Months of engineering, planning and forethought is quite necessary for the installation of such a project. But when all is completed, which may not be too far distant, it is expected that Taneytown will have a modern, up-to-date sewage disposal system of which to boast. The citizens of the town will be further enlightened on this subject, through the proper channels, as plans become further progressed than at present.

LUTHERAN WOMEN VISIT EMMITSBURG CHURCH

Thirty-one members of Trinity Lutheran Missionary Societies at-tended the meeting at Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, Thursday evening. They had at their meeting Miss Kathryn Keller, a Lutheran Missionary to Mexico. Miss Keller's work is with the Indians of the southern part of Mexico, tribes who do not have a written language. Her work is first to learn their languages, for each tribe speaks a different dialect, and then as she learns a word puts it into writing. Thus after much study and labor she is able to give them their language in writing. For only in this way can they ever learn to read. Miss Keller had a large display of hand-work of these Mexican Indians, which was much enjoyed. With projector colored slides she was able to give a good picture of the country, the peo-ple, and the work she is doing. Working with her is a trained nurse. Miss Keller is young, wide-awake, and consecrated, with one purpose of helping these Indians to know Christ. She will soon return to Mexico. Elias Missionary Society had extended invitations to the women of nearby churches, Fairfield and Mt. Joy, Pa., and family, Sykesville, on their way home.

Things I have seen and things I have heard in this past week or two! A gentleman stating he would like to hear a Minister preach upon where religion or Christianity starts and ends! A Maryland farmer who was such

The sermon preached by my Minister was very beautiful as he never fails to remember Foster, and Step-Mothers during the sermon and quotes a number of times as in the Bible, "Take this child and raise it!" As Your Observer pinned the white carnation upon the lapel of my Minister's coat that morning before church, I said, "Remember today it is intervitoen years ago that the telejust sixteen years ago that the tele-gram arrived that your dear Mother passed away"! That sad morning passed away"! That sad morning—our first Mother's day together, he stood in the pulpit and preached about Mothers not mentioning about his Mother's passing! WHY BOTHER TO VOTE?

Have you ever made the remark "Why should I bother to vote; my single vote won't sway the election"? It's quite true, your vote alone can't turn an election. But have you ever stopped to think what would happen if everyone in the United States thought that way-the country would be at a standstill with no leaders. This is an extremity which assuredly will never materialize. (For one thing the party in power will vote themselves back in, even if the rest of the people don't vote.) However, it's wise to consider what could occur and then try our best to remedy matters. All of us complain about taxes and the way the government is being operated. Some say how much better it would be if another administration were in. But, do we do auything but complaint? For the majority the answer is no! The ones who do the most complaining are usually the ones who avoid going to the polls on election day. After all why should the ones who voted complain-they voted for what they wanted, so now they must cooperate. We can't afford to be impartial by not voting at all. There must be some infallible way to get all the qualified voters to understand that it is an imperative necessity in every individual's life to take at least enough iniative and interest in his government to select capable leaders. Or, have the people forgotten that it's a government of the people, by the people and for the people!

The Elmer Wolfe school auditorium was filled to capacity Monday evening when the pupils of the elementary grades presented a musical play in one-act titled "Who Stole the Tarts." The grown ups as well as the children in the audience evidently enjoyed being transported back once more into the land of Mother Goose for the applause at the end of each scene was generous and at the con-clusion nothing but favorable comments were heard both for the pupils who took part and for the teachers who had to spend many an hour rehearsing, the children. Every child in the elementary grades who want-ed to take part in the play was given the opportunity and it seemed that few didn't take advantage of it. SCRIPTURE: Micah, especially 4:1-5: 5:2-4: 7:18-20.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 11:

God Has a Plan

Lesson for May 28, 1950

GOD HANDS DOWN no blueprints. He never yet has been willing to save any man the trouble of thinking. The Bible is God's guidebook, and in it is revealed God's will. But it is not a guidebook of such a sort that you can take it from the shelf and look up in it the answer to every one of your problems in detail. Nevertheless the Bible is a "the infalguide. lible rule of faith and practice" as some churches ex- Dr. Foreman

God's will is shown there plainly enough so that we can know whether we are building on the right foundation or not.

Sins Into The Sea

NOW THE PLAN of God is so simple, that is, it can be so simply expressed, that one is almost tempted to say, "Oh, that!" as if it were something we knew already. Well, we do know it. But the thing is, we don't do it.

Part of God's plan for mankind, a very important part, in fact indispensable—something the Bible talks about from the beginning to end—is this. The forgiveness and the destruction of sins. (Micah 7: 18-20.) Now everybody can see others' sins.

The Romans used to say that every man carries others' sins in a bag in front of him where he can see them very well, but his own sins he carries in a bag hanging down his back where he cannot see them.

We are all in favor of other people's forsaking their sins. But how about you? The world does need to confess its sin; but you need to confess you own. No sins walk by themselves; sins exist only in sinners. Sin does not commit itself. Sin is something a sinner does. We shall never get rid of sins by exhorting other people. We get rid of them by repenting in the presence of God and receiving his forgiveness.

It is always so easy to think: If we only had a good society we could have better people. That is backing into an idea the wrong way. The right idea is: If we have better people we shall be on the way to the good society.

If Not Peace, Then What?

E ALSO KNOW something about God's plan for society at large. The Bible does not leave us in the dark. One thing that Micah brings out is the ideal of peace, (Micah 4:1-5.)

So long as we are making war, preparing for and expecting war, doing or saying things that make war inevitable or even likely, we are out of line with the will of God. Conversely, whatever we do to foster peace is in line with the plan of God. War was bad enough in the days of Micah; it is incalculably worse today.

War always was the effect and cause of hate, it always brought suffering and death, war seldom settled anything. But this is the atomic age. Dean Rusk of the U.S. state department has said that in all present - day discussions we have to remember one solemn fact: The human race now has in its hands the means of its own total destruction.

Any war nowadays is a war against the whole human race, for any large-scale war with atomic weapons may well make the entire globe uninhabitable by man. A voice for war is a voice for universal death.

Christ The King

SINLESS MAN is a warless world; such is God's plan. Is this possible? Only on one condition; that Christ shall be king. (Micah 5:2-4.) This has two meanings, one far-off, and one near; one complete and one partial. The far-off, completed meaning (which may be nearer than we think) is that after the history of this planet is over and done with, in the "new heavens and the new earth" the final destiny of God's people is to live under the Lord Christ as leader and king.

The nearer, here - and - now meaning of Christ's kingship is this: Wherever, in the plans of men, the spirit of Christ, his way and his ideal, are being trampled on or ignored, there God's plan is forgotten and

. there disaster is certain. But wherever the spirit of Christ is in control, there God's plan is being carried out and there the Kingdom of God is coming nearer.

Tight squeeze

East Baltimore St.

Telephone booths along the highway are mighty convenient sometimes. Witness the horseman who telephoned the local police: "My horse threw a shoe and he's limping badly. He's right here with me." "I suppose he's there in the booth," the cynical sergeant replied. "Let's hear him say 'Hello.'" A frantic whisper was followed by a long, piercing whinny. The deafer but wiser sergeant sent a blacksmith without further question.

It pays to take a short break

When you have a big day's work to do, it's a good idea to take a short break between jobs. The same rule holds good when you want to make a number of telephone calls on a party line. By allowing some time between calls, you give others a chance to use the line. Well-spaced calls also make it easier for someone to reach you.
