The subject of an educational qualification in connection with the right of suffrage, will undoubtedly be one of the leading issues before the next session of the legislature of our state. It is a question of double significance because it will be considered both as a political manoeuvre and as a proper safeguard to the ballot. Like most other important measures it is one in which politics should cut no figure,

people. At best, our laws are compromises. When we need legislation on any subject which affects the distribution of offices, the levying of taxes, the regua law-making body can do is to come of the bills which become laws are so | t full of amendments and equivocal expressions that they are practically

Bargains lieve, however, in any jugglery with high sounding patriotic expressions, merely as a veneer to political trickery nor in any law which will set up any privileged class on account of race or color. Let the act be strictly honest, without any drastic features and simple to comply with. Any attempt, we think, to disfranchise present voters, on account of inability to read or write, would not fail to do injustice to many good citizens of all parties; and, the effort to preserve the right to some, and not to all, would be the # Best Table Oilcloth.

5000 yards or more of this fine Table Oilcloth, full yard and a quarter wide, 120 in dozens of splendid patterns all worth and sold always for 20c yd, this week it is here at only 12½ c yd.

Beautiful Brooch Pins.

Several hundred of them, all worth 35c to 50c; every one less than half price; the styles are the newest and most unique out; also a number of stylish Waist Sets and Stick Pins at one price, 17c.

One hundred dozen all pure Linen Napkins; will be sold to-day at one cent each. This is not onefifth their value; the usual price is 60c to 75c dozen—here to-day at Ic each.

About a Thousand yards of good 6c Domet or Shaker Flannel; 30 inches wide and unquestionably the best bargain ever sold for so small a price. Come get what you need, while this lot lasts, at 2c

Five hundred rolls of best New York Mills toilet paper will be sold to-day at 3c roll; the regular price is 10c; it has been sold as a bargain for 7c, but never so low as now, 3c roll.

For one week only, we shall sell our best Columbia Zephyr at 4c lap for all shades; this price is less than it can be bought for from the manufacturer—the regular price is nearly double what we ask-now 4c lap.

5c.

Six gross of Le 'doynes finest shoe dressing, at just half price; the regular price of this polish is 10c box, and it is by all means the best made for Men's or Women's Shoes, for either Black or Tan Shoes, at only 5c box.

Fifty dozen all linen towels, with pretty borders—either fringed or hemmed. This is really a wonderful offer; these towels are 18x36 inches, and every thread linen—their actual value is 12½c each, but until they are sold we say, 6c each.

Hose for ladies; made of fine gauge cloth-they are seconds of our regular 15c Hose, but because some have little imperfections, we sell them to day for 7c pair.

About a thousand yards of brown twill flannel, 30 inches wide and half wool goods-actually worth 18c or 20c yd. At this insignificant price, the lot will not last long; remember 8c yd.

APPLIQUE SCARFS AND SHAMS For Half or Less.

We have divided our entire stock of Fine Applique and Open Work Shams, Scarfs and Stand Covers, into three lots, and will close them out at the following prices.

Lot 1, Values up to 40c at 15c. Lot 2, Values up to $1.25 at 59c. Lot 3, Values up to $2.00 at 97c.

FACTS ABOUT DOLLS.

CAUSE OF THE ORIGIN OF THE WAX AND CHINA VARIETIES.

They Were First Used to Show Off Models of Costly Dresses and In the Seventeenth Century Were What

The origin of the word doll is curious. Centuries ago, when saints' names were much in vogue for children, St. Dorothea was the most popular, and her name the best and luckiest that could be given to a little girl. The nickname was Dolly, or Doll, and from easy step to pass it on to the little Come and See Usgiving babies the nickname it was an

The wax and china doll originated in the middle of the seventeenth century. There were no fashion papers as now, and in order to show what was being worn on the continent dolls were beautifully and expensively dressed and sent to the various European countries, and from the model orders were taken. The dolls, to show off their costly garb, must be made of more precious stuff than wood, so wax and china and even ivory ones were made.
