To Linwood Correspondent.

I want to thank our valued Linwood correspondent for the remark, that, "Every now and then our Editor comes forward with an exceptionally good editorial." The word "exceptionally," I presume, saves the compliment from being doubtful. I also want to thank him for at least his interest, as a critic, in Home Circle, and to assure him, and all, that the big advertisement was only accepted after very mature consideration, and that we have no thought of "selling out" to the advertisers, even though it might profit us, and especially is this true of the outside pages of the paper.

As for the Home Circle, we have reserved this page, at considerable pecuniary loss, for a long while, hoping that it could become generally used for the purpose intended. The time has come when it did not seem advisable—when it did not seem good business—for the sake of sentiment, and things hoped for, to let a good contract go by, hence, the contract is ours. After all, we may have plenty of room for contributors. Let us see—

An Interesting Letter.

Dear Aunt Polly: I enjoyed your letter in the Record very much. I could see the caves you speak of. At La Jolla (La Hoya) there are many caves, but they can only be visited at low tide, and one must come out again before the tide turns. Mrs. Thorpe has written a pretty story about the cave called the White Lady of La Jolla. The opening of the cave is shaped like a bride arrayed in white and a long chain and wreath of orange blossoms on her head. Long, long ago, the story says, before San Diego was a city, a handsome young couple came there to spend their honeymoon. They were so different from the people who lived there, they attracted much attention. One day the keeper of the inn where they stopped, drove them to La Jolla. While they explored the caves, hunted for shells, the keeper of the inn unbolted the horses and led them. After eating his own lunch he smoked his pipe in the shade of a shrub, till he fell asleep. The sun was setting when he awoke but nowhere could he find the bride couple. He searched for awhile and then drove back to San Diego alone. Next day the inhabitants turned out to hunt for them but could not find them. In one of their trunks they found a letter from the lady's brother and the sad story was then written to him. After a time he came to San Diego. He went to La Jolla to search for them himself. After a time he stumbled upon this cave with the strange

A Hint to the Boys.

(For the Home Circle) It is to be presumed that young folks are much the same, now as when we were young, and that the young men will seek the society of the girls many very pleasant hours are spent in driving. But, boys, if your lady never asks or suggests going to church when you call, you had better beware of her. It is well for you to notice some of her preferences, and if she is all wrapped up in the gay frivolities of this life, she may not make a very good plain, every day companion. That you could depend upon, if trouble ever came your way. She might mend her ways and settle down all right, but there is a risk to run. I can not writing this for the girls, and they need not read it, but, if I were, I would say to them, that they need not complain in any way of their husbands object to attending church, if they never take them there in their single days. That is the time when she could exert a good influence on her. If she neglects it now, let her take all the consequences. There is often a complaint made that men do not attend our city churches in proportion to the number of women. The fact is, they have not been trained to it in their youth may be one cause. There are so many other things to attract the young man, that they are apt to neglect his important one.

Do not be in a hurry to marry. So many marry in haste to repent at leisure. It is a very serious matter and should be well considered. A young man who was lately married, gets homesick when he is at his wife's home, and so does she, when at his home. So what is to be done for the poor young things. I cannot tell; marriage is said to be a lottery, and many draw blanks. Still, there are many happy homes. Let us be thankful for them, and pray for more in years to come.

Just Saved His Life.

It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis Bowen, lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of consumption. Then he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and lately wrote, "It gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Such wonderful cures have for 25 years, proved it's power to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at R. S. McKinney's drug store.

Poultry in Early Winter.

Make a thorough housecleaning in the poultry yard before winter is upon us. Then with the chickens housed warmly and in clean, sanitary buildings there will be less disease than usual. The cleaning must be extensive and thorough. It must begin in the yard, and all sorts of old rotting rubbish that the chickens refused to eat should be raked up and burned. Use the greatest purifier, and every old board coop that is so dirty that water cannot cleanse it, should be thrown on the fire. Burn thoroughly. The rubbish and excrement around the yard. They will help to sweeten the soil. A little charcoal mixed with the soil at any time of the year is always beneficial, but if we mix wood ashes with it the same results will be obtained. The next cleanser is water, followed by whitewash and a little carbolic acid. Turn the hose on the poultry yard until the boards are bleached white and every particle of dirt has been washed away. It may be necessary to clean up the dirt with a knife or hoe. Everything must be cleaned, no matter what happens. Then you have a good foundation for white washing. Mix the whitewash strong enough to do some good. Weak water with a little coloring of lime will do

No good.

It should be strong enough to purify and cleanse and disinfect the whole place. Add to the white wash some carbolic acid. That will kill all lice and vermin in the place and keep others from coming there. It is well to wash the girls' many very pleasant hours are spent in driving. But, boys, if your lady never asks or suggests going to church when you call, you had better beware of her. It is well for you to notice some of her preferences, and if she is all wrapped up in the gay frivolities of this life, she may not make a very good plain, every day companion.

A Keen Clear Brain.

Your best feelings, your social position or business success depend largely on the perfect action of your Stomach and Liver. Dr. King's New Life Pills give increased strength, a keen, clear brain, high ambition. A 25 cent box will make you feel like a new being. Sold by R. S. McKinney Drug-gist.

Letter Writing.

Business letters must be concise and clear, because people are supposed to be busy. No letter is complete without the date.

In writing to solicit employment of any kind, on no account should personal perplexities or needs be mentioned. The world is full of unfortunate people, but to a stranger the troubles of one are no more than those of a host of others.

Letters of Introduction are left open when written.

Elaborately ornamented note paper, as well as highly perfumed notes, are vulgar.

When answering letters remember:

That written words stand as everlasting witnesses. That an ambiguous sentence is likely to be misinterpreted.

That friendly words never harm.

That a written word of sympathy can sometimes do much good.

That a letter written in a kindly spirit should be answered in the same way, even though the message is disliked.

That business letters and invitations must be answered at once.

That one should acknowledge any friendly offer or hospitality, even though it be not accepted.

Too Much Salt.

The whole tendency among consumers is toward fresher butter. In England and on the continent butter made from cream is sold in its natural, fresh and white, says The American Agriculturist. In the best restaurants and hotels in the larger cities of this country the butter contains very little salt. A great number of Americans who go abroad, or who patronize city hotels and restaurants in this country, are acquiring the taste for fresh butter. The fancy dairies that command extravagant prices put out a product that is almost fresh. Creameries that are catering to the highest class grocers and the best family trade now use only half as much salt as they did five or ten years ago.

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

Save the old bones and plant them near the grapevines. It is rarely advisable to plow the orchard late in the fall.

New land is considered as best adapted to the growth of berries. In setting out raspberry plants if there is plenty of plants it is not a bad plan to set three or four in each hill.

Apple trees, one year old, if properly grown are the right size for grafting. Take up and put them away in damp earth in the cellar.

Above all fertilizers, potash stands first for fruits. While mixed fertilizers should be used, potash is more essential than anything else.

Apples and pears are considered to have reached maturity and are ready to gather when they will separate from the tree without pulling.

In storing away beets, carrots, turnips and winter radishes put them in boxes or barrels, in layers of soil, filling the soil in between them—St. Louis Republic.

HAVE YOU RHEUMATISM?

Three thousand prominent physicians say "Drink Tredyffrin Water for it" Also absolutely cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and all Uric Acid and Kidney Troubles.

TRY IT AND IT WILL DO YOU GOOD.

Pity and Beauty

The most beautiful thing in the world is the baby, all dimples and joy. The most pitiful thing is that same baby, thin and in pain. And the mother does not know that a little fat makes all the difference.

Dimples and joy have gone, and left hollows and fear; the fat, that was comfort and color and curve—all but pity and love—is gone.

The little one gets no fat from her food. There is something wrong; it is either her food or food-milk. She has had no fat for weeks; is living on what she had stored in that plump little body of hers; and that is gone. She is starving for fat; it is death, be quick!

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the fat she can take; it will save her.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, N. Y. 409 Pearl St. 50c. and $1.00 at all druggists.
