The Mail Order Business.

The mail order business, especially with a few Chicago houses, has grown to immense proportions. There was a time when only the lighter merchandise was handled in this way, but in recent years the limit has been extended to everything imaginable, and, strange to say, people will buy articles costing from $10.00 to $100.00, simply from a picture and an attractively written description. Those who claim to have investigated thoroughly the class of merchandise handled by these houses, say they take all the "seconds" the factories have, and place immense special orders for light-

A recent article in the Leader-Dispatch, Piqua, Ohio, speaks particularly of the stove business of the Mail Order houses.

"It is on stoves or other articles in which there is much iron or steel that the mail order houses practice their greatest deception. They offer a stove that appears like a standard make $18 to $22 stove for $8. If they have a stove for $8 or $10 as good as the one the local dealer sells for $16 or $18, the latter would gladly buy them by the car load of Mr. Mail Order house. But they haven't. They have under-sized light weight, pot metal, make-shifts that a local dealer wouldn't dare to handle. The difference in weight between a firstclass hard coal burner, and a mail order burner said to be "just the same," is 215 pounds, which at 7 cents a pound, the price of outside castings, would make $17.05. Scrimping is done in the nickle parts that cost from 15 to 20 cents a pound. Then there is the difference in workmanship and material, the one party trying to make the very best goods that money and skill can produce and the other is trying to see how cheap he can turn out his goods. Mail order stoves are made in foun-dies where the moldeers suffer no dis-counts for poor castings. Once poured purposes for the stove maker that putty

Tom Watson, in his new magazine, says that the cost of the inauguration of President Roosevelt, public and private, wrought by the extraordinary industrial will approximate a million dollars, and that the "sober judgment of the judicious, throughout the country, would tical being. Never before have men tried so vast and formidable an experiment as have profoundly approved the course of that of administering the affairs of a Mr. Roosevelt had he put the curb on the snobs and the flunkies and the imitation courtiers who are about to distance of the condition which have told for our marvelous material tation courtiers who are about to dis- well-being, which have developed to a tinguish his inauguration by an excess of military display, ornamental frippery, etc." This is no doubt a very wise opinion, Mr. Watson, and in harmony with the President's strong indorsement of "The Simple Life," but it is exceedingly probable that the greater number would have given the "curb" act no great amount of approval, but it is exceedingly probable that the greater number would have given the "curb" act no great amount of approval, but its leave to make the welfare of mankind. If we fail, the cause of free self-government throughout the world will rock to its foundations; and therefore our responsibility is heaven to converge to the world.

This country is in no mood for returning to Jeffersonian simplicity, in matters of this kind, and while it is true that the cost of the demonstration might have been applied to charity, with much better results, it must be remembered that probably nine-tenths of the million represented purely private expenditure, freely made, which would not have gone to charitable objects, even had no inaugural display been made, and those who did not want to part with their cash staid at home.

It is worth noting that the profit left in the hands of the inaugural committee — which will amount to several thousands-will be given to the orphan have faith that we shall not prove false play, which, it must be confessed, borders on European "point of power," and which is the sound of power," and which in this country stands rather more as a demonstration of party tri-not such a small one after ali. Neither is the curtailment of Rural Delivery an impossible thing, for it must exist and grow, accordingly as Congress directs, which means that it sufficient pressure can be brought to bear on individual members of Congress, results will be accordingly.

On the whole, the practice of sending money to Smears & Sawbuck, or to any one of the picture book department stores, thus sending it so tar away that its future circulation in the neighborhood is positively precluded, is a very unwise and unprofitable one. The time s coming when the various interests of each community must stand together, or there will be wide-spread disaster. The motto, "United, we stand, divided, we fall" cannot be improved on. The privilege and independence of the individual which injures his neighbor, sooner or later will act to the loss of all, and in no field is this truth more clearly apparent than in the trade relations of a community, or section of country.

The Inaugural Address.

President Roosevelt's inaugural address was unusually short, but it was pointed, thoughtful and earnest. It lays special stress on the greatness of the duties of the hour—on the vast importance of the questions confronting our national life-and appeals to the patriotism of the country for the protection of our heritage. He said;

"My Fellow Citizens: No people earth have more cause to be thankful weight goods and the cheapest material than ours, and this is said reverently and ogists; ogrostologists and cerealists chas--for anything that is cheapened and in no spirit of boastfulness in our own ing all over the civilized and heathen of Good, who has blessed us with the conditions which have enabled us to world after "rare and valuable plants and seeds," and drawing salaries rangachieve so large a measure of well-being ing from $1,800 to $4,600, with elastic

The same article continues, on the general subject, in the interest of the home merchant;

There is no question that the argument no strong power should ever be able to

Indeed, the probability is that in the large majority of instances he does not get a bit more value than he pays for, and no more in proportion than he could have had right at home. One thing is sure—the mail order houses are making money rapidly.

more important are our relations among ourselves. Such growth in wealth, in population and in power as this nation has seen during the century and a quarter of its national life is inevitably accompanied by a like growth in the problems which are ever before every nation that rises to greatness. Power invariably means both responsibility and danger. Our forefathers faced certain perils which we have outgrown. We now face other perils the very existence of which it was impossible that they should foresee.

Cost of Free Seeds.

The distribution of free seeds by the Department of Agriculture recently caused animated debate in the United States Senate. An effort was made by Senator Henry Cabot Lodge to strike out the appropriation of $200,000 for this purpose, but when the matter came to a vote he was its only supporter, and the amendment was lost. From 1852, in which year the first Congress appropriation was made for the purchase of seeds, until the present time the tax-payers have put up $6,144,078.78 for the purchase and distribution of garden and flower seeds, and "rare and valuable plants and bulbs," this colossal sum not including deficiency appropriations, amounting to something like $198,000, and an average of $5,000 a year for printing and other incidental expenses, making the aggregate a ltttle more than $6,602,000. Since the birth of this free seed distribution there have been more than 4,716, 987,000 packages and packets of seeds sent out broadcast over the country at government expense, as vote getters for Senators and Congressmen. Last year the number reached 36,293,820, and the men, women and machinery of the Division of Plant Industry of the Agricultural Department will burden the mails with more than this number before the present "seed season" closes, in April. It is interesting to note that of this more than 36,000,000 packets and to buy a coffin for his father. The old packages of seeds, 32,393,324 packets were garden seeds and 3,665,625 flower he expected to find him dead on his reseeds, the bulk being the ordinary seeds turn. which are purchasable at almost every country store at two papers for a nickel, notwithstanding the fact that the department has pathologists, botanists, pomoltrength, but with gratitude to the Giver world after "rare and valuable plants

1. Christ's mission on earth was to save man from the guilt, power and consequences of sin and to heal the wounds and heartaches that followed in sin's train. He Himself declared this to be His mission when in the synagogue at Nazareth. He applied Isaiah's prophecy to Himself-"He hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised." In answer to the murmuring of the Pharisees concerning His association with publicans and sinners at the feast of Levi, Christ taught the same truth concerning Himself. "They that are whole," He said, "need not a physician, but they that are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but inners, to repentance." To heal the sin sick was therefore Christ's supreme mission on earth, and all need to be healed, for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. Moreover, Christ alone can heal us, for "there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." 2. Christ, the Great Physician, made offering up of Himself a sacrifice for sin. "Who His own self bare our sins in His own body on the tree that righteousness, by whose stripes we are healed." He died on the cross of Calvary as a substitute for sin sick humanity, and His death makes it possible for us to have our sins forgiven He paid the greatest price that one could pay for those whom He would so doing greatly endear themselves to them. Christ, our Great Physician, died that He might give life eternal we accepted this sacrifice, and, if so, do we appreciate all He has done for us, and are we living for Him?

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON XI, FIRST QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, MARCH 12.

Text of the Lesson, John viii, 31-40. Memory Verses, 31, 32-Golden Text, John viii, 34-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns. [Copyright, 1905, by American Press Association.

What a searching and helpful word is this with which our lesson opens: "If re continue in My word, then are ye My disciples indeed!" The previous verse said that many believed on Him, but only such as continue to believe are believers indeed. In ii, 23; Christ's claim to greatness as a physiliv, 39, 41; vii, 31, we read that many cian does not rest upon His work for believed, but in vi, 66, we also read Druggist, Taneytown, Md. the physical man. He was more than | that many of His disciples went back this-the physician of the soul. In and walked no more with Him. It this field He stands alone. Others may | might be said of them, "They went out from us, but they were not of us, for if they had been of us they would have continued with us, but they went out that they might be made manifest that heal men spiritually. Sin sickened the they were not all of us" (I John ii, 19). whole human being, and Christ came to | Faith and patience, patient continuance, are the characteristics of a true believer. It is on the same principle as "faith without works is dead," "Not every one that saith, but he that doeth" (Jas. ii, 20; Matt. vii, 21).

We must remember that before God neither works nor patience nor continuance is necessary to salvation. God reads the heart, and wherever He sees the honest acceptance of Jesus Christ and His finished work He sees one who is truly saved and in whom He will perfect what He has begun (Phil. i, 6) But before men who cannot read the heart the works and faith and patient continuance are the evidence that there has really been the new birth. By the precious blood of Christ every true believer is washed, sanctified, justified, perfected forever (I Cor. vi, 11; Heb. x, 10, 14), but by the word of God and the Spirit of God there is a work of sanctification and perfection ever being carried on (John xvii, 17; Phil. iii,

But these self righteous Pharisees, not knowing the righteousness of God possible the healing of the soul by the and therefore going about to establish their own righteousness (Rom. x, 3) assert that they have no need to be made free, as they were never in bondwe, being dead to sins, should live unto age to any man. It is often convenient to some people to forget or profess to forget some things. They must have left the cvii and some other psalms out of their psalter. They prided themselves on being Abraham's children, and to live a new life unto God. Thus but they did not act like Abraham. What they were and who they were are fully shown forth in the opening inciheal. Physicians often make serious dent of this chapter, where we see self denials for their patients and in them bringing a poor sinful woman to Christ that He may condemn her, but He, not seeming to hear them, stooped down and wrote with His finto those who were dead in sins. Have ger on the ground, thus saying, as loud as such an act could say, that their names were not written in heaven, but in the earth, because they had forsaken the Lord, the fountain of living waters

When He gave opportunity for any man without sin to cast the first stone at her and again stooped down and wrote on the ground, they all went out one by one, each man convicted by his own conscience. Thus was made manifest what they were and where their names were written. The woman be ing left alone, He said, "Neither do I condemn thee; go and sin no more" (verse 11), thus illustrating John iii, 17, er left Him alone; that He said only what the Father told Him and taught things that pleased the Father (verses 16, 18, 26, 28, 29). When accused by sette. His enemies of saying what was not true and of having a devil (verses 13, 48) He could be calm and unmoved, because the Father was with Him and As His disciples it is our privilege to be made free from sin and as servants fruit unto holiness (Rom. vi, 18, 22), and find our comfort where He found His. We must be content to receive the treatment which He received and not be surprised to find, as He found, that many very religious people are children of the devil and not children of God (verse 44). There is a suggestion in verse 35 of our lesson of Ishmael and Isaac, the latter prefiguring the true Isaac, who was not spared (Rom. viii, 32), but who, having offered Himself a sacrifice for our sins, obedient unto death, will live in us His life over again of pleasing the Father, not seeking His own will nor His own glory (verse 50), but, freeing us from all self and all error and all darkness, will make it manifest to those who know us best that we are His disciples indeed. Coming back to the first thought of our lesson, that fest to those who know us best that we of continuing or abiding in His word. my mind runs to John xiv, 23, "If a man love Me he will keep My words, and My Father will love him, and we will come unto him and make our abode [massion] with him."

Think of these bodies being mansions in which Father, Son and Holy Spirit dwell and desiring that we yield the property fully, as the lad did the five loaves, and we often refuse. Are we anything like these Pharisees? Is it possible that any of us think we are all right and yet may be all wrong and not yet children of God? See also our abiding John xv, 7, "If ye abide in Me and My words abide in you ye shall ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." What complete victory over every besetting sin is here within our reach! Then see I John ii, 28, as a still further inspiration.

Why We Color Eggs.

The Syrian bulbul (nightingale) has the loveliest voice of all God's creatures and the saddest song ever heard. Shady coverts fringing the Jordan still shelter the bird that "sings darkling." There is a legend that the bulbul sat n the olive tree in the garden of Joseph f Aramathea, and in the night befor what the Father told Him and taught Him, and that He did always those even in tulle and lace with a long plume sweeping around the crown and fastened poured out her soul in sorrowing plaint above the still sleeper in the tomb where-in was never man laid. When the first Caster morning broke over the hills the eggs in the nest of the brooding bird sparkled with gold, blue, orange and

THE FAMOUS LITTLE PILLS.

For quick relief from Biliousness, Sick Headache, Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Dizziness, and all troubles arising from an inactive or sluggish liver, DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled.

They act promptly and never gripe. They are so dainty that it is a pleasure to take them. One to two act as a mild laxative; two or four act as a pleasant and effective cathartic. They are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless. They tonic the liver.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroy-ing effect by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental dis-tress caused by that "continual strain." CHOICE EGGS.

FRANK HARBAUGH,

Order of Publication.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity.

NO. 4206 EQUITY.

Annie S. Bishop, Plaintiff, Edward Bercaw, James Kuhns, William Kuhns, Paul Kuhns, Mary Eckenrode and Tobias Eckenrode, her husband, Catharine Kuhns, Sarah Linah, Andrew Kuhns, Josephine E. Daughenbaugh and Harry Daughenbaugh, her husband, Francis Bing and William H. Bing, her husband, Ida E. Bollinger and Michael A. Bollinger, her husband, Laura Kline and Harry H. Kline, her husband.

Defendants.

Michael A. Bollinger, her husband, Laura Kline and Harry H. Kline, her husband.

Defendants.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Carroll county, in the state of Maryland, of which a certain Annie E. Bercaw, late of said county and state, died seized and possessed, and to have the proceeds of sale distributed among the creditors of said Annie E. Bercaw.

The bill states that the said Annie E. Bercaw was in her lifetime indebted unto a certain Annie S. Bishop, in the sum of Ninety-nine Dollars and ninety-nine cents (899.99) with interest from December 16, 1899, on a certain judgment by confession; that said Annie E. Bercaw, deceased, being so indebted as aforesaid and having real estate to the value of about two hundred and fifty dollars (8250.00) and no personal estate, departed this life intestate in or about the month of September, 1903, in said Carroll county, Maryland; that said real estate descended to said Annie E. Bercaw on the part of her father, John Kuhns; that said Annie E. Bercaw of Frederick county, Maryland, and the following relatives, her only heirs at law: James Kuhns, her father's brother, who resides in Carroll county, Maryland, and the following relatives, her only heirs at law: James Kuhns, her father's brother, who resides in Carroll county, Maryland; Catharine Kuhns, her father's brother, who resides in Carroll county, Maryland; Catharine Kuhns, her father's brother, who resides in Carroll county, Maryland; Catharine Kuhns, her father's brother, who resides in Carroll county, Maryland; Sarah Linah, her father's stother, who resides in Carroll county, Maryland; Sarah Linah, her father's stothers, who reside in Baltimore city, Maryland; Statharine Kuhns, her father's deceased sister: Josephine E. Daughenbaugh, wife of Harry Daughenbaugh; Frances Bing, wife of William H. Bing; Laura Kline, wife of Harry H. Kline, all of whom are adults.

That the said real estate of which the said Annie E. Bercaw died seized and possessed is one-half acre of 1885, and recorded among the land records of Carroll County in Liber F. T. S. No. 59 folio 231 &c.

The Bill prays that said real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose, may be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of the indebtedness of said Annie E. Bercaw, who may come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit

The Bill further prays for such other and further relief as may be required.

The Bill further prays for such other and further relief as may be required.

The Bill further shows that William Kuhns, Paul Kuhns, Josephine E. Daughenbaugh, Harry Daughenbaugh, her husband, Frances Bing and William H. Bing, her husband, If a Bollinger and Michael A. Bollinger, her husband are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

IT IS THEREFORE this 1st. day of March in the year 1905 by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting as a Court of Equity, ordered that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll County, once a week in each of four successive weeks before the 3rd. day of April in the year 1905, give notice to the said non-resident deendants William Kuhns, Paul Kuhns, Josephine E. Daughenbaugh, Harry Daughenbaugh, her husband, Frances Bing, William H. Bing, her husband, Ida E. Bollinger and Michael A. Bollinger, her husband, of the object and substance of said Bill of Complaint warning them and each of them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the 24th. day of April in the year 1905 to show cause, if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

Would you like to grow 200 bushels to the acre? The only variety that will produce this amount is my IMPROVED COLOSSAL YELLOW DENT. patronage in the past, and respectfully After years of constant care in selection and propagation, I have produced in this variety a world beater. Single stalks frequently produce two ears of 16 to 20 rows and more than 12 inches in length cash.

and more than 12 inches in length each. Single ears 14 to 16 inches are common on good land. In 1903 on a 6\frac{3}{4} acre lot I produced \(^{2}\)1352 bushels in the ear; notwithstanding last year's drought it averaged 114 bushels per acre.

In a test case in Talbot county last year, it produced \(^{2}\)0 to 70 bushels per acre more than Home Builder, Central State Despatch, Legal Tender, Yard Long and \(^{9}\) other varieties.

All my Seed Corn is carefully selected and dried quickly in specially prepared and dried quickly in specially prepared cribs. All ears tipped.
