SERVICE MEN LETTERS

Many and Varied are their Experiences

England, Sept. 27, 1944.
Dear Mr. Stonesifer:
Well it's been a long time between letters so I will try and tell you the latest news.

I am still in special service running a theatre in England. Here of late we have had some very big stars at our base, not so long ago we had Bing Crosby. His show was very good and the fellows really enjoyed it. The day he came to our Camp it rained from early morning until late that evening. He was late in getting to our theatre but the fellows stood in the rain and waited for him. I talked to him before the show and as you know by the papers a buzz bomb hit his hotel and he lost all his clothes. Well outside of that he was really on the ball. Another big event at our base was the night a General presented our Field Commandere with a cup. Our base, (for a period of three months,) put out the best work and showed the best progress in new ideas which will help win this war. The army had newsreel camera men here and we had free doughnuts, hot coffee, hamburgers and beer as well as a stage show and dance. Everyone really had a good time, but the next day every one was back on the job helping to lick Hitler. There is a lot of things that I can't tell you because of censorship but it has to be that way. Oh yes I almost forgot. I want to thank you for sending me the Carroll Record, it sure is sweet to read about the news of your home town. Although sometimes it had news; as in the case of some of the fellows who have died in France. Well its getting late and my last show is just about over so will close for this time. As ever,

Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 13, '44
Well I guess you are quite surprised to be hearing from me again, I was just sitting here in my tent with nothing much to do and happened to think of you and decided to drop you a few lines. I have been on the sick list for a couple of days with a little fever, but expect to go back to duty in a few days.

Yes things are rather hot out here in the Pacific, sometimes more ways than one. We have a run in with the Japs occasionally, first it was Guadalcanal then Trawa then Sapian, and of course now I am expecting to come home some time in the near future.

Well I guess I have said about all there is to say for the present. Hoping to hear from you soon. A friend,
SGT. MARTIN NUSBAUM,

San Francisco, Calif.

It has been my intention to write you long before this but my days pass quickly it seems into weeks. I want to thank you for sending me the Carroll Record paper. As a rule it arrives Wednesday morning and is very much appreciated here in San Diego by me.

School has been going very nice so far. I have completed the first four weeks and starting Monday will go to the butcher shop for practical work. There we will cut all the meat required for the entire station. The station comprises a number of camps and is much larger than I dare say. In fact I have no idea just how many could be here. We have nice barracks and class rooms. The grounds in the station are pretty and very well kept.

San Diego is nice in its own way considering but is as can be expected by an overcrowded Navy town. I have not been in town so much as studies have kept me rather busy. Mexico is rather close and hope before I have to leave will have the opportunity to visit for a day or two.

I would like to say here that I certainly did enjoy my visit to Taneytown in August. Everyone was very nice, kind of spoiled me. Now I want another. That is impossible and doubt if I get any leave when school is over. Some that have just finished got East Coast duty that being the case might get a day or two.

Thanks again for your thoughtfulness in sending the paper. Sincerely,

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY MEETS

Presentation of Cash Prizes to Victory Gardeners

The annual financial campaign of the Carroll County Children's Aid Society will again be conducted this year, the date being October 16-28. The goal of the drive will be $4000.00. The campaign was officially opened on Saturday, October 7 at the campaign outing which was held at the Westminster Riding Club. This is an annual affair to which campaign workers and foster parents and children are invited. All campaign material and instructions are distributed to campaign workers at this meeting.

Due to the illness of Mrs. Frank T. Myers, President, the meeting was conducted by the vice-president, Mrs. David H. Taylor, who extended greetings to those present.

The first number on the program was a doll sketch presented by four young ladies, the Misses Dori and Ellen Arnold, Mrs. Sterling Beard and Miss Norma Sprinkle. This was a great delight to the children.

Mrs. Taylor then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Boyd Rutan who was in charge of the children's part of the program. She was assisted by Mrs. W. C. Jennette. Jo Rutan performed an acrobatic dance and her sister, Dianne Rutan, played as a piano selection, "Twilight Reverie." Guy, Patricia Wimer sang as a solo, "Swinging on a Star" and for an encore, "I Walk Along." Carol Jennette delighted the audience with a tap dance.

A high light of the program was the presentation of cash prizes for those children who participated in the victory garden contests sponsored by the Westminster Kiwanis Club. Mr. Ray Hollinger, Chairman of the Children's Committee, presented the prizes to the winners. They were: Girls, First, Evelyn Pitt, Union Bridge; second, Dorothy Pitt, Union Bridge; third, Jeannette Miller, of Westminster. Boys: First, Donald Clingan, Silver Run; second, Harry Frock, Sam's Creek; and tie for third place, Kenneth Scott and Herbert Blizzard Marston. These prizes were five, three and two dollars respectively.

Other cash prizes were awarded to: Margaret Kelbaugh and Lewis Kelbaugh, Taneytown; Eva Walking, Melrose; Ralph Harris, New Windsor; Lewis Erb, Manchester; Richard Fowler, Hampstead; Charles Crumby, James Hood, Clifton Hood, Marston; Paul Pitt, Union Bridge.

Donald, who was unable to be present as he is a patient in the Eudowood Sanatorium, Towson, sent a letter of appreciation and told of the many uses of his garden in providing food and flowers for home, church, the sick and friends. The letter was a note of "thanksgiving" for all good things and showed the serious thinking of the lad.

Following the program the children retired to the basement where they played games and contests before being served refreshments.

During this time, a review of the campaign material was made by Mrs. Taylor for the district chairmen and campaign solicitors. A motion was made that greetings be sent to Mrs. Myers from the organization with regrets that she was unable to attend.

Mrs. Carroll Shunk was named chairman of the nominating committee and she will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Poutz and Miss Emma Trump.

A rising vote of thanks was made to the members of the Riding Club for the use of the club house and also for the fine refreshments, which were served following the meeting. Mrs. John L. Bennett was in charge of arrangements with Mrs. Robert S. Coane, Sr., as hostess. Assisting were: Mrs. L. K. Billingslea, Mrs. Wm. Robinette, Mrs. Roger Brown, Mrs. C. K. Perry, Mrs. L. N. Hitchcock and Mrs. C. H. Kable.

Miss Bonnie Custenborder, social director for the county, had a personal greeting for the nearly 30 children present and their foster parents. It is sincerely hoped by the members of the Children's Aid Society that the public will support this year's campaign as willingly and generously as they have in past years.

PAPER COLLECTION

Citizens Urged to Bundle and Place in Front of Home

The seventh general paper collection will be directed by the leader of the local Boy Scout Troop 348 Thursday, October 19th.

Since this is a week day, citizens are requested to have paper, rags and cardboard tied, put out on the sidewalk in front of their homes before they leave for work, and weighted down so as not to blow away. The collection will begin in the afternoon. It is planned to collect more frequently if this time works satisfactorily, since Saturday is out of the question for many Scouts.

WENDELL L. WILLKIE DIES SUDDENLY

Wendell L. Willkie, 1940 Republican Presidential candidate died in a New York Hospital last Sunday morning. Death was due to coronary thrombosis. He was aged 52 years.

He is survived by his wife, who was at his side at the time of his death, and one son Phillip, a Lieutenant (j. g.) on duty with the Navy "somewhere in the Pacific."

The Associated Press has the following to say about the career of Willkie:

"Willkie's nomination as Republican candidate for President at the 1940 convention in Philadelphia was a unique event in American political history. He was a former Democrat. He had the backing of no orthodox political organization. Moreover, some members of the 'Old Guard' frowned on him.

Yet, in losing the election, he polled 22,333,801 votes—the largest popular vote ever given a Republican Presidential candidate.

And from this he went on to still greater prominence. In 1941 he went to England to observe war-time conditions and left behind him there a message for the German people—that "we German-Americans reject and hate the aggression and lust for power of the present German Government."

In 1942, Willkie made a 31,000-mile tour of the Middle East, Russia and China as special representative of President Roosevelt. He carried letters to Marshal Joseph Stalin and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek. He described his travels in a book, "One World," which sold 1,500,000 copies.

A native of Elwood, Ind., Willkie had lived in New York since 1933 but never cut himself off completely from his home state.

He became general counsel of Commonwealth in 1929 and president of the corporation four years later.

The funeral services were held in New York on Tuesday, at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Many nationally known figures including Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Gov. Leverett Saltonstall, of Massachusetts were among the thousands that attended the services.

The body was accompanied to Rushville, Ind., Willkie's birthplace, by his brother, Edward Willkie. It will be placed in a crypt awaiting the arrival of Mrs. Willkie who will remain in New York for the return of her son, Lt. (jg) Phillip Willkie, USNR, from Atlantic convoy duty. He will accompany his mother to Rushville for the burial.

DR. CRAWFORD AND QUARTETTE AT WESTMINSTER H. S.

The Rev. Dr. Percy B. Crawford and his famous radio and recording quartet will be present in person at the Westminster High School auditorium, Longwell Avenue extended, on Friday evening, October 20, at 8:00 o'clock.

Dr. Crawford is known throughout the entire English speaking world for his popular radio program, "The Young People's Church of the Air—Around the World." This famous program is heard each Sunday over a National network of 250 stations. Thousands of persons, both young and old, around the world have learned to love this radio program. Dr. Crawford has been often called "the young people's friend." Dr. Crawford is the President of King's College, Philadelphia, and also conducts several Bible Conferences for young people during the summer months. Pinebrook Camp is one of the camps which is known to thousands of young people in the east.

Because of this unusual opportunity to see, hear, and meet Dr. Crawford and his famous quartet, everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting. A splendid program has been arranged by Dr. Crawford and his quartet. Dr. Crawford is especially anxious to meet the young people of the county. There is no charge for admission. Free-will offering.

This meeting is sponsored by the Laymen's Bible Group of Carroll county.

TANEYTOWN SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY

Held in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church

The Taneytown Dist. S. S. Rally was held in Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Sunday, October 8th, was well attended and the program exceptionally good. Approximately 350 Sunday School officers and pupils were in attendance. The program was directed by the President, Harry Mohney.

Special music was rendered by the Girls' Glee Club of our High School under the direction of Mrs. Wallace Yingling, assisted at the organ by Mrs. George L. Harner. Their numbers were well rendered. The Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, Professor of Theology at the Seminary at Gettysburg presented the needs of the Sunday School in a most challenging manner. Comments were to the effect, that this was one of the best Rallies that the District has held for years.

During the business session the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Norman Hess; Vice-President, Daniel Nail; 2nd Vice-President, Delmont Koons; Secretary, Lloyd Wilhide and Treasurer, Murray Baumgardner. The Rev. Guy P. Bready, of Grace Reformed Church installed these newly elected officers. A new feature in the activities of the association was the presentation of an attendance banner to the school registering the highest percentage in attendance for the year. The Banner was given to the Piney Creek Presbyterian Sunday School which had an average attendance of 79% of their enrollment throughout the year. Each year, this banner will be held or transferred to the school with the highest percent attendance.

As usual the District Association is planning another Leadership Training School for the Fall-Winter season.

S. S. BENEFITS

Benefit checks, numbering 2,713 sent to unemployed individuals in the month of September by the Maryland Unemployment Compensation Board, and amounting to $43,937, brought the current year to $619,354. In the corresponding three quarters of 1943 the benefit payments aggregated $772,699, a difference of $153,345.

On September 30 the benefits paid by the Board reached the grand total of $32,802,996, and the reserve fund available to take care of future unemployment claims, stood at $103,639,785 while contributions of Maryland's 13,000 employers, embracing their activities in the third quarter are coming in.

Benefit checks sent out by the Unemployment Compensation Board since the inauguration of the benefit system now number more than three-and-a-quarter millions.

SAFETY HABITS

Good safety habits require constant attention if satisfactory results are to be obtained.

To take orders and to follow directions carefully while taking care of himself are basic principles taught every man and woman in the armed services. Every boy and girl is proud of a soldier brother or father and realizes that ability to carry out orders carefully may save a soldier's life. As children go to school, to the store, or to a friend's home they, just as soldiers must be safety conscious and take care of themselves. New hazards are met in better fashion if basic safety rules are a part of every child's education. Keep from between parked cars means keep from rushing into a path, a road, or a street until you have a chance to look both ways, says the American Automobile Association.

HOG CEILINGS

Ceiling prices for hogs at market buying from Maryland farmers are: Hogs 240 pounds or less per hundred weight, $15.30 at Baltimore and Philadelphia, $15.10 at Wilmington, Delaware, and $15.00 at other Maryland and Delaware points; hogs weighing more than 240 pounds, $14.55 at Baltimore and Philadelphia, $14.34 at Wilmington, Delaware, and $14.25 at other points in Maryland and Delaware.

OUR JR. BAND

Will Play at Football Game in McSherrystown

The Taneytown Jr. I. O. O. F. Band will play for a football game at the Delone High School in McSherrystown, Pa., on Sunday, Oct. 15. Members will leave the band hall at 1:15. Members are asked to wear full uniforms, unless the weather is too cold for white—then wear capes and caps over warm clothing. In case weather is doubtful, information can be secured from Manager David Smith.

The beginners class is now forming—it will begin lessons on October 24, at 7 P. M., in the band hall. This is open to any child in this community and all instruction is absolutely free. Any parent interested in having children join the band should see Mr. Menchey, in the band hall, on Tuesday night—from 6:30 to 9:30 P. M.—he will supply all information.

ON THE DIAL OF WFMD

The Rev. Jimmy Roberts, well known to countless listeners through his popular "Pilot Program," heard over WFMD each Tuesday at 2:30 P. M., has added another series as yet untitled but which will be patterned after the Pilot Program. This new series will be heard Tuesday mornings at 10:15. The Pilot Program will continue to be heard at the regular time 2:30 P. M. Tuesdays.

Quincy Howe, CBS New Analyst, who is heard over WFMD each week-day except Thursday at 6 P. M., will write a book, tentatively titled "A Short History of the Modern World: A Contemporary Story of the 20th Century through 1945."

The Rev. John Smithson has returned to the air and is now heard over WFMD each Friday afternoon at 5:30 P. M. Winniemae Lint's new series, "The Adventures of the Little 'Tin Soldier,'" presented over WFMD each Tuesday and Thursday at 5:30 P. M., is attracting a great deal of interest among children and their parents. Miss Lint, who is WFMD's musical director, plays her own musical interludes on the piano and solovox during the programs.

The "Sing Along Club," previously heard in the mornings over WFMD, has now moved to the 5:00 P. M. period, Mondays thru Fridays. Harry Savoy, on the "Kate Smith Hour" (WFMD-Sundays at 7 P. M.) told Ted Collins that his uncle sells bath-tubs to millionaires—and then went on to comment: "That's one way to soak the rich."

"Uncle Joe" Johnson has joined the staff of WFMD as Assistant Production Manager, and in that capacity will work closely with Ed McCurdy in developing new live studio programs. "Uncle Joe" is well-known to radio listeners, having formerly been featured over WSAW and WINC as "Uncle Joe" and his Barn Dance Gang, and will very soon become familiar to listeners in this area.

George Burns and Gracie Allen, presented in their regular program over WFMD every Tuesday night at 9:00, are currently being heard every Monday thru Friday on a special day five minute transcribed program at 2:15 P. M. This lovable, laughable pair act as radio critics for these five minute shows, and any Burns & Allen fan will know that that spells real radio entertainment. Be sure to listen.

Danny Thomas, comedian on Fanny Bric's "Toasties Time" program, heard regularly over WFMD on Sundays at 6:30 P. M. was engaged some time ago for one week later he concluded that engagement. Finally don't forget the Washington "Redskins" football game broadcast over WFMD every Sunday at 2 P. M. Anna Edwards "Old Familiar Hymns" program, formerly heard at that time, is now presented each Sunday at 1:15 P. M.
