HISTORY OF TANEYTOWN.

PART XVII.

On the 15th. of March, 1865, a congregational meeting passed resolutions giving a unanimous call to Rev. tions giving a unanimous carrie network. N. E. Gilds. They agreed to give him $500. salary, of which Taneytown was to pay $202., Baust's $102., Mt. Union $62., and Rocky Hill $52. On the 4th. of March 1867, Rev. Mr. Gilds resigned the charge and on the 15th. resigned the charge, and on the 15th. of April, 1867, Rocky Hill was detached from the charge, which then consisted of Taneytown, Baust's, Mt. Union and Haugh's.

On the same day the congregations composing the charge extended a call to the Rev. Jesse Steiner, promising to pay him a salary of $650. of which Taneytown was to pay $270.84, Baust's $162.50, Haugh's $108.30, Mt. Union $180.33.

At a meeting of the classis in -May, 1867, at Emmitsburg, the action of the congregation in dismissing the Rocky Hill congregation was con-firmed. In June, 1868, Mr. Steiner tendered his resignation but it was not accepted; shortly after this he held revival services at which quite a number were brought into the church. In October 1871, Mr. Steiner again offered his resignation which was then accepted. An entry in the church book says it was done, "through great respect and deep sympathy for our persecuted pastor." The explanation of this entry I sup pose to be that charges were brought against Mr. Steiner of "conduct un-becoming a minister." He was tried by the classis and acquitted. The entry shows that his council believed in his innocence and that the charges were unfounded. The next pastor was the Rev. Mr. Lantz. I have not been able to find out the date of his election and in-stallation, but he was here for only a short time; he died in February 1873, and the records say he was "faithful during his brief ministry." He was buried in the Reformed Cemetery this place. On September 27th., 1873, the congregations of the charge extended a unanimous call to the Rev. P. A. Long, promising him salary as follows: In last Friday. He resigned the charge No vember 3rd., 1884, and went shortly afterwards to Chambersburg, Pa. where he had charge of the churches at Marion, Solomon's and Favetteville. He died there very suddenly on the 8th, of April 1891, and was buried in the Reformed cemetery in Taney town, where his widow has erected a handsome monument to his memory. In May 1885, the Maryland Classis

CHURCH OF THE UNITED BRETHREN IN CHRIST.

The following account of Mt. Pleasant U. B. church was furnished by the Rev. T. Wagner, now pastor of this circuit, which is composed of Littlestown, Harney and Taneytown. Previous to Nov. 1894, the congregation worshiped in the church which stands on the Westminster road 14 miles southeast of Taneytown. The present church building in Taney town was dedicated November 18th ... 1894.

The records do not give an account of the length of time that services were held in the community before the year 1850, but the first service was held at the residence of Adam Lichtenwalter, at which place, on April 13th., 1850, a Quarterly Conference was held, George W. Showman, pastor. At this time a board of trustees was appointed, to procure a lot of ground on which to build a house of worship, consisting of Adam Lichtenwalter, John Ridinger and Daniel Frock which led to the building of the so called Mt. Pleasant U. to Tokio. church in the year 1853; the plot of ground was donated by Henry Shriner; T. F. Hallowell was pastor.

The following are the names of the pastors from then until now; Dr. Thomas S. McNeil, one year; Samuel Minnick, two years; J. Gideon Shoaff, one year; Alexander Tripner, two years; Daniel Eberly, two years: Isaac C. Weidler, two years; Thomas F. Bushong, one year; J. Gideon Shoaff, one year; H. A. Schlichter, two years; J. H. Young, two years; Jacob T. Shaffer, one year; W. Owen, three two years; M. M. Burtner, three years; which brings us to the present year. state. The building of the new church was talked of for a number of years; the first step however was taken during the pastorate of M. M. Burtner, who started the first subscription. April last a partial new board of trustees were appointed who took steps immediately to procure a lot of
