The Sun's reports from all parts of the United States are unsurpassed.

The Sun's Cable Service is the finest known; the troubles in the Philippines and in South Africa demand competent correspondents and vast expenditure of money and labor in getting the news. When you get the Sun you get news and intelligent presentation of facts with it, as well as carefully prepared articles of editorial writers of highest standing. When you read a daily paper whose principal recommendation is cheapness, you get the dregs—generally very poor dregs at that.

Dandelion.

There's a dandy little fellow
Who dresses all in yellow—
In yellow, with an overcoat of green; With his hair all crisp and curly, In the springtime bright and early, A-tripping o'er the meadow he is seen. Through all the bright June weather,

Like a jolly little tramp,
He wanders o'er the hillside, down the road;
Around his yellow feather

The gypsy fireflies camp;

His companions are the wood lark and the toad.

Spick and spandy, little dandy,

Golden dancer in the dell1

Green and yellow, happy fellow,

All the little children love him well!

But at last this little fellow Doffs his dandy coat of yellow

And very feebly totters o'er the green,
For he very old is growing,
And with hair all white and flowing

A-nodding in the sunlight he is seen.
The little winds of morning

Come affine through the grass

Come a-flying through the grass
And clap their hands around him in their glee;
They shake him without warning; His wig falls off, alas,
And a little baldhead dandy now is he.
Oh, poor dandy, once so spandy,
Golden dancer on the lea! Older growing, white hair flowing,
Poor little baldhead dandy now is he!
