

NOTES HERE AND THERE.

Brief Items of General Interest from Correspondents and Other Sources.

The Record is indebted to F. McC. Brown, formerly of Littleton, Ga., for a handsomely illustrated souvenir directory of that city, issued by the Board of Trade.

The Emmitsburg Railroad Company, which in January last declared a two per cent dividend on its present capital of $50,000, will declare another dividend of one per cent on July 1, making a dividend of three per cent for the year.

Miss Annie L. Forrest, of Littleton, a sister of Emory H. Forrest, of Gettysburg, has been appointed a missionary to Japan, where she was a missionary previously for five years. In case she accepts the appointment, she will sail for Japan next fall.

Rev. Dr. Samuel B. Barnitz, formerly of York, Pa., died in Des Moines, Iowa, on Friday last. He was born in York in 1838 and was educated at Gettysburg. In 1882 Dr. Barnitz was elected Western secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the General Synod of the Lutheran church, filling that position until his death.

Rev. George W. Enders, pastor of the Lutheran church, of York, Pa., has been elected president of Susquehanna University, Selins Grove. This position has been offered to Dr. Enders several times, and at last he succumbed to the pressure. He will remain at York for another year, filling both positions during that time.

Pen-Mar opened on June 19th, for the season this year. It was falling on Army day. This famous resort never appeared more beautiful, and the outlook is for a very successful season. The Blue Bird press will make its first run on Saturday, leaving Baltimore at 3.32 p. m. It will thereafter run daily, except Sunday, during the Pen-Mar season.

A man named J. C. McAllister, of Camden, N. J., called at the White House, on Wednesday, and asked to see the President. He was subsequently arrested and found to be armed with a revolver with which he said he wanted to kill a mesmerist who had alienated the affections of his lady love. His mental condition will be examined.

The will of Francis D. Sanford, the painter who was killed by a train from the First National Bank, Westminster, has been admitted to probate. All his property is devised to his nephew, Charles M. Sanford, 224 M street, and to his niece, Mrs. Louise Serries, 2612 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C., share and share alike. The estate consists of $17,700 in stocks and bonds, $19,070 in real estate and personal property, $1,179.88 in bank and $540 in uncollected bills.

The Naval Affairs Committee of the United States Senate has authorized a favorable report upon Senator McComas' bill giving Admiral Schley the full pay of a Rear Admiral on the active list, and on the retired list he now receives only three-fourths the pay of a Rear Admiral on the active list. The bill was amended by the committee to eliminate the preamble reciting that the Admiral was in absolute command of the American forces at the time of his collision with the Spanish fleet off Santiago.

Mrs. Louisa Stewart, of Jacksonville, Fla., was found dead Monday afternoon in the bathroom at the home of her sister, Mrs. Perry, in New Windsor. Mrs. Stewart had gone to the bathroom to wash her face some time after dark. Mrs. Perry's little niece, who was lying partly in the bathtub, with one hand in the water, is supposed to have been the object over the tub to see if the water was of the proper temperature and that she was stricken with heart failure while she was looking into the water. The cause of death was a shock produced by the Jacksonville fire.

Anti-saloon League Meeting. Rev. S. E. Nicholson, of Baltimore, President of the Anti-saloon League of Maryland, delivered an address in the Reformed church, Taneytown, on Wednesday night, in which he clearly and eloquently set forth the objects of his organization, which he described as interdenominational and inter-political, a combination of good citizens on the question of the domination of righteousness over iniquity of home, society and the church, against the liquor traffic and consequent evil.

The Anti-saloon League has a state organization in thirty-six states and works along practical lines. It assumes that all government is, or ought to be, of divine origin, and ordained of God; that the good people of the land are in the majority and can win on all questions of reform if they will but organize, not as a third party, but as followers of Christ; that when agitation and co-operation result in the marshaling of the forces of the church, the saloon question will be solved.

As the church is not fully constituted to do this work, the Anti-saloon League has been formed, chiefly to do active field work, and to meet, face to face, the organizations of the liquor interests. As the interests of the public exceed the interests of individuals, it is claimed that no man has a right to do that which is wrong, especially through some form of law or custom, in injury of the home and society. The League believes in the application of the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

It aims—aside from partysim—to work for the domination of public affairs by the purpose of utilizing the drinking men, or those interested in the liquor traffic, shall not receive nominations, but when they do receive them, they will be defeated. It aims to do the work of the church, the saloon question will be solved.

As the church is not fully constituted to do this work, the Anti-saloon League has been formed, chiefly to do active field work, and to meet, face to face, the organizations of the liquor interests. As the interests of the public exceed the interests of individuals, it is claimed that no man has a right to do that which is wrong, especially through some form of law or custom, in injury of the home and society. The League believes in the application of the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

It aims—aside from partysim—to work for the domination of public affairs by the purpose of utilizing the drinking men, or those interested in the liquor traffic, shall not receive nominations, but when they do receive them, they will be defeated. It aims to do the work of the church, the saloon question will be solved.

As the church is not fully constituted to do this work, the Anti-saloon League has been formed, chiefly to do active field work, and to meet, face to face, the organizations of the liquor interests. As the interests of the public exceed the interests of individuals, it is claimed that no man has a right to do that which is wrong, especially through some form of law or custom, in injury of the home and society. The League believes in the application of the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

It aims—aside from partysim—to work for the domination of public affairs by the purpose of utilizing the drinking men, or those interested in the liquor traffic, shall not receive nominations, but when they do receive them, they will be defeated. It aims to do the work of the church, the saloon question will be solved.

As the church is not fully constituted to do this work, the Anti-saloon League has been formed, chiefly to do active field work, and to meet, face to face, the organizations of the liquor interests. As the interests of the public exceed the interests of individuals, it is claimed that no man has a right to do that which is wrong, especially through some form of law or custom, in injury of the home and society. The League believes in the application of the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

It aims—aside from partysim—to work for the domination of public affairs by the purpose of utilizing the drinking men, or those interested in the liquor traffic, shall not receive nominations, but when they do receive them, they will be defeated. It aims to do the work of the church, the saloon question will be solved.

As the church is not fully constituted to do this work, the Anti-saloon League has been formed, chiefly to do active field work, and to meet, face to face, the organizations of the liquor interests. As the interests of the public exceed the interests of individuals, it is claimed that no man has a right to do that which is wrong, especially through some form of law or custom, in injury of the home and society. The League believes in the application of the principle of "the greatest good to the greatest number."

Insurance Rates and Gasoline.

The following rates, applying to all Insurance Companies of the capital stock class doing business in Carroll County, were adopted May 30, 1902, and, on all policies hereafter issued, the extra charges named must be paid for permission to use or sell gasoline.

When gasoline is used in dwellings, for heat, an additional charge of 40c for each $100. of insurance shall be paid on annual policies, and 20c for each $100. of insurance when policy is for three years.

When used in buildings other than dwellings, an additional charge of 25c per $100. of insurance shall be made to the annual rate.

When gasoline, benzine or naphtha is kept for sale in any drug, hardware or other store, in a quantity of five to ten gallons, an additional charge of 25c per $100. of insurance is made to the annual rate. Over ten gallons and under twenty gallons, the additional charge is 40c on each $100. of insurance. When over twenty gallons, no permit will be granted.

The following charges for the use of gasoline for lighting purposes have been in force for some time: Vapor lamps, such as are approved, when used in dwellings, 40c per $100. of insurance; when used in stores or other buildings, 25c per $100. of insurance, in addition to annual rate.

All persons using selling gasoline, who have no permit, for a secured permit, are doing so at their own risk, especially should a fire directly result from the fluid. Owners of buildings used for the purpose of selling gasoline, who do not use gasoline, and thus invalidate the policy on the buildings.

REID-CURRENTS.

On Wednesday morning, shortly before 7 o'clock, the Lutheran church of Taneytown was the scene of a falling in for quite a large number of persons, the attraction being the marriage of Miss Margaret E. Currens, of Taneytown, to Mr. Milton D. Reid, of New Windsor.

Promptly at the hour named the bridal party appeared. The bride, unattended, was ushered up the left aisle by her cousin, Messrs. Charles W. Forrest and Stanley C. Reaver, while the groom, ushered by his brothers, Messrs. James A. and Carl H. Reid, proceeded up the right aisle. The couple met at the altar where the bride's pastor, Rev. C. A. Britt, was in waiting, and the solemn rites of matrimony were promptly and impressively pronounced.

The bride looked her best in a neat traveling gown of castor cloth, with hat and gloves to match. She carried a large bunch of white carnations, and a dainty bouquet bound in white, which contained the marriage certificate.

Before the ceremony Miss Elizabeth S. Reinholdt, to the delight of the waiting company, played several selections on the pipe organ, and when the bridal party appeared executed in her best style Wagner's wedding march from Lohengrin. During the ceremony an appropriate address was read by the pastor, Mr. H. H. Giddens, who wedded the couple and attendants led to the church.

The church was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and roses. This had been done in honor of the occasion by a special committee from the Lutheran church of Taneytown, the bride has long been an active and earnest member.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Reid left for a brief trip to Atlantic City. On their return they will reside at New Windsor, where Mr. Reid is successfully engaged in the mercantile business.

The good wishes of a host of friends will accompany the newly married pair into their new home, all hoping that the happy conjunction of the bride and groom will result in a large and happy family.

ORPHANS' COURT PROCEEDINGS.

MONDAY, June 16th, 1902.—Letters of administration on the estate of Lloyd Sellman, deceased, granted unto Harry W. Yost, who received order to notify creditors.

John Milton Reinsider, administrator of Sarah N. Heagy, deceased, received order to sell personal property.

Francis D. Sanford, deceased, returned inventories of personal property, debts and money received order to sell real estate.

Grove J. Shipley and George E. Benson, administrators of John Wood, deceased, settled first and final accounts.

Auxiliary letters testamentary on the estate of Philip J. Yoost, granted to Frederick W. Yoost, who received order to notify creditors and sell real estate.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

Reverdy N. Snader, administrator of the estate of Annie L. Petty, who received order to notify creditors.

MILTON ACADEMY.

Commencement Exercises of this Excellent Educational Institution.

The annual commencement exercises of Milton Academy were held on Monday evening, the program being interesting and excellently rendered. A large number of friends and patrons of the school were present, and the results of the year's work fully measure up to those of previous years, which means that there are but few real reasons why our boys and girls should be sent away from Taneytown, even for higher education. The following is the program:

Musical—"The Old Maple Tree." Solo—Miss Julia Moler. Address of Welcome—Prof. Henry Meier. Prayers—Rev. Jas. Cattanan. Recitation—"Das Saenger's Lied." (The Minister's Caravan, by Miss Virginia Garner, English, by recitation.)

An Old Fashioned Homestead—How to spend Vacation. Recitation—"How to spend Vacation." Wallace Heindollar. Recitation—"How to spend Vacation." Wallace Heindollar.

Duet—"Miss Nellie Fringer and Marian Deane—Have the United States the right to annex the Philippines?" Chas. Withrow, At. Clarence Naill, Neg. Seven Juniors. Recitation—"The Resources of Maryland." H. Clay Jagers.

"Maryland my Maryland." H. Clay Jagers. Singing—"Beautiful Home." School. Essay—"Boundaries of the U. S." Miss Olive Puss. Essay—"How can I make the world better?" Harry Heindollar. School. German Song—"Aunt Betty's Journey." Ellen Crapner. Miss Reinholdt, Nellie Fringer. School. The 23rd Century Woman. Miss Vallie Garner.

Following the program came the distribution of prizes for the year. Medals for department and attendance; Misses Nellie Fringer, Grace Martin, Mary Reinholdt, Theodore Meier and Mr. Willie Newman. Medal for scholarship, highest general average; Miss Elmore Birnie. Medal for scholarship and application; Miss Nellie Fringer.

Diplomas Misses Eliza Birnie and Vallie Garner; Messrs. Harry Reinholdt, Clarence Naill and Willie Newman. On Tuesday evening a very enjoyable reunion of students—both past and present—was held, at which refreshments were served and a program of general hilarity and good fellowship indulged in. The following former graduates, in addition to the present classes, were present: Messrs. H. H. Giddens, Giddens, Merryman, David Seibert, Charles H. Evans, Charles A. Slagle, C. A. Cunningham and Mr. Monroe.

Baker—Weybright. (For the Record.) Judge Page of the Court of Appeals delivered the decision in the case of the Gettysburg National Bank against Ezra C. Brown. This opinion rendered by the judgment of the Circuit Court for Carroll county and is one of the cases growing out of the collapse of the Milk Producers' Association, which was organized by the late George S. Saylor and Miss Jennie Weybright, Master Roger Weybright and Miss Gertrude Rowland, and Miss Jessie Hahn, of Philadelphia, accompanied by Messrs. J. K. Koles and John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

Agricultural College Trustees.

College Park, Md., June 13.—The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the Maryland Agricultural College was held in the college building today.

The entire faculty and all the assistants of last year were re-elected at the same salaries, with one exception. James S. Robinson, Professor of Horticulture and Botany, had his salary cut to $750, one-half of what it was last year, and E. P. Sandsten was elected as Mr. Robinson's associate with salary raised to $1,500.

Messrs. Stanley, Calvert, Evans, President Silvester and Dr. Joseph R. Owens were appointed to consider the question of getting a better water supply for drinking purposes. The committee on grounds, Mr. Councilman chairman, was authorized to select sites for the new buildings.

The Governor and Controller of the State and the president and treasurer of the college were added to this committee.

Dr. W. W. Silvester was authorized to employ someone to take his place as Professor of Mathematics when he was absent from the college. Director of the State Normal School, Dr. J. W. Taylor, was authorized to spend the State appropriation for renovating the experiment station and to make preparation for future work at the station at county fairs in the State.

It was ordered that the degree of Bachelor of Science be conferred on Henry Holzapfel, Mayor of Frederick, Md., and G. G. Towers, of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, both of the class of 1893, who were dismissed unjustly by President Henry E. Meyer. It was ordered that buildings be erected during the coming year except those already provided for by act of the Assembly, and that the same be determined.

Harry S. Cummings and Frank T. Lea, of Baltimore, asked the board to pay to the eastern branch of the college, at Princess Anne, Md., for the establishment of colored agricultural industrial school, in Annapolis and Montgomery counties. Action was deferred till October next. Action on the suggestion that the classical course be abandoned in the college was deferred until they were able to get more.

We see no good reason why a farmer's business should not be sufficient to support a family and to enable him to engage in other business. We are not one of those who believe that a farmer can be successful, financially, by cultivating a large tract of land, and that the farm, but that he must have the practical side as well.

The most of the Professors at the Agricultural College are doing all possible exertion toward acquainting themselves with the wants of the people throughout the State, in their practical and important work. The members of the board present were: Murray Vandiver, Allen Dodge Charles Baltimore Calvert, Charles H. Evans, Charles A. Slagle, C. A. Cunningham, David Seibert, Charles H. Evans, Charles A. Slagle, C. A. Cunningham and Mr. Monroe.

Baker—Weybright. (For the Record.) Judge Page of the Court of Appeals delivered the decision in the case of the Gettysburg National Bank against Ezra C. Brown. This opinion rendered by the judgment of the Circuit Court for Carroll county and is one of the cases growing out of the collapse of the Milk Producers' Association, which was organized by the late George S. Saylor and Miss Jennie Weybright, Master Roger Weybright and Miss Gertrude Rowland, and Miss Jessie Hahn, of Philadelphia, accompanied by Messrs. J. K. Koles and John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

COLLEGE PARK NOTES.

Items of Special Interest to our many Farm-Readers.

The closing of our school here has made quite a change. Before commencement we had one round of excitement after another. We had the meeting of the Farmers' organizations of the State, the Maryland Agricultural Club, both of which were successful meetings and largely attended. All the exercises during commencement week were well attended, and the success in every respect. The baccalaureate sermon, delivered on Sunday, by Dr. Prentiss, of Washington, D. C., son of Prof. Pearyman, of the Md. State Normal School, was especially fine. The address of U. S. Senator Money, of Mississippi, was one of the best we ever heard. His address was delivered on commencement day. There were ten graduates in the regular four years course, and four in the two year Agricultural course. The latter have made up their minds to return and complete a four years course.

The interest in agricultural work is increasing. The farmers, who, this year, were the majority of the graduates, are beginning to see that agriculture should be pushed to the front, with the result that a large proportion of the students are taking short winter courses. This year the same association recommended that the classical course be abandoned. Their reason for this was that the short winter course, which is taken for as much of the teachers time as forty students in the agricultural course, is more profitable to the State.

In the reports of the President and Faculty of the College, the statement was made that ninety per cent of the graduates are going to the farm. This may all be true, but we were to ask the question, How many of them return to the farm after leaving the college? The answer would be, as far as we can see, the Faculty have gone as far as they can in encouraging the farmers in the way of getting an agricultural education. The farmer will have to meet them half way. We believe that this could be best accomplished by their sons and others taking a short winter course until they were able to get more.

We see no good reason why a farmer's business should not be sufficient to support a family and to enable him to engage in other business. We are not one of those who believe that a farmer can be successful, financially, by cultivating a large tract of land, and that the farm, but that he must have the practical side as well.

The most of the Professors at the Agricultural College are doing all possible exertion toward acquainting themselves with the wants of the people throughout the State, in their practical and important work. The members of the board present were: Murray Vandiver, Allen Dodge Charles Baltimore Calvert, Charles H. Evans, Charles A. Slagle, C. A. Cunningham, David Seibert, Charles H. Evans, Charles A. Slagle, C. A. Cunningham and Mr. Monroe.

Baker—Weybright. (For the Record.) Judge Page of the Court of Appeals delivered the decision in the case of the Gettysburg National Bank against Ezra C. Brown. This opinion rendered by the judgment of the Circuit Court for Carroll county and is one of the cases growing out of the collapse of the Milk Producers' Association, which was organized by the late George S. Saylor and Miss Jennie Weybright, Master Roger Weybright and Miss Gertrude Rowland, and Miss Jessie Hahn, of Philadelphia, accompanied by Messrs. J. K. Koles and John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

The bride was Miss Gertrude Rowland, of Hagerstown, and the groom was Mr. John Weybright, near Double Pipe Creek, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at high noon, Wednesday, 18th.

Burglar Probably Captured.

A man giving his name as Charles Adams, of small stature and blind in one eye, was arrested in Frederick on last Friday evening, charged with having burglar's tools in his possession, and on his person a quantity of diamonds, rubies, and a watch, which latter being in a rubber water bag on the inside of his vest.