THE CARROLL RECORD.

VOL. 19.

Chesapeake & Potemac Telephone, 3-k.

TANEYTOWN, MARYLAND, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1912.

Please watch the Date on your Paper.

No. 17

BRIEF NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Gleaned from the County and State and our Exchanges.

All news reports from fighting in the East, are to the effect that the allies are whipping the Turks, although the standing army of the latter is much the largest.
The old reputation of "Fighting like" Turks," seems to have been lost. ---

As a specimen of heathen war measures, it is charged that Turkish army doctors have gone too near the Grecian frontier, carrying with them typhus and cholera germs, with which they will attempt to start disease among the Greeks. ---

Further testimony as to the size of the Roosevelt primary fund has brought the total up to $836,000, and by the close of the week a full million will likely be accounted for. Mr. Munsey has admitted to the contribution of $118,000 as his

---It is said that a change will be made in the W. M. R. R. schedule, which will start the early Fast Mail from Baltimore considerably earlier than at present. The proposed change it is said, will be made n response to efforts made largely by Hagerstown and Gettysburg people.

---It would be strange, if it wasn't "too thin," that the Baltimore county authorities finally succeeded in closing a lot of should the Building Association plan be

--Rev. Dr. Charles Reinewald celebrated the 20th. anniversary of his pastorate of the Emmitsburg Lutheran church, on Sunday, the 13th. The church was beautifully decorated, and a special musical program was rendered, in honor of the occasion. Dr. Reinewald, in his sermon, tunity of hearing fine female voices, but ---A party of 135 men and women, from McKeesport, Pa., came to Baltimore, on Wednesday, on the first passenger train to run from Connelsville to Baltimore, over the W. M. R. R. While in the city the party gave away thousands of souvenir pocket mirrors, match safes, paper weights, key rings, etc., all manufactured in the thriving little Pennsylvania city. ---

The United Brethren Church has purchased the famous Shaker farm of 4,005 acres, southeast of Dayton, Ohio, for the purpose of providing a home for super-annuated ministers and their wives, aged and health-broken missionaries, and homes and schools for orphans of the denomination. The purchase price, it is said is $350,000. There are more than 40 buildings on the property. The church will secure possession on March 1 next. anyone from attending, especially with good weather and roads. Come to this --

Tax Collector J. D. Delaplane, of vaynesboro, Pa., entertained the memand all enjoyed the occasion very much. ly at 8 o'clock. Sandwiches, pickles, ice cream, cake and coffee constituted the luncheon. Mr. Delaplane was formerly of Carroll county. --

A gypsy gang got into trouble, near (For the RECORD.) Gettysburg, last week. They turned their horses into a farmer's clover field, and pastured them without lief or license. The chief of the band was arrested, both on the charge of appropriating private property, and being in the state without The horses, in the meantime, were taken in charge by county officials. The chief at first refused to pay the costs of $103.25, saying he would stay in jail for many years. After trying it a while, he relented and "forked over" the cash. --

A matter of great importance just now to farmers and county dealers as well as terminal markets, is the probable condi-tion of the corn to-come to market from the present crop. Great disappointment is experienced and prospective profit is often lost through carelessness in handling of corn when in the field, and anxiety ship early, with the result that when the grain arrives with 22% to 25% and cier, testified before the Senate Committee that "the interests" of Wall St., N. were bent upon destroying both Taft and Roosevelt, and it was part of the scheme to use the latter to split the Republican party. He said it was part of their plan to nominate a "dark horse" at Baltimore, but that Bryan spoiled their plans; also, that a fund of $1,000,000 had been raised to bring about both ends of

-Because of the increase in the price of silver bullion, manufacturers of sterling silver flatware have advanced the price of teaspoons, dessert spoons, tablespoons, dessert forks and table forks approximately 10 per-cent. Some concerns have also included soup spoons in the list of articles of flatware which have been advanc-As yet there has been no increase in the price of hollow ware, but it is pre-dicted in Maiden Lane that if silver bulLet us Have a Building Association.

There ought to be some plan of securing more dwellings for Taneytown, and it is to the interest of our business men that hey take steps in that direction. Surely lot of four or six room dwellings might be built in blocks, at a cost justifying a A Meeting of Great Interest to low rental charge. Every year there is a demand for more dwellings than we have, which means that the growth of the town, and its business, is held back. Under present conditions, no manufacturing enterprise could possibly locate here, for the simple reason that we could not house its

It seems to us that a local Building Association, on the stock plan, might solve the problem. Lots are to be had at a low price, and building operations could be advanced gradually, according to needs, in such a way that the stockholders could be assured of at least a low rate of interest on their investment, and all be benefitted through increased business.

We think that if three or four of our best business men will head such a project, others will fall in line and take all the stock required. There is hardly any chance for losing money in the venture, and every chance to gain, not only as an investment, but as a "boom" for the Taneytown has never been encouraged to grow—there has never been an invita-tion extended for more citizens. Its growth has been slow, because its business and financial interests have been self-centred mancial interests have been self-centred—ready to sell goods, to loan, and take mortgages, but not to build and invite growth. Let us try a little building on the co-operative plan!

If we had the buildings, those who own them would get busy and see that they are occupied. There is hardly any likelihood of an over-supply of houses.

Sunday liquor selling places—suburban resorts—when the weather became cool and the patronage naturally fell off. It isn't hard to prevent skating on icy sidewalks in the middle of July.

Sunday liquor selling places—suburban depoted, but if there should be, self-interest would then compel growth. It is just that condition that has made other towns grow, and it would have the same effect in Taneytown. It is worth trying! -000

The Boston Male Quartet.

Next Wednesday night, the 30th., will bring to Taneytown The Boston Male Quartet, the first of the season's enter-tainments. We often have the opporgave a review of his pastorate in a very not so often fine male voices. The advantage of hearing trained voices of any kind is a double one-enjoyable entertainment, and education for ourselves. We can always do things better, when we see or hear others-who know howdo them. We can then make comparisons, and perhaps find out what is good for ourselves—our own defects, and how to remedy them.

In this case, we not only have four gentlemen who are accomplished singers, but are gentlemen of culture; soloists on various instruments, humorists and read-To those musically inclined and all way, save in a course, could such an organization be brought to Taneytownopening event, and buy a ticket for the entire Course! Tell your "best fellow,"

bers of the Lutheran choir and a number | phone, at McKinney's drug store, if you of friends at a luncheon served in the basement of the church, after choir rehearsal, Wednesday evening. Thirty-six persons were Mr. Delaplane's guests

> ----Cupid's Escapade.

How the boys and girls with scores of friends will rejoice to have news from two very much loved members of the Blue Ridge College family, who on last Commencement day so unexpectedly slipped away entirely out of every one's sight or hearing.

With Cupid in the lead, the hatless young man and coy young maiden, fond of romance and novelty, had at Easter-tide sallied forth to the mountains of West Virginia, where each captured a dear in the Elk's home at Bluefield.

A friend of this interesting young couple who by chance came in posses of the papers containing news of the wedding, extends most hearty congratulations and very best wishes to them both for a long life filled to overflowing with sunshine and happiness.

The following clipping is from the May issue of "The Dial," the monthly paper of the Bluefield, W. Va., Lodge of Ecks: On April 6th., last, a very pretty sometimes 30% moisture, the value decreases correspondingly on account of the heavy shrinkage if put through the driers.

Thomas W. Lawson, the Boston financier, testified before the Senate Committee.

The work of the Elks Club of Bluefield, the contracting parties being Mr. R. A. Nusbaum and Miss Pearl A. Starr, both of Blue Ridge College at Union Bridge, Md.

Ridge College at Union Bridge, Md.

church officiated at the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of Elks and several ladies. Here's long life to the happy couple. Our correspondent also sends us a copy of the Bluefield Daily Telegraph, of April 7, which gives a very lengthy account of the event, written in quite a romantic style. From the reportorial been raised to bring about both ends of the plan, but only one end had materialized, as expected—they did not want Wilson—but that first of all they wanted Taft out of the way.

From the reportorial fancy of the scribe, one is led to believe that Mr. and Mrs. Nusbaum were a "runaway couple," intending to have the knot tied and then go back to school, and in course of time "fess up." There were apparently some complications before the ceremony could be performed, but the people of the town did the honors in great style; but interesting as it all might be to many friends of both, we must limit our space to the event largely to mere facts.

> -Last Call for Calendars.

All orders for Calendars, not in by lion continues to go upward in price in the next six months as fast as it has in the last half year, an advance in the price of the last half year, an advance in the price of the last half year, an advance in the price of the last half year, an advance in the price of the last half year, an advance in the price of the last half year, and order shipment, Monday, Nov. 4.

MARYLAND WEEK

HORTICULTURAL SHOW.

23, and the several committees of the Maryland State Horticultural Society, and its affiliated bodies, are rapidly completing a most varied program which will draw together people from all parts of annual meetings of the Horticultural Society, the Maryland Crop Improvement Association, the Maryland Bee-Keepers' Association, the Maryland State Dairyman's Association, and the Maryland State Grange. A special committee is now making arrangements with the railroads and steamboat companies for excursion rates.

The show, which will be held at the Fifth Regiment Armory, will be the largest that has ever been held. The florists have promised a gigantic chrysanthemum display, while the fruit growers will have several carloads of fruits to show what the state can do. Besides, there will be numerous other exhibits of interest to the farmer.

At every session, afternoon and even-ing, there will be speakers of national reputation and the addresses will all be of an educational character. Each evening there will also be special features. One evening has already been set aside for the Boy Scouts, who will demonstrate the work they are doing. There will also be moving pictures and many other forms of entertainment.

-From An Original Subscriber.

corresponding credit therefor.

Applying the couplet, from Rules of the Road, of the late John Boyle O'Reilly, its general happenings in and about the 977.

We natives, absentee-residents, some-times ruefully envy those who still tarry thereabout, living on if not really tilling the soil, and we are wont to reflect, in the vein of Pope's Ode on Solitude, that, indeed, is Happy the man, whose wish and care A few paternal acres bound, Content to breathe his native air In his own ground.

We far-distant ones went out into the wide world, generally where the field of activity, if not usefulness, was larger and cessful endeavor in working out life's career: yet we find the roughness of our way, its mental cares and absorptions. pleasantly diverted and interrupted oncea-week by the friendly incursion into our minds and hearts of cheery thoughts of days agone, "o' lang syne," all borne in by the well-nigh magic harbinger, memory's wellspring-tapper, The Car-ROLL RECORD; to which, then, right heartily all hail!

Sincerely, Wm. A. Golden.

Pittsburg, Pa. What Telephones Are Worth To Farmers

In an article entitled "The Rural Telephone Line" in the current issue of Farm and Fireside appears the following:

"Consider the telephone first as a business proposition. It brings the market quotations to you in an instant, so that you can sell or hold your produce, as you deem best, and the smooth 'buyer' no longer get your grain or cattle below the market price. Every merchant, implement dealer and mechanic in the town at your immediate call, and a breakdown in the harvest field means a delay of only hours, instead of days. In case of sickness or accident, the doctor can be on hand in less than half the time formerly required, and I could cite a hundred cases in my own experience where lives have been saved solely because there was a telephone in the house. case of fire or robbery, the country dweller can summon immediate assistance, and if you want to hear a real en thusiastic talk, just ask the country woman who has a telephone how much it has done to remove her fear of tramps when the "men folks are away. Then look at the social side. In the old days a 'visit' meant an entire suspension of work, a long drive 'there and back again,' tired horses, cross children (and husbands?), and the labor involved made a real task out of what should have been a pleasure. When you have a telephone all your neighbors on the line are in constant touch with you, and 'visiting' among the ladies, as a rule, keeps the wires 'hot' through the leisure hours of the day and evening. I was once asked to find out the trouble with a line in Missouri and told that 'the bells did not ring well.' On investigating, I found a grounded line over forty miles long with ninety-three instruments on it; the instruments were of half a dozen different makes, and it was a sheer impossibility to ring from one end of the line to the other; in fact, it required the assistance of half a dozen users to send a call through. When I laughingly suggested that such service was pretty nearly as bad as none at all, one old fellow (and he

Carroll County Jurors Drawn.

Chief Judge William H. Thomas on Monday afternoon drew the following jurors for the November term of the Cir-cuit Court for this county: Taneytown district, George W. Lem-

Maryland Farmers.

The date for Maryland Week, in Baltimore, has been set for November 18 to 23, and the several committees of the Woolery's district, Riehard C. Baker, Joshua F. Magee, William H. Leister and Benjamin P. Poole. haw together people from all parts of he state.

During the week, there will be held the nnual meetings of the Horticultural Someonical Manchester district, John R. Strevig, Howard Bowman, Aaron W. Long, Jacob

H. Tracey and George Brown.
Westminster district, Wesley M. Geiman, George W. Smeak, Abraham S. Leister, Martin J. Leahey, J. Walter Thomas, John F. Utermahlen, F. Thomas Babylon, John T. Brown and Herbert

Hampstead district, David J. Brillhart, E. Benton Hann and Elisha A. Snyder. Franklin district, George H. W. Magia and Francis A. Crawford.

Middleburg district, Morris J. Wilhide and David B. Reifsnider. New Windsor district, Harry M. Townshend, John L. Englar and Arthur

Union Bridge district, William H. Zepp and Jesse W. Fuss.

Mount Airy district, Chester R. Hobbs and Basil W. Bowman. Berrett district, James B. George and

> -404-Maryland Lutheran Synod.

Frank J. Brandenburg.

The Lutheran Synod of Maryland was in session, this week, at Williamsport. There are 112 ministers, 154 churches Editor Record.

Another twelvemonth having elapsed, I find about due the renewal of my annual subscription to the old home-newspaper; which I've been a regular sub-I find about due the renewal of my annual subscription to the old home-newspaper; which I've been a regular subscriber to from the very outstart of its scriber publication: so herewith find $1.00, for total benevolent contribution were $56, 461. The value of church property is $2, 630,900; the church indebtedness is $270,-195. There was contributed for home missions $7,408, for foreign missions $7,-"What man would be wise, let him drink of the river
That bears on its waters the Record of Time,"

"What man would be wise, let him drink of the river

That bears on its waters the Record of Time,"

The total contributions by the churches of the synod for all purposes was $222 of the synod for all purppses was $332, its general happenings in and about the neighborhood of his youthful life; the memory-cherished scenes of which are thus ever kept afresh in his mind, "lost to sight yet to memory dear." Then, too, as the great German Jean Paul Friederich Richter (who flourished in the 18-19th century,) so tritely states, "Recollection is the only paradise from which we can not be turned out."

We natives, absentee-residents, some-

The president also reported the appointment of the following representatives, or lady visitors, to the Loysville Orphans' Home: Mrs. Franklin Ankeney, of Cumberland; Miss May Forrest, of Taneytown; Miss Carrie S. Orth, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary Rouskulp, of Hagers-

The Synod re-elected by acclamation the present officers, as follows: President, Rev. John C. Bowers, of Catonsville; secretary, Rev. John F. Crigler, of Lutherville; statistical secretary, Rev. Lutherville; statistical secretary, Rev. William G, Minnick, of Cumberland; treasurer, L. Russell Alden, of Washing-Clerical delegates to General Synod, which meets in Atchison, Kansas, next May, were elected, as follows: Rev. John C. Bowers, Rev. D. Upton Bair, Rev. J. F. Crigler, Rev. Dr. C. P. Wiles, P. M. Bikle, Ph. D., Rev. Dr. Chas. F. Steck, Rev. Ezra K. Bell, Rev. G. W. Baughman and Rev. H. D. Newcomer.

The following lay delegates were elected: M. P. Moller, Hagerstown; L. Russell Alden, Washington; Harry G. Domer, Washington; Charles E. Koogle, Williamsport; T. S. Albaugh, Walkersville; A. H. Weaver, Baltimore; G. W. Yeiser, Silver Run; R. W. Barkdoll, Smithsburg; John Sanderson, Baltimore.

Revs. Dr. L. M. Zimmerman, Dr. U. S. G. Rupp, Dr. W. H. Dunbar and Dr. Ezra K. Bell, directors of the Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, reported an in creased number of students, with a total of 47, of whom 22 are in the junior class. Mrs. George W. Baughman, president of the Maryland Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, brought greeting from that body Rev. M. L. Culler, committee on the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society, reported that the twenty-ninth convention of that body was held in St. John's church, Thurmont, October 11-13. The society is growing numerically and financially. There are 58 woman's societies, 21 young people's societies and 39 children's societies, with a total membership of 4,544. Total contributions for the year, $9,667.21 an increase of $3,194.42.

The time and place of the next meeting of the synod was left with the officers of the synod upon motion of Rev. Dr. Ezra K. Bell, of Baltimore, after a resolution had been introduced by Rey. J. F. B. Lau, of Manchester, that hereafter the expenses of delegates attending the synod be defrayed by the congregation. The synod was without an invitation to meet anywhere next year.

The Haugh's Church "Contest".

The Mt. Zion (Haugh's) W. C. T. U will hold the regular annual "Contest" on Sunday evening, Oct. 27, at 7 o'clock. The contestants are all well known reciters, and the Contest promises to be an interesting one. A silver medal will be awarded to the best reciter.

There will also be an interisting exercise by the Loyal Temperance Legion, followed by a short talk by a well known temperance worker. All are cordially

> -000 Church Notices.

Presbyterian Church: 9 a. m., Bible School; 6,30 p. m., Endeavor meeting; 7,30 p. m., even-ing worship. Subject: "The Demoniac of Gadora." Piney Creek; 9 a. m., Bible School; 10 a. m., morning worship. Subject: "Marah-Elim."

SENATE COMMITTEE BRINGS NEW TESTIMONY.

mon, Samuel J. Flickinger, Joseph E. The "Seven Governors" Followed Plans for Roosevelt Campaign.

> A good many people are wondering just what good will come from the Senate investigating committee, going back into the campaigns of 1904 and 1908, to show the various sums contributed, and where they came from. Enough has been shown that both parties had immense sums, and that wealthy men contributed royally to both. What is perhaps of much more interest, was developed, on Monday, when it was testified to by several witnesses that Boss "Bill Flinn" of Pittsburg, in spite of his denials, did make overtures to Penrose for the Senatorship, according to the sworn testimony of six Philadelphia newspaper men, which, according to the Philadelphia Record "shot Flinn's story to rags" that he is a disinterested champion of Roosevelt.

But a more interesting chapter in po-Sut a more interesting chapter in political history was written into the Clapp Committee record when James Nugent, of Philadelphia, the original Roosevelt man movement, is a direct appeal for local Philadelphia, the original Roosevelt man of Pennsylvania, told how on January 22, 1912, Colonel Roosevelt had invited him to come to New York to talk over his Presidential chances, and how William Ward, on February 6, agreed to turn over to Nugent $15,000 for the Roosevelt campaign nearly a month before Rosevelt announced his candidacy for the nomination and also before the "Seven Governors' had made a formal demand on him to become a candidate for the Republican nomination.

Nugent testified that Colonel Roosevelt sent for him even before the Philadelphia publishers' banquet, at which LaFollette s said to have suffered a nervous breakdown, which was seized upon to launch the Roosevelt candidacy. Nugent's tes-timony was corroborated by Richard Haight, a Philadelphia publisher. Nu-gent quoted William Ward as having said that Penrose was given ten days in which to consider whether he would line up for Taft or Roosevelt, and that at the end of these ten days Penrose said his affiliations were such that he would have to support Taft. It was then decided to go after Penrose, and knock him out.
Thomas Fortune Ryan, who was so bitterly assailed by Mr. Bryan, at Baltimore, also testified that he had given approximately $750,000 to National and Congressional Democratic Campaign Committees within the past eight years, but that he had never contributed towards Bryan's election. He said he gave $450,-000 toward Judge Parker's campaign, which Judge Parker now says is astound ing news to him. Mr. Ryan also testified that he had given about $75,000 to the Harman fund, and more than $30,000 to Underwood.

Geo. W. Perkins, of International Harcommittee, and denounced a lot of false-hoods as to the pre-election fund of $3,000,000 said to have been raised by "interests" to nominate Roosevelt, but his memory was bad as to exact figures. He again reiterated that the International Harvester Co., had nothing to do with his own contribution to the Roosevelt fund, which he placed at about $122,500. On the whole, the testimony seems to have resulted in showing that the influence of "seven Governors" on Roosevelt to be a candidate, was a mere blind and excuse, and that several months before that time plans were under way to finance his campaign.

Col. Roosevelt at Home.

Col. Roosevelt arrived safely at his Oyster Bay home, on Tuesday, the trip not having developed any unfavorable symptoms. While he is not yet fully out of danger, as the wound is still discharging, no unfavorable change is expected providing the patient keeps quiet and obeys the orders of the physicians.

Some of Colonel Roosevelt's friends vere solicitous for his safety at Sagamore Hill and insisted that he should be protected against the possibility of another attack, but he would not hear of a peronal guard and had only his family and the servants about him.

Although his physicians would make no promises Colonel Roosevelt was confident that he would soon be back in the campaign, at least to the extent of exercising general direction. He expressed his intention of going to Madison Square Garden, New York, to speak on October 30, even if he had strength to say only a few sentences, and after another day of rest expects to begin preparation of an address of half an hour's length. -000-

Church of God Assignments.

Westminster, Oct. 23.—The Maryland and Virginia elderships of the Church of God, which met at the Bethel of that de nomination, near Carrollton, in this county, has adjourned after an interesting convention. It was the forty-first annual meeting of that body. The eldership sermon was delivered by Rev. Dr. G. W. Masser, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Rev. J. A. Saxton, of Woodsboro, president; Elder J. T. Billmyer, of Uniontown, transcribing clerk; Rev. Samuel A. Kipe, of Sabillasville, stated clerk; Rev. C. Amos Reynold, of Sharpsburg, financial clerk; James E. Smith, of Westminster, treasurer; Rev. John H. Gouso, of Carrollton, eldership corre-

Before adjourning, the stationing committee announced the following appointments for the ensuing year:

Uniontown and Frizellburg-Rev. L.F. Murray. Carrollton and Warfieldsburg-Rev. J.

Wakefield and Winfield-Rev. V. K. Mayberry and Bark Hill-Rev. W. G.

Woodsboro, Creagerstown, Oak Hill and Friendship—Rev. F. T. M. Thomas. Germantown, Blue Ridge and Hagers-town—Rev. U. S. Shimp. Sample's Manor, Edgewood and Fairplay-Rev. S. A. Kipe.

Prohibition vs. Local Option.

Emory C. Ebaugh, chairman of the Prohibition party in Carroll county, takes exceptions to the reply made by Superintendent Anderson, of the Anti-saloon League, to the challenge of E. W. Chafin, Prohibition candidate for president of the United States. Mr. Anderson reflected on the sincerity of Mr. Chafin's offer to put up $1,000 if his proposition was accepted, whereupon Mr. Ebaugh states that the Prohibitionists of Carroll county are prepared to guarantee payment. Emory C. Ebaugh, chairman of the are prepared to guarantee payment.

Mr. Ebaugh, in an open letter to the American, says a number of things likely intended to be sarcastic, with reference to Mr. Anderson's Anti-saloon methods, characterizing them as a "delusion and fallacy," and in conclusion says:

"Let me say to Mr. Anderson that if he will just back his train onto a side-track for a couple of hours and show in a joint debate with Mr. Chafin that the method which the Prohibition party offers as a solution of the liquor traffic, and which it proposes to put into effective operation should the people elect it to power, is not the right one, or that the local option method is the best one, it will be well worth his while?

well worth his while. self-government, and is thereby a step toward widespread prohibition, which is much more likely to be accomplished by gradual methods, than by an attempt to begin at the top, first. We are of the opinion that neither organization will accomplish a great deal, as long as they fight each other. Nothing could please the liquor interests more.

> ----Orphans' Court Proceedings.

Monday, Oct. 21st., 1912.—John G. Hoffman, executor of Nancy Arnold, de-ceased, returned an additional inventory of sale of real estate, and received order

Milton A. Zollickoffer, administrator

Milton A. Zollickoffer, administrator of Lydia E. Brubaker, deceased returned inventory of debts and money.

Jesse C. Davis and Jesse E. Anders, administrators of Elizabeth Davis, deceased, reported sale of personal property.

Ezra C. McGee and Ada M. Plowman, administrators of Catherine McGee deceased. administrators of Catherine McGee, deceased, returned inventory of personal property and sale of real estate and settled his first and final account.

Harvey A. Rupp, acting executor of Philip K. Wentz, deceased, returned sale of personal property and settled his first

Joseph Englar, surviving executor of Josiah Englar, deceased, reported sale of real estate and received order ni si.

Tuesday, October, 22nd., 1912.—The Westminster Deposit and Trust Company of Westminster, Md., guardian of Thomas Pickett, ward, settled its first and final account.

Letters of administration on the estate Geo. W. Perkins, of International Harvester connections, was again before the committee, and denounced a lot of folso.

"Helwig, late of Carroll County, deceased, granted unto Harry M. Helwig, who received order to notify creditors.

Letters of administration on the estate of Martha E. Cramer, late of Carroll County, deceased, granted unto Charles E. Steel, who received warrant to appraise and order to notify creditors.

> Bottle Circles the Globe.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 19.—Throwing a tightly corked bottle, containing her name and address, into the Ohio river nearly five years ago, Miss Nora Lea, of 104 East Gray street, Louisville, did not hear from it until today, when she learned that it had been picked up off San Diego, Cal.

The finder, Charles Collins, of 504 Phillips street, Toledo, Ohio, sent Miss Lea the slips of paper she had put in the bottle, saying he had fished it out of Coronado Bay while on a visit to Cali-

Capt. John F. C. Hedgewald, U. S. A. (retired), of Louisville, whose interest was attracted by the incident, probably will make a report to the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, believing the bottle passed down the Ohio, into the Mississippi, through the Gulf of Mexico, then across the Atlantic, Indian and Pacific oceans before it was finally washed up on the coast of California.

MARRIED.

Nusbaum—Starr.—On April 6, 1912, at Bluefield, W. Va., Mr. Rockward A. Nusbaum, and Miss Pearl A. Starr, both of near Taneytown. (See article on this

DERN-MARKER.-On Oct. 24, 1912, at 2 p. m., at the Lutheran Parsonage, Uniontown, by Rev. G. W. Baughman, pastor of the bride, Mr. William H. Dern and Miss Malvia N. Marker, both of Frizellburg. The bride is the youngest daughter of Jacob and Susan Marker. She wore a blue travelling suit, with hat to match trimmed in white, and carried a white service book. She was accompanied by Miss Bessie Zile, of Frizellburg. The bride and groom left on a trip to Baltimore and Philadelphia, and on their return will reside in Frizellburg.

ECKERT-CLUTZ.-Mark H. Eckert, son of Amos Eckert, of Gettysburg, and Miss Ruth A. Clutz, daughter of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Jacob Clutz, of that place, were married at the home of the bride, on Seminary Ridge, at noon, Wednesday, Oct. 23. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. Henry Anstadt, of Washington, D. C., formerly pastor of the College church, Gettysburg.

CLABAUGH--WHITE.-Mr. George A. Clabaugh and Miss Katharine White, of Bridgeport, were quietly married, on Tuesday, Oct. 22, at 3 o'clock, at the parsonage of St. Joseph's Catholic church, Taneytown, by Rev. B. J. Lennon. The wedding was kept very secret, very few knowing of it until the printed announcements appeared. The bride and groom are both very popular in this neighborhood, and all wish them much happiness. They left after the ceremony on a trip to Baltimore, Washington and Annapolis.

THE CARROLL RECORD (NON-PARTISAN.)

Published every Friday, at Taneytown, Md., by The Carroll Record Printing and Publishing Company.

P. B. ENGLAR. Editor and Manager.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS. DB. C BIRNIE, Pres.
G. A. ARNOLD.
GEO. H. BIRNIE. V. Pres.
JOHNS. BOWER.
F. H. SEISS, Sec. & Treas.
E. E. REINDOLLAR.

TERMS: One Dollar per annum in advance. Six months, 50c. Trial subscriptions, Three months, 25c. Please do not receive this paper after your subscription has expired, unless you mean to pay for it. The label on paper contains date to which the subscription has been paid contains date to which the subscription been paid.

All subscriptions will be discontinued on their expiration, when requested to do so; and no credit subscription will be continued longer than one year after the time to which that been paid. This provision is to be considered merely as an extension of credit, or a favor, to subscribers, and is not a fixed rule for all cases.

favor, to subscribers, and is not a later thate or all cases.

ADVERTISING rates will be given on application, after the character of the business has been definitely stated, together with information as to space, position, and length of contract. The publisher reserves the privilege of declining all offers for space.

All advertisements for 2nd, 3rd, 6th and 7th pages must be in our office by Tuesday morning each week; otherwise, insertion cannot be guaranteed until the following week.

Entered at Taneytown Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25th., 1912.

All articles on this page are either original, or properly credited. This has always been a fixed rule with this office, and we suggest the adoption of it by our exchanges.

LET THIS SOAK IN! Our elections last year-including two primaries-cost the tax-payers of Carroll county $9,892.55, or at the rate of $1.39 for each vote counted county statement shows it-it also shows that the election the previous year, when no primaries were held, cost only $5079 .-

--Col. Roosevelt's expression, last week, several days after his shooting, that he felt "as lively as a bull dog," seems to indicate a strong "bull" combination -"bull moose" and "bull dog"—and as he is given to stating that he feels "bully" he is entitled, both by preemption and disposition, to be considered the champion "bull" of the country, with all the honor that can be attached to the distinguished title.

uries attached to "progressive" politics. the general safety of autos, and perhaps The three new propositions—the "initia- not; at any rate, the doubling, or tiye." the "referendum," and the "re- trebling, of autos on our roads, is decidcall," would each require a vote of the edly within the possibilities within the people, whenever either of these new next two or three years. remedies are tried; therefore, with our So important to life and the public regular election, and one or more pri- safety is machine travel, that it seems to mary elections, or voting on some recall us that state governments—if not the or initiative, we could be voting on general government-should exercise at

-404 which places the whole country on the that must be observed in manufacture. basis of almost unexampled prosperity on We have always held to the idea that the eve of almost certain Democratic speed should be regulated through the victory, is one of the most favorable con- power of the machine itself, and that it ditions possible for the election of Gov. should not be possible for any machine to Wilson. The fear of a change, which develop a greater speed than 20 miles an usually attaches to Presidential elections, hour, and then only in the very best is practically forced out of sight and grade. mind, by this unusual condition. For As long as money will buy high-speed the time, at least, it overshadows all fears | machines; as long as there is no superof free trade.

can Politics.

mentally unbalanced individual-hundreds of thousands of whom are abroad, like rabid dogs, in this country-was a crime which nobody upholds, except perhaps those of the same character of diseased mind as the crimal himself. The act is as severely and honestly condemned by the political enemies of the victim, as it is by his enemies. This is so clearly true, so in harmony with the sentiments of christian humanity, that it is ordinarily wholly gratuitous and unnecessary to make mention of it.

But, we are not now in an "ordinary" frame of mind. There are speakers and writers, scattered all over this country, so warped in mind and so grasping of opportunity, as to attempt to create the public impression that the murderous act was indirectly and naturally inspired by Mr. Roosevelt's political antagonists, and their efforts are based on no higher grounds than to use the act of a lunatic as a means of winning votes, and to lay the blame and odium of the act on innocent persons.

If ever anything more contemptible and inhuman has heretofore been practiced in American politics, we have no recollection of it. If the bitterness of the campaign is responsible for the shooting, who originated it? Was it Governor Wilson or President Taft? If it was either-when and how? If it was neither, then why should the opponent of both reap the benefit of an unrighteously trumped up appeal to the prejudices of the people? The dirty scheme deserves to react. It is bound to react, at least on the individuals using it. The American people, as a whole, are not fools who can be gulled by any such vicious clap-trap; they will realize and resent this unheard of attempt—perhaps not to the loss of Col. Roosevelt, but to the loss and political oblivion of the respectable appearing liars who are making the plainest use they dare of the foulest slander ever

There is hardly any doubt that Col. Roosevelt will be the beneficiary of a large sympathetic vote, entirely disassociated with any efforts some of his campaigners are making. Our own opinion is, that the less they campaign, under present conditions, the more their candidate will gain.

Effect of Parcels Post.

We have never been able to figure out how much harm parcels post may do to sufficient to destroy any hopes the Repubhelp it may be to mail order stores to of carrying the country; but we have going to be a great saving to those who have occasion to send small packagescels post rate will be not more than half packages, but the receivers of them, as eve of the election that a large Progrescharges to pay, and there is considerable power. - Phila. Record (Dem.) satisfaction connected with the thought that at last the Express System has a business, through methods very familiar to all monopolistic combinations.

to continue present charges, should the (Ind.) present investigation, and others likely at the general election. The published to follow, show that the consumers are being unfairly dealt with.

--Automobile Fatalities.

The collection and publishing of staand destruction of property, through the mobile. Manufacturers are beginning to ELECTION EXPENSES are among the lux- ering the quality of workmanship and American (Rep.)

something every month or two, each year. least reasonable supervision over the workshops producing autos, and lay THE ENORMOUS harvests of this year, down fixed and reasonable requirements vision or inspection in their manufacture; as long as fools and half intoxicated The Most Contemptible Act of Ameri- individuals may act as engineers, just so long will not only the lives of the occupants of the machines be imperiled, but The shooting of Col. Roosevelt by a what is possibly of much more consequence, the lives of pedestrians and those who use buggies and carriages.

Surely, state governments, at least, must soon compel the use of sanity in | price machine travel. If any other means was producing the same loss of life and destruction of property, conducted by poorer classes of people, or those with less "influence," we do not think it pessimistic to say that it would be legally suppressed as a nuisance. It is no argument against machine travel to ask for its strict regulation; it may be admitted that our "fast times" demand fast locomotion, but surely it can be had, and is being had, too recklessly and at too great a

Laws against speeding are difficult to enforce; but even if they could be, there is still danger to innocent people in imperfect construction—cheapness in order to make sales-which cannot be detected by the average purchaser, as in most other articles.

Drastic Rules As To Drinking.

A drastic anti-liquor drinking order has been issued by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, which has caused more than general surprise among the railroaders on that line. It is said to be the most severe of any kind ever issued

From reports received it is understood that the new order provides that a railroad man is not to be seen in a drinking place off or on duty. If caught, the penalty will be a ninety days' discharge for the first offense and discharge from the service for the second offense. This too will be without a hearing. The men have their orders to stay away from hotels if they want their jobs. There will be no excuses taken. Liquor must be tabooed on the Reading, or its employees must find work elsewhere.

This order not only applies to the men in the train or operating service, but hits men working for the company, from the most lowly trackhand up to the big men in the service-engineers, conductors, and those above them. - Exchange. --

Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and correct that and the headaches will disappear. For sale by all dealers.

Three Newspaper Opinions.

We believe the Progressive defection is country retailers—how much additional licans might have had early in the season flood the country with their doubtful never doubted that many of the Progresbargains—but we do known that it is sives are so far Protectionists that when they get close to the election and realize nearly 20 per cent. in population and a that a large vote for Mr. Roosevelt will decrease of about 14 per cent. in the doup to 11 pounds—by express. The ex- give Governor Wilson nearly the whole press rate on from 3 to 10 pounds, has electoral vote a great part of them will varied from 30c to 50c, according to dis- hurry back into the Republican fold, and tances within 100 miles, while the par- that is what the South Dakota leaders now announce. They still prefer Mr. 000,000 to 58,000,000. Again a big de-Roosevelt, but they are going to vote the This will not only benefit senders of Republican ticket if they conclude on the well-whoever has heretofore had express sive vote will install the Democrats in rival which can not be squeezed out of ized by the Herald is: "Governor Wilson has touched his high mark. Mr. Roosevelt has reached the flood tide and The parcels post project will be watched is slightly ebbing. President Taft is makwith more than usual interest, as it is ing slight but steady gains." As far as heralded by many as being simply the the Herald's investigators can learn, the preliminary step toward government op- attempted assassination of Mr. Roosevelt eration of all classes of the carrying busi- will not greatly strengthen him. It will ness, and the closer examination of rail- give him an additional sympathetic vote road charges for much, if not all, of its in many sections, but not sufficient to afservice. There is strong suspicion that fect the electoral vote. It has, however, the freight rates on coal, for instance, are had the effect of "bracing up wavering much too high, and it is scarcely likely Bull Moosers," and of creating fresh enthat the carrying roads will be permitted thusiasm in their ranks.-N. Y. Herald probabilities in favor of President Taft. and Roosevelt groups tistics showing the fatalities, accidents, The political tide at the most fortunate Tellers, appointed by the person who

-000 Tariff and Meat Prices.

The morning and evening editions of the New York Sun are adding fuel to the Free-Trade flame by printing misinformation on the subject of the Tariff and the high price of meat. The Morning Sun gives tables showing that "American" beef sells in England 30 to 40 per cent. cheaper than in the United States. The saying that our Tariff on dressed beef is '22 per cent.'' All this in the face of clear proof to the contrary.

In the first place, no dressed beef is now being, or for some time past has been, exported from the United States to England. It is not this beef that is being quoted as selling so much lower abroad. If it were, it would be quoted as "States" beef and not as "American" beef. The 'American' beef that is being sold so cheaply in England is beef from South national conventions. America; frozen carcasses from Argenmuch cheaper beef than "States" beef; a beef that the people of the United States, accustomed to the best, would not relish and would not buy even at the cheaper

In the second place the Sun's quotations that seem to show a 30 to 40 per cent. lower price in England for the same grade of beef are on their face absurd. They presuppose that American packers are selling beef in London at 20 cents a pound and paying over-sea freight and refrigerating charges, when they can sell the same beef in New York for 32 cents a pound. There being a shortage of beef in this country, is it likely that American packers are supplying the English market with beef at a loss? No; they are doing nothing of the kind. No United States beef is going to England. What England gets and calls "American" beef is, as we have explained, South American beef.

How can that be? Paragraph 285, Schedule G, Agricultural Products and Provisions, read as follows: 285. Fresh beef, veal, mutton, lamb, pork, birds, one and one-half cents per

According to the Evening Sun's statement that the duty is 22 per cent., foreign dressed beef could be laid down in New York at less than 7 cents a pound, with a total cost, duty paid, of less than 8½ cents a pound, and would sell at retail at not more than 20 cents for the choicest cuts, and from that down. If that were true, there should be heavy importations of South American frozen beef. There would be big money in it. But there are no frozen beef importations. There must be a mistake somewhere. Argentina meat in New York at less than 7 cents anxieties.—H. H. Windsor in the Nowould not be likely to lay down her best per pound when London stands ready to vember Popular Mechanics Magazine. pay a much higher price. As a matter of fact, our Tariff of 11 cents, as affecting retail prices, amounts to not more than 5 per cent. on the higher grades of meat, which are most in demand, and certainly not more than 7½ per cent. on the cheap-

It cannot be possible, then, that our Tariff of 1½ cents a pound is responsible and truer explanation of this advance is Mayberry, Md.

to be found in the marked decrease in the supply of good animals in the United

In 1900 the beef cattle in the United States numbered more than 70,000,000. In 1910, with an increase of nearly 20,-000,000 consumers, the supply had fallen to 61,225,791. Here was an increase of mestic beef supply. In the same ten-year period the number of sheep and lambs was reduced from 62,000,000 to 51,000,000, and the number of swine fell from 66,crease of meat food and a big increase of population.

Clearly it is not a Tariff of 11 cents a pound that keeps up the price of dressed meats. The removal of that Tariff would probably not lower the retail price of The situation in a nutshell as summar- American beef by a fraction of a cent per pound. - American Economist.

> ---"Soap-box Primaries."

Much has been said about "soap-box primaries." The term as applied to Northern States where the effort has been to secure good primary laws, was not apt. But "soap-box primaries" were extensively held in Southern States for the purpose of electing delegates to the Republican National Convention. The contests showed that in many cases the primaries to elect delegates in a county to the State and Congressional district conventions were simply mass meetings, held Only those who are unversed in the in small halls which could not accommoquick turns that the political tide may date the crowds, in public squares of take are indulging in positive claims for towns, and even in the streets. In these any of the presidential candidates. This mass meetings the crowds were asked to fact only points the more strongly the divide or separate themselves into Taft stage of the campaign is turning in favor was chairman of the committee, would extensive use of automobiles, would show of the occupant of the White House. If go down the lines and attempt to count same startling facts, which might lead to this were merely an eddy in the stream the men in the different groups. No one legislation which the general subject it would signify nothing more than a cur- could tell who were voters, or whether seems to demand. Apparently, we are at rent of hopefulness. But in view of the the same men were counted once or but the beginning of the use of the auto- fact that Tait sentiment has at all times twice. In some cases it was claimed that been at base strong, the rising tide of men from adjoining states, if near the lower prices on the machines, in order confidence in his election is attributable border, participated in these mass conto popularize their further use. Per- to the unshakable foundations for the ventions or county conventions. Out of haps the prices can be cut, without low- faith that the country has in him. -Balt. such "soap-box primaries" grew many of the contests which were presented to the national convention. These mass meetings could not be representative. It was inevitable that the city in which such meetings were held would furnish the bulk of the attendance, while remote sections of the county would have little voice in the selection of delegates.

It is not yet plain now the "soap-box primary," or its equivalent-the packed convention, -can be avoided in Republican politics in Southern States. This is Evening Sun clinches the argument by particularly true if the present basis of representation is maintained and States which cast very few Republican votes are permitted to enjoy representation equal to those where there is a large Republican majority. It has been demonstrated that the Republican party in enough Southern States to control a Republican nomination consists almost wholly of office-holders and a few adherents which they gather about them. At least that is the only Republican party recognized in

There is, of course, an element in optina; a much lower grade and always a position to these office-holders, but its they permitted to play it so as to make any showing which will be recognized by the national organization, especially when the party of the office-holders is necessary to make the nomination of a federal candidate possible. There is little hope that the basis of representation will be changed .- American Review of Reviews

> ---Simple, Harmless, Effective.

Pure Charcoal Tablets for Dyspepsia, Acid Stomach, Heartburn and Constipa-tion. 10c and 25c.—Get at McKellip's. -000-

Chinese Poor Soldiers.

The Chinaman is a poor soldier. Not that he is lacking in courage, for on occasion he cheerfully sells himself as substitute and goes willingly to the execu-Now as to the effect of the Tariff on tioner's ax in order to provide his parbeef prices. The Evening Sun says that ents with the small sum necessary to the duty on dressed beef is 22 per cent. support them through life. The strength of an army is in teamwork, and here is where he fails on account of his aversion to being ordered. This is found in his domestic and industrial work. A general line of policy or desired results can be luid down, and he will faithfully work in accordance therewith, but he dislikes to be followed up through the details of the work with frequent orders. He will produce excellent results—but they must be accomplished in his own way. Hence the essence of good militarism--prompt and unquestioned obedience omes in direct conflict with his nature, and makes him a poor soldier. However, this trait is not entirely wanting in other nationalities, as every business man knows to his sorrow, and the difficulty of getting employes to do a thing in the prescribed way is one of the constant Fortunes in Faces.

-000-

There's often much truth in the saying 'her face is her fortune,'' but its never said where pimples, skin eruptions, blotches, or other blemishes disfigure it. Impure blood is back of them all, and shows the need of Dr. King's New Life Tariff of 1½ cents a pound is responsible for the great increase in the price of meats in the past two or three years. A better Taneytown, Md., and H. E. Fleagle's, HESSON'S DEPARTMENT STORE.

D. J. HESSON,

Taneytown,

Maryland.

HESSON'S DEPARTMENT

Note the Progress we have made

The Birnie Trust Company

TANEYTOWN, MD.,

HAS MADE FOUR REPORTS TO THE STATE OF MARYLAND DURING THE PRESENT YEAR.

> The 1st was Feb. 20th, showing deposits $559,501.41 The 2nd was April 18th, showing deposits, $579,649.94 The 3rd was June 14th. showing deposits, $584,857.05 The 4th was Sept. 4th, showing deposits, $598,035.49

> > WE SUCCEED

Because we give liberal treatment to everybody. Because we are correct and accurate. Because you can depend on us. And because we are prompt, polite, courteous.

E. E. REINDOLLAR, President. GEO. H. BIRNIE, Cashier.

Challenge Flour

PURE

RELIABLE ECONOMICAL REPUTABLE

and is not excelled by any Flour made in America. MANUFACTURED AT FREDERICK, MD., BY Brown word word word word word word

Try Our School Shoes

If you are looking for good School Shoes, at the right prices, come in and see us.

This season we are showing a greater variety of Dorothy Dodd and Walk-Over Shoes than ever before. We have unusual values in Ladies' $2.00 Shoes, in all leathers, both low and high heels.

You will always find correct styles here in Hats, Gaps, Neckwear, Shirts, Gollars, Gloves and Hosiery.

WE WANT YOUR TRADE!

Wm. C. Devilbiss,

22 W. Main Street, WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

WE PRINT

What You Want. The Way You Want It And When You Want It be reprinted without special permission.]

THE ROUEN DUCK.

When you go to Paris don't get giddy and go to ruin, but if interested in quacks go to Rouen-on-the-Seine, for there you may see the Rouen duck. the French favorite, in all its glory.

For 100 years the Frenchman has rapturously termed it "ze bootiful."

Its plumage is much like the wild mallard, of which it is considered a descendant, perhaps crossed with some larger variety to give it size.

It is the largest colored duck, reaching as high as twelve pounds, its lazy disposition making it easy to fatten.

It has a long, deep, broad body, close fibered flesh of fine flavor and is especially loved by the Frenchman for its big, fat liver and is declared by epicures to be the best winter roasting

Photo by C. M. Barnitz.

ROUEN DRAKE.

It is a remarkable layer of large bluish green eggs, reaching as high as two pounds ten ounces to the dozen. It is a great exhibition duck, its plumage being beautifully marked, the English having improved it much in

The drake has a greenish yellow bill, rich, lustreus green head and neek, a white ring dividing neck from greenish gray back and purplish brown breast, the underbody being a combination of gray, brown, green, claret. while the wings and tail show black, brown, gray, white, blue, purple and beetle green, the thighs gray, shanks and toes deep orange.

The color of the duck is mostly light

Photo by C. M. Barnitz. ROUEN AND PEKIN.

ciling in light brown, dark brown, dark greenish brown and dark lustrous brown, which conform to shape of feather, like that of the Partridge Co-

No photograph or word picture can describe the Rouen, and it requires great skill to breed it to standard color. The standard weights are the same Lbs. Lbs. Lbs. SYoung drake..... 8 Young drake..... 8 Young duck...... 7

DON'TS.

Don't start full blast in the poultry business before you have practical knowledge of what is essential to suc-

Don't select a variety merely because it has beautiful plumage. Peacock poultry is hardest to breed and doesn't fill the need.

Don't think that it's the big flock pays best. Selected layers are the payers and stayers. Don't be sentimental over birds that have once won and keep them when their usefulness is done. Don't be insanitary. Milk and eggs are easily contaminated, and that means sickness and death. Don't start with mongrels and by crossing expect to breed up the thoreughbreds. It's a tedious process toward sure failure.

THE PLOWMAN.

The plowman as he guides his plow afield Seems not with dreams to cheer his weary way. His toilsome day seems but to yield

Him pain and sweat and clods of yel-

The sky above smites down like blazing brass; Rough clods and stones afflict his weary feet. He follows wearily the heaving plow And groans with panting beast beneath the heat.

Thus it may seem to those who know not nature's joys, To him who knows not love of honest

The drone in this life's busy hive, The shiftless, prodigal, the shirk. The plowman as he guides his plow affeld Looks upward from the furrowed sod, And as the feathered choirs sing

He draweth near to nature's God. The plowman as he guides his plow afield

Beholds bright vision of the day When the ripened grain with waves of Shall cover his toilsome way.

When bulging shocks of golden sheaves Shall stand on that fresh turned loam; When the field shall ring as the reapers

The glorious harvest home. C. M. BARNITZ.

KURIOS FROM KORRESPONDENTS. Q. Is it necessary to sew the incision in caponizing? How are they generally prepared for table? What is best market? A. No. Roasted. Hotels and restaurants.

Q. About what is a fair average weight for eggs per dozen? A. Twenty-three ounces.

Q. How may I clean brooder lamp burners easily? A. Boil them with raw potatoes. Q. My ducklings are bothered with sore eyes, the lids gum together and the disease has killed twenty of them. Please prescribe. A. Your quacks are not sick, but the drinking vessels are so shallow they cannot dip in over the

Q. I have had so much trouble with my chickens digging up the potatoes and eating them. How do you prevent this? A. With a fence. Our neighbor, a preacher, plowed down sod, planted potatoes and let the chickens run the patch. When the tubers were large as walnuts the chickens started to dig the rows, and an examination showed lots of white grubs that were eating the potatoes wholesale. Your chickens are likely after grubs and eating taters on the side. A good coat of salt kills the

FEATHERS AND EGGSHELLS.

Many farmers of Missouri set out millet in the sheaf last winter to save the bobwhites from starving. The state fish and game department paid for the grain.

With all the reports of mortality among turkeys and the death of millions of chicks by the white diarrhea route, the undertaker has no job among the geese. They are certainly easy to raise and easily kept. Many farmers who have quit turkeys are raising rubbernecks, and they know a good thing when they see it. The egg laying contest at the Missouri experiment station is not an attempt to get high records, but the project is carried on just as any farmer can and should care for his flock to get good results. Such an enterprise is practical, and the bulletin from this egg contest will certainly be helpful.

Emperor Willia:n of Germany has purchased two large tracts of land in German Southwest Africa, and Herr Hagenbeck will stock them with ostriches. His aunt, Queen Victoria, was a lover of chickens and was so enthusiastic over some Shanghai roosters that were sent to her from this country that she had a celebrated artist paint their portraits.

Philip Beyer of Danville, Pa., R. F. D., had a gobbler that adopted twenty-five turkey poults last year and raised eighteen of them. This season the old hen hatched twenty and couldn't raise one of them. Here is a mystery for our government appropriation poultry philosophers to un-

It's a real pleasure for a lawyer. 2 doctor, an editor, a preacher to leave their books and brain work and go out and tinker around the chickens. Many professional men keep a bunch of big thoroughbreds, and that hour in the open with the birds keeps that boyish spirit alive and adds to their days.

Hatching eggs from turkeys a year old is one great cause of much mortality among these fowls. We have kept tab on this among the farmers around us. Most of them have tried to raise turkeys year after year from immature stock, and most of them have succeeded in going out of busi-

The farmer has the best chance to make good money on poultry, as he raises all his own feed and has plenty of range for his stock. Many western farmers are wise to this, and are coining cash on chickens and turkeys, but many in the east still swing along in the same old rut. Down in East St. Louis fanciers missed so many fowls that one of them paraded around in a sheet, and ghost stories floating round so scared the colored contingent of hen snatchers that not one chicken has been

A fancier in Coatesville, Pa., fastened a $100 bill under his pet rooster's wing to keep his wife from getting the money. The rooster flew over into the next neighbor's yard, and the neighbor extracted the bill and now asks the claimant to prove property. As the fancier didn't note the number of the bill he will likely lose the case and also have to hear his wife gab about it the rest of his life.

Anty Drudge on Teaching 'Rithmetic.

Teacher (in arithmetic class) - "Now, Mary, if your mother spent two hours boiling the clothes, three hours in rubbing them, and an hour to hang them out, how many hours would that be altogether?"

Little Mary—"Yes, but my mama doesn't boil the clothes. She washes them with Fels-Naptha in cool or lukewarm water, and she doesn't have to rub them hard, either."

'Anty Drudge-"You'd better make the time shorter, Mistress Schoolteacher, when you give an addition question like that to a little girl whose mother knows the advantage of washing with Fels-Naptha."

Easy on the woman and easy on the clothes.

That's why progressive women are washing their clothes with Fels-Naptha in cool or lukewarm water, in summer or

It's easy on the woman because it does away with fires for heating water, makes hard rubbing unnecessary and takes less than half the time of the old way of washing.

It's easy on the clothes because there is no boiling to make the clothes tender, and no hard rubbing to wear them into holes before their time.

Save yourself; save your clothes—use Fels-Naptha.

Costs little money for a big cake, and lasts longer than ordinary soaps.

In using it follow directions printed on the red and green wrapper.

§

VOUGH PIANO

IS THE LEADER

People can talk about which plan is the best, but anyone who wishes to know the truth about the matter, has only to compare the VOUGH, part for part, with the leading makes of the century. We are always glad to have anyone make these comparisons, as the wonderful strides of progress made in the construction of the VOUGH Pianos

Is A Revelation To All who investigate. The best Piano to be had today, if actual construction and results are judged, is the VOUGH Piano. You can see and examine these Pianos at

BIRELY'S PALACE OF

Frederick, Maryland.

- THE -

Taneytown Savings Bank

$50,000. Capital and Surplus,

Accounts of Merchants, Corporations and Individuals Solicited on Terms Consistent with Sound Banking Methods.

4 per-cent Interest paid on Time Deposits

D. J. HESSON, Pres.

CALVIN T. FRINGER, Vice-Pres.

WALTER A. BOWER, Treas. GEO. E. KOUTZ, Ass't Treas.

- DIRECTORS-

JOHN S. BOWER. CALVIN T. FRINGER. LEONARD ZILE. H. O. STONESIFER. JOSHUA KOUTZ.

WALTER A. BOWER.
NORVILLE P. SHOEMAKER.
EDMUND F. SMITH.
LUTHER W. MEHRING.
DAVIEL L. HESSON DANIEL J. HESSON.

DOCS FOR FARM WORK

AS VALUABLE AS TRUSTY HIRED MEN, SAYS WRITER.

American Agriculturists Have Not Sufa ficiently Appreciated Their Wide Usefulness, Though It Is Recognized in Europe.

In England and Scotland farmers learned long ago the value of dogs to farm work. There the universal custom is to have dogs daily do their part the same as trusty hired men.

Here in America, however, few farm. ers know the value of a well-trained dog. We are the losers because of this fact. We will learn, of course, in years to come; and working dogs that are a daily help will replace the countless farm help "misfits" now imposing on the farmer's generosity. It once happened that the owner of some sheep dogs worked them back and forth among flocks of sheep at the same place where many farmers were assembled in convention. The farmers witnessed the work the dogs were doing as the sheep were moved from barns to pasture, through pens, gates and lanes. They were amazed to find them so helpful and wondered at their intelligence. They saw them go quietly around the edges of a pasture and gather in the sheep from far away, while the owner waited at They saw them herd the the gate. sheep along the lanes, doing work two men could not have done. And they profited by what they saw.

They began to believe that the use ful dog will eventually be on most American farms, when we get to studying more carefully for ways and means to save work and expense. It may be on some large estates many different men are employed, thereby leaving little opportunity for anyone to train a dog. But on the average farm this is not the case.

Any farmer tired from a hard day's toil would praise the faithful dog that would go the mile or two into the pasture to bring in the cows while he prepared the feed for them.

No reference is made to the dog we find on many farms that knows only enough to run and snap at stock, driving them in whatever direction they care to go. Such a dog is of little value, for he drives the stock away as often as he brings them back to the pen they have left. Such a dog might have developed into a good one. It was the fault of the master that he was never trained. Let no man forget how important it is to have his dog well trained and carefully educated to do his bidding. The green untrained dog is like the unbroken colt or the new hired man. Neither is good as a real helper until taught to do as you wish him to do.-Farm and

Why He Was a "Sucker."

William E. Mason of Chicago, at a banquet given to lawyers and politicians, was called upon for a story and told the following:

"A well-known Illinois politician was speaking at the same banquet with a governor of New Jersey some years ago. The Jersey governor went into exhaustive figures as to the wealth, agricultural and manufacturing resources of his own state. In fact, he seemed to lack terminal facilities, for he talked about forty min-

"Before he sat down he said: 'I am to be followed by a silver-tongued orator from Illinois, and I hope before he sits down he will tell us why they are called "Suckers."

"Our friend from Illinois said: 'Mr. Toastmaster, when I heard the description of the agricultural products of New Jersey I was almost ashamed to come from the corn belt of Illinois, and when he told us of his state's manufactures, it made Illinois look small, but I noticed, Mr. Toastmaster, that you and the gentlemen about you seemed incredulous-in fact, I could tell by your expression that you did not believe a word he said. I want to say to the governor of New Jersey that I believe every word he said, and that is the reason I am called a sucker."

Blasting at the Canal.

In the last five years the operations on the Panama canal have required 40,082,850 pounds of dynamite for blasting, or an average of 8,016,570 pounds per year. The estimates for the year ending June 30, 1912, are 8,-533,000 and for the 12 months following only 3,986,500. The comparatively small amount for the latter is due to the approaching completion of the excavation work, which will make the total of dynamite used over 52,000,000 pounds. Reckoned by tons, that will be 26,000 tons, which sounds bigger or smaller according to the mind of the person reading it.

For the coming fiscal year the estimated need of other materials for blasting is 328,000 blasting caps, 1,840 pounds of insulated tape, 10,000 feet of connecting wire, 555,300 feet of lead wire, 627,700 feet of electric fuses, 36,000 feet of triple tape fuse.

Overfeeding.

A lot of people eat too much and a lot more don't eat enough. Some stuff till there isn't room for another swallow and then eat some more in between and then kick that they haven't enough. There are those whose earnings just spill over in a thimble, but who expect results as if their weekly check covered all Manhattan. A good rule is to leave off eating while retriever showed up, Ellison said: there's still room for more, and fill it up the next time .-- New York Press. | the other $4?"-Chicago Evening Post.

OBEDIENT TO NATURE'S LAW

Constant Change Goes On, But Americ can Race Is Not Threatened With Extinction.

An effective argument against the theory advanced once in a while that Americans are becoming degenerate and are bound to die out, a complaint also made by the English concerning themselves, is advanced by Lieut. Col. Charles E. Woodruff, Medical corps, U. S. army, who is now stationed in the Philippines.

"There is no ground for such absurd pessimism," says Woodruff, "though as a matter of fact there is plenty of evidence that certain types in each nation (British and American) do have a higher death rate than others and that there is a constant slow change in the general average. Both civilizations have been built up by immigrants and it is a law of nature that change of racial residence is always followed by extinction or alteration of type through the survival of the fittest for the new environment.

Moreover, there has been a constant immigration into the British islands from the beginning of things human, and the influx of new blood has always kept civilization humming, even if each invasion in olden times did destroy part of what it found. The same phenomenon is being repeated in America with the sole difference that the invaders, except in Mexico and Peru, have not destroyed, but are constantly building up. The process of decay of certain types is also quicker in America and the new blood comes into prominence sooner than in England.

'Very few of the descendants of the signers of our Declaration of Independence are in public life and most of them are nonentities, while immigrants and sons of immigrants are in the seats of the mighty. The descendants of the signers of Magna Charta controlled England for many centuries, though none of that stock is in evidence now, while the present controlling elements date back some centuries and very few are recent arrivals from the continent. "It is high time that we find out who are the fittest in each part of America. Every bit of evidence is of some value and that is the reason why the tremendous victories of the American Olympic athletes have such a scientific and popular interest."

Puritan Verse.

Among the offenses of the Puritans, for the most part left behind them when they came to this country, was that of turning bits of the Bible and parts of the New Testament into English verse. They were much given to the printing of objurgatory and defamatory pamphlets, for which from time to time a scribbling offender would not find repose at "mine inn," but in the stocks to the amusement of all the idlers of the town.

It was soon after the Reformation that this spirit of versifying the Psalms and other parts of Scripture began, and most of the collections published with quaint titles are now worth several times their weight in gold to gatherers of curios. Alliteration's artful aid was much in evidence in such titles as "Seven Sobs of a Sorrowful Soul for Sin," which comprised the seven penitential Psalms in meter, and a "Handful of Honeysuckles," in which were collated various blessings out of the book of Deuteronomy. William Hunnis, chapel master to Queen Elizabeth, turned the entire book of Genesis into rhyme under the title of "A Hiveful of Honey," and Christopher Tye, a contemporary of Hunnis, rendered the Acts of the Apostles in English verse. But these were before the Puritans, the chief offenders, especially in pamphlets, had Depraved Benevolence.

"One of the queerest old human freaks in New York shows up around the police station whenever there is a report of runaway boys in town," said a policeman. "His purpose would not be exactly approved by the Bible societies. He does not want to lecture the boys or send them home or improve their morals in any way. He simply wants to gratify their thwarted ambition and show them Coney island and the Bowery before they are yanked back home by angry parents. That is what most of them run away for-to see Coney island and the Bowery-and this old codger argues that any boy who has grit enough to stand the hardships of a stolen ride to New York ought to be allowed to see those places. His benevolence isn't all wind, either. He is willing to foot the bills if the boys will be allowed to go; but very few of them are. That is what breaks the old gentleman's heart. He lays aside a small sum of money each year for this peculiar charity."

Short-Change Dog.

Charley Ellison is up on horses, but was not up on dogs. At one time in Hot Springs he paid for a bird dog, partly through a fanciful notion and partly because the dog was a handsome animal. He sought the seller the next day and said:

"I thought you claimed this was a bird dog. He was gone for three hours yesterday and didn't bring back a single bird."

Passing up the hunters and going in for trick animals, Ellison had a dog to which he would give a smell of a $5 bill and later send it to bring the money home. A visiting horseman located the plant before the dog did and substituted a $1 bill. When the

"Prince, what have you done with

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Latest Items of Local News Furnished by Our Regular Staff of Writers.

All communications for this department must be signed by the author; not for publication, but as an evidence that the items contributed are legitimate and correct. Items based on mere rumor, or such as are likely to give offense, are not wanted.

The Records office is connected with the C. & P. Telephone from 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. Use telephone at our expense, for important items on Friday morning. We prefer regular letters to be mailed on Wednesday evening, but in no case later than Thursday evening

UNION BRIDGE.

George H. Eyler and wife, entertained, on Sunday, her parents, Edward Knipple and wife, and their grandson, Lloyd Knipple, of Keysville; also her sister, Mrs. Edward Thomas and son, Cleo, of Franklin Grove, Illinois. Mrs. Thomas and son spent from Thursday until Monday morning, when they left for Sauger-ties, New York, to visit another sister, Mrs. Harry Meyer, and from there expect to arrive at their home in Illinois, by Saturday night.

J. W. Little and wife, spent Saturday in Baltimore, on business. On Tuesday they visited Mrs. Little's parents, Chas. Mitten and wife, of Westminster, and while there had the pleasure of viewing the parade of the handsomely uniformed Knights Templar, of Baltime by Prof. Farson's celebrated Band. Frank J. Shriner is building a Garage on the alley in the rear of his house and shop, on Main St.

An elderly gentleman, with his wife, came to town last Sunday to visit their children. In the evening when the grand-son who had brought them came to the door with his buggy, the daughters insisted that their parents remain and spend the night with them. Father, who is tenacious in his belief that "there is no place like home," at once demurred but said that mother might stay, and seizing a hat got into the buggy with his grandson and was driven away to end the argument. Shortly after he left, his son-inlaw discovered that in his haste he had taken his hat instead of his own. Next day mother returned home and found father oblivious to the fact that he was wearing another mans headgear, instead of his own. Toward evening, by some in tuition he discovered the mistake, and mother quickly solved the mystery for him. On Wednesday he returned to town to exchange hats, and to learn that, you should be sure you are right before putting a hat on your head. J. B. Brown and wife, of Reisterstown, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with their son, Dr. W. D. Brown and wife.

Information as to the condition of Jas. A. Seabrook, received this Wednesday evening, is, that he is improving, though the change is slow. His many friends hope that the improvement may be per-

Lee Sayler and wife, of Dayton, Ohio, are spending a couple of weeks with his cousin, Reuben Sayler and wife. Mr. Sayler is the youngest son of the late Jacob Sayler who died in Ohio this past summer, aged 87 years, and who was for many years a resident of the Beaverdam neighborhood. He is also a grandson of Jacob Sayler, the well known Brethren minister, who was for many years bishop of the Beaverdam Brethren church.

Mrs. Balinda Stoner is having a metal roof put on over the shingle roof of her dwelling house, on South Benedum St

A New York Central engine, No. 9390, drawing a train of freight cars, passed the Union Bridge station, Wednesday afternoon, going westward.

Fair week for Frederick Fair, has not been fair so far. Yet the rain will probably be more beneficial to the farmer than the Fair will be. Horse racing, of late years, has been the drawing card at Agricultural Fairs, and that is of no value to the farmer or to any other class of

Miss Mamie M. Bollinger and Emory J. Hull, were united in the Holy Estate of matrimony, by Rev. H. Schwarzkopf, at 7.30 p. m., on Wednesday, Oct. 23, 1912, at the M. P. parsonage, Union Bridge, Md. They will reside in Taney-

Rev. H. Schwarzkopf attended the Frederick Fair, on Thursday.

Fifty-two tickets were sold at Union Bridge, on Thursday, for the Frederick Fair. The inclement weather was the cause of the comparatively small number of people going from this station.

It is reported that Dr. M. M. Norris has sold his residence in town, through E. O. Weant, Attorney, to Mr. Furry, of Taneytown.

The M. E. Church, which is being repaired, is expected to be ready for the re-opening services, on Nov. 3

Several arrests and no committal, was the outcome of a drunken spree, on Wed-

HARNEY.

Jeremiah Lambert, an aged resident of near St. James' church, died on last Friday morning. He was a widely known blacksmith and lived at his late residence Sunday for dinner, Mrs. Geo. Ha for many years. Funeral services were conducted on Sunday morning, at St. Paul's Lutheran church, of this place, by Rev. Stockslager. Interment in Mt.

View cemetery.
On last Friday morning, the infant child of Daniel Hoffman died very sudden. It was well when it was put to bed on Thursday evening. Some time dur-ing the night the mother heard the child making a slight noise, when she took it up, and it died in her arms in a few minues. Funeral services were conducted at Mt. Joy, on Sunday afternoon, Rev. Stockslager. Interment in the eemetery connected with the church.

S. C. Shoemaker and wife are entertaining Mr. Hirt and family, of Ohio. When Shoemakers lived in Ohio the two families were very intimate, having lived n adjoining farms.

Millard A. Hess has rented the house close to the square, from E. G. Sterner for a shop, where he will repair and make new furniture. E. G. Sterner was off on a trip to Virginia, looking after a farm. We are not informed as to what he has done in re-

Last Sunday morning, Rev. Stangle, the newly appointed U. B. preacher, filled the appointment at this place for the first time. He made a very favorable

COPPERVILLE.

Lewis Lambert and wife, of Trevanion, elebrated their golden wedding, on Sun day, the 20th. A joyful time was anticipated and proved to be even more then expected. When the friends arrived, they were received and welcomed by the bride and groom of fifty years. They were the recipients of some very handsome and useful gifts, and a purse containing $20.00. A bountiful dinner was served, and the functions of the day ended. Those who were present at this anniversary were: Albert Bangs and wife. of Baltimore; Walter Lambert, of Hanover; Arthur Lambert and wife, of Westminster; James Lambert and wife, Mrs. Rachel Hyde and Mrs. Hannah Lantz, of New Windsor; Villiam Arnold, wife and daughters, of Taneytown; Thomas Fleagle, wife and son, Dewey, Mr. Shriver and Mrs. Roberts, of Trevanion. We extend our congratulations to the young couple and wish them many more such events. We have been asked by a neighbor to report an item out of our territory: Mrs. Granville Harner, near Black's school-house, raised broom corn this season to the height of 12 and 14 feet; she asks to hear from her competitor. Samuel Flickinger is building a wagon shed and chicken house. -000

KEYSVILLE.

George Cluts and wife spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Frank Wantz and wife, near Harney. Mrs. James Kiser has been on the sick Edward Shorb and wife visited J. T. Ohler and family, of near Emmitsburg, on Sunday.

Edward Knipple, wife, and grandson, were in Union Bridge, at Geo. Eyler's, Harry Deberry was in Emmitsburg, Saturday, on business.

C. H. Valentine, wife, and daughter, and P. R. Wilhide, wife, and daughter, spent Sunday with C. E. Valentine's, at Keymar.

Some of the folks attended the Japan-ese lecture in Taneytown, on Friday have secured positions in the City and are

Miss Stella Albaugh, of Detour, was the guest of Miss Bertha Stonesifer, on George Ritter and family spent Sunday at Oliver Stonesifer's, at Keymar. H. C. Harner, our enterprising huckster, has added butchering to his busi-

--Saves Leg of Boy.

"It seemed that my 14-year old boy would have to lose his leg, on account of an ugly ulcer, caused by a bad bruise," wrote D. F. Howard, Aquone, N. C. "All remedies and doctors treatment failed till we tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and cured him with one box." Cures burns, boils, skin eruptions, piles. 25c at R. S. McKinney's, Taneytown, Md., and H. E. Fleagle's, Mayberry, Md.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE.

Quite a number of the students visited their homes Saturday and Sunday. They were: Courtney Anthony, George Troupe, Mary Shinham, Merle Ecker, Susie Utz, Catharine Franklin and Nellie Green. Prof. and Mrs. Flora spent Friday and Saturday at Myersville, visiting friends, and thence to Hagerstown, on Sunday.

We were glad to see the familiar face of our old friend, H. H. R. Brechbill, on Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Danner, of Medford, entertained Miss Beulah Coffey, Saturday and Sunday. Several of our students, interested in the cause of Prohibition, attended the address given by Mr. Chafin, in Westminster, Saturday afternoon

Mr. Fox, of Juniata College, visited B. R. C., the first of the week.
Prof. Keller and Miss Parkhurst en-Mr. Wm. Haines', on loved a visi last Sunday. Proffy says there was a feast of successive courses of music and Yes, how does fried chicken sound for one of the courses of "eats" at B. R?

Who was not present in the dining room at dinner on Tuesday?

Miss Edith Pfoutz spent a couple days at Detour, visiting her friend and schoolmate, Miss Margaret Weybright.

A kiln is being placed in our art room, this work.

this week. The students in china-painting are glad to welcome this improvement for their work.

The public program, given on Friday evening, was well attended. Another will be given in a month's time, by the Hiawathian members. You will be informed later as to the exact date.

The first number of our lecture course is to be given on Saturday evening, Oct. 26. This unique entertainment Oct. 26. promises to be equal to any on the list. Season tickets with reserved seats are being sold rapidly. To be certain of having a seat, buy a season ticket. The assembly room is small, and already more tickets have been disposed of than any year previous.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

The friends and relatives of J. Roy Myers and Miss Ada Geiman will be glad

Wm. Yingling and wife entertained, on Sunday for dinner, Mrs. Geo. Harman, Thos. Yingling, wife and daughter, Carrie, and sons, Charles and Wallace, of Thos. Hanover; also Mrs. Thos. Myers, of near here. The same were entained for sup-per by Edward Devilbiss and wife.

Miss Miriam Sheets has returned home, after spending some time with Miss Rachel Devilbiss and other friends and relatives here.

Edw. Geiman, of Baltimore, is spendng some time with friends and relatives Mrs. Sarah Ditman, who is with her son, John Masenheimer, is in a critical Joseph Yingling and wife entertained on Sunday, Luther Kelley, wife, and daughter, Helen, and Clayton Shane-brook and wife, of Kingsdale.

Sunday school this Sunday, at 9 a. m.; preaching at 10, by Rev. Hoffman.
C. E. in the evening.

preaching at 10, by Rev. Hoffman. C. E. in the evening.

Harry Devilbiss and wife entertained, on Sunday, Theo. Buffington, wife, and daughter, Lutie, and son, Roth, all of near Union Bridge, and Mrs. Fannie Babylon, of Frizellburg. She also visited her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Yingling.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and the bottle was all used the boy's wish to friends, in Hagerstown. The bad weather is greatly retarding the work on the state road.

W. W. Walden and wife, shipped their bad weather is greatly retarding the work on the state road. impression upon his hearers.

Jacob Newcomer has about completed a new porch in front of his house.

Cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

Household goods to Baltimore, this week, where they expect to make their future home.

UNIONTOWN.

Mrs. Barbara Ruth, wife of James Fisher, of Baltimore, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Annie Devilbiss, on Sunday, and was brought here for burial in the M. P. cemetery, Tuesday morning, Mrs. Fisher was a daughter of the late Nathaniel Meredith of this place, was in her 75th. year, and is survived by her husband, and one daughter, Mrs. Grace Thomas, three sisters, Mrs. Augusta Meredith, Mrs. Kate Alcock and Mrs. Annie Devilbiss, of Baltimore, and one brother, Charles, of Hagerstown.

William Baust, a well known citizen, died at his home here, on Thursday evening, in his 86th year. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, the services in charge of Rev. Martin Schweitzer, Mr. Baust having been a member of the Reformed church. He leaves a widow and two daughters; Miss Anna, at home, and Mrs. Clara Crabbs, of Hagerstown. Mr. and Mrs. Baust had been married about 57 years. was one of the oldest members of the local lodge of Red Men.

Much to the gratification of his friends, Rev. L. F. Murray, has been returned to his appointment here for another year, by the late Eldership, held at Carrollton.

Rev. G. W. Baughman, attended the Md. Synod, at Williamsport, this week. Mrs. Baughman, who is visiting Greencastle, also visited the Synod bearing the greeting from the Woman's Mission-

A birthday social was given Miss Loretta Weaver, last Friday evening. The young friends present were delightfully entertained, and no doubt wish birthday came twice a year.

Harry Baughman was home over Sunday, preaching in Grace Lutheran church in Westminster in the morning. He is attending Synod, this week, taking the examinations, necessary for being licens-

Dr. J. J. Weaver and Mrs. G. Fielder Gilbert, have returned from their stay at the hospitals in the City; both are getting working there.

Mrs. Samuel Heltibridle is visiting Middleburg and Frederick, this week. Luther Beard and wife, of Adamstown, Md., visited their son, Reverdy Beard and wife, over Sunday.

Gervis Hill and Will Cecil, of W. M. College, were week end guests of relatives

Philip Lemmon and wife, of Baltimore, visited the families of his brother, Chas. Lemmon and Guy Segafoose during the William Rodkey, who has been suffering with a sprained foot for quite a while does not improve and is confined to the house most of the time.

Clarence Billmyer, wife and son and Mervin Powers, were visitors at Jesse Billmyer's, part of the week.
George Lambert attended the funeral of his brother, Jeremiah Lambert near Harney, last Sunday. James Cover and wife, returned with Mrs. Mary Cover to her home in Easton, on Thursday.

Rev. G. W. Baughman was elected as one of the delegates to the Lutheran General Synod, which meets in Atchison, Kansas, next May. His friends congratulate him on the honor.

--A Log on the Track of the fast express means serious trouble ahead if not removed, so does loss of appetite. It means lack of vitality, loss of strength and nerve weakness. If appetite fails, take Electric Bitters quickly to overcome the cause by toning up the stomach and curing the indigestion. Michael Hessheimer of Lincoln, Neb., had been sick over three years, but six bottles of Electric Bitters put him right on his feet again. They have helped thousands. They give pure blood, strong nerves, good digestion. Only 50 cents at R. S. McKinney's, Taneytown, Md., and H. E. Fleagle's, Mayberry, Md.

FRIZELLBURG.

Mrs. Frank Haifley was bitten in the arm, last Monday, by a large dog belonging to Edward Strevig. She was enroute from her home to Pleasant Valley when the dog attacked her and inflicted an ugly wound, so that it necessitated the services of a doctor. A dog like that is worth more dead than alive.

Frank Lampert and wife have returned to Baltimore. He is still unable to work, and the chances are that it will be some Sabbath School here next Sunday at 2 o'clock. Services in the chapel at night by the Church of the Brethren. Mrs. Jesse Warner has returned home from the hospital very little improved. Her ailment seems to baffle the physicians, and no operation was allowed by the

Frank Snader was in Baltimore, last Tuesday. Keener Dickensheets sprained his wrist husking corn, and is now on the disabled Our doctor has taken his flight after a stay of three months.

Mrs. Sarah Dutrow accompanied her sister, Mrs. Samuel Smith to her home in Harrisburg, and will spend several weeks there before returning.

Master Charles, little son of Otto Myers and wife, was very ill for several days from an attack of ptomaine poison. He is much improved at this writing. -+0+

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all

-000-MIDDLEBURG.

Ferdinand Frank, wife, son and daughter, of Bethlehem, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Frank's mother, Mrs. Emily Lynn.

Miss Lucy Mackley, is spending the week with her parents in Frederick.

Miss Rose Snare, of Belair, Md., and Miss Effie Wagner, of Uniontown, spent several days this week, with Jacob Snare

J. Irvin Mackley, of Thurmont, were visitors at David Mackley's last Monday Quite a number of our people attended the Frederick Fair, this week.

LEGORE.

Mrs. George Vanfossin is on the sick

Miss Carrie Damuth has returned from visiting friends, at York, Pa.
Charles Etzler and wife, of Woodsboro, spent Sunday with Wm. Smith and wife.
Roy Eaton and wife, of York, are visiting at the home of George Vanfossin and Mrs. Edward Graham has re.u ned from visiting friends at Gettysburg.

Miss Alice Vanfossin, spent a few days recently, with friends, at York.

Miss Bell Oraham, spent one day, recently, at Frederick. Mrs. Frank Carty visited friends at Frederick, recently. ----

NEW WINDSOR.

Mrs. Hettie Ecker has had her dwell-Albert Jones, of Baltimore, spent Sunday last here with his brother, Charles Kelso Anders, of Baltimore, spent Sunday last here, with his sisters. The congregation of the Presbyterian church, on sunday last, voted to purchase an individual communion-set. marry kepp is closing out his stock of goods and expects to go to the city.

1saac Smith, who was operated on for a cancerous growth, is home, going back and lorth to the hospital for treatment. Miss Minerva Koop spent Saturday and Sunday last at Rocky Ridge.

NOT CAST FOR FISH

Game Warden Had the Line, but Little Else.

Smiled When Caught With Two Lines Out, Which He Knew Was Contrary to the Law, and He Laughed Last

Zeb Jenkins came in sight and was walking pretty rapidly for him. Getting within hailing distance he called

"I jest see the funniest thing you ever see!" "What was it?" I asked when he got a little closer. He was so full of laugh and so out of breath through his unwonted exertions that he was entirely unable to say anything at first. But presently he began: "I been down to the lake all the mornin' trolin' fer pick'rel. Joe Bridges was out in a boat kind o' lazyin' 'round fishin'. I passed him oncet and noticed he had two lines out.

time. "'O, pshaw!' he says. 'I ain't 'fraid o' no game warden; 'specially no such poor excuse as Bob Dawson.' 'All right,' I says. 'Ef he gits you, jest remember I warned you.' "I rowed across to that deep place over near the other side. The fish got to bitin' purty good, and I forgot all about Joe and his two lines. The In the Circuit Court for Carroll County sun was hotter 'n it began to make me sleepy. By and by I heerd a shout: Hey, you, come in to shore! I want to see you.' I looked around, and it was the game warden, standin' on shore lookin' mighty important and yellin' to Joe. Joe looked up in a leisurely kind of way and says:

'What do you want?' "'You're arrested-that's what I want!

"'All right,' says Joe; 'come and git me! "'By thunder, I will!' says the warden. "He goes and gits a boat and starts out toward whar Joe is. I kind o' moved over that way to watch proceedin's. Joe set still and kep' on fishin'. When the warden got close to Joe he yells out: 'Now, you come along here! you're vi-latin' the statoots and I've caught you red-handed.' Joe didn't move, so he says ag'in: 'Come

"'No, sir,' says Joe. 'I don't move an inch. Ef you want me so goldanged bad, you'll hev to tow me

"Well, they didn't seem to be nothin' else to do, so the warden hitches a rope to Joe's boat and begins to row him toward land. Did you ever tow a boat single-handed? Well, then you know it ain't no easy job, 'specially in the hot-sun. The warden keeps rowin' and sweatin', and Joe sets back in his boat calm and serene like the Gatobar of Brooda, both lines trailin' behind. Finally they gits to shore, and the warden says: 'Now, pile out o' there.'

"Joe steps out and stands on shore, and the warden jumps into Joe's boat and pulls in one line. Well, they ain't nothin' on it. He throws it into the boat and starts to pull in the other one.

"'Something on this!' he says. With that he gives a yank and pulls inwhat do you s'pose? Three bottles o' beer! Ha! Ha! I be'n laughin' ever sence. Never see any one look so dumfounded. Well, s'long! I got to git along and tell all the boys 'fore the warden gits up here."-Puck.

Asparagus Stewed. Cut the points as far as they are perfectly tender into pieces not more than one-half an inch in length. Wash them and throw into boiling salted water. When they are tender take out asparagus and lay aside for a few minutes. Have some pieces of toasted bread. Dip them into the water in which the asparagus was boiled. Butter them and place in dish, laying asparagus on top. Pour a little milk into saucepan. Thicken with a little flour and add a piece of butter and salt to taste. Pour the mixture over the asparagus and serve very hot.

Absolutely Free

FOR A LIMITED TIME

We are going to GIVE AWAY one of these beautiful genuine "ROGERS" French Verdigris -Satin Finished-Rose Design Silver Teaspoons, with every piece of

> CELEBRATED "1892" PURE SPUN

Aluminum Ware

BOUGHT AT OUR STORE You know what "Rogers" means on a piece of silverware. We want you to know what "1892" means on a cooking utensil—the purest, most sanitary, and longest-lived cooking vessels ever made. Every piece is positively

GUARANTEED FOR 15 YEARS

DON'T DELAY-there will be a big demand for these articles and we want you to obtain one or more of them before our stock gives out.

REINDOLLAR BROS. & CO.

SARBAUGH,

Jeweler.

Wishes to inform the people of Taneytown and vicinity that we have made arrangements with Robt. S. McKinney, Druggist, whereby our patrons can leave at his store any repairs, such as Watches, Glocks, Jewelry, &c, and same will be called for on Tuesday of each week and returned the following Tuesday. Orders for any goods will be received by Mr. McKinney, or you may send us a card, or letter, explaining what you wish, and our representative will bring a nice selection for you to choose from. All goods guaranteed as represented.

ALL REPAIRING GUARANTEED. Our representative will be in Taneytown on Tuesday of each week, between the hours of 9.30 a. m. and 3.30 p. m. CHAS. F. SARBAUGH,

Cor. Square & Broadway,

Corn Balls.

makes splendid ones. Discard the hard corn, that did not pop out, have in big pan and pour the candy over and stir in as fast as possible. Then form in "'Better look out,' I says. 'You're balls, but one must work very quick, bustin' the law. You hain't up right else they will crisp up so one cannot to fish with more'n one line. The handle them. Don't wet or butter the game warden's liable to show up any hands. It is not necessary.

Salmon Croquettes.

Pick bones and skin from one large can red salmon, add one raw egg, mix with cracker crumbs in small cakes, roll in cracker crumbs and fry in butter.--C. N. L.

NO. 4654 EQUITY. Ezra C. McGee, et. al., Plaintiff. Albert McGee, Defendant.

Ordered, this 25th, day of October, A. D., 1912, that the account of the Auditor filed in this cause be finally ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 11th, day of November next; provided a copy of this order be inserted for two successive weeks before the last named day in some newspaper published in Carroll County.

OSCAR D. GILBERT, Clerk. True Copy, Test:-OSCAR D. GILBERT, Clerk.

NO. 4692 EQUITY. In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, in Equity.

Tobias A. Martin, Mortgagee,

Charles R. Martin, Mortgagor. Charles R. Martin, Mortgagor.

ORDERED, this 22nd, day of October, A. D., 1912, by the Circuit Court for Carrol! County, sitting as a Court of Equity, that the sale of the mortgaged real estate made and reported in the above entitled cause by Tobias A. Martin, Mortgagee, by virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage from Charles R. Martin to the said Tobias A. Martin, bearing date on the 25th day of July, in the year Nineteen Hundred and Ten, and recorded among the Real Estate Mortgage Records of Carroll County, in Liber O. G. D., No. 57, foliz, etc., be finally ratified and confirmed; unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the 2nd day of December, next; provided, a copy of this order be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll County, Maryland, once a week in each of three successive weeks before the 15th, day of November, next, The report states the amount of the sale to be $890.12%.

OSCAR D. GILBERT, Clerk. True Copy-Test:-OSCAR D. GILBERT, Clerk. 10-25-4t

Examiners' Notice

The undersigned examiners have been appointed by virtue of a commission to them issued by the County Commissioners of Carroll County, to change the bed of the public road at Trevanion, near a bridge on Pipe Creek, and relocate the same in a field adjoining said road as now located, to a point near a stone house on the McFadden farm in Carroll Co., Md.

All persons whom it may concern are hereby notified that we will meet at the place of beginning on Tuesday, October 29, 1912, at 9 o'clock, a. m., to execute the trust imposed in us by the aforesaid commission.

JAMES D. HAINES.

JAMES D. HAINES. EDMUND F. SMITH. MILTON A. ZOLLICKOFFER.

$18 TO $35 PER WEEK Tak) a 4 week's Course in our Up-to-Date Repair Shop. Big demand for competent men AUTOMOBILE COLLEGE 2 West Preston Street
Baltimore. - Maryland

Floral Antiseptic Tooth Powder for cleaning and beautifying the teeth.

Make the teeth white and purifies the breath. 10c bottle.—Get at MCKELLIP's.

Did you ever use the ten-minute candy rule to make corn balls? It Real Estate for Sale

TRACT NO. 6.

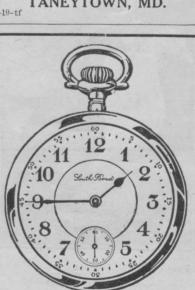

TRACT NO. 6.

Small Farm of 43½ Acres, more or less in Tineytown District, Carroll Co., Md., situated 2 miles south of Taneytown, Md., improved by a 2-story Dwelling House, water spigot in house, 6 rooms), also Summer House supplied with water, a large ground Barn 32x55 ft., with Silo attached with Wagon Shed and Hog House all under one roof, water spigot at barn and Hog House, Grain Shed, Poultry House and all necessary outbuildings, plenty of Fruit, 4 Acres of Timber, balance clear. This little farm enjoys the reputation of croping with any of them Cattle watered from every field; located along two county roads, Home-seeker investigate, price low.

Business for sale, and place for rent good op-portunity for young man in Taneytown, Md.

TRACT NO. 10. Small Farm of 23 Acres, more or less, in Taneytown District, Carroll Co., Md., 3 miles south of Taneytown, near Trevanion Mills. Improved by a 2-story House and Basement, good bank Barn, 30x60 ft., Wagon Shed 20x30 with corn crib attached. All necessary outbuilding, good apple orchard of choice fruit. The land is under a high state of cultivation, all been limed within the last 3 years. This is a fine little place and can be bought well worth the money. Come quick as the price alone will sell it.

D. W. GARNER, Real Estate Agent, TANEYTOWN, MD.

Geo. Z. Gitt, Jeweler and Optician. Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty All Work Guaranteed. Balt. St LITTLESTOWN, PA.

Let Us Take Your Measure For a Suit toOrder

About 400 of the new stylish patterns to select from-not samples, but the Goods.

ust as you like them, and our prices are lower than other tailors. 1000 New Ready-to-Wear

We know how to cut and make Suits

The kind that gives you the welldressed feeling. Come and see us before you buy clothing for men or boys.

SHARRER & GORSUCH, WESTMINSTER, MD.

Elaporan manyman manym The Party that Went to The consisted of Mr. Ferdinand D. Schaeffer, of Westminster, Dr. Jacob H. Sherman, wife and daughter, of Manchester, and Mr. Charles E. Fink.

Dr. Sherman is a successful practising physician and farmer, and is a director in the Manchester Bank. Mr. Schaeffer is a retired farmer and capitalist, and is a director in the First National Bank of Westminster. All of these gentlemen are well and favorably known in Carroll County, and their report on a proposition of this kind should absolutely satisfy anyone. These gentlemen have spent eleven days in the famous

YAKIMA VALLEY, and have seen and investigated every feature of it.

In a letter from Mr. Fink he says:

"Yesterday Mr. Schaeffer, Dr. Sherman, Mr. Devine, Mr. Leonard, our Superintendent, and myself autoed to Schumacher's place, inspected his land, trees and potatoes, and then went over to Section 27. (The land we sold and our own land is all located in Section 27.) We went carefully over the latter, and Dr. Sherman and Mr. Schaeffer were both highly pleased with the location and soil of Section 27 and with the location of their respective tracts. In fact, both of them say that the location and soil of any tract in Section 27 is as good as another; that a man could shut his eyes and pick out one on the plat and it would be just as good as any other. IN ALL THEIR TRAVELS HERE THEY HAVE SEEN NO LO-CATION TO EQUAL SECTION 27, and they consider it far superior to Schumacher's land. Both are enthusiastic as they could be about everything they have seen here, including our dam and the water supply."

'As we were leaving Section 27 (we happened to be going out over Berwager's tract) we pulled up a vine here and there, and found fine, large potatoes. In one hill we found four very large ones besides a number of smaller but marketable ones. We will bring a few of these potatoes home with us.

The Mr. Schumacher referred to is Superintendent for a care-taking company whose land adjoins Section 27, and last year his potato crop, planted in new ground between trees, yielded at the rate of $355, per acre.

In another letter he says,

"Both Dr. Sherman and Mr. Schaeffer are enthusiastic and are astounded at the fruit they see here, AND BELIEVE WE HAVE THE BEST LAND AND LOCA-TION THEY HAVE SEEN IN THE WHOLE VALLEY. They say that no one in Carroll County will believe them when they return and tell about the marvelous things they have seen here with their own eyes."

WHY WAIT ANY LONGER?

The proposition has now been thoroughly investigated by capable men in whom we all have the fullest confidence. They are not merely satisfied, but are enthusiastic over it. Do not let this opportunity slip by. The payments are easy, as only one-fourth is required down and the balance in one, two and three years, and the potato crop and fruit will take care of these payments. 'Phone or write us and arrange to see us during the coming week.

Daymon Musey March March

C. E. & J. B. FINK, (Charles E. Fink and Jno. Brooke Fink.) WESTMINSTER, MD.

J. N. ZINN & CO., Inc.

Heating Contractors and Sanitary Plumbers.

PROMPT ATTENTION GIVEN TO ALL

When in need of Heating with Hot Water, Steam, Vapor, Vapor Vacuum, or Hot Air, let us make you an Estimate (which costs nothing).

Call on, or write-

J. N. ZINN & CO., Inc. CHARLES TOWN, W. VA.

Littlestown Carriage Works.

CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, PHAETONS, TRAPS, CARTS, CUTTERS, ETC. DAYTON, MCCALL AND JAGGER WAGONS.

Repairing Promptly Done. Low Prices and all Work Guaranteed LITTLESTOWN, PA.,

The Home Insurance Co NEW YORK

Total Assets, $32,146,564.95 Surplus to Policy Holders, $18,615,440.71

Fire and Windstorm Policies on the paid-up insurance plan. No Premium Notes and No Assessments. Prompt and fair settlements of all losses. No better insurance in the world. For full information, call on-

P. B. ENGLAR, Agent, Taneytown, Md.

RUSTEE'S SALE OF A DESIRABLE DWELLING AND STORE PROPERTY

in Taneytown, Maryland.

The undersigned, Trus'ee, by virtue of the Forrest Otto and wife to Edward O. Weant and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County, will sell at public sale, on WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30th., 1912, at 2 o'clock p. m.

on the premises located in Taneytown, Carroll County, Maryland, all that desirable and DWELLING HOUSE & STORE PROPERTY

ombined, which was formerly occupied by Otto Bros, This property fronts 40 feet on Baltimore Street in Taneytown, Carroll County, Maryland, and five rooms up stairs and a *ath, and also contains a very large store room, warehouse and an additional building used in the manufacture of ice cream, etc. Anyone desiring a residence and business property can secure the same by purchasing this property. It adjoins the business house now conducted by Mr. John S. Bower, and is the same property conveyed to I. Forrest Otto by Homer S. Hill and wife, by deed dated April 8, 1910, and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll County, in Liber O. D. G., No. 114, Folio 258, County, in Liber O. D. G., No. 114, Folio 258

TERMS OF SALE: - One-third cash on the day of sale, one-third in 6 months and one-third in 12 months, with interest on the deferred payments from the day of sale, or all cash at the option of the purchaser.

J. N. O. Smith, Auct. EDWARD O. WEANT, Trust

PERSONAL PROPERTY. At the same time and place, the undersignd will sell the following Personal Property:

1 HOME-MADE CUTTER SLEIGH, wheelbarrow, lot of hay, set of chimes, and a lot of Household and Kitchen Furniture.

TERMS OF SALE CASH.
EDWARD O. WEANT.
Trust

Petition for Public Road in Carroll County

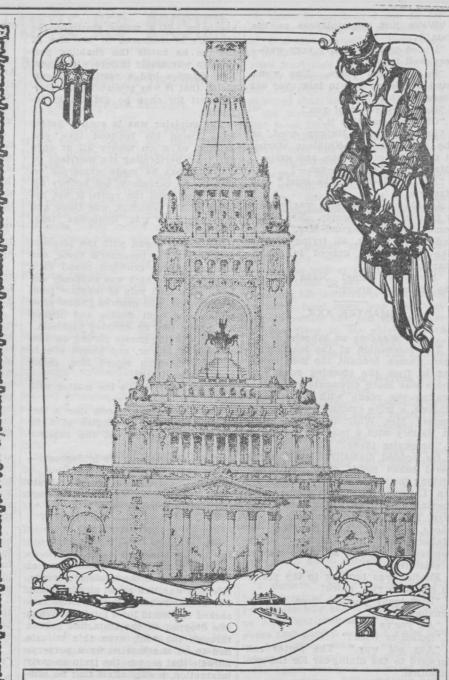

We the undersigned citizens of Taneytown District, in Carroll County, in the State of Maryland, respectfully petition the Honorable County Commissioners of said County, for a public road, the same to begin at a point on Jniontown and Taneytown road at the intersection of the Sell's Mill road at Copperville, and running thence on the bed of the old road between Mary A. Garner's and Charles Young's land to the lands of John Stultz and Elias O. Garner, thence through said lands of said Stultz and Garner on the bed of said old road to the School House land, thence through the lands of said school land and the said John Stultz to the Taneytown and Union Bridge road at or near Otter Dale school house.

JOHN T. STULTZ, WM. G. MYERS, N. D. FERSER LTZ, CHARLES W. YOUNG,
RS, J. D. OVERHOLIZER,
R, WM. K. ECKERT,
H. J. HILTERBRICK, and twelve others. 9-20.6t

Notice to Creditors. NO. 4671 EQUITY.

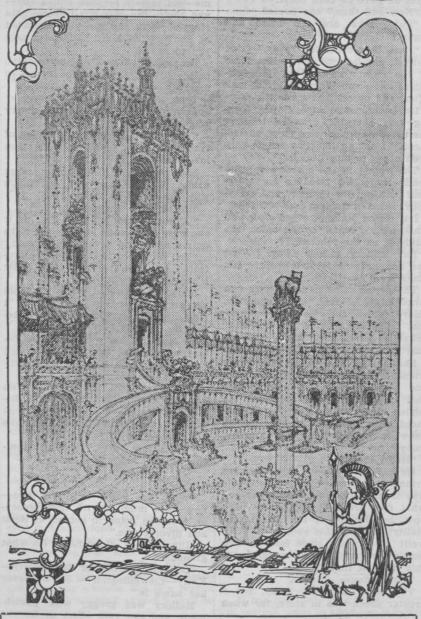

The Creditors of Luther N. Hilterbrick, deceased, are hereby notified to file their claims with the youchers thereof, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll Oounty within two months from the 1st. day of Octo-ber, 1912.

JOHN M: ROBERTS, Auditor,

TOWER OF THE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING, PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

ROM an architectural viewpoint the dominating feature of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition will be the huge tower of the Administration building. Rising 375 feet in height and flanked on either side by the domes, towers and minarets of the eight great exhibit palaces, the huge tower will be at all times the most conspicuous feature of the Exposition City. From San Francisco harbor it will appear as the central feature in the great rectangle of exhibit palaces, whose sky line will be 110 feet in height, whose domes will rise 144 feet and whose lesser towers will be 175 feet in height. From afar this central group will appear almost as a single palace, four-fifths of a mile long and 1,200 feet in width; nearer at hand it will be found that the exhibit palaces are interspersed with great open courts, each designed by notable groups of America's foremost architects. The inner courts will express the highest ideal of the architect, the sculptor, the colorist and the landscape gardener. The Exposition palaces will be the loftiest ever constructed; the grouping of huge buildings will give an effect of almost inconceivable massiveness and grandeur. At the base of the tower, which will occupy an acre in extent, will be a huge arcade beneath which visitors may enter from the main exposition entrance into the grand Court of Honor. This court, which will be 700 by 900 feet in its greatest dimensions, was designed by McKim, Mead & White.

EAST COURT, PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

HE great East Court at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is designed for pageantry surpassing the famous Durbar of India. It will constitute a suitable setting for oriental or modern drama upon a colossal scale. From a huge staircase or from the tops of its encircling walls the visitor to this "Court of Joyousness" will be enabled to witness the pageants that will be a feature of the exposition. The main tower of the court will contain a great pipe organ, with echo organs in the smaller towers; within the center of the court will lie a basin containing groupings of classic statuary, dancing figures, fauns, satyrs and nymphs. Electric scintillators will play upon fountains at night. Tropical shrubs and flowers will contrast with the sterner effect of the colonnades, statuary and facades of the court. In its architecture the East Court, which will lie among the main group of exhibit palaces, will resemble the oriental phase of the Spanish-Moorish architecture.

Imitation That Is Not at All Hard to Achieve

Study the Substitute Will Be an Easy Matter-Naturalness First Requisite.

server can call numbers of birds to worth quoting: him by sucking his finger or the back of his hand. The sound produced is the Thirty-second regiment cost me like that made by a young bird in dear, but I was obliged to do it. A distress. No other sound will so commander-in-chief must have a trespeedily attract birds, and their re- mendous power. How can you reasonsponse is a touching evidence of the onably question the right of a man bring many birds near, and bring troops to punish such serious offenses. them with dispatch, it has serious as he deems fit? I convicted these drawbacks. Those that come are Grenadiers before punishing them! likely to be fearful and excited, their When I seized Antoine by the collar voices are querulous and their bear- and said to him: 'Come, miserable ing unnatural. Therefore, the experi- wretch, and let me confront you with ence is not nearly so satisfying or your accomplice,' he was confounded. instructive as that of luring a single bird through the powers of attraction battle by themselves! Perhaps the and charm, rather than through rous- corporal has won some. You did not ing curiosity and fear.

Act naturally.

diverting pastime proves a great de- this." light to those who love the woods and fields and the wild things that live in them.

To Renew Chiffon,

Spread a wet cloth over a very hot fron and hold the chiffon over the steam until it is free from wrinkles. Renew both cloth and iron as soon as the steam flows feebly. Allow the Journal.

MEN OF THE FIRST REPUBLIC

Type of the Soldiers With Whom the Great Napoleon Swept All Europe.

Another contribution to "Napoleonlana" is the collection of memoirs and letters of the army surgeon, Baron Desgnettes, who was with the Egypn expedition. One day he found Eugene Beauharnais asleep in the sand in the desert of Ramanieh. "Wake up, Eugene, wake up! This repose does not suit either your name In order to call birds with much or profession. A man of war must success a good musical ear is certain- be without rest and without pity." On ly needed; but any one with patience another occasion Napoleon had concan lure birds near or bring from demned several of his pet Grenadiers them an answer merely by whistling to death for looting and murder. His an imitation of their notes. The ob- reflections, made to Desgnettes, are

"My sentence on the Grenadiers of natural affections that they possess. | to whom the state sometimes entrusts Although this is the best way to the lives of a hundred thousand

"But what men!-fellows to win a see how they died? Like Caesars, Move quietly and try to put your- showing their affection for me. One self in the bird's place. This act of of their comrades went to drink with mind will soften and mellow your them in prison, and remarked: 'Perwhistle, and it will give you a much haps there was some truth in the better chance of success. Perhaps its charge, else Bonaparte would not first answer will be a half-amused, have condemned you.' 'Be silent,' half-annoyed note of surprise that was the answer; 'you do not know any bird should whistle so strongly. What you are saying; he was de-When a bird is sighted or is thought ceived again, as he often has been beto be within call give your first whis- fore, but no matter-let us drink to tles gently, and give them to your- his health.' And when the time came self, in order to make sure that you for the execution, they marched steadare on the right key. And as far as ily out and stood calmly before the possible avoid the appearance of be- firing party, saying: 'This is how the' ing a lurker or an object of suspicion. Grenadiers of the Thirty-second die.' Afterward the officers came to see The song of a bird cannot really be me, but I would not receive them; well imitated, even by experts, but but, faith! I pity those upon whom the with a little listening and practice the Thirty-second may fall on the first ocamateur can whistle the different casion that presents itself for them to calls. This innocent, instructive, and wipe out the remembrance of all

Doing Very Well.

"Bah! He has no energy." "He has energy enough to roll his own cigarettes and to carry a large cane. You can't expect too much of a young feller."

Reclaiming Hawaiian Island. The practically barren Hawaiian island of Lanai will be reclaimed by chiffon to dry quickly.-Ladies' Home a water conservation scheme and desoted to sugar beet culture.

Copyright, 1911, by H. K. Fly Co. CHAPTER XXIX.

Jealousy Comes Aboard. There was an air of domestic peace in the observation room, where Mallory and Marjorie had been left to themselves for some time. But the peace was like the ominous hush that precedes a tempest. Mallory was so happy with everything coming his way, that he was even making up with Snoozleums, stroking the tatted coat with one hand and holding up his newspaper with the other. He did not know all that was coming his way. The blissful silence was broken first by Marjorie: "How do you spell Utah?-with a

"Utah begins with You," he saidand rather liked his wit, listened for some recognition, and rose to get it, but she waved him away. "Don't bother me, honey. Can't you see I'm busy?" He kissed her hair and sauntered back, dividing his attention between Snoozleums and the ten-inning game.

And now there was a small commotion in the smoking room. Through the glass along the corridor the men caught sight of the girl who had got on at Green River. Ashton saw her first and she saw him.

"There she goes," Ashton hissed to the others, "look quick! There's the nectarine.'

"My word! She's a little bit of all right, isn't she?"

Even Dr. Temple stared at her with approval: "Dear little thing, isn't

The girl, very consciously unconscious of the admiration, moved demurely along, with eyes downcast, but at such an angle that she could take in the sensation she was creating; she went along picking up stares as if they were bouquets.

Her demcanor was a remarkable compromise between outrageous flirtation and perfect respectability. But she was looking back so intently that when she moved into the observation room she walked right into the newspaper Mallory was holding out before

Both said: "I beg your pardon." When Mallory lowered the paper, both stared till their eyes almost popped. Her amazement was one of immediate rapture. He looked as if he would have been much obliged for, a volcanic crater to sink into.

' she gasped, and let fal 'Harry!

her handbag. "Kitty!" he gasped, and let fall his newspaper. Both bent, he handed her the newspaper and tossed the handbag into a chair; saw his mistake, withdrew the newspaper and proffered her Snoozleums. Marjorie stopped writing, pen poised in air, as if she had suddenly been petrified.

The newcomer was the first to speak. She fairly gushed: "Harry Mallory-of all people."

"Kitty! Kathleen! Miss Lewellyn!" "Just to think of meeting you again."

"Just to think of it." "And on this train of all places." "On this train of all places!"

"Oh, Harry, Harry!"

"Oh, Kitty, Kitty, Kitty!"

"You dear fellow, it's so long since I saw you last." "So long."

"It was at that last hop at West Point, remember? -- why, it seems only yesterday, and how well you are looking. You are well, aren't you?" "Not very." He was mopping his brow in anguish, and yet the room seemed strangely cold.

"Or course you look much better in your uniform. You aren't wearing your uniform, are you?"

"No, this is not my uniform." "You haven't left the army, have you?"

"I don't know yet." "Don't ever do that. You are just beautiful in brass buttons."

"Thanks." "Harry!"

"What's the matter now?"

"This tie, this green tie, isn't this the one I knitted you?"

"I am sure I don't know, I borrowed it from the conductor." "Don't you remember? I did knit

"Did you? I believe you did! I think I wore it out." "Oh, you fickle boy. But see what I have. What's this?"

He stared through the glassy eyes of complete helplessness. "It looks like a bracelet."

"Don't tell me you don't remember this!—the little bangle bracelet you

"D-did I give you a baygled branglet?" "Of course you did. And the in-

"The pleasure is all mine," Marscription. Don't you remember it?" She held her wrist in front of his aching eyes and he perused as if it were his own epitaph. what she read | just acquaintances on the train?"

aloud for him. "From Harry to Kitty, the Only Girl I Ever Loved.'

"Good night!" he sighed to himself, and began to mop his brow with Snoozleums "You put it on my arm," said Kathleen, with a moonlight sigh, "and I've always worn it." "Always?"

"Always! no matter whom I was engaged to."

The desperate wretch, who had not dared even to glance in Marjorie's direction, somehow thought he saw a straw of self-defense. "You were engaged to three or four others when I was at West Point."

"I may have been engaged to the others," said Kathleen, moon-eyeing him, "but I always liked you best, Clifford-er, Tommy-I mean Harry.' "You got me at last."

Kathleen fenced back at this: 'Well, I've no doubt you have had a dozen affairs since."

"Oh, no! My heart has only known one real love." He threw this over her head at Marjorie, but Kathleen seized it, to his greater confusion: "Oh, Harry, how sweet of you to say it. It makes me feel positively faint," and she swooned his way, but he shoved a chair forward and let her collapse into that. Thinking and hoping that she was unconscious, he made ready to escape, but she caught him by the coat, and moaned: "Where am I?" and he growled back:

"In the Observation Car!" Kathleen's life and enthusiasm returned without delay: "Fancy meeting you again! I could just scream."

"So could I." "You must come up in our car and see mamma."

"Is Ma-mamma with you?" Mallory stammered, on the verge of imbecility.

yes, indeed, we're going "Oh, around the world." "Don't let me detain you."

"Papa is going round the world also."

"Is papa on this train, too?" At last something seemed to embarrass her a trifle: "No, papa went on ahead. Mamma hopes to overtake him. But papa is a very good trav-

Then she changed the subject. "Do come and meet mamma. It would cheer her up so. She is so fond of Only this morning she was saying, 'Of all the boys you were ever engaged to, Kathleen, the one I like most of all was Edgar-I mean Clarence-er-Harry Mallory."

"Awfully kind of her." "You must come and see her-she's some stouter now!"

"Oh, is she? Well, that's good." Mallory was too angry to be sane, and too helpless to take advantage of his anger. He wondered how he could ever have cared for this molasses and mucilage girl. He remembered now that she had always had these same cloying ways. She had always pawed him and, like everybody but the pawers, he hated pawing. would have been bad enough at any time to have Kathleen hanging on his coat, straightening his tie, leaning close, smiling up in his eyes, losing him his balance, recapturing him every time he edged away. But with Marjorie as the grim witness it was maddening. He loathed and abominated Kathleen Llewellyn, and if she had only been a man, he could cheerfully have beaten her to a pulp and chucked her out of the window. But because she was a helpless little baggage he had to be as polite as he could while she sat and tore his plans to pieces, embittered Marjorie's heart against him; and either ended all hopes of their marriage, or furnished an everlasting rancor to be recalled in every quarrel to their dying day. Oh, etiquette, what injustices are endured in thy

So there he sat, sweating his soul's blood, and able only to spar for time and wonder when the gong would ring. And now she was off on a new "And where are you bound for, Harry, dear?"

"The Philippines," he said, and for the first time there was something beautiful in their remoteness.

"Perhaps we shall cross the Pacific on the same boat."

The first sincere smile he had experienced came to him: "I go on an army transport, fortu-unfortunately." "Oh, I just love soldiers. Couldn't mamma and I go on the transport?

Mamma is very fond of soldiers, too." "I'm afraid it couldn't be arranged." "Too bad, but perhaps we can stop off and pay you a visit. I just love army posts. So does mamma."

"Oh, do!" "What will be your address?" "Just the Philippines—just the Philippines. "But aren't there quite a few of "Only about two thousand." "Which one will you be on?"

"I'll be on the third from the left," said Mallory, who neither knew nor cared what he was saying. Marjorie had endured all that she could stand. She rose in a tightly leashed fury.

"I'm afraid I'm in the way." Kathleen turned in surprise. She had not noticed that anyone was near. Mallory went out of his head completely. "Oh, don't go-for heaven's sake don't go," he appealed to Mar.

jorie. "A friend of yours?" said Kathleen, bristling.

"No, not a friend," in a chaotic tangle, "Mrs. — Miss—Miss—Er—er—

Kathleen smiled: "Delighted to meet you, Miss Ererer."

jorie said, with an acid smile. "Have you known Harry long?" said Kathleen, jealously, "or are you

"We're just acquaintances on the train!"

"I used to know Harry very wellvery well inded." "So I should judge. You won't mind if I leave you to talk over old times together?" "How very sweet of you."

"Oh, don't mention it." "But, Marjorie," Mallory cried, as she turned away. Kathleen started at the ardor of his tone, and gasped: "Marjorie! Then he-you-"Not at all-not in the least," said

Marjorie. At this crisis the room was suddenly inundated with people. Mrs. Whitcomb, Mrs. Wellington, Mrs. Temple and Mrs. Fosdick, all trying to look like bridesmaids, danced in, shout-

"Here they come! Make way for the bride and groom!"

CHAPTER XXX.

A Wedding on Wheels. The commotion of the matrimony-mad women brought the men trooping in from the smoking room and there was much circumstance of decorating the scene with white satin ribbons, a trifle crumpled and dim of luster. Mrs. Whitcomb waved them at Mallory with a laugh:

"Recognize these?" He nodded dismally. His own funeral baked meats were coldly furnishing forth a wedding breakfast for Ira Lathrop. Mrs. Wellington was moving about distributing kazoos and Mrs. Temple had an armload of old shoes, some of which had thumped Mallory on an occasion which seemed so ancient as to be almost prehistoric.

Fosdick was howling to the porter to get some rice, quick!

"How many portions does you approximate?"

"All you've got." "Boiled or fried?"

"Any old way." The porter ran forward to the dining-car for the ammunition. Mrs. Temple whispered to her husband: "Too bad you're not officiating. Walter." But he cautioned silence: "Hush! I'm on my vacation." The train was already coming into Ogden. Noises were multiplying and from the increase of passing objects, the speed seemed to be taking on a spurt. The bell was clamoring like a wedding chime in a steeple. Mrs. Wellington was on a chair fastening a ribbon round one of the lamps, and Mrs. Whitcomb was on another chair braiding the bell rope with withered orange branches, when Ashton, with kazoo all ready, called out: "What tune shall we play?" "I prefer the Mendelssohn Wedding

Wellington glared across at her. "I've always used the Lohengrin." "We'll play 'em both," said Dr. Temple, to make peace. Mrs. Fosdick murmured to her spouse: "The old Justice of the Peace didn't give us any music at all," and received in reward one of his most luscious-eved looks, and a whisper: "But he gave us each other."

March," said Mrs. Whitcomb, but Mrs.

"Now and then," she pouted. "But where are the bride and groom?"

"Here they come-all ready." cried Ashton, and he beat time while some of the guests kazooed at Mendelssohn's and some Wagner's bridal melodice and others just made a noise Ira Lathrop and Anne Gattle, looking very sheepish, crowded through the narrow corridor and stood shamefacedly blushing like two school children about to sing a duet. The train jolted to a dead stop. The conductor called into the car: "Ogden! All out for Ogden!" and everybody stood watching and waiting. Ira, seeing Mallory, edged close and whispered: "Stand by to catch the minister on the rebound." But Mallory turned away. What use had he now for ministers? His plans were shattered ruins.

The porter came flying in with two large bowls of rice, and shouting, "Here comes the 'possum-er-pos-Seeing Mariorie, he said: "Shall I perambulate Mista Snoozleums?" She handed the porter her only friend and he hurried out, as a lean and professionally sad ascetic hurried in. He did not recognize his boyish enemy in the gray-haired, redfaced giant that greeted him, but he knew that voice and its gloating irony: "Hello, Charlie." He had always found that when Ira grinned and was cordial, some trouble was in store for him. He wondered what rock Ira held behind his back now, but he forced an uneasy cordiality: "And is this you, Ira? Well, well! It is yeahs since last we met. And you're just getting married. Is this the first time, Ira?" "First offense, Charlie." The levity shocked Selby, but a greater shock was in store, for when he inquired: "And who is the-erhappy-bride?" the triumphant Lathrop snickered: "I believe you used to know her. Anne Gattle." This was the rock behind Ira's back. and Selby took it with a wince: "Not -my old-" "The same. Anne, you remember, Charlie." "Oh, yes," said Anne, "How do you do, Charlie?" And she put out a shy hand, which he took with one still shyer. He was so unsettled that he stammered: "Well, well. I had always hoped to marry you, Anne, but not just this way." Lathrop cut him short with a sharp: Better get busy-before the train starts. And I'll pay you in advance before you set off the fireworks."

The flippancy pained Rev. Charles, but he was resuscitated by one glance at the bill that Ira thrust into get that bracelet away from that ing of two mountain chains, the rail-his palm. If a man's gratitude for his wife is measured by the size of the fee he hands the enabling parson, Ira was madly in love with Anne. Rev. Charles had a reminiscent suspicion that it was probably a counterfeit, but for once he did Ira an injustice. The minister was in such a flutter from losing his boyhood love, and gaining so much money all at once and from performing the marriage on a train, that he made numerous errors in the ceremony, but nobody noticed them, and the spirit, if not the letter of the occasion, was there and the contract was doubtless legal enough. The ritual began with the pleasant murmur of the preacher's voice, and the passengers crowded round in a solemn calm, which was suddenly violated by a loud yelp of laughter from Wedgewood, who omitted guffaw after guffaw and bent double and opened out again, like an agitated umbrella.

The wedding-guests turned on him visages of horror, and hissed silence at him. Ashton seized him, shook him, and muttered: "What the-what's the matter with you? The Englishman shook like a boy having a spasm of giggles at a funeral, and blurted out the explanation:

"That story about the bridegroom-I just saw the point!"

Ashton closed his jaw by brute force and watched over him through the rest of the festivity.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Foiled Yet Again.

Mallory had fled from the scene at the first hum of the minister's words. His fate was like alkali on his palate. For twelve hundred miles he had ransacked the world for a minister. When one dropped on the train like manna through the roof, even this miracle had to be checkmated by a perverse miracle that sent to the train an early infatuation, a silly affair that he himself called puppy-love. And now Marjorie would never marry him. He did not blame her. He blamed fate. He was in solitude in the smoking room. The place reeked with drifting tobacco smoke and the malodor of cigar stubs and cigarette ends. His plans were as useless and odious as cigarette ends. He dropped into a chair, his elbows on his knees and his head in his hands-Napoleon on St. Helena.

And then, suddenly he heard Marjorie's voice. He turned and saw her hesitating in the doorway. He rose to welcome her, but the smile died on his lips at her chilly speech:

"May I have a word with you, sir?" "Of course. The air's rather thick in here," he apologized.

"Just wait!" she said, ominously, and stalked in like a young Zenobia. He put out an appealing hand: "Now, Marjorie, listen to reason. Of course I know you won't marry me now." "Oh, you know that, do you?" she said, with a squared jaw. "But, really, you ought to marry me-not merely because I love youand you're the only girl I ever-" He stopped short and she almost smiled as she taunted him: "Go on-I dare you to say it." He swallowed hard and waived the point: "Well, anyway, you ought to marry me-for your own sake."

Then she took his breath away answering: "Oh, I'm going to marry you, never fear." "You are," he cried, with a rush of "Oh, I knew you

She pushed his encircling arms aside: "I don't love you, and that's why I'm going to marry you." "But I don't understand." "Of course not," she sneered, as it returning hope.

loved me.'

grounds?"

only a man-and a very young man.' 'You've ceased to love me," he protested, "just because of a little affair I had before I met you?"

she were a thousand years old, "you're

Marjorie answered with world-old wisdom: "A woman can forgive a man anything except what he did before he met her." He stared at her with masculine dismay at feminine logic: "If you can't forgive me, then why do you marry me? "For revenge!" she cried. "You brought me on this train all this distance to introduce me to a girl you used to spoon with. And I don't like her. She's awful!"

"Yes, she is awful," Mallory assented. "I don't know how I ever-"Oh, you admit it!"

"No. "Well, I'm going to marry younow-this minute--with that preacher, then I'm going to get off at Reno and divorce you.' "Divorce me! Good Lord! On what

"On the grounds of Miss Kitty-Katty-Llewellington - or whatever her name is." Mallory was groggy with punishment, and the vain effort to foresee her next blow. "But you can't name a woman that way," he pleaded, "for just being nice to me before I ever met vou."

"That's the worst kind of unfaithfulness," she reiterated. "You should have known that some day you would meet me. You should have saved your first love for me."

"But last love is best," Mallory interposed. weakly. "Oh, no, it isn't, and if it is, how do I know I'm to be your last love? No, sir, when I've divorced you, you can him was in and of the depths. go back to your first love and go round the world with her till you get dizzy.' "But I don't want her for a wife," Mallory urged, "I want you."

"You'll get me-but not for long.

creature. Do you promise?"

start."

"How can I get it away?" "Take it away! Do you promise?" Mallory surrendered completely. Anything to get Marjorie safely into his arms: "I promise anything, if you'll really marry me." "Oh, I'll marry you, sir, but not really. And while he stared in helpless awe at the cynic and termagant that jealousy had metamorphosed this timid, clinging creature into, they heard the conductor's voice at the rear door of the car: "Hurry up-we've got to

They heard Lathrop's protest: "Hold on there, conductor," and Selby's plea: "Oh, I say, my good man, wait a moment, can't you? The conductor answered with the gruffness of a despot: "Not a minute. I've my orders to make up lost time. All aboard!"

While the minister was tying the last loose ends of the matrimonial knot, Mallory and Marjorie were struggling through the crowd to get at him. Just as they were near, they were swept aside by the rush of the bride and groom, for the parson's "1 pronounce you man and wife," pronounced as he backed toward the door, was the signal for another wedding riot. Once more Ira and Anne were showered with rice. This time it was their own. Ira darted out into the corridor, haling his brand-new wife by the wrist, and the wedding guests pursued them across the vestibule, through the next car, and on, and on. Nobody remained to notice what happened to the parson. Having performed his function, he was without further interest or use. But to Mallory and Marjorie he was vitally necessary. Mallory caught his hand as it turned the knob of the door and drew him back. Marjorie, equally determined, caught his other elbow:

"Please don't go," Mallory urged, 'until you've married us." The Reverend Charles stared at his captors in amazement: "But my dear man, the train's mov-Marjorie clung all the tighter and invited him to "Come on to the next

"But my dear lady," Selby gasped, "it's impossible." "You've just got to," Mallory insisted. "Release me, please." "Never!"

"How dare you!" the parson shrieked, and with a sudden wriggle writhed out of his coat, leaving it in Marjorie's hands. He darted to the door and flung it open, with Mallory hot after him.

The train was kicking up a cloud of dust and getting its stride. The kidnapped clergyman paused a moment, aghast at the speed with which the ground was being paid out. Then he climbed the brass rail and, with a hasty prayer, dropped overboard.

Mallory lunged at him, and seized him by his reversed collar. But the collar alone remained in his clutch. The parson was almost lost in the dust he created as he struck, bounded and rolled till he came to a stop, with his stars and his prayers to thank for injuries to nothing worse than his dignity and other small clothes.

room and flung the collar and bib to the floor in a fury of despair, howling: "He got away! He got away!"

CHAPTER XXXII.

Mallory returned to the observation

The Empty Berth. The one thing Mallory was beginning to learn about Marjorie was that she would never take the point of view he expected, and never proceed along the lines of his logic. She had grown furious at him for what he could not help. She had told him that she would marry him out of spite. She had commanded him to pursue and apprehend the flying parson. He failed and returned crestfallen and wondering what new form her rage would take. And, lo and behold, when she saw him so downcast and helpless, she rushed to him with caresses, cuddled his broad shoulders against her breast, and smothered him. It was the sincerity of his dejection and the complete helplessness he displayed that won her woman's heart. Mallory gazed at her with almost more wonderment than delight. This was another flashlight on her character. Most courtships are conducted under a rose-light in which wooer and wooed wear their best clothes on their best behavior; or in a starlit, moonlit, or gaslit twilight where romance softens angles and wraps everything in velvet shadow. Then the two get married and begin to live together in the cold, gray daylight of realism, with undignified necessities and harrowing situations at every step, and disillusion begins its deadly work.

This young couple was undergoing all the inconveniences and temper-exposures of marriage without its blessed compensations. They promised to be well acquainted before they were wed. If they still wanted each other after this ordeal, they were pretty well assured that their marriage would not be a failure.

Mallory rejoiced to see that the hurricane of Marjorie's jealousy had only whipped up the surface of her soul. The great depths were still calm and unmoved, and her love for

Soon after leaving Ogden, the train entered upon the great bridge across the Great Salt Lake. The other passengers were staring at the enormous engineering masterpiece and the conductor was pointing out that, in or-And one other thing, I want you to der to save forty miles and the cross-

Tonic-Alterative

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or the tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparillaentirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor about it.

Bilious attacks, sick-headaches, indigestion, constipation, dizzy spells—these are some of the results of an inactive liver. Ask your doctor if he endorses Ayer's Pills in these cases. The dose is small, one pill at bedtime.

Made by the J. C. AYER CO., Lowell. Mass.

road had devoted four years of labor and millions of dollars to stretching a thirty-mile bridge across this inland

But Marjorie and Mallory never noticed it. They were absorbed in exploring each other's souls, and they had safely bridged the Great Salt Lake which the first big bitter jealousy spreads across every matrimonial route.

They were undisturbed in their voyage, for all the other passengers had their noses flattened against the window panes of the other cars-all except one couple, gazing each at each through time-wrinkled eyelids touched with the magic of a tardy honeymoon.

For all that Anne and Ira knew, the Great Salt Lake was a moonswept lagoon, and the arid mountains of Nevada which the train went scaling, were the very hillsides of Arca dia.

But the other passengers soon came trooping back into the observation room. Ira had told them nothing of Mallory's confession. In the first. place, he was a man who had learned to keep a secret, and in the second place, he had forgotten that such persons as Mallory or his Marjorie existed. All the world was summed up in the fearsomely happy little spinster who had moved up into his sectionthe section which had begun its career draped in satin ribbons unwittingly prophetic.

The communion of Mallory and Marjorie under the benison of reconciliation was invaded by the jokes of the other passengers, unconsciously ironic. Dr. Temple chaffed them amiably:

"You two will have to take a back seat now. We've got a new bridat couple to amuse us." And Mrs. Temple welcomed them, with: "You're only old married folks, like us." The Mallorys were used to the misunderstanding. But the misplaced witticisms gave them reassurance that their secret was safe yet a little while. At their dinner-table, however, and in the long evening that followed they were haunted by the fact that this was their last night on the train.

and no minister to be expected. And now once more the Mallorys regained the star roles in the esteem, of the audience, for once more they quarreled at good-night-kissing time. Once more they required two sections, while Anne Gattle's berth was not even made up. It remained empty, like a deserted nest, for its occupant had flown south. (To be Continued.) When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years' says Enos Lollar of Saratoga, Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For Classified Advertisements.

Bentistry.

J. S. MYERS.

sale by all dealers.

New Windsor, Md. Westminster, Md. Drs. Myers, SURGEON DENTISTS,

J. E. MYERS

Dental Work, including ALUMINUM PLATES. DR. J. W. HELM,

Are prepared to do All Kinds of SURGEON DENTIST, New Windsor - . Maryland. Will be in Taneytown 1st Wednesday of each month.

I have other engagements for the 3rd

Saturday and Thursday and Friday, immediately preceding. The rest of the mediately preceding. nonth at my office in New Windsor. Nitrous Oxide Gas administered. Graduate of Maryland Universty, Baltimore, Md.

BONES

Hafleigh & Co. Philadelphia

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson V .- Fourth Quarter, For Nov. 3, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Mark viii, 11-26. Memory Verses, 14, 15-Golden Text, John viii, 12 (R. V.)-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

Having again crossed the sea after He had fed the 4,000, the Pharisees and Sadducees came to Him tempting Him and asking Him to show them a sign from heaven. He called them a wicked and adulterous generation and said that no sign would be given unto them, but the sign of the prophet Jonas (verses 11, 12; Matt. xvi. 1-4). This was his second reference to Jonah. On the former occasion He spoke of his experience in the belly of the fish and said that so He would be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth (Matt. xii, 12-40). The Pharisees believed in angels, spirits and the resurrection, but were self righteous formalists, hypocrites, covetous and did their works to be

The Sadducees did not believe in the resurrection (Mark xii, 18). His spirit was grieved because of them, so He left them and again went across the sea with His disciples, having only one loaf in the boat with them, for the disciples forgot to take bread as He charged them to take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees and of Herod. They thought that He was referring to their forgetfulness in the matter of bread. What a suggestive lesson for us who are apt to think more of the health of the body than of the health of the soul, careful concerning what we eat and drink, but receiving the most poisonous things for our minds in the way of doctrine and from the daily papers and magazines. How they could think that lack of bread would be at all perplexing to Him whom they had seen feed 5,000 and 4,000 with a few loaves and fishes seems indeed strange, and we do not wonder that He reminded them of these events and said: "Having eyes, see ye not? And, having ears. hear ye not? And do ye not remember? How is it that ye do not understand?" (Verses 17-21; Matt. xvi, 8-12.) When He said plainly, "I spake not to you concerning bread," then they understood that He referred to the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

In addition to what we said above concerning these two classes of people, it might be added that the Pharisees denied any necessity for Christ's first coming, and the Sadducees denied His second coming, saying there is no resurrection, neither angel nor spirit, nor future rewards and punishments (Acts xxiii, 8). The leaven of Herod suggests worldiness in every form, with a bit of religion, for Herod feared John the Baptist and observed him, heard him gladly and did many things, but kept right on in sin and would rather please sinners than do what he knew to be right (Mark vi, 20, 26) Let me again emphasize what I firmly believe-that there is no place in the Bible where leaven ever means anything good, and therefore to speak of anything good as the leaven working is altogether unscriptural. It is easily so seen in our lesson; in the passover story of Ex. xii: in the sacrifices of Lev. ii, 11; in the thanksgiving offering of Lev. vii, 12, 13: Amos 4, 5, where they were told that to offer leaven was just like them, and in I Cor. v. 6-8.

Those who think that our Lord meant something good when He said, "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till the whole was leavened" (Matt. xiii, 33). should study carefully the four parables of which this is the last and note that our Lord was speaking not of the kingdom when it shall have come, but of this present age of the mysteries of the kingdom (Matt. xiii. 11), while He and it are both rejected and the church is being gathered. Not one of the four parables gives any encouragement to look for a converted world in this age, and the story of the leaven teaches that the woman, the professing church, will thoroughly corrupt her food. Let any one consider the Sunday topics of the majority of preachers of the present day and then say whether the people are getting pure water from the fountain of life or something from the preacher's own mind and not from God.

The conclusion of our lesson, found only in Mark, is the record of His healing a blind man at Bethsaida Some one has said that all miracles are acted parables and that all phys ical infirmities are suggestive, if not actually typical, of spiritual troubles. All blind people suggest the blindness that holds all who have never seen Jesus Christ as God and as the great sacrifice for their sins, whom He calls blind, advising them to anoint their eyes with eye salve that they may see.

Some blind people received their sight by a word from Him. One had clay put upon his eyes and was sent to Siloam to wash. Some had clear vision instantly, but this man received his sight gradually. We must not covet an experience similar to another, but be quite content to have the Lord deal with us as He pleases. This man He took by the hand and led him out of the town. What a picture-the Creator of all things taking a blind man by the hand and walking with him along the street, the author of life and light, Himself the life and light, touching human blindness.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Nov. 3, 1912.

Topic.-The Christian virtues.-XI. Zeal. -Tit. ii, 1-14. (Consecration meeting.) Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

Zeal has been defined as "eagerness in favor of a person or a cause." If this be a correct definition it naturally follows that the greater the person and the greater the cause the greater will be the zeal. Human history has demonstrated both the correctness of the above definition and the deduction that has been made from it. There has been zeal for moderate men and moderate causes, but great men, great leaders, have been able to inspire a devotion that has been passionate, and great causes have aroused a zeal that has become a consuming fire. Upon this principle Christian zeal should be vastly superior to any other zeal, for the reason that it is devotion to the greatest person and to the greatest cause in the world's history. To such a person as Jesus Christ and to such a cause as Christianity indifference and half heartedness should be unknown. Christian zeal should be a consuming flame, a passionate devotion; it should absolutely control and direct our lives.

Christian zeal is enjoined upon all disciples of Christ. It would seem unnecessary that it should be so, and yet we all know the indifference and half heartedness of many professed followers of Christ. They are zealous in behalf of their own interests, but absolutely lukewarm to the claims of Christ upon them. Hence the Apostle Paul reminds us that we should be "zealous," and "zealous of good works." For this purpose he declares Christ redeemed us. The zeal of man for evil is well known. There are men who expend enough energy in dishonesty which, it applied to legitimate avenues of life. would bring rich and abundant rewards. The emissaries of evil are untiring in their efforts. To counteract their influences and to replace evil with good the disciples of Christ must be even more earnest and more zealous in all their work. In such a way only can success crown their efforts for good. We must not be "weary in well doing," but "zealous of good works."

Christian zeal should be especially manifested in soul saving. The supreme mission of Christ was to seek and to save the lost, and this should be the one great aim of every disciple of Christ. Every Christian should be filled with "a passion for souls." The work of the church should also enlist the Christian's zeal. David declared. The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up," and John applied these words to Christ when He drove the money changers and other evildoers from the temple at Jerusalem: "Zeal for the Lord's house-for its worship, its hon or, its work-should consume us all." Moreover, the Christian should be zealous in every good work. There should be no worthy cause that tends to mee. the needs of man, to bring to him re lief or to elevate him physically, morally or spiritually, but that should have the whole hearted, earnest, enthusiastic support of every disciple of Christ.

BIBLE READINGS.

Num. xxv, 10, 11; II Kings x, 16-28; Ps. lxix, 1-9; Eccl. ix, 10; Matt xxi, 1-14; John ii, 12-17; Rom. x, 1-3; I Cor. xiv, 12; Eph. v, 15-21; Gal. vi, 1-10.

Fullbacks, Halfbacks and Waybacks. In the Christian Endeavor move ment the great crowd of young people and some older people, too, are "forwards." They always have the goal in view, and they press on toward it eagerly, bravely, strenuously. The growth of the cause to 71,000 societies in less than three decades is to be credited largely to the go ahead ele ment, the young men and women of vision and courage that have dared. A halfback or a fullback in football is a useful fellow who stands behind the "forward" to support him and stem the opposing tide of play should the enemy pass the front players. In Christian Endeavor, as in all religious work, the halfback is the stiff jointed, lukewarm person that hobbles behind the crowd and is not very anxious to keep up with the procession. He las soes the forwards with his well directed murmurings and his little criticisms and his doubts and fears and at least hinders the forward rush. In many respects he is a splendid fellow. His great fault is that he hasn't enthusiasm enough to gallop with the crowd nor sense enough to keep out of the way. The fullback is a ponderous proposition. He has literally to be pulled along. Of course he is a good fellow. One cannot but love him. The unfortunate thing is that he places his solid weight down on a back seat every time, and neither he nor the seat will move. But worse than all is the wayback. He is not in the game at all. He is among the spectators and appears to be a general coach. He is never caught in a scrimmage until it is all over, and then he suddenly appears in order to explain at length how it ought to have been done. Well, I wonder where I belong? I know where I want to belong. I love the forwards. I want to be among them I will begin today. I will move from the fullback seat right up to the front under the nose of the preacher in church and in front of the leader in the Christian Endeavor meeting. 1 will push everything that comes my way-forward, not aside. I will smile. I will encourage the other fellow. I will be among that host that rushes on to great things with a hurrah.-Ripple in Christian Endeavor World.

LITTLE RED ROOSTER

Brought Delos Brown and Martha Gilmore Together.

By GEORGIA SELTER.

Never having had any love affairs of her own to occupy her time, Miss Martha Brown very naturally turned to those of others. And so it came about that scarcely a visit of Cupid had occurred in Plainville for years, that she did not bring about, assist in, or at the very least, predict!

"Luella," she called one morning to the niece whom she had befriended in her orphaned youth, "come and see who this is moving into the old Fleming cottage."

Luella obligingly left her dishwashing and came to peer over her aunt's

"Why, that," she said. "must be Martha Gilmore. I heard yesterday. she had bought the place of Delos Brown. I forgot to tell you, Aunt Mariette," apologetically. "Quite a come-down, seems to me, for old Artemus Gilmore's daughter," observed Miss Mariette crisply. can remember when he mother didn't care to associate with Plainville

"Oh, but Martha isn't that way a bit,, aunt," said Luella loyally. "I feel real sorry to think she has had to give up her old home. And she has her old Aunt Martha to care for too." "Well I can't imagine what Delos Brown is thinking of to sell that cottage-his mother's old home! I supposed he had more feeling for her memory. I shouldn't think he would want to see anyone else living there." Miss Mariette folded her hands as was her custom when sitting in judg-

"Why should he care?" objected Luella. "He never saw his mother living at the cottage. It has stood empty for years. I suppose it will seem pleasant to have neighbors."

"And to such a brazen thing as Martha Gilmore," pursued Miss Brown, not to be interrupted. Luella returned to her dishes without a word.

"When Aunt Mariette has been crossed nothing seems to please her,'

"So You've Sold the Cottage?"

she thought. "Everybody knows Martha is as nice a girl as ever lived."

"They needn't tell me," said Miss Mariette, left alone in the sitting room, "that she hasn't set her cap for Delos Brown!" This bachelor nephew, good looking, of excellent habits and possessing a comfortable fortune, seemed to his aunt a desirable husband for her niece, Luella Lewis. An hour later, therefore, as the young man was busily training his grape vines over a new trellis, he her held his caustic aunt hobbling up his garden path. "So you've sold the cottage?" she began without preamble. "Yes. Thought I might as well get it off my hands when I had a good chance. It was no use to me except what garden I worked."

"Well," said Aunt Mariette shortly, "if you had taken the trouble to ask my opinion before doing it, you would have saved a good many remarks!"

Delos Brown started uncomfortably. His sensitive nature dreaded the sharpness of village gossip. Perhaps that fact accounted for his remaining single despite his many virtues.

"Of course you must expect folks to talk when a girl takes pains, to settle under the very eaves of a desirable bachelor's house. She is a brazen thing, but I wouldn't expect a man to

The old lady glanced sharply at the little gate standing open in the line fence, and sniffed disapprovingly as she betook herself homeward.

Martha Gilmore, standing amid the clutter of packing boxes in the forlorn parlor, was trying desperately to keep her tears back. With a quick tap, Miss Brown entered.

"So, you've moved down town," she observed. "No, I can't sit down," she observed. "No, I can't sit down, thank you. I just came in to see how you like it here. I must say it is sort of a difficult place for a lone young woman." Her eyes rested reflectively upon her unconscious nephew where he worked in his garden.

Martha's cheeks flamed suddenly. "My aunt is always with me, Miss Brown," she said, coldly.

"If there is anything I can do for you I hope you will feel at liberty to ask," said Miss Mariette. "Everybody has to have one such neighbor!

Miss Mariette's eyes soon told her that her scheme had worked admirably. The little gate in the line fence was wired shut, and Martha never sat on the pleasant little south porch which faced Delos Brown's.

Martha Gilmore, with her broad hat tied low over her face, worked every day in the garden.

"I've got to raise something for winter, or we will have to have help from the town," she whispered over and over, when her back ached and her head felt dizzy from her unaccustomed labor.

And her garden did grow surprisingly. Early one morning Martha went out to look at the plants which meaut so much to her.

Heading his industrious flock among her newly hoed rows was the strutting red rooster she had watched her neighbor place in his chicken yard a few days before. All about lay her tender young plants, torn and uproot-

"Oh, go away," cried Martha, helplessly, waving her apron.

"Why, Miss Gilmore!" Delos Brown stood aghast at the havoc he had unwittingly wrought. "I supposed I had that park chicken-proof."

After much excitement they coaxed and drove the flock back into their own territory.

"And now you must let me help you repair the damages," he declared, forgetting in her apparent distress his fear of prying eyes and busy tongues. To his astonishment, Delos found the girl very quiet and attractive. She knew a lot about gardening, too, and seemed eager to learn more. "I declare," he murmured on his lonely porch of an evening, "I declare I can't see why she is a brazen thing, as Aunt Mariette seems to think. guess that garden means a great deal to her-more than it ought to if things were comfortable over there."

He began thinking anxiously about the long winter. "The cottage needs repairing to make it livable. I could do it as well as not without much expense. And I always have more wood from the farm than I can use. I hope she hasn't heard any of Aunt Mariette's foolish talk," he thought.

Through the dim twilight he could see Martha moving about the little

"Guess I'll go over, anyway," he said aloud, since Aunt Martha's sharp eyes could not penetrate the "I-I came to inquire about the garden," he said, ill at ease in her presence. There was something fine in Martha's manner, even in that humble kitchen garden. "Oh, it is better than it ever was before, thanks to you, Mr. Brown. It is really fortunate for me that my neighbor's chickens got into it!" "But I can never quite replace it,

Miss Gilmore, and that is why I want to do something else for you to even things up a little. The cottage needs repairing before cold weather. I can do it as well as not-in fact, I ought to have done it before I let you have it at all." "Oh no!" cried Martha. "What would Miss Brown say?"

"So she has been talking to you?" groaned Delos. "I might have known it. Oh, you poor little girl!" Martha clasped her hands in the darkness at the tenderness in his

"I-did not mind," she whispered

"Not mind?" He took her trembling hands in his own. To his joy she did not attempt to draw them away

"Do you know, Martha," he said very softly, "how a man feels about the girl he loves? He wants to protect her from everything that is unpleasant or difficult. That is why I cannot endure your living in this poor little house and working yourself to death in this garden. I am glad the red rooster destroyed it, since he opened the gate in the line fence. Let us be married to-morrow, Martha. It is going to cause a sensation, and we may as well have it all over with at once. And I want you so much,

dear." "It is pity," she protested, hesitating. "It is not pity," he denied, taking her in his arms. "It is love, Martha."

The sewing circle met in Miss Brown's parlors next afternoon. "Delos Brown and Martha Gilmore are married," cried Luella, rushing in excitedly. "Well," said Aunt Mariette, compos-edly, after one mental gasp, said from the day she moved into the Fleming cottage that this is what would come of it!"

(Copyright, 1912, by Associated Literary Press.)

Culture.

It has been said that the attainment of culture tends to allay the inflammation caused by daily routine. But true culture, that which is the result of the act of cultivation, does more. It so relates a man to his daily affairs that no inflammation arises and he observes with no less amazement than joy that he gains as much culture from the lowliest task as from the most exalted of which he is capable. When he realizes that mind and spirit are necessary, each to the other, he no longer regards his work as a laborer regards his toil. He becomes a creator; the world about him is the potter's clay, while the world within is the fair model which inspires the hand as it lovingly guides the wheel. Every object that comes into being from him is a new and fairer whole and with its creation he gains a new and fairer power.-Thomas Tapper.

The Love Letters of a Confederate General

WE begin in the November issue a series of real love-letters written over fifty years ago by one of our national heroes to his sweetheart during the period of '61 to '65. This great general will go down to posterity as having accomplished one of the most brilliant feats of arms in the history of the world. He was as great a lover as he was a general, therefore these letters combine authentic history and exquisite romance. They sound a human note that no other work of

Pictorial Review Co. New York City

Pictorial Review

FOR NOVEMBER

One Dollar a Year

Enclosed please find 25c. for which please send me P.R. for Nov., Dec. and Jan. $10,000 in Cash Prizes and Liberal Commissions to our Agents. Ask for Particulars

THE PICTORIAL REVIEW CO. 222 West 39th St., New York City Address.....

TOWEL DESIGNS ARE PRETTY

Natural Colors Introduced to Add to Effect, and Results Speak for Themselves.

When the dainty cross stitch designs in natural colors were fashioned in garlands from flowers and bowknots on towels last year many declared nothing could be prettier, but now the darn stitch and the bias stitch, also in natural colors, have been introduced and they certainly are attrac-

At the present moment, however, no towels are meeting with popular favor like these variously termed the "medieval design," the "20th century design" and "Venetian point"-designations that are confusing in both period and place. There is some excuse for this, as the designs show the influence of lace's evolution and do not cling to any one decided type, but borrow beauty from all. The work is done in a sort of buttonhole stitch, combined with punch work.

Covering a chicken with cheese cloth will prevent it from getting scorched or drying too much while roasting. When the fowl is ready for the oven sew it in a piece of cheesecloth, and baste it through this covering, only removing the cloth at the time the chicken is ready to be served, when you will find it has an exquisite golden brown color.

Nasturtium leaves, the tiny green ones, give a delicious flavor to both hot and cold tea.

When making picnic sandwiches turn the loaf upside down, and you will find that you can cut thinner and evener slices.

Hamburg Steak and Potato.

Take a pound of cold boiled potatoes, pour on them a wine glass of hot milk or water, add a big lump of dripping, cold bacon fat or butter, mash to a pulp, then beat up with a fork until quite light; take three-quarers of a pound of hamburg steak, make into small cakes, sprinkle a little finely chopped onion on top of each cake. Make the potato pulp into thick, round cakes and put a cake of hamburg steak on each. Place in a well-gresed bag. Close and seal it; cook in a hot oven for 25 minutes.

Graham Nut Bread.

One cake compressed yeast dissolved in cup of warm water with one teaspoon sugar. Let stand until foamy. Make soft sponge with four cups warm water, two teaspoons salt, one teaspoon lard, two tablespoons sugar, and white flour. Add the yeast and let stand until very light. Mix into soft loaf with one cup sugar, one-half cup walnuts cut fine and two and onehalf pounds Graham flour. Let rise and make into four loaves. Bake in moderate oven one hour.

To Soften Butter.

When butter gets too hard for use in winter fill a bowl with boiling water. Allow it to stand for a few moments until the bowl is thoroughly hot. Empty out the water and place the steaming bowl over the plate of butter. This may be done in a few minutes before one wishes to use the butter. There is no waste and the flavor of the butter is not impaired as by heating at the stove.

When Cooking Eggs. Here is a fact worth knowing when you cook eggs.

A spoonful of flour added to the under the counter. grease in which eggs are to be fried will prevent them from breaking or ing notoriously bad goods, and I heard sticking to the pan.

Rye Sandwiches.

Cut rye bread into very thin slices and any fanciful shape. Spread with a filling of cream cheese. Grate the cheese. Rub to a paste with melted butter. Season with salt and pepper and spread.

Small Farm Machinery of all kinds. New Holland Mills. Corn Shellers, Churns, &c. Repairs for all Washers and Wringers. Call on, or Telephone to-

L. K. BIRELY, MIDDLEBURG, MD.

Phone 9-12 Union Bridge.

Ladies! Save Money and Keep in Style by Reading McCall's Magazine and Using McCall Patterns

McCall's Magazine will help you dress stylishly at a moderate expense by keeping you posted on the latest fashions in clothes and hats, 50 New Fashion Designs in each issue. Also valuable information on all home and personal matters. Only 50c a year, in cluding a free pattern, Sub-

THE McCALL COMPANY, 239 to 249 West 37th St., NEW YORK

WILL -

Bring You Buyers

The occasion was a choice little tea party on the lawn and the hostess was beaming and busy among her guests

"Yes," she remarked, "my little girl is very clever. She can imitate almost anyone.' "She can, my dear," echoed the host delightedly. "Come, Alice, show what you can do. Pretend to be the housemaid." The little girl, eagerly enough, came forward and bowed to one of the "Will you take some more tea, madam?" she asked politely. Then she turned to another guest:

"May I move your chair, madam? The sunlight is very strong." At this the guests were exceedingly interested and asked for more. "Imitate your papa, dear," said one. Backing away from her father Alice exclaimed in a terrified tone:

"Sir, let me go! Don't touch me, sir! Give you a kiss, indeed! Supposing the missus was to hear you?" Then the clever little darling was wafted away suddenly.

Real or Imitation.

Sir Thomas Lipton was talking about pure food laws to a New York reporter.

"And that reminds me," said Sir Thomas, "of my youth, when I was running my first shop and sleeping

"A rival in the next street was sella story about him with delight.

"It seems that a customer entered his shop and asked for a pound of "'Yes, sir,' said my rival. "The real or the imitation, sir?' "'What was it you sold me yesterday?' inquired the customer.

'That was the real. sir.'

"'Then give me the imitation.'"

TANEYTOWN LOCAL COLUMN

Brief Items of Local News of Special Interest to Our Home Readers.

Charles C. Currens, of Thurmont, visited relatives here, this week.

Mrs. O. A. Shank, of George St., has all were invited to the dining-room where refreshments were served in abundance: been quite ill for several weeks.

visited her sister, Mrs. Daniel Null. George W. Clabaugh, of Omaha, vis-

Mrs. G. H. Hammond, of Walbrook, ited his relatives here, this week. Mrs. Max Lentz, of Gettysburg, Pa., visited her brother, Wm. G. Fair, over last Sunday. A Martin & Son packed about 4000 cases of corn, this year, a much smaller quantity than usual. Miss Roberta Roelkey left Friday, to spend several days with Miss Elizabeth Crapster, at Millersville Normal.

Mrs. Frank Kefeer and daughter, Annie, of Freedom, spent Monday with Frank Baumgardner and family.

J. W. Taughenbaugh and wife. of Adams Co., Pa., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Seth R. Downie. Eddie Elliot has been very ill, all week, but is now greatly improved, and with proper care will likely be out soon. Miss Maggie Mehring, of York Road, nesday with Mrs. Milton Reindollar. Miss May Forrest, by appointment of President of Lutheran Synod, is one of the lady visitors to the Loysville Orphans' and Miss Pierce of Baltimore, spent Wed-

Rev. L. B. Hafer, accompanied by Wm. F. Bricker as delegate, attended the Lutheran Synod, at Williamsport, this week. Walter A. Bower, is now the owner of a three-passenger runabout, having purchased the one formerly owned by Dr.

Mrs. Blanche Smeltzer, who has been spending some time with Mrs. John Crapster, left this week; she will spend the Winter in Winchester, Va.

As Rev. D. J. Wolf is absent at Synod, which is in session at Mercersburg, Pa., there will be no services in the Reformed church, on Sunday, either morning or evening.

A Pennsylvania ballot, this year, is a curiosity, a sample of which may be seen at the Record office. It is 22x28 inches in size, and contains eight columns of was spent very pleasantly in conversation

Among the country "fruit" that grew to great size, this year, was the sweet potato; the largest we have heard of in this section was grown by Geary Angell,

Mrs. Susan Shank, Mrs. David Eshelman and son, Sherman, of Waynesboro, Pa., visited at the homes of J. L. Allison, H. A. Allison and J. W. Witherow, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

There will be no service in either the Taneytown, or Harney, U. B. churches; but on Wednesday, at 10 o'clock, the Boyd and wife, James Harner and wife, lewis Presiding Elder will meet the official members of the quarterly conference, in Walter Brower and wife, Wilbur Shorb and wife; Misses Alice and Margaret Hess, Zona and Lillian Smith, Rosa and the Taneytown church.

Amos Wentz and family entertained on Sunday last, Frank Palmer and wife, James Harner, wife and son Walter, and Mrs. John Feeser; also Joseph Poist, wife and children, Frances, Evelyn and Halbert, of Hanover, Pa.

Our list against trespassing is growing, and it will be well for gunners to look it over each week, and respect this public announcement of property owners and tenants. Hunting without permission is a most reprehensible practice.

There isn't much use complaining about our street lighting system. It seems to be fixed, and fixed wrong-as we think. Perhaps some think light was not needed on Wednesday and Thursday nights? If not then, why have it any

There will be a Republican Mass-meeting, in Taneytown, Saturday evening, Nov. 2, at the Opera House. The names of the speakers have not been learned, but Laban Sparks, candidate for Congress, and several others, will likely be present. Those interested, see posters the first of the week.

Those who make use of our C. E. Column were inconvenienced, last week, due to the fact that by mistake the topic for the 27th was used, when the one for the 20th. should have appeared. This was a bit of carelessness on the part of rendered by Miss Florence Reamy, Harry our office, for which we offer apologies. Kluthe and Mrs. George Mitchell.

We do not recall that a mistake of this Mr. and Mrs. Fox were the recipients kind was ever made before in our office.

Please do not forget that the Boston Male Quartet comes next Wednesday night, the 36th. See fuller announcement in this issue. The committee respectfully requests our town folks to come early; do not wait until 8 o'clock, or a few minutes before, to start. It is neither "fashion- fifty persons present. able" nor in good taste, to come into a program, as it interferes with both the audience and players, especially as our Opera House is not furnished with a correct table of the beginning of a program, as it interferes with both the audience and players, especially as our Opera House is not furnished with a correct table of the beginning of a program, as it interferes with both the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamber-lain's Stomach and Liver Tetalet. Opera House is not furnished with a lain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excelcarpet and fixed seats. If there are late lent. They are easy and pleasant to take, comers, let them be those who come from and mild and gentle in effect. For sale at, fine to eat, and, best of all, not a distance, and have an excuse.

A Birthday Surprise Party.

(For the RECORD.)
A birthday and surprise party was rendered at the home of George Weishaar and wife, Friday night, Oct. 18, in honor of the birthdays of Mr. Weishaar and George Englar, of Mt. Vernon, Ind. The evening was spent in games and music, both vocal and instrumental, by the young folks, while the older one indulged in conversation until a late hour, when Those present were, George Weishaar and wife, Arthur Copenhayer and wife, Edward Stuller and wife, Luther Stultz and wife, Levi Rowe and wife, Herbert and wife, Levi Rowe and wife, Herbert Smith and wife, Jesse Englar and wife; Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. Frank Rowe, Mrs. Nelson Miller; Misses Laura, Pauline and Carrie Smith, Mary Carbaugh, Mary Stuller, Carrie and Lamora Fink, Mary Starner, Pauline and Mabel Martin, Marie Simpson, Annie Newcomer, Lena, Margaret and Louise Warren, Annie Frank Roma Koontz Della Newcomer, Lena, Margaret and Louise Warren, Annie Erb, Emma Koontz, Della and Emma Trimmer, Vallie and Clara Shoemaker, Esther Hilterbrick, Jennie and Myrtle Weishaar; Daniel Fiscel, Levene Carbaugh, Maurice and Herman Englar, Albert Smith, Dewey Fleagle, Carroll and Bernie Weishaar, Charles Routson, Sterling Nusbaum, Ott Smith, Harry Flickinger, William Hively, Frank Miller, Denton Slick, Domino Gallow, Alfred Simpson, John Shoemaker, Robert Thompson, Elvin Fink, Arthur Starner, Earl Haines, Clyde Ecker, Carroll Warren, Howard Miller, Raymond, Gerry, John and Harry Koontz, Roy Philips, Sterling Hively, George Sell, Walter Hilterbrick and George Englar.

CHALLENGE FROM R. S. MCKINNEY.

Offers to Refund Money if Dr. Howard's Specific Will Not Cure Any Case of Constipation or Dyspepsia:

R. S. McKinney is seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Taneytown or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases So confident is he that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure in a tion shall go forward to even greater prosshort time, that he offers to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction, R. S. McKinney will sell a regular fifty cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of malaria and livest early by the second signal with the se and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and It will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food taste good and digest well and increase vigor. Joy and happiness will take the place of that "don't care whether I live or die" feeling.

--A Wedding Anniversary.

A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Wm. T. Smith and wife, and playing games, and also in the rendition of some fine selections of vocal and instrumental music. About 10 o'clock all were invited to the dining-room where cakes, confectioneries, coffee, and all delicacies were served in abundance, and at a late hour all returned to their homes thanking the host and hostess for their

Those present were: Wm. T. Smith and wife, R. H. Alexander and wife, Harvey Ohler and wife, John Hess and wife, Mrs. Marry E. Correll, Miss Annie Smith, Albert Ohler and wife, Albert Clabaugh and wife, Edmund Smith and wife, Martin Conover and wife, Mrs. Stimmel, Maurice Baker and wife, Clar-Stella Harner, Mary and Lillian Sanders, Rose Smith, Mary and Ruth Ohler, Virginia Clabaugh, Neva Brower; Messrs. John, Andrew and Frank Alexander, Walter and Milton Smith, Chas. Fuss, John and Jones Baker, Verle Snider, John and Walter Harner, Ralph Hess, James Sanders, William, Ellis, Raymond and Merle Ohler, Mervin, Russell and Ralph Conover, Robert and Scott Young, Glenn and Earl Hawk, James Boyd and Edward Shorb.

Economy is Wealth. Clean your soiled grease spot clothes with Lum Tum Clothes Cleaner. Price 15c per bottle, at McKellip's Drug Store.

----35th. Wedding Anniversary.

(For the RECORD.)
On Wednesday evening, Oct. 16, a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of James N. Fox and wife, at Ar-lington, Md., to celebrate their thirtyfifth wedding anniversary, and the pleasant part was that all their children and their families were present: their oldest son, Harry and wife, son Vernon, and daughter, Mabel, of West Arlington; J. E. Fox, wife and family, Paul, James, William and Dorothy, of Washington, D. C.; George W. Cameron, wife, and D. C.; George W. Cameron, wife and family, Lawrence, Raymond and Pauline, of Belvedere Ave., Arlington, and George S. Mitchell and wife, who are at home. George W. Fox, of Keymar, a brother of James Fox, was the only one present that was at their wedding, thirty-five years ago, but they have gained many friends since they live in Arlington. The evening was spent in conversation, vocal and instrumental music. The music was of many nice presents, such as cut glass, silver, china, aluminum and linen, also a good large pumpkin. About 9 o'clock all were invited to the dining-room where all did justice to the well-filled table of ice cream, cakes, all kinds of fruit of the season, candy, sandwiches and coffee. At a late hour all departed expressing a good time, wishing the host and hostess many more anniversaries. There were about by all dealers.

President Taft Still Confident.

President Taft issued a statement, this week, evidently showing his belief that he will be elected, notwithstanding the Make, and It Is Usually Apprecisplit in the Republican party due to Col Roosevelt's candidacy. This sort of per-sonal letter is a recent political development, and is likely worth more than much public speaking. He says among number of Democrats joined the Republicans in the successful struggle for the are refusing to leave the firm ground of national prosperity for the quagmire of business disruption, trade depression and commercial and industrial depletion. From all parts of the country assurances are coming that Democrats intend to vote for the Republican candidates and a continuance of prosperous business conditions and against the program of economic coninstitutions, supported by the Democratic andidates and their allies.

"Democratic working men refuse to be led from the factory and good wages of 1912 back to the Democratic hard times of 1893-97. They prefer independence and money in the savings bank to loss of emproyment and downdayage or charity."

empoyment and dependence on charity. 'Democratic business men feel the same way. They know that when industries languish their business languishes too. The pay envelopes are the feeders of trade in every form. When they are empty or scrimp the biggest department store feels the effect, as well as the corner

"All industries are humming, and there ing to work, while in the Pittsburgh district alone, I understand, there is a demand for at least 30,000 workers in excess of the number available. The question for the American voter is whether in order to secure the quickest possible attroduction, R. S. McKinney will sell a gegular fifty cent package of this medine at half price, 25 cents.

The Hersen's will appreciate more keenly the rrsponsibility which attaches to his ballot. In national elections, at least, the great majority like to feel that they are voting for a candidate who has a chance of success. It is obvious that either the Republican or the Democratic nominee will be elected, and not to vote for the Republican candidates is, in effect, to support their Democratic opponents and the Democratic platform of a 'tariff' for revenue only,' freighted with dire consequences for the country, now busy and prosperous under Republican rule.

'It is well known to every one, an open secret on every street corner, that the Third Term party does not expect

"It remains to be seen how many Reoublicans are willing to assist in completing the demoralization of the Republican party and handing the reins of government over to the Democrats to gratify mere desire for revenge.

Saved By His Wife.

She's a wise woman who knows just what to do when her husband's life is in danger, but Mrs. R. J. Flint, Braintree, Vt., is of that kind. "She insisted on my using Dr. King's New Discovery," writes Mr. F. "for a dreadful cough, when I was so weak my friends all thought I had only a short time to live, and it completely cured me." A quick cure for coughs and colds, it's the most safe and reliable medicine for many throat and live troubles grip broughtis croup. lung troubles—grip, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, tonsilitis, hemorrhages. A trial will convince you. 50 cts. and $1.00. Guaranteed by R. S. McKinney, Taneytown, Md., and H. F. Fleagle, Mayberry, Md.

The Cheese Expert.

In the general store of Nola Chucky the storekeeper was opening some tins of yellow axle grease when Uncle Rufus en-

"What am dem cheeses worf, sah," the old man asked.
"About 10 cents ap'ece, I reckon," said the storekeeper. "Sul posin' I buys one, will yo' frow in de crackers ?'

"Yes, I guess so." So Uncle Rufus handed over a dime and the storekeeper wrapprd him up a oot of axle grease snd a double handful of soda crackers. Uncle Rufus sat down on a barrel out-

He undid his axle grease, took out his knife, and began to eat. Some ten minutes passed. Then the storekeeper, coming out to lower his awning, spied "Well, Uncle Rufe," he said, "how

"Dese here crackers, sah," Uncle Rufus replied, "is all right, but dat cheese sholy am de ransomest I eber tackled." -Minneapolis Journal.

Sweet Green Peppers Stuffed.

Peel and cut fine enough mild onions -Bermuda or Spanish-to measure one cupful. Steam until very tender, then mix with them one cupful of fine stale bread crumbs, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of lemon juice, one-half of a half teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoon of mushroom catsup, two tablespoonfuls of finely chopped parsley and three tablespoonfuls of butter. Wipe six medium-sized sweet green peppers, remove the stem end of each, also the seeds and white veins. Drop in boiling water and boil for three minutes, then drain and dry them. Fill with the mixture, put glose together in a shallow pan, dot with bits of butter and bake in a sharp oven until well browned. Serve on hot toast.

Russian Salad.

Mix one cup each cold cooked carrot cubes and potato cubes, one cup cold cooked peas, and one cup cold cooked beans, and marinate with French dressing. Arrange on lettuce leaves in four sections and cover each section with mayonnaise dressing. Garnish two sections with small pieces of smoked salmon, one section with finely chopped whites of hard-boiled eggs and one section with yolks of hard-boiled eggs forced through a strainer. Put small sprigs of parsley in lines dividing section. Good to look much work.

DEVONSHIRE CREAM IS GOOD

Make, and It Is Usually Appreciated by All.

It is not a difficult matter to make this delicacy, which is always appreciated by young and old. The quant-"Fifty-two years ago seceders from the Union thought they were facing a divided North and would win an easy victory. There had been division among the loyal people, but all united in face of the company and in addition. The quark that the fifty of milk needed may seem excessive; for a pound of the cream one and one-half gallons of good milk is required, but the leftover milk may be put to many uses, and, after all, the put to many uses, and, after all, the ordinary family would be satisfied with

To make this cream strain new milk "I am glad to say that many Demo-crats have learned their lessons well and or five inches deep. Leave in a cool for twelve hours in the summer, for twenty-four hours in the winter. Do not disturb it in any way. Next carefully carry the pan to the stove and place over a pot of hot water. The heating should take at least one-half hour and the temperature should rise to 180 degrees to develop the proper fusion and socialistic subversion of our flavor. It is done when the cream forms a ring around the pan and is wrinkled on the top. Let it stand twelve hours before skimming.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Highest Price paid for New Shellis work at good wages - princely compared with wages abroad—for all who are willing to work, while in the Pittsburgh diseas, 2 lbs., Highest Price; Squabs, 22c to 24c a pair. Good Calves, 8½c, 50¢ for delivering. Positively no Poultry received after Thursday morning -SCHWARTZ'S Produce.

> HIGHEST CASH Prices paid for Eggs Calves and Poultry. 50% for delivering Calves Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.—G. W. Motter. 6-10-9

> WANTED.—50 pairs of Guinea Pigs. Will pay best price.—Robert Clingan, Taneytown, Md.

FARM FOR RENT in Taneytown district. For further information write Tan eytown P. O. Box 75.

SEVEN SMALL SHOATS, 8 weeks old, for sale by P. H. Shriver. 10-25-2t EIGHT PIGS, 7 weeks old, for sale by Maurice Crebs, near Trevanion.

MY FARM (100 acres) for Sale or Rent, near Uniontown.-Sam'l D. Heltebridle

FOR RENT, from Nov. 1, 1912, half f my House on Middle St. — P. S. 250-lb. SOW with 8 Pigs. Price right.

-J. J. GARNER, Taneytown. SALESMEN WANTED to look after nterest in Carroll and adjacent counties Salary or Commission. Address, The Harvey Oil Co., Cleveland, O.

SUCKING COLT for sale, by A. L. Morelock, Harney.

BAND FAIR.—The Taneytown Band vill hold a Fair and Bazaar in the Opera House, from Dec. 7 to 14, both inclusive. The aid and patronage of everybody is

JUST RECEIVED a full line of all the atest Baltimore and New York styles and shapes in Hats and Shoes. Give us a call. -Mrs. M. J. GARDNER. 10-25,3t BARRED PLYMOUTH ROCK Cock-ls for sale (Thoms BAKER, Taneytown, Md. KEIFER PEARS for sale, good quality, by GEO. W. ROOP, Keysville. I HAVE THE AGENCY for the Quincy Gasoline Engine.—Ervin L. Hess, Tan-eytown. 10-18-th

WANTED AGENTS-Apply quick. Secure territory. Liberal terms. Our stock is complete and first-class in every repect. Now is the time to start in for pring business. Address Desk J. Allen NURSERY Co., Rochester, N. Y.

BUFF ORPINGTON Cockerels for sale BUFF ORFINGTON COARS -PAUL EDWARDS, near Taneytown. 10-18-2t

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS; We hereby forewarn all persons not to trespass on our property with dog or gun; all persons so trespassing may be prosecuted under the law in such cases.—Geo. W. Hape, Grant W. Bohn, Elmer Shorb, CHARLES EYLER, WALTER T. HAPE.

PUBLIC SALE, on Nov. 2, 1912, at 12 o'clock, near Mayberry, of Live Stock, Farming Implements and Household Goods, by Sarah E. Heltibridle and

GEO. F. HELTIBRIDLE, Executors. WILL DO QUILTING and knotting of comforts, at any time.—Mrs. Lewis Lambert, at Trevanion Mills. 10-4-4t

STORE PROPERTY at Keymar, for sale. Possession April 1, 1913.—Apply to Mrs. Mary Fry, 443 S. Shippen St., Lancaster, Pa. 10-4-tf

BARRED PLYMOUTH ROCKS for sale. Fullets and Cockerel and Hens, al from a laying strain.—Robert J. Wald-EN, Middleburg, Md.

GALVANIZED IRON $2.90 to $3.10. Galvanized Eve Trough, 7-in., 6c per ft; Galvanized Conductor Pipe, 4c., per ft. 7-12-tf Jeremiah Garner.

Notice to Tax-payers.

For the convenience of Corporation Tax-payers, I will set at the Commissioner's office in the Firemen's bdilding, on Nov. 9 and 16, from 1 to 4 o'clock

B. S. MILLER,

Men's New Fall Suits.

Bed Blankets.

TANEYTOWN, MD.

All that's Choice and Beautiful can be Without question the greatest Suit and Coat value ever offered.

These beautiful top Coats are made of Scotch and English double-faced mixture, in striped and two-tone effects; soft finish Blanket cloth, with loose-hanging and belted back.finished with Mannish notch collar and revers; also novelty coats with fancy collars.

New Raglan and "Johnny" Coats.

Women's Newest Suits and Coats

"Taneytown's Leading Fashion Store."

found here.

Velvet Corduroys, Plush and Bear-skin Coats; any Color.

Men's and Boys Overcoats.

Match These Prices.

Men's Heavy Work Shoe,

or low heel,

7-10 years,

Dark Outing Flannel,

Men's Corduroy Pants,

New Styles. You should see then before you buy elsewhere.

Ladies' Gun Metal Button Shoe, high

Men's Heavy Fleeced Underwear, 39c

Men's Sweaters, grey or brown, 49c.

Children's Red Sweater, large size

Childrens Coats.

We unhesitatingly pronounce these the finest new Fall Suits that are to be had. They are not equalled elsewhere in quality of Fabrics, Style or Tailoring. Made of finest pure worsted. $1.25. Wool cheviots and handsome cassi-

We want you to see for yourself the magnitude and character of our Bed covering Department.

Prices from 49c to the best II-4 absolutely pure Wool $5.95.

Machines, $13.95

Ladies Our Display of Fall Shoes is almost unlimited. Made of Patent Calf, Dull Calf,

Vici Kid and Tan Russia Calf. Button

Beautiful Fall Millinery

More Hats and decidedly Prettier Hats than shown anywhere!

It has been our aim to see how beautiful and becoming trimmed Hats could be made and yet see how low the same could be Children's Felt, Velvet and Corduroy Hats.

--THE-Boston Male Quartet

Wednesday, Oct. 30

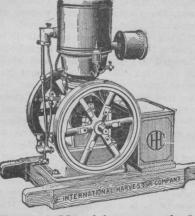

Male voices, but the members are Angell, Harry F. all soloists and instrumentalists, while one of them—Robert Rofinot—is an excellent reader and entertainer. The program will be a pleasing variety from start to finish Bowers, Geary J. Motter, Mrs. Mary Bowers, Birnie L. R. Myers, Lewis ing variety from start to finish. Bankard, Monroe Newcomer, Wm. Don't be doubtful, but see and hear Baumgardner, PeterNull, Jacob D. for yourself! The whole course is Babylon, Wm. I. going to be one of high-class enterment.

Admission 25c and 35c. Sea- Clabaugh, Judge Reaver, Stanley C. son Ticket, Reserved seat $1.50.

Doors open 7.30. Program at Diehl, Mervin & BroStonesifer, Chas. H. McKinney's.

Farmers Read This!

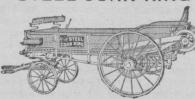

Farm Machinery of All it, and find it is practically without smoke or odor. We want you to try it—think you will find it a money saver. Kinds

Wagons, Buggies, Harness, Feed Mills, I. H. C. Engines. We handle only first-class Machinery and are in a position to give the best possible prices. Call and see us for anything you need before purchasing. We want your patronage and will do our best to

STEEL CORN KING

MANURE SPREADERS MAID CREAM SEPARATORS guaranteed Corn..... none better on the market.

Repairs of all kinds promptly furnished.

Call on, or phone to-L. R. VALENTINE,

No Trespassing.

The name of any property owner, or tenant will be inserted under this heading, weekly until December 22, for 25 cents, cash in ad-

All persons are hereby forewarned not Opera House----Taneytown.

The first number of the season's course, and one of the best. Not only a splendid quartet of trained to trespass on my premises, with dog, gun or trap, for the purpose of taking game in any manner; nor for fishing, or in any way injuring or destroying property. All persons so trespassing render themselves liable to the enforcement of law in such cases, without notice.

Koontz, Herbert N. Biddinger, Claude Overholtzer, Maurice

Conover, Martin Reindollar, N. A. Clousher, David S. Reaver, M. A. 8.00 Tickets and Diagram at McKinney's.

Deberry, Geo. E. Shorb, Tolbert Flickinger, W. H. Shorb, Harvey Fink, Chas. E. Feeser, Birnie J. Spangler, Samuel Sauble, Geo. R.

Fisher, Mrs. Milton Study, Wm. A. Fogle, Wm. & DavidShoemaker, Jno. M. Foreman, Chas. A. Stonesifer, Wm. J. Flickinger, Wm. H. Study, Hezekiah Hess, Norman R. Teeter, J. S. Hahn, Abm. J. Wantz, Josiah Hess, John E. E. Whimer, Anamary

Elkhart "Boulets" "A New Perfect Fuel"

The "Boulets" are made from Slack, the purest coal coming from Elkhart Lump, which has the reputation of being the best and most economical coal mined in the United States,
We have this coal in stock, have tested

Price, $5.50 on Yard. $5.75 Delivered in Town. THE REINDOLLAR CO.

Taneytown Grain and Hay Market.

Wheat, Timothy Hay,10.00@11.00 Mixed Hay 8.00@9.00 Bundle Rye Straw 10.00@11.00

> Baltimore Markets. Corrected Weekly.

.... 56@57 Oats...75@78 Rye Hay, Mixed _____16.00@17.00 Hay, Clover..... 12.00@13.00 Collector. C. & P. Phone 10-F TANEYTOWN. Straw, Rye bales....... 16.00@17.00