The Republican State Convention.

The Republican State convention met at Cambridge, Dorchester county, on Thursday, and nominated the following state ticket: For Governor, Hon. Lloyd Lowndes, of Allegany; Comptroller, Robert Graham. of Wicomico; Attorney General, Harry M. Clabaugh, of Carroll. The convention was harmonious, and the nominations of Lowndes and Clabaugh were made by acclamation. The actions of the convention were characterized by great enthusiasm which was intensified to a high pitch of excitement when the name of Mr. Wm. T. Malster of Baltimore, who had made a hot contest for the nomi nation for Governor was unexpectedly withdrawn, with the request that the nomination of Lowndes be made unanimous. The moment seized for springing this surprise was just after Mr. Lowndes's name had been placed before the convention. When one of Mr. Malster's adherents was recognized by the chairman everybody thought that something dramatic was going to occur, but only the initiated knew that Mr. Malster, having given up all hope of the nomination, was about to throw his influence toward solidifying the party. This he did in a speech delivered by Mr. Sidney E. Mudd, of Charles county. Then the convention went wild, and all that followed was of secondary importance.

The Convention was called to order by Harry M. Clabaugh, chairman of the State Central Committee, who made a neat speech and was vocifermade a neat speech and was vocifer-ously applauded. The first trial of strength, between the supporters of Lowndes and Malster, came on the selection of a chairman. Mr. Welling-ton nominated John C. Rose, of Bal-timore county, and Sydney E. Mudd nominated Charles T. Westcott, of Kent. The result was 69½ for Rose, and 47½ for Westcott, a victory for Lowndes.

While the committees were making While the committees were making up their reports, a number of speeches were made. The platform adopted, declares for a general and equitable re-assessment of all property in the state; for an efficient public school system, free from political influence, with free books to pupils; the control of elections to be restored.

Ex-Governor Joseph B. Foraker, the bold cavalry leader of the Republican forces of the Buckeye State, is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He is willing to bank on 100,000 majority for General Asa Bushnell, his party's candidate for Governor. He believes the Democratic party in the State is hopelessly demoralized. The choice of the Democrats for Governor lies of the Democrats for Governor lies between Paul J. Sorg and ex-Govern-or Campbell, Governor Foraker is slated for United States Senator.

Some of the ablest financiers think that another bond issue is inevitable, particularly as it looks now as if the $100,000,000 gold reserve limit cannot be maintained much longer. It seems to rest with Messrs Morgan, Belmont, and those associated with them; and should they withdraw their support and, should they withdraw their support when their legal responsibility ceases, on October ist., another issue will be inevitable. As they made a good profit out of the former deal, it is scarcely probable that they will philanthropically lend their continued assistance free of charge. ed assistance free of charge.

anonymous circular issued at Topeka, advising the pensioners to demand gold for their pension checks, was doubtless the emanation of malice or the misfortune to break their wagon badly, but by the help of some of our camped near here for the past two financial crank. The language of the citizens they succeeded in repairing weeks and annoyed almost everybody, circular shows that it was intended as a blow at the banks, but the vet-erans are undoubtedly intelligent enough to knew that the banks are not obliged to pay these pension checks either in gold or anything else. Government does not deposit money with the banks to neet the checks. Banks in all localities usually do cash them as a matter of accommodation, but they do it at some cost to themselves for postage or express charges. If the local banks should refuse to cash the checks, the recipients would be obliged to forward them to some government depository or to Washington for payment, which would occasion considerable delay, and also some risk, as well as outlay for stationery and postage stamps, which would in the aggregate amount to a considerable sum. It is stated that only two out of some 500 pensioners in Topeka demanded gold, which indicates that the old soldiers are not the men to be easily misled by demagogues."

> Since leaving Maryland Senator Gorman has been in communication by wire and letter with a number of national Democratic leaders, who are anxious to have him take charge of the presidential campaign of next year, and conduct the fight for his party as he did in 1884. Several of them have called upon the Senator and stated their views, and have tried to get the Marylander to consent to undertake the management of the campaign. As usual, Senator Gorman has asked for time for consideration before giving his answer, but those who have been in consultation with him at Saratoga and at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, in this city, believe that he will consent to conduct the campaign again, provided he is not himself the candidate. The Senator's thur and Virginia Benedict, aged 3 reluctance in giving an answer is construed by some as indicating that Gorman is hoping that the presidential lightning may come his way. A Decided Improvement.

There is a noteworthy change in Taneytown, which has taken place largely in the last five years, which is, that our citizens are beginning to take some pride in the town, and are showing their willingness to champion its interests, projects and institutions. There was a time when one was ashamed, almost, to tell where he lived, because almost any remark made by a stranger in reference to this place, either called for an excuse from us, or a disagreeable admission of uncomplimentary facts.

What has caused the change? Many things, but, first of all-incorporation. This is a fact which now needs no substantiation. The minor causes, are all attributable, in a greater or less degree, to the main one, With macadamized streets, and other improvements, have come a much better grade of new buildings; all the dwellings erected in the most recent years, even when not expensive, show more taste, and architectural beauty, and there is nothing at all strange in this fact-it is progress, or, if you please, more style.

One almost insensibly follows the prevailing style in most things, which fact does not always necessarily mean improvement, but is at least a change, which, in itself, has a tendency toward improvement. In the matter of progress in small places, like ours, the back-ground of the town, we may say, has a great deal to do with what the details of the foreground will be, and this has been abundantly proven with us. As long as we had uneven and unsightly streets and sidewalks, there seemed to be no use for fine or expensive buildings, and square, cheap, store- can Lawyer, a person who signs an box affairs, were plenty good enough | instrument without reading it, when for the sake of harmonizing effect.

A Three-cornered Question.

The money question seems to be a three-cornered affair, with extremists at each corner. First we have the unsound silverites, who believe in free coinage without regard to an international agreement and who favor nothing which stands, in the way of absolute free coinage on the basis of 16 to 1, not even well established laws of trade and finance. Second, we have those who believe in a double standard, and are seeking some plan by which silver may be coined more liberally than at present yet keep its value equal with gold. Third, are the unqualified gold standard advocates, who suppose that all the financial wisdom of the country is in Wall street, and whose views are colored in some degree by self-interest. Here is are opportunity for a modern Moses, to lead us out of our financial perplexities.

It is urged that deference to the tastes of the opposite sex is responsible for low-necked dresses. I wish somebody would be kind enough to refer me to chapter and page. Who is the Christopher Columbus entitled to the honor of the discovery of all this deference? Who will quote an interview between a fashionable dressmaker and any of the husbands or SURREYS, fathers or brothers, in deference to whose tastes the fashions are alleged to be formed? On this basis, the lownecked dress is prima facie evidence of low-necked manhood, and it is a bid for the coarsest in a man's nature instead of the finest. HISTORY OF HARNEY.

BY J. W. RECK, 1895. PART IV.

FIRST PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Prior to this time, (1887) we had no public school in this place; our children were compelled to walk to Piney Creek, and, in the winter, when the roads were bad, many of them had to stay at home; thus the education of many of our young people was sadly neglected. During this year an effort was made, and a public school started in a room above S. S. Shoemaker's store, and Mr. J. A. Angell was appointed as teacher. The school was kept in this room for several years, until Mr. Shoemaker built an acrient until Mr. Shoemaker built an agricultural warehouse, and finished the cond story for a school room, and

Soon this Order began to grow, and the room became too small. Mr. S. shall never say anything contrary to S. Shoemaker then put up a building on Littlestown street; he fitted up one of the lower rooms for H. A. Heck's craven cowardliness and the weather-

How the building caught was unknown; this caused great excitement for a short time, but as it was pouring down rain at the time, and the wind was coming from the south, no other property was in any particular danger. In 1892, John A. Bishop bought a lot on Littlestown street, from J. W. Slagenhaupt, and built a new house. A FAMOUS OLD HOUSE.

We look again, and we see the bright sparkling waters of Marsn creek come slowly rippling down amid rocky cliffs, through green meadows and shady forests; across this stream several miles above its mouth, we see just at the foot of Harper's hill, the natural dam, which is a ledge of rocks 15 or 20 feet high, extending from one bank of the stream to the other, thus forming a complete dam. The waters from this place were used many years ago, to run an old mill which stood a short distance below. We come on down past several fine farms until within about half a mile from the mouth of the stream, and we observe an old brick house standing upon its right bank, which was built in 1793, some say by a man by the name of Stewart, but we are inclined to believe this to be only supposition.

This house stands exactly on the Mason and Dixon Line, one half in Pennsylvania, and the other in Maryland, with the line running through a large hall pasing through the center of the house. Upon asking why the house was built that way, we are told that the builder was a slave owner, and, desiring to keep his slaves to work on his farm, which lies principally in Pennsylvania, he built the house so that he could keep his slaves on the Maryland side. Later on a man by the name of Watterson may have owned the property, and finally it was bought by William Walker, but, so far as we can learn, Mr. Walker never lived on the farm, but we are told that for many years he kept

She had spent the whole they almost starved him, and when he was so weak that he could not town—a most unusual event—and work, the woman caught him and run a flesh fork through his ear, and pinned him down to the floor, and beat him shamefully, then shut him "Well, I started from here on the" beat him shamefully, then shut him up in an old shed, where he died shortly afterwards. Red top, orchard grass and clover make a good mixture for a mowing field. One was seeded down ten years ago. It yielded very well for several years, after which the red top and clover had mostly died out, says the Massachusetts Planchman. The the Massachusetts Ploughman. The orchard grass still holds on without top dressing and mows a fair crop this year. The above mixture ripens early and should always be cut before the middle of June. Orchard grass hay is very hard and woody, if allow-ed to become overripe, but when cut at the proper time it is as good as

A VALUABLE FIND.

After years of study and labor, there has at last been discovered a sure and never-failing remedy. It has been tested on patients, who have despaired of ever being cured, the results have been, in every case, won-derful. Groff's Rheumatic Cure is unequaled as a positive remedy in all cases of Chronic and Acute Inflammatory Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Sciataca, Neuralgia; especially Ovarian Neuralgia, Dysmenorrhæa and all kindred affections. It is also a valuable Blood Purifier, being especially useful in Eczema, Psoriasis, Scrofula, all Glandular Enlargements and diseases of the Liver and Kidneys. It is absolutely free from all narcotone room furnished on the Pennsylvania side, but why this was done we from one to three days and a positive cure effected in from five to eighteen

The Luxury of Liberty.

One great luxury to most horses is the roll after the day's work is done. If you have never tried to give your team free liberty for a few moments after their day's work is over, do so some warm evening, says the Ohio Farmer, and, if possible, give them access to a strawy manure heap, or tected throughout. Her armament is as follows: Two 9 2 10 inch guns, and watch them for a few moments, twelve 6-inch quick-firing guns, sixteen 12-pounder quick-firing guns, and rine machine guns.

5000 DOLLAR'S WORTH

SEASONABLE MERCHANDISE TO BE SOLD WITHIN THE Unprecedented in the History NEXT 30 DAYS REGARDLESS OF COST.

It is the greatest reduction in prices that has been made in years, and not confined to one, two or three special lines, but extending to every department in the house. We are very much crowded with goods and to make a proper display of them we have decided to enlarge our first and second floors. Now you very well know what tearing down and rebuilding means. It means dust all over the fine as well as cheap goods, and the only remedy we know of keeping the dust and sand from getting into the goods is to get the goods away from it, and to accomplish this we have decided to sell the above amount of

at almost one-half the regular value

We shall make this a "MEMORABLE SALE" to our friends, patrons and the public in general in presenting such values, which can only be appreciated by an inspection of the same. When we say that this great "REBUILDING SALE" will surpass all that has gone before, our patrons from near and far are aware that

We Mean to Break all Previous Records for LOW PRICES.

To accommodate those who are unable to visit our store during the daytime we shall keep open at night until 9 o'clock.
