TANEYTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, APRIL 14, 1900.

$1.00 Per Year.

Local and Personal.

This is meant to be a purely local news column, to which the record invites contributions. Events of local importance, whether current or in the near future, accidents, cases of extreme illness, society church happenings, marriages, deaths, etc., should be reported to the editor in writing, otherwise they may not appear.

Miss Clara Reindollar, an Irving College student, is spending the Easter vacation at home.

Rev. J. William Ott, of the Gettysburg Seminary, is visiting his parents in this place, during the Easter vacation.

An error occurred in stating the age of Samuel Fair, in last issue. It should have been 79 years, 9 months and 19 days.

Miss Bertie Long, a student at the Woman's College, Frederick, is spending her Easter vacation with her mother, in this place.

The Otter Dale Union Sunday school will be re-organized on Sunday afternoon. All friends of the school are urged to be present.

Thomas L. Shoemaker, who has been in the employ of S. C. Weaver, has secured a position at Brn Mawr, Pa., at his trade, and will leave on Monday.

Communion services will be held in both the Lutheran and Reformed churches on Easter Sunday; preparatory services to-day (Saturday) at 2 o'clock p. m.

Franklin Bowersox's annual sale of bugles and agricultural implements, attracted a large crowd, last Saturday. The sale was the largest in amount that he has ever held.

Jacob H. Brown and family removed from Wakefield to the Koutz farm, on Tuesday. Mr. Brown is improving in health and will soon be able to actively superintend farming operations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yount have located in Mrs. Bollinger's building, on Baltimore street. Mr. Yount is placing a stock of goods in the store room and will open for business about May 1st.

We have now in press two school prospectuses; one for Milton Academy this place, the other for Maryland Collegiate Institute, Union Bridge. The excellence of our work of this character is becoming generally known.

Rural delivery has had the effect of largely reducing the number of box renters at this office, though many still hold their boxes and make use of both services. This is especially a good plan for those who receive mail in the evening.

The Methodist conference, held in Westminster, endorsed the proposition to erect a new library building at Western Maryland. It is authentically stated that $12,000 was expended for buildings, by this institution, during the past year.

"Dewey's Victory," a great Naval spectacle, the Battle of Manila, will be rendered in the Opera House Tuesday night, May 1st, under the auspices of the Taneytown Fire Company. It will be the realistic electrical reproduction of the great engagement between the American and Spanish fleets.

Our bills for paper, envelopes and cardboard are all stamped, "Prices subject to change without notice." This is a business rule, demanded by the advancing market; but, when we adopt it, a "kick" is generally the result, as many people seem to think that a price must either remain the same, or come lower, for an indefinite time.

The case of Koutz vs. Brower, which was to have been tried on Tuesday, was settled on Monday without coming to trial. Mr. Koutz gave Mr. Brower a money consideration, in order that he might secure possession of his farm and let the new tenant move. The settlement was one of expediency rather than on the merits of the case.

On Thursday night of last week, some miscreant set fire to the smoke house on the property of Henry Hilberick, which had just been vacated by John Sautle. Fortunately it was discovered by William Withrow, Friday morning, before any great amount of damage had resulted. Had it not been for snow on the roof it is probable that the building, as well as the dwelling, would have been burned.

The dwelling, near Bridgeport, owned by the late John Delaplane, was destroyed by fire last Saturday night, between eight and nine o'clock. The property was unoccupied and the fire was no doubt the work of an incendiary. The dwelling was insured in the Granger's Company for $600. Through the efforts of the neighbors the other buildings were saved, and for this help, John Delaplane, Jr., the agent for the heirs, desires to express his thanks.

Mr. Jonas F. Royer, of Republic, Washington, spent several days this week, with his father, Uriah Royer, of this place. Mr. Royer left this community about 91 years ago, and joined the 22nd. regiment of the regular army, with which he served six years. He finally settled down at Republic, where he is engaged in business. His wife, whom he married in Toledo, Ohio, died on the 19th. of March last, and he brought the remains to her native place, and then came on to see his father and other friends.

Church Notices.

The preaching in the Taneytown U. B. church next Sunday will be the morning at 10 o'clock, and Harmony in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. These are the "Benedictions of the Resurrection." All are welcome.

J. O. CLIPPINGER, PASTOR.

COUNTY AND STATE.

News Notes of General Interest from Various Sources.

John Leister, of Union Mills, died on Wednesday.

Farmers have been busily engaged during the week, preparing ground for corn planting.

Dr. Benj. Franklin, of Marston, is looking for a new location for the practice of his profession.

Ex-Governor Pattison, of Pennsylvania, is said to be the probable democratic nominee for vice-President on the democratic ticket.

Mrs. Admiral Dewey is reported to have left the Catholic church, and joined the Episcopal denomination, of which she was once a member.

The Darby Manufacturing Company, one of the oldest and largest manufacturing confectionery firms in Baltimore, is in the hands of a receiver.

The name of Major Charles A. Little is being mentioned by the Democrats as the congressional nominee from the district. Major Little was urged to accept the nomination two years ago, but he declined to enter the race.

The skipping rope has entered the casualty contest quite early. It begins with the death of one child and the serious illness of two others in Illinois. The spirit of record-breaking has invaded the children, and, as usual, human sacrifices must be offered up before this juggernaut of so-called sport is satisfied.

The Catonsville Argus is responsible for this: A Baltimore county postmaster wrote as follows to the Department in Washington: "Please except my resignation of p. m. of the government at this town: I have been elected by the peace & school trustee said duties preventing me from being able to more than I can chew by trying to kill three birds with 1 stone."

The peach crop seems to have escaped serious injury in all sections. As already stated, the frosts nipped some lowland orchards in Western Maryland, but elsewhere damage has been very light. The buds, while not forward, are swelling under the present warmth, and blooms are beginning to show in Charles county. Keifer pears are heavily budded. Apples promise well, but the buds are rather backward.

The usual call for acts of Assembly between the time of the approval and printing is now being made upon the clerk of the Court of Appeals, and orders are coming in fast. One of the heavy works attendant upon the session is transcribing of the laws into a volume which constitutes the true record of the acts. Here the bad grammar and faulty orthography of the legislators shine out and on to posterity, for, as the acts come into the office of the clerk of the Court of Appeals, so they are recorded.

Mr. John J. Derranged 65 years, died Monday at his home, 1116 Forest, Baltimore. He was born at Lewistown, near Frederick, Md., on August 27, 1834. He was a veteran of the Civil War, and had been employed by the Western Maryland Railroad Company for 37 years as machinist, locomotive engineer and roundhouse foreman. He was passenger locomotive engineer for about 28 years. During his 37 years in the Western Maryland service he never had an accident was never suspended and never reprimanded.

Dr. Clayton E. Cramer, who was shot on Friday night last by Police-constable Charles E. Six, of Frederick, while evading arrest in company with Leroy Anderson, charged with attempting to pass alleged bogus coin, died at Mountview Hospital, on Tuesday, where he had been taken for treatment. Cramer was 40 years of age and son of John C. Cramer, of near Woodsboro. Policeman Six, who shot Cramer, is about 23 years of age and has only been on the force about six months. A jury will be summoned to investigate the cause of Cramer's death.

The thirty-second annual session of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was held in Baltimore, this week. Grand Chancellor Hoppe gave a review of the work of the order in Maryland; said two new lodges had been started and that there was a net gain in membership of 153 and an increase in the funds of the lodges of $3,200. Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, James Whitehouse, reported that there were 106 lodges in the state, with an aggregate membership of 7,106. The funds of the lodges aggregate $211,981.06. The expenditures for relief, charity, etc., amounted to $66,006.09, of which $39,025 was spent for the relief of brothers, widowed families and burial of the dead. There are nearly 7,000 subordinate lodges in the country, with about 500,000 members.

Route Agent Arthur Promoted.

William J. Arthur, formerly a Route Agent on the Fred. Div. P. R. R., was recently transferred to a N. Y. and Washington run, and has removed his home from Lancaster to Baltimore. Mr. Arthur took the civil service examination at Washington, on Sept. 14, 1897, receiving a general average of 86.08. His first position (as weigher of mails between New York and Washington) was received one month after examination, since which time he has been assigned to run as Mail Agent on various lines, the last year having been spent between Lancaster and Frederick. His transfers have always been promotions, and his average, in recent examinations, stands at 93.35, or nearly perfect.

ANTRIM BURGLARIZED.

A Bold but ill-planned Robbery. Suspects Arrested.

At a late hour on Saturday night, "Antrim," the summer home of Judge H. M. Clabaugh, was entered by thieves who proceeded to ransack the house for valuables, breaking open chests and trunks and making a general search over the building. Their presence was denoted by a light which was observed by an employee of J. W. Withrow, the farmer of the property, who lives near the main residence, and the two promptly proceeded to investigate, but the thieves had already flown. Entrance was effected in the rear of the building.

Two young men, Harry M. Feeser, of this district, and Walter Angell, of Taneytown, left here on Sunday, under strong suspicion of being the guilty parties. Through prompt detective work and the use of the telephone, they were apprehended in Hanover, Pa., and by Monday afternoon were lodged in the jail at Westminster, to await a hearing. Judge Clabaugh was notified of the robbery and requested to appear for the purpose of identifying some goods found in the possession of the suspects. It is probable that very little booty was secured, as most of the property left in the building during the winter is such that it is not easily carried away or disposed of.

A hearing of the case has been set for Saturday morning, at which it is thought that evidence will be forthcoming sufficient to connect the arrested parties with the robbery.

When arrested in Hanover, neither of the men inquired what they were arrested for, and both agreed to return to Taneytown without a requisition. In a trunk in their possession was found a lot of clothing, among which was a gentleman's full dress suit, a pair of fine slacks, some bicycle stockings, etc., which, it is alleged, they stole from the above named residence.

They had registered at the Barker House, leaving orders to be called at 4 o'clock the next morning, in order to take the early train for Philadelphia. Instead, they were arrested at 9:30 the same evening, and spent the balance of the time in the lock-up until Sheriff Motter arrived and took them to Westminster.

FREE DELIVERY NOTES.

Frederick County wants the Service. Increased Receipts.

Representative Pearre has asked the Postoffice Department for an extension of Rural Free Delivery to Frederick county, bordering on Carroll county, in order that numerous requests for the service from his constituents may be satisfied. Mr. Pearre was at first doubtful of the wisdom of including any part of Frederick county in the Carroll county system, but is now willing for the extension to be made, especially when petitions to this end are presented by the people. It is the opinion of the Postoffice Department that the section from Bridgeport to Mount Airy will be covered during the year, and become interwoven with the system in Carroll county. Congressman Pearre is one of the ablest representatives of the Sixth District has ever had, and is fully alive to the best interests of his constituents. His consent, in the present instance, has been given only after a full consideration of the subject from every point of view.

Special Agent Hathaway has been assigned to the superintendency of Rural Delivery in the Eastern division, with headquarters in New York. The division includes nine states, but not Maryland. In connection with his familiarity with the introduction of the system in this county, an effort will be made to have this state included in his jurisdiction.

The increase of postal receipts in the county, since the first of the year, has been phenomenal. Exact figures from the Auditor's office show that the increase in revenue is almost sufficient to pay the increased cost of a matter of fact, the deficit for the quarter ending March 31st, is approximately only $300. This, in consideration of the fact that the system did not get into good running order before the middle of the quarter, is regarded as a very satisfactory showing.

From investigation, it has been demonstrated that the average distance each patron had to go for mail matter, prior to the star route system, was one mile and four hundredths, while free delivery reduces the average to 328 feet.

A general review of the county will be made in the near future, which, with the introduction of the free delivery system along the borders of the county, will doubtless result in a more thorough service in Carroll.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Otto.

(For the Record.)

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Otto, widow of the late John Otto, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Wilson, in Middleburg, on April 7th, of paralysis, after an illness of two weeks. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. church, by Rev. A. E. Slagle, pastor in charge. Interment in the cemetery adjoining.

Mrs. Otto was Miss Elizabeth Lambert, and well known throughout the community, having spent her entire life in Carroll county. She was a sister of Mrs. Clara E. Bowersox, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Lambert of Middleburg. She was married to John Otto, of New Windsor, and Mrs. George Walton, of Baltimore. The aged lady was 65 years and 17 days. She leaves two sons and a daughter to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother.

A Mysterious Grave Digger.

A Unionville contributor to the Liberty Banner is responsible for the following:

For some weeks our village and vicinity have been excited over a strange excavation, and the fact of resembling a grave in its proportion, which has been dug by some unknown person at the corner where the farm of Mrs. Samuel A. E. to the Luther E. Harn join, and on the line fence of those of Mrs. M. A. and Mrs. Elizabeth Luggenbuhl.

Some of the neighbors became so exercised over the appearance of this strange excavation, at so unlikely a spot for a grave, that they went and re-excavated the earth to ascertain whether anything was interred therein, but found nothing.

The most mysterious part of the matter is what could have prompted the digging, and the fact that the dig was 8 feet long, 2 1/2 feet wide, and a depth of 4 feet, and still same, seemingly without interfering anything, which mystery is still augmented when we consider some years ago a similar excavation was made almost exactly at the same spot. One also on the line fence between the farms of Messrs. Clara E. Bowersox and John D. Gaither, which is also in line with the former, and one on Mr. John Whitehill's farm, presumably by the same person.

Who this unknown person could be, his object in making these excavations at such uncanny places, of course in the dead hours of night, are questions which the most astute investigator cannot answer, nor the most plausible reasoner explain.

New Form of Swindle.

An individual representing himself to be a census taker is victimizing and swindling many farmers in the neighborhood of Shippensburg, Pa. He takes notes of facts about the family and secures the signature of the head of the house to a paper, which subsequently turns out to be a contract for a lot of worthless books. The books are sent to the farmer, the result of the contract and payment is demanded. This item is particularly applicable to this county, as the season for census taking is approaching, and clever swindlers have frequently in other ways gotten the best of men with good sense and judgment. All authorized census takers will be duly credited and their papers will prove their identity. A little less willingness to sign suspicious papers for strangers may save much future worry and financial distress.

Effect of Legal Holidays.

The new law—Chap. 7, section 104, Laws of 1898—in reference to commercial papers falling due on legal holidays, provides that "every negotiable instrument is payable at the time fixed therein, without grace. When the day of maturity falls on Sunday, or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day." Under the old law, it was an established precedent that the date of payment, in such cases, was the day preceding.

POSTOFFICE ROBBERED.

A Daring Burglary by Masked men at Mount Airy.

The Postoffice at Mount Airy, in this county, was burglarized at about 10 o'clock, on Thursday morning, by three masked men who forced the door with a "Jimmy," and blew open the safe with dynamite, securing, it is said, about $500, in stamps, and $300, cash.

Mr. Charles Riddlemose, assistant night telegraph operator, went to the pump in front of the postoffice to get a bucket of water, while the burglars were at work, and seeing the front door open, thought the clerk at the office was in there at work, and called to him. He was greatly surprised when one of the masked men presented a revolver at him, and compelled him to come inside, sit down on a bucket and be bound and blindfolded. The safe was completely wrecked, and the building damaged. After seeing the booty, two of the men left while the third stood guard for a while, over Riddlemose, when he too left. All the men wore masks; one wore a very tall and wore a dark overcoat and a light overcoat, while the third could not be described.

Postmaster Schaeffer, at Westminster, was notified and at once forwarded the necessary supplies with which to transact business. This is the third time this office has been robbed, but the only time that such a large haul was made. The work was evidently done by professional cracksmen.

A House-warming.

(For the Record.)

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Garber, (formerly Miss Daisy L. Plontz of Carroll county), who were married about two months ago, gave a most delightful reception to their friends April 9th, the occasion being, what is known in Virginia (Mr. Garber's home) as a real old-fashioned "house-warming."

"House-warming" means an informal reception, where one's friends are given the freedom of the house without escort or invitation. Well, in the present is expected to visit every part of the house, from the roof garden to the pantry, and the pantry at this time is supposed to be filled with those good things which "grandma" used to make for "good little boys," such as cookies, strawberry short cake, and the contents are deposited in the lower chamber that is only accessible through a door that is controlled by lock and key.

Bark Hill.

Mr. J. D. Myers and wife, of Park Dale, spent Tuesday in Westminster.

Mr. Lewis Rowe, telegrapher and general agent at Blue Ridge Summit, Pa., his son Walter, and daughters, Nellie and Maigie, spent Saturday with his father and brothers in conversation with Mr. Rowe about the recent reports of oil wells and copper mines, he stated, that the oil well, several miles north of the Summit, had been tested by an expert geologist and pronounced genuine. An option has been taken by some company, and the owner of the well quickly settled with a large financial bonus. Just now, he said, the copper boom is greatly in evidence not far from the Summit. Many fine specimens of copper have been discovered and assayed. Syndicates are being formed and many acres of mountain land have been purchased, which are supposed to contain the rich veins of metal.

Rev. Thomas Wright, of Towson, brother-in-law of Mr. David Wilhelm, of Hillsdale farm, preached at Bethel on last Sabbath evening. Those who were fortunate to be present, enjoyed his pleasing and instructive discourse.

Nannie V. Little daughter of Mr. George Bowers, colored, was fatally burnt on Thursday and died on Saturday morning. The mother left the children alone and went to the store. The clothing of the child caught fire, while too near the stove. Her face, body and lower limbs were burnt.

The oldest child, not over five years of age, threw a bucket of water over the little sufferer, which extinguished the flames. Nannie was two and a half years old. Interment at Cedar cemetery, on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Calvin Harner and son, Matthew, and Mr. Ernest Wright, an amateur orchestra, entertained Mr. J. D. Myers and family, of Park Dale, with some choice music on Friday evening of last week.

Mrs. Rhoda Smith Weller and husband, of Woodsboro, visited Mrs. Weller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Smith, last Sunday.

Capperville.

We also extend an invitation to those who have moved in the neighborhood recently to take part in the school, and help to make it a success.

Messrs. Louis J. Henley and Percy H. Shriver received, on Monday last, about 14,000 brook trout from the State Fishery, delivered to the fish in Union Bridge, and gave instructions how to put them in the streams. They came free of charge to Union Bridge. Mr. Henley put about 4,000 in his pond, the remainder Mr. Shriver distributed in Bear and Meadow creeks, both tributaries of Big Pipe Creek. Mr. Fraser recommended small branches, or branches, as they are not so apt to get destroyed by other fish.

Harney.

On last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hawk and son, Paul, Grandmother Foreman, of near this place, Mr. and Mrs. David Foreman and son Leonard, of Park Hill, were guests of Mrs. William Miller, of near Harney.

The infant son of Rev. L. A. Bush, of Newcomerstown, Ohio, died on last Friday; its remains were brought to Gettysburg for interment on last Monday. The family is spending a short time here with Mrs. Bush's father, Mr. J. Newcomer.

D. Fred. Englar has accepted a position as book-keeper in the office of the Geiser Company's works, Waynesboro, Pa., and went on Monday to that place. We are sorry to lose our genial friend, but are certain that his wife and baby remain behind, his visits here will be frequent.

Appropriate Easter exercises will be given by our Sunday school, next Sabbath afternoon, at the usual hour.

Mr. Ohler, while moving his family from Maidensville to the property vacated by Frank Keefe, at about 10 o'clock, on Monday, by being upsetting upon him.

Rural Free Delivery is growing in popularity. Agent Hathaway visited this office on Tuesday, while on a tour of the county, in order to ascertain the people's needs, that he may make the system still more perfect. He is well pleased with the success of the service. Our newly appointed postmaster, N. Englar, has made some convenient changes in the carrier department of his office, in order to facilitate the work of Nos. 14 and 15, on whose routes this place is an important point.

O. H. Crumbacker has made and put up at his residence a safety mail box that is very ingeniously arranged; by raising the lid a pair of gates are closed, on which mail is deposited, the dropping of the lid opens the gates and the contents are deposited into the lower chamber that is only accessible through a door that is controlled by lock and key.

"Who's That Coming Over?"

"Why that's Mr. Dirty." "Briber! who's na?" "Why the Washing Machine Agent, don't you know that? He's got the best machine and the cheapest on the market and sells them cheap too. Don't you want to try one? Every good sensible housekeeper has one nowadays." "Well, maybe I had better get one; I want to be counted up-to-date. Bring them in."
