THE GRANGE.

February 10th., 1874, Union Bridge February 10th., 1874, Union Bridge Grange, No. 30, Patrons of Husband-rey, was organized in Union Bridge, Md., by Capt. J. N. Chiswell, state deputy. The charter members were Thos. F. Shepherd, G. S. Haines, Pemberton Wood, Solomon Shepherd, Daniel Rinehart, Dr. E. O. Mannakee, Daniel Kinenart, Dr. E. O. Mannakee, Daniel Wolfe, Reuben Sayler, Jasper Shriner. P. L. Stouffer, W. S. Rine-hart, Ezra L. Shriner, Anna E. Wood M. E. Shepherd, Mary Anna Manna-kee, W. L. Shepherd, Emma R. Haines, Olivia S. Rinehart. The first officers were; Thomas F. Shepherd, Master; Daniel Wolfe, Overseer; E. O. Mannakee Lecturer: Solomon Shep-Mannakee, Lecturer; Solomon Shep-herd, Secretary; Daniel Rinehart, Treasurer; Pemberton Wood, Steward; W. S. Rinehart, Asst. Steward, P. H. Stouffer, Gate Keeper; Mary Anna Mannakee, Ceres; Mary L. Shepherd, Pomona; Emma R. Haines, Flora; Olivia Rinehart, L. A. S; G. S. Haines, Chaplain.

The Grange flourished for several years, and then languished. The fol-lowing are the minutes of its last meeting held December 3rd., 1881: The Grange met; there not being members enough present to open in form, an informal meeting was held, at which the following order or resolution was adopted; WHEREAS: A large portion of the members of this grange seem to have lost interest in and wear, drawn by a shaggy-but the organization, and do not attend its meetings; Therefore, resolved, that we pay all dues to the State Grange up to December 31st., 1881, and then surrender our Charter and disband. A VALUABLE FIND.

After years of study and labor, there has at last been discovered a sure and never failing remedy. It has been tested on patients, who have despaired of ever being cured, the recritic for each meeting, whose duty it was to criticise the faults and de-fects of the reader. This was a good feature, as it put every one on his best fashion. FARMER'S CLUB. This Club, or more properly—com-pany, at its start dates back to 1817.
