

BOND ISSUE FOR ROADS AND SCHOOLS

Outline of the Proposed Bill for Carroll County.

After most careful consideration of the condition and needs in the county, the Board of County Commissioners and Board of Education, after a number of conferences, unanimously agreed upon the form of a bill to be presented for passage by the present Legislature, and the bill agreed upon was introduced in the Senate by Mr. Snader.

The following is an outline of the provisions of the bill. Both boards invite friendly criticism in the interest of the county and the taxpayers, in order that, if there are any changes that can be suggested for the improvement of the bill; such changes may be made at any reading thereof in Senate or House of Delegates.

The preamble to the bill, clearly sets forth the need.

Whereas, in order to meet the conditions arising out of the increased attendance in and rapidly growing needs of the public schools of Carroll County, there is imperative and immediate necessity for the erection and equipment of a number of new public school buildings, to enable the Board of Education of said county to properly provide for the education of all the children of the county; and whereas the increased traffic and passing of heavy trucks over the county roads in said county have rendered many of such roads most defective and at times practically impassable, a condition which can be remedied only by the replacing of "dirt roads" by more perfectly constructed stone-surfaced roads;

And Whereas, to raise the money for the erection and equipment of said new public school buildings and for the replacement of "dirt roads" with hard-surfaced stone roads, it will be necessary for the County Commissioners of said county to levy so large a tax upon the assessable property in the county within the next few years as would be an intolerable burden upon the tax-payers of the county, or to borrow money, upon the faith and credit of the county, and to issue bonds to secure the payment thereof through a long series of years; and

Whereas, it is believed that for such permanent improvements it will be more equitable and just for the tax-payers of the future, who will enjoy the benefit thereof, to participate in the payment thereof, than to require the present assessable property of the county to bear the whole burden of the cost of such permanent improvements, now, therefore:

Sec. 1.—Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Board of County Commissioners of Carroll County, in order to provide the funds necessary for the erection and equipment of the public schools, and to provide for the replacement of "dirt roads" by stone-surfaced roads, be and they are hereby authorized to issue coupon bonds to the amount of not exceeding $700,000.00, in the denomination of $1000.00, to bear interest at a rate not exceeding 5 per centum; interest payable semi-annually; the loan and interest to be exempt from all taxes.

Sec. 2.—Names the maximum sums of money to be expended for the erection and equipping of new public school buildings, as follows, not exceeding for the respective buildings named, for Taneytown, $10,000.00; for Woolery's district, $20,000.00; for Freedom district, $40,000.00; Pleasant Gap, $10,000.00; Manchester, $20,000.00; Lineboro, $7,500.00; Roller, $7,500.00; Westminster, $15,000.00; Middleburg district, $15,000.00; New Windsor, $15,000.00; Union Bridge, $40,000.00; Mt. Airy, $15,000.00; the whole amount not to exceed $350,000.00, and for the purpose of constructing and permanently improving public county roads in the several districts not exceeding, for Taneytown district, $25,000.00; for Uniontown district, $35,000.00; for Myers' district, $15,000.00; Woolery's, $25,000.00; Freedom, $25,000.00; Manchester, $15,000.00; Westminster, $20,000.00; Hampstead, $15,000.00; Franklin, $45,000.00; Middleburg, $25,000.00; New Windsor, $20,000.00; Union Bridge, $20,000.00; Mt. Airy, $30,000.00; Berrett, $35,000.00; the whole amount not to exceed $350,000.00.

(In order to more readily show the proposed distribution of the Bond issue by districts, we have arranged the amounts in parallel columns.—Ed. Record.)

District	Schools	Roads
Taneytown	$10,000	$25,000
Uniontown	15,000	35,000
Myers	15,000	15,000
Woolerys	20,000	25,000
Freedom	40,000	25,000
Manchester	20,000	15,000
Hampstead	15,000	15,000
Franklin	45,000	45,000
Westminster	15,000	20,000
Middleburg	15,000	25,000
New Windsor	15,000	20,000
Union Bridge	40,000	20,000
Mt. Airy	15,000	30,000
Berrett	35,000	35,000
Pleasant Gap	10,000
Lineboro	7,500
Roller	7,500
	$350,000	$500,000

Sec. 3 provides that the bonds shall be issued in series and all that may be issued shall be issued and sold within five years after July 1, 1922; and that all bonds remaining unsold on July 1, 1927 shall be cancelled and not offered for sale.

Sec. 5 provides that a series of said bonds to the amount of $35,000.00 shall mature and become payable on the 1st day of July 1927; and a series of said bonds to the amount of $35,000.00 shall mature and become payable on the 1st day of July in each and every year after said first day of July 1927, until all of said bonds have been redeemed, so that the last of said bonds shall fall due and become payable on the 1st day of July, 1947.

Section 6 provides that the Board of Education shall from time to time within five years determine the order of succession in which the buildings designated in section 2 shall be erected.

Sec. 7 provides that when the Board of Education shall have notified the County Commissioners of the building or buildings it proposes to erect and equip, as designated in section 2; and when the contract or contracts have been awarded, as hereinafter provided, the County Commissioners shall advertise and sell so many of said bonds as may be necessary to produce the amount of money designated, not to exceed the several amounts specified in section 2 for the respective buildings provided for in said section 2.

Sec. 8 provides that the Board of Education shall award the contracts for erecting and equipping said public school buildings with heating plant and water fixtures, to the lowest bidder, provided that said lowest bid shall be within the amount specified in section 2 for each of said buildings designated in said section; and the Board of Education shall require the successful bidder or bidders to enter into a contract in writing and give bond in the penalty of fifteen per cent of the contract price, for faithful performance of the contract.

Sec. 9 provides that if the Board of Education shall find it possible to erect and equip either of said buildings designated in section 2, at a cost of less than the sum specified in said section, the Board of Education is authorized to expend the difference between said actual cost and the sum specified in section 2 as the estimated extreme cost, toward the cost of furnishing with desks, apparatus and other school paraphernalia for said building.

Sec. 10 provides that the provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional to and not in substitution for or in conflict with any provisions of the General Laws of the State relating to public schools.

Sec. 12 provides that the provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional to and not in substitution for or in conflict with any of the provisions of General Laws of the State of Maryland relating to public roads, and additional to and not in substitution for or in conflict with local laws relating to public roads in Carroll County.

Sec. 13 provides that the County Treasurer shall deposit the money arising from sale of bonds to the joint order of County Commissioners and Treasurer, in some bank, trust company or savings institution, guaranteeing to pay interest on daily balances, at the highest rate obtainable.

Sec. 15 provides for the levying of taxes to redeem the bonds at maturity and to pay the interest coupons; the first levy to redeem bonds to be made in 1926.

Sec. 16 provides that no portion of the taxes levied under the authority of this Act shall be diverted or used for any other purpose than the payment of said interest coupons and the liquidation and payment of said bonds.

Sec. 17 provides for manner of advertising for bids and sale of bonds.

Sec. 18 provides for a referendum at a special election to be held Monday, May 15, 1922, under the direction of the Supervisors of Election and that said election shall be held and conducted in conformity with the General Election laws of the State, except that for said special election the Supervisors of Election shall select and appoint two judges and two clerks of election for each precinct, and that said judges and clerks shall be selected without reference to party affiliation (Note—this provision as to judges and clerks is made because both the members of the Board of Education and of the Board of County Commissioners believe that in each precinct there are those qualified to act as judges and clerks, who will be willing to serve without remuneration and that thus a special election can be held at a very small cost. They further believe that the question at issue should be determined on its merits, and that this can only be accomplished by a vote at a time when the voters' minds are not confused by a multitude of issues, as will probably be the case in the general election of November 1922, if the numerous Constitutional amendments proposed must be voted on at that election).

A complete copy of this Bill may be examined at The Record Office. As a matter of general information, the average cost of building concrete roads in this state in 1921, was $33,046.51 per mile; and of macadam roads $16,660.54 per mile. The total amount of the proposed bond issue for roads would build just 14 miles at $25,000 per mile, or an average of one mile of road for each of the districts named.—Ed. Record.

Editors to Meet in Westminster.

The Maryland Editorial Association, at its recent meeting in Annapolis, decided to hold its mid-summer meeting in Westminster, on invitation of E. O. Diffendal, of The Advocate.

Test votes so far taken on the informational covenants negotiated at Washington, seem to indicate that the Senate will approve all of them by substantial votes.

THE SCHOOL BOARD REVERSES ACTION.

No Charges Hereafter for use of Typewriters for Pupils.

The School Board of Carroll County, after consultation with Attorney General Armstrong, at a special meeting of the Board, last Saturday night, rescinded its Resolution calling for a deposit of $2.50 from each pupil in the commercial departments of schools, to provide against damage to typewriters. As noted in last week's issue, this resolution was resisted, and a legal question made of it.

Unless there was something back of the School Board's resolution that has not been made public, The Record is of the opinion that the resolution was proper, fully justifiable, and not a hardship on any careful student.

The Board, in announcing the rescinding of its action explains that the plan of a deposit of $2.50 second to them fair, equitable and just; that "since some of the patrons have taken exception and employed counsel to prevent the enforcement of the rule, the Board of Education has consulted its attorney and the Attorney General of the State and are advised by them that, although this same rule is now and has been in force in nearly every county of this State and nearly every State of the United States, and while it is looked upon by a great many citizens and taxpayers as a reasonable rule, and while there are laws in this State that free books and materials that are destroyed by pupils shall be paid for by them, it is a fact that it must be paid indirectly by the parents or guardians of these children, and while money cannot be collected from the children who have nothing to pay with, it cannot be collected from the parent or guardian if they object before definite responsibility has been fixed."

The board then declares: "The Board of Education on this account has taken this action to rescind the resolution, but the members are firmly of the opinion and have not changed their minds in the least that this was a reasonable requirement, especially so in view of the fact that the commercial department of the Westminster High School is a compulsory course, given to the pupils of this school district by the Board of Education of Carroll County and in no way mandatory by law, and if the Board of Carroll County should so elect, could abolish this course from the school entirely. But it has considered the fact that the course is doing good for a great many pupils who really appreciate this gift of the taxpayers of the county and should not be made to suffer loss because a few do not appreciate it and are not willing to manifest that appreciation by making a deposit of $2.50 for the care and good use of the equipment."

A Coming School Question.

The Record has received from a prominent educator, of Baltimore, a letter strongly commending our editorial of last week on the election of public school officials, saying that the whole matter is deserving of wide publicity, in order that the whole question may be brought fairly and squarely before all the voters of the state.

No doubt before the next session of the legislature, the subject will be heard from, and not as "a local partisan movement from Allegany county," as its opponents improperly called it, this time.

C. E. One Day Institute.

Carroll County Endeavorers will be pleased to learn that the county one-day Institute, as held last year under the auspices of the Maryland Christian Endeavor Union, has been made an annual event, and that the second annual Institute for Carroll county will be held on Friday, March 17th, 1922, in the Methodist Protestant Church, Westminster, with afternoon and night sessions.

The Institute will be conducted by Carroll M. Wright, Maryland's Field Secretary, supported by the State Officers and other prominent C. E. Workers. The mass-meeting at night at 7:30 will be addressed by Clarence C. Hamilton, of Boston, General Field Secretary of the United Society, the subject of his address being "Forty-one Years Young."

A pleasing feature of the Institute this year will be a fellowship luncheon to be served at 6 P. M., in the lecture room of the church, the Westminster Christian Endeavor Union acting as hosts to the endeavorers of the county, and it is hoped every society will be represented.

April 1 Changes in Address.

Always about this time of the year, we start a change in address list, for the April changes in location of our subscribers. All who find it convenient to give their new address now, can do so. Those who write us, should give both old and new address, Route No. etc.

The Governor has appointed the following, as the Board of Election Supervisors for Carroll County: Edward O. Diffendal and Alonzo B. Sellman, Democrats, and Moses J. M. Troxell, Republican.

COUNTY FARMERS MEET.

The Annual Meeting to be held on Tuesday, March 21.

At the special meeting of the Farmer's Council which was called to take up the question of completing the county organization so as to meet the requirements of the Maryland Agricultural Society, and the American Farm Bureau Federation, no definite type of organization was completed.

Mr. T. E. McLaughlin, who is organizing the farmers of the county for the Maryland Agricultural Corporation, explained the work and plan of the corporation which is a buying and selling proposition which is made up of the farmers of the State and run and owned by farmers. The present prospects are that the corporation can save much money for its farmer stockholder.

The following resolutions were passed and adopted:

Recommending the support of Senate Bill No. 31 which legalizes the formation of Farmer's Co-operative Organizations.

Recommending a tax on oleomargarine similar to that in force in other dairy states.

Recommending a bill which will regulate the Commission men.

Recommending the repeal of the full crew law.

Recommending the providing of a State Constabulary.

Resolved, that in view of the present farming conditions we recommend to the State Roads Commission that a maximum wage for unskilled labor be $2.00 per day on construction work in this county.

The annual meeting of the Carroll County Farm Council, will be held Tuesday, March 21st, at 1:30 P. M. All farmers and their wives interested in a better rural life in Carroll should be present.

Letter From Columbus, Georgia.

Editor Record:—

I have been spending the winter at Columbus, Ga. Columbus is a fine city. The climate is ideal. The surrounding country is a fine farming country, mostly worked by darkies, but it would do fine for our Maryland farmers.

We had frost about four mornings this winter. I have not seen a snow flake this winter. The oats in up from three to four inches and gardens are fine; flowers are in bloom also the plum trees and the fig trees are pushing buds.

With all of this there is one thing missing, as the church is not so much in order in this country. There is much I could tell you but I am coming home March 1.

W. E. FORNEY.

From Holtville, California.

The Carroll Record:— Well, the winter is over in California. We have had the coldest weather, they say, in forty years. The orange and lemon trees are frozen so badly that they will have to be trimmed back, and there is no crop expected for two years.

I know we have had the coldest weather here in Imperial Valley, in eight years. I have thought many times that I would write something for The Record about the wonderful Imperial Valley, but as yet have never done so. I always enjoy Mr. Reid's Detroit letters.

Letter from Beckley, Oregon.

Dear Editor:—

I will drop you a few lines to let you know that my brother and I are both well, but it keeps a person busy cutting wood to keep the house warm. On the morning of the 14th of this month, it was 20° below zero, and we have lots of snow now and the roads are drifted so that a person can not travel.

I started to go to the Postoffice the other day in my Flivver but I could not get through, so I had to backtrack and come home and get the horses. They always will be our good old stand-bys.

Well, I just received the Record of Feb. 3. I see some one has made a mistake in that letter I wrote about the rabbits. I see you only have 1800, but I said one homesteader had killed 18,000 in one year; and I was talking to him the other day and he has killed about 23,000 up-to-date within the last year; 1800 rabbits are nothing in this country. When a person sees them on his grain, it looks like a herd of sheep sometimes. But 1800 would be a big lot of rabbits back in old Maryland.

ROBERT L. KOONTZ,
Beckley, Oregon.

We are apt to visualize Japan as a warm country. As a matter of fact, it is not, as the news dispatches told us this week that equal suffrage was defeated in the Jap National Congress by 243 to 147, and that a snow storm and cold wave prevented celebrating the event.

The man who advertises in one issue and then waits for results, is about the same as a preacher would be who delivered one sermon and expected that to be sufficient. As a matter of fact the good man keeps repeating the same time after time. And that is what the advertiser must do to keep in touch with the public.

ANTI-RACING AND DRY BILL PASSED.

House Sends Both to the Senate Thursday Night.

The House, on Friday night, or early Saturday morning, finished up the Prohibition enforcement bill to its third reading, passing only such amendments as the "drys" wanted, and emphatically downed the "referendum" amendment, the last hope of the wets. The Baltimore News, that helped to bolster up "wet" opposition, left itself down as gracefully as possible by editorially admitting that defeating the referendum was right, and that after all the enforcement bill is sent to, and not as drastic as, the Volstead act—that it is a "mere police measure—nothing more and nothing less."

The anti-gambling bill had a walk-over in the House on Tuesday, the bill being sent to its third reading by the remarkable vote of 75 to 25. Mr. Hill, of Baltimore led the fight for the bill, and floor-leader Gambrill also voted "yea." The full Carroll county delegation voted for the repeal of the present law. Miss Risteau voted "no," explaining that she "abominated gambling," but the "financial" aspect of the matter constrained her to vote as she did.

Mr. Hall made a strong clean cut argument in favor of the bill saying it was designed to break up the partnership between the State of Maryland and the gamblers; that "for $600,000 a year we have sold our birthright," and later on he promised that a large portion of this loss would be made up by going over "the budget with a fine-tooth comb," and take some items out of it that ought to come out. Others spoke along the same lines, with the result that the gambling and "financial" interests had a bad time of it.

The House passed the "women's rights" bill 75 to 30, under which women will have the same rights as men, under the laws, but at the same time exempted them from certain duties, among them, serving on juries.

The railroad "full crew" repeal bill passed the Senate, by a vote of 19 to 7. The law gives to the Public Service Commission authority to determine cases in which full crews are necessary.

The gasoline tax bill passed the House to the third reading, on Thursday. There are two bills, one imposing a tax of two cents, and the other one cent, the former taking the place of the present system of registration, and the other for roads.

A strong effort will be made by the "wets" when the "enforcement" bill gets to the Senate, to add to it the "referendum" amendment, or perhaps involve it in a conference committee and cause the bill to lapse. The other hope is, that the Governor may veto the bill, if it passes both branches.

With no debate on either measure, the House on Thursday night passed the Anti-Saloon League's State Enforcement Act by a vote of 58 to 45 and Delegate Hall's anti-racetrack gambling measure by a vote of 70 to 30. The Carroll County delegation voted solidly for both measures.

The Fire Situation.

A third alarm of fire recently brought home to our citizens the timeliness of The Chronicle's comments on our lack of preparation to meet this danger. On this occasion the firemen were on hand with exemplary promptness, but the hydrants, as before, were buried in ice and completely frozen.

This paper undertook to bring about more efficient co-operation between the municipality and the Fire Company; to emphasize the obligation to the former to see to it that a sufficient supply of water and hose is available for all emergencies; and to suggest to the latter the necessity of more thorough organization so that the officers of the company should be known and recognized as such and take intelligent hold of the situation in a crisis. We have no criticism or complaint of individuals. There are always an abundance of generous, self-sacrificing men on hand to help out in time of danger, but if the organizations intended to meet these dangers are neglectful or inefficient, the individual's work will count for little.

It is to be noted that Emmitsburgians have largely increased the amount of insurance covering their properties. If the insurance company in their turn become conversant with the true inwards of the situation and raise the policy rates then perhaps we shall wake up—when it is too late.—Emmitsburg Chronicle.

New Jersey Going Dry.

Even very "wet" New Jersey has just passed an "enforcement" measure; other bills designed to make the state "dry" have also been passed by the House, and their passage in the Senate is said to be assured. If N. J. can do this, Md., ought to find it easy.

We fill orders for Stock Certificates, Certificates of Award, Marriage Certificates, Diplomas, and a line of engraved blanks suitable for many special purposes. As these are handled through samples, orders must be placed in ample time.

MARYLAND LIVE STOCK.

Facts Concerning the Live Stock Industry in State.

College Park, Md., Feb. 28, 1922.— On January 1, 1922 there were on the farms of Maryland about 4,000 less head of live stock than a year preceding, according to a statement issued today by John S. Dennee, agricultural statistician for the United States Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates, co-operating with the Extension Service of the University of Maryland. Horses decreased 1000 head; mules remained the same; milk cows increased 4000; other cattle increased 3000; sheep decreased 4000; and swine decreased 6000.

The total numbers on farms January 1 are estimated as follows: horses, 137,000; mules, 33,000; milk cows, 192,000; other cattle, 98,000; sheep, 89,000; and swine 285,000. The total value of live stock has declined $6,505,000, or 15.7 per cent, during the year; that is, from a total of $41,395,000 on January 1, 1921 to $34,890,000 on January 1, 1922. This decrease is due partly to a slight reduction in numbers, but more to the lower value per head.

Horses, with a value of $87 per head as compared with $98 a year ago are lower than they have been at any time in over 20 years. The total value of horses is estimated at $11,919,000, which is $1,605,000 or 11.8 per cent, less than a year ago.

Mules have declined in price $10 per head, the January 1 price being $115. The total value of mules is $3,795,000, a reduction of $330,000, or 8% as compared with a year ago. Horses and mules are the only classes of livestock that have a present value below that of 1914. The average values per head on January 1, 1914, were: horses $119; mules $143.

Milk cows have declined 20 per cent in value per head, from $79 to $63, and in total value have declined $2,756,000, or 18.6 per cent, from $14,852,000 to $12,096,000. According to farmers' reports, cows kept for dairy purposes were milked last year an average of 305 days.

Other cattle have declined 28 per cent in value per head, from $46 to $33.20, and in total value have declined $1,116,400, or 25.5 per cent from $4,370,000 to $3,253,600.

All cattle have thus declined $3,872,400, or 20.2 per cent, from $19,220,000 to $15,347,600.

Swine have declined in value per head 11.5 per cent, from $13 to $11.50 and in total value have declined $505,500, or 13.4 per cent, from $3,783,500 to $3,277,500.

Sheep have declined in value per head 22.5 per cent, from $8 to $6.20, and in total value have declined $192,200, or 25.8 per cent, from $744,000 to $551,800.

The numbers of the different classes of live stock on the farms of Maryland, expressed in percentages of the numbers on January 1, 1921 are: horses 99 per cent; mules 100 per cent; milk cows, 102 per cent; other cattle 103 per cent; swine 99 per cent sheep 96 per cent.

Comparing present average with the January 1, 1914 average values, it is found that the value of horses on January 1, 1922, is 27 per cent less; mules 20 per cent less; milk cows, 17 per cent more; other cattle 13 per cent more; sheep 24 per cent more; swine 10 per cent more.

The estimated numbers of live stock and the average value per head are revised to the basis of the 1920 census.

Association Against Prohibition.

There are some things about this Association Opposed to Prohibition, which, we will frankly admit, puzzle us. We are not opposed to prohibition ourselves, but consider it one of the best things that ever struck the country. However, we do not deny the right of other people honestly to differ with us. But we want to know how honest they are.

How does this Association of "reputable citizens" stand on upholding the constitution of the United States, as at present amended, and the duly enacted federal and state laws? Does it hold that a constitutional amendment, passed by a vote of almost three to one in Congress and ratified by the legislature of forty-five out of forty-eight states, with the state assemblies voting four to one in its favor, is not the will of the people of the country, and so is not binding on its members? Or is it maintaining the law scrupulously until it can be repealed, or changed in an orderly manner?

If it is doing this latter we salute it as an honorable opponent of our ideas on the subject. Any group of citizens have a right to band together to propose changes in the law and to win the majority to their way of thinking, if they can. We don't grudge them their effort, but we think they have a long hard road to travel.—Chicago Post.

Three bills and a joint resolution, all directed toward Americanism in the public and private schools of Maryland, were killed on Thursday by the House of Delegates. They were reported unfavorably by the Committee on Education and the report approved. One bill would have established night schools in Baltimore and the counties for education of immigration adults as an aid to naturalization.

Hog cholera is reported to exist on the premises of Frank Sherman, near Hampstead.

Even if those "platform pledges" are all carried out, at Annapolis, will there be anything left to the average tax-payer to feel good over? Here's hoping that the grist will be worth its cost.

Let's not worry about "the times." It gets us nowhere, except in an unhealthy state of mind; and even if "the times" were better, we would still have something to worry about. It's a fact, that most of our troubles are imaginary—and it is also a fact that we are always coddling some sort of worm.

The experience of having a Baltimore representative—Mr. Hall—act as one of the leaders in putting the Prohibition enforcement Bill through, was a new one, and to some extent reassuring that all of the city's representatives are not of the same stripe. Now, it remains to be seen whether Mr. Hall can go back again, if he wants to.

With considerable justification, some of our soldier boys are complaining of the millions of dollars wasted by our government on airships of the dirigible class, and point to this waste as going a long way toward paying the soldiers' bonus. As long as the government finds the money with which to enter into extravagant experiments in aerial navigation, the "poor mouth" for the soldiers does not go down at all well.

If the State of Maryland must be inflicted with a race track gambling law—even though some 46 states will not have one—we would agree that the state's "rake-off" of the winnings should go to such commendable objects as roads and legitimately conducted farmer's organizations. But, we do not agree that there is a "must" in the case nor that a desirable "end" justifies an undesirable "means." The gambling feature is just the same, and the division of the spoils is made popular only to try to help put the gambling end of the business over.

Coal the Big Item.

The big thing that is blocking the way to almost certain revival of business, is the miners strike that is expected about April 1, possibly in connection with a strike of railroad employees. The demand for a five day week and a six hour day, on the part of the miners, is holding up about everything else—for the one big thing needful to start things going, is cheaper coal and cheaper transportation.

The question is a big one, that we do not pretend to know the solution of; but, as non-union mines are working to about 80 per cent capacity, and with largely full employment, and the union mines are not working at 50 per cent capacity, and with less than 50 per cent full employment, it seems to us that non-union miners are having the best of it, even at lower wages. Forcing up the pay, and getting no work, does not seem to be the way to prosperity.

It is generally agreed, that if the miners will agree to accept lower wages, and the railroads cut freight rates that business—depending largely on cheap power, and cheap transportation—must start going, as orders will come as soon as lower prices can be made to consumers. Coal is the key to the situation.

The situation is complicated by the fact that there are too many miners for the needs of the country. That is the reason for the five day week, and the six hour day—to give all the miners room to work. Mining is held to be desirable employment, by many. The work is not hard—but always dangerous—it is a cool job in the summer, and a warm job in winter; and as a rule, living expenses are not high.

But, as we have repeatedly pointed out, all of the concessions that are needed are not from the miners; the operators, the railroads and the coal dealers, must each contribute their share toward cheaper coal. The strike—if it comes—is almost sure to be ended with a breaking up of the "hold-up" that the country has been suffering from, ever since the big encouragement given to miners and railroaders during the early days of the war, by the government. The situation must be fought to a standstill, some time, as it might as well be now, and get it over with.

The "Last Ditch" Fight.

We lay no claims to remarkable foresight but, we do not believe that this gift is needed, to warrant the opinion that the numerous "wet" organizations of the country, through a suspiciously co-operative "wet" city press, will make the supreme effort of their cause between now and the coming November, to try to persuade the voters of the country that Prohibition is a flat failure; hence, laws should be passed to "wetten" things up again.

Here in Maryland, while the legislature is in session, a superabundance of wet propaganda has been oozing out of—not through the country weeklies—that might easily be imagined to be passed along for the effect it may have in impressing legislators with the hopelessness of enforcing prohibition; hence, efforts in that direction might as well be abandoned.

Many of the news articles covering captures of "bootleg" stuff, and of the efforts made for law enforcement, are written up in an openly ridiculing fashion, while others are works of art in trying to whitewash law violators, and make them less criminal than they are. The propagandists realize full well that they can not keep up, indefinitely, their obstructive tactics; that they will eventually lack an audience, as their threadbare stories wear out; so, what is to be done, must be done before November.

The great object will be to elect a Congress that will either repeal, or greatly modify, the Volstead act, and thereby greatly weaken, if not render entirely inactive, the Eighteenth amendment. Let there be no mistake about this. The real battle over Prohibition will be staged this November; and which side wins, will win for keeps. It will be "the last ditch" fight.

Great Minds Differ.

The Baltimore News says it was quite proper for the legislature to have defeated the "referendum" to the Prohibition enforcement law, as a legislature is elected to "legislate," and not to find questions for the people to vote on. The Sun, on the other hand, says the matter is one for a "referendum," based on its old grouching grounds—that the city delegates, with one exception, voted for it, and that the majority of the population, and the preponderance of the taxable basis of the state, was represented by the minority vote on the subject.

The Sun forgets that voting is not based on property values anywhere, and in the legislature not on population; and this latter is a very wise provision, unless the people of Maryland want Baltimore city to decide, for instance, whether a county could have a purely local bill passed.

Evidently, the Sun is taking the matter to heart more seriously than The News for the latter says the enforcement act is "merely a police measure" and after all is not as drastic as the Volstead act, and that even if enforcement had been defeated, the Volstead act would still stand. If the Sun could only "back off", like its neighbor, it would not be so sour over the throw down of the "wets."

The American seems to conclude that this is not a case for the use of the referendum; but it is considerably concerned about whether the legislature is representing public sentiment, or merely taking the "hand-outs" of the Anti-Saloon League on the question. What difference does it make which they are doing? They are, first of all, voting to carry out the Eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States—as The News says, to see that it is properly policed in the state.

The Pneumonia Month.

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

At a recent meeting of the Indiana Republican Editorial Association, Thomas H. Adams, editor of the Vincennes Commercial, delivered an unusually fine address on "The Editorial Page" of the small city and inland press. We have space only for a small portion of this address, and commend it to those—perhaps the very few—who read editorials in small papers. He expresses what has been our own belief, for years, that a properly balanced, sane and moral, editorial page, is the best thing, in even a small weekly paper. Mr. Adams says:

"The power of the education of the people lies in the editorial page of the junior city or the inland press now, as it never has before; for every city must have its leaders of constructive thought, which lie naturally with the columns of the press that rest so close to the heartbeat of the country that has become so influential.

"People do not read an editorial page just to see 'what you have to say.' They read it for the intellectual benefit it will be to them; for the information they are seeking on virile topics, national and local.

"What shall be the policy of the editorial page? Truth!—as you see it. Directed according to the common law—the law of the Ten Commandments. Always preach the doctrine of righteousness—the Golden Rule—and you may never go wrong.

"Any newspaper of character may command an audience of easily 10,000 people and larger. It is a wonderful opportunity to talk to such a mass of open minds and direct your work for the welfare of such a gathering.

"I would exhort publishers to think 'more of the power of the editorial page. The people need help more now than ever before since the World War. It is up to the editorial page to give this help to steady the morale, lift up the low spirit, encourage the drooping and disappointed.

"Follow the Ten Commandments—the Sermon on the Mount. You can't go wrong. Do not bear false witness. Preach optimism.

"Condemn crime vigorously and do not neglect opportunity to draw forceful morals without being garrulous. The editorial page must do this. It must show that 'the way of the transgressor is hard,' and that wickedness and lawlessness do not pay.

"Be fair in politics, but be forceful. There is nothing gained in hiding one's opinion. Make it forceful and militant, but make it ring true.

"The old-time journalism is gone. The new era in journalism is here. It is the journalism of the home and fireside—never before driven with force and effect in the heart of America, but it is up to you publishers of junior cities to do that very thing now. The junior city press is the intellectual force that reaches the mass. It is the mass that the junior city press must make think, and think in proper channels. The junior city press represented by powerful journals in every modern town, all over forty-eight states of the Union, is the power of thought on the throne of intelligence in our country. It is the editorial page of the junior city press that must drive intelligence into the heart of the home, and not prejudice. The junior city press must not practice demagoguery. The editorial page is yours, brother publishers, to make or break the great heart of the human family right at home."

One of "the Boys" Opposes the Bonus

All of the A. E. F. men are not for the bonus—at least, not for it hard, at this time. The following letter to the Philadelphia Ledger, from one of them—J. Victor Feather, of Philadelphia—takes quite a different view of the question from many of his comrades. He says:

"When the fuss started the writer was well above the draft age. He didn't have to go, but he figured that when it was all over there would be just two classes of men in this country; those who went and those who stayed at home. He had a prosperous business, and weighed it in the balance to see whether or not that would compensate for the feeling of being an "outsider" when in the company of those who went and came back.

For those who went and came back whole the glorious memory of a duty well done should be sufficient reward for any "man." I was in a Pullman car the other day and met a millionaire merchant who felt that life had handed him a mighty raw deal because he couldn't get into the scrap. He willingly would have foregone all the profit his business brought him in the war period could be only have been in the favored class. Every man who is a man feels the same way about it.

No money that any man made while he stayed at home consoles him for what he missed. And the man who went will be repaid a thousand times in the pride of his children in the deeds of their "daddy." Could money, bonus or anything buy such a heritage?

The boys have the finest thing that ever happened in any age to look back on.

I think the American Legion is lowering itself in the estimation of the finest thought in the country today by its insistence on the bonus above every other matter. It would seem to me that the thing to do is to forget the bonus. Forget the war, get to work and earn some money.

In any case, fellows, there's nothing to this bonus thing. If we got it, we would be taxed to repay the money. Just like taking the money out of one pocket and putting it in the other.

Pound hades out of Uncle Sam if he does not take care of the wounded and disabled. He never can pay his debt to them. But to you and I, brother, he doesn't owe one red cent—and you know it.

I'm for giving the old gentleman a square deal."

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE.

The Blue Ridge-Washington College debate which was to have been held in New Windsor, Friday night, March 3, has by the request of Washington College, been moved up two weeks, which will make the date March 17.

The basket ball season at Blue Ridge ended in a blaze of glory, Feb. 21, when the local aggregation trounced the Davis and Elkins five by the score of 34-26. This game was one of the finest exhibitions of basket ball ever witnessed in New Windsor.

The West Virginians presented a powerful offense and were in the lead until the last six minutes of play when Blue Ridge took a spurt and scored enough points to sew up the game.

A very interesting illustrated lecture was presented in the College Chapel, on Thursday evening, entitled "The Romance of the Telephone."

This lecture was held under the auspices of the Bell Telephone Co., and was extremely interesting, showing the phases of development in the telephone since its invention.

A crowd of twenty-five students, comprising the first and second basket ball teams, motored to Westminster, Thursday night to witness the basket ball game between Western Maryland and Davis and Elkins.

Edwin Schultz, Y. M. C. A. Secretary from Washington & Lee University, was a welcome visitor at Blue Ridge last Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Schultz is none other than the redoubtable "Eddie" Schultz, the great all-American foot ball tackle of 1914-15, and all-around athletic of Washington and Lee University. Mr. Schultz's suggestions along Y. M. C. A. lines were very instructive.

The second basketball team experienced little difficulty in taking into camp Duffy Speicher's Midgets, by the score of 24-14. The phenomenal form displayed by Blue Ridge's fleet-footed forward, Lashley, coupled with the brilliancy of coach Guyton, were the shining lights on the offense for Blue Ridge.

MOTTERS.

W. F. Fisher has returned home after spending a week in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Saylor and son, Roy, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Orndorff.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Saylor and daughter, Gladys, Mr. F. H. Orndorff and Mr. Grant Long, made a business trip to Frederick, on Saturday.

Those who spent Sunday evening at the home of Roy Saylor and wife, were: Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly and daughter, Marie, and Miss Catharine Orndorff.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McLaughlin spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McLaughlin.

Miss Annie Winell, of Emmitsburg, spent a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Orndorff.

Found a Cure for Indigestion. "I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different medicines. I am nearly fifty one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to, now," writes George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. These tablets contain no pepsin but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

A precious one from us has gone; A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

We miss thee from our home, dear mother, We miss thee from thy place; A shadow o'er our life is cast And how we miss thee everywhere.

Afflictions sore with patience she bore; Physicians were in vain; God thought it best that she should rest, And eased her of her pain.

BY HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

CARD OF THANKS.

Our sincerest thanks are extended to all friends and neighbors for their kindness and help, during the illness and following the death of my wife.

LLOYD S. LAMBERT.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Nothing So Good for a Cough or Cold. "Everyone who has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy speaks well of it," writes Edward P. Miller, Abbotstown, Pa. "People who once use this preparation are seldom satisfied with any other." It is excellent to allay a cough or break up a cold.

Every Drop a Resource

As a dairy farmer you know exactly what your cream is worth and that every particle of butter fat has a special value to you, therefore you cannot afford to use a Separator that misses any of the cream. The gets all the cream, this is because of features of construction that are entirely different from the average Separator, yet the principle on which it operates is as simple as the mechanism, the frame is open and sanitary, the supply can large and low and every gear and bearing is well oiled by the splash oil system.

The Primrose is a sure money maker. No matter what the size of your herd, you can use it with profit.

We have the size suitable for every farm. Can be belted to an engine, equipped with an electric motor, or operated by hand.

In Primrose Separators good workmanship and material close skimming and durable qualities are the distinguished points, and these are points that concern your profits. Let us demonstrate this or other points. If it is not convenient for you to call, phone or write us, and we shall be glad to bring a machine to your home and show you how it operates and what its many advantages are to you. A share of your patronage will be greatly appreciated.

LESSON FOR MARCH 5

JEHOVAH'S MERCY TO A HEATHEN CITY

LESSON TEXT—Jonah 3:1-11.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.—Isa. 55:7.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Isa. 46:20-25; 49:1-7; Jonah 1:1-2:10; Mal. 1:10, 11; John 3:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Sends Jonah on an Errand.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Spared a Wicked City.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jonah's Missionary Adventure.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Missionary Teaching of the Book of Jonah.

That the book of Jonah is historical we believe for the following reasons: First, its record and use in the Scriptures. That the writers of the Bible intended the impression of its historicity is without the shadow of a doubt. The suggestion that it is a parable is absolutely gratuitous.

Second, the unbroken testimony of tradition among the Jews is that it is historic. Third, the testimony of Jesus Christ (Matt. 12:39-41). The words of Jesus Christ are final.

1. Jonah's Second Commission (vv. 1, 2).

When called the first time to go to Nineveh, he found the task too great for him. For his unfaithfulness, he was chastised. He repented and God restored his commission. The Lord said to him, "Preach the preaching that I bid thee" (v. 2). God knows how he wants His work done. Happy is the missionary, minister, Sunday-school teacher, who preaches God's Word just as He gave it.

2. Jonah's Preaching (vv. 3, 4).

1. His field (v. 3). "Nineveh was an exceeding great city." Not only was the city large, but its inhabitants were noted for their cruelty.

2. His message (v. 4). "Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." This means that forty days were given by God for repentance ere the judgment would fall. God is long-suffering, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent (II Pet. 3:9). Though He is merciful, yet there is a limitation to it. He says, "Yet forty days."

3. The Repentance of Nineveh (vv. 5-10).

1. They believed God (v. 5). They believed that God was speaking to them through the prophet about their sins and impending judgment.

2. They proclaimed a fast (vv. 5-8). The king and people joined sincerely in this movement. The call was for them to turn away from their sins. Their penitence was genuine, for they not merely put on sackcloth, the visible sign of mourning, but they cried to God (v. 8).

3. They reasoned that God would repent (v. 9). Though they had no assurance that God would have mercy, yet they reasoned that the sending of a prophet and the giving of a time before the fall of doom implied that God would be merciful if they repented. They were wise in so doing. We today know that God will have mercy if we repent (Acts 3:19). What utter folly to go on in sin in the face of the assurance that God will judge.

4. God's mercy shown (v. 10). "God saw their works that they turned from their evil way." God's eye is omniscient. Wherever there is a soul who is turning from sin in penitence, He sees. No one has ever wept over sin unnoticed by God. God rejoices when a sinner repents (Luke 15:10).

In the Book of Jonah we have portrayed the typical history of Israel:

"1. Jonah was called to a world mission, and so was Israel. (2) Jonah at first refused compliance with the divine purpose and plan, and so did Israel. (3) Jonah was punished by being cast into the sea, and so was Israel by being dispersed among the nations. (4) Jonah was not lost, but rather especially preserved during this part of his experience, and Israel is not being assimilated by the nations, but being kept for God. (5) Jonah, repentant and cast out by the fish, is restored to life and action again, and Israel, repentant and cast out by the nations, shall be restored to her former national position. (6) Jonah, obedient, goes upon his mission to Nineveh, and Israel obedient, shall ultimately engage in her original mission to the world. (7) Jonah is successful in that his message is acted upon to the salvation of Nineveh, so Israel shall be blessed in that she shall be used to the conversion of the whole world."

—Dr. Gray's Commentary.

The Apostles Work Wonders. And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.—Acts 5:12-14.

Death in Life. For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. Then death worketh in us, but life you.—II Corinthians 4:11-12.

ADVICE WELL WORTH TAKING

No Doubt Driver of Car Realized Afterward That His Sarcaam Really Was Wasted.

A big passenger car was a victim of the sleet in Central avenue. The driver tried valiantly to keep it in the middle of the street, but one hind wheel slipped over a little, the driver tried to stop the "boat," the rear wheel slid along the car track—well, auto drivers know the rest.

When the car stopped sliding its two rear wheels rested against the curb and its two front ones were on the car track. Then ensued much speeding up of the engine and much whizzing of rear wheels, but no forward movement.

"What's the matter? trying to get away from the curb?" a bystander asked.

"Oh, no, I'm polishing the pavement so the kids can have some fun!" sarcastically exclaimed the driver of the car.

"Well, if you'll just cut that engine down and slip her out of high into low, I'll give you a little shove and you'll walk right away from the curb," the interloper said.

The advice was followed, the wheels ceased their mad whirl and the car, under the gentle urge of the bystander, moved away.—Indianapolis News.

From Messenger to General.

General Pellegri, who has just been appointed to the command of the thirteenth division of French Infantry, with headquarters at Langres, is a living proof of the possibility of rising by unaided effort, which Napoleon crystallized into the saying that every French soldier carried a marshal's baton in his haversack.

General Pellegri, whose parents were in very poor circumstances, began life as a telegraph messenger at Marseilles. He scraped and saved so as to be able to buy books, which he studied at night after his day's work for the postoffice was finished. He took his baccalaureate, got into the military college at Saint-Cyr, obtained his commission with flying colors and passed the Ecole de Guerre, or staff college. He took part in the operations in Morocco in 1907, was badly wounded at the battle of the Marne, and afterwards returned to Morocco, where he became one of Marshal Lyautey's most valued assistants.

Umbrella Sign of Married Man.

You can tell a married man by the umbrella he checks, asserts the young capitalist who presides over the cloakroom of a family restaurant. If he has two weather sticks, one a heavy, cheap affair, that was purchased with the idea of being soon lost, and the other of finer material, it's a sure bet that he's married.

According to this psychologist, married folks when they start out in the rain each carries his own umbrella so they can have the minimum of inconvenience and retain a maximum of dryness. In the prenuptial times the male of the species would never hear of the woman battling the winds alone. He would carry the umbrella over her and get wet himself. But they're married now, and that makes a difference.

No Place for Tobacco Fiends.

As a precaution against forest fires, smoking has been entirely prohibited in any part of the Olympic national forest in Washington. The area covered by the "no smoking" order amounts to about 540,000 acres. The period of this prohibition is to be determined by the district forester at Portland, Oregon. The urgent reason for this action is due to the fact that the area was largely swept by a cyclone during the last winter and the ground is covered with broken trees and branches of trees so that if a fire were to get any headway at all, it would be difficult to check it.

Unlucky Tom.

A real old-fashioned Yankee was telling a friend of the ill luck experienced by his son Thomas.

"Take the last case, as an example," he said. "Just as soon as he went to Boston to work, Tom fell in love. She lived in one of the suburbs, and directly Tom made up his mind he liked her, he went and bought a fifty-trip ticket to her place and—"

"Well, what happened?"

"What happened? Why, he was turned down at the second call and the ticket was left on his hands! If that isn't hard luck, please tell me what is!"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

THE MAN WHO LOOKS VIGOROUS

Good Red Blood is the only Sure foundation of Permanent Health and Vigor

Good color, bright eyes, solid flesh, erect bearing are dependent upon rich blood. If your blood is not up to the mark your general health can not be. Late hours, eating the wrong foods, working indoors, fatigue, affect the blood. So many people eat well and take exercise, yet never seem to improve in health. Gude's Pepto-Mangan taken regularly for a while gives the blood that richness and redness that produces bounding health and vigor. It is a simple, natural way to get well and strong. Gude's Pepto-Mangan comes in liquid or tablets—at your druggist's.

Eggs a plenty when the Mercury's Down!

It is the way you are feeding and not so much the season that is responsible for the eggs you are getting. If you will feed for eggs now, you will get eggs now.

Grains furnish too much material to make yolks, but less than enough for an equal number of whites. Hens can't lay incomplete eggs.

To Make More Eggs

Purina Chows are rich in protein, the principal element in whites. Just enough, and no more, of each element is used to keep a perfect balance of whites and yolks. Maximum egg production is the result.

"More Eggs or Money Back"

The money paid for both Chows will be refunded if hens when fed Purina Chicken Chowder with Purina Hen Chow, as directed, do not lay more eggs than when fed any other ration.

The Oldest Man in the World

Just part of a skull, two molar teeth and a thigh bone! Pieced together they made—what? One of the most perplexing mysteries in the study of human history.

Were these the remains of an ape-like man who lived 500,000 years ago?

Scientists believe that they were; they call him the "Dawn Man," and out of the record embedded in the rocks they have reconstructed the conditions of his life. How he killed his food and tore the raw flesh from the bones; how he married and fought and died! How little by little he clawed and clubbed his way up to mastery over the beasts. It is a fascinating, gripping story, but it is only one of a thousand stories that stir your blood in this greatest book of modern times.

H. G. WELLS' "Outline of History"

Now Offered You at One-Third the Original Price

A history that goes back 100,000 years—that traces man's rude beginnings 500,000 years ago—that follows him down through the ages to the Babylon of Nebuchadnezzar, the Egypt of Cleopatra, the France of Napoleon, the America of today, through the Great War and on into the future United States of the World—that gives ALL history as one story—this is Wells'.

Not only the history of the world, but the science of the world; the outstanding literature of the world; the philosophy of the world—a vast panorama unveiled before your eyes by the most graphic word picture of modern times.

And The REVIEW OF REVIEWS TOO

Wells begins with the dawn of time; before there were men; before there were even reptiles. In broad, magnificent strokes he paints the picture, bringing you straight down to 1922. Alexander passes on the scene; and Nero; and Charlemagne and Napoleon; Pericles and Genghis Khan; Constantine and Akbar; Gallileo and Marco Polo. Never a dull moment. Never a paragraph that is not crystal clear.

And where Wells stops the Review of Reviews takes up the story. It is the history of the past; the Review of Reviews records and interprets the history of the world today. It is fitting that these two should be joined together. By joining them we are able to offer you an educational course such as you get at no school in the land.

The Love Signal

By CLARISSA MACKIE

©, 1922, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"What house is that?" demanded Job Filmer, when he returned home after a few days' absence.

"Houses?" Polly's cheeks were pink, and there was a quaver in her voice. "That little white bungalow on top of Sycamore Hill—to be exact, the new house on the lot that Bob Haskins owns."

"Oh! Why, that's Bob's new house."

"Hum!" Mr. Filmer leaned back in his chair and slanted a look at his pretty daughter. "Who's living in the house?"

"He is—he said he was tired of boarding at the hotel."

Polly grew rosy as she turned reproachful eyes on her parent. "You know Bob wanted to marry me, but you and mother thought I was too young—and he was almost a stranger in the town—and everything!"

"Don't be disrespectful to your pa, Polly Filmer!" warned her mother, appearing in the doorway to announce the evening mail. "Some day you'll thank your stars and us, too, that you didn't marry a man with all his fortune to make."

"I don't mean to be disrespectful, and I am sorry," and she kissed them lovingly, "but while I know he's just starting in the hardware business here you know he is making money, and I want to help him succeed—and besides, money isn't everything!"

"It helps a great deal," said Mrs. Filmer, uneasily.

"There's grandmother waving to you," said Polly suddenly.

Her parents went to the end of the porch, where a close view of Grandmother Filmer's gray old house could be seen. The house was just across a deep gully at the bottom of which flowed a silvery stream. Mr. Filmer had built a small covered footbridge across the gully so that they could go back and forth in all weather.

"Going to Be Married, I Suppose?"

Grandmother was waving a red cloth that meant that she wanted one of them to come over. "I'll go over," said Mrs. Filmer, "I want to take some warm gingerbread. Coming, Polly?"

As Polly went down the front steps she stopped and gazed very intently at the white house on the hill. She saw a tall gray figure waving a hat in the air. Polly's handkerchief went up and down frantically.

"Polly!" admonished her mother, and Polly put away her handkerchief with a soft smile on her lips. Mother and daughter walked slowly down the grassy slope to the little covered bridge.

"Mother, I expect grandmother has enjoyed having father and you so near—I suppose you have waved to each other for years—before I came, and I can remember it while I was growing up."

"Yes, dear. And mother says the greatest happiness she has known since her children have grown up and left the home nest was the thought that she could lift her eyes and look over here and see us in the garden or about the porch—a wave of the red cloth and we were over there." They paused halfway across the bridge and leaned out of the broad window; the top branches of tall trees brushed the bridge—the roots were deep in the gully below. They could hear the tinkling of the brook below and inhaled the pungent odor of mint and sweet fennel, where some careless foot had brushed the stalks. "I used to play down there when I was a little girl," said Mrs. Palmer. "I loved sweet flagroot—"

"I want to hear about father's building this bridge," said Polly softly.

"Why, he built a house on the hill, and there was the gully between us, a long drive around by the high road and quite a walk up and down hill through the gully. So, after your grandfather consented to our marriage, Job built his house—and then when we were married he built the bridge as a surprise—it was almost a wedding present."

"How lovely," sighed Polly. "And, mother, when Bob and I are married, some day, I suppose you and father will sit on the porch and signal to us, as grandmother does to you."

"Polly Filmer, what talk," chided

Mrs. Filmer weakly, as they emerged from the other end of the bridge. "You know we don't approve of Bob Haskins."

"I must marry some one, some day—I know you like George Deerham—he has everything you want me to have—you've known his folks all your life—they have plenty of money, and Captain Deerham has given George $5,000 to buy a hotel down in Cuba—of course, it's lovely to travel—"

"George Deerham is a ninny!" declared Mrs. Filmer, as she led the way into grandmother's house, where the old lady greeted them with suppressed excitement.

"Sarah Lines has been here taking orders for some city store, and she told me a bit of news about my own family I didn't know."

"What is that, mother?" asked Mr. Filmer, who had strolled after his wife and daughter. "What have we done now?"

"Sarah says—Mrs. Deerham says if George and Polly get married this fall they will sail for Cuba before Christmas. I didn't know he was courting our Polly."

"He isn't, granny, dear!" cried Polly, putting her arm around the bent shoulders.

"Never!" shouted Job, hoarsely.

"Cuba? Well, I never—and Bob Haskin building a white bungalow especially for Polly," cried Mrs. Filmer.

"Bobby Haskin—the young man who rents my store down to the village?" chirruped grandmother. "Why, he's the nicest boy. Many the dish of baked apples and ginger cookies he's eaten with me here when he comes to pay the rent. Came up the other night and said he wanted to buy the store some day, and would I give him first chance. I certainly will, I admire pluck, I'm keeping that store for him."

"He wants to marry Polly," offered Mrs. Filmer.

"She's a lucky girl, Skidmore's hill is a sight rarer your house than Cuba!"

"It is, Job."

Mr. Filmer rubbed his bald spot. "Polly, if you know how to call your young man to have supper with us—"

But Polly had vanished. They heard her singing as she sped through the covered bridge, and later they saw the flash of a waving lantern—love's signal that all was well.

BIRD'S VOICE ALMOST HUMAN

Remarkable Vocal Powers of Feathered Dweller of the Forests of the Amazons.

The banks of the streams in the vicinity of St. Paulo, in the upper Amazons, in South America, are dotted with palm-thatched dwellings of the Indians, all half-buried in the leafy wilderness, the scattered families having chosen the coolest and shadiest nooks for their abodes.

The traveler frequently hears in the neighborhood of these huts the organ bird, the most remarkable songster by far of the Amazonian forests.

When its singular notes strike the ear for the first time, the impression cannot be resisted that they are produced by a human voice. Some musical boy must be gathering fruit in the thickets, and is singing a few notes to cheer himself.

The tones become more fluty and plaintive. Sometimes they resemble the notes of a flageolet, and the traveler is almost persuaded, in spite of the absurdity of the thing, that some person is playing that instrument in the primeval forests.

However closely he may scan the neighboring thicket, no bird appears, although the voice seems to be that of some one near at hand.

The bird is rarely if ever heard in the lower Amazons. It is the only song bird which makes an impression on the natives, who sometimes rest their paddles while voyaging in their small canoes along the shady by-streams as if struck by the mysterious sounds, a high compliment, indeed, for the usually impassive natives to pay the feathered songster.

Talking Balks Advancement.

A man may be a genius and thoroughly satisfactory in his work, but, if he has the reputation of talking to outsiders about the business affairs of the concern, his chances of advancement are not very bright. His indiscretion may cause him to give away some business secrets that would help competitors. It is important, therefore, to impress upon employees the necessity of keeping information to themselves. Gossiping and spreading rumors among fellow employees constitute another indiscretion frequently encountered in business. Try to eliminate it.—Business Digest.

Say It With Flowers.

Into one of the best art shops on Fifth avenue the other afternoon came an enormously wealthy Gotham lady who has two homes, one here and one in Paris, both storehouses of precious things, paintings and pottery. "I want something for a present," she said. She sat in an embrasure and watched thousands of dollars' worth of vases, plaques and what-nots taken from their shelves and ranged before her. Finally she halted the parade of antiques and said: "I have changed my mind. I shall send some flowers." —Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Tom Owned a River.

Toms river, New Jersey, is rarely referred to but what someone wonders how it acquired its name. The story is that an Indian known as Tom had a wigwam on its shores near the mouth of the stream and up to the time of his death he maintained that he owned the river.

TANEYTOWN LOCALS

Brief Items of Local News of Special Interest to Our Home Readers.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Leister, removed to Westminster, on Tuesday.

March came in quietly with several inches of snow. May it be the last one of the season.

Sherman Gilds is navigating around a little, and expects to be in shape for work before long.

Mrs. Carroll C. Hess and daughters are visiting her sisters at Chester, Philadelphia, Pa., this week.

Geo. H. Birnie has so far recovered as to be able to be out of bed, and about the house, moderately.

Hezekiah Spangler bought the home of the late Mrs. Bachman, in Silver Run, for $2050., at public sale.

Mrs. G. May Fouke is teaching again, following her disability from a fall on the ice, some weeks ago.

A synopsis of the Bonding bill for Carroll County appears in this issue. We advise that all interested give it a careful going over.

Richard Downie is captain of the Frostburg basket ball team and is in the race for the Allegany county championship. The team is doing very fine work.

Mrs. Clyde F. Dailey's father died suddenly from heart disease, on Monday evening, in his store in Gettysburg. Mr. and Mrs. Daily were visitors at aunt Martha Fringer's, last Sunday.

The Dorcas Sewing Circle of the U. B. Church of this place, will hold a chicken and oyster supper, Saturday evening, March 11, in the Firemen's Hall, commencing at 5 o'clock. Supper 35c.

Mrs. Merle S. Ohler, who has been sick with appendicitis, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Zentz, of Thurmont, for the past two months, is now able to be home, after taking treatments.

An item in the papers this week says there are in this county 9 Philadelphia, 12 Bostons, 21 Cleverlands, 28 Washingtons, 21 Buffaloes, 20 Portlands, etc., but only 1 New York. Well, New York has nothing on Taneytown, in that.

Miss Amanda Wolf has returned home after visiting nearly two weeks with Chas. Hahn and family. While there she milked a cow and would have rode horse-back if they would have had a side-saddle, this being a pleasure of her younger days. She is in her 87th year, and is remarkably active.

Theo. A. Classon formerly of this place, and Miss May Healy, daughter, of Mrs. Nellie Wilson, of Baltimore, were quietly married at the Cathedral, in Philadelphia on Feb. 21, 1922, by Rev. Thomas Cornwall. After spending a week in Philadelphia, among the groom's sisters, they will go at once to housekeeping in their newly built and furnished house, on Chestnut Ave., Overlea, Md.

The sale of the household property of Chas. B. Schwartz was very largely attended, on Tuesday, and auctioneer J. N. O. Smith had a busy four hours disposing of about 400 articles. The prices realized were generally good; a grand-father's clock brought $150.00; bureau $33.00, case of drawers, $35.00, set of dishes $35.00, table, $18.00, chairs $4.00 each, a sewing basket $4.00, and other prices in like proportion.

The Emmitsburg Chronicle, last week, told of a fire alarm in the town, when the firemen responded promptly, but found the hydrants frozen. The Westminster Times, also in last week's issue, asked that the fire plugs be opened up, to see that none are frozen. So, the neglect that afflicts Taneytown in this same direction, seems to be a bad habit in other towns. What is the use in supporting a Fire Company, unless it is effective when needed?

The bazaar and supper held by the Fire Company, on Washington's birthday, was well patronized and from a financial standpoint was a success, although the amount taken in was not quite up to last year. The amount cleared was almost $200.00 which has been added to the amount already invested for increasing and bettering the equipment, so that in time our Company may compare favorably with any Volunteer Co., and be equipped for any call made upon them. The members desire to thank all who contributed in any way to the supper, and especially to the ladies whose efforts added much to the success.

The local Camp of Modern Woodmen, held a very enjoyable social, on Monday evening; about 30 members were present.

BAD ROAD SHOWN UP.

Washington not a Guest at the Old Stone Hotel.

The Sentinel, last week, contained an excellent large illustration of the infamous Piney Creek section of the Taneytown-Littlestown road, that is now promised rebuilding. Our people know so much about it that further comment on our part, so far as Taneytown district people are concerned, is unnecessary; but, as an object lesson to the rest of the county, the Sentinel's illustration will be highly educational.

Four street views are also given, that have been published in The Record, and on post cards. The statement that General and Mrs. Washington once stopped over night in the "old stone hotel" that is soon to be demolished by its present owner, D. J. Hesson, is incorrect. General Washington stopped at Adam Good's tavern, then on the present location of N. B. Hagan's dwelling and store, almost opposite the stone hotel.

The Sentinel is to be commended for its enterprise in showing up the needs of this particular road—needs, by the way, that have been well known to our county officials for the past five years, or more.
