Linwood.

Farmers in this section are disappointed in not being able to house their grain, on account of the heavy rains the past week; in consideration of which there is still many shocks standing. Mr. Jesse Smith, our progressive farmer, whose wheat fields laid high, was first to cut grain-several days previous to the rest of the farmers in this vicinity, and consequently had an opportunity of hauland, with proper care, he will be a ing his wheat off his fields, previous to the wet spell of weather we have had the past week. We trust the sun will not always hide his face behind a cloud.

Mr. J. H. Gildea, who is summering with his family at "Linwood Shade," met with a painful accident about ten days ago, in having a heavy stone roll against his foot. Dr. Lincoln Brown was called in, who succeeded in relieving the pain and swelling in a few days, and now, with a cane, Mr. Gildea is able to go and return from the city every day.

A party of ten ladies and gentle men from "Mt. Pleasant," Mrs. Zimmerman's boarding house below Westminster, drove to "Linwood Shade" last Tuesday evening, to call on friends at the latter place.

Mad Dog Symptoms.

The July issue of Our Animal Friends contains an article on the subject of rabid dogs, which gives the following symptoms by which they may be readily known. The ideas advanced are somewhat at variance with those generally accepted, but they are nevertheless likely to be true, as the authority seems to be

"1. It is supposed that a mad dog dreads water. It is not so. The mad dog is very likely to plunge his head. to the eyes in water, though he cannot swallow it, and laps it with difficulty.

2. It is supposed that a mad dog

Three I love, I say! Four I love with all my heart, Five I cast away.'

"Six he loves," she murmured low.
And the firelight's flickering glow
Two happy faces now disclose,
With cheeks a-glowing like the rose.
But here we'll let the curtain fall,
For the end is best of all.
