Final Crop Bulletin.

Rain is now needed again throughout the Section for the best conditions in seeding fall grain. In Western Maryland the drouth remains unbroken, pas-tures have failed almost completely, water is very low, and it has become necessary to begin to feed stock. Elsewhere pastures have improved considerably since the last report and grazing is good. The current work of seeding and cutting corn made rapid progress during the week, though it was retarded somewhat locally by scarcity of labor.

Wheat seeding is well advanced generally and will probably be mostly completed during the ensuing week, except on corn ground. In the northern coun ties about one-half the corn is in shock. Considerable corn ground will have to be plowed for wheat because of the heavy growth of grass in the fields, and seeding will be rather late on this acount. On account of dry weather but little plowing or seeding has been done in Allegany county. The wheat seeded has been under quite favorable conditions as to soil and weather, and early sown grain is doing well.

STATE CAMPAIGN OPEN.

Democrats and Republicans to Pursue Vigorous Methods.

The democratic Campaign in Maryland pened with a monster mass-meeting at the Lyric theatre, Baltimore, on Tuesday ight, and the battle for the state is now on in earnest. For nearly three hours a great throng of unterrified, sturdy, cheering Demo-crats listened to the ringing denunciations of Republican policies, platform and candidates, uttered by such distinguished orators as Senator-elect Isidor Rayner, Gov. Edwin Warfield and Senator Charles A. Culberson, of Texas. The vast gathering was thoroughly representative of the best citizenship of the State, and every nook and corner of the big building was occupied. In the galleries and the boxes were hundreds of ladies, who were not the least enthusiastic part of the audience, while upon the stage were men from nearly every walk of life and representatives of every Prof. H. B. McDonnell, of the Maryland Agricultural College, who is state chemist, was before Justice Grannan, as the Central Police Station, on Thursday, and endeavored to swear out warrants for the arrests of 11 of the larger fertilizer dealers of Baltimore, stating that not any of them had a license to carry on the business. The Magistrate asked the chemist if he was positive about what he said, and the state's officer replied that the books of the Comptroller furnished him with his information, and that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, the information was correct. The Magistrate then discovered that Professor McDonnell had only the names of the firm, and he told the chemist that he thought some responsible party, such as the president or general manager of each concern, was the proper person to issue the warrant for, as the whole company could not be arrested.

Professor DcDonnell stated that he then wanted to know if the members of | dered; the firm could not be arrested and ques- Scripture Reading, tioned as to whether or not they really had the necessary licenses. State Sunday School Convention.

The program for the fifty-fifth biennial convention of the Maryland State Sunday School Union has been issued and is day School Union has been issued and is replete with the topics of live subjects and addresses by active workers. The convention will be held in Grace Methodist Episcopal, Cummings Memorial and Lafayette Square Presbyterian churches, Baltimore, October 27 and 28, and it is confidently expected that fully 1000 delegates will be present.

gates will be present. The convention motto is given on the orogram as "Looking Forward," and it is explained to mean looking forward. into the community, into the church and Prominent among the out-of-town speakers who have been engaged to be present at the convention are Mr. W. C. Pearce, Chicago, Ill., International Teacher-Training Superintendent; Dr. Charles Gallaudet Trumbull, Philadelcharies Gallaudet Trumbull, Philadelphia, Pa., Editor-in-Chief of the Sunday School Times, and Mrs. J. Woodbridge Barnes, Newark, N. J., International Primary Superintendent. In addition to these, there will be prominent ministers and lay workers from different sections of the state together with general Science. of the state, together with county Sunday school officials. All of the speakers are specialists on the subjects which have been assigned to them, and will speak with authority and from a thorough knowledge of conditions.

Six sessions will be held, beginning Thursday morning, October 27, and con-tinuing until Friday night, three meetings a day. The sessions will be held morning, afternoon and evening with sufficient intervals for social intercourse and refreshments. It is intended that these services shall afford the Sunday school workers of Maryland considerable instruction and enthusiasm, and the results will readily show in the renewed nterest taken in each school in the state. It is hoped that the workers who attend he sessions will return to their schools and give them the benefit of the instruc-tion afforded by the convention, thus building up the Sunday school work all over the state. The delegates will be selected on the basis of the numerical strength of each school. Each school will be entitled to one delegate for every 100 pupils or frac-tion thereof, and each county will be entitled to two delegates, who shall be appointed by the county executive committee or county secretary. It is estimated that there are 250,000 pupils in National committee;

Secretary of War Taft; Speaker of the House of Representatives Cannon; Congressman Bede; the basis of representation the entire number of schools would be entitled to 2500 delegates. It will not be possible, however, to induce this number to attend the convention, although they could be cared for were they all to attend. It is also estimated that each delegate that attends the conventions represents 20 workers; thus, on the basis of 1000 expected delegates, putting the total number engaged in Sunday school work in Maryland at 20,000.

Jesse P. Garner, of Linwood, is Vice-President for this county. He hopes to make Carroll the banner county of the state in point of representation by sup-erintendents, teachers and delegates. He will gladly furnish further information.

Don't Worry--Wait.

The result of the election is not settled, by a long sight, nor are the minor details sure. What you hear on the subject depends on what you read, and what you read is "fixed" to suit the proclivities of the management of the papers. In one paper, New York is sure doubtedly for Roosevelt. Healing Herbs.

Owing to the rapid strides made by civilization in compounding drugs and putting them on the market in fancy forms, many a hard-earned dollar is paid out for medicines whose curative qualities are not one whit better than those contained in certain commonplace plants that can easily be collected and saved for emergency. Gathered when the blossoms are fully matured, but have not yet gone to seed, tied up in bunches and hung in a dark chamber until thoroughly dry, the leaves and bloom of catnip, boneset and pennyroyal can be cut off from the stems and packed in flour sacks so they will take up very little room. And in case of colds, ague or summer complaints, the first named is ost excellent; a bowl of catnip tea, in fact, is quieting and will induce sleep better than morphine, in that no bad effect rises from it, and there is no danger of taking an overdose. Nor is bon-ger of taking an overdose. Nor is bon-eset to be feared, except for its bitter-ness. Happily, however, this can be averted to a passable extent by pouring water over the blossoms and letting it stand a few hours before drinking, instead of boiling it as tea; whereupon, all that is required is to drink more of it And certainly any one should be willing to do that who had a bad breath, or be gins to feel sleepy and languid, when there has been no loss of sleep, for these are evidences that the liver is not perorming its functions properly, and if lisease has not already set in, a few doses of boneset tea are pretty sure to restore it to its normal state of activity. Tea made from pennyroyal has, on the strong and drunk as warm as possible will aid very much in producing a good sweat, if such is desired. For obtaining a blood purifier, equal to some of the best patent medicines, pour over a cup-ful of dandelion and burdock roots, cut up fine, a quart of water, and steep it down to a pint in quantity; then add a cupful of sugar and a wine glass of alcohol, to preserve the syrup. It is claimed that for curing coughs, and even sometimes consumption, the odorous coltsfoot cannot be surpassed, and in case of whooping cough, tea made from clover blossoms should be used in preference to anything else.

The leaves of the belladonna, or the well-known deadly nightshade, though extremely poisonous, are most highly recommended for relieving both asthma and consumption, if smoked; used in the form of a liniment, for reducing boils, and as a plaster for curing the cramps of cholera. Even the root of the blackberry, taken when the cholera is about, will work wonders in warding off that terri-ble disease. Wormwood and vinegar steeped together, everybody knows, or should know, are just the thing for a sprain or bruise in man or beast, and as was new, a root of it should be grown in

On the other hand, pairs No. 5, 6 and 7 are especially weak with low feeding value and small per cent of corn to cob. It will also be observed that these kernels are far from uniform in size and shape (compare Nos. 4, 2 and 6), and hence no planter will drop an even number per hill. Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. S. S. Ball, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says:—

A Birthday Surprise.

(For the RECORD.)

Last Thursday night brought a genuine surprise to the home of Jacob Wantz, near Foundain Valley, when his generous wife tendered him a delightful social in honor of his forty-seventh birthday. The event was skillfully planned, and when the husband, who was absent, arrived home, he found it invaded by quite a merry crowd.

The few hours resulted in much pleasure to both young and old. The former devoted their time to various games, while the latter, with the ald of lanterns, occupied the lawn in playing bingo, slap-tag, etc. Shortly after eleven o'clock, a tempting repast was served in the spacious kitchen, where napkins were laid for more than fifty. The appetites were unusually keen, and the edibles comprised cakes in abundance, bananas, confections, lemonade, peanuts etc.

Dress Goods.

Time always tells—if some woman doesn't tell first. Both will tell you that our Dress Goods are great bargains. A complete and dainty selection, which will tempt the most fastidious, with prices sifted down to the lowest notch.

Ladies' Jackets.

When the exclusive cloak houses produce a garment that's fetching or pretty, they see how much they can get for it. When we secure such a garment, we figure how little we can sell it for. Pick any garment from our stock, and you can be sure it is stylish, just as you can be sure that our price for it is the lowest,

Men's and Boys' Clothing.

The Cloth, the style, the fit, the trimming, the workmanship, all combined make it the equal of any popular Clothing made, while the price is far and away below what others ask you.

Blankets and Comforts.

Some people tell everything they know, and a lot more besides. We must be careful of our statements—they're in black and white. Think of Gray and Tan Blankets at 22c; they are here. We have them up to $6.00 per pair.

Rubber and Leather Shoes.

Where do you buy Shoes-here? If not, why not? Have you some doubt about our goods? Do the prices seem to be too low to be true? You may dislike to break in new shoes, but it is better than leaving old shoes break out.

Our Millinery Department.

We have engaged one of the best milliners Armstrong, Cator & Co., could find, not consulting the cost, as our Millinery business has been increasing, and our object is to get the front in this branch. With an entirely new stock of Ready-to-wear and Pattern Hats, and extremely low prices, we are sure to make this one of the busiest centers in this store. Shirt Waist Hats, 69c and up.
