OUR PARK

Have You Renewed Your Membership?

There are still a large number of last year's members of the Recreation Association who have not renewed their membership for the year 1950. Quite a number of people have joined up this year for the first time and the directors wish to express their appreciation to those people who have supported us thus far. It is great encouragement to know that the community has accepted this project of a complete Recreation Park.

The association has received from the University of Maryland the planting guide for the trees and shrubbery as shown on the general plan which is now on display in the window of the Taneytown Mutual Fire Insurance Co. It will take considerable amount of work to carry out these plans. One of our interested members has guaranteed us that he would pay the cost of the trees, but it will be up to the community to see that the trees get planted in the proper place on the park site. It is hoped that some interested persons in the community will volunteer their services for this work.

The Lions Club has completed one piece of playground equipment which has been delivered to the park and are now working on another piece which will soon be ready for installation. The Kiwanis Club has ordered a 20-ft. stainless steel sliding board which they will erect at the park as soon as it is received. The Recreation Association has, now, under construction a picnic shelter and fireplace for the picnic area.

The Carroll Gardens in Westminster is cooperating with the Association in that they are planning and will help us install a rose garden and shrubbery at the park. The money necessary for all these things must come from the community and it is hoped that the prompt renewal of your membership will help us complete the plans we have for the rest of the summer and this fall.

TRINITY MISSION CIRCLE HOLD PICNIC

Thursday evening, July 20, Trinity Mission Circle held their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Theodore Fair. Supper was served outdoors and the menu consisted of baked ham, hot dogs, potato salad, cole slaw, deviled eggs, pickles, potato chips, ice tea, cup cakes and ice cream.

Those on the supper committee were: Mrs. Ruthanna Kiser and Mrs. Ruth Baumgardner, cochairmen, Mrs. Esther Harner, Mrs. Vera Ommert and Mrs. Louise Riffe.

Following the supper the children played games in the garage under the supervision of Miss Joan Baumgardner. Grownups played games on the porch under the direction of Miss Eleanor Kiser, chairman, Mrs. Betty Hess, Mrs. Mildred Jester and Mrs. Grace Putman.

Each member brought a gift and these were auctioned off in order to make money for our social fund.

Many thanks were due our gracious hostess and the hard-working committees to make this a very enjoyable evening.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS HOLDS PICNIC SUPPER

The Friendly Thrifters Sunday School class, taught by Mr. Norman Baumgardner, of Trinity Lutheran Church, had as their guests at a picnic supper on Tuesday evening the class taught by Mr. Franklin Fair. This affair was held at Big Pipe Creek Park with approximately 43 men present.

The early part of the evening was spent playing softball and otherwise enjoying the facilities of the park. The supper was then served by the committee, following grace offered by Pastor Stahl. The men let their appetites hold sway after seeing the fried chicken, ham sandwiches, potato salad, potato chips, pickles, rolls, ice cream, home-made cake and ice tea. Everyone had ample opportunity to fill themselves to the top with this picnic fare, and all felt that it was a most enjoyable evening of good fellowship which they hope will be continued next year.

KIWANIS NEWS

Soil Conservation was the Speaker's Topic

The regularly scheduled Kiwanis meeting was convened at Taney Inn on Wednesday last by President Lewis Crumpacker. The invocation was given by Kiwanian Al Baldwin. Group singing as usual was under the leadership of Kiwanian Wallace Reindollar with Mrs. Estella Yingling at the piano.

Kiwanian Charles Hopkins introduced two of his brothers-in-law who were guests at the meeting; namely, The Rev. Mr. Edward G. Collins, a member of the Antigo, Wisconsin, Kiwanis Club, and Mr. Otto Gluch, of Athens, Wisconsin. Kiwanian George Crouse also introduced Mr. Earl Myers as his guest for the evening.

Mr. Edward M. Howarth, formerly of Menter, Ohio, and now residing in Taneytown was received into club membership, the induction proceedings being conducted by Kiwanian Clyde Hesson in his usual fine manner.

Robert Harner, who was co-sponsored by the Taneytown Kiwanis Club as a representative at the 1950 Maryland Boys' State held at Fort Meade recently, presented an excellent report concerning the activities of this 12-day conclave. Bob was one of nine boys sent from Taneytown area, and there was a total of 435 boys from all parts of the state gathered for this affair. He made mention of some of the high-lights and those portions of the activities which were most impressive to him.

The program for the evening was in charge of the Agricultural and Conservation Committee with Kiwanian Charles R. Cluts introducing the speaker for the evening; namely, Mr. Fred L. Bull, Extension Soil Conservationist who was secured through the Extension Service of the University of Maryland at College Park. Mr. Bull explained the method of securing the cooperation of farmers with regard to promoting the various steps and measures necessary to prevent soil erosion and thus conserve the all-important top-soil so necessary to grow crops. He stated that there were 23 districts in Maryland established by farmers in the various geographical areas of the state being assisted in the program by men such as himself with the Federal Government lending aid where necessary. He stated that not only farmers but everyone should be interested in soil conservation, citing the very vivid example of the history of Joppa Town, which in the early history of our nation was a thriving seaport, but that due to erosion of soil in this area, has become practically extinct with the once busy piers thousands of feet from the seashore. Joppa Town, as you may or may not know, is located approximately 18 miles north-east of Baltimore just off the Pulaski Highway.

Next week's meeting will be an inter-club meeting with all members being invited to share in the picnic style chicken dinner which will be served by the Westminster Kiwanis Club at the Westminster Forest and Stream Club headquarters near Detour. All members are urged to attend the program which will begin at 2:00 P. M. with the meal being served at approximately 6:30 P. M.

A Description of Cincinnati Given in Write-Up

PART II

What happens at any national assembly of a great religious body is of general interest to all as well as of special interest to some. Therefore a brief summary will here be given of what happened at Cincinnati a few weeks ago. The town has not always been called Cincinnati. Originally it was known as Losantville. The name came about in this way as one very suggestive to the dictators of the earth today. After the War of Independence some Revolutionary soldiers moved into the area. They were members of an organization known as the Society of Cincinnati. This society was named after the famous dictator of long ago in ancient Rome. He was a farmer summoned from his plow in the field to deliver Rome from a crisis. When the crisis was over he asked to be released as dictator that he might return again to his plow. We commend the precedent of Cincinnati to the dictators of today.

These Revolutionary soldiers, comprising the Society of Cincinnati, looked upon the fortunate location of Losantville with many hills reminding them of ancient Rome. They were instrumental in changing the name to Cincinnati.

This is one of the most popular cities in America among Presbyterians. Seven times in the last 100 years the General Assembly has met (Continued on Fifth Page)

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning a smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.

I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!

I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer.

Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

It is not necessary for the people around our town who desire furniture to go out of town for our only furniture store has everything any house may hold. The interior of the store surely is appearing lovely with its pastel shade on the walls and the new office at the side rear. There is every type of furniture and if you do not see what you desire that, too will be secured. Just enter and browse around and you will feel perfectly at home!

Your Observer finally called upon the Beauty Culturist at "The Looking Glass" in Westminster. Upon opening the front door, the most pleasing color scheme and all full of simplicity greets you. There are modern plain chairs in limes and yellows against a partition of Williamsburg pink with gracefully growing ivy in long strands against the background. In back of this partition is the neat reception room where a door leads you to the main room where your eyes to the main room where your eyes to eventually disappear. It requires exactly fifteen minutes with each project taking just one hour of your time. The Beauty Culturist is chucked full of charm and poise. One visit will convince you that you are on the right road to happiness in losing that overweight! Anyway this winter is showing slimmer figures again!

Thinking of Westminster! Boarded the town bus to the place where Lincoln was parked and before reaching that destination desired to get a package that I left in the store and that nice driver stopped the bus and waited so as I could get my package and continue the ride! Nice!

A lovely letter arrived from Germany (air mail) from plane last month made the trip by plane last month and this is exactly the description—"The Flight was most wonderful in the airplane. We were 15,000 feet high and went about 225 miles per hour. We were far above the clouds and the Moon and Stars seemed so close up there. We could not see the earth and when the sun came up very early in the morning, the clouds under us had very beautiful colors. I felt just like a bird—or maybe like a little cloud—I don't know—as though I did not have a body and my Soul was flying within the sky! Yes, it was really wonderful!"

Arthur Godfrey can make anyone love flying with all his wonderful describing of the air and also U. S. T. V. But of course that man has his own special line of doing anything and everything because he is so honest and frank!

Now, here's calling all the Politicians down at the Court House in Westminster! Your Observer hopes these words have really a background! I met a business man from another county who said, "If we only had the Political men in our county as there is down in Westminster! Carroll County has the finest bunch of men down in that Court House who are superior to all counties!" Nuff Said!

That was wise in sending out the cards previously to notify the consumer that the electric would be off for the few hours so as not to inconvenience the individuals! Especially Mrs. Housewife!

Did you know that for 35 cents curious sightseers can invade British Castles? One of these castles is owned by the Princess Royal—that's it, The King of England's Sister-in-law, Princess Mary! Yes, she has opened her home to the public for two days a week. Harewood House consists of 24,000 acres which are being sold to keep the estate solvent. The allowance of Royal Families was $16,800 a year. Princess Mary has one son who recently married and who bought a house in London leaving the vast estate for his Mother to manage! Lord Lascelles died in 1947.

Eleven little ducks arrived. Never has Your Observer seen such love and protection as shown by that Mother Duck! One little one was lost for twenty-four hours and it appeared again with the little group!

Calling all farmers! Smyrna, Tenn.; Sidney Maxwell's teen age sons heard lonesome "Moos" coming from a dark mirey sinkhole. They found, "red" (Continued on Third Page)

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1950

MOBILIZATION AS AN ISSUE

FRIDAY, JULY 21, 1950

The United States is not ready or prepared for war, and conditions in Korea are very bad, to say the least. Practically all the metropolitan newspapers are boosting the "war" in Korea. The city papers are trying to prove that President Truman is in the same kind of position that Wilson and Roosevelt were at the opening of the World Wars.

Well, that's all right for some people to believe, but this 40-year old newspaper syndicate does not agree with those metropolitan papers. We have examined a great many local family newspapers that come to our desk. The so-called "Grass Roots" isn't convinced that the big shots are justified in approving our part in the Korean war.

This war is against the United Nations and, up-to-date, they are a side-issue in this tragic affair. If the Grass Roots had its say—this correspondent has a right to speak for them after 40 years contact with hundreds of the best editors of the best newspapers in the land. Now, let's see if something can't be done to convince the United Nations that this is their job, and that they should do something more than wave the flag of the United Nations over Korean Hills.

One of the biggest headlines of the week declares: "Use of World organization emblem takes on large historical meaning and big political significance."

"Political significance" is a great 1950 puzzle in the Capital of the United States. Certainly we are all glad to know that General MacArthur is in command as a representative of the United Nations. But it needs more than a great General to represent the United Nations, of which 59 Nations are members. If young men are to be drafted and put in the Army those 59 countries should go to bat with the United States.

Up to the present time the world has been led to believe that this war is wholly against the United States. That is merely dodging the real issue. The United States and Britain have the most powerful arms that exist. Our National industries are in perfect shape to meet any challenge from Moscow. But we have a right to insist that the United Nations recognize its full responsibility to come to the front and help restore world peace.—J. E. Jones.

KOREA AND THE U. N.

There has been great disillusionment in this country over the United Nations. The high hopes for world amity and civilized solutions of international difficulties that were held out when the organization was created have not materialized. And so, in many minds, a feeling has arisen that the UN is a dismal failure, and that it might as well follow the League of Nations into oblivion.

But there is another side to this great question. It was well expressed by Raymond Moley in one of his newspaper columns when he wrote: "It is to be hoped that public opinion in the United States will modify its pessimism concerning the United Nations. . . . Walter Lippmann . . . made the strong point that the United Nations is the only means by which Asiatic interests can be mobilized in the interests of security. That is because the remaining independent Asiatic nations must themselves participate in stabilization, and in so doing work side by side with the nations of the West."

"Our own stake is enormous. We must not forfeit the assets of the Japanese potential or neglect the Philippines. For once the Soviet appears in the warm waters of the Pacific, it will develop sea power and challenge our position in the entire ocean.

"The United Nations must do or die and if it dies, civilization everywhere will be in grave peril."

The failures of the UN—which have been very largely due to Russia's constant use of her veto power in any matter that does not further the Soviet policy of world communist expansion—have overshadowed its achievements. The UN has brought together the nations of the world, and the vast majority of them are on the side of the West. Countries with a total population of something like a billion people have formally expressed, through the UN, their opposition to the communist invasion of South Korea. And the UN acted promptly, and to the limit of its existing capabilities, when the Korean crisis arose.

The UN has protected our own position in Korea. There we are acting, not just on our own hook, but as an agent of the UN. We are following exactly the provisions of the UN charter, which are to block aggression wherever it may appear. We are, therefore, taking on the job of policeman in that tragic little country.

It may be a long time before the world learns what the Korean war will lead to. In the meantime it has cast a brilliant light on the ineffectiveness of our vacillating policy in Asia. It also seems to have shown up some startling failures—we were taken completely by surprise, or intelligence apparently could not have been poorer, and we did not realize how well prepared for war the Korean communists were. However, as Herbert Hoover said, we have made our decision, we must abide by it, and everything that is necessary to win must be done. For us to lose in Korea would be the final shattering blow to American and United Nations prestige throughout the world. This is what the Russians are hoping for. It would be the greatest victory the Soviet Union could gain.—Industrial News Review.

their five year old Jersey cow which had been missing for six weeks. A rescue party of 30 persons hoisted her out! In Burlington, Vermont, it's still true what they say about having more cows than people. The 1950 Census numbered 375,830 Vermonters. A survey by the University of Vermont listed 405,000 milk cows! Ump!

Well, Well! Well! When in Westminster last was sitting in an office where sat also a lawyer from Baltimore. Different subjects arose and one of the men said, "You stated in your column that President Truman would be elected did you not, Mrs. Observer?"

Then he added that a prominent man in our county won $2,000. on that election! Many ask me, Folks 'on which side am I on.' Here is always the same answer, "My Beloved Dad was a Republican but just because he was a Republican that does not necessarily mean that I must be one. I vote for the best man and his principles in life in other words I am independent in everything I do in life!"

Your Observer has a very lovely old wooden French Bird cage which needed a few repairs and an elderly gentleman around our town fixed it as good as new. He can do about just everything!

That pleasingly plump lady with the brown eyes has a disposition that anyone would love and keeps house beautifully!

A little ten-year-old boy many years ago lived in the country. His father always trusted him with the horse and wagon and when the little boy was timid being out alone as he sat on horseback, he would throw his arms around the neck of the horse and the horse seemed to sense he was afraid and she would run at a terrific gait!

Thinking of horses—they have been run out of the city with the automobile and now off the farm due to all the modern inventions of farming!

How nice and original in that little Priest treating all the graduates to a "Taney-Inn dinner!" I hear that is his yearly habit!

There surely is a real "good looker" residing in Westminster who has been riding the bus to Baltimore for ten years where she is an executive in an office! Why, she appears as only twenty summers now!

Whatever you do—don't miss that wonderful movie called, "Annie Get Your Gun" with Betty Hutton as the Star! The Christian Advocate recommends that one, highly!

Now, this is to that nice Telephone man around our town. Children have been calling phone numbers (idle hands not knowing what to do) and this is what they would say, "Is your electric refrigerator running?!! If you were not quick enough to realize it was a silly prank and say, "Why, yes," (as many individuals did) the child's voice would say, "Well, hurry and run after it!" There was an elderly lady who was not very well and was called to the phone so many times. Here's hoping that won't happen again!

A very nice insurance man called upon Your Observer from Frizzellburg to try and make it clear about all insurance companies and was he surprised when I told him why it was that so many do not have confidence in most companies!

The men of our Legion Post around our town are surely a bunch of substantial fellows and it was, indeed a pleasure to have the joint meetings at the Legion Home. That should be repeated now and then. It makes it a more sociable gathering! The Commander is truly one in a thousand as he is kindness itself!

How wonderful to see those Jap Beetles lying on their backs after the dose is given to them!

Now, Ladies do you know that if you are on a diet and you drink any soft drinks and chew gum that you will not lose a pound? A number of people have told me that those "Aids" are the real thing. Just prevents you from over eating and that does the trick!

Your Observer was shocked to learn that a certain kind of maneuvers performed upon an ailing individual was supposed to cure the ill person. That was called, "Witch-Craft" in the study of History in the 16th Century and the people were punished to the full extent of the law in those days. A farmer's daughter who holds a responsible position was calling upon one of these so called, "Pow-Wow" women and was so very ill that if I had not influenced her to immediately see a medical Dr. immediately she would have died. Never did I think that such things were practiced in these intelligent days!

Here is a funny advertisement in a Baltimore paper "Look for the Future" and then at the bottom of the ad there was a burial ground! Ump!

A few weeks ago on a Sunday after the church service, Your Observer visited with the adult church group to the Tower House on the Potomac which is two miles from Mt. Vernon where the home of George Washington is located. The Tower House is the administrative home of the world-wide Baraca-Philathea Union which started in 1890. The first Philathea Class was formed in 1893. Classes in other churches and cities, attracted by their success became interested in the plan. Within a few years the movement had swept across the country and around the world and became interdenominational! The world-wide Union resulted in these classes when they met in convention in 1911 and became incorporated under the laws of the State of New York as non-stock, non-profit, religious organization for the purpose of forming Bible studying classes in the local church. Marshall A. Hudson was the founder of the first Baraca class. Volunteer gifts poured in from all sections. Rooms in the Tower House have been furnished by different states and provinces. At the front of the house, the door is opened to a very wide hall which runs to the rear. My attention was drawn immediately to the wide stairway with its ivory spindles leading to the second floor. The living room on the left is very wide and spacious and most charming with the attractive fireplace, exquisite chandelier and lovely furnishings. The library at the rear has tapestry walls, fireplace and parquet flooring and contains the office and the library of the Henrietta Heron estate. Across the hall is the Philathea powder room. Upon reaching the second floor, the small rose room at the front of the hall has colored leaded glass windows. On the right is the Master bedroom, the Henrietta Heron room. In it is placed just as the President left it the ivory furniture with the rose and blue decorations. This room overlooks the Potomac. Bibles, Testaments and devotional books are found throughout the room as Miss Heron had used them. The Northwest bedroom is furnished in Mahogany. The green room at the rear overlooks the back yard of Pine and Cedar trees. There are five acres of ground. The Tower room is very beautiful in its simplicity all in Philathea blue. The devotional table in the tower window with its open Bible? A large white cross stands in the window and at night its light directs you from the highway to the footpath to the house! As one leaves the house and goes out onto the veranda, you can see the Maryland Hills just beyond and view the broad Potomac. The house stands back far enough from the highway not to be disturbed by any of its noise. The welcome mat is always out for you and Christian friendliness—Baraca Philathea! Tower House is situated atop a knoll surrounded by ancient and magnificent holly, cedar, cucumber and persimmon trees and it is 17 miles the other side of Washington and two miles east of Mt. Vernon and seven miles from Alexandria.

That nice "Esso" man is selling that wonderful car, "Mercury" and it sure is a wow! Your Observer drove one down in the thick of traffic on Charles Street and it sure is something to write home about! It has just about everything that is up to the minute and is most luxurious! Sit in one and you then will realize!

Well Folks, have a grand weekend. So long until next week when the column will be that promised one, called, "For the Love of Mike."

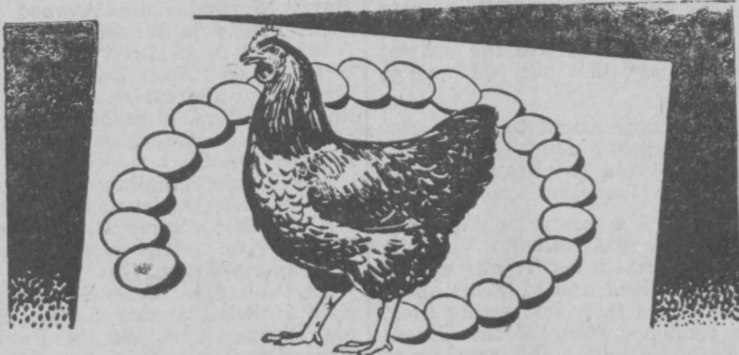

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

Men's natural eyes have been called the windows of their souls. Their mind's eyes give them insight. "Promise yourself today—to be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble."

"I am a weed, it is fun to grow Beside a flower, it is fed, you know, And it's cultivated, if I'm not pulled out I steal its food, and grow tall and stout."

"I'm a bad habit; I can grow Stronger each day that you let me go All the good resolutions you may make I can surely, swiftly break."

FEESERSBURG

It seems that the panic buyers and hoarders are on the loose again, but it seems likely their technique of 1941 may be out-moded and in fact may prove a boomerang. Before they find out that things have changed in the last nine years they can do plenty of trouble for hoarding will boost inflation, weaken the home economy and in the end bring on drastic controls. This war is not going to be fought like the last one for the public is not going to stand for "business as usual" profiteering and the many depending on the few to do the sacrificing. The mood of the people is such that we are not likely to see again the mobs around costume jewelry counters, the hectic excitement in night clubs. Maybe few so far realize what this war is all about, but time will teach each one of us that this time it is everybody's war—a struggle to see which of the two giants—Russia or the United States survive. It is not a question of material things but the outcome of this struggle which is just beginning in Korea is to decide whether the individual man is important or whether he is a piece of property of his government. Hoarding is by no means the way to save one's soul.

The annual family picnic of the Milk Producers Association will be held again this year at Carlin's Amusement Park on Saturday, July 29th. Plans have been completed to make this year's picnic the greatest ever held. All the rides, skating rink and swimming pool will be free to members of the families and friends belonging to the Association. Each family is urged to pack their lunch and bring the whole family.

The Union Bridge Girl Scouts held a picnic supper Friday evening in Clemons's meadow with their leader, Mrs. Charles Lovell, Mrs. Raymond Wilson furnished a watermelon which put the finishing touch to a perfect picnic. Those attending were Carolyn Myers, Eleanor Baker, Judy Willard, Kay Luttrell, Nancy Roelke, Louise Stouch, Rose Marie Grabbill, Kitty Go Sclen, Betty Eylar and Shirley Ricketts.

David Buffington came home from Fort George Meade for the week-end and spent most of it sleeping. The ROTC students are kept busy and lead the life of a regular private which means up at 5:30 A. M. and going until 10 p. m. at night. The army believes idleness breeds discontent and trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Wolfe entertained the following guests over the week-end: Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Gilbert and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, all of Bethel Heights. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Bohn, of Union Bridge.

Mrs. Frank Martin and Mrs. Maude Martin called on Mrs. Samuel Keyton and Mrs. Melvin Robertson and young son last Thursday.

As I look out of my kitchen window I see the Japanese beetles taking their midday exercise. They swarm from one tree to another like bees but unlike bees they do no good. In fact they have eaten our beautiful chinese elms until on some there isn't a leaf left. They certainly are the nearest thing to a pest that one can hope to find.

I gave my mate a new tie rack. He thinks it is a dandy But where does he still drape his ties? On the doorknob that's most handy.

Roger Sentz a former neighbor but who now lives in Alexandria, Virginia, called on us last week. It was nice to see an old friend and to hear about his family and their interesting life. The combined choir of the Uniontown Lutheran Parish and members of their family held a picnic and get-together at St. Luke's (Winters) social hall Sunday afternoon. All four churches were well represented and everyone enjoyed themselves very much.

The Smiling Sunbeams of Mt. Union Church held their annual weiner roast at the parish house Wednesday evening, Emmett Miller is president of the Sunbeams.

At the age of 20 we are radicals and optimists; at 40 we turn conservative and become complacent and at 60 we are reactionaries and pessimists.

Evangeline Booth, first woman general of the Salvation Army died Monday at the age of 84. She was born in London on Christmas day, 1865, the same year her father founded the Salvation Army. She grew up with the organization and her life time almost exactly paralleled its growth. As a little child she followed her father's footsteps as he preached in the Limehouse and Whitechapel slums in London—and was preaching there herself when only in her teens. The Salvation Army had often been ridiculed, but by her own example she trained her soldiers and in 1917 she captured America at large by the happy stroke of sending her girls with the American Expeditionary Force to comfort the troops with coffee, doughnuts and cheerfulness. The good will earned for the Salvation Army was worth millions of dollars of publicity and from that time forward any project undertaken by the Army was assured of widespread popular approval and support.

Lewis Bohn celebrated his 7th birthday Tuesday evening at a small family birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bohn.

Miss Wanda Douglas, of Littleton, is a guest this week at Merry Knoll.

Mrs. Scott Crabbs has returned to her home near Middleburg, after being a patient at St. Agnes Hospital for two weeks. She is getting along nicely.

One of the most satisfying movies we have seen for a long time is "Cinderella." The movie version follows the familiar story closely but also introduces two mice into the story that charms the heart of even the most mouse fearing person. Since our ten year old has seen the picture we are not allowed to set a mouse trap for fear of catching a mouse resembling "Gus." The mice seem to know this for I see some of them getting as bold and saucy as Cinderella's mice and almost as fat.

I do not envy any person who must earn his living by writing a daily column for the way I sweat and work to fill this one weekly is enough to make one throw up their hands in despair and swear never to write another line. I can hear a dozen people ask "then why bother." Well, maybe I am vain enough to believe at least one person may miss it.

Do You Want To Cut Your Federal Taxes?

Your Wasted Taxes

No reasonable man questions the need for taxes to pay the cost of governmental services. Everyone should be willing to pay a fair share of his income for that purpose. But nobody wants to underwrite extravagance—in the home, in business or in government.

The bi-partisan Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, created by Congress with the approval of President Truman and headed by former President Hoover, has provided a chart for the elimination of governmental extravagance and waste.

This past year, because of duplication and overlapping in the Armed Services we wasted about one billion out of the fifteen billion spent for National Security.

In 1948 two agencies planned to build the same dam in nearly the same place at Hell's Canyon, Idaho. Each set of plans cost about $250,000. The plans differed by approximately 75 million dollars in estimated cost of erection.

It now costs the Post Office Department two and a half cents to print and deliver a penny post card.

The Veterans Administration, at the time of the Commission's survey, had 6,500 empty beds in its hospitals, yet VA and other government agencies have planned or are building additional hospitals at a cost of over a billion dollars, when 54% of the available beds are not now occupied. This is Alice in Wonderland.

It takes more than $10 worth of paper work to complete a governmental purchase order. For example, by the time the necessary paper work is completed, a 50¢ typewriter ribbon costs the taxpayer about $10.

Turnover of labor is recognized by all industry as expensive. Yet in the Federal Government labor turnover runs about 25 per cent, a rate much higher than any private business could stand. This means that every year approximately 500,000 either leave or enter a government job. The personnel system is clogged with red tape. The best men leave because of the low pay scale, and the inefficient cannot easily be discharged.

If enacted into law, the Commission recommendation to remedy these and other defects in conducting our Federal business would save the taxpayer three to four billion dollars a year.

To play your part in putting a stop to this wasteful extravagance, join the non-partisan Citizens Committee, which is working for the enactment of the Commission's suggestions. Write to the Citizens Committee for Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1421 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania. Write your Congressman. Inform yourself about the Commission Report. Tell your neighbors!

Ten Pledges Given Voters By Mahoney

George P. Mahoney, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, is now on record with the people of Maryland with a plan for "sound, thrifty" government.

He has answered the question he heard most often on his 8,000-mile "shoelather" tour of the State—a tour in which he spoke to more than 8,000 individual Marylanders, not at rallies or meetings, but at their homes, on their farms and in their places of business.

The question: "What are you, Mr. Mahoney, going to do to better the government of Maryland?"

Mahoney's answer, in ten pledges, was:

1. To put a stop to wasteful, unwise and extravagant government.

2. To increase efficiency of State departments and agencies and thus reduce government costs.

3. To give Maryland a businesslike study, investigation and correction of the State fiscal system.

4. To set up an understandable budget and a system of budgetary control.

5. To keep in close touch with department heads and be available to them at all times.

6. To maintain close co-operation with school personnel and to encourage constant improvements and additions to our educational system.

7. To keep politics out of our school systems, particularly by having qualified boards of education composed of members free from political commitments.

8. To inaugurate a mental hospital program that will call for mental hygiene.

9. To plan, and have built, the kind of roads that Maryland can afford to pay for.

10. Not to leave State boards and commissions without directing heads for months at a time, but to fill vacancies promptly with qualified men and women who will enter on their duties with the knowledge that they will be expected to earn their salaries."

Mr. Mahoney added: "In many political campaigns, pledges and promises are given lightly to the voters and most of them are never carried out. I don't do business that way. I have thought about these pledges seriously and I give you my solemn promise that they will be carried out to the best of my ability."

ANOTHER INSTALLMENT OF REV. OWEN'S TRIP

there. It is doubtful if any other city in America can boast of such a record. The congenial hospitality and warm friendliness of the people, made the commissioners hope for the pleasure of returning again.

To condense what happened, there in ten days into ten minutes, is no easy task. Great areas of important things must be omitted entirely. And numerous other things must be passed by with only slight mention.

The first two days were given to evangelism. Here it was disclosed that the Presbyterian Church, during the past two years, had registered the greatest gains in its history. That at the present time it was the fastest growing church in America. During the past two years nearly half a million new members have been added. Last year it had its largest net increase on record. The same story was reported concerning benevolent gifts. All precedents were broken last year with reference to gifts, number of students for the ministry, and Sunday School enrollment which is increasing four times faster than the population.

Many distinguished pastors, from all parts of the country, reported the great gains in their churches, and outlined the New Testament methods now being used by which to win so many people to the cause of Christ and the church. Cincinnati is a city of many beautiful churches. The largest Protestant body is the Presbyterian with 78 strong churches with 29,000 members. It is a city with a total of 487 churches. One fourth of these are Roman Catholic. Xavier University founded in 1831, a distinguished Catholic University College, is located there.

The city with its seven hills, patterned after ancient Rome, presents a puzzle to find the seven hills. Every enthusiast asked to name the seven hills, gave a different list. When I added up the score there were 17 hills instead of seven. But, whether seven or seventeen, it is a city of high hills overlooking the business district below. Mt. Auburn is one among the most prominent. Now it is a business and residential section. The old incline railroad to the top, has been abandoned. Zigzag streets have taken its place. On certain sacred days devotees will still climb the old stairs, an enormous flight, touching each step with the knee on the long journey to the top.

The largest municipal university in the world is located in Cincinnati, we were told. Also the most noted Hebrew University in America. Here one must have a college degree as an entrance requirement. It offers to clergymen one of the most noted courses in America on the Old Testament. On our complimentary tour of the city, given by the Presbyterian men of the city, mentioned in the first installment, one visitor, thrilled by the glories of Cincinnati, said to the guide: "This is a very progressive city." But in reply he said: "No. It is not a progressive city." Then, with almost tears in his eyes, he related how both Henry Ford and Packard first came to Cincinnati to seek backing for the making of automobiles. And the city which had been making America's horse drawn carriages, turned them down flat. Then Ford and Packard left Cincinnati and went to Detroit where they were successful in securing help. Thus the city of carriages lost the opportunity, won by Detroit, of becoming the auto capital of America.

Here in this historic city where the 162nd meeting of the General Assembly convened great things were accomplished. Almost every area of the church work was presented. Great plans were set for the future. Dr. Hugh I. Evans, Presbyterian pastor in Dayton, Ohio, was elected moderator. This is the highest and most honored office within the gift of the church. The moderator, in any other church, would probably be called Bishop. For during his year's tenure of office he gives his whole time to the denomination. As was the custom there came the procession of men to present the new moderator with extraordinary gavel from distant places or strange material. The most dramatic was the one presented by an Esquimau from the Presbytery of Yukon, Alaska. His name was Albert Kulowij, a layman from St. Lawrence Island. Born in Siberia. He is now an American citizen. The gavel which he presented to the moderator, had been made from the ivory of a walrus tusk and whale bone. The Esquimau presented the gavel with a string tied to it that the new moderator visit Alaska to see the great work of the church there.

The Presbyterian Church has no archbishop and shies away from any hierarchical authority. But William Pugh, the Stated Clerk, and head of the church, would be the archbishop in case one was fashioned.

The general program for each day consisted of business sessions of legislative nature both morning and afternoon followed by a popular public meeting at night. It was reported that the church had raised about 24 million dollars for world service through the Restoration Fund. A benevolent budget of $17 million was adopted. Seven million of this amount will go for Home Missions and church extension. Momentous movements of a revolutionary nature were launched to better enable the church to meet the great challenge of today's world. Should you, gentle reader, desire it, and the courtesy of this paper permit it, I would like, in a subsequent article, to sketch some of the things the Presbyterian Church is doing about the critical problems of contemporary life.

Keep ladders in good repair and easily accessible in case of emergency.

Keep walkways and steps in good repair, unobstructed and well lighted.

Maryland farmers in 1949 received government loans on 2,152,778 bushels of wheat.

Many-Gifted Man

Lesson for July 23, 1950

IF A MAN can do one thing well, he can usually find his place in the world. Life being as short as it is, and the possibility of misfits being what it is, it may also be fair to say that many a man who does one thing well could have done something else better, if he had had the chance. In Grey's "Elegy," you remember the line, "Some mute inglorious Milton here may rest."

Dr. Foreman here may rest.

That is, in a country church-yard may rest the bones of some hired man who, if he had had another kind of start, might have been a world-famous scholar and poet like John Milton.

Triple-Threat Men

WHAT in football is called a "triple-threat man" is to be found off the gridiron, sometimes, in real life. Once in a great while there arises a man who not only "could have done" more than one thing well, but who because of special circumstances and opportunities actually does many things well.

Such persons are rare, and far above the average. Ordinary men take such a long time becoming experts in one line that they simply don't have time in their lives to be expert at other things too. But there are geniuses with many sides, or perhaps men gifted with many talents plus an extraordinary capacity for hard work.

In our times there is Albert Schweitzer, outstanding not only as a scholar but as a musician, doctor and missionary. The President of Harvard at the present time is a noted chemist as well as a distinguished executive. Robert E. Lee was a brilliant soldier who also, as an educator, left his mark on his native state to this day. Leibnitz was a diplomat and philosopher; S.B.F. Morse not only invented the telegraph but was a painter of unusual ability; the man who thought up the idea of savings banks was a minister of the Gospel; King David was a poet, musician, general and monarch.

Samuel the Versatile

SAMUEL, Judge of Israel, was another such man. "Jack of all trades but master of none" does not describe him, for he was master of whatever he did. He has gone down in history as a prophet—what in our times is called a preacher; but this was by no means all. He served his generation in other ways as well.

He was the chief executive of the people, king without the title. Though possessed of dictatorial powers, when during a wave of unpopularity he resigned, and dared his critics to produce one single case of dishonesty or graft, none was brought against him.

He was a circuit judge, going from one city to another dispensing justice. He acted as a priest, indeed as the high priest of his people. We know of one occasion when he led his people in battle, and he was as successful as if war had always been his business. He was a king-maker, for God entrusted to him twice the delicate mission of selecting Israel's king.

Times and the Man

TWO thoughts strike one who reads the story of Samuel. One is the way his great and many-sided powers were used for public service. Put into modern terms, he could have made a fortune if he had "stuck to private practice" but used his talents for himself. But at no time and in no way did Samuel work for Samuel. He worked for God and his country, and he died a poor but honored man.

One of the greatest needs of the nation today is men of Samuel's calibre, triple-threat men.

We have plenty of small-calibre bureaucrats, and we have plenty of large-calibre men who are quite selfish. How few unselfish large-calibre men there are! The other thought is that the times and the man go together. A man's greatness comes in large part from his opportunities.

John Milton helped make England—but England also helped make him. Samuel helped make Israel, but at some other stage in history, he might have lived and died a country priest.

Let no man think himself self-made; not even a great man. Without the God who endows him with his gifts, without the times that call forth the gifts, even the most gifted shrink to little or nothing.

Quite a crop!

In 1949 this Company added almost 4,800 telephones in the rural areas of Maryland. To do this, we had to raise more than 4,800 telephone poles and string more than 4,600 miles of wire. We also installed a lot of additional equipment in our central offices.

"We'll call as soon as we arrive home"

Fulfilling that reassuring promise is made possible only because thousands of miles of telephone channels are at your immediate disposal—wherever you are, at any time of the night or day. This fast, dependable Long Distance service is yours to enjoy at low cost.

Do not disturb

It's a good policy not to interrupt on your telephone party line, too. Hanging up gently when you find the line in use is almost certain to get you the same kind of treatment from your neighbors. And that neighborly co-operation applies to an emergency, too, with anyone on the line ready and willing to hang up quickly.
