- By Abigail -

There's frost on the pumpkins these mornings as the fall air has dropped into the 30-40 degree bracket. Nightfall is coming early and it is becoming a task to adjust one's self to the sudden changes. Just think, but a short month ago we were moaning and groaning under 90-degree temperatures. Just about the time we get acclimated to the fall weather then along will come the end of Daylight Time, October 27, to be exact, and we can start the procedure all over again. The human mind and body must be a wonderful machine to be so adaptable to conditions such as we must endure.

The Space Program? We had almost forgotten about it. It has sort of lost touch with the public since that tragic incident almost two years ago when three of our outstanding astronauts were cremated in their craft while practicing a take-off at Cape Kennedy. Well, the Cape surges to the news highlights this morning when the Apollo 7 is launched on an 11-day flight into space. If all goes well it is planned to orbit the moon around Christmas. It really does look like we have made some outstanding progress during the past 24 months, so let's hope all goes well with the launching this morning... and the return of the craft safely in 11 days.

No one is swimming pool conscious these days and that is a perfectly normal attitude due naturally to the cooler weather. However, our solicitors for funds must continue the drive through rain or snow, if we are to accomplish our mission. We've bitten off a sizeable chunk but we must succeed. Progress it seems, is a bit slow, but then when you are hunting money it's always that way. Steady plugging must continue until the entire community is canvassed, then efforts to mobilize local businesses and other sources will be brought into play. I am certain that if YOU, the public, do your part, then other assistance will be forthcoming. Let's get those contributions in folks!

That perennial bugaboo, water shortage, has sprung up once again. This week several out-of-town newspapers headlined the story and carried an Emmitsburg date line intimating that a water shortage was plaguing Emmitsburg. Honestly folks, this sort of headlining irks me and actually, in my opinion, does the Town absolutely no good. Anyone with any intentions of ever opening an industry here would be frightened off forever after reading almost every year of this problem. How do we expect new businesses to open here and bring in more tax money when there is a barrage of unfavorable publicity concerning Emmitsburg? This whole situation could be resolved if we had a realistic water expansion program planned and each year carry out a phase of it. I don't know how many thousands of the taxpayers' dollars have been spent on surveys that are never followed through to conclusion and each year the situation remains unchanged. The community is growing, more houses are being built and the demand for water increases annually but the reserve supply is never increased. It's high time we had a comprehensive water program for this community, one that would take care of the needs and wants of this community for years to come! This opinion is not an attempt to place the blame for our dilemma at the doorstep of the present Town Council. It is a compilation of failures of past administrations over the last decade, to see the future needs of this Town. We must make a decision now that at least one step is made each year in the direction that will lead to higher water inventories and sources. We could start by drilling another well, making an earth dam reservoir or making permanent arrangements to pump Toms Creek. The future of Emmitsburg actually hangs in the balance so let's get started.

Apostolic Delegate To Receive Mount Degree

The Apostolic Delegate to the United States, Archbishop Luigi Raimondi, will be awarded the honorary Doctor of Laws degree by Mount Saint Mary's College at its first annual Fall Honors Convocation on October 17.

The presence of the official Papal representative to this country on the campus for the convocation is expected to attract a heavier-than-usual turnout for the College's annual alumni Homecoming Weekend which starts on the evening of October 17 with the arrivals for the annual Priests' Reunion. The practice of holding a Priests' Reunion as a feature of Homecoming was started last year and was a big success.

Invocation for the Fall Honors Convocation will be given by His Eminence, Lawrence Cardinal Shehan, Archbishop of Baltimore and chairman of the Mount's Board of Trustees. Greetings will be given by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Hugh J. Phillips, president of the college. Rev. David W. Shaum, dean of academic affairs, will present faculty and student awards. Musical selections will be presented by members of the college glee club.

His Excellency, Archbishop Raimondi, who will be honored by Mount Saint Mary's College, was named Apostolic Delegate to the United States by Pope Paul VI in June of last year.

Born at Acqui-Lussito in Italy in 1912, he attended the Seminary of Acqui and was ordained to the priesthood in 1936. He received a doctorate in Canon Law at the Appolinaris in Rome and made studies at the Pontifical Ecclesiastical Academy.

In 1938 he was appointed secretary to the Apostolic Nunciature in Guatemala, and in the following year was named a Papal Chamberlain with title of very reverend Monsignor. In 1942 he was sent to the United States to serve as secretary to the Apostolic Delegation.

Archbishop Raimondi, then Monsignor, assumed the post of auditor of the Apostolic Internunciature in New Delhi, India in 1949. He was named Titular Archbishop of Tarsus and Papal Nuncio to Haiti in 1953. In Haiti, he succeeded Archbishop Francesco Lardone.

In 1955 he moved to Mexico where he served as Apostolic Delegate to that country.

Archbishop Raimondi's decorations include Grand Cross of Honor and Merit of Haiti, Grand Cross of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, and Grand Cross of the Order of the Holy Sepulchre.

County Tax Hike Believed Inevitable

Frederick County residents can expect another boost in real estate taxes next year.

A bigger budget next year, with no sizeable amount of increased income to the county to meet it, makes a tax increase next year almost certain, a county spokesman said this week.

The county budget in fiscal 1969 of $13,994,156 was $2,039,650 more than the fiscal 1968 budget.

The education budget, which accounted for most of the increase, came to $1,888,227, while the increase for all other county agencies amounted to $151,423, the spokesman asserted.

This means, he added, that education in Frederick County received 92.5 per cent of the increase in the budget, and the picture doesn't look like it will change at all next year.

If it doesn't, residents of Frederick County will have to shell out for an increased property tax next year. The surtax is already set at the maximum of 50 per cent.

This year, real estate taxes were hiked from $2.14 per $100 assessed valuation to $2.30 and the surtax raised from 20 per cent.

Despite the gloomy outlook for taxpayers next year, the county is in "excellent shape, cash-wise" at the present time.

From March until the end of the fiscal year in June, "There will be a touchy situation as far as the availability of cash is concerned," according to Thomas M. Fox, county accountant.

One of the reasons—the uncertainty of how income tax payments to the county from the state government will flow into county coffers during the period from March to June.

The prediction of a probable problem, according to Fox, is based on state income per month of past years. "Our estimate of cash flow into the county may be off. We may have gotten more tax money at that time than anticipated, or maybe less," Fox explained.

Adding to the problem this year will be the miscalculation at the state level of the estimated 1967 tax returns, which may have cost the local government about $400,000. The County Commissioners, however, when they heard this item of news, revised the already set fiscal 1969 budget to meet the emergency.

Teacher Action Could Result In Law Suit

The Frederick County Teachers Association paved the way for a possible lawsuit against the County Commissioners in a resolution adopted this week.

The FCTA, Board of Education and the Commissioners are at odds over a $280,000 cut in the originally-set county fiscal 1969 budget. The county made the cut after it was learned that some estimated state revenue would not be coming into county coffers.

The resolution asks the commissioners to reinstate the funds in the current school budget, and states that if the funds are not reinstated the Board of Education is requested and FCTA directed to advise the public "of the specific educational opportunities which have been lost to children as a result of these budget reductions."

The local Board of Education has appealed the county decision to cut the funds to the Maryland State Board of Education.

It was resolved, paving the way for further action, that the FCTA and the State Teachers Association conduct a study of the pending ruling of the State Board of Education and/or the Attorney General of Maryland and the "extremely questionable practice of transferring funds from the instructional category as proposed by the County Board of Education."

The findings of the study will be presented to FCTA's representative council for appropriate legal or legislative action.

The County Commissioners had no immediate comment.

The resolution states: "As educators, our commitment to the students requires that we look beyond the individual welfare of teachers and, as educators we are particularly accountable for interpreting to the public serious deficiencies within the school system."

"The fiscal authorities of Frederick County have reduced what was generally believed to have been an officially approved education budget in the amount of $280,000 and it appears that this reduction has already caused and will continue to require deficit spending in the area of school maintenance."

"The Superintendent of Schools has reported that in order to keep schools open and maintain a balanced budget, it will be necessary to further reduce an already minimal materials of instruction account to the detriment of children."

"The Board of Education's legal counsel has advised that, in his opinion, the action taken by the County Commissioners is not permitted by Maryland law."

Local Firemen Place Second In Contest

A parade, demonstrations of use of an aerial "snorkel" and the aerial ladder of the Gettysburg Fire Dept., plus such events as a "bucket brigade" competition, marked the opening of Fire Prevention Week for area firemen Sunday.

Sponsored by the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association, the parade-program was held in Abbotstown under a rotating plan by which the annual major observance will be held in different parts of the county each year.

Hanover fire companies, Emmitsburg and Pennville demonstrated late model apparatus and rescue units.

Eight companies took part in a hook-up contest in which each entered a team of eight men. Fully outfitted with boots, helmets, raincoats, etc., the competing crews raced to their trucks from a starting space, started the engine, laid three lengths of hose and then knocked over, with a spray of water from the hoses, a target 125 feet from their trucks and hoses. Fairfield won the event with its crew knocking over the target in 23 seconds from the time the crew began the race for its engine. Emmitsburg was second in 24 seconds and Littlestown third with 25½ seconds. Each company received a trophy.

Local Airman Receives Citation

Airman First Class William D. Wivell left Westover Air Force Base, Mass., recently, for a six month tour of duty at Anderson Air Force Base, Guam. Airman Wivell had been stationed at Westover since October 1967. During that time he received a special honor of being selected as "Squadron Pride Man of the Month." Due to the thorough knowledge of his job, he was placed in complete charge of the storage tanks on several occasions. He assisted in training approximately 15 airmen in the proper methods of receiving and issuing petroleum products. He has also received awards for safe driving.

Airman Wivell belongs to the 99th Supply Squadron in the Bomb Wing Division. He just completed two years of service for the USAF in September of this year.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Wivell of Emmitsburg, and is married to the former Rachel Watkins.

Airman Wivell has a brother also serving in the U.S. Air Force who is stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, completing his basic training.

GERALD P. FITZGERALD

Funeral services for Gerald P. Fitzgerald, 40, Thurmont, who died unexpectedly Friday morning after being rushed to the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, were held Monday at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, Thurmont, with the Rev. Edward Echle officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

He was the husband of Delane Martin Fitzgerald, Thurmont, and was born in Philadelphia, the son of Naomi Powell Fitzgerald and the late Thomas A. Fitzgerald.

He served in the U. S. Marine Corps in World War II and was discharged in 1948 as a Captain.

Surviving in addition to his wife and mother are five children, Susan Lee, Kathy Ann, Michael Allen, Brian Casey and Sean Kelly, all at home; and four brothers, Edward A. and Donald S. Fitzgerald, both of Thurmont; Joseph Fitzgerald, Taneytown, and Thomas Fitzgerald, Rockville.

Pallbearers were Dennis Fitzgerald, Eddie Fitzgerald, Frank Martin, Robert Schildt, Ralph Baltzell, and Ray Dominique.

VFW To Mail Servicemen Gifts

Parents and friends of servicemen now serving in Vietnam who would like the local Veterans of Foreign Wars to send Christmas packages to them, are asked to furnish the names and addresses of these men to the VFW.

Names and addresses can be made directly to the VFW or to Michael Boyle, at Boyle's Store. It is extremely important that these names be received in the very near future.

Town Hires Two Officers; Study Water Ban

Emmitsburg's police dilemma was resolved, at least temporarily Monday night when Mayor Robert A. Seidel appointed two officers to replace the Trout brothers who resigned from the force a month ago.

The appointment was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Burgess and Commissioners held in the Town Office Monday evening with Chairman of the Board Clarence P. Wachter presiding.

The police appointments met with the approval of the Council, it is understood. Hired were Milton Grimes and Richard Capehart. Grimes was named as a special officer, will work daylight and among his duties will be to check parking meters and guard school crossings. Capehart, also a temporary special officer, will take over the night shift.

Present at the meeting was Game Warden Ray Toms who spoke on the no fishing ban at Rainbow Lake and also explained the new Maryland no trash burning law. Present also at the session was John Bowers who aired a grievance before the Board. Bowers stated that he broke his lawn mower while working on the Mrs. Carson Frailay property in West End and felt the Town should have it repaired. The Mayor suggested Mr. Bowers send Mrs. Frailay a bill for the mower repair as the work was being done on private property.

Mr. Charles E. Smith who is erecting several houses along the Mountain Road, also appeared before the Council to discuss a water line installation to that section. Council approved a $100 donation to the Senior Citizens Center, after a request had been made. The Vigilant Hose Co. asked permission to hook up an electric wire for a siren and the request will be granted contingent on approval by the Potomac Edison Co. Mayor Seidel read the monthly police and financial reports which were approved by the Council.

County Home Rule was discussed by the Council and it was finally decided to vote against the rule. At the same time it was decided to seek more information concerning the proposed rule.

Trick and Treat Night will be restricted to a single evening this year and the date was set for October 31.

Council lengthily discussed the present drought and the water reserve and it was decided that if sufficient rainfall does not occur within the next two weeks, it will strictly enforce the present water ban.

Library Board Meeting Held

The regular monthly meeting of the Emmitsburg Public Library Board of Trustees was held on Tuesday, Sept. 24 at the library. Those attending were: Robert Holmes, chairman, Bernard Kaliss, treasurer, Mrs. George Morningstar, secretary, Mrs. William Slemmer, corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Chatlos, Mr. John White, Mrs. William Carr and the librarian, Mrs. John Warthen. Mrs. Hazel Caldwell and Miss Ruth Shuff were unable to attend.

Reports were given by the treasurer and the secretary. Mrs. Warthen gave the library circulation figure for the summer months. There were many items of business to be discussed and approved. Among them, is the decision to build a new dictionary stand with pull out shelves to hold the atlases. Also a new record case with drawers to house the new and interesting collection of long playing records. Also discussed was the removal of a partition which when removed will allow more shelves to be built. The library is badly in need of lavatory facilities and plans for it as soon as possible.

The story hour was conducted by Mrs. Ronald Fearer this past week. The library will be closed this Saturday, Columbus Day.

The library is now the proud owner of the new McCall's Decorating Book. Beautifully illustrated and complete in all phases of decorating, it also includes an encyclopedia of antique furniture.

The library is open 24 hours a week to serve you — daily from 2:30-5:00—Evenings 7-9, and Saturday's 9-12.

Valley Weekend Scheduled Oct. 12-13

Parents of seniors and freshmen at St. Joseph College will be guests of honor at the annual Valley Home weekend to be held on campus October 12 and 13. The program, which signifies both a beginning for the class of '72 and a farewell for the class of '69, will include the academic investiture of the freshmen, the President's reception, a Father-Daughter dance, and a tribute to the parents by a member of the senior class.

Activities will begin at 11 o'clock Saturday morning with the service in investiture in De Paul Auditorium, when Sister Margaret Hughes, academic dean, will explain the significance of academic investiture. Two members of the senior class, Wanda Robek and Patricia Fitzgibbons, will assist the President in the investiture ceremony.

The afternoon's program will include guided tours of the Mother Seton Shrines and the President's reception at 3 o'clock in the Student Center. Sister Jerome Nossell is in charge of arrangements for the tours. The committee of juniors presiding at the tea table for the President's reception is headed by Clara Costello, who will be assisted by Charlene Nelson, Diane Dion, Ginny Hammond, Letitia Morgan and Lois Schermeta.

A Father-Daughter dance in the Student Center Saturday evening will complete the day's schedule. Sister Gertrude Matthews, dean of students, is chairman of this activity.

Sunday's program opens with Mass at 10:15 o'clock in the Provincial House Chapel with the celebrant the Rev. John E. Hurley, C.M., college chaplain. At the traditional brunch on Sunday, Marilyn Billa, '69, will represent the senior class in paying tribute to the parents. Her father, Edward J. Billa, of North Andover, Mass., will make the formal response for the parents. Toastmistress for the brunch will be Sister Margaret Mary Considine, college librarian.

The final event of the weekend will be a powderpuff football game scheduled for the ball field near Kelley Hall.

Substitute Professor At Mount

Dr. Albert Bachman, a distinguished educator from nearby Gettysburg, Pa., has joined the Mount Saint Mary's College faculty to fill in for Robert J. M. Henke, assistant professor in the Department of Languages and Linguistics who is recovering from a recent heart attack.

Dr. Bachman, who holds two Ph.D. degrees, one in history from the University of Zurich and the other in the Romance language from Columbia University, will teach the French language at the Mount.

Living with his wife at Gettysburg, Dr. Bachman most recently has been traveling in Europe. From 1931 to 1963, he was head of the Department of Romance Language at Gettysburg College. From 1963 to 1967 he headed the French department at Heidelberg College in Tiffin, Ohio.

Dr. Bachman, who installed a language laboratory when he was at Gettysburg College, comes to Mount Saint Mary's at a time when the Mount is about to begin operation of a modern new language lab which was installed during the summer.

After earning his Ph.D. in history in Switzerland in 1919, Dr. Bachman made a teaching tour of the world until 1924, working in schools and universities in France, India, Japan, China, and the United States. From 1924 to 1931 he taught at the State University of Arizona. At the same time, he continued graduate work during summers at the University of Mexico and Columbia University. He received a second Ph.D. degree, this one in the Romance language, in 1934.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Future Of Vending Machines
 WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., October 10—Over the past couple of decades the automatic vending machine has developed into a robot controlling an impressive segment of big business. Just how great its significance was revealed at a recent convention in Philadelphia of the National Automatic Merchandising Association. The occasion drew approximately 9,000 delegates representing better than 6,000 vending service firms throughout the nation.

Uptrend Still Strong
 To those who may have assumed that the market for vending machines and the expansion of their use had reached the "glut" stage, figures from within the industry will come as a surprise. Total take in this field during 1967 reached a spectacular high of $4.5 billion. And the projection for the current year promises sales volume almost 9% higher, hoisting the dollar turnover for automatic merchandising devices to a new record of $4.9 billion.

Convention representatives of this thriving industry were especially optimistic about the future. About one-third of the concerns anticipate that within five years their sales volume will surpass present rates by 50%, a particularly rosy forecast in view of the wide selling base already established. Even more arresting, however, is the fact that one out of every five companies represented look for a sales advance of 100% during that span. Pessimists were almost nonexistent at the meeting.

Focal Product Areas
 Most of the business done by vending machines is concentrated in such lines as cigarettes, sandwiches, ice cream, milk, candy, chewing gum, soft drinks, and nuts. While discussion on the subject is still somewhat tentative, many insiders look for constant additions to the list of products machine-vendable. Planners for some department stores and discount houses, faced with steadily rising expenses, aim to test out the possibilities of machine-vending smaller items, clothing, kitchenware, appliances, etc.

For the present, though, surveys show that the quickest changes for the industry are likely to be involved with articles of food and methods of distributing them most efficiently. As the automatic-merchandise operators have become larger, they have tended to run their own food kitchen rather than to buy from outside sources. This tendency will persist and become more prevalent, according to the surveys. In fact, close to one-half of the firms within the Association are currently turning out their food in their own commissaries, with still others expressing interest in this procedure.

Machines Vs. No Machines
 One of the most striking revelations within the vending industry is the increasing reversion to non-machine techniques of selling and servicing. High on the list for development are more widespread regulation cafeterias and lunch counters. It should be noted, in fact, that some 35% of the vending-machine firms are already selling food by other than automatic-machine methods. Key emphasis for the future is "service" by whatever means. On the horizon, therefore, loom greatly extended tactics in truck catering and the letting out of concessions.

To save money, more and more of the smaller units are turning to the purchase of their convenience foods from concerns running their own output kitchens. Though the larger establishments are still somewhat divided, some purchasing their requirements and some running their own centralized commissaries, the trend is strongly in the latter direction.

Because of rising labor costs and other expense factors, the move toward consolidation of companies has gained speed. And this tendency will become stronger. Some executives in the field point to the inefficiency of workers as one of the worst drawbacks for the industry. Where profits are lagging, inept or indifferent personnel is often cited as the most telling cause. Hence, upgrading of hiring standards may well be a prime issue for the business in the years ahead.

Taney Lions Observe Charter Night

The Taneytown Lions Club held its 22nd Charter Night at Frock's

Sunnybrook Farm recently, with 150 people in attendance, including visitors from neighboring clubs. Several Taneytown members hosted prospective new members and their wives. A fine meal of roast beef and fried shrimp was served.

The speaker of the evening was Mr. A. S. Yowalski, director of training and safety for Gray Lines sightseeing tours in Washington, D. C., speaking on "The Why and What That Causes Accidents." He elaborated on how everyone tries to blame the other person for accidents—adults blame youth and vice versa. After close examination everyone felt that he personally was responsible for the accidents that were being the main cause for so many deaths in this country. He elaborated on how 1½ ton of steel powered with a 325 horse-power engine and not enough brain-power behind the wheel can be a devastating force. Daydreaming and sightseeing while driving are high on the list of causes of accidents. Improper check up on vehicles, especially brakes, steering and lights are also the cause of many accidents.

The program was presided over by Taneytown President, Herbert Bowers. The Toastmaster was Harry Filler of Walkersville.

After the formal program dancing to the orchestra of Gene Frock's Band was enjoyed until 1 a.m.

The Taneytown Lions Club was chartered on September 9, 1947. The Charter members present were honored. Each lady was presented a gift from the Lions Club.

While the U. S. trucking industry generally is made up of small gross operating revenues of $1 million or more, there are nearly 1,300 motor carrier firms with annual revenues of $1 million or more.

Forgiving And Forgetting

The tragic second murdering of Czechoslovakia by Soviet Communism will be forgiven and forgotten within two years—if the incredible histories of U. S. diplomacy and U. S. public opinion run true to form. The American government and the American people will again have encouraged an evil force to expand and intensify its war to enslave mankind. We are caught up in that war now. We are shocked momentarily at the nature of the aggressor, by his latest deeds in Czechoslovakia; but before long we shall be inviting him in to dinner. At least, this is how we have treated Soviet Communism for 35 years.

We need to look at our past behavior.

When the ruthless Communists, with U. S. aid, swept down across China and seized that shattered nation in September 1949, there followed one of history's bloodiest genocides—the wanton slaying of an estimated 30,000,000 human beings whose only crime was that they held in their minds an understanding of the priceless value of freedom, and in their souls an unconquerable faith. These people, unlike the largely ignorant peasantry, represented to the Communists a threat to their total control of 600,000,000 Chinese, threat to their plans to conquer the world. So they were systematically exterminated.

Kennedy: "Disaster In China"

In the midst of the China carnage, Congressman John F. Kennedy (later to become our 35th President) said: "We have learned of the disasters befalling China and the United States. Our policy in China has reaped the whirlwind. The continued insistence that aid would not be forthcoming unless a coalition government with the Communists was formed, was a crippling blow to the national government. So concerned were our diplomats and their advisers, the Lattimores and the Fairbanks, with the imperfections of the diplomatic system in China after 20 years of war, and the tales of corruption in high places, that they lost sight of our tremendous stake in a non-Communist China. . . . What our young men had saved (with their lives) our diplomats and our President have frittered away."

These are strong words. They seem strange, in the atmosphere of 1968 America, coming from a Kennedy. They are not strange when we recall the genocide in China and assess the reality today of a Red China armed with H-bombs.

But JFK Forgot

Significantly and tragically, President Kennedy was later to make deals with Soviet Communists as costly, in terms of national security and moral stature, as the loss of China and its 30,000,000 murdered citizens. And his brother, the late Robert F. Kennedy, was to throw his great influence behind a policy requiring a deal with Soviet Communism's No. 1 genocider, Ho Chi Minh, in Southeast Asia, a deal promising a fate for South Vietnam, some protesting voices cried, such as President Kennedy so passionately abhorred for China.

Because the bloody-handed Soviet invaders of Czechoslovakia-1968 already are being refurbished again to look like Good rather than Evil, one further bit of older history must be cited—lest we forget today (instead of tomorrow) the unchanging nature of the Godless brutes, our short memory of its deeds, and the fate of its human prey. With the horrible deeds of Josef Stalin staining world history — an estimated 30,000,000 put to death and 28,000,000 committed to torture and starvation in slave labor camps—the United States, incredibly, recognized Soviet Russia as worthy of membership in the world family of decent nations!

"Gifts" For The Tyrant

President Roosevelt had forgiven and forgotten the first of the modern-day genocides. Until his death, he continued a policy of wooing Stalin with U. S. "gifts" indispensable to the swift expansion of World Communism.

In 1945, at Yalta, Roosevelt made costly concessions to Stalin and then privately told a journalist friend: "I have just a hunch that Stalin doesn't want anything but security for his country, and I think that if I give him everything I possibly can and ask for nothing from him in return, he won't try to annex anything and will work for a world democracy and peace." What a fateful blunder in judgement that proved to be! And how terribly costly to the free world. Mr. Roosevelt had forgiven the deeds and forgotten the nature of the Communist scheme to conquer the world. And so had the majority of our citizenry. Our foreign policy was approved at the polls. The Communists proceeded—to spread their tyranny over nearly half of the world's population.

Exploding bolts, made of 18 percent nickel maraging steel, will couple the "ascent" and "descent" stages of the Lunar Excursion Module in which U. S. astronauts will descend to the surface of the moon from their orbiting spaceship.

WHEREAS, at its regular session of 1968, the General Assembly enacted Chapter 417 proposing an amendment to the State Constitution; and

WHEREAS, it is the duty of the Governor, under Section 1 of Article XIV of the Constitution, to order the publication of the bills proposing said amendments in advance of the General Election of November 5th, 1968; and

The General Assembly may provide that such property, except a building occupied as a dwelling, may be taken immediately upon payment therefor by the condemning authority to the owner or owners thereof or into the Court to the use of the person or persons entitled thereto, such amount as the condemning authority shall estimate to be the fair value of said property, provided such legislation requires that the amount of such compensation be not less than the appraised value of the property being taken as estimated by at least one qualified appraiser, whose qualifications have been accepted by a Court of Record of this State, and also requires the payment of any further sum that may subsequently be awarded by a jury. The section, if adopted by the voters in the year 1968, at the time it becomes effective, is void and of no further effect if the voters of the State prior thereto have adopted a revision of the Constitution of Maryland proposed by a Constitutional Convention.

Skin Cream Ages
Three-Year-Old

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — Why should a normally developing three-year-old girl suddenly exhibit such signs of puberty as developing breasts and vaginal bleeding?

The answer, according to Drs. Bruce F. Bower and Angelita Ramos, of Hartford, Conn., reporting at a recent medical meeting here, was neither tumor nor other serious illness. It was, rather, grandmother's skin cream.

Under persistent questioning, it was discovered that on visits to her grandmother's home one of her favorite games was playing 'lady.' This involved smearing on her face, and perhaps even eating, a discarded skin cream which contained estrogen. Estrogen is the female hormone that, among other things, causes breast enlargement at puberty, as well as the development of other secondary sex characteristics.

Once the cream was banished from the child's life, she returned to normal and all signs of preocious puberty vanished.

Lack Of Communication Causes Family Breakdown
CHICAGO, Ill. — Most parents simply don't communicate with each other and with their children

"The constant complaint I hear in my office," the obstetrician-gynecologist told Women's Medical News Service, "is that nobody in the home listens to anybody else. Husbands have trouble talking about sex to their wives, they both have trouble talking to their children on this subject. And often the parents are unwilling to spend the time to sit down with their children and talk to them."

Parents are not only poor teachers, according to the physician, they are also uninformed about sexual matters. He said that when he has addressed groups of parents with their children, many of the mothers came to him afterward and said they got as little as much from the lecture as their children.

Dr. Collins believes that sex education should begin in the kindergarten and should be an integral part of every child's education right through high school. Contraception—including the various methods such as the oral contraceptive—should be discussed when the subject comes up naturally, as should all other aspects of human sexuality.

Antlerless Deer Season Set
After a public hearing in which no opposition was expressed, Maryland's Game and Inland Fish Commission adopted its antlerless deer regulations, marked by a closed antlerless deer season in five Western Counties.

The formal action, taken after the public hearing in the State Office Building Assembly Room, Annapolis, September 28, exactly followed proposals announced earlier by the Commission. Garrett, Allegany, Washington, Frederick, and Carroll are the counties that will not participate in the antlerless season this year. Last year an antlerless season was held throughout the State with hunters allowed two days of hunting.

The remaining 18 Counties will have a one-day antlerless season and it will be held on Saturday, December 21.

The Commission also decided that in four Eastern Shore Counties, Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset and Worcester, the opening day of the regular firearms season, November 30, will be restricted to antlered deer only. For the remainder of the firearms season, December 2 through December 7, it will be hunter's choice in these four counties. One deer only, of either sex may be taken.

Three important changes were made in the fishing regulations. For the first time in many years, there will be no opening day of trout season.

Tradition went by the boards as the Commission decided to open the trout season year round and at the same time removed all limits on the size of trout that may be creel. In previous seasons, the trout season had been closed from March 15 until April 14 for stocking, and the State observed the traditional opening day on April 15 when anglers flocked to the chilly streams and observed the rites so dear to their hearts—happy despite tangled lines and elbow-to-elbow fishing.

The closed season on walleyes also was eliminated and Maryland now has no closed season on any fresh water fish.

The size limit on striped bass in waters governed by the Commission was reduced from 14 to 12 inches in order to conform to regulations of the Department of Chesapeake Bay Affairs which has a limit of 12 inches on striped bass caught in tidal waters.

Little Antietam Creek (north) from Maryland Rt. 64 to Maryland Rt. 62, Chewsville and Leitersburg Road, was restored to the list of recognized trout streams and will be stocked in accordance with established policy.

A proposal that Mill Run Watershed be eliminated and Fifteen Mile Creek, from the Pennsylvania Line to U. S. Rt. 40, be added to the list of trout streams was left in status quo. A further study will be made of these two streams.

The Commission set a special scaup season within the framework of the Federal waterfowl regulations. This season will be November 8 through November 23, but hunting for the ducks will be confined to the area designated as the sea duck shooting zone.

The daily bag limit was set as five scaup, with the possession limit 10.

Game birds and animals wounded and reduced to possession by a hunter in Maryland must immediately be killed and added to the bag limit, under another regulation adopted by the Commission. The regulation followed a Federal rule on waterfowl but was extended by the Commission to include all Maryland game birds and animals.

The Commission also adopted a regulation providing for the licensing of commercial hunting guides. The license fee was set at $10 annually. Applicants for the license must take a "Guide's Oath" that they will uphold and abide by all Federal and State game laws and will endeavor to prevent any party using the guide's services from violating the game laws. He also must promise to report any such violations in detail.

The Commission will set further requirements such as age limits and a test of qualifications at an early date.

Three proposals relating to the trapping of beaver which had been presented to the Commission by the Maryland Fur Trappers Association were tabled. The first would have extended the trapping of beaver to include Frederick and Montgomery Counties on the Potomac River only; another would have prevented the setting of any trap larger than a No. 2 within a half mile of any beaver house, except during the open beaver trapping season, and the third would have made illegal the setting of any trap larger than the Victor 330 Conibear on dry land.

Members of the Commission pointed out that a biological report on beaver is due early in 1969 and said it would take another look at regulations pertaining to trapping them after the report is received.

A regulation was passed that outlawed the setting of any standard, flat-type trap with a maximum jaw spread exceeding 7 3/4 inches on dry land.

Law Officers Assn. Seeks Law Change

Noting that assaulting a law enforcement officer while acting in his official capacity is only a misdemeanor in all Maryland except Baltimore City and Allegany County, the Maryland Law Enforcement Officers adopted a resolution requesting that legislation be passed to make the offense a felony in all the other counties.

The action was taken at the quarterly meeting at the National Guard Armory in Glen Burnie. Francis X. Jahn, president of the organization, said that along with the rise in crime rate and civil unrest had come increasing disrespect for and physical assault upon law enforcement officers. They consider the situation sufficiently grave to warrant reclassification of the offense to the more serious category.

Copies of the resolution are being sent to the Governor, President of the Senate, Speaker of the House and members of the Congressional Delegation of Maryland.

A slate of officers, headed by William F. Reynolds, of the Baltimore and Ohio Police Department, was nominated and will be voted upon at the next meeting in December.

Twenty-four new members were voted into the organization.

Glenn Beall faces the issue:

"Many of our cities have been torn apart by tension and violence, by rising crime rates and by disregard for law and order. While we must recognize and meet the needs of our people, this must be done solely within the framework of democracy and the laws upon which it is based."

EHS Liners
Drop First Game

The Middletown High School soccer team won the battle of the unbeaten with a 4-1 victory over Emmitsburg Monday here.

The victory over previously unbeaten Emmitsburg brought the Knights record to 3-0 in county play while the Emmitsburg Liners are now 2-1. Middletown is the defending county champion.

The Emmitsburg squad dominated the entire first period and drove in for the opening score of the game on a 10 yard kick from wing Calvin Chatlos.

Late in the second period the Knights scored on a penalty kick by inside right Bob Sheffler which tied the game 1-1. Forty-five seconds later Sheffler stunned the Liners defense as he hit the net once again to give the Middletown team the lead at the half, 2-1.

The Liners from the second period on seemed to be out of the game as the Knights managed to control the game.

Emmitsburg played Liganore last night under the lights.

Brauer To Represent Cooperative

Charles E. Brauer of Rocky Ridge, will represent Southern States Cooperative members in the Emmitsburg area at the cooperative's district election meeting to be held Oct. 17 at the Lee-Jackson Restaurant in Winchester, Va.

The session will elect a member of the cooperative to serve on its Board of Directors for the next three years. The member elected will be confirmed at the cooperative's 45th annual Stockholders Meeting in Richmond, Va., on November 14-15. The group will also select a nominating committee for the 1971 election meeting.

Thurmont Water Supply Discussed

Mayor C. Ray Weddle and the Thurmont Commissioners heard a request at last week's town meeting by local businessmen for further water facilities in the business district to meet insurance underwriter's requirements.

John Amory of Moore Business Forms Inc. and Mr. Lloyd Hoke of Hoke Furniture Co. Inc., said they are finding it hard to meet insurance requirements due to difficulty in maintaining the insurance company water supply standards.

They said that they spoke for the other two industries in town, Claire Frock Co. Inc., and the Cannon Shoe Co.

Mayor Weddle said their request would be considered.

Opposes Nixon's Political Tactics

Editor, Emmitsburg Chronicle:

Nixon says that Wallace and Humphrey are in active "collusion" to deprive him of a majority of electoral votes, after which they will combine their own totals and deprive him of the presidency.

Even though Wallace maintains there is not a "dimes worth of difference" between the major candidates; from the other side of his mouth he suggests that he may be willing to bequeath his electoral votes to one of them in exchange for "concessions."

I can only say to Mr. Wallace, that if he intends to donate or deal off his votes to anyone, let him say so now, before the election. Any other special arrangement will not set well with the country and the voters who will have supported him.

Let Mr. Wallace also be aware of the injunctive power of a Supreme Court that is not yet reduced to an instrumentality of his will.

Patrick F. X. McGucken, J.D.

College Poll Favors Nixon

The Nixon-Agnew ticket came out on top in a presidential preference poll conducted on campus by the Young Democratic Club at Mt. St. Mary's College.

The students who were polled listed, by an overwhelming majority, Vietnam as the main campaign issue.

Official results showed 36% for Nixon-Agnew, 20% for Humphrey-Muskie, 16% for George Wallace and 2% for the socialist ticket of Halstead-Boutelle.

There was a substantial write-in movement (8%) for Eugene McCarthy.

The remaining 18% of those polled indicated support for others who are not on the ballot in this election year.

One per cent wrote in the name of a tongue-in-cheek candidate for the presidency, Pat Paulsen, of TV fame.

Mt. St. Mary's students voted as follows regarding what they feel are primary campaign issues: Vietnam, 75%; law and order, 20%; expansion of federal social legislation, 3%; and military buildup abroad, excluding Vietnam 2%.

Houser Services Held

Funeral services were held from the Wilson Funeral Home, Emmitsburg on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 3, for Dr. Jacob Winfield Houser, 77, of W. Main St., Emmitsburg, who died on Monday.

The Rev. W. Ronald Fearer officiated and burial was made in the Lincoln Cemetery, Chambersburg.

The pallbearers, all members of the Tyrian Lodge 205, Masonic Order of Emmitsburg, were Herbert W. Rohrbaugh, Ralph D. Grushon, Charles L. Long, Aaron W. Adams, Sterling R. Adams and Reginald W. Zepp.

Members of the Francis X. Elder Post 121, American Legion, Emmitsburg, who participated in the honor guard were Charles B. Harner, William D. Rodgers, Carroll Topper, Clarence Shorb, T. Eugene Rodgers, Edgar Wastler, Earl Topper and Curtis Topper.

Mount Soccermen Drop Contest

The Mt. St. Mary's soccermen were handed their first Mason-Dixon Conference defeat when they were overwhelmed 4-1 by Baltimore University on the victor's field Saturday afternoon.

The defeat put the Mount record at 2-1 in league play.

Baltimore played extremely fine ball, gaining a total of 52 shots at the goal.

Mountaineer Kevin Wetmore put in a good performance with 22 saves.

Dave Kropfelder also stood out for the Mount at the center halfback slot.

Tony Pasciakos scored the only Mount goal at 7:28 of the first period.

State-Wide Exams Scheduled

The Maryland State Scholarship Board has authorized plans for conducting the State-wide competitive examination for the three State Scholarship Programs.

The examination will be held on Saturday, November 23, 1968 at the West Frederick Junior High School cafeteria beginning at 8:30 a.m.

A student who takes this competitive examination may qualify himself as an eligible candidate for a General State Tuition, a Teacher Education, or a Senatorial scholarship.

A student who has not previously attended a school of college rank may compete for any one or all three of these State scholarships.

Students already attending college may compete only for a Teacher Education and/or a Senatorial scholarship.

Registration for the examination will be open through October 11 at all public and non-public high schools in Frederick County, and at all colleges eligible to participate in one of the scholarship programs.

Further information may be obtained from the counselor in each Frederick County high school.

New Safety Device To Be Required

After January 1, your new car is going to have a serial number uniquely its own—and that is immediately visible—under federal safety provisions, the AAA Automobile Club of Maryland said this week.

"Vehicle Identification Number—Passenger Cars" is a federal standard designed to reduce the incidence of traffic accidents which result from the unauthorized use of a car, said the Club's executive vice president, Harry E. Uhler.

The combination of Arabic numerals and Roman letters which will be used to identify each vehicle made in the U. S. will be determined by the auto manufacturers, Mr. Uhler said, and will be sunk into or embossed on some part of the passenger compartment that is designed not to be removed—except for repair—or will appear on a separate plate that is permanently affixed to the interior of the compartment.

In either case the number will be visible to a viewer from outside the automobile.

Mr. Uhler explained the government's reasoning for the new requirement, issued July 3, as resulting from evidence showing that cars operated by unauthorized persons are far more likely to cause unreasonable risk of accidents, personal injuries and deaths than those which are driven by their owners.

The Federal Highway Administration in Washington, D. C., told the AAA official that the incidence of theft, and the risk of accidents attributable to theft, is increasing. A recent study of the U. S. Justice Department shows that an estimated 94,000 stolen cars were involved in accidents in 1966, and more than 18,000 of these accidents resulted to injury to one or more persons.

The same study predicted that automobile thefts in 1967 would total about 650,000, with about 100,000 of them expected to become involved in accidents.

The Highway Administration compared the figures with statistics for cars which are not stolen, and found the approximate accident rate for stolen cars would be some 200 times the rate for other cars.

Thus a reduction in the incidence of auto theft should contribute significantly to traffic safety.

It is thought that a reduction in theft would not only reduce the number of injuries and deaths among those who steal cars, but also would protect the many innocent members of the public who are killed and often injured by stolen cars each year, Mr. Uhler said.

The Highway Administration is attacking the problem of auto theft through two safety regulations, One, "Theft Protection—Passenger Cars" prescribes automobile equipment which helps to complicate attempted thefts, such as an audible warning device which indicates an ignition key has been left in parked vehicles.

The second and newest is the standard pertaining to identification numbers. The government feels that the serial numbers pose a "psychological deterrent" to automobile theft, since the number will be affixed to all cars in a uniform location, readable from outside the car.

The numbers are expected to enable law enforcement agencies to find stolen cars and apprehend car thieves with much greater ease than is now possible, Mr. Uhler said.

The week of October 6 through 12 is National 4-H Club Week. The local club held its monthly meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Cub Scout Center.

The Emmitsburg Eager Beaver Club was organized eight months ago and presently has 35 members. The group meets once a month for the club meeting and holds various project meetings once a month.

4-H'ers work on projects of their choice. If there is a large number of 4-H'ers interested in a project, a project leader helps the group. The four most popular projects have been Sewing, Cooking, Gardening, and Handyman.

The respective project leaders are Mrs. Mary Wivell, Mrs. Joyce Bruchey, Mr. Paul Wivell and Mr. George Bruchey, Jr.

In its eight months of existence, the club has participated in community events. In observance of Slow-Moving Vehicle Campaign, the 4-H'ers put a display in the Emmitsburg Pharmacy which won second prize. During the summer, a float was entered in the Rocky Ridge Parade which won first prize. Six of the 4-H'ers participated in the Emmitsburg-Thurmont Community Show.

The officers of the local club are: Harold Engelstatter, president; Steve Sprankle, vice president; Eugene Brown, secretary; Perry Wivell, treasurer; and Bruce Hollinger, recreation leader.
