LIONS CLUB MEETS

Mr. S. M. Jenness was the Speaker

The broadened scope and changed conditions in our school system today make education a very complex and infinitely more expensive commodity, one which needs the interest and thought of the public as never before. Speaking before the Taneytown Lions Club at its regular meeting Tuesday, Samuel M. Jenness, superintendent of schools for Carroll county, contrasted the modern school plant with the one of a quarter-century ago, using as the background for his remarks a state publication entitled, "A Decade of Progress in Maryland Public Schools, 1939-1949," and his own experience.

It was Thomas Jefferson who wrote of democracy: "I know of no safer depository for the ultimate powers kept by the people themselves, and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is not to take it from them, but to inform their discretion by education." Thus even in the early days of the republic there were those in national life who foresaw the larger aim of public instruction, which no longer is confined to reading, writing and arithmetic, sound and necessary though they be as the groundwork. John Dewey, in similar vein, has asserted that "democracy has to be born anew every generation, and education is the midwife."

Harry B. Dougherty, first vice-president, presided at this session, held in Taney Inn, the president and secretary being in attendance at a Lions zone meeting in Union Bridge, called by past-president, J. Hoke Ommert, who is now chairman of Zone 1, Region 3, comprising the Emmitsburg, Glade Valley, Taneytown, Thurmont and Union Bridge clubs. Lew L. Myers, education chairman, and L. J. Dunlap and Theodore Fair, committee members, got the program together, and Raymond J. Perry, Program chairman, introduced the speaker and also his guest, Mr. Stahl, principal of the new elementary school in Taneytown.

Present also were visiting delegations from neighboring clubs, three from New Windsor, three from Westminster, and four from Williamsport. The season of 100% attendance records starts again with fall, and the Taneytown club achieved that record at their previous meeting. Visitation also score heavily, which generally means a steady stream of guests locally and a program of inter-club visitations designed to cover each Maryland Lions club meeting some time prior to April 30, 1951.

Announcements included the Lions public supper Saturday, October 21st, in the Taneytown Firemen's Hall and the annual Amateur Night, Thursday November 9th, in the high school. A good turnout was reported for the project of erecting swings and a horizontal bar, the gifts of Lions, on the grounds of the Taneytown Recreation Park.

A joint parent-teacher committee to prepare a tentative list of officers has been appointed and all other interested parents are invited to attend. The first meeting of the new association will be held early in October.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETS

The regular meeting of the Taneytown Alumni Association was held on Monday evening, September 18, in the High School Building. Plans for the annual card party were completed. This card party will be held on Thursday, October 12, 1950, in the High School auditorium, at 8:00 P. M.

Arrangements for the Alumni Basketball teams were started on at this meeting. Mrs. Robert Abrecht and Mrs. John Harner will be the coaches for the Girls team, and Mr. John Harner will be coach of the Boys team. Mr. William Rittsue will be the Business Manager for the teams. Mr. Leo Sanders, Miss Phyllis Smith and Mr. Elwood Stonesifer will be time keepers and score keepers for the teams.

The Association is looking into the matter of helping to secure equipment for a teachers lounge for the new elementary school. A committee was appointed to attend to this.

Mr. Nevin Ohler gave a very interesting report at this meeting of the trip to Boys State which he attended under the sponsorship of the Association.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, October 16.

FALL MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Annual Banquet Planned for November 16

A large attendance greeted the first fall meeting of the Taneytown Chamber of Commerce held last Monday night after the accustomed summer recess. The president, Merwyn C. Fuss, presided. A card of thanks was read from Peter Baumgardner for the plant sent to him. Also the Chamber took note that Wilbur Fair had returned home from the hospital. The death of one of the most esteemed members, Ernest Ritter, was noted with many sentiments of regret. A report on the summer outing to Washington was given indicating that it proved a very enjoyable and profitable trip.

Much new business of great interest to Taneytown was transacted. This included the date for the annual Banquet which is always one of the most outstanding social events of the community during the year. The date set was November 16. It was voted likewise to have a program similar to last year, namely, a stage show instead of a speaker. The Secretary was instructed to contact the various organizations interested in serving the meal and secure bids from them on the banquet cost.

By request of the Mayor, and on recommendation of the executive committee, permission was voted to have the memorial Plaque at the Monument removed to the lawn of the American Legion Home. The reason given was that the Plaque is now in the way of the new side walk being constructed from the Monument to the new elementary school.

The chair appointed a nominating committee to bring in a slate of new officers for next year. Those named on the committee were Curtis Bowers, Wallace Reindollar, and Doty Robb. They will report at the October meeting. Election will be held at the November meeting and the installation at the December meeting.

Plans for the annual Christmas celebrations were discussed. It was voted to hold the annual Adult Party

KIWANIS NEWS

Westminster Minister was the Speaker at the Meeting

In the absence of President Lewis Crumpacker, the regularly scheduled meeting of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club was convened as usual at 6:30 p. m., on Wednesday last at Taney Inn by Vice-President David Smith.

After an excellent dinner, group singing was again enjoyed by all present under the leadership of Kiwanian Wallace Reindollar with Mrs. Estella Yingling at the piano.

Six members of the Front Royal Kiwanis Club were in attendance as guests. They were Past Lt. Gov. of the 9th Division, Jim Payne, Frank Chandler, Howard Duncan, A. N. Carroll, Nelson Mahone and R. J. Gardiol. Mr. Carl Drepard was also in attendance as the guest of Kiwanian Bob Smith. Mr. Drepard is an authority on antiques and has issued several volumes in connection with antiques and the method of collecting.

The meeting for the evening was in charge of Publicity and Business Affairs Committee with Kiwanian Z. O. Fiscus in charge who presented the speaker for the evening, the Rev. Mr. Elwood Faulkenstein, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, in Westminster, Md. Mr. Faulkenstein chose as his topic, "The World Today and what we can do about it." He urged those present to endeavor through study and news accounts to realize the value of the United Nations and its various functions. He stated that the United Nations organization in the past two years has settled uprisings in countries comprising one-third of the entire world's population. Their efforts in the promotion of health by furnishing medicines, equipment and personnel to the more backward nations has been a great boon to promoting peace in the world and thus he urged each one to keep aware of the activities of this organization. He also stressed the importance of a sound, sincere faith in God. It is Mr. Faulkenstein's opinion that one of the great faults with the world today is the fact that there has been a loss of individuality and he stressed the importance of our thinking in terms of individuals or persons. He stated that the world's problem in essence are basically in-

DINNER MEETING OF CAS WORKERS

The 1950 Drive for Funds Launched

The 21st anniversary of the Carroll County Children's Aid Society was featured with the launching of the 1950 fund campaign at the Charles Carroll Hotel on Monday evening. This was also the occasion of a first workers dinner and there were 77 present, representing all districts in the county. The affair proved most successful.

F. Kale Mathias, prominent in community activities, was contacted early in the season to serve as the campaign chairman. The dinner was his first move in the campaign and he found a hearty response from many of the workers who will give their support in the campaign. This was a "dutch treat" dinner party.

The goal for the drive this year will be $6,000. All districts have been well organized. The chairman attended the dinner, or sent a representative, so that all the material was received and is ready for distribution. The dates for the campaign have been announced for October 9 through the 21, with concerted effort on the part of all solicitors the first week.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Landon C. Burns who called upon the Rev. J. Leon Haines, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church Hampstead for the invocation. A letter of felicitation upon the 21st anniversary was read from the mother of the organization, Mrs. Frank T. Myers, who served as president of the society for 20 years. She could not be present due to illness in the family.

Miss Bonnie M. Cuskenborder, the social director for the society since its formation, presented two of her children in the program numbers. Joanna Saegusa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Saegusa, near Hampstead, played two piano selections and accompanied for the National Anthem. Leslie Erb, who has made his home for some time with Mrs. Clyde Morningstar, Marston, sang two selections with Mrs. Morningstar accompanying him.

Slides were shown of the pioneer days of the society by Dr. Richard E. Myers, included in the group were pictures of a number of the children who were cared for in the early days and a number have grown into fine citizens and taking their places in their own communities. The film was truly named "Children's Work Marches On."

Mrs. Burns conducted the regular business meeting of the society, with the secretary, Mrs. David Reedy, and the treasurer, Mrs. J. Pearre Wantz, Jr., making their respective reports.

Campaign chairman, Mr. Mathias was then presented. He outlined clearly and precisely the campaign for these next few weeks. He offered full cooperation from his own services and that of the staff at the Children's Aid Society headquarters whenever needed during the campaign. He urged a prompt beginning of work so that reports can be given to headquarters the end of each week. The goal of $6,000, is small compared to the great work being carried on in Carroll County by the society. The few problems in Juven-

THIS 'N' THAT (Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health-life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Did you see it? If not, you missed the most attractive setting upon four wheels! Your Observer is thoroughly convinced now that, "Life Begins at 80". That good looking car with the owners and another couple went sporting and with the top down! Life sure can be wonderful! Never was your Observer so enthused! Just keep going and more power to you! Queen Victoria! Makes me think of that song, "Enjoy Yourself—It's Later than you Think!"

Thinking of cute things—a little girl is nicknamed "Marshmallow" by several in her class! A little three year old went to church with her parents and as the plate was passed she said, "Daddy what is that money used for?" "That is for Jesus, dear!" To this little Sandra asked, "Oh—doesn't He go to work?"

When there are blue days, rainy days and the tiny tots or even bigger ones don't know what to do with themselves, Mother just plays Jacks with them. Your Observer has always kept a set handy. It helps take off the surplus energy while house ridden! And besides it is nice even for adults to play.

The Elementary school is getting to be lovelier all the time as completion takes place. Wish I was a school teacher!

A man in Kentucky noticed a bump in one tire after he had changed a flat. It got so bad he decided to take it off and investigate. Inside he found a metal tire tool he had left in the casing! That is almost as bad as the patient who suffered much misery after an operation and when he was opened up again, the Surgeon found one of his tools! No foolin'!

And this from an Englishman former Lord Mayor of London that the American driver is most courteous, capable and remains on his own side of the road "to an amazing degree"! Ump!

But a physician, an expert on posture called the American technique of climbing into the family car or even a taxicab "a most disgraceful performance" and this is how to enter. Face the front of the car, raise the foot nearest to the side of the car and place it inside on the floor. With a slight push from the ground foot, slide into the seat, straighten the body and bring in the other foot. Practice this and you will be amazed that it is simple and graceful.

Thinking of salesmen for automobiles. There is one down in Westminster who should be given a medal. He is perfection if there ever was one. He is the most gentlemanly gentleman your Observer has ever seen. And what a driver! His wife was born on the ground where Robert E. Lee surrendered.

There is just about the nicest kind of a lad around our town who is employed by the "perfect partner" who came to Maryland from West Virginia. He is one lad who assumes all responsibility and is most conscientious when the big boss is not around. Wish we had more like him.

Did you know that a former Allegany county miner is responsible for the naming of Labor Day? According to records, Robert Price who once worked in a Lonaconing coal mine, named the holiday during a convention of the Knights of Labor in 1882. "On that day" Price is quoted as having said, "labor shall not labor, but go forth and show that it is free and glorious in the right of it's prowess." Price was born in 1835 near Abersywith, Wales.

Centenarian Observes Birthday

Mrs. M. H. Reindollar passed her one hundred birthday Thursday. So far as anyone knows she is the only resident of Taneytown to reach that age. She was born September 28, 1850 in Mifflintown, Pa., the daughter of the Rev. Levi T. Williams and Margaret Immel. Her father was the 9th pastor of Trinity Lutheran church, Taneytown, and lived in the present parsonage from October 10, 1858 to April 1, 1867. It was during these years that the Civil War was being fought, and General Meade had his headquarters in her father's study. Mrs. Reindollar remembered those days and often spoke of how she helped her mother bake bread and pies for the soldiers who sat around on the pavement in front of their house. Other interesting things she remembered and liked to tell were: that the tower of the Lutheran church was used for signaling; that her mother helped drape the church in mourning; and that special services were held in his memory.

After leaving Taneytown, Mrs. Reindollar lived with her parents in Littlestown. In 1875 she married Amos F. LeFevre and lived in Littlestown until his death in 1881. She came to Taneytown in 1882, married Milton H. Reindollar in 1884 and has lived here continuously ever since. Mrs. Reindollar has two children by her first marriage, Mrs. Wm. E. Thomson, of Niles, Ohio, but now in Taneytown with her mother, and Mr.

Frank T. LeFevre, of Blue Ridge Summit, Pa. Also three children by her second marriage, Miss Mary Reindollar, Mr. Wallace and Mr. Harry Reindollar, all of Taneytown.

Mrs. Reindollar is a life-long Lutheran and was faithful in church attendance and active in the various organizations. Her interest in the local missionary society dates back to a few years after she returned to Taneytown which was in 1882. She taught a Sunday school class for many years. When she was not able to attend Sunday School she became a member of the school's Home Department. For about thirty years she has been a member of the Mite Society.

She has been bedfast since September 9. Before that her children lifted her into a chair. Although her sight has failed and she is partially deaf, she liked her friends to visit with her.

On her birthday all five of her children were with her. She received lots of flowers, two birthday cakes with decorations, one from Mrs. Anna Kline, of York, and one from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eckard, two orchids from Cramer Nursery, many gifts, about 200 cards and the love and best wishes of her friends and the people of the town and community.

The Taneytown Chamber of Commerce presented her with two dozen yellow roses, and the Breakfast Club in Hollywood, California, sent her an orchid.

THE COUNTRY PRESS SAYS

PARIS, TENN., PARISIAN: "Latest Civil Service figures show that the U. S. Bureau of Indian Affairs employs 12,741 people to care for the 333,969 Indians in this country. This is an average of one bureaucrat for every 27 Indians."

WHITESBURG, KENTUCKY, MOUNTAIN EAGLE: "Holmes Alexander, newspaper columnist, recently wrote that studies now being made show that Federal propaganda forces—about 45,000 government hired publicity writers—are engaged in a cold war against voluntary health insurance, for example. Pay-it-yourself plans have been entirely too successful for the socialistic state planners. It is sure rubbing it in when we, through taxes, are forced to pay the wages for work that is often against our best interests."

CUERO, TEXAS, RECORD: "Since the beginning of the Korean incident there has been mounting demand from many sources for curtailment of government activities in line with the curtailments which will be demanded of private business and individuals. Industry is expected to submit to materials allocation and to government instructions as to priority of orders; retail business is expected to co-operate in measures to hold down prices and reduce consumer buying, thus reducing their income. Many individuals will have to leave their civilian pursuits and enter military service; those who stay at home are expected to adjust their lives to the needs of national emergency. Why should not the government, also, make sacrifices?"

MIDDLEBOURNE, WEST VIRGINIA, TYLER CO. JOURNAL: "Well inflation can be brought upon ourselves here if we hoard, buy greedily and try to purchase our future needs from today's stock and bid and vie against each other for possession of commodities of life."

EMPORIA, KANSAS, GAZETTE: "The right of revolution proclaimed by Jefferson, and reiterated by Lincoln, was conceived to be the right of the people to overthrow a tyranny, not the right of open advocates of tyranny to overthrow the government of the people."

FEESERSBURG

Carroll County and surrounding area has been beclouded since Sunday by an overcast of smoke that started from smouldering forest fires in far northern Canada. The weather man says such phenomena are rare. The smoke blankets height was estimated at 14,000 feet and thick. On Sunday it became so dark that chickens and birds roosted in the afternoon. Some persons seeing weird red and yellow colorings in the sky feared an atomic bomb had fallen; others thought something had gone wrong with the sun as the temperature dropped.

When a fighting man is sent to the front, 12 tons of equipment must be sent with him. And another ton of supplies must be moved in every month to keep him there.

Butter, as a food, is so old that it was eaten more than 2,000 years before the Christian era. It is constantly mentioned in the Bible, too. In the early days it served mankind as a medicine also. People used it for anointing the skin, for relieving burns, and for healing sore eyes.

The Chinese never eat bread and butter. They prefer to get the same kind of nourishment from nut oil and rice.

A decorative plate with the picture of Mt. Union Church etched on it is being offered to the public by the Uniontown Lutheran Brotherhood as a means of adding to their treasury. It is a very beautiful picture of the church and the plate is really a collectors item. Later, the Brotherhood will have a picture of Baust, St. Luke's and St. Paul's churches made up the same way. Anyone interested in buying one of these plates may do so by contacting any member of the Brotherhood. Incidentally, the price is reasonable.

The Union Bridge Planning Group will meet Tuesday, October 3, at the home of Arnold Weeks. A representative of the co-operative food stores will be present to explain how the foods are labeled and what they mean. This enables the purchaser to get more value for his food dollar.

The Brotherhood of the Uniontown Lutheran Parish held its regular monthly meeting at Winter's church Wednesday evening. A movie titled

"The Two Kingdoms" was shown.

One of our well known citizens is out of circulation for the time being. He is John Starr, who is suffering from some form of arthritis which keeps him house-bound.

Little 2-year-old Glen Houck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Houck, fell from a second story porch to the pavement below Tuesday afternoon. He was taken to the Frederick Memorial Hospital where the extent of his injuries has not been determined.

Millard Roelke completed a new silo on his farm this week. It was built by the Unadilla Company.

This cold weather has sent the flower lovers scurrying to bring in their cherished plants and blooms before Jack Frost catches them. Potted plants are supposed to be taken up in August but this gardener always waits until the last minute and sometimes it's way past the last minute.

Mrs. Cleon Wolfe is suffering from a bad case of Bursitis. This is a form of arthritis and is very painful.

Alice Booher, spent Sunday with Nancy Roelke.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Bohn, of Union Bridge were the guests of the Clean Wolfe's on Saturday.

Mrs. Richard Wolfe, of Philadelphia, who often visits in our community has been very ill in a hospital with a form of paralysis. She is improving now and there are high hopes she will make a full recovery. This is exceptionally good news as she is a young mother with two small children yet to be guided through childhood.

Joe, 13-years-old, was puzzled over the girl problem and talked it over with his pal, Willie. "I've walked to school with her three times," he told Willie, "and carried her books." I bought her ice cream sodas twice. Now do you think I ought to kiss her?" "Now, you don't need to," Willie decided after thinking a moment, "You've done enough for that gal already."

Word has just come—that Lowell Birely, a life-long citizen of our community has passed on to the distant shore. Born and raised in Feesersburg, he was the last member of his family, which for several generations took a leading part in church and cultural activities of the community. We extend to the family our deep and sincere sympathy in the loss of their husband and father and loyal friend.

Strong alkaline substances such as washing soda or ammonia are hard on painted surfaces because they dry the paint and in time flake off.

It is easier to do a job right than to explain why you didn't.

Official reports say there will be abundant supplies of coffee, sugar and rubber. The hoarders of the few weeks ago may relax, take a liberal sip of coffee, with ample sugar and then roll out their hidden treasures.

The 21st anniversary of the Carroll County Children's Aid Society was featured with the launching of the 1950 fund campaign at a dinner for 77 workers in the Charles Carroll Hotel, Westminster, Monday evening. The date for the campaign has been announced for October 9 through 21 and the goal is for $6,000.

The public should bear in mind that the workers receive no pay for their services. If they use their car it is at their own expense. This work like the Red Cross and Polio drive is done by civic minded persons, who gladly volunteer their time and often their money. All they ask is not to be insulted as one worker was in our own community when she called at a house to solicit funds for the Red Cross. The woman of the house accused her of using the money to buy her car and even the clothes she was wearing. Of course this kind of treatment is seldom met with but once in a solicitors life time is just once too often.

No one has ever developed a method that will place happiness in a person. The individual himself must place it there.

FRIZELLBURG

The Frizellburg Homemakers' Club met in the Parish House of Baust Reformed Church, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20, with 30 members and visitors present. Mrs. Howard Reichard the president of the club presided. Mrs. Aaron Putman and Mrs. George Brown demonstrated "Kitchen Gadgets and Plastics." The book review was given by Mrs. John Schaeffer, she gave highlights on the story of "Cheaper by the Dozen" and "Mother." A worthwhile amount was realized from both the Gipsy Box and money apron. Mrs. Walter Senft won the apron by guessing nearest the amount the patches in the apron held. Mrs. John Hyle was introduced as the guest of the evening. The Homemakers creed was read in unison. The songs "America the Beautiful" and "Home on the Range" were directed by Mrs. James Leffever and accompanied by Mrs. Denton Wantz. Rally Day services on Sunday at Baust Lutheran church were well attended. Mr. Fuad Nucho, a senior at Gettysburg Seminary gave the address at the worship service. He is a Palestinian Arab and fellow Christian. He spoke of the beauty of the Holy Land and its people. When his education is finished at the Seminary he will return to his home in Palestine to spread the gospel to his people. During the Sunday School hour it was a real treat to hear Mr. Charles Schaeffer, a member of the Methodist Church in Westminster, as guest speaker. It being Rally Day Mr. Schaeffer chose for his topic, "Rally Around the Bible." He said, in part, "Although I am a Methodist I love to talk to the Lutherans, for Lutherans have a rich heritage that no other denomination has, 'The Reformation' which is the foundation of the church." He said that "the Bible is the best selling book in the world but is read the least." "You must fall in love with the author to enjoy reading it," and that "The Bible will keep you from sinning but sinning will keep you from the Bible." His message was indeed uplifting. The world would be a much better place in which to live if we had more men like Mr. Schaeffer. Mrs. David Sprinkel and Mrs. Harold Shorb sang the following numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Martin Koons; "The Ninety and Nine," "Are You Able," "Ashamed of Jesus" and "Promises Divine." The movie "Tresseltown Story" was shown at 7:45 to a large and appreciative audience. Mrs. Martin Koons gave a fifteen minute organ recital. Rev. Donald Warrenfeltz led in devotions. Reading the 95th Psalm. The Scripture lesson was read from the 5th Chapter of St. Matthew followed by prayer. The congregation sang "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us." The quartette from Grace Reformed Church, Taneytown, delighted the worshippers with gospel songs. They chose for their numbers the following: "Beautiful Land," "Though Your Sins be as Scarlet," "Wandering Child Oh Come Home," "Seeking The Loss," "Lord I want to be a Christian," "Come in Adoration" and "He careth for You." These men have lovely voices and their gospel message in song was greatly appreciated.

THIS 'N' THAT

In his youth he was a moderate, politically but later became a convinced advocate for the rights of labor not long after a friend was brutally beaten in a mine incident. He left Maryland and worked in several Western states, finally settling near Helena, Montana where he died at the age of 77. Colorado was the first state to make the first Monday in September a legal holiday in 1887. By 1909 the holiday was observed throughout most of the United States and presently it is observed not only in this country but in the United States territories and possessions as well.

Don't forget the grand "Movies" that are coming around our town. You don't have to spend money to get higher prices and for gas we get all the big Stars. "Broken Arrow," "Battleground" and "Riding High," the latter with Bing Crosby. All three of these shows are tops and you as future movies will amaze you as October will be a big month for the movies at the "Earle." You will love Vera Ellen and Fred Astaire in those "Three Little Words." We are to have "The Duchess of Idaho" with the famous swimmer, Esther Williams. The big actress comeback, Gloria a tremendous "Sunset Blvd." that made Swanson in "Sunset Blvd." in New York such a tremendous success. Betcha and all the leading cities. Betcha "Earle" will have standing room for these special nights so do get there for the early show.

Now here is a true sweet war love story and who does not enjoy hearing some romance no matter where Cupid strikes. Men fight for it, women die for it and babies cry for it, just love. Your Observer was in a restaurant with the family for dinner in Baltimore (Labor Week End) A most attractive young girl came forward to serve us although to me she did not appear as a waitress. She went about the task of our order almost in a stupid manner and it was then that I was positive that this was not a regular position. She blundered to such an extent that she kept apologizing all the while. When she finally brought the orders, she had forgotten several items and it was then that she said turning to me "I am taking you will pardon me as I am doing over for my girl friend who is ill and I have never waited on any table before." There were three young men seated at the table in front of ours and I heard one of the young men ask her for a date to which she said "Oh, no, I would like to be married." The young man said, "Oh, what difference does that make, you are not married yet." To this the answer came quickly, "Well, it does matter to me." Suddenly, our little waitress was called to the phone and as she finished waiting on the two tables she said "Oh, I am so excited. That was my mother calling to tell me to stand by, that Jack would be calling from California." He left for California in the Service last week and he told me he would call me but he did not say when. The anticipation and anxiety was beyond describing for the sweet young miss that she forgot to bring our dessert. Suddenly the phone bell rang and she ran to answer it. It was Jack of whom she spoke as after five minutes, she hung up the receiver and with lowered head she was crying as she walked in the opposite direction so that no one could see her tears. Another girl came to finish our service and I told the waitress to tell the little girl that I wanted to talk to her. She walked slowly over to me apologizing and crying as though her heart was breaking. She then told me of the meeting and all about this young soldier and that he said he was sending a record of his voice which he had just made. I asked her if she would like to send me the words of that record so as I could place it in my column, The Record. "Lenora, darling, I love you more than you will ever know and I ask God to send me back to you so as we can be together always. Please don't go out with any of those other guys although it is a lot for me to ask of you. I'll have to say "Goodbye" now. I love you. We sail in the morning and I can't wait until I get my hands on those dirty dogs."

So long, folks. Be patient with those very young lovers. Until next week. Be good and be careful. Will be seeing you D. V.

I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.

Harold Mehning presented a plea for some solution of the parking problem in Taneytown.

The guest speaker of the evening was presented by Professor George N. Shower. He introduced Dr. Ross Cameron, the new Health Officer for Carroll County. The speaker gave an interesting address on "An Ounce of Prevention." He reviewed the various stages by which Medical Science had triumphed over disease and extended the span of life 20 years in this generation. In the course of his address he pointed out that, in the area of sanitation, Carroll County was one of the cleanest Counties in America. He sketched the services the Health Department hoped to render to the County and Schools. He also sketched some of the new services that ought to be undertaken in the County and respective communities such as Health Centers, Clinics of various kinds, laboratories, immunization programs, and prevention of tooth decay, on the theory that prevention is much cheaper than the cure.

Edward Reid and Ernest Dunbar then treated the audience with a movie on "Tobacco Land." It depicted how tobacco was grown, processed and made into Chesterfield cigarettes. Following adjournment refreshments were served.

 dividual problems. It was his observation that Communism as we know it and experience it today is the result of an insipid Christianity. Zeal without knowledge is dangerous but the world needs, if it is to right itself in this dangerous period, zeal and righteousness, not just zeal, not just righteousness, but a combination of the two along with a sound faith in God.

A brief board meeting was held at the conclusion of the regular session with further consideration being given to plans during the fall and winter months. Next week's meeting is in charge of the Achievement and Bulletin Committee with Kiwanian Arch Carpenter in charge. All members and friends are urged to support the Westminster Club by attending the circus in Westminster on Friday, October 6th.

SHORT STORY

Ma Lost The Key

By SHIRLEY RAY

"DEAR MA and Pa, Jeff and I have gone to the city to be married. Ma, you just will never see things our way so this is all there's left for us to do. I'm sorry, (signed) Jennie."

From behind the barn Hiram could see the ancient auto rattling toward home. Elviry's gaunt figure at the steering wheel was silhouetted against the white road, and Hiram smiled to himself at the picture of his very large wife in the very small car.

As it pulled into the driveway he quickly ducked out of sight. Better to have her discover the note herself. Reluctantly he went into the house himself.

She wheeled upon him sharply.
her whole figure trembling with rage and astonishment.
"Hiram! Have you seen this?"
she demanded.

"Do you realize what this means?
Jennie—she's gone! Jennie's gone, Hiram!" She waved the note wildly in his face.

SHE stormed at the little man furiously. "They have no right to marry! He'll never be able to support her; his own father said he'd never make a farmer. All this talk about his wanting to study engineering and such nonsense — I won't have my daughter to be his wife!"

"Now, listen, Elviry," he said boldly, "you're just carrying on so because Jennie's outwitted you! This would never have happened if you hadn't been so stubborn and would have consented to their marriage in the first place. If there's anything you women can't stand it's to have another woman but-do you—even if she is your own daughter!"

She read the note over again. "Jennie says they're leaving for the city.
That must mean the 11:15 train. It's just eleven now; if we hurry we can catch her." Under her breath she added to herself, "So she thinks she can outwit me!" and drawing her lips into a hard, thin line, she grimly barged out the door. Hiram followed.

She opened the squeaky garage doors with an effort, and they went inside. He puffed away on his pipe as she fumbled in her huge handbag.

"Hiram, have you the car key?"
"No, Elviry, I ain't seen it all day."

She dashed out the door and he followed with a flashlight. They searched the driveway. They overturned flagstones and ran their fingers over short blades of grass.
But there was no key. They went into the house and turned everything upside down. But no key.

"HIRAM," she exclaimed suddenly, "you sat in that rocking chair when you came in. What did you do with my things?"

"Hiram," she exclaimed suddenly, "you sat in that rocking chair when I came in. What did you do with my things?"

you do with my things?"
"Why, I set them on the table there."

"Yes you did!" she accused.
"You set everything there but the car key. Don't try to lie to me now, Hiram! I know very well you'd like to see her get away...but I won't have it! Hiram, if you got that key..."

"Elviry, I swear to goodness, I ain't seen it."

"The train leaves in two minutes," she wailed as she glanced at the clock. Her spirit was entirely broken. Her great frame even seemed to sag.

Hiram patted her benevolently.
"Well, you go to bed now, Elviry, and have a good cry. Crying always does do women folk good. I'll be along in a while."

He walked onto the porch. The air was sweet with the smell of hay.
Far in the distance he heard the melancholy whistle of a train, then all was quiet again. He puffed contentedly for a while on his corncob, then took it from his mouth and knocked the bowl against the railing. There was a bright flash and a small clink of metal as the ashes fluttered to the ground. Hiram smiled slyly to himself, pocketed the battered old pipe and started in.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 5:1-20; 18:21-25; Acts 11:19-26; Romans 12:9-21; Philippians 1:27-30; 1 Thessalonians 5:15-23; James 1:22-27.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Luke 10:25-37.

Christian Living

Lesson for October 1, 1950

READER, do you have your New Testament handy? Get it down and let us go over a few paragraphs of it together. What we are looking for is an answer to this question: Is there anything special, anything different, noticeable, about the Christian way of life?

Act on the Word

FIRST, look at James 1:22-27. "Be ye doers of the Word," he says, "not hearers only." Moffatt's modern-English translation says: "Act on the Word instead of merely listening to it." At the end of this section James offers the only definition of religion given in the entire Bible. Note that it is altogether in terms of action, behavior, life both inward and outward.

Dr. Foreman

"Act on the Word"—he means the Word of God, of course. In verse 21 he has already told us the Word is like a seed sown in our lives, a seed expected to grow. . . . Now look at Phil. 1:27-30. If you have the King James version, which is over 300 years old, that word "conversation" in verse 27 will mislead you.

What Paul wrote (in Greek, of course) was not conversation, but a word meaning manner of living. Moffatt brings out the meaning more pointedly: "Do lead a life worthy of the Gospel of Christ." What God wants us to do as Christians is to live like the best sermons we hear. Live lives that match the story of Jesus.

Life of Grace

NOW turn to the story of Barnabas in Acts 11:19-26. Barnabas was commissioned by the mother-church to inspect and report on the new congregation at Antioch. Were they Christians or not? Barnabas saw two things about those people, and he was glad: it was a congregation of believers, and he saw also the grace of God.

Christian living is a life of faith and a life of grace. It is a life tied with God, blessed by the grace of God. Now this is not automatic. It is not something that happens whether we wish it or not.

Observe what Barnabas told those new Christians at Antioch: "Remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose" (v. 23, Revised Standard Version). The Christian life is one of devotion, a life of steady purpose, it is no drifting, sinking life, it sails by the Star of God.

World Not Christian's Orange

NOW turn to a group of passages too full, as all of these are, to be gone over here in detail. You will have to take time yourself to read and think seriously about them: Matt. 5:1-20; 18:21-35; Romans 12:9-21. The theme running through all these is the same: The Christian's life is marked by a special kind of attitude toward other persons.

There are different ways in which people regard others. The criminal looks on all men as his enemies. He is out to beat them down. "Git or git got" is his motto. The "average citizen" who is no Christian, and even some who claim to be Christians but never get the hang of it, are not so brutal as the criminal, but their main idea about other people is much the same, though they are more polite about it.

As one of these has said: "The world is your orange—squeeze it!" What can I make, what is my cut, what will you give me, where do I come in, how can I use you? But the Christian's attitude toward other people is totally different. What it is—well, read these passages from Jesus and Paul, and find out.

Without Ceasing

THERE is one more point about the Christian life. It keeps on. It grows. Look up I Thessalonians 5:15-25. Listen to the note of perseverance, singing through it all. There is a preacher who sometimes says: "You cannot be a Christian today. You can begin today, because that takes only an instant. But you cannot be a Christian today. That takes a lifetime."

The phrases of Paul—"ever follow . . . evermore . . . without ceasing . . . hold fast . . ." were not mere phrases. He had lived them.

ANY gypsy worth a gold bangle will tell you that palm reading is tricky stuff. Because no two hands are exactly alike. The hands shown above, for example, reveal different temperaments and tempers and abilities.

Most American hands, however, have this similarity: they belong to the owners of business-managed electric companies like this one.
