For National Fire Protection

This week has been set aside by the National Board of Fire Underwriters for an "entire Nation observance of Fire Prevention Week".

The subject is covered in a lengthy article from National Board Headquarters, a portion of which is here annexed.

Fire is called an immediate national enemy by Robert P. Barbour, President of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, writing in "Safe guarding America against Fire." He points out, "all fires are important to the community and to the nation for they take away that much of their assets and destroy that much of their resources and taxable wealth. Today, even more than in normal times, fire is an enemy and therefore fire defense is vital to National Defense."

"Fire Defense is vital to your community because one act of carelessness may start a fire that can do as much damage as a blaze ignited by the saboteur's torch. The combination of a high wind and a small blaze have many times resulted in a sweeping fire or dreaded conflagration that destroyed as much property as a fleet of enemy bombers dropping thousands of incendiary missiles on a city."

Whether in town or open country fire prevention is of the utmost importance, especially in consideration of the shortage in water everywhere (Also read article on Editorial page on the same subject—Ed).

The program was in charge of the Interclub and Attendance Committee.

The meeting next week will be in charge of the Underprivileged Child Committee, Dr. T. H. Legg, Chairman, and will be observed as "Stunt Night".

THE "YANKEES" WIN

As was pretty generally expected, the "Yankees" American League defeated the Brooklyn "Dodgers" for the world's championship, demonstrating again that as a whole "American" League teams are stronger than the "Nationals".

Whether the Yanks could have defeated either the Cleveland, Boston, Detroit, or even the Washington team, that finished sixth in its class is an entirely different matter.

One of the big differences between the announcing of this series and American League games, this time.

"Gillette razor blades" were boosted, while in American League games automobiles and "wheaties".

P T A MEETING

The fall meeting of the Carroll County Council of the Parent-Teachers' Association will be held in the auditorium of the Westminster High School, on October 17th. The meeting will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and large representations from all the P. T. A.'s of the county are expected.

The program will include the business session during which time announcement will be made as to the association winning the activity award for the school year 1940-41. An interesting feature of the meeting will be an illustrated lecture by the use of slides and movies on "The A B C's of the Heavens" by Mr. Paul Watson, curator of the Maryland Academy of Science. Mr. Watson will have with him a telescope and if the evening is clear, opportunity will be given parents and teachers to observe the heavens. Many of the schools are using visual aids and Mr. Watson's lecture will enable the parents to see the value of this type of instruction in the class room.

Feed for Stock is Very Scarce

Farmers are greatly concerned over the outlook that feed for stock will be very scarce this winter, due to the long continued drought.

Even should rains come in the near future, the situation would be bettered but hardly relieved entirely. Surely, as the month of October advances cooler weather may help. Early snow would be a veritable gift of God, not impossible.

A Great Bankers Convention

When the time came and the gavel struck, the 67th. A. B. A., closed, as one of the most memorable bank meetings ever held, in the history of American banking 3,348 delegates, registered from all states in the Union, and some from Canada; made travel heavy for a time, in dispersing again to their homes.

The retiring President Mr. Houston, along with such convention speakers, as Mr. Morganthau, Jr., Sec'y of U. S. Treasury, and two members from the Federal Reserve Board, had conclusively fixed in the minds of all who attended this bank convention, that the stress of the money crisis of this country had just begun. No matter which way the present war goes. If not to help win the war, then to help construct the world.

The incoming president from Oklahoma, was inaugurated with an impressive ceremony, held on Thursday night, at 8:45 in the Orchestra Hall, of Chicago. All past and present officials and dignitaries, who still live, and associated with A. B. A., were in dress uniform on the stage.

About fifty members of the Swedish Glee Club, with their special director and attendants, along with a most prominent soloist, rendered much enured music.

After tokens, in remembrance of service rendered, were given; and greetings and responses were over, the throng wended their way to the very courteous hotels of Chicago, thru a heavy downpour of rain, for another night. The Stevens, where most of the sessions of this convention, were held, had two thousand of the special bank guests to entertain, along with its more than ordinary, large current patronage. It is about the largest and grandest hotel in Chicago. Very many others well patronized and equally courteous, in accommodating their large number of guests also.

It became known at the closing sessions, that Minneapolis had been chosen for the 68th. A. B. A. annual convention, in 1942.

As the trip home 'first day was largely by Manhattan, day light train, will note a few observations along the way.

After leaving this western metropolis; as most folks know the swamp land thru which the railroad runs, discloses little of fertility or beauty. Soon out into the alluvial soil of the prosperous black fertile soil of the marvelous west. Corn heavy, and much cut on shocks this year. Husking as of old, right on piles, in the field just begun. Little if any frost as yet, leaves the pastures green; and alive with grazing stock—cattle, horse, hogs, sheep, and mostly white leghorn chickens, abound almost everywhere. Some large dairy farms, and big silos full, for the coming winter.

The famous autumn tinted leaves of the October woods, are beginning to blaze their way, for a fuller enrobement of matchless beauty. Ohio seemed to have earliest touches of frost. Illinois and Indiana, are about on a par with appearance of late fall; and crowned with the season's fruits, ingathered from their boundless stores of great fertility.

The best of any trip, after acquiring additional intelligence by traveling; and seeing and hearing, the heard of and the unheard of, is that one is at last, again safely home.

REV. WM. E. ROOP, Cor.

WASH FRUIT BEFORE USING IT

With roadside stands and markets offering tempting displays of fruits and fresh vegetables, here's a bit of seasonable advice from Dr. R. H. Riley, Director of the State Department of Health: It is:

"Don't forget to wash all fruits and vegetables thoroughly before using them."

"There's always a chance", Dr. Riley explained, "that some of the poisonous spray that is used very generally on growing fruits and vegetables to protect them from damage by insect pests, will remain after they mature and are marketed."

"Much of the spray—which usually contains lead or arsenic—is washed off by the summer rains, but there's always a possibility that some of it will be left. Washing both fruits and vegetables before they are used will help to rid them of any traces that may remain. It's a wise precaution at any rate, because all farm and garden products have a great deal of handling before they are displayed for sale. Careful washing will rid them of dirt and soil acquired in handling, as well as of any left-over poisonous spray."

"This advice applies especially to housewives, cooks, cafeteria managers and any others who handle or serve foods, including those in charge of road-side stands, of school lunch services and those who are responsible for packing children's lunches."

"Through cooperative services maintained by the State Health Department and the Extension Division of the University of Maryland, great care is taken to protect Maryland fruit from damage by the chemicals used in the sprays and to prevent the marketing of fruits which contain a dangerous amount of the left-over spray."

People who get into the habit of thinking twice before they speak once, soon get out of the habit of talking.

Hope is the bridge over the stream of disappointment.

War Situation Still Uncertain

Reports from Germany, Russian, British, Italian and other sources still vary so much as to be practically worthless so far as exact truth is concerned.

Our Congress is still talking of neutrality, and appears to be likely to take quick action, one way or the other, very soon.

The President appears non-committal, and Congress very much in the same situation, with "politics" playing its part, having the next Presidential election in view.

"How can you tell a dogwood tree?" Asked the professor of archeology. "By the bark," said the smallest boy.

NAVY DOES NOT DEMAND HIGH SCHOOL EDUCATION

Legion Head, High School Principal Tell of opportunities for Young Men

Since Secretary Knox announced the enlistment drive for Uncle Sam's new two-ocean Navy several weeks ago, many young men have asked if they were eligible to enlist without a high school education.

Richard Rohrbach, commander of your local American Legion answers this important question for the young men of Taneytown.

"Navy enlistees do not have to be high school graduates," said Commander Rohrbach. "Any ambitious and patriotic young fellow who wants to serve his country has that opportunity now by joining the United States Navy or Naval Reserve. Of course, he must be of average intelligence, good character and be able to pass certain physical and mental examinations. Now, more than ever before, the Navy needs men of that type."

"All applicants, whether or not they have high school diplomas, are given an elementary examination containing about 100 questions," explained Commander Rohrbach. Those receiving a grade of 50 per cent or more satisfy Navy educational standards.

"Naturally, a high school education is helpful in the Navy, just as it is in civilian life," points out George Shower, principal of Taneytown High School.

"There are certain advantages for the high school graduates in the Navy," said Mr. Shower. "He has a wider background to call upon in earning advancement in position and pay. For example, men who are proficient in English may be sent to one of the Navy's communications or clerical schools. Recruits with a knowledge or aptitude for handling tools might be marked for a trade or engineering course. Men with college educations may qualify for midshipmen's training courses in the Naval Reserve and after their schooling period they will report for active duty as officers with the rating of ensigns."

"The Navy has four excellent trade schools to which new recruits in either the regular Navy or the Naval Reserve may be sent after a training period, providing they pass entrance examinations with sufficiently high grades. At these schools they will be trained in any one of nearly fifty skilled trades or vocations to which their aptitudes suit them and will receive free schooling valued at hundreds of dollars in addition to their regular Navy pay. Such an education is valuable for advancement in the Navy and in later civilian life," he concluded.

The music will be accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Denton Wantz.

Jiggs—"Doctor, my wife has insomnia very bad. She lies awake until two or three o'clock in the morning—what shall I do for her?"

Doctor—"Go home earlier!"

Random Thoughts

THE TRUTH ABOUT OUR HARD TIMES.

Very frequently we complain of "hard times" because we refuse to discontinue the use of many unnecessary of life. Among these, are bad habits, and foolish indulgences.

The older people are the more likely to save, than are the young. The "fashions" are not so strong with father and mother, as with son and daughter.

Last year's hat and overcoat are good enough for the former but not for the latter.

Moreover, the boys and girls have largely grown into the factories and are well paid and let "Dad" and "Mom" get along the best they can.

There are so many pleasant ways of spending money that saving-up a good-sized bank balance is not so attractive, by comparison. Indeed, there are many of the older folks now drawing "government" relief because their children have not done their proper duty—and that is the whole truth.

SHORTER ARTICLES—PLEASE

Once more we are making an urgent appeal for shorter articles for our news pages. We purposely removed "Old Taneytown" reminiscences to our inside pages in order to give more space for first page news, but our contributors have been sending in more.

So, once more we say "please" don't do it, or the inevitable must happen—the omission, or curtailment of offerings.

This is not an arbitrary decision on our part, but a necessity.

INFLATION AHEAD.

There is sure to be a lot of money earned by labor in these defense preparation boom times, and there is bound to be a corresponding spending. War materials will be made in increased amounts; scarcity of consumers goods and plethora of money are bound to raise prices.

Government action or no government action prices are going up. The law of supply and demand is superior to any government ukase. But the government can curb profiteers and should be busy right now doing so.

I deal at chain stores and now pay 50% to 100% more than I did a year ago for like products.

How would you like to have to pay 25c for 10 small tomatoes—less than a quarter peck, or 20c for a small head of cabbage weighing only 2 lbs? Well I did that the past week. I wonder what the farmer got for what I bought?

The Congress can check inflation if it will but do these three things:

1—Stop at once all unnecessary defense spending. The New Deal has been boom-doggling now for eight years, due to congressional cowardice. Let's quit it or get a new Congress.

2—Broaden tax base and recapture excess wage, and higher profits. Every person without exception who earns money, no matter how, should be taxed according to his ability to pay. All tax free bonds should be called in at once and paid off and replaced by bonds that pay their way. Too many rich are yet tax free.

3—Push sale of Government bonds especially among those getting higher wages than they need for decent living, so that they may have a nest egg when the next depression strikes us. Teach the people to save now that they may be able to support themselves later. Cleveland was right "The people should support the Government, and not the government the people." W. J. H.

TAXES, TAXES EVERYWHERE

Thanks to the tax bill recently passed by Congress and signed by the President, we soon will be paying for the privilege of driving an automobile, pay more for our movies and other luxuries, for checks, for railroad trips, office supplies, clothing and practically everything else. On most of us has been levied a heavier income tax than we ever before had to dig into our pockets for.

Happily, there has been little or no public resentment as yet against these new taxes. The majority of Americans know that rearmament costs money and they are willing to carry a fair share of the load. A good proportion of the population also is earning higher wages, as the wheels of industry whirl night and day, and it will be easier to meet some of the expense.

Yet we think that the acceptance of the tax law by the public is due more to a rise in national morale than to any gain in private income. Long before the current measure was passed the Treasury was finding little trouble in selling bonds, and Congress found there was even a demand for higher taxes. It is well that the public is prepared, because it will have to pay many more dollars before we have that two-ocean Navy and "blitzkrieg" Army, and have actually made ourselves "the arsenal of democracy"—Ellicott City Times.

FIRE MUST BE LICKED

Fire Prevention Week, October 5 to 11, is of greater significance this year than at any time in the past. In any period, fire prevention marks a definite contribution to the security and prosperity of the nation. Today, fire prevention is essential to the nation's defense.

Such organizations as the National Board of Fire Underwriters are carrying on a great work—without charge to the government—in defending our army camps, naval bases, munitions depots, air fields and other military establishments against fire. They are also redoubling their efforts to prevent fire and build better and more efficient fire defense organizations in our great industrial centers. But, vital as this is, it is not enough. The organized groups cannot do it all. For successful fire prevention must be a national endeavor. It must be carried on in every town, every place of business, and every home.

That is how Fire Prevention Week offers us all an opportunity. It gives us a chance to learn those simple rules which, put into effect, will prevent the bulk of fires. It gives us a chance, therefore, to save life and property. And, finally, it gives us a chance to preserve materials and resources which are needed for defense of this country.

Give fire an inch, and it takes a mile. It is the ever-present enemy of our safety and our security. It must be licked—Industrial News.

WHY SOME PEOPLE STILL BELIEVE IN VAMPIRES

Science steps forward with an explanation of the aged-old belief that the "undead" sleep all day in their graves and steal forth on their satanic mission at night. Don't miss their unusual story in the October 19th. issue of The American Weekly the big magazine distributed with the Baltimore Sunday American. On sale at all newsstands.

HERE HE IS FOLKS! THE GREATEST COAL SLINGER IN THE COUNTRY

HOW JOHN SHOVELMORE BECAME CHAMPION COAL SHOVELER

Believe it or not, John Shovelmore is no professional coal heaver. He's a hard working home-owner who has spent most of his spare time shoveling coal to keep his water supply hot.

It all started innocently enough when John got married and moved into a house. But as his family and hot water needs grew, he soon found himself throwing coal around by the ton and wearing the cellar stairs and his patience mighty thin.

But it's all over now. John recently discovered that he's been throwing away not only coal and energy, but money as well. He found out that Electric Water Heating is clean, carefree, absolutely safe and thanks to the special low rate for water heating, costs no more.

So—but of course you've guessed it—John's happily resigning his title and installing an Electric Water Heater.

You too can enjoy the advantages of economical Electric Water Heating. Ask your electrical dealer to tell you about them and don't delay.

Commercial Steel Freed Thousands of Slaves

Invention of commercial steel, less than a century ago, completely revolutionized the construction and production of ropes and wheels. The invention of steam and gas engines and electric motors, made possible by steel, first enabled the entirely mechanical hoisting and hauling of enormous tonnages of materials by steel wire ropes and steel wheels at astonishing speeds with safety and ease. The thousands of slaves who, under the biting lash, pulled and hauled with primitive ropes and wheels in the building of the Pyramids would today be replaced by a comparative handful of husky young fellows in overalls skillfully and unlaboriously manipulating enormous machines, adapting the principles of the rope and the wheel, that would swing the great Egyptian monuments into place in quick contract time. Generations of years and thousands of lives were consumed on the Pyramid job. The Empire State building in New York city—a bigger job in every way—was swung up to its towering height of 102 stories with wire rope and sheave, wheel, engine and motor, in 15 months, with a record for safety of workmen's lives.

SUGGESTION

"What's the best way to get engaged here?"
"Stay as much under water as much as possible."

Dated

Mrs. King was discussing the latest fashions with a caller.
"Did you say your husband was fond of those clinging gowns, Mary?"
"Yes. He likes one to cling to me for about three years."

True Enough

A lady asked the astronomer if the moon was inhabited.
"Madam," he replied, "I know of one moon in which there is always a man and a woman."
"Which is that?"
"The honeymoon."

Koh-i-Noor Diamond Has Dark 4,000-Year History

One of the world's striking tales is the story of Koh-i-noor, the "mountain of light." For this great gem shahs blinded brother shahs and were in turn blinded. Many were murdered. An Indian emperor hid it in his headdress. When a Persian conqueror suggested as a courtesy that they exchange turbans, the Indian complied without an instant's hesitation. This stone has a history more than 4,000 years old. Recently it was removed from the Tower of London to safer sanctuary.

The Hope diamond with its deep sapphire luster was taken by Tavanier from India to Holland. It probably is part of the 67½ carat stone sold to France and stolen with the Regent from the crown jewels during the Revolution. The Regent, cut from 410 to 137 carats, was recovered. The 44½ carat stone became part of the collection of Henry Thomas Hope of Amsterdam, and achieved notoriety when American dancer May Yohe was married to Lord Francis Hope. Now it frequently is escorted to night clubs in Washington and New York by its present owner, Mrs. McLean.

One of the superstitions about the diamond is that it is the stone of reconciliation between husbands and wives.

Flat Chests Health Sign

Flat chests are a sign of physical superiority rather than weakness, according to the research experiments conducted by Dr. S. A. Weisman of the University of Minnesota. Dr. Weisman's findings show a distinct correlation between depth of chest and certain lung ailments. From compulsion of the thoracic indexes—ratio of depth of chest to width—of more than 22,000 children and adults, Dr. Weisman discovered that the average adult chest indexed at .670, while a so-called weak chest averages about .770, approximately 10 per cent deeper.

"The normal, healthy chest," Dr. Weisman declared, "is flat and wide."

Measurements of athletes, many of whom held national collegiate track championships, showed that 71 per cent had thoracic indexes of less than .700.

Fly Around World Often

Ornithologists and seamen have good reasons to believe that most albatrosses fly around the world several times during the course of their lives. Incidentally, these great birds, which can be buffeted for days by ocean gales, become very seasick when standing on the deck of a moving ship.

FEESBURG.

Monday, October 6 came in bright and warm the loveliest of our Autumn months but what she'll do with all the dry and dead leaves when she begins her Fall painting, we don't know. State Fairs, Conventions, corn huskings and then witches and spooks will be in order this tenth month of the year with 31 days.

In the passing of Mrs. Sallie Elbert Spurrer, on Friday, Oct. 3rd, another life-long friend departed this life. Not best with strong health it is remarkable how much she accomplished in work and kind attention to others. As one of the charter members of the Lutheran Church in Union Bridge she was faithful in attendance until her last years of ill health. Her husband C. D. Spurrer preceded her in death some years ago—and four sons survive them. Funeral service was held at the Lutheran Church on Sunday afternoon conducted by the pastor Rev. Sellers with burial beside her parents in Union Bridge cemetery.

Mrs. Clara Wolfe thro the kindness of Mrs. Mary B. Fogle and her companions Mrs. Blanch H. Devilbiss and their pastor's wife, Mrs. G. E. Bowersox represented the Missionary Society of Mt. Union at the annual convention at the Lutheran Church in Frederick last week. Rev. A. Travers and H. Snyder, pastors were there with a full attendance, good speakers, good reports, and very interesting meetings. The drive for Maryland's Centennial Fund for India went over the top plus. With many Missionaries, Deacons and neighboring pastors taking part in the services.

Mrs. M. Edwin Thomas was elected president instead of C. B. Ritz, of Waynesboro, who has served her full term. Martinsburg, W. Va., will entertain next convention. Mr. and Mrs. C. Wolfe have received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Long, Frederick Hospital to W. B. Aldridge on October 3rd. Miss Long was the charming nurse of Mrs. Wolfe when she had a goitre removed, and has been a visitor in their home. Congratulations.

Last Sunday was named the Communion Day for the Nation but when a pastor serves four churches he can not hold service at all at the same time, so Mt. Union will have the Holy Communion next Sunday October 12th, where a full attendance is urged. "Oh! that men would praise the Lord!"

Early last week Mr. Garlits, teacher of agriculture at the Elmer Wolfe School accompanied three of his students of the F. F. A., Billy Main, Bobby Plank and John Stultz to the live stock show in Baltimore where they exhibited the black Angus steers they had raised and they sold them at a fair profit, Bobby Plank receiving the largest prize and prize.

Corn husking has been halted by the extreme heat and drought. On Saturday a neighbor showed us how his hand had swollen and cut by the fodder from existing conditions.

Miss Mary Bostian of the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, was home with her parents on Saturday and called to see the shut-in. She is looking well and progresses in her training only there's no place like home.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Broadwater, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Union Bridge, were callers at Grove Dale, on Sunday evening, our dresser is adorned with colored snap dragons, cream and pink roses, from various friends, but we'll not mention the good things to eat, lest it makes somebody hungry, and they are unavailable.

Miss Sallie Crabbs who nursed Mrs. C. B. Spurrer in her last illness, with Harry Spurrer and family and his brother, Paul, all of Union Bridge were callers at the Birely home on Monday evening.

On Sunday the Maurice Grindler's entertained all their family and friends from Hagerstown, Westminster and Union Bridge to a fall dinner.

Mrs. Pearl Nusbaum, of near Frederick, visited her aunt, Mrs. Mary Stuffle, on Monday afternoon of this week.

A card received from James Kalback informs us that he and his dog "Bitt" and a pet cat are all in good order at a home of his sister-in-law. There is a view of a fine Methodist Church with a large statue before it at Framville, Md.

"Yes-sir-ee" it pays to advertise. On Saturday a notice appeared in the Record of a barking dog to be disposed of and on Monday morning a man from Ceresville came to inquire and took him away. "Brownie" was a good dog and nice companion but his barking disturbed the sensitive nerves of nearby sleepers, so now he plays in other yards and barks for other ears to hear.

LITTLESTOWN.

Mrs. Monroe Staveland, Centre Square, was treated at the Hanover General Hospital for injuries of the nose when an automobile in which she and four others were enroute to work in a shoe factory. The car crashed into the rear of a truck loaded with lumber.

Adams county had five fatal accidents in September.

The newly elected officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the John W. Ocker Post, were installed Thursday Mrs. George Dehoff, Pres.; Mrs. W. E. Mackley, Sec.; Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar, Treas.; Mrs. James Fager, Historian.

Christ Reformed Church, the Rev. John C. Brumbach, held its annual congregational meeting, Thursday in the Social Hall. This meeting was postponed from September due to infantile paralysis restriction. There was a large turnout of the members; the theme of the meeting was, "Forward Together". The purpose of the meeting was to get all the departments of the church to work harder; a review of recent improvements of church property, including building, cemetery and grove and future plans were discussed by Harvey Schwartz trustee of the church. Rev. Brumbach, gave a final report and suggestions for future work at the close of the meeting. Refreshments were served.

CHILDRENS' AID SOCIETY MEETS

Report of its very Worthy Activities

The campaign for $3000. to carry on the work in this county of the Children's Aid Society of Carroll County for 1941-42 got off to an enthusiastic start on Saturday afternoon. This 12th annual drive was initiated with a program and party held at the Westminster Riding Club with more than 200 in attendance.

Children and workers and friends gathered at the club house for the opening hour at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Frank T. Myers, who has served so well as the head of this society since its organization, extended greetings and said the purpose of the gathering was to get together in order that all should know each other better and that the children might know those who are interested in their welfare. Workers throughout the county were asked to get full information and literature for the campaign on which they start immediately.

Miss Custerborder was in charge of the program. Evelyn Pitt, Union Bridge, played a piano solo, "The Dragon Fly". For the next number she and her sister, Dorothy, performed with the latter singing "Slumber Boat Song" and Evelyn at the piano. A cornet solo was played by John Arbaugh, Westminster, accompanied by Mrs. John Frock. He played the "Blue Bells of Scotland."

Mary Bonghi and Frances Fletcher, of Woodbine did more acrobatic stunts. The girls were particularly good and most pleasing in their manner. Frances added a tap dance to her presentation. Betty Wilda, Manchester, played a piano solo, "On Mountain High". She and her sister, Mildred, sang, "Aloha". The smallest performer, Pauline Hoke, of Taneytown, played on her guitar and sang, "Playmates" and "Lotus Girl".

Another small performer was Paul Pitt, New Windsor, and he delighted all with his harmonica selections, especially "O Susanna." "Jonah and the Whale" was nicely sung by Louis Erb, New Windsor, with Mrs. Clyde Morningstar at the piano. A parting blessing was given by the youngest child in the care of the society.

Mrs. Myers presented the campaign manager for this year, State's Attorney, Donald C. Sponseller. Mr. Sponseller said that he was glad of the opportunity to become better acquainted with the people of Carroll County interested in this work and that the work thus far had been a great success due to the efforts of such people as were in attendance at this party. We pledged his support and effort towards the ultimate success of the drive.

An impromptu sketch on the wrong and right way to canvass for this campaign was cleverly presented by Mrs. David Taylor. She portrayed both ways of handling the canvass and she was assisted by Mr. Sponseller and Mrs. Gladys Wimer. There were some valuable pointers given in the sketch.

Ice cream, cup cakes, cookies and coffee were served at the close of the program. John Byers, photographer, took a number of group pictures for the society.

A warm applause and three cheers were given the president of the riding club for the party. The complete party, which included the delicious refreshments, were the gift of the Westminster Riding Club as their annual contribution toward this worthy cause. The president, Mrs. John L. Bennett, responded to the gesture.

Assisting Mrs. Bennett were: Hostesses, Mrs. Snider Babylon, Mrs. Robert S. Coane and Mrs. Almer Stien; serving, Mrs. David Taylor, Mrs. James Pearce Wantz, Jr. Miss Betsey Thomas, Mrs. E. DuRant, Mrs. William Greenwood, Miss Betty Smith, Mrs. C. K. Perry, Mrs. W. C. Jeanette, Mrs. Boyd Rutan, Mrs. Denton Gehr, Mrs. Blaine Murray, and Mrs. Stanford Hoff.

Those who contribute to the support of churches, seldom worry much over what they may get in return; or that the Lord loves a cheerful and liberal giver.

There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is, because they haven't any to mind, and the other is, they haven't any mind.

"Now," said the physician "I must take your temperature." "All right," said the patient in a tone of resignation "You have taken about everything else I own."

No one knows how often Rebecca went to the well, before she caught a man.

A Tribute of love to the Memory of our dear mother and wife,
SARAH I. ANGELL,
who departed this life four years ago,
October 6, 1937.

Four sad years with all its changes,
Since death strangely bade us part,
Death cannot take her from my memory
Nor her image from my heart.

We do not know why we must part,
From those we love so dear;
But God who doeth all things well
Will some day make it clear.

BY HER HUSBAND.
A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of heavenly grace—
A picture which shows many traces of care
And yet an expression of sweetest love there.

The work of an artist, the loveliest art—
A picture of mother that is framed in her heart;
And though she has crossed to her haven
of rest,
Sweet memories of mother lie wrapped in our breasts.

The print of her footsteps again we can see,
Her voice we hear, saying, "My dears,
follow me";
No artist can paint us a picture so fair;
It takes a true mother, her love, faith and prayer.

Mother wore a crown of patience,
Through the years she struggled on;
Those hands that rest forever,
Are the hands that made my home.

When a mother breathes her last farewell,
The stroke means more than tongue can tell;
The world seems quite another place
Without the smile of mothers face.

Dear mother, you have passed from mortal view,
To dwell among the blest;
Where heavenly scenes are ever new,
And weary ones find rest.

The Angels bore your soul away,
To mansions of the just;
And left behind the form of clay,
To mingle with the dust.

It is not the tears at the moment shed
That tell of hearts that are torn;
But the lonely tear of the after year
And remembrance silently borne.

BY HER CHILDREN.

A Tribute of love to the Memory of our dear sister,
SARAH I. ANGELL,
who departed this life four years ago,
October 6, 1937.

Her eyes are closed that looked on life
Through mists of pain and tears;
But God has opened them above,
To smile through endless years.

Calm and peaceful she is sleeping,
Sweetest rest that follows pain,
Her loving voice is still;
And trust in God to meet again.

The face we loved is now laid low,
Her loving voice is still;
The hand so often clasped in ours
Lies now in death's cold chill.

By her SISTERS & BROTHERS.

U. S. Soldiers Get Fresh Milk For First Time Since 1776

Army officers at Randolph Field, Texas, are daily milk drinkers.

NEW YORK—U. S. soldiers in the vast army maneuvers now under way will fight their peace-time battles with fresh milk in their daily diet.

More than 350,000 quarts of fresh fluid milk per day will be consumed by the maneuver forces, plus the new trainees in cantonments. Fresh fluid milk has been added to the daily ration to provide America's soldiers with the best possible diet, according to the Milk Industry Foundation.

In addition to fluid milk requirements, over 20 tons of butter, more than 10 tons of cheese and large quantities of other dairy products are consumed daily. This means that more than 1,000,000 quarts of milk from American farms are required every day for pasteurization and distribution for processing into dairy products for the army.

The milk industry has been in close touch with army requirements to see that soldiers receive fresh milk of the same high quality as that delivered daily to consumers' doorsteps.

This milk distribution required building up the supply system in thinly settled areas where fluid

MOVIE STAR JOINS U.S. NAVY

Ensign Wayne Morris Seeks Wings

Wayne Morris, recent star of "I Wanted Wings," became a member of Uncle Sam's Navy in May, 1941, when he was appointed to the rank of Ensign.

When asked what he thought of the United States Navy, Morris said, "I think every man who is considering joining a military service should look into the 'chance of a lifetime' which the Navy and Naval Reserve offer to get into the big-pay field of the future—aviation. In the Navy you can attend the finest flight training schools in the world, and receive instruction from Navy pilots who introduced dive bombing, aircraft carriers and catapult take-offs to the rest of the world. Also, there are opportunities in Naval Aviation for men who don't want to fly. They can be trained as aviation machinists, metal smiths, photographers, observers, or they can receive instruction in many other trades. It's a great life in the Navy."

CHRIST OUR SAVIOUR

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 20:25-28; Luke 22:26-27.

GOLDEN TEXT—For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John 3:16.

"I believe in God, the Father Almighty, . . . and in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord . . . I believe in the Holy Ghost." How often we have solemnly repeated these words in the Apostles' Creed, and how appropriate it is that our present three month series of lessons on great Christian teachings should begin last Sunday with a study of God, the Creator and heavenly Father, and continue today with Christ the Saviour, and present next Sunday the Holy Spirit, the Comforter.

These are profound Christian truths, but at the same time they are so simple as to be grasped by the youngest child. Today we have the great privilege of presenting in our classes our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. He was

I. The Self-Denying Servant (Matt. 20:25-28).

Scripture clearly teaches that God's standards are not the same as the world's standards, and that His methods of operation are just the opposite of those of the world. All too often Christians and churches imitate the world both in principle and practice, with disastrous results. Consider

1. The False Greatness of the World (v. 25). "Rulers"—"greatness"—"exercise authority"—how altogether up-to-date these words sound. They are the big and swelling words of the small hearts and minds which rule after the manner of this world. They epitomize the ambitions of the great majority of mankind, but they are definitely non-Christian. We see that as we go on to consider

2. The Humility of True Greatness (vv. 26, 27). Service in the spirit of humility and self-sacrifice—this is the standard of Christ. Yes, and it is His command to His followers. To be great for Christ one must become the servant of others. This teaching appears all through Scripture (for example, see Luke 4:11; John 13:13-17; 1 Pet. 5:5, 6).

How often service in the church is rendered in a spirit of pride, self-glory, and for the commendation and reward of men. When that reward is not forthcoming or some real humbling sacrifice is required, the work is not desired or the worker becomes offended. Here is one of the roots of trouble in the church. Let us put it away as we look upon

3. Christ Our Example (v. 28). He paid the price of our redemption, going to the death of Calvary for us. From the highest glory which He had with the Father (John 17:5), He graciously stooped to deepest ignominy as He became sin for us (II Cor. 5:21). Throughout both His life and His death He perfectly represented that self-denying, self-humbling service which He expects of His followers.

II. The Seeking Saviour (Luke 19:1-10).

There is much that is precious and beautiful to be said about our Lord, but perhaps nothing which brings Him so close to needy humanity as the fact that He had "come to seek and to save that which was lost" (v. 10). He was

1. Ever Interested in Sinners (vv. 1-7). Jesus was on this occasion coming up to Jerusalem for the last time. The cross was ahead. He was much taken up with His coming death and greatly straitened in spirit (see Mark 10:32 and Luke 12:50). He was passing through the great and wicked city of Jericho, yet in the midst of His deep sorrow and out of the vast multitude of that city He reached out to touch one sinner.

Zacchaeus was a man despised for his calling of tax collector, and hated for his dishonesty. He was an outcast from his own people and a stranger to God's grace, but Jesus was interested in him. Are we ready thus to go to seek and save the lost? Are we better (or busier) than our Lord?

2. Always Able to Save Sinners (vv. 8-10). Zacchaeus was a rich man, but he was a sinner. It is not easy for a rich man to be saved, but it can be done (see Matt. 19:23-26). Read the preceding verses of that chapter (vv. 16-22) and you learn of another rich man who was not saved, the rich young ruler. He was a far better man than Zacchaeus—honest, upright, honored in his community. How was it that the wicked and despised rich man was saved and the good and respected rich man was lost?

The answer is that the former admitted that he was a sinner and thus made it possible for Christ to save him, while the latter loved himself and his gold more than Christ and shut the door against His redeeming love.

From Living Things

Emission of light by living things is a chemical reaction requiring oxygen. Many luminescent creatures secrete an easily oxidizable compound, luciferin, which is oxidized with the help of an enzyme, luciferase. The exact chemical nature of luciferin and luciferase varies from species to species—firefly luciferin, for example, is no good when mixed with luciferase from worms. The reaction may occur in special gland cells, or the animal may eject luminous material. Some deep-sea squid throw off luminous puffs to confuse attackers, but this dodge is not always effective.

Some deep-sea fish, such as the species Photoblepharon palpebratus of the Banda islands, have headlights powdered by luminous bacteria. Photoblepharon has arranged a "symbiosis" (mutually profitable living together), providing the bacteria with food and fine living conditions in a sac near the eye, while the bacteria furnish the fish with lanterns.

Here's a Preview of 1942 Ford

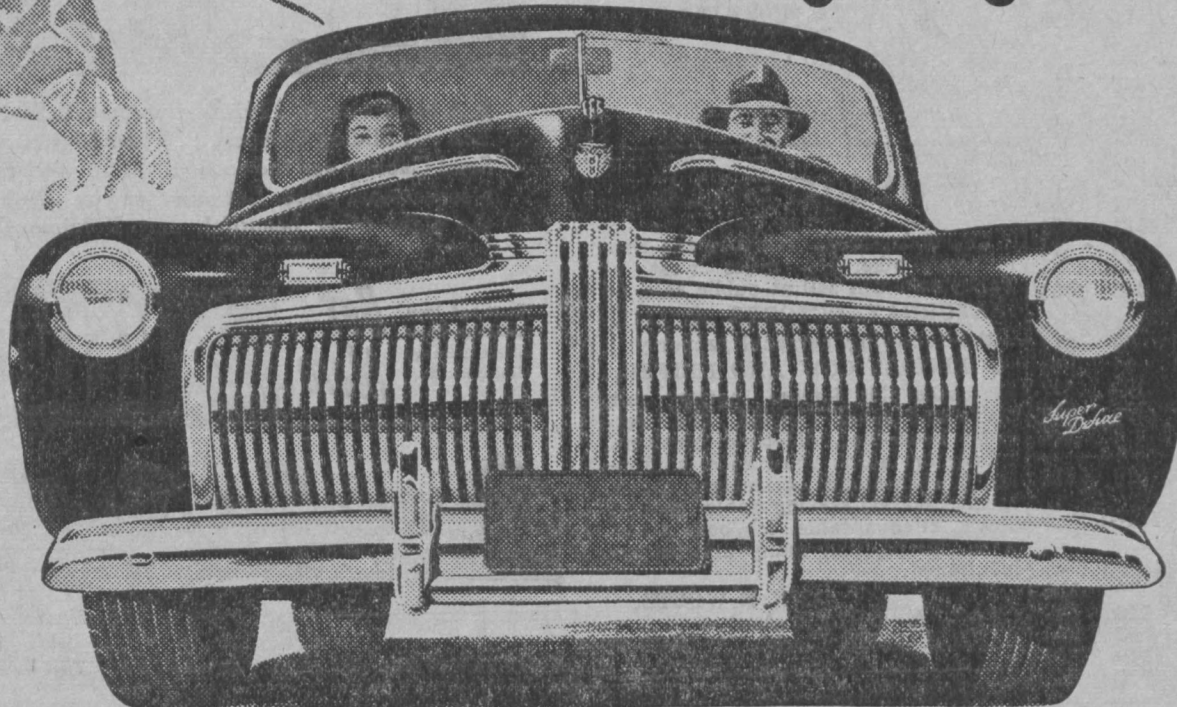

DEARBORN, Mich.—A distinctive frontal design sets the style for the new Ford passenger car line for 1942, introduced recently at a preview for the nation's automobile editors. The new Fords will be shown to the public soon in all Ford dealers' showrooms. A rustless steel radiator grille blends gracefully with an entirely new front contour which features a new arrangement of headlights and parking lamps. Offered in three lines—the Super DeLuxe, DeLuxe and Special, the 1942 Ford has a distinctive trim for each series of cars. Engineering improvements emphasize comfort and safety. The Super DeLuxe and DeLuxe lines are offered with either the new V-8 or the new Ford "6" engines.

For 1942—a Beautiful New

FORD

"6" OR "8"

IN THESE UNUSUAL TIMES we invite you to inspect an unusual new car—new in its beauty, its comfort, its choice of two fine 90 horsepower engines, 6 cylinders or 8.

See it and you sense at once that here is new style that will stay good for years. On a lower, wider chassis, we have designed new long, low, wide and modern lines.

Interior treatment is entirely fresh, distinctive, pleasing. The beauty of this Ford will more than hold its own in any company.

Inside, the car is big—wide across the seats, generous in knee-room, leg-room, elbow-room.

On the road this year you find the "new Ford ride" still further advanced in its softness, quietness, steadiness and all-round comfort.

At the wheel, you will find driving easier than ever. Steering, gear-shifting, action of the big and sure hydraulic brakes have all been made smoother and easier.

In quality, the car is sound to the last detail. Defense requirements have all been met without a single reduction in the basic and lasting goodness of the Ford mechanically. Some new materials have replaced old ones, usually at a greater cost to us, but in every case the new is equal to or better than the old.

If your family needs a new car, go see and drive this Ford. For what it is today and for what it will be through the years ahead, we believe that you will find in it more and better transportation for your money than you have ever found before.

Ho. for Colds

Not even pigs will eat the bitter, thorny horse nettle. Otherwise known as bull nettle, it is a weed that corn growers of our Middle West have learned to curse eloquently. It grows wild and widely.

But reminiscent of the announcement that grass may be prepared for eating because it contains practically all the known vitamins in rich amounts, it has been found that horse nettle may be utilized to treat the colds that will soon be common.

Indeed, experiments with extracts from horse nettle have been successful in the treatment of indigestion and infections ranging from pyorrhea to peritonitis.

Drs. Davis M. Greenberg and Theodore Winnick of the University of California are credited with discovering a protein-digesting enzyme resembling pepsin in horse nettle. Called solanin, the new substance resists heat up to 80 degrees Centigrade.

"Convoy" YOUR ESTATE
WITH A WILL

The ship may never come in for your wife and children if you die without leaving a Will. No Court Administrator could possibly make the intimate provisions for their welfare that you can make NOW—with a Will.

Instruct the attorney who draws up the Will to name this Trust organization as Executor and Trustee to carry out its provisions. Under our efficient, economical management the ship of your estate will be "convoyed" safely. Your property will not be lost. The happiness of your loved ones will not be endangered.
