Talk of an Extra Session. Democratic politicians, during this week, have been throwing out feelers as to the advisability of calling an extra session of the legislature in order to pass a more acceptable form of Constitution-al amendment for the purpose of limit-ing the voting franchise, and also to remedy the defects in the primary elec-tion law Apparently the second tion law. Apparently, the proposition does not arouse much support among politicians, and is distinctly opposed by those who take the tax-payers point of view.

There is reason to believe that the wing of the party controlled by Senator Gorman, and which dominated the Legislature in the passage of the Poe amend-ment, will not take the stubborn stand hat it did last winter and contend for the Poe plan and that only. The oppo-sition to the amendment which was passd by the House of Delegates and the Senate has become so pronounced and the danger to the Democratic party from its being pushed so grave that the most earnest of its advocates are staggered, and prophecies that they would simply

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 1. By REV. S. H. DOYLE.

Topic.-Our goals for 1905.-Phil. iii, 12-16. It is quite a common thing in these days for Christian people to have daily or World. Bible texts to guide and lead them for the day. If such a text be wanted for the first day of the year, no better can be found than these inspired words of Paul to the Philippians. Nor need we stop here with them, but can take them for a yearly text, to be applied each day of the year, or even a life text, for they would apply to the Christian's life from the start to the finish. Every Christian Endeavorer, therefore, could do nothing better than to commit them on the first day of 1905, if they are not already known, and then refer to them each day of the year as an inspiration to renewed energy both in his personal life and in his life of service in connection with the church and the society. A goal marks the end of an achieve-ment. The athletes in the Grecian games pressed toward the goal or mark. When they reached it, they no larger strave. There was nothing they no longer strove. There was nothing then to strive for. Hence if we seek goals for 1905 it is a confession that the ends And then if you show the least boldness of we strive for have not been attained. Paul made this confession before he placed his goal before him: "Not as But keep straight ahead, don't stop to exthough I had already attained or were already perfect, but I follow after." Paul knew nothing of the doctrine of | If threadbare you dress, or old-fashioned your perfection, nor should we be deceived by thinking that we can attain to it in And hint rather strongly you can't pay your by thinking that we can attain to it in way; this life. The one goal toward which the aposthe declares that he presses is "the mark of the high calling of God in For your mind, if you have one, will then be Christ Jesus." No more important goal Of course you will meet with all sorts of could be placed before us. It includes all other worthy goals. He who strives for the highest goal in life necessarily wins the lesser ones. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness. and all these things shall be added unto you.". The prize is eternal life in Jesus Christ. God on high calls us to it. Let us therefore press earnestly and constantly toward the goal where such a prize is the reward. Beside it the purely worldly goals sink into in-Under His leadership we cannot fail. "Let us therefore run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God."

'Tis God's all animating voice That calls thee from on high; 'Tis His own hand presents the prize To thine aspiring eye.

Family Reunion.

(For the RECORD.)
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Furney, near Taneytown, was the scene, on Thanksgiving day, of a very enfoyable reunion of their many friends. The day was spent in conversation and other social enjoyments, and in partaking of the many good things provided to please the palates of both old and young. In the afternoon, the participants in this interesting event were photographed by Mr. Edw. P. Zepp, of Taneytown.
Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Furney, Edward Furney, Laura Furney, Carrie Furney, Isabela Furney, Alfred Stonesifer and wife, Gordon Stonesifer, Russel Stonesifer, Bertha Stanesifer, Daniel Harman and wife, John Lawrence, of Harrisburg; Amos Zentz and wife, Win.
