BIG RESPONSE TO THE MASS X-RAY SURVEY

Dr. W. C. Stone reports that the Mass X-ray Survey for Tuberculosis carried on jointly by the Health Department and the Maryland Tuberculosis Society closed Friday, Aug.

The number reporting for examination the second week was practically the same as the first week. The total number for both weeks was three thousand one hundred and twentyfive (3,125).

This number was way beyond all calculation and expectations. The large amount of interest taken in the project and response of the people came about through the fine cooperation of the pastors and church groups, lodges, service clubs, physicians, the press, city officials, business employers, and especial interest in assistance given by a Four-H Girls'

The members of the Oxford Methodist Church where Rev. Love is the Paston in Baltimore, chartered a bus and along with privately owned machines arrived at the farm at 8:30 all singing "The Anniversary Song" as they

All being city people, they were delighted at the method of the corn roast as in Indian fashion which Rev. Love prepared and enjoyed the dif-ference of the delicious taste. As the machines and bus slowly left the driveway at the hour of ten all the members singing, "Good Night, Sweethearts" to the tune of "Good Night, Ladies."

THE OLD WALL CLOCK

The old clock, hanging on the wall, Sends forth the ticks—the second call And running on both night and day Divides the time for work and play. No matter what the season be The clock ticks with agility. Men work and play just as they like,

DEDICATION

Of Parish House at Pinev

The new Social Hall at the Piney Creek Presbyterian Church was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies last Friday night, August 20. A large number participated in the program including the quartette from the Taneytown Reformed Church Choir. The address was given by Mr. Eugene Shoemaker, president of Pennsylvania Teacher's Association. Mr. Shoemaker's ancestry goes back to the beginning of the church. Also Prof. Thurlow W. Null, a neighbor and friend of the church, spoke on the place of the Social Hall in the program of the church. Norman R. Hess acted as Master of Ceremonies. And the Pastor, the Rev. Charles S. church grounds.
One unique feature about the hall is the fact that it was dedicated free of debt. When the undertaking was launched less than two years ago there was no building fund on hand. Through liberal donations of time, labor, money, and material, the project was financed as it was constructed. The Men's Brotherhood of the church acted as the building committee. The new building is equipped with a modern kitchen, electric stove, dining tables, and running water.

AROUND THE TOWN

I wish you always near so that I may

Well, folks Your Observer surely slipped upon the following. One day recently, I happened to park above the square and walked down to the corner when suddenly I saw a little jewelry store. I stopped nautrally and looked in the window. I entered the door and was amazed to find myself in one of the nicest kind of stores neat—and orderly and systematic. What interested me was the seriousness of the owner as he continued on with his work as I gazed around. So many clocks having been repaired and all awaiting for their owner's call. All types of clocks—some very old ones—one in particular, I noticed was so much like the one my Dad used to wind nightly that graced an old-fashioned mantel in the dining room. Betcha, when that mechanic fixes things they stay fixed. Nice part too he was from Westminster-still

Carroll County. Other day, my kitchen radio went on the blink so suddenly and I knew immediately it was a tube. As I drove to the square learned after making inquiries that we have a new radio man "around the town" and he sure has convinced Your that he knows that business the manner in which he examined two radios as I stood by and watched him. Betcha, he will help build up that business! Can't help but write this one about that nice Policeman—Folks, you should see how careful he was in assisting three little girls across to the opposite corner at the square. Ever notice his big eyes that can read one through and through? Somehow he does not have to smile with his lips for his eyes do the talking. Nuff

Your Observer sure has learned about the cost of raising chickens and why they are so expensive. First of all if one does not raise the feed, it is simply out of the question with feed so high these days to purchase. Each chicken will have cost me $3.00 for our table use and I think that I would rather and perfer buying one at a time and place it in the refriger-ator until it is ready to be cooked!

The two little city girls left for their home and their little hostess went to bed for the entire morning in seclusion. One never knows what is in a little child's heart and mind. One of these little girls related to me that the teacher in her school told her that she did not like the child. The mother upon learning this called on the principal who immediately placed the child with another teacher. That is one teacher that should not be allowed to teach school

Last week met a little boy who has September 2 and 3—Men born in called at my home several times and eptember 4 and 7—Men born in the course of the conversation told me that he had never used in the course of the conversation he tooth brush in fact as he put it said he never had one. When Your Observer went to town, I purchased one especially for him which I felt would be rather inviting for the daily duty. Believe it or not, I had to teach the child how to scrub his teeth.

Did you know there is a new light. ing arrangement that is a beautiful picture that is the perfect light for luxury in any room of the house? It is called "Lightolier" and it is most unique, adding such interest to the wall in any desired subject that will harmonize with the rest the room. Even to reading in bed which has solved the problem of plentiful glareless light which is called "Decoralite".

Well, folks, "Punch 2nd" has really adopted "Lady Evaque" and "Sir Florian" beautifully and all sleep in the same room. Thinking of odd nice things of some years back, Your Observer recalls upon visiting Baltimore for the first time and was taken to Maryland Theatre which was 'Keith's Circuit' by my relatives who resided in the quaint little capitol of Annapolis and there was a certain usher there who was most pleasant—a middle aged lady. The ushers always wore a gray uniform and during intermission a long narrow tray with a handle was brought around by the ushers to be served to the patrons and believe it or not there was lemonade in those glasses. That was only the beginning of my love for that Monumental city and it's people. I have always thought that Balti-A few additional rules have been more could really boast of it's southlaid down covering special cases, as girls. And God said "Let there be light" and there was light, and darkness was dispelled. A new day had arrived and held all matter in its form. Storms raged and then did perform. The duty that to them was assigned, nor was it to that duty blind. The light that shown upon the world was but the effelgence of the Lord. For at that time nor moon, nor stars did shine. All was designed to fit in natures mould. And everything that was was told by symbol only. That was then and is now God's way and plan for His creative man.

CONGRESS CHALLENGES TRUMAN

It is fair to assume that Senator Wiley, of Wisconsin, is regarded as the top lawyer in the Upper Chamber and that explains why he was selected by the Senate as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee. He challenges the right of President Truman to withold certain "necessary information from the Congress, particularly on Communist infiltration in Government."

The Senator charges that "this stalling, in effect, sabotages Congressional machinery. The Founding Fathers of the Constitution never contemplated that the three independent branches of Government would be in three airtight compartments." The Wiley statement was the first from a spokesman for the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Attorney General Tom Clark has refused to turn over testimony and records that Congress asked for-acting, no doubt, on instructions from President Truman.

Chairman Ferguson of the Senate Expenditures subcommittee investigating Communist lactivities and Chairman Revercomb of the Senate Committee on Immigration and Naturalization also denounced the refusal of the Administration to furnish Congress data concerning alleged influences in our country.

These three Senators hand stinging rebukes to the Administration for refusing "cooperation and collaboration" with Congress.

This political disturbance was started by the President. And so the Congress wants to create an investigation agency of its own. Senator Wiley is being supported in calling for an agency to be staffed by investigators trained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation under J. Edgar Hoover. Good idea!

As a matter of fact leading Democrats and Republicans in Congress are sore, because President Truman witholds information from Congress concerning Communists and their infiltration into the affairs of the American Government. And it should be perfectly plain to everyone that this political row was started by the President for his own political benefit.-National Industries News Ser-

Gettysburg, Pa.

An American's Faith This year at the commencement exercises of Harding College a notable address was delivered. It was no ordinary speech. The burden of its message was so signficant, and the appeal so earnest, that I wish the audience had been many times larger. I am therefore taking this method of passing to you a portion of this solid and thoughtful address. It was made by Mr. Lamar Fleming, Jr., of Houston, Texas.

"This historic responsibility is new to us. . . . But those who view accomplishments in the atomic laboratories and the development of other terrible means of destruction must recognize that no one on earth longer has the power to decide whether he will live alone. That power of decision has passed to those who are evil enough to . . use terrible new weapons for their evil designs-unless mankind combines to prevent them from so doing.

Our Call from Destiny

"If we accept that, being sons of God, we are brothers to all Mankind, and that we are the only nation strong enough to lead Mankind to combine for suppression of violence and recovery of Peace, we cannot reject the role to which our Destiny calls us. We will cherish the memory of more placid days, when this responsibility was not upon us, but we cannot reject our Destiny.

"We must enter this role in humility, conscious of our shortcomings and determined to overcome them to the best of our ability. We must search our souls. We must do more than conquer the resistance to truth which springs from our animal instincts. We must chastise all who seek to inflame and prey upon our group grievances, greeds, and hatreds. We must remind ourselves constantly that our duty of human brotherhood is no less to distant peoples . . . than to our neighbors in our home towns.

Men of Good Will "We must realize that peace and well-being will not return to them nor remain with us unless we achieve the ability to work together in a brotherly and mutually helpful company, each placing the common good above the greeds and ambitions of any person, group, or nation. We must include ples temporarily prevented from cooperation toward the common good and must pray for the day when their chains will be removed and they will be free to join our com-

"Above all, we must require of this great undertaking that it function by the standards of millions of individual consciences, which are the communion of sons and daughters with their Spiritual Fathernot by group, party, or national ethics, in which conscience gives al instincts, fears, and passions of the herd, and responsibility is spread so thin that no one feels it as his own. This calls for a profound spiritual revival-in us. and in all men and women of good

Well of Goodness . . I have faith that all men and women everywhere have something in common between them, that is fundamentally good, and that time and great effort and patience will restore the mutual flow of this goodness and understanding between them, not merely in your lifetime but also in mine. . . . have great faith that the well of goodness in the Americans of your generation will be full enough start the mutual flow.'

Uncle Sam Says

Regardless of the heat wave, you can't afford to be lazy about your future, because the future holds for you what you hold for the future. Ben Franklin didn't make this statement, but any United States Savings Bonds payroll saver who works with you could claim this bit of advice as his or her own. All he has to do is to sign his name once on the card for the United States Savings Bonds payroll savings plan. His employer does all the rest. Three dollars saved through the payroll savings plan get Mr. Summertime Lazybones four dollars 10 years hence.

Atom-Charged Elements Aid Doctors' Diagnosis

British medical men are soon to call on atom aid for important new experiments in diagnosing serious dis-

A large atomic pile at Harwell Research station, Berkshire, will start operating shortly. It will produce enough atomic by-products for Britain's own immediate needs and a possible surplus for export to the continent.

The "atomic doctors" will work in close collaboration with the American specialists who already have atomic by-products in use.

"The Gleep", a small-scale pile at Harwell, is already "cooking" 160 samples of radio-active chemicals a month-carbon, sodium, potassium, iodine, gold, silver and so on. Increased quantities from the new pile will meet the demands of research workers and doctors all over Britain.

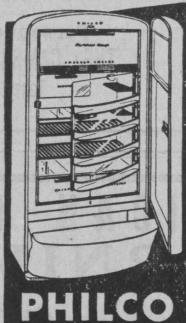

These radio-active elements are the trail-blazers of great new discoveries in medical science. When fed into diseased tissues of the human body, they act like radium. They can be traced through the most complicated processes or into the most inaccesible parts of the body.

Remarkable results of scientific diagnosis by atom-charged elements have already been had. In cases of gangrene, for instance, surgeons are never sure how far the disease has spread nor how much of the limb ought to be amputated. Radio-active chemicals "light up" the gangrenous tissues and they can operate accur-

In Loving Memory of our wife and mother BESSIE VIRGINIA SIX, who passed away two years ago, August 29, 1946.

Peaceful be thy rest, dear mother, It is sweet to breathe they name; In life we loved you dearly, In death we do the same.

In our heart your memory lingers, Always tender, fond and true; There's not a day, dear mother, That we do not think of you.

Memories are treasures no one can steal; Death is a heartache nothing can heal; Some may forget you, now that you're But we'll remember you, dear Mother no matter how long.

Sleep on dear Mother, take your rest, We loved you dearly, God loved you best. Silently, tenderly in tears we pray, To meet you in Heaven again some day. By her HUSBAND and FAMILY.

In Loving Memory of my dear Mother, BESSIE VIRGINIA SIX, who passed away two years ago, August 29, 1946.

Two years have passed since that sad day The one we loved was called away; God took her home, it was His will But in our hearts she liveth still.

Before our eyes she faded, Growing weaker every day, Doing all we could to save her, Until God took her away.

We miss her help, her cheery ways, With her we spent our happiest days, We miss her when we need a friend In her we always could depend.

From this world of pain and sorrow, To a land of peace and rest. God has taken you, dear Mother Where you have eternal rest. Oft we wander to the graveyard, To place flowers with tender care On the grave of our dear Mother Who is resting sweetly there.

Her loving daughter, MARION AND FAMILY. In Loving Memory of Mother, BESSIE V. SIX, who departed this life two years ago, Aug. 29, 1946. Though suffering, she breathed not a Though sunering, she breathed not a murmur,

For the Comforter stood by her side And whispered, "Fear not, I am with thee,

With Me shalt thou ever abide."

On the river a pale boatman hastened, She heard the soft dip of his oar; Then from earth and sorrow he bore her Across to that beautiful shore.

Often our thoughts do wander To your grave not far away, Where we laid you dearest Mother Just two years ago today. Her loving daughter CLARA AND FAMILY.

Everything is neat and clean and kept in perfect order. Oregonians are very proud of their Capitol Building.

The State Capitol stands in its own park, adjoining Willson Park and seemingly a part of it. In the two parks are more than four hundred varieties of trees. Near the east entrance of the capitol is the Circuit Rider, a bronze equestrian statue of life size, commemorating the pioneer missionary, Rev. Robert Booth. Ananias. He was a shining exception.

There are three Ananiases in the New Testament, and this one makes up for the other two. One of the others was a rascally priest and one was a famous liar; but this Ananias, another of the "unheralded" characters from the Bible, is famed for going when God said, "Go." We know nothing much else about him,

No Wonder He Hesitated

but this is enough.

IT WAS just after the conversion of Saul. At the time of our story, nobody had ever heard of Paul, only of Saul as he was then called; and nobody heard anything good. He was a bitter, ruthless man. He had no use for Christians. Extermination was his only answer to the Christian challenge. The name of Saul brought terror.

On this day of our story Saul had been only three days a Christian. He had had nothing to eat all that time, and he was said to be blind. You may be sure that Christians stayed away from him. His Jerusalem cronies had no doubt given him up as crazy; but no Christian would go near him either. At this point our Ananias had a vision: The Lord told him to go to Saul and lay his hands on him in help and blessing. Naturally Ananias held back. This was a dangerous man, said he. But again the Lord in the vision said, "Go." and Ananias went.

Suppose Ananias had said "No"? That might have changed the whole course of Christian history. How? He could have thought of many an excuse. "Aren't there other men who can baptize Saul as well as I can? . . . This whole vision may be only a mistake . . ." And so forth. But not when it became clear to him that this was God's will, Ananias went, though he still did not like it.

How is it with you? When you know what you ought to do, what is the first thing you think of? How to do it, or how to get out of doing it?

Taking Orders From God

HOW CAN we tell when it is really God who commands us? Most Christians today are suspicious of visions, and well we may be. Too many crazy things have been done by people who saw "visions" for us to trust such experiences

One way in which God's orders come to us is in the Word of God, particularly in the words of Christ. For example, take one of the hardest things Jesus ever said: "LOVE YOUR ENE-MIES AND PRAY FOR THOSE WHO PERSECUTE YOU." That sounds tough. It is tough. But it is a command. Yet don't most of us leave that command in the closed Bible and act as if the words had never been said?

That brings up another question. Is it likely that Ananias became fond of Saul all at once? Hardly. Ananias could not have liked the man; there was then nothing about him to like. We know from Paul's own words that people generally were not attracted by his looks. Yet Ananias, who could not have liked Saul, much less been fond of him, went and called him "Brother" and gave him his start in the Christian

Do You Know a Saul?

NOT FAR from where you are sitting at this moment there may be someone like Saul. He is a Christian, but a new and (so far) poor one, maybe. Someone nobody believes in, someone you scarcely know. It may be a child out of some low-grade home; it may be an ex-drunkard (not so long over it) or an ex-convict even; perhaps someone who has actually done you a wrong.

But this person may be just where Saul was, needing a friend. God may already have touched his heart, all he needs now is the human touch of a Christian friend. Maybe you can't love him, can't even like him; but if he is a human soul God loves him. If you can help him, then you are his Ananias. You know what you ought to do. Will you do it?
