool, the source of much controversy, to be included or excluded in the new Thurmont High School, was back in the news once again this week. Months ago the school was to be redesigned to meet expense cuts and it was thought the pool was eliminated. Early this week advertising for bids to build the school disclosed that an outside pool had been included in the plans. A few days later the County Commissioners resumed their battle to exclude the pool and the war is on again. Just what effect this will have on the timetable for building the school is conjectural but you can bet your bottom dollar the project will be delayed once more. Seems as though the project was ill-fated since its conception.

Parents will have an excellent opportunity to have their children immunized against the measles this Sunday when the County Health Dept. is offering "shots" at a clinic to be held in the American Legion. All children from one to 12 years of age are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to free themselves of the dreaded after-effects of this sometimes dangerous disease. Parents would do well to see that their children receive this fine public health service.

Rummage Sale

A Food and Rummage Sale will be sponsored by St. Anthony's Shrine in the school hall Saturday, May 13 starting at 2 o'clock. New and used clothing will be on sale as well as delectable food. The general public is cordially invited.

Public Invited To Fort Ritchie Military Programs

Sentry dogs and karate demonstrations, displays of military and technical equipment, and free movie cartoons for the youngsters are among the events Fort Ritchie is planning for Armed Forces Day, Saturday, May 20.

Colonel George W. Rhine, post commander, cordially invites the public to attend. There is no charge for admission and parking, and refreshments at nominal prices will be available at several locations inside the post.

A military parade at 12 Noon, with music provided by the Waynesboro High School band, will open this year's festivities. Demonstrations, displays and open houses will close at 4 p.m.

Chamber Commerce Meets Tuesday

The regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Chamber of Commerce will be held Tuesday evening, May 16 at 7:30 p.m. The group will meet at the Green Parrot Tea Room.

New School Design May Be Turned Down

The president of the Frederick County Commissioners predicted Tuesday that the redesigned Catoctin High School would be turned down again if the bid price includes a swimming pool.

Charles E. Collins, the board president said Tuesday that "They (the school board) were not to have a swimming pool in the school, and if they come in to us with a pool in the plans they'll get turned down again."

"We don't have to have a swimming pool at Montevue, or at the Brunswick High School, to supply water for sprinkler systems," he said. Sprinkler systems at these two facilities are fed by municipal water lines, and water for Catoctin High School could be supplied by the town of Thurmont.

Superintendent of schools Dr. John L. Carnochan said the commissioners had approved the pool as one possibility for a water source for the school during a joint meeting with the commissioners.

But, he said neither the school board nor the architect have approved a swimming pool for the school at this time.

C. Ray Weddle, mayor of Thurmont, said that he did know if the town water supply would be adequate for the sprinkler system.

Weddle said that since the school has been redesigned, he is not sure of what the water requirements are.

Plans for the school, released to contractors Monday, contain a 35 by 75 foot outdoor swimming pool, as a water source for the sprinkler system in the building.

Architect Lowell E. Nelson said the pool was included instead of an outdoor pond at the suggestion of the State Health Department and Fire Marshal.

Nelson said that a new pond created on the site would have excessive seepage.

Senior Citizens To Hear Lecture

Tuesday evening, May 16, at 7:30, at the Senior Citizens Center, Dr. and Mrs. John Dillon will give an illustrated lecture on "Africa," where they traveled recently.

Miss Knott Given Science Award

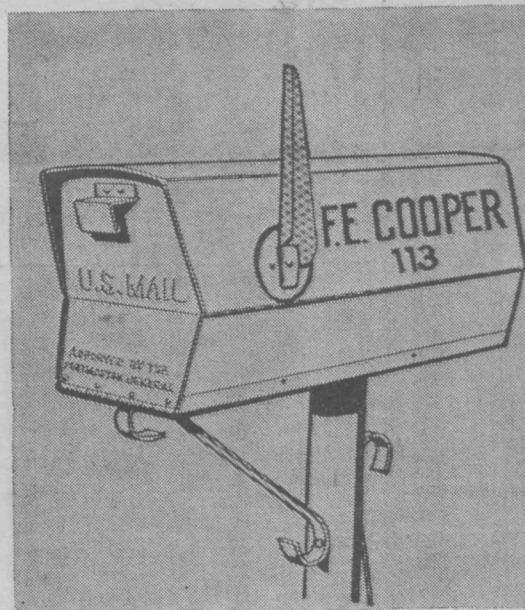

Throughout the United States, educators recognize the annual Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award as evidence of superior scientific aptitude.

In announcing Gloria Knott as the 1967 winner at the Awards Day assembly recently at St. Joseph's High School, Sister Edwina said, "These awards are especially significant. Today, everyone realizes the importance of the study of science in our secondary schools. The Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award provides recognition to high school students with the highest scholastic standing in science subjects."

The Bausch & Lomb Science Award and Scholarship Programs have been officially approved by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Mrs. Genevieve R. Elder suffered a broken right arm, severely lacerated eye and knee in a fall Sunday afternoon following the late Mass at St. Joseph's Church.

Mailbox Improvement Week Scheduled

The Post Office Department has designated the week of May 15-20, as mailbox improvement week, Postmaster Eugene Rosensteel stated this week.

In keeping with the Postal Regulations, and also President Johnson's beautification program, rural patrons are asked to make necessary improvements to their mail receptacles, during this particular week. An official inspection, by the Postmaster, will take place the following week.

Four important requirements contribute to a more efficient delivery operation: convenient location, sturdy construction, protective painting, and waterproofing, and easily operated doors, on all rural mail boxes.

Mailboxes of the approved traditional or contemporary design (such as those shown above) are required, whenever a mailbox is newly installed or a present receptacle is replaced. Persons still using obsolete, top-opening boxes may continue to use them at the same location, provided they are kept in serviceable condition and otherwise meet the requirements outlined above.

If in doubt as to the location, and especially the height of your box, please consult your carrier, or call the Postmaster, at the Post Office.

A Soldier Meets God

The following poem was found on the body of a soldier killed in combat:

Look God, I have never spoken to You—

But now—I want to say, "How do You do,"

You see, God, they told me You didn't exist—

And like a fool—I believed all of this.

Last night from a shell-hole I saw Your sky—

I figured right then they had told me a lie.

Had I taken the time to see the things You made,

I'd have known they weren't calling a spade a spade.

I wonder, God, if You'd shake my hand,

Somehow—I feel that You will understand.

Funny—I had to come to this hellish place,

Before I had time to see Your face.

Well, I guess there isn't much more to say

But I'm sure glad, God, I met You today,

I guess the zero hour will soon be here,

But I'm not afraid since I know You're near.

The signal! Well, God, I'll have to go

I like You lots—This I want You to know.

Look, now—this will be a horrible fight—

Who knows—I may come to Your House tonight.

Though I wasn't friendly with You before

I wonder God—if You'd wait at Your door.

Look I'm crying, me — shedding tears,

I wish I had known You these many years.

Well, I will have to go now, God, goodbye.

Strange—since I met You—I'm not afraid to die.

Lions Hear Report On Recent Auction

President Norman J. Shriver presided over the regular meeting of the Emmitsburg Lions Club held Monday evening in Mt. Manor Restaurant.

Lion Milton Sewell of the Sight Conservation Committee, reported approval of the purchase of a pair of eyeglasses for an indigent elderly local woman and also that requests for glasses from three local children had been received and are being checked out.

The club discussed entering a float in the Firemen's Parade here on June 8 and a decision will be made at the next meeting whether or not to enter a float. A chicken barbecue was announced for Sunday, May 21 from 12 to 7 p.m., sponsored by the Glade Valley Lions Club to be held in the Woodsboro Fire Hall.

Ralph McDonnell, chairman of the recent Community Auction, said commission checks for those who sold items at the sale would be mailed in the near future. He reported the sale as highly successful and estimated a gross of around $700. The club is attempting to dispose of its Horse Show jumping equipment and is offering it for sale. Interested parties are asked to contact either Lion Clarence Hahn or Charles F. Stouter.

3-Vehicle Crash Near Here Friday

A Hagerstown man was admitted to the Warner Hospital in satisfactory condition following an accident involving two trucks and a car at 11 o'clock Friday evening on Route 16, a mile west of Zora.

Bernard Lee Barr, 27, Hagerstown, was removed to the hospital in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance after he was injured in the three vehicle mishap. A hospital spokesman said Barr suffered injuries of the head, left forearm, hip and foot. Damage totaled $905.

Pennsylvania State Police said the accident occurred when a car operated by Donald E. Kauffman, 39, Fairview Ave., Waynesboro, driving a truck, skidded on the wet highway into the rear section of a car operated by Francis L. Punt, 47, Fairfield Rd., who was making a right turn into a private drive. The Kauffman vehicle, upon striking the Punt car, ran into the eastbound lane colliding head on with a Ford truck operated by Barr.

State police estimated the damage to the Barr truck at $600, $300 to the Kuffman truck and $5 to the Punt car.

Car, Truck Crash

Damage estimated at $300 each resulted to a car of Patrick Topper, 18, Emmitsburg Rd., and a truck of Wilson Elwood Stevens, 52, of White Marsh, Md., in an accident at 8:50 p.m. Saturday on Route 16, just east of the Waynesboro borough limits. The eastbound Topper vehicle crossed the center line of the highway and collided with the westbound Stevens truck, police said.

SAVE THOSE SOUVENIRS

Tourists exploring marketplaces all over the world delight in "finds" of beautiful native wools—but they often neglect to make sure that those bargains stay bargains once they get them home.

A Mexican rebozo makes a marvelous souvenir, but there's no way of telling if it's moth proof. Don't take chances with your treasures—take these tips from the Moth and Carpet Beetle Information Center.

1. All items to be stored should be clean, given a good dose of paradichlorobenzene (better known as para) and placed in a moth-proof, airtight, light-proof aluminum foil wrapping. Contrary to popular belief, it is the vapors that kill—not the odor of the moth preventive. When sealed with a tight double fold, super-strength Alcoa Wrap retains these vapors because it is impenetrable.
2. The foil wrapping method saves cedar chest space—packages can be tucked into a drawer or placed on a cupboard shelf. It's also a good idea to seal your packages with masking tape, and mark them for identification.
3. When mothproofing closets, place crystals on a high shelf or suspend them from a clothes rod or hook high in the closet, since the vapors from the moth crystals are heavier than air and tend to sink to the bottom.
4. Use 2 pounds of para for every 100 cubic feet of space. A closet that is 7' high, 5' wide, and 3' deep (105 cubic feet) would require a bit more than two pounds of Dichloride or "Stanley" moth crystals, or other quality para.
5. For a free booklet and information on storing wools, send a postcard to Woolens in Foil, 1661 Alcoa Bldg., Pittsburgh, Pa. 15219.

Lumen Norris Attends Conference

Lumen F. Norris, Frederick County supervisor of assessments, recently attended the 24th annual spring meeting and educational conference of the Maryland Assn. of Assessing Officers held at the Washingtonian Country Club in Gaithersburg, Md.

At the two-day event attended by 190 assessors, Mr. Norris met with Builder Milton Kettler and discussed the land requirements for Montgomery Village, the 2200-acre new town in the corridor city of Gaithersburg which is being readied for opening this summer by the Kettler firm. The new development utilizes dramatic new concepts of architectural design and land use. The table model shows one of the planned neighborhoods of the first residential area.

Norris, shown at the right of the above photo, heard Kettler present his views on the "changing patterns in land development and relationship to appraisal and taxation" and the role which assessors play in enabling imaginative development programs meet the needs of future communities.

More school children die of cancer than of any other disease. Cancer took the lives of about 5,000 youngsters under the age of 15 in 1966. Almost half of them die of leukemia, cancer of the blood-forming tissue. A contribution to the American Cancer Society will help support research in leukemia and other childhood cancers.

Love Is What NUNS Are Made Of

Love of Christ! Love of humanity! Love of souls! That's what a Catholic nun is made of.

Only such a powerful motivation, in fact, could prompt a young woman to choose such a life. For the life of a nun offers no practical or material rewards commensurate with the sacrifice she makes to be one.

A nun turns her back on the pleasures, vanities and possessions most women want out of life. Instead of having a family and home of her own, she lives in a community with other nuns. Instead of trying "to keep up with the Joneses," she dedicates herself to a lifetime of poverty, chastity and obedience.

She makes these sacrifices...and devotes years to her education and training...so that she may be able to devote the fulness of her mind and heart and talents to the service of God. So that in the pursuit of her own holiness she will bring holiness to the souls she so humbly seeks to serve.

The number of young women who feel a divine call to the life of a religious is relatively small compared with those who choose otherwise. Yet something like a million nuns of the world-wide Catholic Church serve Christ and humanity in religious, charity and education activities that bless the lives of everyone, everywhere.

Catholic nuns, of course, are a familiar sight to people of all faiths almost everywhere. For withal the seclusion and humility of their personal lives, their labors of love are visible to everyone in their work of charity, education, social betterment and religion.

But not so well known...and worth knowing...is the story of how and why a nun becomes a nun, and the education and training that go into her preparation. Equally interesting is the story of how the individual talents of aspiring nuns are fitted into the work of the various sisterhoods, to provide a richly rewarding career for those who choose the religious career.

These and many other interesting facts are related in a new pocket-size pamphlet "About Nuns," which we will be happy to send free upon your request. It describes, among other things, how the spirit of Christian renewal proclaimed by the recent Vatican Council touches upon the life and work of the religious women of Christ's Church.

Write today. Ask for Pamphlet No. KC-25. It will be sent without cost or obligation. Nobody will call on you.

To Recommend Sixes Bridge Project

A proposal to build the Sixes Bridge Dam is to be included in the next recommendation to the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, Frederick County officials were told this week.

Francis J. Cook, administrative assistant to the county's sanitary commission, said "it is now our understanding that the Sixes Bridge Dam will be included in the interim report to the Corps Engineers from the Interdepartmental Task Force on the Potomac River Basin."

This recommendation is essential if the dam is to be built, Cook said, because plans for the dam were deleted from the Engineers' program for the river basin.

"Therefore," he said, "it had to be in this report to be considered as a location for a dam."

Local officials "got the word" on the dam Monday, when state and federal officials met with the county's planning and sanitary commissioners, Cook said. The federal administrators were taken on a tour to inspect the proposed dam site before meeting with the county commissions.

State Property Tax To Make Increase

State Comptroller Louis L. Goldstein, Chairman of the Governor's Committee to Study the State Debt, this week announced that, at its meeting held in his Baltimore Office, April 26, the Committee adopted a recommendation to the Board of Public Works to set the State property tax levy at 17c per $100 of assessable basis for the coming Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 1967. The Board of Public Works is required to establish the rate of the annual state property tax levy on or before May 1st of each year. The rate for the current Fiscal Year ending June 30, 1967 is 15c per $100. The new 17c rate takes into consideration estimated debt service requirement of $26,984,000 for the Fiscal Year 1968 which includes redemption of bonds maturing during that year and payment of interest on the outstanding debt. The debt service requirement during the current Fiscal Year is $22,428,000.

The 17c rate also took into account the increase of the State assessable base from $14,182,000,000 in the Fiscal Year 1967 to $15,018,000,000 in the Fiscal Year 1968 as estimated by the State Department of Assessments and Taxation.

Mr. Goldstein, in making the announcement, pointed out that this tax rate increase is also an outgrowth of additional public services necessary as a result of the State's rapid growth in population and economic requirements. The U. S. Census Bureau reports that Maryland population has grown by 16.4% since the April 1, 1960 census, and only five other states in the union have shown a greater percentage gain during the period.

This is reflected in approval by the recent 1967 session of the General Assembly of $276,796,000 of new bonds as compared with $57,571,700 last year.

Maryland's bonds have the best credit rating in U. S., namely AAA, and in order to maintain this rating, the State has to have sufficient money flowing into the treasury to meet the principal and interest on these bonds.

Mr. Goldstein further pointed out that Maryland has never defaulted a bond issue.

Mount Alumnus On Baltimore TV

George Rogers, one of Baltimore's best known television reporters and an alumnus of Mount Saint Mary's College, will return to Baltimore station WMAR-TV as assistant news director.

Rogers has just finished five years as host and commentator for the nationally televised program, The Wonderful World of Golf. In this capacity he became a globetrotter, visiting 57 countries in every continent except Africa, logging more than 250,000 air-miles.

A native of Binghamton, N. Y., he began his career while still in high school as a part-time radio announcer. While attending Mt. St. Mary's where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1950, he served as a staff member at station WFMD, Frederick.

When you look for the most room and the smoothest ride and the best value, you'll end up with a Chevrolet wagon everytime.

Chevrolet Impala, roomiest in its class. While extra roominess is perhaps the best reason for buying a Chevrolet wagon, consider, also, these bonuses: Body by Fisher, Chevrolet dependability, flush-and-dry rocker panels and Magic-Mirror finish. Chevelle Malibu, smoother, quieter ride. A Malibu not only gives you a Full Coil suspension ride, but the body mountings are double-cushioned. And Chevelle carries plenty. It opens wide. 54.6 inches, to be exact, 28.5 inches high. Flip the second seat down and you've got 86 cubic feet of cargo space for all your gear. Chevelle was built to take a lot. Chevy II Nova, best equipped for the money. All-vinyl upholstery is standard. Flush-and-dry rocker panels that clean themselves are standard. Separate panels beneath each fender to inhibit rust are standard.

Mono-Plate rear suspension to smooth the ride is standard. Price? Below standard.

New Law Says 16-18 Teenagers Must Train
Commissioner of Motor Vehicles John R. Jewell today announced that, effective June 1, Maryland teen-agers will be required to satisfactorily complete courses in driver education in order to obtain their driving licenses at ages 16 and 17. Jewell's announcement was issued following a legal study of driver education legislation enacted in both 1966 and 1967 raising the minimum age at which a person can secure his driving license from 16 to 18 years of age.

"After June 1," Jewell said, "16 and 17 year old applicants can be licensed only if they present to the Department of Motor Vehicles satisfactory evidence that they have completed a course in driver education approved by the State Department of Education."

Legislation enacted in 1966 and effective in three weeks requires that a driver education course consist of "not more than thirty hours of classroom instruction," Jewell said, adding:

"Students who successfully complete such courses are now and will continue to be issued appropriate certificates from their respective schools which should be presented to the Department of Motor Vehicles when making application for learner's permits."

Jewell said that the State Department of Education has advised him that students seeking information regarding driver education programs should contact either their local school driver education supervisor or the Office of the Supervisor of Transportation in the State Department of Education.

The DMV Commissioner also said that Department of Education officials have advised him that in addition to public school programs, driver education courses have been approved in four commercial driving schools.

The new law will not affect licenses issued to 1 and 17 year olds prior to the June 1 deadline, Jewell said, adding that the Department of Motor Vehicles also would continue to honor instruction permits issued to applicants in that same age bracket prior to June 1, 1967.

In addition, the law that becomes effective June 1, 1967, Jewell said the 1967 General Assembly passed legislation affecting driver education that becomes effective April 1, 1968.

This legislation brings Maryland into further conformance with tentative Federal highway safety standards by requiring that courses in driver education consist of at least 30 hours of classroom instruction and six hours of behind-the-wheel training.

Commissioner Jewell concluded by noting that, effective June 1, 1967, the Department of Motor Vehicles will require applicants for driving licenses to submit birth certificates or similar satisfactory evidence of age.

OUR LIBRARY

The renovation of the Emmitsburg Public Library is nearing completion and we hope our patrons will be pleased with the results. We invite you to visit our Library and to become a member. New books in the Library are as follows:

"Tongues of Fire," by Frances Parkinson Keyes, is the story of Christian missions from the time of St. Paul to the present. The selection is a personal one based on the author's lifelong interest in the Christian missionary service.

"God's Warrior," by Frank G. Slaughter is a biographical novel of Paul the Apostle. The author re-creates one of the most dynamic lives in religious history and has once again produced a well-documented and highly readable novel set against the tenderness and violence of early Christendom. Through it, St. Paul emerges as the man he was — truly God's Warrior.

For the mystery lovers there's "The Phantom of the Temple," by Robert Van Gulik and "Eyes at the Window," by George Selmark.

Scott O'Dell has written a new novel for the youth section called "The King's Fifth." In this deeply affecting novel the author envelops the reader in the heroic world of the conquistadors — a world that is at once somber and many-colored. Ruthless they may have been, these steel-helmeted young men of Spain, but they lived their lives on the very edge of eternity with style and uncommon courage.

A favorite author in the juvenile section is Hugh Lofting for his Doctor Dolittle books, and so the newest addition is called "Doctor Dolittle's Zoo."

In the non-fiction section for young people, there is a book called "Weather all around," by Tillie S. Pine and Joseph Levine, with illustrations by Bernice Myers. You will learn about all kinds of weather and there are experiments to try plus identification of weather instruments.

McCall's giant Golden-it Book consists of hundreds of things for boys and girls to make and do, plus a complete book of crafts and activities.

"Canada," by Theo L. and Sarah Jane Hills. Their studies and travels have helped them to describe the land and people of Canada in an authentic and interesting manner.

The Lions Club of Thurmont will sponsor the 21st annual edition of the Von Bros. three ring Circus on May 18 on a location opposite the Thurmont Elementary School on East Main St., Thurmont.

"Our organization is bringing the world's second largest motorized circus in this area to enable children and adults to enjoy a traditionally wholesome form of unique American entertainment," stated Eugene Anderson, president of the Thurmont club.

Two performances will be staged, one at 4 p.m. and the other at 8 p.m. In addition to an act which includes seven jungle-bred lions performing in a steel arena, there will be a herd of performing elephants, liberty horses, dogs, ponies, llamas, camels, and chimpanzees. Captain Johnson will feature King Sultan, the largest trained male lion in the world who weighs over 800 pounds and who has been featured in many Tarzan and other jungle pictures.

The Thurmont club will derive its greatest share of profits on all tickets sold in advance of circus day. Tickets are available at the following stores in Thurmont: Creager's Home Furnishing, Don Lewis, Davies Jewelry, Cozy Restaurant, and Burn's Grocery. Members of the Thurmont Lions also have tickets.

G M Science Show Presented School Students

"Liquid sunshine" powered a portable radio. A small platform moved across the floor on a thin layer of air. And a "misbehaving" suitcase illustrated principles used in modern guidance systems.

Emmitsburg High School students saw these and other interesting demonstrations when the famed General Motors science show, Previews of Progress, appeared at the school on Friday, May 5 at 2 p.m.

"We seek through Previews to inspire more young people to make science and engineering their career and provide the trained talent America must have to keep pace with the promise of the future," James M. Roche, president of General Motors, declares.

Gene Bellow and Jim Garland of General Motors Public Relations Staff presented the 45-minute, non-commercial presentation. They are one of seven teams that take the show to more than a million students each year.

One of the highlights of the show was a fuel cell, a device that converts chemical energy into electrical power. Potentially one of the most significant scientific developments of the century, the fuel cell manufactures electricity with much greater efficiency than is now obtained from conventional power plants.

During the show, a few drops of "liquid sunshine" added to the cells provided enough energy to operate a portable radio.

Another example of solar energy, the amazing Sunmobile, was demonstrated. The 15-inch model car depends on eight photoelectric cells for its operation. The button-like cells on the hood of the car convert light rays into electricity which drives a small electric motor inside the car. A 300-watt lamp was used to simulate the sun's rays during the show. As the light struck the cells, the Sunmobile moved smoothly across a table.

In addition to sun power, the Previews audience saw an air baring platform in operation. This small platform, supported by three large circular pads, is designed to slide over any flat surface on a thin layer of air.

The operation of the Previews platform is simple. A small blower forces air through the three pads, creating a thin layer of air between the pads and the floor. The air eliminates nearly all sliding friction, enabling easy mobility of the platform.

Another Previews sequence illustrated principles used in modern guidance systems. A student volunteer manipulated a suitcase was "a mind of its own" as the lecturer, Jim Garland, explained how today's planes, ships and missiles are safely guided along predetermined courses.

Students also saw the Exploding Wire Phenomenon. Using the prin-

Other Previews demonstrations included examples of the wonders of modern chemistry and a capsule history of jet propulsion traced from 200 B.C. to futuristic gas turbine power.

public employes should be made public.

James Bryan, clerk to the commissioners, had, at the request of the commissioners, asked the Board of Education several weeks ago to supply a list of employes and their salaries. The board has not yet replied to that request.

Mount Ends Season With Win

A one-hitter by George Synnot paved the way for Mt. St. Mary's 12th baseball win of the season as the Mountaineers turned back Washington College 10-1, Thursday afternoon here.

Synnot had a no-hitter going until the ninth frame when leadoff batter George Buckless drilled a line single to center and later scored. Synnot fanned four and walked but one man in recording the win.

The Mount produced a nine-hit attack including five extra base knocks. The big blow was a home-run by Pete Waters. The Mount scored six runs in the first, one in the fourth and three more in the seventh.

The contest marked the end of the 1967 season for the Mount. The Mounties were 11-6 in conference play and 12-6 overall.

Sodality Receives New Members

A reception into the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin of St. Joseph's Church was held on Monday evening after the 7:30 Mass. Five new members were received: Mrs. John Sanders, Mrs. Donald Wivell, Mrs. Paul Goetz, Miss Gloria Orndorff and Miss Lynn Shorb.

Following the ceremonies, a meeting of the Sodality was held in St. Euphemia's School Hall.

twenty-four members were present with president, Mrs. Regina Rybikowsky presiding. Rev. Fr. Francis Stauble, C.M., Director of the Sodality, opened the meeting with a prayer. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were read. The group decided to continue the Rosary for Peace, and the Bands will start the recitation over when the first time around ends on May 13.

A bus trip to Longwood Gardens on July 8 was discussed. Those interested in making the trip are asked to contact Miss Louise Adams. Also, the annual Spring Banquet was discussed, with a tentative date set for Tuesday, June 13 at Camp Cozy. Mrs. Marie Rosensteel and Mrs. Helen Brown were named as a committee to make final arrangements for the banquet.

The last meeting of the season will be held on Monday evening, May 29, followed by a card party for the members. Father Stauble spoke briefly to the members urging them to attend May Devotions each Sunday and Monday evenings during May.

Mrs. Edith Baker won the door prize. Father Stauble closed the meeting with a prayer, after which refreshments of cookies and coffee were served.

Glee Club Will Give Concert

A gala spring program by the Glee Club of St. Joseph's High School is scheduled for May 20 and 21 in the school auditorium. Under the direction of Fr. James Kelly, "A Gilbert and Sullivan Revue" will feature songs from five popular musicals.

The complete score of "Trial by Jury," will comprise the first act of the program. Starring as The Learned Judge is Joseph Welty, Caroline Fock as The Plaintiff, Angelina, Raymond Baker as The Defendant (Edwin), Christine Miller as the Counsel for the Plaintiff, Hugh Warren as the Usher, and Gary Cool as the Foreman of the Jury. The scene is a courtroom where Angelina, whose fiancé Edwin has fallen in love with another, is charging him with breach of promise. This musical is both romantic and amusing.

Included in the second act are the best-known songs from four other Gilbert and Sullivan musicals: "The Mikado," "H.M.S. Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance," and "Iolanthe." Gary Cool is cast as the Mikado, Kate Sanders as Katisha, and Charles Newcomb as Nanki Poo. In H.M.S. Pinafore, Pam Topper plays Josephine; Tommy Remaveg, Ralph; Ruth Sanders, Buttercup; Joseph Welty, the Captain; Larry Cunningham, Sir Joseph Porter. Joyce Shields has the role of Mable in "The Pirates of Penzance" while Joseph Hobbs plays opposite her as Frederic. The Fairy Queen in "Iolanthe" will be portrayed by Arlene Miller; Dorothea Eighenbrode and Hugh Warren take the parts of Phyllis and Strephon. Other members of the Glee Club will form the chorus. The setting for these four musicals is the deck of a ship where the various lovers in each scene harmonize their way through all trials to a happy ending.

Tickets for the program can be obtained from any member of the cast and will also be sold at the door for $1.00 apiece. Saturday, May 20, the program will begin at 8:00 in the afternoon; Sunday, May 21, at 7:30 in the evening. We urge you, come see "A Gilbert and Sullivan Revue." Don't miss this wonderful opportunity to enjoy an evening of music and entertainment.

Dirt-Eating Cattle In Spring

A drouth-afflicted Connecticut dairyman writes: "I have noticed that my bred Holstein heifers are eating dirt. They are self-fed corn silage and are also self-fed a mixture of soybean meal 78% and salt 22%."

"They also under the Federal Emergency program get about 10 pounds of a mixture of equal parts of ground corn and oats, and have free access to a commercial salt-mineral mixture. Any ideas on my problem?"

The key to his problem I wrote him, was the self-fed 78% soybean meal—22% salt mixture when offered along with the palatable corn silage and corn and oats mixture.

The practice of using salt as a regulator of concentrate consumption is borrowed from the range country where ground-cured weathered winter pastures require supplementary protein more than anything else.

Salt used as a governor of protein consumption permits the labor-saving device of self-feeding, the cattle consuming along with the salt about two pounds of the cottonseed meal or soybean meal daily per head, enough to balance the roughage from a protein standpoint.

My guess is that the dirt-chewing heifers lacked both protein and calcium-phosphorus minerals, possibly trace minerals.

Why? Because of the competition for the salt-oil meal mixture set up by the highly palatable corn silage and corn and oats. This differs greatly from the unpalatable winter pasture in the range country and leaves little desire for the heavily salted soybean meal.

By eating as much as the generous amount of 1.75 ounces of salt in the mixture, they would eat less than one-half pound of oil meal, clearly not enough to balance the ration.

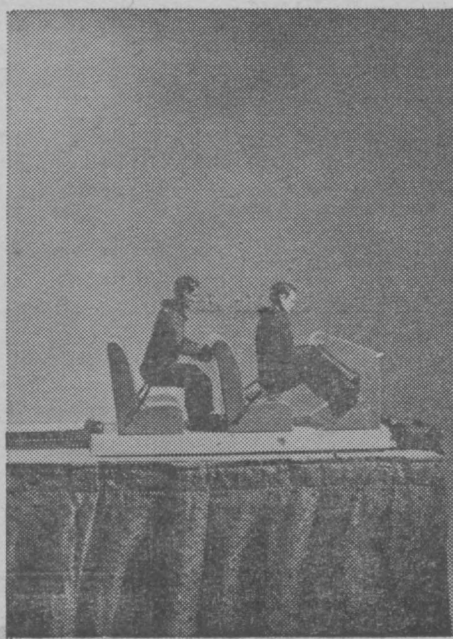

Then, having no more craving for salt, the heifers would likely ignore the commercial salt-mineral mixture with its essential major and minor or trace minerals.

My suggestion was to omit self-feeding the oil meal-salt mixture, but rather to hand-feed straight oil meal, perhaps two pounds per head daily, and then letting the heifers as before have free access to the commercial salt-mineral mixture.

Question: Where suckling pigs are in need of iron to prevent anemia or low blood hemoglobin, why cannot the sow be fed sufficient iron to fortify her milk in this way?

Answer: Various attempts to thus enrich a sow's milk have failed. However, trace mineral salt in a sow's feed indirectly helps build blood hemoglobin for suckling pigs, for they are bound to nurse spilled feed and also feces, both of which then are rich in iron.

Dr. Bohstedt

BENEFIT OF SEAT BELTS—To demonstrate what happens to persons with and without seat belts in an automobile collision, a miniature impact sled is operated by a General Motors representative in the "Previews of Progress" science show. Above, left, "dummy" passengers not wearing seat belts are ejected from the sled, while, above, right, "dummies" are held safely in the vehicle by using belts. A full-size impact sled has been used by GM since 1963 to help engineers design safer automobiles and components. The impact sled is one of nine demonstrations in the GM stage show, now appearing in this area. The 40-minute, non-technical presentation highlights the many career opportunities available in science and engineering to over one million students and adults a year.

It could be a warning signal of cancer. And cancer is easier to cure when it's detected early. Ella Fitzgerald knows the seven warning signals of cancer. Do you?
1. Unusual bleeding or discharge. 2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere. 3. A sore that does not heal. 4. Change in bowel or bladder habits. 5. Hoarseness or cough. 6. Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing. 7. Change in a wart or mole.
