Over a thousand persons were in attendance. The funeral services were in charge of Elder Ephraim W. Stoner, who preached the funeral oration. He was assisted by Elders Jeremiah Brown and Abraham Snader, of the New Windsor circuit. Many prominent Carroll county officials were present.

Senator Wellington and William Jennings Bryan will speak in the Academy of Music, Cumberland, next Tuesday night, from the same stage. The meeting has been arranged by the Democratic State Central Committee. While it has been generally known that the Senator would not support the republican ticket this fall, he has been accredited so many peculiar statements since the Kansas City Convention as to lead many to suppose that he had not fully settled his own mind just how strong he would be when the issue came for stump-speaking

"SPARTACUS."

The Author's Story of How He Came to Write It. A writer in the Lewiston Journal who interviewed Rev. Elijah Kellogg

When asked if he had written any declamations besides "Spartacus to the Gladiators." "Regulus to the Carthaginians," "Virginius to the Roman Army" and "Pericles to the People," he replied that he had written "Icilius," but that it had never been published. Then he asked the writer if he had ever heard how "Spartacus" came to be written, and when told that he had Like the distant sail on t never heard an authentic statement concerning it Mr. Kellogg said:
