BILL PRESENTED TANEYTOWN.

Relating to Elections, Voters and the Government of the Town.

House bill 239, introduced by delegate Charles B. Kephart, would repeal and re-enact with amendments, Sections 405 and 407 of the Public Local Laws (1930 edition) "Carroll County" sub-title "Taneytown," and add two new sections to be known as Section 405A and 405B, changing the corporate name of Taneytown, and relating to elections and qualifications of voters, in substance as follows;

That the citizens of Taneytown are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of "The Mayor and City Council of Taneytown" instead of "The Burgess and Commissioners".

That all persons qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, who have resided within the corporate limits of the Town of Taneytown, and all non-residents, also duly qualified, who own real or personal property in said town to the value of $500.00 shall elect on the first Monday in May 1932, and thereafter one person to be Mayor who shall be at least 25 years of age, and own real or personal property in said town assessed at, at least $600. The Mayor to serve for two years from the date of

That all such electors shall in 1932 That all such electors shall in 1932 as aforesaid elect five persons, qualified the same as the Mayor, to serve as members of the City Council; the two having the highest vote would serve for two years, and the other three for one year; and thereafter there shall be held an election on the first Monday in May onch year. In first Monday in May each year. In the year 1933 and every second year thereafter three members of the City Council shall be elected, and in the year 1934, and every second year thereafter the Mayor and two mem-bers of the City Council shall be elect-

That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June 1931.

The main changes covered the bill are, to make the official titles of the officials more in harmony with custom in Maryland-Mayor and City Council; to make the term of Mayor two years instead of one as at present; and to provide that an entire new Council shall not be chosen in any one year. All of the changes seem to be desirable.

FIRE DESTROYS FARM HOUSE On the Milton Zollickoffer Farm near Uniontown.

The large brick dwelling on the farm belonging to Milton A. Zollick-offer, near Uniontown, was completely burned out shortly afternoon, on Thursday. Fire Companies from Westminster, Union Bridge and Taneytown were summoned, and a small supply of water was connected with, about a halfmile away on the Baust church road; but as the fire was confined to the dwelling, but little water was used as the dwelling fire itself was hopeless.

The dwelling, and other farm buildings had metal roofs. This fact prevented flying sparks in a large measure, and as the roof of the house gradually dropped down, the walls of the building—still standing—formed a big flue and the interior was completely destroyed. A collie dog belonging to Mr. Smith, ran into the building and burned to death.

The destroyed dwelling was the original Zollickoffer homestead, and was very substantially built many years ago; but with minor repairs would have endured perhaps as many years more. The building is said to have been insured in the Carrolt County Mutual Company.

RECOLLECTIONS OF OLD HOME.

Last week, we visited our former home, the house farthest west in Middleburg, after an absence of fifty-one years, yet what memories awakened! We must see all over the place, and how familiar the rooms. In this one the youngest member of the family first saw the light—dear little baby! in the next, our aged grand-mother's spirit passed from earth to Heaven; another was our childhood sleepingplace, literally the room of dreams for life loomed so wonderful and alluring, there was so much to learn and -without the suspicion of a cloud or rock in the way; yonder was the guest-room-wonder where are

COUNTY TOWNS WANT SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Delegations Before the County Commissioners This Week.

A delegation of approximately 200 citizens of Westminster appeared be-fore the County Commissioners, Monday, and strongly urged the need of a new High School building for the city, picturing the inadequate condi-tions now existing.

George K. Mather was the leader of the delegation. Addresses were made by C. E. Seitz, principal of the high school; Mayor George E. Mat-thews, H. Peyton Gorsuch, Mrs. Mar-tha Shaw, Francis Reese and Carl

The Westminster school has about 1000 students, while the present building accommodates only 500, the rest being housed in portables and tem-porary quarters. The Commissioners did not commit themselves, possibly due to the problem of financing such a building this year. A bond issue was mentioned, but this is said not to be considered favorably by the members of the legislature from the county, perhaps because of several defeats of bond issue plans by the voters of the county.

The following committee was appointed by Mr. Mather to represent the petitioners in further activities; Denton Gehr, H. P. Gorsuch, George E. Benson, Dr. C. L. Billingslea and Mrs. Martha Shaw, with Mayor Mat-thews and Mr. Mather as ex-officio

A delegation of about 100 persons from New Windsor appeared before the County Commissioners, on Tues-day, and strongly presented the

The spokesmen were Mrs. John Baile, Dr. James Marsh, Truman Lambert and Thomas Slingluff, the latter being a member of the School Board. The Commissioners were unable to make any definite promises, because of lack of funds.

Not, merely The Record, but any other county weekly having a home community circulation, must be a poor sheet indeed, not to earn, and merit, the most generous possible local, or county support; for there is no other one agency so loyal to home interests, nor so unselfish in giving it—often absolutely free of cost, yet at expense

There is not—there can not beany other agency so amply able, or so willing, to "stand by" these needs and activities. Outside papers entering local fields, do so largely for profit to themselves alone. They do not contribute the standard of the standa tribute taxes, support to the churches, or aid to local charities.

They do not support Fire Companies, nor contribute to road building, nor aid in any way in boosting the many efforts that stand for building up, and making more desirable, town and rural home life.

Entirely aside from the individual interest The Record may properly express in its own behalf, we most conscientiously feel that we state the full truth when we say that economizing at the expense of the home newspaper, is about the poorest form of economy imaginable, for the single reason that it is a blow aimed at the

AN INCOME TAX BILL Frederick Farmers Want Lower Tax-

Notwithstanding the advice of Senator Coblentz, of Frederick, to the contrary, a public meeting, mainly of farmers, voted last Saturday, to forward to the legislature an income tax bill, the purpose of which is to reduce taxes on real estate. The measure is indorsed by the County Grange and Farm Bureau.

In Baltimore it is estimated that $100,000 a day for eight weeks will be paid out. The total of applications was 16,150 to Wednesday night.

No total has as yet been published for the whole country. Among other difficulties encountered is that many of the compensation certificates have been lost, which will require the services and cost of bonding companies before a duplicate will be issued; or send finger prints to Washington for identification.

Most of the applicants were persons apparently in need and had to have money to meet current bills. In case of the death of a veteran, and the loss of a certificate, it is said to be almost impossible for a widow or others heirs to collect the compensa-

A very large number of veterans who applied for loans have never taken out the adjustment compensation certificates, and must first apply for them. It is also stated that a certificate must be two years old before it can be borrowed on.

The percentage is not known yet, but it is believed that a very large number of those not in need—real or fancied—will hold on to their certificates as a good investment, rather than pay 4½ percent interest on the amount borrowed, especially as 4 percent is the most that can be received on bank certificates of deposit.

Prizes for Contribution to Uplift of Mankind

The Nobel foundation (Nobelstiftelsen) was established in pursuance of the provisions of the will of Alfred Nobel, who was born in Stockholm in 1833 and died at San Remo in 1896. By this will, dated November 27, 1895, Alfred Nobel bequeathed the whole of his fortune (more than 30,000,000 kroner) to a fund the interest of which shall be annually paid out to those who during the immediately preceding years "have conferred the greatest benefit on mankind." The interest is divided into five equal parts, to be allotted as follows: "One part to the person who shall have made the most important discovery or invention in the domain of physics, one part to the person who shall have made the most important chemcal discovery or improvement, one part to the person who shall have made the most important discovery in the domain of physiology or medicine, one part to the person who shall have produced in the field of literature the most distinguished work of an idealistic tendency and one part to the person who shall have done most to promote the fraternity of nations, the abolition or diminution of standing armies and the formation and propagation of peace congresses."

Caverns Under Lookout Mountain Cut by Water Investigations by engineers indicate that Lookout mountain is a sort of peanut-shell shaped mound covering a system of caverns extending from one end to the other, with runs branching off to both east and west brows every few miles. There are at least one, and perhaps two, large rivers and many smaller streams running under the mountain at a level of about 1,500 feet below the surface. These streams run up and down the mountain and across it. The water in these streams is as clear as a crystal and has no life in it. The streams run both north and south and some of them run north a distance, swerve around some weird formation and flow back southward. The openings under the mountain have been cut by these streams and are corresponding in number and direction.

Monument on Grave in Honor of Mine Burro

Fairplay, Colo.-"Prunes," a burro that hauled ore in Colorado mines for 62 years, has a monument built over his grave on Main street here.

The aged burro, whose patient footsteps plodded through the history of Colorado, was shot recently when he lost all of his teeth, and became too feeble to eat.

He was buried with ceremony, and popular subscription erected a monument over the grave.

Modern methods have all but eliminated the burro from the mines of the states where once they were employed by the thousands.

Unicorn Problem Solved? Chinese scientists believe they have solved the problem of the unicorn. The fabulous animal actually existed, in the opinion of Oriental archeologists.

Dr. Li Chi, Harvard graduate, is the man principally responsible for this opinion. In ancient ruins he found a carving that strangely resembled the one-horned bull, an Asiatic press correspondent reports.

The characters were found to mean that the animal represented by the carving had been captured by hunters. The carving was apparently more than three thousand years old.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

(For the Record.)

A birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baumgardner, near Tom's Creek, Saturday evening, in honor of Mrs. Baumgardner's 28th. birthday. Games were played and refreshments served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baumgardner, Mr. and Mrs. retired to bed apparently in his usual good health.

Funeral services were held on Thursday, at the Lutheran Church, Westminster, in charge of Rev. Paul W. Quay, pastor. Interment was in Meadow Branch cemetery.

MR. AARON HOFFMAN.

Mr. Aaron Hoffman died at the home of his son, Claude, in Manchester, Md., Tuesday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 P.

Aged Man Wants His Pet

Canine Buried With Him Detroit.-Robert O. Oesterreich, who is eighty and who doesn't expect to live much longer, fears his pet and only companion, Jeanie, an aged Pommeranian, will not be cared for after his death, so he has asked the Humane society to kill the dog mercifully and bury it with him. If Oesterreich could make provision for the dog's welfare after his death it might be different, but he now receives $3 a week from the welfare board for his own sustenance. He has nothing more.

Beautiful Normandy The beauty of Japan in the cherry blossom season cannot surely surpass the Normandy landscape in the springtime white with apple blossoms. The Grand Val d'Etretat and the surrounding country seem as though covered with snow at this time of the year; and no better view of it can be gotten than from the golf links on the cliffs, close to the famous Porto d'Aval. Etretat is so easily reached nowadays it is becoming almost an "all-the-year-round" resort. In this respect it has greatly changed since Alphonse Karr discovered and Offenbach, Le Poittevin, Isabey and Maupassant adopted it. In their days it vas a formidable undertaking to reach

Inky Bath of Mud

The Czechs have at Pistuny a famous mud bath which is worth seeing, even if you do not take it. It is a pitch black mineral mud deposited in the water courses of the springs in great quantities. A thick layer is spread on a sheet, on which the patient lies, while the mud is hot. Attendants plaster it over the body till the patient looks like an armored knight-the black prince, if you like. Then, after being swathed in it for about ten minutes, the perspiration being wiped from the face at intervals, the patient is immersed in the mud bath, the mud at the bottom and the hot water being impregnated with orate affairs, and were fashioned with an indented head on which to rest the hand, writes a columnist in the Manchester (Eng.) Guardian. Later they were made with a round and hollow top to hold nutmeg or ginger to warm the stomach of the valetudinarian, and sometimes sugar-candy for the asthmatic. When snuff came into general use the cavity was used as a snuff box, and the meeting of two cronies was followed, after the first greetings, by the unscrewing of the tops of their walking-sticks for a pinch, as a later generation tapped the lid of its snuff

Yorkers recently uncovered fossilized bones of a prehistoric animal much larger than the largest elephant while digging in the said pits of Dulobel, in the Pas-de-Calais department. The tusks measured seven feet each. The molar teeth were larger than paving blocks. The workmen, afraid of spoiling the find, informed the professors of the College of Science of Lille, who are now directing the work. Up to the present time the scientists only have been able to uncover the head and tusks, as the work must progress slowly for fear of breaking the bones into small pieces. The first mammoth was found near here in 1907.

Extensive Air Travel

Seen in War Maneuvers

London.-Some idea of how much territory a fleet of airplanes engaged in war will travel was recently given her when the red colony and the blue eolony of the British royal air force engaged in a sham battle. Two hundred and fifty planes took part and flew more than 300,000 miles. More than 2,980 men and officers took part in the imaginary combat.

Finds Auto Horns Are

Many Times Too Loud Montreal.-Life is too loud these days, and this unnecessary clamor is not conducive to good health or good hearing, Prof. H. E. Reilley of the physics department of McGill university told the Kiwanis club recently.

Enemies of noise have collected some interesting data in a recent survey and have come to the following conclusions, he said:

1. That a policeman blows his whistle 10,000,000 times louder than neces-

2. That the blast of a steamboat siren is 100,000,000 times louder than necessary. 3. That an automobile horn is sounded 50,000,000 times louder than is necessary, and on a clear day can be heard ten miles away

4. That dogs bark too loudly. 5. That boys shout too loudly.

6. That the milkman, the grocoryman, the baker, and the butcher's boy all ring the door all too long.

LIGHTS | By WALTER TRUMBULL of NEW YORK

An admirer gave Dr. Frederick W. Hodge of the Museum of the American Indian a bottle of Chinese rose wine. In a scientific spirit of investigation, Doctor Hodge poured a little of it in a glass and drank it. After he had dashed a pail of water down his throat, and the fire was under control, he looked at the label to see if he had happened to take sulphuric acid by mistake. Beside the label was pasted a set of directions in English. The directions read:

"To drink, put one spoonful in glass of water," below that was another paragraph beginning:

"For external use-"

I recently had the pleasure of talking with Vernon d'Arnalle and learned about singers from him. I never knew before, for example, that Jenny Lind is said to have had a voice that was none too good in the middle register, but which had higher notes that were as sweet and clear as bells; that Mario had a beautiful, but rather small tenor voice; that Adelina Patti still retained at the age of seventy some of the wonderful notes that made her famous and that at fifteen was the greatest singer in the world; and all sorts of things concerning modern singers. It always is interesting to talk with some one who knows his subject and it was all the more interesting to talk to Mr. d'Arnalle, because he was singing in opera in Italy in the days when I was loafing over

A young woman, born and bred in New York, visited some friends who have a farm. Her chief delight was finding the nests of hens which wandered from the boxes provided for them and laid eggs in outlying places. She tracked a couple to the barn and was triumphant concerning her sleuthing. One day her host declared that he had heard a hen cackling out in the woods and said he believed it had a nest there. This was enough for the city girl. She demanded the direction and all available information. Industriously searching the woods in question, she came upon a nest in which were piled four dozen eggs. This was by far the biggest find of the season, and she took somewhat more credit than Christopher Columbus, who only made an egg stand on end. It was some time before the visitor learned enough concerning hens to realize that they do not pile up their eggs and that the nest was a plant.

The cows also engaged the city girl's attention. They were gentle animals, but she so alarmed one of them, by trying to tie an old sheet around it, in a humane effort to shield it from the flies, that it almost had to be lassoed at milking time.

* * * As every one knows, Eddie Rickenbacker was, before the war, in the automobile racing game. He went to France as the driver of General Pershing's car. John N. Wheeler asked him how he happened to take the job.

"I went in as General Pershing's ver." replied Rickenbacker. cause I wanted to be transferred to the air service and thought this was the quickest means to accomplish it. but, when I asked for the transfer, the general didn't seem to favor the

"How did you finally get the transfer?" asked Wheeler.

"Well," said Rickenbacker, "I gave General Pershing a couple of rides that convinced him that where I belonged was in an airplane."

This is a dog story, which my informant swears is true. A couple living in Merion, Pa., bought a dog, but couldn't keep it at home. The animal would disappear regularly every morning and just as surely return sometime after noon. The couple got fired of this and finally sent the dog to board at some kennels, where they thought it might be broken of the habit or running away. One day a conductor and a brakeman came to the

"Did that dog of yours get killed?" they inquired. The family explained what had happened.

"Well," said the trainmen, "that dog used to come to the station every morning and sneak aboard the 9:30 for Philadelphia. Finally, it got so we knew him, let him ride and petted him. When we got to the city, the dog always would disappear for an hour, but never failed to show up in time to catch us when we came back at 11:30. We missed him, wondered what had happened to him, and found he belonged to you. So we just came to ask if the dog had been run over or anything.'

New Idea in Baby Culture

Omaha.-The latest wrinkle in baby culture, according to Mrs. Ted Savicky, is for the mother to eat a handful of walnuts each day for several weeks before the baby is born. This is to insure the baby good teeth. Ronald Lee, sixteen-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Savicky, bears out her theory. He cut his upper right molar ten days after birth.

Wareham, Mass.-Wareham, one of the biggest scallop producing points along the New England coast, helped solve the local unemployment problem during recent months by granting a bounty of $1 a bushel on star fish, which prey on scallops.

Worth-While Inventions

Fruit of Woman's Brain

There are a great many more patents granted to men than to women. For instance, during the first 98 years of the patent system, from 1790 to 1888, only 2,455 patents were granted to women; altogether 15,000 patents have been granted to women. The fifteen-thousandth one was granted to Rose Shulman of Brooklyn for an ice bag. The first successful application under the patent law by a woman was recorded in 1809, when Mary Kies took out a patent for a method of weaving straw with silk or thread. In 1789 Miss Betsy Metcalf hit upon an invention for plaiting and braiding meadow grass into bonnets. Miss Lucy Johnson in 1824 wove seamless pollowcases. Hannah Montague invented the detachable shirt collar. The modern paper bag is the invention of Miss M. E. Knight. Mrs. Martha J. Coston invented the flare light used for signaling by our Coast guard and mariners al over the world. The first ice cream freezer was invented by Nancy M. Johnson.

Scheme Never Worked Out When you are taking that ocean trip and your stomach is defying the law of gravitation, ponder over Sir Henry Bessemer's plan to put an end to seasickness. Seventy years ago he proposed a vessel equipped with a salon suspended from an axle fixed in the ship's center. He planned to affix counterweights to the bottom of the salon, so that the floor of the salon would always remain quiet and horizontal, despite the tumbling about of the vessel itself, says the Iron Age.

Why he never gave the idea a fair trial is not reported. Perhaps he bought stock in shipping lines and figured that the expense caused by the increase in food consumption per passenger, owing to elimination of seasickness, would cut heavily into profits.

Royal St. Cloud

To the little town of St. Cloud, as it is called today, there once came all the grandeur of royalty. With the destruction of its celebrated chateau. built by Louis XIV in 1660, it lost a favorite royal residence. Here the Regent d'Orleans received Peter the Great in 1717. In 1785 it was sold for 6,000,000 francs to Queen Marie Antoinette, and here she resided during the early days of the revolution. Here the coup d'etat occurred which made Napoleon first consul and here Napoleon III was baptized in 1805 in the presence of Napoleon and Josephine. Here Bonaparte married Marie Louise, and here on October 13, 1870, it went up in flames in connection with the siege of Paris.

Rhode Island First to

Curb Reckless Driver

The first speed law, or very nearly the first, in America was passed by the Colonial assembly of Rhode Isand in 1678 after a child had been run down by an equestrian:

"Whereas there was very lately in the town of Newport on Rhode Island very great hurte done to a small childe by reason of exceeding fast and hard riding of horses in said town, this assembly takeing the matter into their serious consideration and being desirous for the future to prevent the like mischief, doe ordain, et cetera-that from and after the publication hereof, if any person or persons shall presume to ride on either horse, mare or gelding, a gallup or to run speed-in the streets of Newportsaid person shall for his offense pay into the treasurer of said towne 5 shillings in money on demand; 2 shillings of which shall be paid to any person or persons that shall give information thereof and the other 3 shillings to remain for the use of said towne."-Detroit News.

Speed Made No Appeal

to Hidebound Royalty Members of the royal family were at first reluctant to travel by rail, writes a columnist in the Manchester Guardian. Queen Victoria did not make her first journey until June, 1842, when she traveled from London to Windsor in the "Royal Mail Road Carriage" constructed two years previously in a spirit of loyal anticipa-

The queen disliked high railway speeds, and on her journeys to Balmoral never exceeded 20 miles an hour. According to tradition, the prince consort was on one occasion know to request "Not quite so fast next time, Mr. Conductor, please."

In France it was even harder to induce royalty to travel by the newfangled method of conveyance. When Louis Philippe proposed to travel to Rouen by a special train in 1843 his ministers were struck with consternation and held a special cabinet meeting. They came to the conclusion that the railway was not safe enough for the transport of the royal person, and the king had recourse to post horses.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE TERMS on day of sale. F. EARL SHRINER,

"What $316

a month means to us . . . in pleasant living"

Friends sometimes ask me how I manage to keep our home in "apple pie" order and still have time for reading and entertaining and most of all for the family. I have just one answer, "It's the help of electricity."

The washing machine and electric iron speed up the laundry work. It's easy to go over all the rugs with the vacuum cleaner. And I often get breakfast right at the table with electric appliances.

Best yet, electricity gives us plenty of good light to make home as delightful in the evening as it is on sunny days . . . all for only $3.16 in an average month.—Mrs. E. G. M. (an actual Potomac Edison customer).

Electric Cooking, Too!

What Mrs. E. G. M. may not know is that a Potomac Edison customer may enjoy all the advantages of electric cooking at a very little additional cost, only from $3.00 to $4.00 per month for the typical family.

Consult our local office for specific information about what electric cooking would cost you. And remember - electric cooking is economical. Partly because of the increased efficiency of electric ranges. More especially because it has been your service company's policy to decrease the average cost of current with increased consumption, and to study constantly how to reduce rates.

DUELING IS CHIEF SPORT IN GERMAN UNIVERSITIES

Little Worry About Professionalism and Over-Emphasis There, Says Observer.

New York .- Football rough-housing like that which strained relations between Harvard and Princeton does not worry the German undergraduate of today, nor is there talk of overemphasis and professionalism like that which followed the recent football season here. The chief German university sport is dueling. It is a strictly amateur affair, but for damage done it far surpasses the accidental kicks and bruises of football.

So reports a Yale senior, Gibbs W. Sherrill, who spent his last summer vacation at Heidelberg university. Intercollegiate duels are unknown, he writes in the Review of Reviews, the matches taking place between individual members of the "Korporationen," which correspond roughly to the American Greek-letter fraternity.

"The antagonists stand still in their tracks, squarely facing each other, only a blade's length apart," writes Sherrill. "The target is the opponent's head and face-never his body. The judge looks sternly around the company and immediate silence ensues-a silence which lasts without a break throughout the entire duel.

"The voice of the challenger's second snaps out: 'Auslage-fertig-los.' A click of the blades meet and the duel is on. Four times the blades flash and then each second swings up an armored arm to cover his man. The judge inspects the duelists for any cuts, which must be tallied to determine later if the encounter has been won with honors. "Again the sharp command drops the seconds to their knees, out of the way of the swirling blades. But before the required four passes are completed the seconds interrupt the fighting, for a strangely swift stream of blood is pouring down a blanched cheek. It is the boy's first duel, and he has not yet learned to regard this blood flow as unimportant."

Duels usually last 40 rounds, Sherrill declares, though affairs of honor go to 60 or even 100 rounds

73,780 Acres Are Added to U. S. Bird Refuges

Washington.-Tracts of land aggregating 73,780 acres have just been added to the nation's reservations where migratory game birds may rest and feed free from the menace of sportsmen's guns.

Purchase of the land by the biological survey of the Department of Agriculture was authorized by the migratory bird conservation commission set up under an act passed by congress last year. The new acquisitions brought the total to date since the commission began to function, July 1, 1929, to 158,167 acres, which will be administered by the biological survey as inviolate sanctuaries for the conservation of migratory birds.

The new refuges are in Florida, California, North Carolina and Nebraska. 12 miles along Apalachee bay, in Wakulla, Jefferson and Taylor counties. It contains 13,981 acres.

The purchases in California . add 8,982 acres to the Salton Sea Wild Life Refuge set aside by executive order of President Hoover November 25,

The North Carolina purchase embraces 11,778 acres in Hyde county, on Pamlico sound and will be used with intermingled areas of water to establish an administrative unit of about 20,000 acres, to be known as the Swanquarter Migratory Bird Refuge.

First Flying Wedge on Football Field, in 1869

As far as history goes, the first intercollegiate football game of all time was played November 6, 1869, at Brunswick, N. J., between Rutgers of that city and Princeton, from 25 miles

The New York World published the story of the game, as told by John W. Herbert—Rutgers, '72—a participant. The teams numbered 25 play-

Rutgers, it appeared, was having a tough year. Princeton had won at baseball and had succeeded in obtaining the Revolutionary war cannon, which had been stolen back and forth, by burying it several inches deep in concrete. Football was becoming common as an intramural sport, and Rutgers challenged its rival to three games. The first was played at Brunswick.

"Receiving the ball," Mr. Herbert writes, "our men formed a perfect interference around it and with short, skillful kicks and dribbles drove it down the field. Taken by surprise, the Princeton men fought valiantly, but in five minutes we had gotten the ball through to our captain's of the enemy's goal, and S. G. Gano, '71 and G. R. Dixon, '73, neatly kicked it over. None thought of it, so far as I know, but we had without previous plan or thought evolved the play that became famous a few years later as 'the flying wedge.'

Rutgers won, 6 to 4. Princeton won the second game, 8 to 0, on its home grounds. The faculty called off the third game because feeling was running so high between the student bodies .- Detroit News.

Retort Something of a

Reflection on Bishop A geographer, at a geographers' banquet in Boston, told a story about Sir Richard Burton, the famous explorer, linguist, translator and what-not.

"Burton," he began, "made the acquaintance of a bishop on a voyage home from India, and the two men got on well together, notwithstanding the difference in their beliefs.

"The bishop, as they sat on deck one morning, pointed up towards half a dozen tame monkeys that were climbing in the rigging and said:

"'There, Captain Burton'-Burton was only a captain then-there are the folk you are descended from.' "Burton looked at the monkeys, then he looked at the bishop.

"'Well, bishop,' he said, 'I at least have made some progress, but you, who are descended from the angels how about you?" -- Detroit Free Press.

THIS IS CALLED MEANEST PRACTICAL JOKE IN WORLD

It is the Stock in Trade of Snake Charmers in Morocco and Never Fails.

New York .- The story of the meanest practical joke in the world has been brought back from Fez, Morrocco, by T. Howard Kelly, globe-trotting reporter.

It's an Arab snake joke, Kelly says in the American Druggist, and it always works, although all Morocco knows about it. He observed it in operation in Fez, and it went like this:

A snake charmer, after assembling a street crowd, asked if any man wanted to be made stronger and wiser than his fellows. Several Arabs stepped forward. The charmer spoke with them earnestly, and finally led one of them toward his bag of snakes, while the crowd yelled approval. The applicant for strength and wisdom was supposed to touch a certain magic snake, but he was afraid. The charmer delivered an impassioned appeal, asked for-and received-forty cents, and then clapped his hands. A tremendous reptile wriggled out of the bag-and the frightened Arab backed away, to the jeers of the crowd.

The charmer picked up his bag of snakes, tied it across the top and flung it in the midst of the spectators, who scattered screaming, but soon they were back again to watch the snake man as he made passes over the snake on the ground, chanting weirdly. He again commanded the Arab to come forward and touch the magic reptile, but the Arab still was afraid, so, to show the snake was harmless, the charmer allowed it to coil affectionately about his arms and shoulders. At his signal, a flute player struck up a wild tune, and the snake man chanted and danced about the Arab, who appeared hypnotized.

Suddenly the charmer's confederate darted out of the crowd and wrapped a giant serpent round the neck of the candidate for strength and wisdom.

"The terrorized devil let out a screech that all but swept the Basque beret right off my head," says Kelly. "It was the most blood-curdling scream I ever heard. The screeching Arab stood there paralyzed by fear until the confederate coiled three more reptiles around him. This set him off like a fire-cracker. Breaking into action at last, he ran frenziedly in a circle, yelling to Allah and Mohammed to rescue him. The crowd roared with barbaric

The onlookers never fail to reward the showmen for the agonizing spectacle by tossing him a few coins.

England Busy Speeding Up Its Fighting Planes

London.-Greater speed is the order being passed along the lines of the royal air force these days.

An order to increase the speed of day bombers, fighters, and, probably, army co-operation eraft, has been approved by the air ministry. During the next 15 months the work of speeding up the R. A. F. will take place.

Early types will probably be replaced by the latest models and a number of new fighters and reconnaissance aircraft will be added.

All contracts have not been concluded, but it is known that more than 200 Hawker planes will be built. The type is a day bomber already in the flying equipment of one squadron.

The plane is powered with the Rolls-Royce "F" type liquid cooled engine of 550 horse power. It is a fully equipped two seater and attains a speed of no less than 180 miles an hour at a height of 10,000 feet.

The "Fury" and the "Norn" are the fighters selected by the air ministry for re-equipment. The "Fury," chosen for the intercepter fighter squadrons, carrying a full load, is able to fly at considerably more than 200 miles an hour and climbs to a normal operational height of 20,000 feet in about ten minutes. The sea version of this craft, some five miles an hour less speedy but modified for deck landing and possible catapult launching, is styled the "Norn."

Airplane Will Replace

Broncs on This Ranch

Duff, Neb .- A trim sport model airplane will soon replace the traditional cow-pony for riding drift fences and "spotting" cattle on the W. J. Shanks ranch near here.

Shanks, who operate extensive ranch interests in this section of Nebraska, has purchased a plane and is now learning to fly it. As soon as he has completed the flying time required for a private license, he intends to use the plane for inspecting fences, hunting stray cattle and for general supervision of his ranch.

Lesson for March 8

THE GOOD SAMARITAN

GOLDEN TEXT-Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: I am the Lord.

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:25-37.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus' Story of a Beel Friend

Real Friend.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Story of a

Real Friend.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Serving and Sharing.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Stewardship of Life.

I. How to Inherit Eternal Life (vv. 25-38).

1. The lawyer's question (v. 25). The term "lawyer" here means one versed in religious law—the Scriptures, not lawyer in our modern sense of that term. It would more nearly correspond to our theological professor. The lawyer's object was to trip Jesus, to induce him to take such a stand as would weaken his influence as a teacher. He expected Jesus to set forth some new ceremonies which would conflict with or disparage the law of Moses.

2. Jesus' question (v. 26). Though Jesus knew the motive of the lawyer, he did not evade his question. He sent him to the law, the field which was familiar to him. He thus robbed him of his own weapon.

3. The lawyer's reply (v. 27). He made an intelligent answer, declaring that the entire content of the law was embraced in love to God and man. This expresses the whole of human duty

4. Jesus' reply (v. 28). The straightforward answer went to the heart of the lawyer. Perfect love to God and man is truly the way of life. No man has yet had nor can have such love. His sinful condition precludes its possibility. Man's failure to measure up to this requirement is his condemnation. The lawyer keenly felt this thrust. He was defeated on his own grounds and convicted of guilt.

II. Who Is My Neighbor (vv. 29-37). 1. The lawyer's question (v. 29). This question reveals the insincerity of the lawyer. Christ's answer had reached his conscience, and now he seeks to escape the difficulty by asking a captious question. Lawyer-like he sought to get off by raising a question as to the meaning of words.

2. Jesus' answer (vv. 30-37). Jesus' reply more than answered the lawyer's question. In the Parable of the Good Samaritan he makes clear who is a neighbor, and also what it means to be a neighbor and what loving a neighbor means. Christ's answer had a double meaning. He not only made clear who is my neighbor, but made it clear that the lawyer was not playing the neighbor. a. Who is my neighbor? This destitute and wounded man, left on the wayside by the robbers, is a man who needs a neighbor. My neighbor, therefore, is the one who needs my help, whether he lives next door or on the other side of the world. It does not regard locality, nationality, or blood relation.

b. What being a neighbor means. Our supreme concern should not be "Who is my neighbor?" but "Whose neighbor am I?" To be a neighbor is:

(1) To be on the look-out for those in need of our belp (v. 33). It is keen to discern the needs of those with whom it is brought into contact. (2) To have compassion on the needy (v. 33). Christ's compassion was aroused as he came into contact with those who were suffering and in need. (3) To give to those in need (v. 34). Love does not calculate the cost of its actions. Whenever there is calculation of cost, there is the expression of selfishness. Many are willing to give money to help the poor and needy but are unwilling personally to minister to them. The true neighbor gives himself as well as his money.

(4) To bind up wounds (v. 34). If we have eyes to discern, we shall see many wounds about us that need attention. (5) To set the helpless ones on our beasts while we walk (v. 34). This is the proof of the genuineness of our love. Those who are like Christ will deny themselves in order to have something to give to those who are in need. (6) To bring to the inn and take care of the unfortunate (v. 34). Genuine love does not leave its service incomplete. True love follows up the needy. (7) To give money (v. 35). It costs a good deal to be a neighbor. Love is the most expensive thing in the world. It cost God his only Son. It cost Jesus Christ his life.

This parable has been through the centuries the classic illustration of true Christian neighborliness.

Born of God

"He that loveth is born of God," therefore let us "keep our friendships in repair." Let us cultivate the spirit of friendship, and let the love of Christ develop it into a great love not only for our friends but for all humanity! -Henry Drummond.

God's Errands

Difficulties are God's errands; and when we are sent upon them we should esteem it a proof of God's confidence.-Henry Ward Beecher.

Beneficent Father Nile

When flood conditions are favorable, the retreating waters leave the whole valley of the Nile covered thickly with black rich mud. No plow is necessary, as a rule. Seed wheat is thrown on to the soft mud, trodden or raked in, and the warm tropical sun does the rest for the farmer. The grain grows and matures rapidly, clear from weeds, and easily harvested.

Thus Egypt is free from the menace of dry seasons—the curse of the East -and is, excepting in very rare circumstances, certain to have good crops. "Corn in Egypt," came to have a proverbial meaning through a wide section of semi-tropical country, when there was shortage of wheat elsewhere.

Dead City of Hoorn

Hoorn is one of the so-called "dead cities" of the Zuyder zee. All who visit the quaint old place should recall that in 1616, Willem Schouten, one of the greatest of old Dutch navigators, was the first to double Cape Horn, which is named after his native town. Hoorn is a quiet, out-of-the-way place and suggests little today of the enterprising and flourishing port it was in the days of Dutch sea power. The fine old Stadhuis, its guest houses, churches, orphanages all seem apparitions from the Seventeeth century.

Coloring Gold

The simplest way to produce the various colors of gold is to alloy it with other metals, copper giving a reddish tinge, silver a white tinge, while an alloy of gold, silver and copper may have a greenish tone. An alloy of three parts of gold to one part silver is green, while three parts gold to one part copper is red. In the same way, special alloying gives the popular white gold. The wearing quality depends on other factors besides the amount of gold in the alloy, as ex-

W HEN plans of any kind are afoot nowadays, the first thing people turn to is the ever-ready, ever-faithful telephone. It's the natural thing

Telephone service has become a vital necessity in the management of our daily affairs. Why? Because this is the day of speed-of rapid transportation, and above all of quick communication. Things must be done at once and by means of the telephone we can get them done at once. It serves a thousand and one useful purposes requiring quick action.

One of the most important reasons for the wide-spread use of telephone service is the extreme reasonableness of the charges. There's a class of service to fit every need and a price to fit every pocketbook.

NEAR THE DAWN.

When life's troubles gather darkly 'Round the way we follow here, When no hope the sad heart lightens, No voice speaks a word of cheer; Then the thought the shadow scatters, Giving us a cheering ray—
When the night appears the darkest,
Morning is no far away.

When adversity surrounds us, And our sunshine friends pass by, And the dreams so fondly cherished With our scattered treasures lie; Then amid such gloomy seasons This sweet thought can yet be drawn: When the darkest hour is present, It is always near the dawn.

Pain cannot affect us always, Brighter days will soon be here, Sorrow may oppress us often,

Yet a happier time is near; All along our earthly journey This reflection lights the way: Nature's darkest hour is always Just before the break of day.

THE SUPERHETERODYNE CIRCUI

The new 1931 Sets are all coming in with the Superheterodyne Circuit. This is the Circuit the Radio Corporation of America has refused to license for use by other manufacturers, until recently.

To be able to separate stations has been the longed-for boon in Radio. Superheterodyne has brought it. By merely turning the dial a hair's breadth you can bring in your station and tune out other near-by stations completely.

Add to this, Multi-Mu Tubes cutting out hiss and line noises; Automatic Volume Control eliminating fading, and Tone Control, which allows you to hear your program at the tone pitch you prefer, and you have a good idea of the new 1931 Sets. Radio at its best. Hear them at our store.

We gladly demonstrate--without obligation-in your own home. Time payments if you wish them.

> Prices on Sets completely installed $39.50 to $150.00.

Accident at Sea Brings Reunion of 2 Brothers

Boston.-An accident at sea recently led to the first reunion in several years between Skipper Ralph Ogilvie and his brother, Hilton.

The brothers are skippers of the schooners Marjorie Austin and Peaceland, respectively, and for years they kad been plying the same course between Parrsboro, N. S., and Boston, without ever meeting.

The Marjorie Austin recently damaged her bowsprit and jib boom and then ran into fog and storm. This upset her schedule sufficiently to result in the brotherly reunion that enabled Ralph and Hilton to have dinner together in Boston.
