

The "Record's" third year will close with the last issue for June. As we desire to make the best possible financial statement to the stockholders, our patrons are urged to remit the amounts due us for subscriptions and advertising, on or before June 26th.

Locals and Personals.

Hunt up your flags and hang them out on Saturday. Dr. Kalbach will have another one of his wood sales at Moritz's on Friday, June 11th.

The old bit of advice, "Let the stoves up until June 1st," fits in all right this year. Edwin G. Cover, reported sick in last issue, has a case of typhoid fever, and is extremely ill.

J. J. Reindollar and son, Carroll, of Fairfield, Pa., spent several days here during the week.

Governor Lowndes, by proclamation, has named May 31st, as a legal holiday, for observance as Decoration day.

Miss Flora Glids, an occasional visitor to this place, will be married on Wednesday to Mr. C. I. Creager, of Thurmont, Md.

I. C. Rinehart, of Linwood, has sold the Creamery Company a cream separator to take the place of the one recently demolished.

Communion services will be held at Piney Creek, on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, instead of afternoon as incorrectly announced last week.

Miss Annie Catherine Myers, the mother of Mr. Jerome Myers of this district, whose death was noted in our last issue, was buried at Silver Run last Sunday.

Those who want to do shopping on Saturday, should so arrange their time as not to be inconvenienced by the two hours closing of the stores—from 12 to 2 p. m.

J. J. Reindollar has bought the half interest of Milton H. Reindollar in the home farm, and will improve the property by building a commodious addition to the barn.

A reader of last week's RECORD says that a certain short article in that issue was "worth a year's subscription." Well, hand in the $1.00 and we will send the paper a year to whoever is selected.

Well, well, Littlestown has contracted for water works and electric light! Where is Taneytown? Echo answers—a small town in Maryland nine miles south of Littlestown, dry and in the dark. But—just wait!

A game of baseball between the M. S. Mary's and Taneytown junior clubs was announced here for Thursday afternoon, but the "mountain-men" failed to show up, and thereby likely saved themselves from a disastrous defeat.

Cut off your telephone when a gust comes up, and be sure to do likewise when closing up your place of business for the day. Electric disturbances often take place at night, when it is not convenient to attend to the telephone, even if you think of it.

Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Motter will attend the meeting of the Lutheran General Synod which meets in Mansfield, Ohio, beginning June 8th. The Doctor is one of the lay delegates from the Maryland Synod. Edwin H. Sharets, of Bruceville, will also attend as a delegate, accompanied by his wife.

It is reliably reported here that Mr. A. C. Wolfe will very soon be appointed Postmaster at Union Bridge—that his appointment has been agreed on but not announced. The appointment for this place will very likely be made in July, as the present incumbent will have served four years on August 5th.

Harney needs telephonic connections, and it is said, would liberally patronize an extension from this place. Those interested should take steps to secure the service by drawing up a petition for the line and have it signed by those who will become subscribers. The company will no doubt be glad to build the extension if it promises profit.

Ascension day was observed as a holiday to a considerable extent, judging from the number of vehicles which passed through this place—principally towards Gettysburg. Many other people, however, conscientiously observe the day—and why should they not—by refraining from work, attending church, and making visits.

The pipe organ formerly in use in the Lutheran church, which has been replaced by an instrument more in harmony with the new building, may soon be offered for sale, and some church will then stand a chance of securing a bargain. The organ is a very good one, and if properly rebuilt will present a handsome appearance, and render excellent service for many years to come.

We have incomplete particulars of a runaway which occurred on Thursday evening at Two Taverns, Pa., in which Mrs. Martin D. Hess and Mrs. S. C. Shoemaker of Harney were seriously injured. The ladies were returning from a C. E. Convention at New Oxford, when their horse became frightened and threw them out of the buggy. It is said that Mrs. Shoemaker has a badly dislocated shoulder and that Mrs. Hess was seriously injured about the head and is unconscious.

NOTES FROM EVERYWHERE.

Items of current news boiled down, for busy readers.

A military company has been organized in Westminster, with Wm. H. Baer, Jr., as captain, Joseph D. Brooks, first lieutenant, and Carroll P. Albert, second lieutenant.

A Bark Hill contributor says "The Bark Hill Sunday school intends holding an ice cream and strawberry festival on June 3, 4, 5th. Mr. Moses Hollenberry is still growing weaker."

The Lutherans of Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia and District of Columbia will hold the regular annual Lutheran Reunion at Pen Mar, on Thursday, July 22nd. The program will soon be announced.

The Western Maryland R. R. will sell excursion tickets, for all regular trains from May 28th to June 10th, to persons who desire to attend the German Baptist Annual meeting in Frederick. These tickets will presumably be on sale at all stations.

Owen Bowie, the colored man who recently shot and killed Charles Smith, near Monrovia, voluntarily surrendered himself to his brother and a friend and is now lodged in Frederick jail in a precarious condition on account of partial starvation and exposure.

The five Cumberland fire companies will consolidate and Secretary John J. Stump, of the State Firemen's Association, says they will send at least two hundred and twenty-five men to the convention at Annapolis. Frostburg and Loneconing will also be represented.

A 'coon dog belonging to Harry Snyder, near Williamsport, which he valued at $50, met death in a peculiar manner. While chasing a hog the dog grabbed its prey, which stopped suddenly, and broke the dog's neck. The dog was quite old and covered with scars obtained in fights with 'coons.

A countryman tied his horse to the wheel of a wagon, in Cumberland; the horse became frightened, tore off the wheel, and ran down the street with the wheel hanging to the rein. This novel runaway created excitement, but he was stopped before any serious injury resulted. The horse was badly scratched and bruised.

Reports from various parts of the state indicate that the prospects for large crops are very favorable. Nearly every county reports large yields of wheat, and the government reports for this state show 102 per cent. The prospective harvest of hay and other farm products are also encouraging, while the farmers expect good profits from fruits and garden products.

William Johns, colored, a local preacher of Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church at Millington, Kent county, died under unusual circumstances on Monday. He was attacked with hiccoughs, but at first thought nothing of it. The trouble continued and the symptoms became alarming, and a physician was summoned, but no relief could be given and the man died on Monday.

The Quadrennial General Conference of the United Brethren church, which has been in session in Toledo, adjourned on Monday night. By unanimous vote the next general conference will be held at Frederick City, Md., the second Thursday in May, 1901. The board of bishops will appoint a sub-committee of fifteen, to cooperate with the pilgrimage committee in arranging for the centennial celebration.

The commencement exercises of New Windsor College will begin June 6th, when the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Rev. L. S. Falmes, of Lafayette Square Presbyterian Church, Baltimore. In the evening Rev. John L. Allison, of Westminster Presbyterian church, Baltimore, will address the Christian associations of the college. On Monday evening the literary societies will be addressed by Dr. Wm. H. Furnell, commencement June 10th. The graduates in the classical course are Henry C. Sperbeck, Philadelphia, and Charles Ecker, New Windsor.

Speculations as to who will succeed Mr. Samuel Cover as superintendent of public stores at the Custom-house are now considered in order. Mr. Cover's term of four years expires next month, and there are plenty of Republicans who would very willingly accept the place, which pays a salary of $5 a day. Mr. Cover lives in Carroll county, and was appointed by Secretary Carlisle at the request of Senator Gorman. Since the wide extension of civil service during President Cleveland's administration there is some uncertainty whether or not this place comes under the rules. If it does not, there is a strong probability that Mr. Cover's successor will soon be named.

After a long illness, from Bright's disease, J. A. Kitzmiller, one of the leading members of the Adams county bar, died on Monday morning in Gettysburg, Pa. He was a veteran of the war, having been a member of the 138th Pennsylvania Regiment, and having lost his left arm at Spottsylvania Court House. In 1865 he was elected prothonotary of the county, and served eight years, during the Grant administration, as postmaster of Gettysburg. He was twelve years a member of the school board, for seven years of which he was president; and was, also, Burgess of the town. He was president of the Adams County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, a member of the I. O. O. F., L. O. R. M., P. O. S. of A., and the Grand Army post.

A meeting of the Maryland Republican State Central Committee, has been called by Chairman Wellington for Wednesday, June 2, at noon, at Raines's Hall, Baltimore street and Postoffice avenue. Matters relative to the coming campaign will be considered. The members of the committee for Carroll county, are, Harry M. Clabaugh, William Y. Frizell, Wm. L. W. Seabrook, Joseph A. Stouffer and William Wood.

THE C. E. CONVENTION.

The Closing Proceedings of a very Interesting Convention.

The second day of the C. E. Convention began with a Sunrise Prayer Meeting, held in the Lutheran church, led by Mr. Frank K. Hennig, of Annapolis. It was a very enjoyable meeting spiritually. There were quite a number of the delegates and visitors present. At 9:30 a. m. prayer and praise service was conducted by Miss Annie Birnie, of Taneytown. The Missionary address was delivered by Rev. B. A. Diehl, of Westminster. Presentation of the banner by Rev. R. L. Patterson, of Union Bridge. The successful society was Taneytown Presbytery; the average of this society for Missions during the year was $1.13 per member. The Presbyterian Society at New Windsor deserves honorable mention, their average being $1.00 per member.

A very helpful parliament on "Practical points in prayer" was conducted by Mr. George Mather, of Westminster. The first topic, "Why should we pray?" was discussed by Rev. S. J. Derr of Hampstead. "When should we pray?" Miss Lizzie Birely, of Middleburg; "Where we should pray?" Miss Anna Motter, of Taneytown; "For what should we pray?" Mr. Robert Banker, of Pleasant Valley; "What should we pray for?" Mr. Geo. Yeiser, of Taneytown; "How should we pray?" Murray, of Union Bridge. This parliament proved, if nothing else, that the Christian endeavor work is growing.

At 1:30 a meeting of the Executive Committee was held; important business received the attention of this committee. At 2 o'clock, a prayer and praise service was conducted by Mrs. Wm. G. Rinehart, of Westminster, followed by a selection from the quartette. A parliament on "Bible and helpful features of the convention," led by President Hennig, "Who took part were Mr. Herling, Mr. Robert Barnes, Miss Lizzie Birely, Mr. G. H. Hyder, Mr. Robert Banker, Mr. G. H. Brainerd, Mr. G. H. Ford, Miss Sallie E. Weaver, Mrs. Clayton Wolf, Mrs. S. A. Diehl and Mrs. J. M. Motter. The subject of the day was the Junior Work, under the direction of Miss Lettie C. Shriver, County J. R. Superintendent. One hundred children marched in, singing the C. E. marching song; considering that there is no Junior Work in Taneytown, and that most of the visitors, it was a sight worth seeing. Mrs. Fred. Ohrenschall, State Secretary, using a leaf from an object lesson; she also presented the report to Union Bridge Lutheran Society, as the society having the highest average attendance, the average being 81 per cent of the members. Taneytown Lutheran has honorable mention, being second with an average of 78 per cent.

The quartette then sang a selection, after which, Rev. D. Frank Garland, of Taneytown, gave a very fine discourse on "Leading souls to Christ our paramount duty." Rev. Mr. Garland needs no introduction; his words of commendation before the people of Carroll county. He has been the heart of the C. E. work in Carroll county for many years. At 4 o'clock the Prayer Meeting was led by Rev. B. W. Kingley, of Uniontown. The report of the nomination committee was submitted by Mr. H. Hyder, chairman. The staff of officers was not changed. The old ones being retained; President, Mr. H. H. Woods; Vice-president, Rev. R. L. Patterson; Secretary, J. M. Motter; and Treas., Miss Ida M. Dittendorf. J. M. Motter, Miss M. Louise Shriver, Superintendent of Temperance, Mr. W. W. Resolutions Committee, as follows: Rev. Mr. Robert Banker, as follows: Resolved, First, That, as a convention due in this manner to express sincere gratitude to the C. E. societies of the M. It enlarges the authority of the officers of classis in one important particular. Under the present constitution an existing pastoral relation cannot be dissolved, or a new one formed without a special meeting of the classis, and such a meeting is a costly proceeding. The amended constitution in October next, the officers of classis with authority in such cases, where action may be taken, and no objection is made. The vote in favor of the new constitution was 33 to 8.

Classis voted to dissolve the pastoral relation of Rev. C. N. Thomson, of meier and the Middlebrook Church. A resolution was adopted directing the ministers to preach a special sermon on the observance of the Lord's Day; to discuss the same at the conferences, or whatever may tend to violate its sanctity.

Waltersville was selected as the place at which to hold the next annual meeting of the classis, and the date fixed was May 18th, 1898.
