WHAT DOES THE FUTURE HOLD?

A half century ago I read a book by Edward Bellamy purporting to live in 1950 and to tell what had happened during the past fifty years. He missed the air-plane, the Atomic bomb and the H-bomb. It is not given to man to penetrate the future and tell what will happen.

Greater things will happen in the future. It is to be feared that man will progress so far that he will unleash some force that will destroy the world.

When I was a student at the Johns Hopkins University the great Sir Archibald Ramsey, the great British chemist visited us and gave us a lecture on the future status of the world, in which he said among other things that there was energy enough in a thimble full of sand to blow the largest battle ship over the highest mountain. It looks now as tho his predictions have about been fulfilled. But the end is not yet in view. When it will all end none can tell. In the language of Patrick Henry the world cries peace, peace, but there is no peace. For thousands of years men have fought battles and killed each other and are likely to continue to do so. Not until Jesus comes again to earth will there be universal peace.

UNITED NATIONS PROMISED WORLD PEACE

The foundations of the United Nations were laid in Washington, D. C., August 21 to October 7, 1944 and 59 Nations joined within a year. The purpose—and proposals—were for the maintenance of World Peace.

The charter of the United Nations was drawn and signed (June 26) by 50 Nations. Nine Nations signed afterwards. The charter became effective on October 24, 1945. Peace was pledged by the United Nations. Even Russia sneaked in.

The seat of the United Nations was established with temporary headquarters in New York City, at Lake Success, New York. The functions and powers were tightened up. If those 59 Nations had all kept the pledge there would be no war in Korea today.

But the Russians started their cold war in early months, with diabolical treachery to defeat the purposes of the United Nations.

Communism was openly defended by the Russians, and imposed upon every country that could be influenced or bulldozed. The Communists established a stronghold in Germany.

In apparently a very short time the Communists practically destroyed the hope of the peace of the world. The United States opened its money chests to the tune of billions of dollars and distributed a large part of it among Nations that were loyally supporting the United Nations.

At every session of the United Nations Communist Russia insulted the United States, Great Britain, France and other Nations.

The United States attempted to brush aside the threats of the Communists. When it was found that many of the Communies were spying and working right here in the United States our people all over the Nation gradually began to be aroused.

The political quarrels in Congress were anything except statesmanship. The Russians "pumped up" the Korean War, and did it so fast that it was under way and doing so much damage that President Truman took the bear by the tail and moved our forces into Korea. Every person in our country knows what is going on and that there is fighting in that God-forsaken area.—J. E. Jones.

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

STROMSBURG, NEBR., HEAD-LIGHT: "The government has buried its gold in Kentucky and its silver in West Point, New York. The taxpayer will be buried, as has been the custom for years, in the little hometown cemetery."

ENID, OKLA., DAILY EAGLE: "It is remarkable how politicians can delude themselves into thinking that the way to help any interest... and, also, to get votes... is to offer that group or interest a subsidy out of the Federal treasury. This when the facts are that about all most groups want from government is to be let alone to work out their own problems and to prosper or profit according to their abilities. This with government acting in its proper roll, of course, of course, to keep the rules."

ONAWAY, MICHIGAN, NEWS: "After exhaustive hearings, the Public Service Commission allowed the Bell Telephone Company a raise in rates. If our memory serves us right the company recently allowed an increase in wages and increased pension benefits. The money to pay this increased cost of doing business must come from somewhere. The only place is from the consumer."

DAVIS, CALIF. ENTERPRISE: "Today it seems more important to a lot of people to get free handouts, or Federal aid or subsidies or one of the many something-for-nothings benevolently provided in Washington even though they bring them no little dictation and abuse. Of course, it's easier to bow the knee as long as the hand is filled. But that attitude would never have won our independence back in 1776. And it might be said that it will not maintain our internal independence and freedom if we continue to look more to Government and less to ourselves for the solution to our problems."

THIS 'N' THAT

Boy, Mike! That was wonderful!" Mike was brought to his Master for a loving pat and as Your Observer studied the Master's face which was crimson saw tears in his eyes!

A fifteen month's old Fox Terrier was named the best dog in the show and carried off all the honors. This was the first time in memory of fanciers that one so young had flown so high. It was from New York.

A dog show is most interesting to see for young and old and it will make you want a dog and love a dog even if you never owned one!

If a dog loves you, you are really loved! Your dog does not ask for anything in life but your love and in return he will love you and protect you with his very life! He understands you even more so than you understand your dog and he is most patient with your every thought! There is no truer saying than "Your dog is your best pal". He will love dog is a member of the family and pick that member of his own accord and if he does just that you are really loved!

How shocked Your Observer was to learn of the death of the nice grocery lady! She had the sweetest sincere and was most loyal and sincere to her close friend whose father built "Loves' Retreat".

On T. V. last week there was an English wrestler from Piccadilly. He was another of those cunning and sneaky wrestlers! The part that surprised Your Observer was because he was of English blood! English men have always been the most honorable men in any sports the world over. In England, the name of their "PRIZE FIGHTING" is called "Gentlemen's Boxing." Super Man was not given a chance due to the ending of that bout on the part of that guy from Piccadilly who was unfair all around in his holds and that awful kicking. The audience realizing it all from the start was 100% with Super Man!

Be sure and stop in at our nice new 'Hardware' as that store has just about everything and displayed beautifully which will remind you of something you really need. Then another nice part, the customer is welcomed with a smile which helps that store its business.

Talk about Service, Folks! That little man at the Purina Co., sent around 100 pound sack of chick feed so fast to the hungry chicks that I thought that it was dropped here by plane by that nice driver because I told him over the phone that there was not even a cup full! And that reminds me if you want to convince yourself of Purina, just call to gaze upon five weeks old chicks! Something out of this world!

To convince any one in these United States or all over the world as far as the beautiful girls in Baltimore they should have witnessed the Easter parade on North Charles Street on Sunday afternoon!

Never were styles more lovely and more becoming! Never was there such a crowd on Easter Sunday up toward University Parkway. The late afternoon is the best time to witness it all. This year it appeared so very gay as a fiesta of some kind and everything was so very glamorous. The sun was shining brilliantly which took off the chill of the atmosphere. In the early morning there was the "Sunrise Service" at the Stadium and due to the terribly cold early hours, and people so thinly clad, there will be many made ill. They were shivering and shaking! Baltimore is a little too far North for the Sunrise Service. There were as many colored families there as white. It was pitiful to see how very cold everyone appeared.

A little girl was very ill and quickly taken to Johns Hopkins Hospital. As the distraught father sat beside the bedside in great anxiety, the child said suddenly, "Daddy did you see Jesus when you came into the hospital in the hall?" The father thinking the illness was affecting the child to the extent that she did not know what she was saying. He replied, "No, dear I didn't notice!" The father never went to church. After many weeks the child became well and was being wheeled by the attendant to the awaiting automobile through the same hall as when the little girl arrived. "Oh, stop here a minute, please, Daddy, I want you to walk over so as you can feel Christ!" The father lifted his loved child to the floor and gently took her hand walking over toward the huge statue of Christ. "Now, Daddy there is Christ! See him, Daddy? Just lay your hand upon him, Daddy and then you can say to everyone that you really felt Christ!" The father sobbed loudly that everyone in the lobby turned to look at him. From that day to this—that father is one of the big men of Christ in his church where he joined upon returning to his home! "And a little child shall lead them!"

A few Sundays ago, Your Observer made a call in Elkridge to meet a very close friend who has resided in a bungalow for many years. After the Washington Blvd. was made wider taking some of the ground of my friend's property, they placed a small bridge from the road to the property. The snow flurries we had in fact the only one layed on this concrete floor and as my friend was walking across, she fell and struck the back of her head causing a concussion of the brain and a paralyzed muscle of the eye. She was unconscious for awhile. How long she did not know. When she told me this part of the story knowing no one was there at the home at the time, I quickly said, "Oh, how did you get back to the house, Maud?" To this she replied, "I asked God to Help me!"

On your Television station, Folks at 10:30 each Sunday night there is always, "Youth for Christ" with Percy Crawford. You will love every minute of it. It is WAAM—Channel 13—"A Channel toward and for Christ!"

The following read by Metcalfe—"If we put on some fancy clothes—to go to church today. Then let it be for God and not for neighborhood display. And let us be unmindful of our dress. As we implore forgiveness. For God is not persuaded by the garments that we wear... but only by the color and... Appearance of our prayer. And only by the texture and... The quality of soul... And how the humble heart may weave... The fabric of it's goal... It matters not how new the suit... Or bright the hat and gown... But only how sincere we are... When we are kneeling down!"

So long, Folks. Have a grand week end. Will be seeing you next week. DV. I am,

Did you know the city of Boston which has 776,000 men, women and children live in peace and security? There is no secret weapon as that city keeps its 'COPS' feet on the ground in other words, their police walk the streets instead of riding around in cars which enables them to get immediately near the crime. Therefore, Boston keeps it's head level with 2,491 men on foot and many say the city is 'old fashioned' but the proof is in the pudding! Boston operates only 46 Radio Patrol cars and there are three policemen on foot to every man on wheels! Through this method at all times, it has reflected favorably in Boston's crime for the year of 1949.

Now, this is something awfully funny and Your Observer would like to know WHY? Recently in the death column in the city of Baltimore was the name of a man who passed on and whom Your Observer knew. This husband and his wife were miserably unhappy and lived together many years until his death. I heard the wife state how very much hatred existed in their hearts and yet, Folks in that announcement it read, "BELOVED," husband of so and so! Do you know the answer to that one? Your Observer loathes deceit of any kind!

So long, Folks. Have a grand week end. As you go on your vacation, you will enjoy yourself more if you keep Christ in your heart! Your Observer will be at home for a real rest and relaxation and then I'll be seeing you! D.V. I am,

Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

FEESBURG

The 4-H and Farm Bureau annual rally was held at the Taneytown Fair ground on Tuesday and Wednesday. These two days are really taken over by the future farmers and homemakers of Carroll County and the results of their work is truly amazing. When one sees the pride in a young boy's face as he shows his farm animal or the skill of a twelve year old girl as she demonstrates how to bake a cake, one feels confident that the broad farm lands of America will be inherited by capable and willing hands. Spending two days with the 4-H boys and girls is a very gratifying experience for some how one comes away with the feeling that even though the outlook for the future is grim, somehow, the youth of our country will find a solution.

Mrs. Gladys Wimer, chairman of the Carroll County Chapter of Infantile Paralysis reports that since January 1 to the present time $2623 has been paid out to rehabilitate three cases of polio in Kernan's Hospital, from Carroll County. This leaves a substantial balance in the bank for future cases if needed.

Such foods as peanut butter, jelly, mustard, catsup and cake icings are being sold in collapsible tubes of the type now used for shaving cream and tooth paste.

Since everyone has the atom bomb in mind these days it might be interesting to know that the safest place to hide during an atomic-bomb attack is a smoke-stack. This conclusion is based on the fact that few smokestacks were knocked down during the attack on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The only drawback is that there are too few smokestacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Broadwater had their young son Brian baptized Sunday morning preceding the church service at Mt. Union Lutheran Church. The Rev. Donald Warrenfeltz, pastor of the church performed the ceremony.

What would your answer be if someone asked you: "Who are you?" Does this sound like a silly question? Perhaps it does, but psychologists find that the answers you give furnish a key to your personality.

Mrs. Truman Myers has returned to her home in Union Bridge after being operated on at the Union Memorial Hospital.

Miss Wanda Douglas and Miss Louise Stouch have returned to their home in Littlestown after spending two weeks with Miss Nancy Roelke at Merry Knoll.

This is National Farm Safety Week and all farmers are urged to apply safety practices on the farm in order to reduce the tremendous loss of life in rural areas. Here in Maryland close to 100 farm workers are killed annually on farms. Tractors and corn pickers seem to be the two pieces of machinery that take the greatest toll of life, and trying to save time seems to be the third factor, "make haste slowly" should be a motto to all who use mechanized equipment.

Do animals have a language which enables them to talk to one another? Our ten year old daughter thinks so. For five weeks she had four kittens which lived with their mother in the wash house. On Monday they disappeared and for a time we were completely mystified as to what could have happened to them. We searched everywhere but could find no trace of them. On Wednesday at the 4-H Fair we met our neighbor and she told us our cat and four kittens were at her house. How did a mother cat induce her four kittens to travel a mile across two fields when the kittens had never been any farther than twenty feet from their birth place before? If someone knows the answer, we would like to know it too.

Hoarding shows a lack of faith. A lack of faith in one's self, in one's government, in one's future and in one's God. In our prayers we say: "Give us this day our daily bread" and the Bible cautions us not to worry too much of tomorrow. Why do we hoard? Because we fear, but we don't know what we fear. We are afraid we will have to do without certain things we have been used to, but even if we don't have all the sugar, all the nylons, or all the bed sheets we have been accustomed to, would it really hurt us? One's character is forged on the anvil of sacrifice, but America has never known real sacrifice—at least not the America of the last 50 years. May be its time we did learn, for if we don't we may wake up some fine morning like Rome and see all our glory and all our wealth crumble before an enemy who knows the real meaning of sacrifice; who has practiced it for centuries, who saw their children starve to death rather than let them eat the wheat set aside for the next year's planting.

A fib is a lie in rompers.

FRIZELLBURG

The Women's Guild of Baust Reformed Church met in the Parish House on Monday evening. The worship program was in charge of Mrs. Russell Brock. A very interesting program followed which was arranged by Mrs. M. S. Reifsnnyder. The entire program was about Japan. Mrs. Russell Brock told of the customs of the Japanese people and later Rev. Reifsnnyder showed slides pertaining to the same subject with Mrs. Reifsnnyder as narrator. Mrs. Leonard Bowers then told how we can be better friends with Japan. Mrs. Martin Rodkey and Mrs. Lloyd Bowers sang a duet, "Faith of Our Fathers." The climax of the program was a Japanese tea. Following the Guild meeting the Youth Fellowship held a short business meeting. Plans were made for a wieners' roast and vesper service to be held August 20 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bloom. Miss Jean Wantz and Anna Koonitz will plan the program for the evening. A card of thanks was read from Larry Bowers for the basket of fruit received during his recent illness. "If a man would be a christian."

"If a man would be a soldier he'd expect of course to fight;

And he couldn't be an author if he didn't try to write;

So it isn't common logic—doesn't have a real, true ring

That a man to be a Christian doesn't have to do a thing.

If a man would be a hunter, he must go among the trees,

And he couldn't be a sailor if he wouldn't sail the seas;

How strange for any member of the church to think—that he can stay away from worship and a worthy member be."

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Brigadier General James P. S. Devereux, U. S. Marine Corps (Ret'd.) Republican Candidate for Congress from Maryland's 2nd Congressional District, today officially announced his selection of Thomas W. Offutt, Baltimore County business-man, as campaign manager.

In agreeing to coordinate the campaign lead by General Devereux, Mr. Offutt, formerly a Democrat, explained, "This is no longer a question of politics...this is an emergency brought about by the actions of the Truman administration."

Referring to his previous political affiliation, the 42-year old resident of Owings Mills, Md., remarked, "I feel that it is time to stop playing party politics...and time to elect men to public office who are qualified to fill the responsibilities of that office."

Mr. Offutt, who is President of the Baltimore County Supply Co., President of the Baltimore County Mortgage Co., and a Director of the 2nd National Bank in Towson, further pointed out that the Devereux campaign was not a campaign of politicians interested in selfish gain....

"But rather," emphasized Mr. Offutt, "A fighting crusade by the citizens of the 2nd Congressional District to make sure that their representative in Congress is a man who, by virtue of his background in national and foreign affairs, is fully capable of considering the true significance of the many crucial problems facing this very much troubled nation today."

General Devereux, World War II hero and defender of Wake Island, filed his certificate of candidacy as Republican Congressman from Maryland's 2nd district in Annapolis on June 20th.

The General, who was Commanding Officer of the Marine Detachment during the heroic, but futile defense of Wake Island in December, 1941, presently resides with his wife and two sons, Paddy and John, on their farm in Stevenson, Maryland.

Don't use kerosene to start fires. Pour kerosene or gasoline outdoors to prevent the accumulation of treacherous vapors. Dry clean outdoors.

Paved yards and feeding floors are a valuable addition to the livestock farm, especially where lots are flat and poorly drained.

MRS. JOHN J. GARNER

Mrs. Lydia M. Garner, 79, wife of John J. Garner, died at her home near Westminster, Saturday morning, July 22, 1950. She had been in declining health for the last several years. Mrs. Garner was a daughter of the late Jonas and Mary Royer. She was a member of the Church of the Brethren for 63 years and was affiliated with the Ladies' Aid Society of the Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren.

Surviving are her husband; two sons, Ralph L., Baltimore, and J. Sterling, Westminster; a daughter, Miss Rachael H., at home; a brother and sister, Jesse Royer, and Louise Lippy, Westminster.

The funeral was held Monday, meeting at the late residence at 2 P. M., followed by rites in the Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren. The Rev. Jacob Repogle, pastor of the First Church of the Brethren, Baltimore, officiated, assisted by the Rev. William Roop. Interment was made in the church cemetery. C. O. Fuss & Son, were in charge of funeral arrangements.

In Loving Memory of my only sister, MRS. CHARLES WELK, who passed away 5 years ago July 30.

Beyond the sunset, Oh glad reunion With those dear loved ones Who have gone before In that dear homeland, There will be no parting Beyond the sunset forever more. Lonely Sister, MRS. CHARLES MARKER.

Let's Think

by
G. H. ENFIELD

BE WHAT YOU CLAIM TO BE

It was a Jew who wrote: "For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly." He means to say that one must be inwardly what one professes to be outwardly. Otherwise, one is a hypocrite. According to Paul, one must be at heart what one claims to be by word of mouth. To be a true Republican is it not requisite that one accept and observe republican principles? I am not a genuine Presbyterian unless I am a Presbyterian inwardly. However, I may still be a Christian, for all Christians are not Presbyterians. "Once a Democrat always a Democrat," does not mean that one, at the same time, is not a true American. One can be a real American without being a strict partisan. One may be a more devoted member of a larger group by affiliating with a smaller group of adherents. In other words, one should be better qualified to represent the great Methodist denomination by being a member of the local Methodist church. One should be a truer American by belonging to the Democratic or Republican party. However, one is not a Jew, which is one outwardly. The nature of a Jew must characterize him, Jewish ideals, principles, and teachings, must dominate his thought, life, and actions. The quoted words mean, whatever you claim to be, be that in reality. Do not be a mere shadow-boxer.

The economic motive tends frequently to make one outwardly what one is not inwardly. A man, whose family depends upon his job as a means of livelihood, may stoop to practices beneath his dignity as a man, or of his own true self. Too often the keeping of a job depends upon the theory, "When in Rome do as the Romans do." Yes, the complexities of life make life complex. It requires constant vigilance to keep one's self, in wrestling with many of life's problems, from becoming a Jew outwardly when not a Jew inwardly, or vice versa, figuratively speaking.

THE HARVEST MOON

The harvest moon is shining on the lea

And homeward from his labor flies the bee

The autumn days are rolling o'er us fast

And off from indolence sloth is cast

We wonder at the speeding gait of time

And stand in awe to find the proper rhyme

The rose has shed its sweetness in the air

The bluebell and the cowslip everywhere

Have had their day and fled away

But we poor mortals, each must stay

We wonder what the next day will bring forth

From South, or West, or East, or destiny North

The chilling snow is now upon the way

And will not longer wait, or longer stay,

Tis mighty fine to live in such a time

When everything is ripened for our need

We may consume it from the rhind to seed.

Strong alkaline substances such as washing soda or ammonia are hard on painted surfaces because they dry the paint and in time flake off.

When stitching sheer fabric on a sewing machine, prevent puckering of the material by basting it to strips of tissue paper. After stitching, the paper is easily pulled off.

The water consumption of your laying flock can and must be increased during the summer to maintain egg production.

Aluminum Extraction

A process has been developed which allows aluminum to be extracted from bauxite more easily and at less expense.

Pudding Flavor

Orange and lemon peels scalded, dried, and ground into a coarse powder are excellent for flavoring sauces, puddings, and cakes.

Prevent Waste

Waste makes want. To prevent waste, do not pare vegetables thickly, discard wholesome edibles, or drain away fat.

Shock Protection

Aircraft designers are replacing rubber with stainless steel wire cushions to protect delicate instruments from shock and vibration.

John Adams

John Adams was the first President to live in the White House. He was the second President of the United States and the first Vice-President, serving two terms in that office under George Washington.

Matanuska Valley

Harvesting in the Matanuska Valley, Alaska's richest farming district, is a large-scale operation. The farms that lie in this fertile valley have produced 20-pound turnips and cabbages weighing as much as 50 pounds.

Oil from Steam

The oil shale is crushed and treated with steam as it moves over a perforated plate underlaid with crushed rock. The steam causes the oil to escape and drip into a container.

Uncle Sam Says

Veterans, Be Wise! Some of you have already received a National Service Life Insurance dividend which should be the means of starting a sound financial future. The smart veteran, in addition to using some of that money for essentials, will put the balance to work for him by investing it in U. S. Savings Bonds. Every dividend dollar set aside in Savings Bonds is a working dollar, busy earning extra dollars. Then, after that initial investment, sign up where you work for the purchase of Savings Bonds regularly, on each payday. START SAVING IN 1950 FOR 1960.

Do You Want To Cut Your Federal Taxes?

Slash Government Cost

If your personal or business expenses go up and your income and efficiency come down this year at the same rate as that of the Federal Government, you will be in the hands of the sheriff at an early date.

Workers, farmers, and businessmen from Maine to California know this. The answer is in the Report of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government. This twelve-man, bipartisan Commission was unanimously created by Congress with the approval of the President. At the suggestion of Mr. Truman, former President Hoover was made its Chairman and Secretary of State Dean Acheson, Vice Chairman. The late President Franklin D. Roosevelt long had advocated such a reorganization of the government.

There is a two-fold purpose behind the effort to reorganize the Executive Branch of the Government: One—the elimination of the inefficiency caused by overlapping and duplication; two—this should lead to a reduction of your taxes. If our Government can save from three to four billion dollars a year by more efficient methods of conducting our business, failure to act is stupid short-sightedness.

Action, however, depends upon the President and Congress. The President has already submitted a number of reorganization recommendations. The Congress has adopted several of these, most important having to do with the housekeeping of the armed forces, which save the taxpayer more than $500,000,000 a year. But these are only first steps. There will be more ahead if Congress is made to realize Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer want more tax-saving economies. Congressmen and Senators will vote for just so many of the Commission's recommendations as you, their constituents, demand.

What can you, as an individual, do about it? The answer is to write your Congressman and Senators. Tell them you want the Recommendations of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Federal Government made the law of the land. Join the non-partisan Citizens Committee set up to obtain the necessary action to make the Commission's report work. Write to the Citizens Committee for Reorganization of the Executive Branch of the Government, 1421 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia 2, Pennsylvania, for more information about the Commission Report. Tell your neighbors about it. Make speeches! Make your representatives in Washington act—now!

The Power of Kindness

WHEN we study the life of Christ Jesus, we are impressed with his great kindness and compassion. It was intelligent kindness, based on close communion with God. As we follow his example, spiritualization of thought lifts us above the material problems of sin, sickness, disease, and lack, and we are ready to bless those with whom we come in contact in our daily experience.

To be kind and compassionate does not mean having no differences of opinion. Such differences are bound to exist under changing conditions of knowledge, of opportunity, government, and environment, but they can be held in friendliness. Jesus counseled (Matthew 5:44), "bless your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you."

Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, practiced kindness and writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 9), "If selfishness has given place to kindness, we shall regard our neighbor unselfishly, and bless them that curse us; but we shall never meet this great duty simply by asking that it may be done."

Deeds of kindness may seem small in themselves, but they prove powerful when inspired by love. Where love is there must be kindness, and kindness is a wellspring of peace.

Why then allow procrastination to rob us of the joy and progress which can be ours if we will but take time to cultivate kindness in place of crusty criticism? With true kindness we can turn obstacles into opportunities and stumbling blocks into steppingstones.

The world is confronted with the need for establishing peace. We can help. When we turn to God for spiritual inspiration and guidance, not just with words, but with a deep sincerity and an abiding confidence in His loving-kindness, we see strife, fear, and greed give place to tolerance, humility, and kindness. To be at peace with ourselves is to help establish peace for all. Through such individual spiritual progress strife, wars, hatred and intolerance will lessen until they disappear.

Are we as individuals following Jesus' practice of kindness and compassion when we appear discouraged, disheartened, critical, crusty, and cruel in our dealings with those in our home, our office, our church, or our classrooms? What we know of God is seen in the loving-kindness with which we treat others. In the brief one hundred and seventeenth Psalm we are exhorted to praise God because "his merciful kindness is great toward us." —The Christian Science Monitor.

Great Man's Faith

Lesson for July 30, 1950

NO MAN is too busy to serve God. He may think he is, but the excuse will not stand. There are too many busy men who do serve God. One of the most famous men in history is a shining example. If ever a King was "too busy" to attend to religion, David would have been the man. His kingdom was a new one, cemented together from tribes that had been at one another's throats not so long before. He was surrounded by enemies who kept him at war most of the time. He was commander-in-chief of the army, chief justice of such courts as there were, chief executive in civic affairs; and furthermore, the times were not "normal" but turbulent in the extreme. Still he had time for religion. He led in that as in everything else.

Dr. Foreman

Public Religion

THE first thing he did as king was to conquer the "unconquerable" city of Jerusalem, which had been in enemy hands for hundreds of years. And the next thing he did was to bring the Ark to Jerusalem and settle it there, making Jerusalem not only the civil but the religious capital of the nation.

In an almost spectacular way the king made himself sponsor for the organized religion of his people. For centuries before David, the Ark and all the formal worship that went with it had been stuck off in minor towns, inaccessible and unpopular, in fact disregarded by most of the people, as the book of Judges shows.

Now David, by bringing the Ark to Jerusalem and selecting for it a site on the city's highest hill, made sure that in his realm religion would never be an obscure thing. Sometimes we hear people say, "I believe in Christianity but not in the church." That is like saying "I believe in justice but not in the courts." "I believe in love but not in marriage." "I believe in education but not in schools."

David knew that if organized, public religion has to hide in holes and corners, it will not only lose respect, but people will soon forget all about it. The Ark was not an idol; neither is the Church. But if the Ark then, and the Church now, do anything else for religion, at least they keep it out where people can't help knowing about it.

Private Religion

DAVID knew, as some of his successors did not, that public worship is not the whole of religion. His personal relationships were controlled by his religious faith.

Take the case of Mephibosheth (chap. 9) for instance. If David had followed the usual pattern, he would have had poor Mephibosheth beheaded before breakfast. For this young man was the one remaining grandson (so far as we knew then) of David's bitter enemy, King Saul.

In those days you always went on the principle that if a man was your enemy, so were all his relatives. It was generally true, too; and under the customs of those days Mephibosheth might have been expected to plan revenge, sooner or later, for his grandfather's and father's deaths.

David did not let him sink into obscurity but gave him what we would call a pension, a princely one too, treating him as if he were one of his own family.

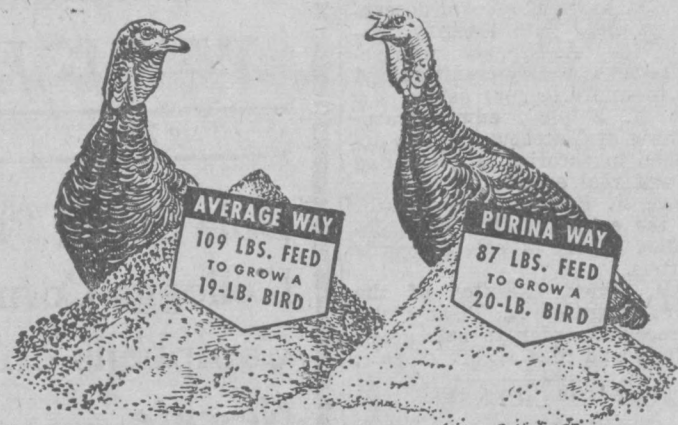

The Inner Life

WELL, religion has its outside but it also has its inside. Public worship and loving your neighbors are not the root of religion but its fruit. The roots of it are deep within the soul. And David had that true faith which comes from within.

He was humble, not proud, as Psalm 24 shows. Great king though he was, he knew there is only one King of Glory. He was confident, as every leader must be; but his confidence was based not on himself but on his God. (II Sam. 22, which is re-written as Psalm 18.)

And when David sinned, as he shamefully did, he did not make excuses for himself or sink with easy satisfaction into his worst self. If to be a saint is to be without sin, then David was no saint (and you are one?). But if being a saint means that in spite of sin one comes to have the cleansing kind of experience that Psalm 51 records, then David was a man after God's own heart.

LAST INSTALLMENT OF REV. OWENS' TRIP TO CINCINNATI

IV

A visit to the city of Cincinnati offers many interesting sidelights in addition to the exacting duties as a commissioner to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. A. A. One of these was a visit to the Chamber of Commerce. This was done during the noon hour, the intermission between the morning and afternoon sessions. The Chamber of Commerce occupies palatial quarters on the tenth floor of the Federal Reserve Bank Building. Numerous offices, staffed with secretaries, were much in evidence. I was ushered into the office of Public Relations. When it was learned that I was a member of the chamber of commerce back home, and a commissioner to the General Assembly, I was received with great courtesy, and asked what they could do for me.

In reply I asked three questions. The first was this: If a visitor had the time to see only one important thing in Cincinnati, what would you advise? One of the places recommended was to visit Proctor and Gamble Soap Factory at Ivorydale, which was described in last week's article.

The second question was this: How do you attract industries to come to Cincinnati? For it was observed that the city leads the world in the production of soap, machine, tools, playing cards, and electrotypes, and is one of the leading industrial cities of America. In reply the secretary handed me a little booklet attractively designed. It outlined the reasons why industries should come to Cincinnati. The reasons given in the booklet would not apply to Taneytown. But they suggest the advisability of outlining the reasons why small industries should come to Taneytown. Such reasons could be filed with the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce through which such inquiries are usually channelled.

The third question concerned the name of the city. Why was it called Cincinnati? It came, you will recall, from the Revolutionary Society of Veterans called Cincinnati, from the ancient dictator who retired, and stood for the retirement of all dictators.

In this city of historic origin and record where the 162nd General Assembly met, are many stories clothed with Presbyterian lore. One of the foremost is the story of Lyman Beecher who reached the climax of his fame a little over 100 years ago. His old mansion still remains as one of the landmarks of the city. For many years prior to the Civil War Lyman Beecher was president of Lane Seminary, a Presbyterian Theological School, and pastor of the Covenant-First Presbyterian Church. He raised one of the most gifted and remarkable families in American history. One son, Henry Ward Beecher, achieved the fame of being called the Shakespeare of the American pulpit. And a daughter, Harriett, wrote Uncle Tom's Cabin, a book that so inflamed the North against slavery as to precipitate the Civil War.

In the days of Lyman Beecher there was a tunnel running from the Ohio River up to the Seminary, a distance of probably 1 mile, through which the run-away slaves escaped from the south. For Cincinnati, called the gateway of the south, is the most southern of all northern cities. For this reason the underground railway for the escape of slaves to the north 100 years ago, had its terminus at Cincinnati. Here Harriet Beecher gathered material for her world famed book, Uncle Tom's Cabin.

As great things happened in the past, so great things happened at Cincinnati again this year at the meeting of the General Assembly. For while the Presbyterian Church has not been the largest church in America, it has always been one of the most influential, exercising a leadership far out of proportion to its size. One among the most revolutionary steps concerns the realignment of Synods. While the Federal Government talks about reorganization and economy, the Presbyterian Church put it into practice. The number of Synods will be reduced from 40 to 12. These 12 synods will be geographically located into 12 regions of America with an executive over each. He will not be called Bishop by General Synod. This will enable the Presbyterian Church to avoid duplication in personnel and expense, and also enable the church to face more efficiently the critical conditions in our country and in our world.

Plans were announced for a national Presbyterian Center in the nation's capitol at Washington. The structure will be a ten story Presbyterian Church at a cost of about $1,000,000. Also a recommendation was passed looking toward organic union with the Southern Presbyterian Church, and the Reformed Churches, and other Evangelical Protestant Bodies.

PRESBYTERIAN LIFE
Presbyterian Life, the official magazine of the Presbyterian Church, won the National Award for 1950 over 98 other church papers as being the best religious journal published in America for this year. The award was given by the Associated Church Press. Numerous articles in Presbyterian Life have been reprinted in such popular magazines as Readers Digest, Magazine Digest, Time, and News Week, and many religious journals. Another surprising step taken with reference to Presbyterian Life, was designed to increase the circulation. This is a problem faced by about all religious journals. This surprising step was the announcement that the subscription price will be reduced from $3.50 per year to $1.00 if each active family in the church will take the paper. By this plan the circulation is expected to be stepped up by about 1000%.

Almost every agency of the church reported at the General Assembly, and sketched plans for the future. It was pointed out that the Presbyterian Pension System for retired ministers, was the best organized and paid the most liberal pensions of any church in America. Yet that is in of the population were in the church 75 years ago. Last year Protestants adequate. Plans were discussed concerning the possibility of doubling the present pension benefits to retired ministers, or building a series of homes for them, that none may ever come to want.

A vote on Social Education and Action, marked the close of the General Assembly. This is a most controversial area where the church seeks to find the Christian answer to the social problems before America and the world. Here steps were taken to tighten up on the remarriage of divorced persons, gambling, alcohol, mixed marriages. Other commitments included a non-segregated society, international control of atomic weapons, national order, and world order, and many other areas looking toward a more Christian national and world order.

The over-all picture gained at Cincinnati, was one of hope. Evidences of a spiritual revival were heard from many sources. That's America's most effective answer to Communism. Church membership is on the rapid increase, and growing much faster than the population. In the past 10 years the percentage of population holding church membership has increased from 49 to 54.2. Only 20% of the population were in the church 75 years ago. Last year Protestants gained nearly 1 1/2 million new members, or a gain of 2.9% while the Roman Catholics gained 2%. The upward gain of religious forces in America is one of the most hopeful and encouraging on the horizon today. It is a great privilege to anyone to be a commissioner to any national religious body and to get a picture of what the church is doing in America and in the world.

CANDIDATE FOR NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR

Theodore R. McKeldin, Attorney and former Mayor of Baltimore has announced he will seek the Republican nomination for Governor of Maryland. Mr. McKeldin has sought this office twice, unsuccessfully.

Two other Republicans are seeking this office—namely, State Senator Roy Pasco Davis, of Montgomery County and D. John Markey, a World War Veteran, of Walkersville. Mr. McKeldin does not have the blessing of Mr. Jacob France—yet. Mr. France is Republican National Committeeman of Maryland.

PRESBYTERIAN PICNIC

The annual Sunday School picnic of the Piney Creek Presbyterian Church will be held on the church lawn on next Tuesday evening, Aug. 1. After the picnic the new religious film entitled "Second Chance" will be shown through the courtesy of Luther Ridinger.
