C. OF C. MEETS Election of Officers for the Next Year is Held

The Taneytown Chamber of Commerce held its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening, October 23, at 8 o'clock in the Firemen's Building in Taneytown, President Merwyn C Fuss presiding. The attendance was unusually large, no less than 65 mem-bers being recorded as present, probably an all-time high in attendance for a regular meeting. The minutes of the September meeting were read and adopted. Also the Treasurer submitted his annual report, showing the financial affairs of the organization to be in a flourishing condition.

A donation was made, on motion and vote, to the Carroll County Chil-dren's Aid Society. A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Swartz, proprietor of the Royale Dairy of Hanover for a donation to the Chamber, repre-senting the cost of ice cream served at the summer outing last August. In view of war reductions the Executive Committee was instructed to prepare a Christmas program in about the same lines and to about the same extent on the program of last year.

Attention was called to the annual banquet to be held on the evening of November 16 in the High School auditorium. It was reported that un-der the direction of Prof. Shower, General Chairman of arrangements for the annual banquet, the plans for the affair were proceeding satisfactorily, and the members were given to understand that they might look forward to the enjoyment of one of the best if not the best occasion in the history of the organization. The President reported that everything was being done to provide a menu to tickle the palate and delight the eye of everyone who might be fortunate enough to possess a ticket, entitling him to a seat at the banquet table. The best in entertainment also has been provided. The special music for the occasion will be given by a talented performer on the electric or-The speaker will be a man, of gan. national reputation and of wide experience in the study of current trends and problems, who also has been called upon on several occasions to serve in public office of considerable importance. The names of new members were voted into membership in the Chamber as follows: Fern Hitchcock, C. Raymond Eyler, Mrs. Guy P. Bready, Harry Clutz, Robert H. Scrutin, Wilbur O. Thomas, Hiram Williams, John S. Bricker, Louis A. Keefer and Wil-bur Z. Fair. The reception of new members brought forth an observation on the part of the President regarding the large membership of the Chamber of Commerce, a number out of all proportion when the size and population of Taneytown is consid-ered, the membership comparing very favorably with that of cities, many times the population of our own com munity; also what might be regarded as a sort of prophecy to the effect that in time, on account of limited space available on the occasion of the

County Bar Adopts Resolution Against Amendments

At a special meeting of the Bar As-sociation of Carroll County held early this week it was decided to continue the previously expressed opposition to the changes proposed in the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and of the circuit courts of the state. The fol-lowing preamble and resolution was adopted and signed by individual mbers of the Bar:

Whereas the Second Constitutional Amendment on the ballot to be voted on November 7, 1944, if adopted, will work a disasterous change the membership and duties of the Court of Appeals of Maryland as now constituted. The chief effects of this Amendment will be to change the Court of Appeals so that its judges will be deprived of their present duties in the several courts of the counties, and be limited to appellate work at Annapolis; and, also be reduced from the present eight members to five judges; and that of these FIVE iudges

Two must come from Baltimore City; and but One can come from the seven counties of Carroll, Howard, Montgomery, Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett; and but one can come from the seven counties of Harford, Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Prince George's, Charles, Calvert and Saint Mary's; and but one can come from the nine counties of Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline, Talbot, Dorchester, Wicmico, Worcester and Somerset.

In the firm conviction that the adoption of the proposed Amendment would not be in the public interest, but would restore the deplorable conditions which the Maryland Consti-tution of 1867 was framed and designed to prevent,

Be it Resolved, that the Bar Association of Carroll County does hereby express its objection to the Amendment; and urges the voters of Carroll County and of the Fifth Judicial Circuit to vote against the proposed Amendment.

WAR FUND DRIVE

Solicitors Appointed for Taneytown District

Carroll County's 1944 National War Fund solicitation will begin Monday, October 30, and will extend until Nov. 15th. Lawrence B. Fink, county campaign chairman, urges all solicitors to begin promptly and to conclude the drive within the allotted time.

The War Fund campaign is being conducted throughout the United States. Nation-wide newspaper and radio advertising has been in progress since September 25. This is an ef-fort to raise funds in one concentrated drive for the many agencies now serving the 3,000 Carroll County men and women in the armed forces in all parts of the world. Most of us have relatives and friends in the service who have praised the wholesome, home-like service of the USO and the morale-building USO-Camp shows in this country and in the combat zones overseas. Those of our citizens whose sons are in service with the Merchant Marine will welcome the opportunity to contribute for the benefit of the United Seamens' Service. Our Carroll County boys who are prisoners of war in German or Japanese prison camp will benefit directly by the educational and recreational facilities supplied by monies contributed in this campaign to the War Prisoners' Aid.

consider what our service men and women are sacrificing—what they are giving, it is hoped that each citizen will match their valiant service of 365 days by giving at least one day's pay to this fund. Carroll County's quota is $30,000-$10 per year for each of the 3,000 Carroll County service men and women.

The National War Fund Drive for Taneytown District will open on Mon-day, October 30, 1944. The quota for the Taneytown District is $2795. This quota can be fulfilled, if, each person has in mind through his or her contribution you are aiding and giv-ing a little pleasure, and comfort to a relative or friend. You will be aiding our own prisoners of war, giving relief to many who are starving. A certain amount will go to the Boy Scouts of the county. It will be the only drive they will have. You see, you must give very liber-ally. It is such a small thing to do-in return for what that relative or friend is doing for you. When the solicitors come to your

KIWANIS CLUB HOLDS HALLOWE'EN PARTY Ladies' Night Observed at Big

Pipe Creek Park

The Taneytown Kiwanis Club held its annual "Hallowe'en Party" on Wednesday evening at Big Pipe Creek Park, the program being in charge of the House and Reception Committee. A covered dish supper was prepared and served by the ladies of the Club.

After the supper, those present were delightfully entertained by Miss Mildred Stull who gave two readings: "Ambitious Lucy" and as an encore "Trouble, Trouble, Trouble," The Harbaugh Family Orchestra of Blue Ridge Summit furnished music throughout the evening for entertainment and for dancing. President Clyde Hesson expressed the thanks of the Club to Mr. and Mrs. George Shriner for their hospitality in providing so pleasant and cozy a place for the party, also for furnishing part of the music for dancing.

Club Met on Thursday in the Interests of Homes

The Health for Victory Club, with Miss Mary M. Meehan, Home Service, Advisor, resumed their meetings on Thursday afternoon with 24 ladies present. Due to the fact no meetings vere held during the summer months the attendance was good. Miss Meehan showed two reels of moving pictures showing how the furnishings of a kitchen should be arranged so time, labor and steps can be saved, and how the lights in a room should be to save eye strain.

Miss Meehan's discussions were much appreciated especially by two of the ladies who are planning re-arranging their kitchens. Cider and ginger bread were served to all.

STORING SUMMER CLOTHES

With changeable Fall weather here and winter weather in the offing, Miss Helen Shelby, extension clothing spec-ialist of the University of Maryland, this week offers homemakers some suggestions about storing the family wardrobe so that summer clothes will be in good condition to wear or make over next season. Before storing, the clothes should be washed or cleaned, as spots or stains are likely to become set on long standing and then be difficult or impossible to remove. Perspiration stains damage fabrics. A wise precaution, she says, is to remove all pins, buckles, and other metal attach-ments that might stain clothes stored with the slightest trace of dampness, in the fabric. Especially since the war, she adds, many of these articles made of metals have not been proofed against rust or corrosion.

Cotton wash clothes should be washed and stored without starching. Tests of stored cotton fabrics show that those with starch or other sizing tend to deteriorate sooner than those without. Also, moths and other insects attack starched fabric.

Wash clothes may be put away rough-dried and carefully folded, or may be given a quick press to make them fold more smoothly, hold their shape better, and require less space. Miss Shelby states that garments may be packed in covered boxes. trunks, or chests, or may be hung on hangers in dustproof clothes bags. Winter cold does not harm fabrics. but heat, light, dust, and moisture may. It is best to choose a clean dry place away from the furnace or heating pipes.

AN ALARMING SITUATION

Some statistics were recently made public in York county, Pennsylvania, with regard to marriage and divorce, which present a dark outlook for domestic life in the years ahead.

Up to the time of the release of the figures there had been 250 divorces granted this year, and only 435 marriage licenses issued. Of course there were many marriages performed in Maryland for York county people, but still the ratio is alarming. During the month of September the divorces averaged more than one a day and during the same period 37 new actions were started.

It is interesting to note, says The York Dispatch that prior to the present war and particularly during the period of the depression seven out of 10 libeliants were women. In the last year this has been reversed and now seven out of 10 actions are started by men.

Larger incomes and steady employment are given as the, major reasons for the increase in divorces and the change in the ratio of libellants to respondents. Most of the differences between men and their wives as shown in reports of masters this year began in years past. Because disputants had little money then they were unable to pay the high costs of divorces. Then dissatisfied women made the moves and there were few court actions. Now the men, earning money and better able to pay, are for the most part the prime movers for legal separations.

There is no wonder that juvenile delinquency has been increasing so ominously, and if this situation continues the result upon the moral standard of the country can be noth- hands in the labor system become

They should be defeated. The fourth, especially, would radically change our judicial system. Before us as we write lies a strong appeal to which the names of 50 eminent lawyers are attached, including the names of Judge Parke and Judge Forsythe. Over and over it asks, "Why experiment with our Judicial System ?"

Maryland courts are not inferior to the courts of other states. Even though our system may be different from most states, that is no reason for a change. We have as much real justice as any place. There is less delay in our courts than in many others. The whole state is represented in the Court of Appeals. The fourth, fifth and sixth amendments should be defeated. REQUIREMENTS FOR THE AGE OF PEACE

Rev. W. V. Garrett, a former pastor of Taneytown Lutheran Church, now of Frederick, recently gave an interesting address before the Frederick Kiwanis Club, which will be of interest to many of our readers. He cited three specific factors that will undoubtedly exert a tremendous effect upon society in general and the church as a particular institution in the years immediately ahead.

First of all, the speaker explained, eturning servicemen and women are coming back to their home communities and churches with new experiences in living and working together, with deeper convictions about religious realities, with firm faith in the practical workability. of fellowship and international cooperation as a result of intimate contacts with all races and conditions of men. Pastors and individual church members must be on their toes to meet such a situation. Rev. Mr. Garrett asserted and, he added, they must be willing to make the personal adjustments that certainly will be necessary in the development of a homogeneous social order in a new age of peace.

In the second place, the Lutheran minister noted, organized labor will have a heavy impact in the post-war world. Citing several illustrative incidents from prominent industrial areas, Rev. Mr. Garrett deplored the antagonism of labor leaders to the whole plan and program of the church and stated that until the controlling

BOOST OUR OWN SYSTEM

Government has grown to be such a giant in this country and has so many millions of persons on its payroll, that it is the biggest problem business and industry are going to have to contend with in the so-called readjustment period.

Already there is an army of economic planners at work to keep the check rein of government on every private activity. This will be done under the guise of preventing inflation, and creating employment. Business and industry will have to figure out ways to operate and exist and employ labor and pay taxes, in spite of all the plans that all the planners can heap upon them.

Very few of the planners are sincerely outspoken in their desire to restrict government competition or domnation of business, and encourage the individual to go out and try to create the post-war jobs and production which they talk about.

Most of the planners, by innuendo or plain threats, say that if business doesn't maintain record employment, government will. And many of them seem to be hopeful that they can lay enough stumbling blocks in the way of private enterprise so that they will have an excuse for saying that government must take over.

Imagine the spirit of optimism that would prevail in this nation if business and industry felt that our government and the powerful bureaus that now dominate it, were wholeheartedly in favor of promoting private enterprise under fair and reasonable regulation. If risk capital was encouraged to take a chance, it is safe to say that our natural resource inwant the products of our mines, farms Route 71 and forests in unheard of quantities, in exchange for the goods that they stead of aping in so many ways the socialized systems of Europe, where some bureaucrat throttles the oppor-tunity of the individual? THE AMENDMENTS

We call attention of voters to the fact that there are six amendments to the Constitution of Maryland to Tuesday, November 7th. We have noticed very little discussion of these amendments, though at the time of against some of them, especially the Judge, Hon. F. Neal Parke.

The notice legally published in the counties, giving information concerning these amendments, comprised nearly four columns of very small type in the newspapers which have been favored with the advertisement, which very few voters will read, and which the average voter would not and could not understand if he did read it. This presents a dangerous situation. If we ignore these amendlegislature to amend the Constitution at will.

For the information of our readers we give here a brief summary of the matters proposed:

GOD BLESS OUR LADS By E. Sparrow, Cardiff, England

Tune: "Abide With Me."

"God bless our lads" in air, on land and sea! Full well we know how dear they are to Thee Where'er they go whatever they may dare, God ever keep them in Thy gracious care.

"God guard our lads" by night as well as day, For we, at home for them will ever pray That war and strife and enmity may cease, And Thou wilt send us Everlasting Peace.

"God guard our lads," oh keep them ever near! Make strong their faith and drive out all their fear: Give them a vision of Thy saving love, That nothing in this world can ever move.

"God guard our lads," and though just now they roam Grant us our prayers and bring them safely home. "God bless our foes" and cause their eyes to see That peace, alone, can only come from Thee.

Their simple willingness to endure hardships for our sake demands great sacrifice in return. The least we can do is to back them in their faith in us with every cent that can be spared beyond what is needed to keep body and soul together. The more you invest now the sooner they'll return to take up their lives where they left off. So, we say—shorten it with War Bonds! Keep faith with the men on the fighting fronts!

THEY HAVE TO.

And remember—your son and your neighbors' sons are fighting for a way of life that must be preserved for them here on the home front. FEESERSBURG

These frosty mornings make one lively, and the bright days are de-lightful, but we are slowly saying farewell to all vegetation—even the dahlias have been injured and wilted; and only 9 more days in October.

Charles Snyder, son of Joseph and Byrd Flickinger Snyder living be-tween Middleburg and Keymar, had a foot blown off by an explosion somewhere in service over there; and is now in the Walter Reed Hospital. We hope for his safe recovery.

Pvt. Woodrow Miller has sent several pictures home of our boy in uni-form, from Camp Gordon, Johnston, Glad to see them soldiers-but they're not good enough. Joseph P. Bostian—proprietor of our local Garage has been working too much and too long, so is in a run down condition and his Doctor put him to bed on Friday with more good advice than medicine and he needs

The Charles Crumbacker family, of Clear Ridge, took supper last Wed-nesday evening with Mrs. Addie Crumbacker, who accompanied them home, and the next day they all went to Waynesboro to see their mother and grandma, Mrs. George Crumbacker, and found her somewhat improved. She sits up in a chair and talks to all callers. Her daughter, Mabel, Mrs. Harris Frock has remained with her since they brought here home from Charleston, W. Va.

Some of our citizens have attended Evangelistic Service at Keymar, con-ducted by the pastor, Rev. Paul Freeman, assisted by other guest speak-ers. The meetings are well attended.

There has been no afternoon services at Mt. Union for four years, so it seemed good to have S. S. at 1:30 and afternoon preaching by Rev. Charles Birx, of Hamilton, Baltimore. His wife and 12 year old daughter Anne, were with him. He talked well on "The Gentleness of God." There was a good attendance and next Sun-day he will preach at Uniontown and Baust Church-then the congregations will take a vote on the pastor

Next Sunday evening, Oct. 29, Mt. Union will have their annual ingathering service for the Deaconess donation and every one will give fruit and vegetables-jarred or fresh-is requested to bring it to the church or send it if impossible to attend. - If any one donates their own jars, emp-ty ones will be given them. Rev. E. Colwell of the Methodist Church will deliver the message of the evening, and a good service is expected to which all are welcome.

Our neighbor-Archie Eyler has been in the shadow cast by death the past ten days; caused by the very sudden death of his brother, Jesse Eyler; then the passing of his former brother-in-law, Arthur Benchoff, and hardest of all the notice of the death of his son, Burton, aged 22 years, killed in action overseas. Sometimes the road seems very dark-but God knows the way and He cares. Misses Audrey and Betty Frock of near Detour, spent Friday night with Vivian Grinder, and they attended the dance at Elmer Wolfe School in the evening. Charles and Josephine Miller Files, of Lancaster, Pa., are with her home folks for a few days, and are having a letter autographed by the nieghbors -to send to hersoldier brother-Sgt. Wilbur Mille" J A group of our folks were in Westminster on business last rainy Friday and left Miss Grace Sullivan, in Union Bridge for shopping. All returned safely if dampened. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Haugh, of New Midway, called at Grove Dale, and found the house closed-but they left fine proof of their presenc Rev. Birx and family were enter-tained at the J. E. Dayhoff home in Bark Hill for supper on Sunday evening; whose young people accompan-ied them to Winters church at night. A fine stone has been placed on the Crumbacker lot at Mt. Union cemetery recently, bearing the names of George M. Crumbacker (deceased), and his wife Martha Ellen Crumbacker (nee Ella Koons). Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fogle, Uniontown, took supper with the Birely sisters on Monday evening; and gave some high-lights of the great Minneapolis convention and the pleasant surprise the S. S. at St. Paul's gave Mr. Fogle on Sunday in remembrance the 25th anniversary of his faithful service as Supt. of the School—a -beautiful card of appreciation and thanks, enclosing a $25.00 War Bond -a splendid gift. Next come Hallow'een Oct. 31-for the sacred Virgil of all Saint's Day, Nov. 1; also the anniversary of the Reformation of the Church-in the 16th century. Now we commemorate 28 clown, witches, spooks, etc. and anything but keep it sacred; not all changes are improvements or progression. We cannot see nor hear any men at out door working today, and the fields about us have been seeded; but the heaviest kind of loaded trucks are passing on the highway almost every day.

Bready, Charles Owen and L. B.

Rev. Charles Owens was called to the Chair to preside at the annual nomination and election of officers to serve for the next year. The follow-ing were elected: President, Merwyn Fuss; First Vice-President, David Smith; Second Vice-President, Wan. B. Hopkins: Secretary, Bernard J. Arnold; Treasurer, Charles R. Arnold.

These newly elected officers were then

Installed by Rev. Guy P. Bready. The feature of the program was an interesting and highly instructive ad-dress by Mr. Victor Weybright, whose native home is near Detour, but who for some years has been editor of the periodical "Survey Graphic." Mr. Weybright for more than two years however, has been attached to the Propoganda Bureau of the Government of the United States, with residence in London, England, with his principal office located in the United States Embassy in that city.

Mr. Weybright explained first the intent of the organization of which he is an important member. In view of the close contact with the English Government and with the English people, occasioned especially by the pres-ent World War, necessitating the presence in practically every city and town of England of large numbers of United States Soldiers in training for active military service on the Continent of Europe, it was thought wise and necessary to acquaint the English people with many things concerning the United States, its government its way of life, its attitude toward other peoples, etc. The work of the organization of which he is a part has done much to cement frindship and establish a mutual confidence among the citizens of these two nations, who speak the same language, but who heretofore, have not understood each other as well as people ought to, who must face so many common problems and must work in such close contact, In addition, Mr. Weybright's Bu-reau is responsible for radio contact with the peoples of Europe, especially those in the occupied countries. More than three hundred daily radio programs are broadcast to these peoples in their own languages to keep them informed as to the progress being made by the Allied armies, and especially to inform the people of the occupied countries as to what is expected in the way of co-operation from them in carrying out out plans for their own liberation. His crganization publishes pamphlets to the amount of several million at a time for distribution by airplanes flying over these occupied districts. Mr. Weybright's address was thoroughly enjoyed by every member present. He courteously answered a shower of questions which came from his interested audience. In the writ-er's opinion, this address was the most informative and authoritative that he has heard on the problems involved since the beginning of hostili-ties on the part of our nation. All who were present felt that they had spent a most profitable evening, and all gratefully expressed their appre-ciation to Mr. Weybright for his ad-

New Deal Controls Judiciary—Bricker

Governor John W. Bricker, Republican vice-presidential nominee, carried his campaign tour to the West Coast last week making five addresses in Washington, seven in Oregon and one in California.

In all his speeches, Governor Bricker continued his slashing at-tacks and detailed analysis of the New Deal misgovernment and the effort of the Fourth Term candidate to impose One-Man Government on the nation

Highlights from some of his eches follow:

At San Francisco, October 14th: The New Deal now is firmly in control of the Federal judiciary of the country

Since becoming president on March 4th, 1933, Mr. Roosevelt has appointed 61% of the entire life ten-ure federal judiciary in the United States. In a word, three of every five federal judges owe their appoint-ments to one man. He has appointed 88% of the judicial personnel of the United States Supreme Court; 100% of the judicial personnel of the Circuit Court of Appeals; 60% of the judicial personnel of the Customs and Patent Appeals Courts; 80% of the judicial personnel of the Claims Court; 66% of the judicial personnel of the Customs Court and 55% of the judicial personnel of the 55% of the judicial personnel of the District Courts. Mr. Roosevelt has named eight men to the United States Supreme Court, and elevated one of them to the Chief Justiceship. Seven of the eight never served on a high court prior to appointment. Three of the eight never tried a case before the court to which they were appointed. Mr. Roosevelt's appointees to the bench run strictly to the New Deal pattern. There are 275 judges on the benches of the Supreme Court, the benches of the Supreme Court, the Circuit Court of Appeals, and the District Courts. Combined, Mr. Roosevelt has appointed 165 of the total. Only 2 of them are Republi-cans. A large number were active New Dealers. . . Mr. Roosevelt has walled out from our federal courts the ideals and opinions of millions of Americans who sincere-ly oppose the New Deal on princioppose the New Deal on princi-

OUR PLAN

Titans roam the earth as Cyclops did of old,

Nations bow to their decree, few are brave and bold, Out of the Maw of Envy is spewed malice and Hate

Few can escape, and none can shun The things that for them wait. Who will arise in this our day, Modern St. George, dragon to slay. Is there such an one upon earth

Who lives in this our day? A little mouse may timid be, But from that mouse elephants flee; So standing at the door of fate,

We wait triumphant free Shall Freedom furl her banner before the Tyrant Lord? Shall Nations tremble at his tread,

Or heed his hated word? No, we who here united be will stand to the last man And when the battle smoke is brushed from out the sky You'll find Old Glory waving there so proud so high

A vote for the Republican ticket is That none of Tyrants brood will dare to change our plan.

Miss Florence Biehl, W. King St., and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nevin Biehl, York, spent the week-end in Philadelphia.

Mrs. James Staley was discharged from the Annie M. Warner Hospital, Thursday.

The Services at St. John Lutheran Church was Old Folks day and was observed at the morning service. New Testaments were presented to the oldest persons and the oldest couple present. Samuel Mayers and Joseph Bucher who are the same age received the gifts for the oldest persons and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wolfe for the oldest couple. The pastor delivered a sermon on "Withhold not thy hand." The evening service was in charge of the Tuck-A-Rache Sunday School Class taught by Mrs. Elmo Jones. Mrs. William Lippy presided. The meeting opened with a song ser-vice, after which the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Mahlon Bucher. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Elmo Jones. The ladies of the class rendered a special musical number. The address was delivered by Mrs. Ken-neth James on the subject "Come-Tarry-Go." Special recognition was gven to all the elder members of the congregation living and a memorial service was held for the older memers who have passed away during the pastorate of the Rev. James.

Mrs. Kenneth D. James and Miss Evelyn Asper left for Chambersburg where they are attending the annual convention of the Missionary Societies of the West Pennsylvania Conference.

Miss Lee Smith a cadet nurse at St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Smith.

Farm Income

Farm income continued to be affected by inflation after the Armistice in 1918 and the deflationary movement did not start until after farm income reached a new high peak in the first postwar year of 1919, with an increase of 133.7 per cent over the prewar level of 1913. The deflationary movement did not begin until 1920 and the full brunt of it was not felt until 1921.

the basic economic problems of this country. It was never able to pro-vide good-paying jobs in private in-dustry. It was never able to re-store normal prosperity in America. All it provided was made-work and the dole

The truth is that the United States never recovered her 1929 national in-come or employment until war came. That is why Governor Dewey was everlastingly right when he said that it took a war to put men to work under the New Deal. At Bremerton, Washington,

October 11th:

Time after time the administra-tion at Washington has sought to es-cape responsibility for the tragedy at Pearl Harbor and Corregidor by blaming the Republicans for its own failure in Pacific preparedness. As late as August 12th, the President said here at Bremerton, Washington, upon his return from a political tour of the Pacific: "We were not al-lowed to fortify Guam, nor did we fortify Wake, or Midway or Samoa

I call your attention to the fact that neither the Navy, the adminis-tration, nor the President has asked Congress to fortify Guam. It was not the policy of the administration to fortify Guam

The administration's Guam pro-posal was primarily to provide a commercial airport. Such would have only given bar have only given Japan more to capture.

Fortifying Guam was not in the President's program. He did not ask Congress to fortify Guam. Guam was not fortified — Japan struck. The responsibility rests squarely upon the President.

COURT CHANGE

Judges Bailey and Capper to be Removed

The "Judiciary Department" Constitutional Amendment appearing on the ballot on November 7, 1944, presents to the voters radical changes in the Maryland Court of Appeals. This proposed amendment abolishes the present Court of Appeals and creates a new Court of Appeals as of January 1, 1945. Two of the best judges on this court-Judge Bailey and Judge Capper from the first and fourth judicial circuits-will be removed from the new Court of Appeals, and ultimately the court will consist of three judges from three newly created large county appellate circuits, and two judges from Baltimore City. The judges of the new court will not be permitted to do any trial work unless the Chief Judge, the new judicial czar of Maryland, assigns them under certain conditions to do trial work. The Chief Judge is made the administrative head of the Maryland Judicial System. The trial judges would be required to report to him. He may assign city judges to sit in the Courts of the counties and county judges to sit on the Supreme Bench of Baltimore.

County Lawyers Criticized

The principal argument of those who favor this radical and far reaching change is that there are more and better lawyers in Baltimore City than there are in the counties, and that the substantial increase in the representation of Baltimore City on Court, a substantial decrease in the county representation, and the increase in the size of county areas from which appellate judges may be chosen will result in the appointment of more able and intelligent judges than the Court of Appeals has had in the past. The facts do not support this argument. The record shows that both the city and the counties have furnished excellent men. But no section in the United States has supplied judges of such superb merit as the counties of Maryland; for example, in Judge Robinson, Queen Anne's County; Judge McSherry, Frederick County; Judge Alvey, Washington County; Judge Page, Somerset County; Judge Pearce, Kent County; Judge Boyd, Allegany County; Judge Miller, Anne Arundel County; Judges Offutt and Burke, Baltimore County; Judge Parke, Carroll County. Supreme Court It is noteworthy, with the State at large to draw from, the four Maryland men who sat on the Supreme Court of the United States, and they were superlative figures, were from the counties, viz., Justice Harrison, Justice Thomas Johnson, Justice Chase, Justice Duvall and Chief Justice Taney. This is no accident; it results from the social, political and economic situations existing in the counties on one hand and in Baltimore City on the other. In Baltimore City there is a larger concentration of wealth, there are larger corporate interests than in the counties. . The leading lawyers in Baltimore City receive more compensation on the average than the leading lawyers in the counties, not because of superior ability but because of the nature of their clients. "Everlasting Punishment" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 29th. The Golden Text will be from Lam. 3:39, 40—"Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Among the citations comprising the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible-Proverbs 13:15-"Good understanding given favor; but the way of the transgressors is hard" The Lesson-Sermon also will in-clude passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, among which is the fol-lowing, page 444—"In some way, sooner or later, all must rise superiority to materiality, and suffering is oft the divine agent in this elevation."

No well-dressed woman can have too many of them. Handbags and hats add just the right finish to her of brilliant colors to contrast with a basic suit. A set such as this, the crocheted pouch bag and beribboned cap, would make a perfect Christ-mas gift for the business girl or college girl. other citizens tend to adjust their living expenses to their customary earnings so that unless a leading member of the Baltimore Bar has substantial independent means and a deep feeling of civic obligation to serve the public in the judicial office, the judicial office is not attractive.

Governor Ritchie Opposed Similar Plan

In 1924 when a similar proposal to tinker with the Court of Appeals was urged, Governor Albert C. Ritchie opposed and defeated this plan, stating in effect: "The only way to get more eminent men on the Court of Appeals from Baltimore City is to increase the salaries of Court members." On the other hand, the leading members of the County Bar are not faced with the same financial adjustments which similar Baltimore City lawyers face when they accept judicial office. The salary provided for judicial offices is generally adequate to maintain the leading county lawyers and their families in their accustomed high standard of living. judicial office. These observations are not theories, they are facts. They represent the realities in the situation. The increasing cost of living and the subjection of judicial salaries to Federal income taxation increase rather than decrease the chances of obtaining better judges from the counties than from Baltimore City. It serves no useful purpose to increase the opportunity for selection if those whose selection is desired cannot afford to or will not accept appointment.

The facts do not support the argument advanced in favor of the proposed second amendment. The pro-posed change is unsound. Vote against the amendment and protect the present Court of Appeals of Maryland from deterioration.

WHEN Hyder fumbled his rifle and dropped it, that first morning at drill, most of us recruits and some of the older heads snickered. "Silence in the ranks," thundered Sergeant Kane.

Hyder made no move to recover his rifle—just stood staring down at it in trancelike horror. "Don't be afraid of it, guy," Kane said. "It won't bite anybody but them Axis bums.

But Hyder was afraid of a gun; all guns, as we learned later. His hands would tremble every time he touched one. So, naturally, he drew a low rating in rank-and-file judgment. His only champion was Bar-ry, another rookie. "I know the guy. You fellows don't," Barry told us in the squad room.

"We know he's afraid of guns. He must be yellow," came the answer. "You're wrong, all of you," Barry argued. "Hyder and I were raised in the same town, on the same block. He's no coward—just gun shy. Born that way, same as some people are born with blue eyes, others brown." Someone said, "Bah, he's . . ." and cut the speech short. Another glanced toward the door but immediately looked away.

Hyder seemed rooted on the threshold, towhead thrust forward, eyes squinting, his squatty body taut, hard.

For a moment, he held his belligerent pose and then, eyes straight ahead, he walked slowly and deliberately down the aisle between the two rows of cots. He stopped be-fore his friend. "Thanks, Barry," he said, and turned and left the room this was Bataan and the jungle and the Nips. We were on outpost duty, Barry and Hyder with us. Sergeant Kane was in charge. Eight of the men rested in pup tents while four others watched from foxholes out front. Behind the tents, in a tiny clearing where we'd chopped away the creepers and the thick bush, Hyder was cooking our noonday meal. Yes, Barry had been right. The gun-shy lad could really cook and he loved the job, too. I watched him now, bending over the stew pot, pouring in special seasoning he'd concocted from native spices.

As he stepped back from the cauldron he nodded at me and yelled, "Come and get it." But right then things happened all at once. The little monkey men swarmed out of the jungle. No noise, no warning till the bullets whistled through the mist.

"Rush for the tents and grab a Garand," I shouted at Hyder and acted on my own advice. The next few minutes were a mad whirlshots cracking, bayonets twirling, men reeling, going down. My arms were weak from the shock of thrust and parry. Then suddenly the surg-ing tide of Nips swerved and we stood in the clear. I glanced toward the cook pots and saw a towhead bobbing and weaving, surrounded by Japs. The squatty body and heavy shoulders heaved to the swing of a baseball bat.

I moved fast, Barry and Sergeant Kane running beside me. We hit that circle and speared us a Nip apiece; Hyder was still swinging. We got through to him and the yellow boys scattered. Barry and Kane carried him to a tent and I looked at the red-smeared weapon lying on the ground. There were eighteen dead Japs sprawled one upon another-every head busted by Hyder's favorite instrument. In the tent Sergeant Kane was swabbing a wound in Hyder's thigh. A bayonet thrust had got him. His shirt was off and there was a long slash across his ribs.

I said, "You did wrong, buddy. According to rules, you should have ducked those Nips and joined the rest of us, back to back. How come "But they were after our chow," he protested. "They hooked that pot of stew and tried to run with it. How could I let them get away with it?"

LESSON TEXT-Psalm 4:5-8; Luke 4:4; John 6:35; Romans 12:1, 2; 13:12-14. GOLDEN TEXT-Seek those things which are above.-Colossians 3:1.

Disciplined living should be the goal of each of us. Life is not to be lived carelessly, influenced by chance events or passing impulses. Such discipline of life would keep men from the temptations which lead them into intemperance and sin

A life can be properly disciplined, only as it is controlled by Christian motives. Such a life has

I. Spiritual Gladness (Ps. 4:5-8). The psalmist had faced the distressing questioning of men who derided him for his faith. They were unbelievers who demanded of him what good his religion did (v. 6). He has an answer, and it is the testimony of his own experience.

Those around him sought gladness in the harvest of grain and in the wine which was supposed to give a lift to their spirits. This was their joy. Well, the man of God had something infinitely superior. He had gladness in his heart. It was not dependent on outward circumstances-it was within.

Then note, too, that it did not rest on something that happened, or on some fellow man. "Thou (God) hast put gladness in my heart." That means real joy and satisfaction. II. Spiritual Food (Luke 4:4; John 6:35).

It is delightful to have true gladness, but man needs food if he is to grow and to work. That is true spiritually, for he must have the needed nourishment of life here also.

Jesus when tempted (Luke 4:4) because He was hungry saw beyond the temporal need, and declared that life should be controlled by a higher principle. The spiritual has a place of supremacy over the physical in the life of the Christian man or woman. The body with its desires is to be subject to the definite control of the spirit, which takes its orders from God.

The explanation of the awful alco-holic debauchery of our day is found right here. Men have given their bodies the supreme authority and they are driven by the lusts of their flesh. What they need more than legal reform or restriction of sale of liquor (and we believe in both) is the regeneration of their souls by the grace of God in Christ Jesus. Let us bring them the gospel.

The

John 6:35 makes known the fact that Jesus, the bread of life, satisfies every need of men. Every nor-mal hunger and thirst finds full satisfaction in Him. Have you tried Him as the One to meet the need of your hungry heart?

Note that it is a "living sacrifice" that is said to be "holy, ac-ceptable to God." This is not a case of a single act of deep devotion (great as that may be), but a going on in the daily walk to live for Christ. That calls for grace and power, and He is ready and willing to give both to each of His children.

That experience with God means non-conformity to the world, which is too little spoken of and less practiced in the church to-The one who professes to folday. low Christ is simply not to be conformed to the ways of this wicked world. There is to be a completely transforming experience of the grace of God, that takes you out of this world while you are still in it. IV. Spiritual Walk (Rom. 13:12-14). Christians are the children of the morning. They walk in the light (I John 1:7). This world walks in darkness. No one needs any argument to prove that point-just look about you. The deeds of darkness are evil deeds, and men dwell in darkness because they love evil (John 3:19). That means that the children of light must walk circumspectly and "becomingly" (that's a good word!) in this world. Thus we may attract others out of the darkness into the light, so that they too may put aside "reveling and drunkenness," yes, and also "strife and jealousy." Those go together.

The way to victory is to be clothed with the Lord Jesus and His righteousness (v. 14). That is a real "armor of light" with which we may be protected.

Note also that we are studiously to avoid making any provision for the desires of the flesh. Put such things away, and with them will go the temptation to use them. Some professing Christians need to heed this word by destroying some beverages which they may have on hand-just to give one example.

with them, it has sought to fasten upon the individual citizen the deadening hand of bureaucratic control. "That's why it's time for a change."

Defend The Maryland Court Of Appeals

The voters of Maryland in the heat of the Presidential election must not fail to vote against the ratification of the second Constitutional Amendment to appear on the ballot on November 7, 1944.

This proposed amendment abolishes the Maryland Court of Appeals and reorganizes it as a new court as of January 1, 1945. It is a step backward.

The present Court of Appeals was established in the present Constitution of 1867. It consists of seven Chief Judges from the seven County Circuits, and one Judge from the Baltimore City, or Eighth Judicial Circuit. The new court will ultimately consist of five appellate judges. This is accomplished by reducing the seven County Chief Judges to three appellate judges and increasing the representation of the Baltimore City Circuit from one judge to two judges. Thus the representation of the County Circuits on the Court of Appeals is decreased 33.1/3%, while the repre-sentation of the Baltimore City Cir-cuit is increased 100%. Two judges will be a quorum. The judges of the proposed new court would not be permitted to sit in the trial courts unless designated by the Chief Judge when certain conditions exist. The Chief Judge in the new court will be the judicial czar of Maryland. All the City and County trial judges must report to him and under certain conditions he may designate trial judges to sit in the Court of Appeals and appellate judges or trial judges from one circuit to sit in the trial courts of another circuit. If these revolutionary changes should be adopted by the people, Chief Judge Levin Claude Bailey of the First Judicial Circuit, consisting of Worcester, Somerset, Wicomico and Dorchester Counties, and Chief Judge Walter C. Capper of the Fourth Judicial Circuit consisting of Washington, Allegany and Garrett Counties will not be members of the new court. These two gentlemen are valuable, intelligent and able members of the present Court of Appeals, and their elimination from the new Court of Appeals would be a serious loss to the efficient work of that court.

The present Court of Appeals has functioned well for the past 77 years. Its dockets are up to date. No man has lost his life, liberty or property without due process of law by any decision of the present court. Under the present system, there is no possibility of "packing" the Court of Appeals-it simply cannot be done.

Against this security in the Maryland Judicial System, it is proposed to adopt a system which has been tried twice in Maryland and which did not work. From 1776 to 1806, there were 5 judges of the Court of Appeals doing appellate work only. This plan failed and was abolished by the people in 1806. In 1851 a similar system was attempted with 4 judges doing appellate work only. The Court of Appeals got behind in its work and one additional appellate judge was added in 1864 making a total of 5 appellate judges. This court of five appellate judges continued to get behind in its work, and in 1867, there were 187 cases undecided. To remedy this situation the present Court of Appeals was established, and as the late Chief Judge Bond stated in 1940: "And it was not long before every case on the docket of each term was given an opportunity for a hearing at that term; and this has been done ever since.' The proposed new Court of Appen' has failed twice in Maryland;

esent Court of Appeals has succeeded for 77 years.
