PAPER COLLECTION

Boy Scouts Will Gather Paper Saturday

Boy Scouts of three patrols of Troop 348, Taneytown, will again solicit your contributions of rags, iron and paper in a townwide collection which will be made tomorrow, Saturday, March 25th, assisted by Petry's truck from Westminster. Funds thus obtained will promote activities of the patrols involved and also towards sending three representatives from the Troop to the National Jamboree at Valley Forge, June 30-July 6th.

Leaders of the groups and their assistants are: Flying Eagle Patrol, Francis McNair and John Perry; Fox Patrol, Philip Lawyer and Frederick Markle; Raccoon Patrol, Robert Bowers and Larry Eckard.

Meeting activities will include instruction practice and contests in the International Morse code for the next several weeks, with emphasis on the sound system by means of a buzzer. The opening contest among patrols was won by the Raccoons. This event anticipates the district camporee at Deep Run Scouting Reservation in May, where water boiling, flycasting, direction finding, first aid, nature study, and a relay will test the mettle of Carroll District Troops.

These events will provide meeting themes between now and the May 20 camporee date it was decided at a Green-Bar Council leaders' session held last Sunday afternoon and evening at Natural Dam, where ten troop leaders were guests of the Scoutmaster, Wilbur O. Thomas. The council was presided over by Andrew Alexander, senior patrol leader and president of the council and the offices of secretary and treasurer were conferred upon Philip Lawyer and Assistant Scoutmaster, Stanley F. Frook, respectively, with Fern Bachman assuming the post of vice-president.

Other items of business were consideration of a petition by two members to form a new patrol within the troop, the outline of a weekly program for the summer months, and the method of selecting the three Scouts who will represent Troop 348 in July at the Valley Forge jamboree. Report of a cash contribution to this end from the Taneytown Volunteer Fire Company was made, the Troop Committee being at work on other prospects for help in this direction. The Troop itself has already registered for three places from its own funds. For the same reason, paper collection will be held more frequently, and the wonderfully fine cooperation of Taneytown people is earnestly asked that the expense may be the more easily met. Those who go will never forget the experience of being encamped with 40,000 boys from all over the United States.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES AT E. U. B. CHURCH

The Taneytown E. U. B. Church will hold the next two weeks each night their annual Evangelistic Services. The services will be at 7:30 P. M. On Sunday evening the pastor, the Rev. A. W. Garvin, will be the messenger with the Youth Choir as the leaders in the musical side of all the services. The Flickinger quartet, consisting of Doris, Jean, Phyllis and Janet, will furnish special vocal numbers. Monday night the pastor will again preach.

Tuesday night, the Rev. Eugene Raby, of the Myersville, Md., E. U. B. Church, will be the speaker. There will be vocal numbers by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wm. Michaels, of Pleasant Valley, Wednesday night, the Rev. Bernie Bowers of the Bethel Church of the Brethren as the messenger. Thursday night, Rev. Harold March, of Gettysburg E. U. B. Church will bring the message. Friday night, the Rev. Cronise Barr, of the Carrollton Church of God, is the messenger and he will furnish several trombone solos. Saturday night the pastor is the speaker.

EMERGENCY BLOOD DONOR SERVICE

You have been previously advised that blood typing of all interested persons will be done between the hours of 6 and 9 P. M. on April 3, in the Taneytown Firemen's Hall. Please remember that this is a worthwhile community project conducted through the coordinated efforts of your doctors and the four leading civic groups, namely, The Fire Co., The American Legion, the Kiwanians and the Lions.

The established age limit is from 20 to 20 years inclusive. Men are preferred and will be taken down to 18 years of age provided the individual is in exceptionally good health. Women will be taken if they are in excellent health.

Don't forget the date. The committee hopes to register 200 persons. Please give this program your full cooperation.

CORRECTION

The Lions Club news published in last week "Record" mentioned the Health and Welfare Committee of the Lions Club as being sponsors of the blood typing program that will take place in the Firemen's Building, April 3, from 6 to 9 p. m. This should have read: The blood typing program is being sponsored jointly by The American Legion, the Fire Company, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs and it is through the medium of the Lions Club's Health and Welfare Committee that it is being promoted as far as the Lions Club is concerned.

HEALTH OFFICER ADDRESSES CLUB

Maryland Day Will Be Observed by Kiwanians

The recently appointed deputy state health officer for Carroll County spoke on the topic of "Public Health Today and Tomorrow" at the regular meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club held last Wednesday evening at Taney Inn.

President Lewis Crumpacker presided and after the usual festivities Wallace Reindollar, chairman of the Music Committee, led the group in singing familiar songs. The program for the evening was in charge of the Public Relations Committee, Kiwanian Al Baldwin, chairman.

Dr. Cameron, who was born in Canada and migrated to this county after graduating from medical school, has had wide experience in the field of public health. He was health officer of Washington County, Md. for a period of 10 years and saw 4 years service with the U. S. Army during World War II. Since that time until his recent appointment to his new position as health officer for Carroll County, he saw service with the State Health Department working out of Baltimore City.

Public Health, as Dr. Cameron sees it, dates back to antiquity, approximately 5,000 years ago. He traced the progress of this movement through the early Biblical days, during the time of Moses, through the early period of the Christian era, on into the heyday of the Roman Empire, and carried on to the period of the Renaissance during which period the discovery of America occurred. It is felt, said Dr. Cameron, that in the past 50 years more progress has been made in the field of public health than in any period in the world's history. Three steps in the development of the public health program has to do with that of sanitation, quarantine, and the era of the wonder drugs, such as sulpha drugs, penicillin, etc. In attempting to meet the needs of the county it is the plan of the local health office to expand the various services rendered and in so doing it will be necessary to secure larger quarters and enlist the services of more people. This work will be accomplished through three channels; first, education; second, service; third, research. In the matter of education it will be part of the responsibility of the county health office to promote sanitation which might be interpreted as a mode of life. This would necessitate the stimulation of cleanliness in the home, on the farm, and in the various places of business. It would also include the proper handling of food and food stuffs.

As a service means, there are at present 8 clinics now operating in the county. This number should be enlarged to 16 clinics in order to provide adequate coverage. Dr. Cameron voiced the opinion that Maryland offers a very unique service in that doctors can be secured through the assistance of health offices and welfare boards without charge and in this way there should be no excuse for anyone going without the care of a medical physician. He stated that at present the quarters were not adequate insofar as location and size is concerned. The 29 steps necessary to climb in order to reach the present health center was described by Dr. Cameron as "the 29 steps to health" and presents a problem in many instances.

The meeting to be held on March 29 will be in charge of the House and Recreation Committee with Kiwanian Wallace Reindollar in charge. An interesting program has been prepared and those who attend will and should derive much benefit from it. On 25th of March members of the local club are invited to attend the Maryland Day activities of the Westminster Kiwanis Club which will be held at Western Maryland College. Senator Mundt is to be the speaker on this occasion.

Along with other organizations in the community a blood typing program has been set for April 3. All residents of the Taneytown area are urged to cooperate in this important endeavor by having their blood typed on this occasion. The typing will be done in the Firemen's building.

VFW ELECTS OFFICERS

Reynolds Heads Post in 'Harney'

A large majority of the members of the Monocacy Valley Memorial Post No. 6918 attended a meeting on Friday, March 17 for the election of new post officers. The post was honored at this meeting by a visit from Mr. Roy Gamber, 7th District Commander and Mr. Ben Higgs, both of the V. F. W. Post in Westminster.

Mr. Gamber was very much pleased with the attendance at the meeting and also of the willingness in which the members accepted their nomination. Mr. Roy Overholtzer was the only declining nominee and that was because his present position would not permit his regular attendance at the meetings.

The election was as follows: Commander, Raymond Reynolds; Sr. Vice-Commander, Raymond Clabaugh; Jr. Vice-Commander, Elwood Strickhouser. Quartermaster Robert Reck. Chaplain, Elwood Koonz; 3-year Trustee, Fred Spangler; Post Advocate, Francis Haines; Post Surgeon, Francis Snider.

LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Dear Mrs. Reaver:
Thanks so much for the Carroll Record. We surely did enjoy reading it and seemed like old times again.

How are you and Mr. Reaver? I hope just fine.

It is grand out today and our peach trees are budding out. Our navel oranges are so nice, we just have a couple trees of them and Mr. Cholerton just eats and eats them—most of our oranges are juice oranges and not ripe yet—but navel are ripe in January and so large.

We are planting flower bulbs now "glads" and pulling weeds, as spring is here. I worked out in yard all morning, so there's plenty to do here—never an idle moment. It must be over 70° out.

Here is a Post Card of a place in Hollywood where a lady friend took me a couple weeks ago. My but it was delicious—you could eat all you wanted for your price ($1.70 each) and I could not eat supper or breakfast next day—so next time I won't eat before I start as she knows another place to take me—she's jolly and lots of fun.

Our club plays "Canasta" this Friday. Ever play it? Lots of fun—so I keep busy going places. Their monthly meeting was last Friday and a vocalist, violinist and pianist took part. Real nice and coffee and cake afterwards, we really do have nice times. It's the Garden Grove Women's Civic Club and a lovely building and they own it too. I was invited to join last May.

Well, April 4 we will be here in California 1 year. Time flies, and also now the Coles and McGorty's are gone from Taneytown too. I never hear from them—do you? I so often wonder now if Mr. Cole is working in Boston now and how their two babies are?

Yes, the Baldwins are busy in church work I see by paper too. They are very nice people and her father is a minister you know. I'm glad they all like the new minister there so well now too. I surely miss the church there as it was nice and nice people.

Hope the factory keeps busy. Mr. Cholerton keeps real busy and seems real happy and contented. Feels fine and so do I and nice weather now.

My dogs keep begging me to take them out, so I must stop now soon—and its nearing our supper time.

My sister keeps well—still plans to come out in May or June and her arm is fine, now. Hope she never falls again.

How's your nephew? Hope he's all right and that you see him. Do write and let us know how you both are. I hope fine. Our love to you.

MARY B. CHOLERTON.

(The Cholertons purchased several acres of land in California. They have 700 orange trees. They remodeled their home into a mansion and it is located near the business district.) Contributed.

Over 40,000 birds were raised in 4-H Club poultry projects in Maryland in 1949.

SWANNANOVA

The recent installments of this travelogue have attempted to describe some of the national religious centers which we visited in The Land of the Sky. It was surprising to find that so many were located there. Four out of the five which we visited were located in the Swannanoa Valley near Asheville. Three of these have already been mentioned, namely, The Southern Baptist Capitol at Ridgecrest, The Southern Presbyterian at Montreat, and the Southern Y. M. C. A. at Blue Ridge. Here is also located what might be called the southern capitol of the northern Presbyterian Church. This center is located at Swannanoa, 15 miles from Asheville.

The City of Asheville, the tourists capitol of the Land of the Sky, a widely known health resort, in topography, reminds the tourists of the big hub of a great wheel. The spokes are the long valleys that reach back in almost every direction toward the mountains forming the high rim of the wheel. One of these valleys is called Swannanoa. It extends back eastward toward the top of the Blue Ridge, the jumping off place to the Piedmont area below. This is a beautiful and historic valley rich in legend and lore. The first white settlers came to this area as the choicest place of all. Through the valley, leading to Asheville, flows the picturesque Swannanoa River. The crystal clear and lazy flowing water, reflecting the sky above, reminds one of a long mirror imbedded on the channel.

Overlooking this river valley, at a place called Swannanoa, is located the southern center of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., the main Presbyterian body in America with churches in every state of the union. The Southern Church called the Presbyterian Church U. S., is a minority body which withdrew during the Civil War. Efforts are now under way to bring about a reunion of the two. This is expected to be consummated in the next few years.

Here at Swannanoa the tourist will find one of the most unique projects in the whole Appalachian area. It is a nationally known vocational school called now the Warren Wilson College, and formerly known as the Asheville Farm School.

On our trip we received an invitation to visit this center. It came from the President, Dr. Arthur M. Bannerman. On our last day in the mountains we visited the place and were received with great hospitality. There were 90 students on the campus at the time. They were working to earn their expenses for the first semester.

CARPET BAGGERS AND PRESBYTERIANS

The beginning of this center goes back to the post Civil War period. Two groups of people from the north (to the mountaineer Maryland is North) moved into the mountains. One was the carpetbaggers. The other was the missionaries. To the mountaineer they both were the same—"foreigners". But the missionary remained to prove his worth. Foremost among the churches moving into the mountains was the Presbyterian. Numerous churches, Sunday Schools, Mission Stations, Social service centers, (Continued on fourth page.)

LEGION LIGHTS

The annual Easter Egg Hunt staged by the American Legion is slated for April 9. Plans are being made by the committee to have one of the best ever held by the post. Edmund Morrison is acting as chairman of this annual event and under pending arrangements will have everything in readiness for all the children of the community. Watch this paper next week for further and final plans.

Harmon T. Albaugh was named chairman of the 1950 Memorial Day observance and with the help of his committee is completing plans for this occasion. D. Robert Heistard, of Baltimore, has been received as the speaker for the day.

James D. Fiscus, president of the Drum and Bugle Corp has announced that regular rehearsals are being held every Tuesday at 7:00 P. M. and that all members are urged to attend in preparation for the coming season. Here are also openings for any one who is interested in becoming a part of the organization.

The Brotherhood approved a motion to cultivate a portion of land with the proceeds to be presented to Trinity Lutheran building fund.

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Snow has just fallen and the ground is covered with a thin coat of white adding a most picturesque scene to the vast country sides! How can anyone say they don't like snow?

Calling all school teachers! A young man was very dull in arithmetic when he was a youngster in fact the entire family quite concerned about it all. Now, that same little boy is head bookkeeper for a very big concern in the big city! My Son!

Thinking of school teachers, Your Observer visited an excellent one around our town who teaches the first grade. As I gently opened the door of the classroom about noon time—such quietness prevailed! Every precious little head was resting on his desk! Obedience in the atmosphere! Betcha, the 2nd grade teacher will feel she is lucky when she gets those pupils. It is a positive fact that a first grade teacher can do more good or harm than she realizes for all the following years. Your Observer did not regret being a teacher until I stood right there in that class room remembering then how all the oldsters mapped out a teaching profession for me in life which I cast aside. Take a tip from Your Observer, girls and boys for the oldsters see much more through their experienced eyes!

Many times I have been provoked with parents who rave about their off-spring having such a high I. Q. My daughter has always had a very high I. Q. ever since she was able to talk yet she is not a brilliant scholar in her school lessons especially mathematics. (I have always noticed an artistic person dislikes mathematics.) Give me a child any time who does not rate such a high I. Q. who is wonderful with their school work. As many teachers agree that they would rather have a child to be studious, bringing in their homework and many other necessary items. I know many a young man or young (Continued on Fourth Page)

SONG RECITAL IN WESTMINSTER

Homer Rodeheaver, nationally known singer and trombone player, who was formerly musical director and soloist with Evangelist Billy Sunday, will be in Westminster for a sacred song recital on Wednesday night, April 12, at 8 o'clock, at the High School auditorium. He will appear under the auspices of the Carroll County Christian Endeavor Union.

In recent years Rodeheaver became one of the artists of the National Broadcasting Company and has presented hundreds of radio concerts. He has been characterized as the man who has sung his way into the hearts of more than 70,000,000.

The evangelist musician graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University after his return from war service during the Spanish-American War. For five years he served as song leader for Dr. E. W. Biederwolf and later was a member and leader in the Billy Sunday organization. For the next twenty years he and Sunday campaigned for souls in every large city in the United States.

Plan now to hear "Rody". In order to have a reserve seat, write the general chairman, Miss Mabel R. Albert, 197 Pennsylvania Avenue, Westminster, or see Miss Mary E. Shriver, Taneytown, for patron tickets.

THAT BAY BRIDGE

This is another of my twice told tales, but it is important and I will continue to hammer on it until it becomes an accomplished fact. Baltimore and Maryland would be the gainer if the bridge were created. The abundant crops—strawberries, etc.—from that section would find their way to our markets and we would all be the better off on that account and the Shoremen would also profit because the haul would be much shorter than that to Wilmington and Philadelphia.

Baltimore merchants would also profit from this lucrative trade. Then there are the crabs—a source of wealth which could be increased by simply having the crabbers have two barrels in their boat—one for the female and one for the male crabs. The male crabs could be marketed and the female crabs bought by the state and taken down the bay and scattered. In two or three years we could again have crabs in abundance. Why don't we do it? Ask me another question that is not.

Then there are the terrapins. They were so plentiful in the early days that the laborers refused to work for masters unless they would pledge themselves not to feed the hands terrapin more than three times a week. Now we are told they fetch up to a hundred dollars a dozen in the New York market.

This would be another good source of income if it could be brought back to that of the good old days.

I do not know who is responsible for all these things, but I do know that what is everybody's business is nobody's business.

Old Roman Calendar Began With March

JANUARY has not always been the first month of the year. The old Roman year began with March.

About 251 B. C., the beginning of the year was shifted to January, but it was as recently as the 18th century that this calendar was accepted by the Christian nations. Members of the Jewish religion still observe New Year on March 25.

January took its name from Janus, the Roman god of doors, gates, and all passageways. In art, Janus was portrayed as a deity with two faces, one looking forward and the other backward. The chief festival dedicated to this god became New Year's day. This was the day presents were placed before him.

In war time, Janus' temple in Rome was open. So prevalent were wars, it was closed but three times in a period of 700 years.

Miss Virginia Kubit, of Keymar, representing Taneytown won the district oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion at Legion Square in Westminster, Friday evening, March 17. Miss Kubit now will enter the state finals which will be held March 28 at the Baltimore and Ohio Post in Baltimore. She defeated Barbara Rhodes, Washington County entrant Friday evening. Frederick county failed to send a representative. Miss Kubit was awarded $50 bond for winning the district title on the subject of the U. S. Constitution. This was the 13th annual national high school oratory contest sponsored by the American Legion.

It is reported that Raymond Thuma a resident of Taneytown, but known all over the county as "Bumble Bee" is in Union Memorial Hospital where he is a patient with pneumonia.

Miss Edna Buffington, daughter of Mr. Clarence Buffington, Union Bridge and the late Mrs. Ida DeVilbiss Buffington was married to Mr. Edmond Venzie, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Venzie, Philadelphia, in a simple ceremony at Leesburg, Va., Monday, March 13. The bride is a graduate of the Elmer Wolfe School and attended State Teachers College at Towson. The groom is a graduate of the Germantown Academy and is attending John Hopkins University. The couple will live in Baltimore.

There was a little excitement in our vicinity Sunday when William Holbrook set a brush fire and it got out of control, threatening to spread to his farm buildings and into the nearby woods of Elkaneships. The Union Bridge Fire Company was called out and between it and the use of a tractor by Claude Bohn the fire was brought under control. Due to the strong wind it was a dangerous day for a fire and it is just one more example of when not to start a brush fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bohn were supper guests Sunday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wetzel, at New Windsor.

While a wife takes her husband "for better or worse," he often takes her for granted.

Maryland's 4-H dairy judging team has done it again! The three man team composed of David Ifert, of Middletown, Stanley Stiles, Rockville, and Donald Pickering of McDonough School, Baltimore county, took top honors at the annual National Dairy Cattle Congress held October at Waterloo, Iowa.

Animals can stand cold temperatures better in the open than they can in buildings which allow cold drafts to blow on them.

Our fourth grader has acquired a new dog. Its name is Mitzie. We certainly hope she has better luck with this one than she has had with her last three, as they disappeared without a trace.

Mrs. Ray Wilson is confined to her house and under the doctor's care with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fink entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. Letiz and Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Wolfe at dinner Sunday. It was a sort of farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Letiz who will soon be moving to Baltimore.

The Wantz Brothers, skilled well drillers have just completed drilling a well for the Cleon Wolfes. It is 94 feet deep and the supply will be more than adequate for all needs. The best thing about the water is that it is "soft" which helps make all household chores easier. This particular well took all the skill and patience that the Wantz Brothers have attained through their many years of experience for they struck some unusual rock which some days kept the drills at a standstill. But in spite of the delays they kept on and finally were rewarded by hitting a large vein of water. Which just proves what we have always said "if you want water call the Wantz Brothers."

Television it seems is getting to be more of a problem every day. Teachers and educators are wondering how great its effect is going to be on education. One teacher in our local school is blaming failures on television since the children spend their spare time looking at it instead of studying. In many cases it does not matter that the youngsters have no sets at home for they just use their neighbors set. Whatever educational programs television offers the kids prefer Milton Berle, Ed Sullivan and Six-Gun Playhouse which as anyone can guess doesn't improve anyone's I. Q. The next step I suppose is to make a survey among the parents to find out what can be done about it.

Just as surely as Monday comes around so does wash day come to every housewife. But what a contrast to the blue Mondays of a few years back when one doesn't have to be too old to remember the number of buckets of water you drew from the well or brought from the spring on wash day and the pails of water you hauled out after you finished a tiring task. There are still many farm women whose laundry problems go all the way back to getting the wood chopped to build the fire, to heat the water, to wash the clothes. Rural women are often reluctant to give up their old wash houses for which they must carry water and still use laundry methods characteristic of their grandmother's day. But to many Monday is a day of leisure for with the new automatic machines, the family laundry is being done while the queen of the kitchen really acts like a queen. Some women may cry for the good old days but they are a slim minority. Most women when it comes to Monday thank their lucky stars that there was some one smart enough to invent the automatic washer.

The Union Bridge Girls 4-H Club will meet Saturday at 2 P. M. March 25th at the home of Miss Evelyn Coshun for their regular monthly meeting.

Edgar Rice Burroughs, age 74 died Sunday. He was the creator of "Tarzan" who delighted millions of children the world over, and will continue to do so for many years to come.

There was church services at Mt. Union Sunday morning with Mr. Lee Hufbell of the Gettysburg Seminary in charge of the service. Due to so much illness there were few in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. David Miller spent Sunday with their son, Woodrow and his family in Baltimore. They attended the christening of their grand son Steven Arthur, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Miller.

Last week your reporter was the victim of Virus X. While it doesn't last long it makes one feel miserable for a couple days.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schaeffer and little granddaughter, of Baltimore, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Myers and family.

Some morning very soon, you'll wake And sense a sudden change, The air you breathe will seem with life

And taste both sweet and strange! You'll tune in on the radio And dance to glad refrain, While something whispers to your heart;

"Ah, Spring has come again!" No matter how depressed you feel Before you go to bed, If Spring has come when dawn arrives,

Your troubles will have fled. You'll think the world has gone insane For dogs will wildly bark, While chickens squawk and song-birds sing,

And kids go on a lark! Get ready then, and open wide The window of your soul, Let Springtime chase the poison out And make your body whole!

The home of the late Sarah Albaugh Mill Avenue, was sold at public sale last Saturday afternoon. Mr. B. F. Morrison was the purchaser at the price of $7040.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dougherty and son, Harry, had as Sunday dinner and supper guests: Mr. and Mrs. Maynard S. Barnhart, Jr., Littlestown, Pa.; Mrs. Mary Wilt and Mr. and Mrs. Merle S. Ohler.

More than 300 people attended the grand opening of the F. E. Shum Abattoir, 12 Middle Street, last Sunday. The building is of cement block structure and is equipped with the latest facilities for all types of slaughtering purposes.

Although it was in a Carroll Co. newspaper that "Bumble Bee" a patient at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, was dead, he is somewhat improved. At least last Friday, although he was in an oxygen tent, he was cutting Shamrocks out of paper to amuse the nurses. He has received quite a number of pieces of mail and they come addressed "Bumble Bee" (no name).

The monthly meeting of the "Graceful Workers' Class of Grace Reformed Church, teacher Mrs. Clyde Hesson, was held at the home of Mrs. Carroll Garber, Monday evening. There were twenty-three members and guests present. Mrs. Harry Clingan opened the meeting and the president Mrs. Emerson Rue presided. The class completed its project—that of purchasing vases for their church. These will be dedicated on Mother's Day. After the meeting a "Novelty Hat" auction was held, and a nice sum of money was realized. Prices were given for the best decorated hat (this was given Mrs. Harry Welty) and the most comical one. (Mrs. Jean Harman was winner). Refreshments in keeping with St. Patrick's Day were served. Mrs. Jean Harman will be hostess for the next meeting.

women who have gone through College and yet did not have the exaggerated I. Q.

While at the school was most surprised to see that nice and careful, conscientious bus driver in the position as Janitor. Am really of the opinion of the late Henry Ford who said, "Give me a man over 40 for the best worker!"

The 40th Anniversary of The Boy Scouts made me think of the time in driving to Philadelphia in a new car which kept eating gas all the way and a Boy Scout the last few laps of miles came to the rescue. When I offered him money he refused with, "No thank you!" Then Your Observer realized that meant his good deed for the Day! Eh, Scouts?

There was a movie on TV a few weeks ago called, "I am an American Soldier!" After viewing it all, it would have made any girl desire to be a soldier, too!

Did you know that a rice diet and fruit juice for one week is excellent for high blood pressure? Ask any M. D.

Dowager Queen Mary of England had to become ill and bedridden before she desired her first born child, the Duke of Windsor to reside again in England! He was without a doubt the most popular of all Royalty and is to this day loved by every country. Your Observer has always admired him as he had proved to the world that England could not push him around and that he had a mind of his own. Letters from famous people hold one from The Duke of Windsor to Your Observer! Queen Mary has always been a forceful Queen which is most evident in the expression on her face. All England loves the Duke of Windsor and if and when he does return to his native land, the masses of that great Empire will welcome him with open arms for they know the real true story of his eventful life even when he was first born. This grand personality will go down in History not alone for the woman he loved but as a Man's King!

What a lovely rare white silk scarf with a Dragon in gold in one corner was brought back from Japan to Your Observer from a soldier boy "around our town!"

The last of March or the first of April, Carlin's will hold their annual ice show under the supervision of the Baltimore Figure Skating Club. The show will be made up of the State's best as well as some imported well known personalities. Don't miss this one!

Calling all kiddies as well as adults! You won't have to fear sitting in the dentist's chair any more when he fills or drills your aching tooth for instead of the old drilling, the tooth will be treated with air and you will find it is painless! Nice?

It was sweet to hear the song of "Because" sung by a big radio singer and star on TV dedicated to all the wives for Valentine Day. Hope you did not miss that one! It was, indeed most original.

What a wonderful soul W. J. H. must be!

Now here is something to think about and it works, too. There is a Club consisting of women who are divorced who call upon other women contemplating divorce and bring about a reconciliation between the estranged couple by telling them the awful perils of divorce. The proof is health centers, and schools, were established in neglected areas. The Presbyterian Church in particular became much interested in the educational and religious training of these neglected mountain young people. By 1934 this church had 26 educational institutions in that area. Many of these schools were later discontinued as the public school system began to catch up with the people. Foremost among these Presbyterian Schools were the Normal and Teachers College at Asheville, the Dorland-Bell School for girls at Hot Springs, and the Farm School for Boys at Swannanoa.

A few years ago the Normal and Teachers College was closed and sold. This was occasioned by a sit-down strike of the student body at the time when such sit-down strikes were in vogue. By this time the State was making ample provisions for Teachers Colleges. Much of the Presbyterian work in the mountains was then consolidated into the one big center at Swannanoa. The Dorland-Bell School and the Farm School were merged into the Warren Wilson College and made a co-educational and vocational school.

On this visit we were served dinner as guests of the institution. The dinner was a good meal served in a most excellent fashion by the students of the Home Economics class. After the dinner we were taken on a tour of the campus. One of the faculty acted as guide. The church was one of the most captivating structures we had ever seen. Fashioned entirely of logs, this rustic structure was a thing of rare beauty indeed. It was built by students as part of their training in building construction. The big library was still more unique. It too was fashioned out of logs, built by the students, and reminded you of a giant doll house built by the fairies. The guide showed us where

THIS 'N' THAT

That nice artistic son over New Windsor way has joined the Navy and has yet one year more to serve and then he will go for the next big thing that of Interior Decorating! Heard he has plenty of what it takes!

Our nice taxi owner last week, taxied all the way out to Cleveland with his "Fares" on a Tuesday, returning the following day.

Your Observer hopes to go skyward in the Spring with that competent Pilot and then I will be able to see the grand view of Carroll County of which I anticipate with much eagerness to view it all in the column for my readers.

Did you know by July there will be a car on the market which will sell for around $1200. It will go from 30 to 35 miles on a gallon of gasoline and it is a two-door sedan (either delux or standard). The new car will have a folding back seat arrangement which will provide a cargo capacity more than double that of the largest conventional sedan trunks. It can seat six comfortably and it is really a wow. It has all the features of a big and small car, plus real style. It is absolutely unique and is a car of beauty from any angle.

So long, folks. Will be seeing you next week. Have a grand week end and don't forget that precious piece of paper (your doctor's prescription) to be filled by your druggist "around our town" who surely does know that pharmacy business.

I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

EARTH'S LAST HOUR

(An Memoriam)

The years come, and the years go, But memories prefer to linger; What we are, and what we do, Also, are prone to linger.

We leave the world, or the world leave us At the stroke of earth's last hour; We take an ethereal flight; We wear in God's almighty power.

MARYLAND MUSINGS

About 14,000 boys and girls in Maryland are becoming good farmers and homemakers and valuable citizens through the 4-H Club program.

The 4-H Club program in Maryland is sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Maryland, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture Extension Service.

Onion adds flavor to sandwich fillings. Try mixing plain-cooked dry beans with chopped pickles and onion, or use coarse-grind peanut butter with chopped pickles and minced onion.

It takes leaders to make leaders. Ask your county or home demonstration agent today how you can lead a 4-H Club and share in the development of our future agricultural leaders.

Pattern and fabric must go well together, if the new dress or blouse you make is to be a success.

To be sure of a good legume seedling, make sure your oat nurse crop is properly fertilized.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Romans 1:1, 7-15; 15:22-29; 16; Acts 27-28; Philippians 1:12-20; 4:22

World-Wide Church

Lesson for March 26, 1950

GOD WORKS his purposes out in ways that not even the wisest of his servants can foresee. A beautiful example of this is the way Paul went to Rome. Long before he saw that city he wanted to preach there. All roads led to Rome, as they do to all world capitals, and people went there from everywhere.

World Horizon

When Paul writes to his "pen-friends" at Rome (15:22-29) of a projected trip to Jerusalem and Spain, taking in Rome on the way, he was laying out a trip to the east and west ends of civilization, the jumping-off places. His plan was as ambitious as if a modern evangelist would write to some church in India: "I aim to visit Iceland and Japan, and call on you on the way out."

Bond Voyage

PAUL EXPECTED to go to Rome a free man, his ticket (so to speak) reading on through Spain. Actually that was the end of his run. He went there under military guard, prisoner under sentence. The story is all there in Acts, how first he was jailed for protection from a blood-hungry mob, then kept in jail on general principles (which is to say, the governor kept hoping he would pay well for an acquittal), and finally appealed to Rome, the highest court of the empire. Appeals were expensive and slow, then as now.

But Paul must have come to look at his imprisonment, false as it was, as a heaven-sent opportunity to make that journey to Rome. It was a gilt-edged accident insurance. Free, he might never escape the plotters and reach Rome alive. Chained, the efficient Roman army would see that he arrived—and he did.

Four pairs of eyes were on him night and day. No plotter could stick him with a dagger or shove him overboard. So after some hair-breadth escapes to be sure—he was delivered safe and sound in the very city of which he had been dreaming all these years.

The Church at the Hub Of the World

THERE IS NOTHING at all in the New Testament to indicate that the church at Rome was considered, by Paul or any one else, as The Church, or the Mother Church. There is no claim that it was founded by St. Paul, still less by St. Peter.

It grew, as other churches grew, by infiltration. Christians who moved to the big city would get together, and there the church would be. Yet, of course, the Roman church was important.

It was important because it was at the hub of the civilized world. Paul did not seem to mind it in the least, that he could work only inside his prison, or "confined to quarters."

Writing from his jail cell to the Philippians, he mentions converts from the army and from the imperial slaves. ("Caesar's household" in Phil. 4:22 does not refer to the Emperor's family, but to the retinue of palace slaves.) We know from the letter to Philemon that Paul converted at least one "jailbird" named Onesimus.

The True Church Is A Marching Church

PAUL KNEW that a soul is a soul, sitting in the emperor's chair or waiting at the emperor's table. God is no respecter of persons. But he also knew that these Christian soldiers would not always stay in Rome; that even Christian slaves would be sold down the river; that the restless feet which brought their owners to Rome would take them away again. Great cities are like that.

Putting down Christianity in Rome was not like putting a single seed into a sheltered corner of the garden. It was like scattering a handful of it to the breeze, to be carried far and wide. Paul's vision is still the vision of the church at its best. The true church marches on, along the high-roads and byroads of the world.

We shall never be content with a narrow, sheltered Christianity. We cannot be satisfied with half-world religion. Only world-Christianity matches the grandeur of the New Testament ideal.

SHORT STORY

Ebb-Tide Of Fear

By FERN AUBLE

EDDIE RITCHER closed the hospital door gently. He stood outside for a moment, his eyes narrowed thoughtfully. Inside, his wife lay quietly, a gentle smile curving her lips as she held Eddie's promise to her heart.

"Don't you worry your pretty little head about anything, Mary," he had told her, his eyes earnest and loving. "Everything's going to be all right. I've got the promise of a fine new job and we won't have to worry about bills or expenses or anything from now on."

Eddie Richter, one-time money rider. Even yet, jockeys throughout the racing world talked of him with more than a little awe. He was a sort of shining star toward which silk-clad figures, up for the first time in a classic of sleek horseflesh, groped for inspiration. For Eddie Richter had been an inspired rider.

That is, until the day he was up on Galloping Wind, the great chestnut mare that had startled the entire racing world with her amazing bursts of speed.

On the day in question, he looked at the track nervously. It had drizzled all night and the course was a sea of mud. The horses were brought to the barrier, and Eddie leaned over Galloping Wind's neck and spoke to her reassuringly. She tossed her head and reared. The horses broke raggedly and Galloping Wind, on the outside, ran last.

At the three-quarter post, Eddie leaned over and said coaxingly, "Come on, girl, now's the time. You can do it. Why, the rest of these bangtails can't touch you for speed. Come on, now, let's show 'em."

Galloping Wind lengthened her stride in response to the appeal in Eddie's voice. She moved up, making her bid. And then, with victory within grasp, Galloping Wind stumbled and went down with Eddie under her.

When they got him out, the Doc shook his head as he went over Eddie's body with knowing fingers. "I don't know," he said doubtfully, "he's pretty much bunged up. We can tell more after we get him to the hospital and have X-rays taken."

HE lay there four months, his broken body an intolerable agony. The pain wouldn't have been so bad, if he could have gotten the picture out of his mind of lying under Galloping Wind, the thunder of flying hoofs coming toward him. Something had gone out of Eddie then and been replaced by fear.

When he came out of the hospital, he and Mary faced the fact that their savings were gone. Things got steadily worse. Eddie didn't know anything but horse racing and he couldn't endure the sight of a horse.

Finally, matters came to a climax when Mary had to be rushed to hospital for an emergency operation. She came through all right, but behind the love in her eyes there was worry too.

As he stood outside the door Eddie came to his decision. He left the hospital and turned toward the track and to George Graybar. Graybar, fabulously wealthy sportsman, owner of the Garbar stables from which had come Shooting Comet, Whirlwind, Highpockets and a host of other famous horses—and Galloping Wind.

Something in Eddie's face brought a welcoming smile from Graybar. "Well, it's about time, Eddie," he boomed. "I wondered how long it would be before you'd be around to see me."

They walked out to the stables, to the smell of clean hay and the nickerings of the horses in their stalls. When they came to the last stall, there was Galloping Wind.

The great horse stretched out her neck and nuzzled softly. Eddie swallowed the lump in his throat as he turned to Graybar who was watching them.

"She remembers me!" Eddie's eyes were shining. "When can I ride her, sir?" There was a great excitement in his eyes. Eddie had come home.

Lightning's Pranks

Freak lightning has been known to tear stone pieces from buildings and fling them many city blocks away. Once when a country potato field was hit, the stalks were burned to ashes, but the potatoes in the ground were merely well baked.

Packaged Rice

A recent survey in 30 cities shows that more and more grocery dealers prefer that the rice and dry edible beans and peas they sell be packaged in transparent film.

UNCLE SNOOPY

This Is the Year That Uncle Sam Conducts His Great Quiz Program

THE LONG, SNOOPING NOSE of Uncle Sam will overshadow the nation, beginning April 1. That's the date the government's host of census takers begins its round with portfolios bulging with questions designed to ferret out data pertaining to your family and each individual in it.

The bureau of census is the main interrogatory and fact-finding agency of the federal government, and if you think you've answered questions on income tax blanks and other forms, just wait until Mr. Census Taker grills you. Uncle Sam has saved up all the best ones for this survey.

The bureau likes to erect tall columns of statistics by converting your racial, sexual, economic and upon its population. For instance, this year's nose count is expected to take representatives from the middle eastern farming states and add them to the far western states.

The census has been taken every 10 years since 1790. Until 1810 it was a mere population count, but that year it was broadened to include other subjects. The census bureau furnishes current data to government, business, research groups and individuals that will assist in any type of planning.

The bureau conducts special surveys periodically, exclusive of the 10-year census. Information is collected from the general public through scientific sampling techniques upon labor, employment, unemployment, hours of work, housing, transportation, consumer requirements, food purchases, agriculture, industry, business, foreign trade, governments, international statistics, etc.

Gathers Thorough Data
The 10-year census survey gathers data on number, location, and personal and family characteristics of the population such as age, sex, race, place of birth, citizenship, work status, occupation, education, migration and income, plus other things.

You won't have to sit by the telephone hoping the question man will call. This blanket interrogation is required by law to cover every home in the United States. But there won't be any automatic dish washers, trips to Tahiti or thousand dollar bonds for the correct answers.

You don't have to tell the canvasser your income if you'd rather he did not know. Uncle Sam must know, so he makes a provision that allows you to send this information direct to Washington, if you prefer. That's in case, we suppose, your wife gets a job as a census taker, and you've been withholding part of the weekly check. The government does not wish to cause a domestic rift.

social characteristics into round figures therein. Most of the questions you are required to answer. And you can't throw Uncle Sam's querist out the front door as you might a Kinsey investigator. But don't worry — Uncle Sam's examiners aren't as thorough as Dr. Kinsey's.

Sets Population Basis

Census taking was established by the Constitution. Its purpose was to determine the population basis for apportioning representatives and direct taxes among the states. Population shifts cannot change the total number of representatives, but they can change the number of representatives allotted each state based

THE SEASONS ROLL

Spring is here—
The blue-birds hop across the lawn,
Blue-bells peep up all o'er the place,
While golden daffodils around are strewn
Bright with their smile and comely grace.

Spring is here—
The blue-Jay with its noisy chatter
Finds fault with all that come her way.

The moss grows thick on northern side of trees
Out in the meadow seeking clover bloom is honey bee.

Spring is here—
The dust is flying o'er the fields
Where farmer harrowing the ground for corn
The checkered field soon grains of corn will hold

Each fourth hill too a pumpkin seed.
So Spring is gone.
The seed is all in ground deposited,
Now waits the rain and blazing sun
To burst the shell so that the plant may come

Bear blossom and full fruit at season time.

The seasons roll
Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter
each

Its burden bears, the world to enrich
So time rolls on, and each in his day
Has his own say, then passes away.
