VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL CLOSED LAST FRIDAY

Annual Outing and Picnic Held Thursday in Big Pipe Creek Park

The Vacation Bible School in Taneytown closed last Friday night with the concluding exercises by the children. After a session of two weeks under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Annan as Director of Religious Education the school was brought to its cation, the school was brought to its conclusion with an attractive program witnessed by 250 patrons. Each grade, from the kindergarten to the seventh grade, took part in the program. After this program the audience was treated to two moving pictures under the supervision of Pastor Glenn L. Stahl. KIWANIS NEWS

Rev. Reifsnyder Addresses Club Wednesday Evening

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club was held on Wednesday last at Taney Inn. In the absence of President Lewis Crumpacker, Vice-President David Smith presided. The invocation was given by Kiwanian Clyde Hessor

After a delightful chicken dinner, those present enjoyed group singing under the direction of Kiwanian Wallace Reindollar and accompanied by Mrs. Estella Yingling.

The meeting was devoted to a discussion of Kiwanis activities under the leadership of Kiwanian Miles S. Reifsnyder, who explained the importance of having active committees in order to fulfill the central purpose of Kiwanis. In order that each club of Kiwanis. In order that each club might be properly recognized for its achievements, it is necessary that committees submit comprehensive monthly reports to the secretary who,

The teachings of great teachers never die. These lessons, however, are not always carefully observed. The GREAT TEACHER gave the world the following commandment: "Love thy neighbor as thyself." certain lawyer willing to justify himself, asked: "And who is my neighbor?" There is still a lot of people who don't know who their neighbor is the contract of the certain th is. Even in this twentieth century many are asking this inexcusable question: "And who is my neighbor?" The primary reason for asking the question is not for information tion, an explanation, but to escape an obligation.

A neighbor is no longer limited to the person living next door. Such is a circumscribed view and was bad enough in the horse and buggy days, himself. Your neighbor largely made you what you are. Your neighbor largely The hymn, "Courage Brother do not bor is largely responsible for what you possess. Have you ever paused to think of the people who make your life richer, fuller, more comfortable, and happier? Yes, no man lives unto himself. In a real sense a man is his himself. In a real sense a man is his brother's keeper. We feel the guilt of the guilty, the sorrow of the sorrowing, the joy of the joyful. last day on earth may afford new light, but then it may too late to remember a neighbor. Pride, selfishness, bigotry, prejudice, jealousy, fear, and distrust, too often blind our eyes and cloud the vision to the best in a fellow man. "A half dollar held alone anough to compare the self alone anough to the self alone and the self alone and the self alone and the self alone anough to the self alone and the self alone and the self alone anough the self alone and the self alone and the self alone anough the self alone and the self alone and the self alone and the self alone and the self alone anough the self alone anough the self alone and the self alone anough the self alone anough the self alone and the self alone anough th held close enough to our eye can shut out the sun!"

Then, there are some who ask, "To what extent are we to love our neighbor?" Again, we resort to the Great Teacher for the answer: "Love thy neighbor as thyself." Now that might be little or much. It might be for chove or for under his true be far above or far under his true worth. We are enjoined not to think more highly of ourselves than we ought to think. On the other hand, it is possible to insult our Creator by thinking too little of ourselves.
To think too much of ourself might establish a barrier between us and our neighbor. For it frequently hap-pens that the fellow who loves himself a great deal, loves his neighbor very little. It was no less a personage than William Jennings Bryan, who said:

"God has made us neighbors; let justice make us friends."

ON THE VINE

Make a food that's very fine Make a food that very fine Nothing else so suits the taste And there is but little waste For the rind sweet pickles make That might otherwise seem crude, What a blessing we possess In the things we love the best, Nothing seems to e'er be lost Only when the early frost Nips the things that mature slow As the seasons come and go.
In the Spring we have the peas
Rhubarb pies too if you please
Surely these are blessings all Upon which we duly call To produce our daily food— Sometimes bad, mostly good, God is good to mortal man Man should daily plan To serve God as best he can Without fear.

G. H. ENFIELD OUR GREATEST ASSET

Asset is a more interesting subject than liability. The first suggests gain, the second, loss. The former indicates progress, moving ahead, going forward; the latter is a subtraction, a taking from, an indebtedness.

Many things are involved in assets and liabilities. These are not confined merely to the material. Too often we limit profit and loss to dollars and cents. Our biggest assets are spiritual. Jesus indicates this much when He asks: "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole when He asks: "What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own life?"

Did you ever think of people as assets? Yes, friends are our greatest assets. No amount of material wealth is a substitute for friends. It is possible to live without riches, but it is not possible to live without it is not possible to live without friends. When we lose a friend we lose something that money cannot buy. None of us has too many friends. If we have one genuine friend, we possess wealth untold. Some of us may count our acquaintances by the scores, but fortunate, ances by the scores, but fortunate, are we, indeed, when we have as many true friends as can be counted on the fingers of one hand. Friends are more than mere acquaintances. A friend will go with you all the way, in both fair and foul weather.

No less a person than Shakespeare said: "The friends thou hast and their adoption tried, grapple them to thy bosom with hoops of steel." And are not all familiar with Will Roger's appraisal: "I never met a man I did appraisal: "I never met a man I did not like." Stevenson spoke of "a few friends, but those without capitulation.

Who has not been ministered unto, who has not been comforted in lonely hours, who has not been accompanied to the brink of the grave by loyal friends! Your success in business, your election to office, your happiness, is determined more or less by your friends.

Yes, the possession of a few loyal friends is far better than silver and gold. He who has friends is rich indeed. He who has a friend has a stay under all circumstances, a support in all viciss tudes of life.

LETTERS FROM BOYS' STATE

Holy Name Society St. Joseph's Church, Taneytown, Md.

Gentlemen

Taneytown, Md. Gentlemen:

First and foremost I want to extend to the men of the Holy Name Society my very sincere gratitude for giving me the opportunity to be at Boy's State this year.

Now, I guess it is fitting that I tell you some of the things we are granted and a few of the things we are obligated to do.

I arrived at 12 o'clock noon, Friday, the 23rd Mr. Poorbaugh, our director, told us, all day Friday we had "free time," therefore, we made good use of it by going swimming, at 5 P. M. we "fell out" for chow and believe me, the army has good cooks. At 10 o'clock lights in the barracks must be out and a half an hour later they check our bunks or cots to see that we are in. We "fall out" for chow at 6 A. M., making our cots, wash up, and at 6:20 we're on our way to the "Mess hall." So far, over the week-end, there hasn't been too much to do in the way of voting, campaigning, drawing of platforms. much to do in the way of voting, campaigning, drawing of platforms, etc., etc., consequently there isn't too much information I can give you at this time.

I will follow up this letter with another one and by that time more things will have happened and I can give you a better look at our state in Ft. Meade. Until then I will close by again thanking you for this opportunity.

Yours truly, BILL MYERS.

FEESERSBURG

The 4th of July this year was as safe and sane as one could expect in these days when death by violence seems the way to die and living to the senile age of 80 or 90 is just what this generation does not want to do. We took the fire cracker and the cap pistol away from our children to make the 4th safe and handed them in their place an 85 horse power engine and a speed limit of 50 miles per hour. There is something unhealthy in our thinking when we try to make life "safe" for certainly our inde-pendence which we celebrate so vio-lently was not won by playing "safe". Nor should we hold our life and others so cheaply that 600 persons can be killed each holiday and we read about it with the same apathy that we read about tomorrow's weather report.

There was an election of officers following Sunday School at Mt. Union Lutheran Church, Sunday morning. The following were elected: Superintendent, Frank Bohn; Assistant Superintendent, Ralph Bair; Secretary, Emmett Miller; Treasurer, Edward Dayhoff and pianist, Patsy Legalized gambling is frowned upon by most people and with good reason, but when one considers the annual gambling "take" is 20 billion-nearly one-half of this country's budget then one has to wonder whether this money couldn't be chan-neled somewhere that it could do some good. For instance, Ireland has used the sweepstake tickets to build and keep her hospitals going for many years. Since betting seems to be a human weakness or virtue, (which ever side you happen to be on and one that laws do not seem to be able to eradicate, then it should be used to furnish some good.

Mrs. Clara Crouse, of Clear Ridge, celebrated her 81st birthday last week at a small supper party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Wolfe. Other guests present were her son, Russell and Mr. and Mrs. William Corbin.

Another birthday was celebrated when Mrs. David Miller gave a din-ner in honor of her husband's birthday. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bush and daughter, Charlene; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leppo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lease and son, Charles, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Myers.

Maybe our neighbors have the answer to this holiday problem. For a survey shows that of the ten families living at Mt. Union only one took the day off. Two were plowing corn, two were combining barley, one was harvesting peas, one was threshing barley, one was hauling in straw and two were making hay

Two little girls didn't know what to give their dogs a bath. One dog had already been conditioned to bathing and he sat in the tub taking the scrubbing with canine fortitude but the other dog had never been bathed before and she decided she just was-n't going to have any. For about ten minutes water, soap, girls and dog were tangled in a free for all. Finally, the dog gave up and all. Finally, the dog gave up and all. Finally is were co-hostesses. Mrs. James Lefever led in the singing accompanied by Mrs. Denton Wantz, and prayer by Mrs. ly, the dog gave up and very self-consciously submitted to the torture. When she was turned loose clean and shining minus all her fleas she rolled on the grass and then made off to the nearest dust pile and when she re-turned you couldn't tell whether she was mud or dog. The girls were dis-guested and decided bathing a dog was a waste of time.

St. Swithin's Day is July 15 and old tradition tells us that if it rains on this day it will continue to rain for forty days. St. Swithin, after whom this day is named, was a man of unusual piety. He was a churchman and Bishop of Winchester of Saxon, England, in 852 A.D. Prior to that he had served as tutor for King Egbert's son. Bishop Swithin died in 862 A.D. and was buried in the churchyard at Winchester, as he had requested, where "passers by might tread on his grave, and where rain from the eves might fall on it.' A century later it was decided to remove his body from the churchyard. His body was moved twice at later dates, but there is no mention in old Chronicles of any unusual rainfall on these occasions. Nevertheless, the legend persists to this day. An old rhyme, once sung by children, reads:

"St. Swithin's Day if thou dost rain For 40 days it will remain St. Swithin's Day if thou be fair For 40 days twill rain nae mair.'

New Betholine & Sinclair Breaking Records

World's First Anti-Rust Fuels with RD-119 Selling at Record Rate!

There's a big swing to New BETHOLINE and New SINCLAIR. Smart motorists tested New Betholine and New Sinclair against their former fuels and they're coming back for more and more . . . and no wonder! New Betholine and New SINCLAIR are the World's First Anti-Rust Fuels. They have the Highest Anti-Knock in history. They're Power-Packed with High Octane components. They're great fuels and they're selling at a record rate.

More Than Ever POWER-PAC

It takes skillfully-blended, great gasolines to release the amazing power of modern high-compression engines. That's just what you get in New Betholine and New SINCLAIR. More than ever, they're power-packed with volatile High Octane components to give you fast getaway in traffic . . . smooth surging power on the open highways . . . reserve pep for instant response on hills. Add all this to the highest anti-knock in history and you've got really great fuels. Test NEW premium BETHOLINE or New regular priced SINCLAIR . . . each is a leader in its field. Find out for yourself why they are winning more and more Maryland motorists . . . breaking all sales records.

Now at NO EXTRA COST ANTI-RUST Protection

NOW to STOP RUST!

HERE'S PROOF

RUSTED (left) During prescribed laboratory test, this steel rod was rusted in ordinary gasoline containing a small amount of water.

PROTECTED (right) During the same test, this steel rod was protected from rust in new Betholine & Sinclair containing the same amount of water plus Anti-Rust RD-119.

RD-119, the miracle Anti-Rust chemical in new BETHOLINE & SINCLAIR gasolines, guards your fuel system against rust and corrosion. Here's how: water collects in your gas tank-yours and everyone else's, due to moisture condensation. Result: the inside of your tank can rust while other non-ferrous engine parts corrode. Rust and corrosion particles in carburetors and fuel pumps are frequent causes of stalling, slow pick-up, jerky operation, wasted gas and costly repairs. Start now to stop rust. Drive in at the BETHOLINE-SINCLAIR sign.

Not Much Chance

MOSES was such a man. At many times in his life, if you had been there, you would have thought he had very little chance to live, much less to succeed. Suppose you had seen him in the first three months of his life? He was born under a death sentence; his parents were breaking the law of the land by keeping him alive at all.

Then later if you had seen him in his sea-going bassinet among the reeds in the river, you might have thought: Will the contraption float? Even if a princess finds the baby, won't she know what he is and send him straight off to be killed?

Or years later, when Moses was a sort of pampered stepson of the palace, what promise was in him? Pharaoh's court was full always of proud young fellows spoiling for a fight. Moses might have looked to you just like another useless aristocrat. And then when Moses was out in the wilds, tending another man's sheep, married to an ignorant back-country lass who never understood him in the least; would you have put much faith in that discouraged old ranch-hand?

BUT don't judge a man by what his contemporaries say. We know now, we have known for centuries, that Moses was one of God's greatest and best.

Consider what the world owes to that one man. Of all his services, let us note three in particular. For one thing, we trace the Ten Comhe was the first to call stealing or adultry or greediness wicked; men have known as much since early times. But we do associate the Ten Commandments with Moses' name. He preached and taught that religion is ethical; that is, right living is tied in with and tied up to right

Faith and life flow into and support each other. Some religions declare that if a man pleases God that is all that matters; he can ride his neighbors as he pleases. Other religions (or substitutes for religion) say that if a man treats other men right he can let God go. Not so Moses; not so the Jews nor the Christians!

Moses was also the man through whom God revealed some of the most important truths we know about God. Moses taught his people, and through them teaches us, of a spiritual God, not like anything "in heaven above or the earth beneath or in the waters under the earth." God has "no manner of form." God is pure spirit, without a body like men or like anything.

To this day men find that hard to take in; but it is an important truth for any one who wants to think truly about God and to find

Moses and Christ

ABOVE all, there would have been no Christianity if Moses had never lived, or if he had failed. If the children of Israel had done what they wanted to do, slink back to Egypt and slavery, the whole great history of the Old Testament would have been unwritten. Poets and prophets would have died

But he would have had to make a start somewhere else besides with the Hebrew people, and the whole history of religion would have been different. There would have been no New Testament without the Old Test-

Even Jesus of Nazareth either would not have been at all, or would have been entirely different, if it had not been for the whole background of the Hebrew story, in which Moses played such a leading part. If the world owes a debt to Christianity (and what a debt!), it owes also a tribute to Moses. copyright by the International Coun-of Religious Education on behalf of Protestant denominations. Released WNU Features.)

The Gar that puts your Best Foot forward

WE think you'll agree that the whole story of an automobile isn't told in its power, its room, its styling, even in its

There is the all-important point about what a car does to youand that's where ROADMASTER really shines.

For you can't slip into this bonny beauty's broad seats without feeling like somebody pretty special.

When you take its neat wheel in your hand-when you cut loose, with a toe-touch, the rich baritone of its big Fireball straight-eight power plant-when you feel the smooth surge of its Dynaflow-cushioned take-off-

Man, then you know you've got a real automobile!

And don't overlook this:

That graceful sweep of chrome along the fender-found on no other car made today - is a mighty eye-catching note of distinction.

Those four Ventiports, too, cause many a head to turn-they, mark you unmistakably as the owner of the biggest and best Buick built-a car as fine and rich as any man has need for.

There are a lot of good, solid, dollars-and-cents reasons for making ROADMASTER your choice over any other car:

Its size. The commanding performance of its 152-hp Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight engine. Dynaflow Drive standard: A ride that's quite matchless in its gentle softness. Distinguished styling from bold, protective front end to gleaming "double bubble" taillight.

But if you're ready for a car that's more than just an automobile-if you want one that puts your best foot forward in any company-that's the real reason for seeing your Buick dealer quickly-to talk turkey about a ROADMASTER.

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs — vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and with Dynaflow Drive

(Continued from First Page) people in life, Your Observer meets them by the hundreds! It is the little things that count! Eh? 'The sunhonnet? It is sweet and beautifully made. Navy polka-dots on the white background! Ties under the chin, ruffles, bows n' everything!

Until recently, Your Observer did not know that women patients were admitted in the Marine Hospital in Wyman's Park in Baltimore. Discovered this when I called upon a covered this when I called upon a very, very ill friend who is the husband of my closest friend. You remember the couple whose love is so beautiful that they marry every five years by the Minister who married them in that little and Quaint Epis-copal Church in Glenburnie where Your Observer was their Matron of Honor. The church was built in the 17th Century and no recording mar-riage in the big book has been as interesting in that church as my close friend's where she used to sing in the choir when she was a growing girl! Love can be beautiful! Calling that nice Commander of The Legion and, yes even the Auxiliary! (Of which Post Your Observer is a member). Let's do something nice for

Since writing the paragraph, my friend is now located in the hospital in New York and very, very depressed due to his condition which was caused by real action in the service. He has tuberculosis and is very, very ill. How wonderful it would be and what a grand surprise if all of you sent a card of a tiny gift. When Your Observer called to see him at the Marine Hospital, we could not even that a the series of the se shake hands! I was permitted special visits off hours to see him although I had to be seated outside of his room with the usual mask of gauze on my face and he likewise. As I walked out of that hospital and out into the grounds in the direction where old Lincoln was parked, I glanced up at the window in the room which my friend's husband had and there he stood waving "Goodbye" to me! The next morning at an early hour, he was taken on a stretcher to the Pennsylvania station headed for the following address, Mr. Vester Vassar, U.S. Marine Hospital Manhatten Beach Brooklyn 35, N.Y. I tried to cheer him telling him that he would be in a healthing place in the telling him that he would be in a healthing place in the telling him that he would be in the state of th him telling him that he would be in a healthier place in that location but he knows his condition. So, Commander and all the Buddies do what you can for a Buddy who was not as fortunate as you! I never saw his wife cry before until she explained it all—that awful scene on a stretcher at the station! Words fail me! Tears fall for I realize the great love of this couple which is in comparison like the "Brownings"!

like the "Brownings"!

Your Observer spent the afternoon of the 4th of July with that Queen Lady of Carroll County at the Convalescent Home of "Meadow View". She is much better at this writing of which I am so glad and she knew me immediately. She appears more like her old self! That home is really lovely, Folks and there are quite a few patients now all convalescing beautifully. If you hesitate about placing your loved one away from your home for real care, kindness and goodness be sure and call upon the Nurse who is the owner and have a confidential talk with her. You will like her immediately and your loved one will be happy there as though she or he is on a vacation! or he is on a vacation!

Until next week D.V. Will be seeing you. Have a grand week-end. Be good and be careful. Faithfully, YOUR OBSERVER.
