MISSIONERS MEET

Ladies of Keysville Church Present Program

The regular monthly meeting of the Evangelical Lutheran Missionary Society of Keysville was held Wednesday evening, Nov. 15th. Due to illness the leader Mrs. Miles Neidig was unable to be present. A duet, "Have you counted the Cost?" was sung by Mrs. Roy Kiser and Mrs. Russell Bohn. Mrs. Gregg Kiser gave the introduction to the topic, prior to the discussion of the topic, "Magazine Talk" by Rev. Poffenberger. He stressed the importance of being acquainted with the various Missionary Books and the Lutheran; another duet, "He Understands, He'll Say Well Done" was rendered by Mrs. Roy Kiser and Mrs. Russell Bohn. The Lord is My Shepherd was sung by the group. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Gregg Kiser conducted the regular business meeting.

CHANGES IN THE MD. SALES TAX LAW

Will Be Effective Dec. 1st. Exemptions Raised to 5ic

The tax rate has been changed so that all sales of fifty cents or less will not be subject to the tax. If more than fifty cents worth of taxable merchandise is sold to a person at one time, the sale is subject to the tax, even though it may be composed of a number of articles whose individual sales price is less than fifty cents. Some licenses have no articles which sell for more than fifty cents, they must nevertheless collect sales tax on multiple sales and must continue to file returns.

The tax will begin at fifty-one cents and all sales between fifty-one cents and one dollar are subject to two cents tax. An additional cent must be collected for each fifty cents or fraction thereof, in excess of one dollar.

The sales tax has been removed from food. The definition of food has been enlarged to include soda fountain drinks such as milk shakes.

Alcoholic beverages of all kinds including mixed drinks and soft drinks, in unopened containers, remain subject to the tax.

Restaurants and taverns which serve food and alcoholic beverages will be required to segregate such sales, since the tax will not apply to food on December 1st, 1950 and thereafter, but will continue to be imposed on alcoholic beverages, when the sale to any person at one time is more than fifty cents.

Baby oils and baby powders, labeled as such by the manufacturer, will be relieved of sales tax. Powders and oils sold for cosmetic uses are still subject to the tax.

Soaps, soap powders, cleansing fluids and detergents will be free of the tax when purchased for home or personal use. There has been no change in regard to these items when purchased for uses other than in the home or for personal use. The change does not affect tooth paste, tooth powder, shaving soap, shaving cream or shaving powder, all of which remain subject to the tax.

P. T. A. NEWS

Elementary School Patrons and Teachers Meet

The second meeting of the new Elementary P. T. A. was well attended. The membership committee reported that there are now 203 charter members enrolled. Although it is no longer possible to become a charter member, all persons who have not joined are invited to do so. The general welfare committee reported that they are investigating the possibility of having street lights erected from the town line to the school. The discussion then took place on what types of money making activities the P. T. A. should sponsor. It was finally decided to hold a combination food sale and novelty bazaar in the Firemen's Hall, on Friday, Dec. 15. Notes will be sent to parents concerning this activity.

A school assembly was held on Wednesday to observe the beginning of the Thanksgiving season under the direction of Mrs. Senseney's sixth Grade. The main part of the program consisted of a Thanksgiving play.

Approximately 100 new books have been purchased for the school library. This purchase was made possible by the success of Library Tag Day. It is hoped to raise the number of books in the library to the standard necessary for a modern elementary school.

Starting on Monday, November 27, Taneytown Elementary school will start a program of physical education for all grades, which has been approved by the State Department of Education. The main difference which will be immediately noticed will be the elimination of the regular fifteen minute recess periods now employed.

These will be replaced by a daily thirty minute play period, which will be used for instruction in such activities as rhythmic stunts, tumbling, conditioning, and the usual games, and social mixes. It is hoped to better the needs of the pupils in this manner by employing more individual planning and less mass planning of activities.

CIVIL DEFENSE PLANS BY THE RED CROSS

Mrs. A. L. Loy, Westminster, who was recently appointed chairman of first aid for Carroll County for the Carroll County Chapter National American Red Cross, has started her activities and already has organized a county set-up for immediate work on civil defense plans. This is one of the major activities in the proposed plans of the Red Cross in working with Civil Defense.

Mrs. Loy has appointed five vice-chairmen to assist her in this work. Mrs. Lyndon Myers will represent Mount Airy district; Mrs. Maurice Eburg, Hampstead district; Mrs. Charles Stonifer, Taneytown district; Mrs. Malcolm Burman in Sykesville district; and Mrs. Hallette Baile for the New Windsor district.

Mrs. Loy and the above named chairmen may be contacted for all classes in first aid to be given. They will arrange instructors for courses in the standard and advanced courses. All industries, institutions, business places, organizations and any type of groups who will need the courses, will be given prompt attention.

Instructors are also needed in this work and those interested are asked to get in touch with Mrs. Loy or her workers at once.

Col. S. S. MacLaughlin, chairman of the county chapter, is very anxious to get this program well started in the county as soon as possible.

Prices received by farmers in 1950 are expected to average well below the 1948 peak. On the other hand, wholesale prices of manufactured goods are likely to average little below their 1948 peak.

MRS. CLEMSON

102 YEARS OLD Frederick County Lady Celebrates Birthday Nov. 23rd

Nov. 20, 1950

The Carroll Record, Taneytown, Md.

Dear Sirs:

It happens that Thanksgiving Day the 23rd instant, my Mother will become one hundred and two years of age (102). She is as keen in mind and as much interested in current events and people of this day as one observes as a rule in folks who are permitted to attain the age of only 80 years. Born near Frederick, Md., eldest daughter of the late James Henry Cramer and Elizabeth Stimmel Cramer, his wife, who lived and owned a huge farm in Israel's Creek between Frederick and Mt. Pleasant, that County, Mother was a student in the Frederick Female Seminary, 1864-65, was there when General Lee surrendered at Appomattox, and was at that school in that city, when the Confederates came to Frederick and did not march on the streets by the house of the late "Barbara Fritchie," as the poet later says in "his Song."

So much has been published and heretofore about Mother that this year she asked me particularly to see to it that again on her birthday anniversary she should not be "advertised" because that right and privilege ought to be reserved for those "young girls," who while they are as if "waiting" for husbands, nevertheless, must have kind and generous female relatives tell secretly (but always for publication) about how beautiful and intelligent etc., etc., the maiden is. It is maybe almost unconsciously the objective of such "near and interested female friends and relatives to accomplish that result which after all is but carrying out the intent and purposes of The Great Creator.

Since her marriage Jan. 24, 1872 Mother has resided on the farm where she is now near Clemsonville, Frederick Co., Md., about half way between Union Bridge, and Liberty, where she makes her home with her only daughter, Miss Bessie Clemson. Father died Feb. 5, 1933. None of the survivors of either Mother's or of Father's family remain. Mother has three sons and the one daughter living and you may guess that the three boys, the older children, are not any longer "youths," however, I think that, when and if you shall I choose to re-write a few words making note of her having reached this very remarkable age, yet in quasi-excellent health, speak of her alone and not of children, et. al. She is not a subscriber to your excellent paper but, if you do print something about her, I wish you would send her a marked copy of same.

Very truly yours,
CHARLES O. CLEMSON.

"SECOND CHANCE" TO BE SHOWN

"Second Chance," a 75 minute, dramatic, sound motion picture will be shown in Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church, Sunday evening at 7:30, to which the members and friends of the church are cordially invited. This feature film was produced by the Protestant Film Commission and is being shown in the 2,700 Evangelical & Reformed churches across the nation. Those who have seen it acclaim it as the revealer of a most vital and challenging message.

"Second Chance" deals primarily with the themes of Stewardship and Evangelism and is sponsored by the Commission on Kingdom Service of the denomination.

The film is designed to awaken church people to the danger of spiritual apathy as they become too wrapped up in the details of living, and also of becoming too engrossed in achieving "success," instead of being vitally and contagiously Christian. The picture contains some very straight-forward and quotable statements by the minister and challenges those who see it to re-examine their commitment to Christ, His Church, and its causes.

Betcha, there is less reading of magazines since T. V. develops more interesting and educational programmes.

Out of curiosity, asked a local Dr. the brand of cigarettes he smoked and with as much surprise at my question he said, "Why, Camels, of course."

Just imagine, out in California there is an eighty-six year old lady who drives her car every day. Your Observer is positive that "Life begins at 80".

That attractive sister of our young reator who resides in the "Windy" city ought to be in pictures.

In England, Kenneth Walker was dumbfounded, when a weights inspector proved that his push cart scales gave 17½ ounces for a pound but was still more dumbfounded when the following day a judge fined him two pounds ($5.60) for using unjust scales Ump! God Bless America!

One of the most practical, sincere and religious young wives I know is the one who just moved over to Middleburg. Your Observer feels the one big reason for that move was that she desired to be nearer "The House of God."

Montgomery Wards in Baltimore will send interested housewives the most attractive wallpaper catalogue you ever saw in "Companion" room papers. The quality is beautiful and the low prices are amazing.

Do you know that many of the English ladies still adhere to that famous "PEARS" soap in their country which may be the real reason of their pink and white complexions.

Thinking of attractive women, the President over at Middleburg is becoming more so as the days go on and with it all, she has that sweet disposition.

Years ago in Philadelphia there was a mirror in triple style attached to the far end of the second story window called "The Busybody" which enabled the busy housewife to see who was at the front door which meant saving steps when she was doing the upstairs work. The one mirror reflected the right side of the street and the left one reflected those on the left side. These were in a V shape and at the top of the V on the right hand side was the mirror which reflected the entire front door and steps of a house in a city row of houses. Have not seen one for years and am wondering if they are in existence. Paging the Philadelphia Bulletin!

What is more fun than a Halloween Party especially if all the guests are requested to come masked? The season is upon us and you will enjoy yourself much more so if you attend that party in veiled secret until unmasking time. To hide one's true self behind a mask often stimulates the unidentified party guest to enjoy a broad behavior pattern. The truly conservative person may assume a frivolous air and the naturally vivacious individual may play the role of great dignity. Concealing one's identity is loads of fun for all.

Isn't it funny but when you come to think of it, every household always has one particular drawer which is mainly in the kitchen cupboard where anything is placed to "get rid of or out of sight"? Yet when we are in need of many an item, we go to that "Magic" drawer expecting to locate the very article. It may be only a piece of string, the rubber ring of a garden hose, an odd shoe lace, a certain kind of a paper bag or a piece of paper, another clothes pin, perhaps a carpet tack, or a skate key, a tiny funnel, an extra piece of new cheese cloth and numerous other articles. But there we always discover the wanted article.

Four years ago upon moving to Carroll county Your Observer was sending laundry of sheets and pillow cases to a company just over the Maryland line. There were 12 sheets and six pillow cases every other week. The last time when the bundle returned, it appeared to be so light in weight yet the regular charge was placed on the slip and the amount I sent of the number of articles written there, too. I quickly opened the bundle and there were four sheets! I questioned the driver who stated they would be returned to me the following week but he would have to take the slip with him that was on the top of the bundle. He also stated that I had to pay him for the entire lot or otherwise he would have to make good. I paid him and as yet that driver has not returned! I went to the local grocery store who is the agent and explained to him, I drove up to the plant and nothing was returned. That is why, Folks I advise Maryland people to deal with Carroll County—those residing in our county Your Observer soon learned! All those companies are insured and these claims should be made good immediately. Never have I heard a word about the eight sheets or the money I paid that driver in full!

So long, Folks. Have a grand Thanksgiving week-end. If you have had trouble or heartache. Thank God for just one blessing in your life! Go to church wherever you may be and be grateful for these grand United States. Will be seeing you next week. D.V. Until then, I am Faithfully,

THANKSGIVING DAY

We are told that the first Thanksgiving was held in New England by the Pilgrims and Puritans for their safe arrival in the New World. There were abundant wild turkeys all about them and with their blunderbusses, a species of shot gun these early settlers were able to go out and get a turkey in short order. There were abundant oysters in the bay, and each had raised corn and pumpkins, much as we do now. To enrich the soil for their corn they are said to have placed two fish at each hill, cod and haddock were found in plentiful schools off shore.

While those times are spoken of as the starring times we today consider it a luxury to have such food.

About 30 years ago I was up in Nova Scotia and off Yarmouth we went fishing and caught in a few hours over 200 pounds of fish. They would bite as fast as we could bait hook and cast it overboard. The fishermen had a long roof platform 300 by 100 feet and this was filled with cleaned and split cod to dry. This product was later shredded and canned and sent to the markets of the world.

One of New England's poets wrote: Here's to Massachusetts Land of mackerel and cod Where the Lovells bow to Cabots And the Cabots bow to God.

Real Wealth

ALL lack arises from the belief that life and substance are material, hence limited. No amount of material goods will free us from belief in limitation. The remedy is the spiritual understanding of God's ever-present law of abundance. The lack of this understanding is responsible for the limitations from which mortals suffer. Many have found that security is not to be found in matter.

The only practical way to independence is the spiritual way. . . . Since God is Spirit, man is spiritual, and so the real man's requirements are spiritual. God has omitted nothing in His wonderful provision for His offspring. His riches include all that is valuable, permanent, and perfect. God, Spirit, constitutes all life, substance, and intelligence.

Material values change. Only spiritual values are changeless and real. There is only one true value—God, good. As we adhere to this standard we find perfect safety and security. We drop the weight of personal anxiety when we realize that God, as divine Principle, supports the universe He has created. . . .

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy we read (p. 206), "In the scientific relation of God to man, we find that whatever blesses one blesses all, as Jesus showed with the loaves and the fishes.—Spirit, not matter, being the source of supply." As we grow more fully conscious of the riches of God's love, we find that supply appears sometimes in unexpected ways. Man, because of his oneness with God, cannot be depleted or lack expression of the fullness, the abundance, of Spirit.

The accounts in the Gospels of the feeding of the multitudes offer valuable lessons. Christ Jesus, having given thanks for what was at hand, demonstrated that more than enough was available, and told his disciples to gather up all the fragments so that not even the surplus was wasted. Lack is no part of divine perfection, and neither is waste.

One whose consciousness is filled with loving, uncritical thoughts for all cannot long experience lack. If we are letting in thoughts of ingratitude, anxiety, envy, resentment, and the like, we are accepting limitation and inviting discouragement; we are shutting out Love, thereby closing the door to supply.

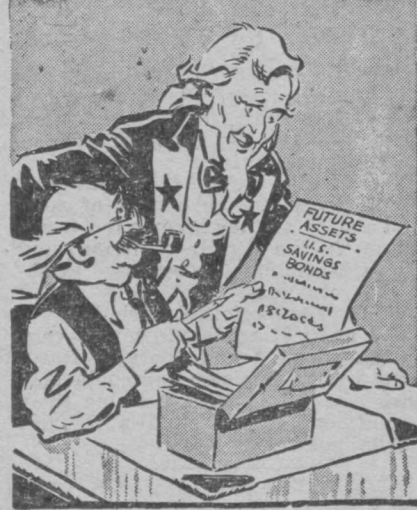

What do we lack? Have we all that we need today? If so, we have our supply, and our fear is not because of the needs of today but because of doubt as to what tomorrow may bring. Let us not grieve over the yesterdays, nor fear the tomorrows. God's abundance is ever present.

The wise writer of the Proverbs said (30:8), "Give me neither poverty nor riches." When we are willing to allow the law of divine Love to govern our thoughts and daily activities, we shall find ourselves supplied with all we need. Jesus said (Matthew 6:33), "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

We must seek to understand God, infinite good, and the spiritual concept of man as His reflection. God gives spiritual wealth, not money. He gives nothing that can fade or fail. Yet our understanding of His affluence will open our eyes to the supply which meets our human need.

A grateful heart acknowledges good, expects good, and accepts good, and is therefore supplied with good. Good thoughts and qualities, which money cannot buy enrich us—and they are unlimited. . . . The Christian Science Monitor.

I'M A PILGRIM

I'm a pilgrim, I'm a stranger
 In a land where all is known
 I am journeying to a far-land
 Which will always be my home.

But I know while here I tarry
 There is work for me to do
 If to myself and my country
 I in all things am true blue.

Now as ne'er before is needed
 Men of mettle, men of might,
 For on every side about us
 Enemies always are in sight.

Strength and courage to protect it
 Is the thing we now most need
 If in righteous peaceful victory
 We and Allies would succeed.

God of Righteousness and goodness
 Grant us courage firm to stand—
 On the battle-front of freedom
 To protect our Native Land.

THE HOGS

Out in the woodlot every day
 Ten bushels of corn is spread
 To feed the six brood sows
 And all the pigs as well.
 Each sow produces a dozen pigs
 And these full shoats are grow
 To produce hams and side meat
 When fed on full grown corn,
 And sausages and puddings
 From head and liver made
 Given plenty food for all the house
 Well done, well done they said.

Television Sets Top Children's Christmas Lists

Boys and girls alike put TV sets ahead of bikes, skates, dolls

NEW YORK, N. Y.—It'll be a TV Christmas this year if the children have their way.

King Bicycle, long the Christmas choice of most children, took a back seat to a new favorite on the Christmas list of boys and girls alike—television sets.

In a survey reflecting what thousands of boys and girls want most for Christmas, far more of them put television sets first on their list, than chose such perennial favorites as bikes, skates, electric trains, and wrist watches.

It was an astonishing sweep for America's newest entertainment medium that has so completely won the hearts of the younger generation. For every child who still headed their list with a camera, radio, ring or BB gun, there will be five who will go to bed on Christmas Eve and secretly dream of a TV set under the tree.

Moreover, the children were more vocal than usual in explaining why they picked as they did. "I just gotta have a television set" one rosy cheeked miss of five told the interviewer. "Nobody ever plays at our house any more." Most of the children echoed these sentiments in one way or another—confirming a recent statement by Angelo

Patri, noted authority on child guidance, that it is practically impossible for boys and girls to "hold their own" with friends and schoolmates unless television is available to them.

The slightly older children seemed aware, too, that the cost of a television set might be a real obstacle. But, as one sixth grade boy put it, "I'm hoping that Dad will realize how much use we'll get out of a television set if he gets it. Usually our house is full of broken presents within a few weeks after Christmas. But we'll use a television set for years and enjoy it together, too."

Mighty hard arguments to resist. And harder still when you can hear the passionate seriousness with which the kids argue their case.

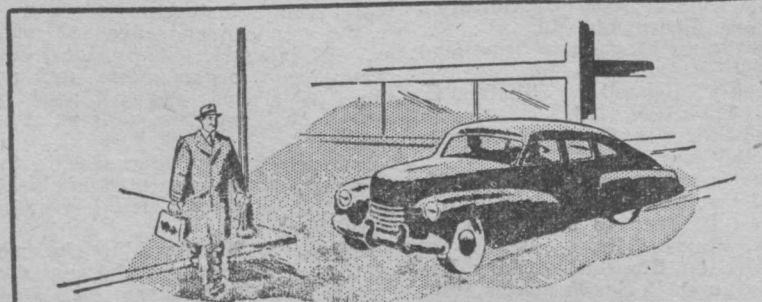

As far as the children are concerned, there's no problem about waiting for the television of the future. They're just waiting for Christmas.

G. H. ENFIELD

FOUR SCORE AND SEVEN YEARS AGO

Four score and seven years ago Abraham Lincoln delivered the famous address which began with the words: "Four score and seven years ago."

The address was delivered by President Lincoln on November 19, 1863, on the battlefield of Gettysburg when a portion of that field was dedicated as a National Cemetery.

The speech is only a few minutes in length. It is reported that the audience was utterly disappointed at the shortness of the message. No one at that occasion anticipated that this address would become one of the masterpieces of literature. However, the brilliant, polished, famous orator, Edward Everett, who had been the main speaker at the dedication, wrote to Lincoln the following day, and said: "I should be glad if I could flatter myself that I came as near to the central idea of the occasion in two hours as you did in two minutes."

October 23, had originally been selected as the date for the dedication. But Edward Everett insisted on more time to prepare and polish his two hours oration. Therefore, the dedication was postponed until November 19. It had not been intended to ask the President to speak. Inviting Lincoln was an afterthought. The time was so short, and crowded with the affairs of war, that we are told Lincoln wrote the address on the train from Washington to Gettysburg.

Let us learn the speech. Let us know what the phrases mean. Let us live the thoughts in our behavior as American citizens. What we enjoy as Americans have been bought at sacrifices by those who preceded us on this great American Continent.

No student should be graduated from high school who is unable to repeat the Gettysburg Address. In fact I would recommend that a copy of the address—suitable for framing—be given each graduate during commencement when he or she is presented a diploma.

What a glorious thought! that this nation, which 87 years before, Lincoln said, was conceived in Liberty, is today, 87 years later than Lincoln's speech, dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Yes, this very hour, America is giving her choice young men to fight in Korea to extend, maintain, and perpetuate the Liberty, for other peoples of the earth, which we cherish for ourselves.

Lovers of freedom will travel to the utmost parts of the globe to fight and die to set other men free, while thousands of others allow it to slip out of their hands by sheer indifference, and lack of interest in social, economic, and political problems of our day. Do you have sufficient interest in the common welfare of the American people, and thus in the peoples of the earth as to go to the polls and cast your ballot for the men and women who make and execute our laws, also our domestic and foreign policies?

Four score and seven years ago, Lincoln not only asserted but also prophesied, "That this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that this government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

WINTER IS COMING

Autumn leaves are falling
Telling us winter soon is here
Snow flakes soon are falling
Large drifts will soon appear
The winter air is bracing
Snow skiing will soon be here
With broken limbs to follow
The season of the year
To wood lot we will hie us
Cord wood house to warm
Tis quite a pleasant thing to think
We keep us snug and warm
Soon corn shocks dot the field
Abundant crop to yield.
The hogs are in the wood lot
Hams, sausage, spare ribs all
To feed the hungry worker
When days toil has been done,
Out in the fields Jack Frost
Lifts up his sleepy head
To tell us that the winter
So soon to us will speed,
So snug and comfortable it is
To sit beside the fire
And toast our feet in comfort
Ere winter does expire.

The following poem was written by the speaker of the Taneytown District S. S. Assn. Rally, the Rev. Raymond M. Veh, D. D., of Harrisburg, and editor of the "Builders";
"Sesqui-Centennial Ode"
Tune: "God of our Fathers Whose Almighty Hand."

"God of our fathers, now trice fifty years
Have passed since those devoted pioneers
Set up Thy House where men might worship Thee
As conscience and Thy Word might so decree.

O Christ divine! Thou didst become their light—
Present in vict'ry and in troubled night;
From Calv'ry's cross, and open tomb
they drew
Their brightest hope—eternal, steadfast, true.

God of mankind, we rise to give acclaim
To all who toiled to spread Thy holy Name.
In this dark hour give us their vision great
To overcome man's sin of greed and hate.

O Loving Father! We Thy help implore;
Lead now Thy church through future's shining door;
As unto them, grant us sustaining grace
Faithful to be until we see Thy face."

This was written as this year was the Sesqui-centennial celebration of the founding of the United Brethren in Christ Church on the Peter Kemp farm near Frederick, Md. There was a bronze plaque imbedded in a large stone and on Wednesday, Oct. 4th., Bishop Showers dedicated the monument to the founder of the church, Rev. Philip William Otterbein.

FEESEBURG

Here is a family prayer written by Robert Louis Stevenson, which seems most appropriate for Thanksgiving day:

Lord, behold our family here assembled. We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell; for the love that unites us; for the peace accorded us this day; for the hope with which we expect the morrow; for the health, the work, the food and the bright skies that make our lives delightful; for our friends in all parts of the earth; and our friendly helpers in this foreign isle. Give us grace and strength to forbear and to preserve—give us courage and gaiety and the quiet mind. Spare to us our friends, soften to us our enemies. Bless us, if it may be, in all our innocent endeavor. If it may not, give us strength to encounter that which is to come, that we be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, loyal and loving to one another.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower has bought a 179 acre farm near Gettysburg and will make it his permanent family home. The property is a dairy and general farm, with a nine room house, three miles south of Gettysburg. It has a good view of the Civil War battlefield. The farm is located on the road leading from West Confederate Avenue to the Gettysburg Water Works and is near Pitzer school house. It was purchased from Allen S. Reddings for $40,000. The house of red brick is described as "handsome and beautiful." General Eisenhower hopes to spend as much time on the farm as his duties permit.

Mrs. John H. Reaver, Westminster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crouse of Mt. Union, left last Friday for Evansville, Ind., to join her husband Lt. John H. Reaver now stationed at Camp Breckenridge, Ky.

We are reminded that 78 years ago this past Monday Abraham Lincoln delivered his immortal Gettysburg address. The anniversary of this speech is significant for again, this nation is at war. The purpose this time is not preservation of the union of our country; it is preservation of the freedom of men's minds. History is valuable chiefly as it records the problems that have faced mankind and reveals how mankind has met and solved them. Looking back upon Lincoln at Gettysburg we are reminded that an earlier generation, with supreme courage and tenacity, met and solved a problem as exacting as the one we face today. The example should serve to endow us with something of the same courage and tenacity.

Approximately five million new homes and apartment units have been erected in the United States since the end of World War II.

Glade Valley Grange, Walkersville, was declared the Maryland winner in the Grange community Service contest. Glade Valley under the generalship of Bruce Crum, decided to restore the community chapel at Harmony Grove. This was an unselfish project because the Grange has a regular meeting place of its own and has no intent of meeting at the chapel, Harmony Grove is just a small community but it is well-rooted both materially and spiritually. The unrepaid harvest of this project will not be counted in terms of dollars and cents but in the inestimable moulding of a still better community. Mr. Crum and his fellow Grangers have set a fine example of unselfish devotion to community life. May this Grange continue to grow and to exert its influence throughout Frederick County and the State.

Nature can't make us perfect, so she did the next best thing—she made us blind to our faults.

I never knew how much television is changing our way of living until the other evening when I invited some friends for supper. They refused the invitation with these words: "We would love to come, but our favorite television program comes on that evening. I never thought I would live to see any one turn down fried chicken for Milton Berle."

We have been reading and hearing a lot of this picture which was made by some talent around Arendtsville, and others helping and those who have seen it recommend it highly.

Saturday seems to be moving day in Harney: Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Strickhousey and son moved from Mrs. J. W. Fream's residence to their own new home erected in the last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oyler, Gettysburg motored to Harney Sunday morning and took Mrs. O's mother, Mrs. Ida Strickhousey, to Boyers-town; the group spending the day with the Bish's. Mrs. Strickhousey will spend the winter months in this home of her daughter and family.

Services at St. Paul's church next Sunday: Sermon at 9:15 by Rev. Held. S. S., at 10:15 with the S. S. class of boys taught by George Shriver in charge of opening service.

The flowers in the altar vases at St. Paul's were put there by the Shildt family in memory of their father, I. T. Shildt.

Don't forget the date Dec. 2 for the turkey and oyster supper at Mt. Joy Parish House along Taneytown-Gettysburg road.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welty and children, Susan and Larry, moved on Saturday to their new residence just recently erected.

BOY SCOUT CAMPAIGN EXCEEDS GOAL

With returns still to be reported the goal of $160.00 for the Taneytown area in the 1951 annual Boy Scout Finance Campaign will be exceeded by approximately 30% stated chairman, G. Albert Baldwin. The committee appointed to canvass the area this year has done a yeoman's job and is to be congratulated for the fine work which they have done. Those who have contributed are to be thanked for the interest which they have shown in this very worthwhile endeavor.

The Boy Scout Movement, as every one knows, can and should serve a very important place in the over-all activities of any community. The slogan as established for this year "Strengthen Liberty" is one of considerable importance in this day and age.

Those who have served so well and faithful in the campaign this year are Robert Feaser, John Skiles, Howell Royer, Murray Baumgardner, David Smith, Harry Mohney, Harmon Albaugh, Delmar Riffle, Francis Lookingbill, Lawrence Myers, and Stanley King.

WOOD CUTTING TRIP OCT. 13-15 A PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

A camping trip conducted the weekend of October 13-15 to woods on the farm of A. D. and Henry Alexander was adjudged a great success in a report to the Green-Bar leaders' council last Saturday. Designed for the express purpose of cutting and splitting wood for the two stoves in the Scout Hall, the camp attracted these boys and leaders: Junior Assistant Andy Alexander, Assistant Scoutmaster, Stanley F. Frock; Patrol leader, Donald Lawyer; Senior Patrol leader, Philip Lawyer; Ronald Markle, Francis McNair; Quartermaster Robert Sentz, Miles Stonesifer, Scoutmaster Wilbur O. Thomas, and Russell Walker. The first night out a side-trip was made to the Westminster High football game.

BOY SCOUTS UNDER TAKE TOY REPAIR PROJECT

Troop 343, Boy Scouts of America, Taneytown, voted in their Green-Bar leaders' council to undertake a project of repairing toys for distribution in Children's Hospitals or similar spots at Christmas time. If you have toys which have outlived their usefulness, please communicate with one of the following Scout leaders, and arrangements will be made to pick them up promptly. Those to be contacted in Taneytown include Andy Alexander, Jr., (Telephone 4002), Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Stanley F. Frock, Assistant Scoutmaster Philip Lawyer (Silver Run 695), Senior Patrol Leader; Scoutmaster, Wilbur O. Thomas (Littlestown 18), or any member of the Troop. Possibly a postcard to any of the above would be the surest way. The articles will be repaired, repainted, and distributed by Christmas Day. A Troop visit to a home or hospital being envisioned.

TOWN AND COUNTRY WAGON

All-steel body and luxurious interior trim are highlighted in the new Town and Country Wagon, just added to the Chrysler line. A unique combination of utility and luxury, the newest Chrysler four door six passenger station wagon has a fold-down rear seat arrangement that provides up to nearly ten feet of cargo space behind the front seat. The interior is richly trimmed in a fashionable but durable leather-like plastic for upholstery, headlining, and side panels. Extra-wide rear window can be rolled down completely into tailgate.

"WHAT D'YA MEAN... MORE PAYLOAD?"

DODGE "Job-Rated" trucks GIVE IT TO YOU!

IT'S A MATTER OF better weight distribution

You can haul more payload than ever in a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck, because the load is better distributed. Most trucks carry too much of the load on the rear axle—too little on the front. Because the engine of a Dodge "Job-Rated" truck is moved forward and the front axle back, both axles carry the right proportion of the load. That means you can haul bigger payloads without overloading.

NOT THIS The payload on most trucks—like the girl in this boat—rides too far to the rear. Result: there's too much weight aft, not enough forward.

BUT THIS In "Job-Rated" trucks, the load is moved forward—as the girl is now positioned. Results: proper weight distribution—bigger payloads—easier handling.

Cheerful Giver

Lesson for November 26, 1950

TAKE a good look at a piece of money. Let it be in any form at all; "hard money," "folding money," a check, a money order, scrip,—anything you can shove across a counter and buy something with. Let us say it is your own money, and that you earned it yourself. Just take a look at that piece of cash. Do you recognize it? You should; for it is nothing less than a piece of your own life.

Dr. Foreman

Money is Life

YOU got rid of something quite valuable to get hold of that piece of money. Time, certainly; you are poorer than you were 24 hours ago, poorer in time, for you have 24 hours less to live than you had then. But you are richer in money, for you did not have this money then, if it is the return for your work during that time. You lost time but you gained money; in other words the money represents time, which in turn spells life.

Look at it in another way: You put out a certain amount of energy for this bit of money. You plowed a field or you raised some chickens or you laid some pipe or you taught some children or you sold a bill of goods. Whatever you did to earn the money, it tired you a bit. You put out the work,—and the money came back to you. Money is time, money is energy. Furthermore, money is knowledge.

Why is a skilled workman paid more than an unskilled one? Not because he works harder or sweats more. He is paid more because his work is better, and his work is better because he knows more. Now, what would life be without time, energy or knowledge? Not much! So if a robber ever says to you: "Your money or your life!" you would be quite correct (even if untruthful) if you said, "My dear felon, you repeat yourself; money is life!"

Life Comes from God

AMONG the many differences between a Christian and a non-Christian is this: the Christian knows too much to say, "My life is my own, to do with as I please." Consider those three elements of life: time, energy, knowledge. Time itself is certainly God's gift, the Creator's gift. None of us can make a moment of it. We can accept it, use it; or we can waste it; but it was given us in either case.

Energy cannot be created by you or me. Each of us has a certain (and a different) amount; we inherit it, we are endowed with it; but only God in the long run is the source of energy. To make a long story short, life is God's gift, not our creation. It is a blank page on which we write, an empty field in which we can sow as we will. But though the writing and the sowing are our own, the page and the field are God's. So the Christian recognizes this as the central fact of his life: I belong to God.

Now if that is true it is also true that our money is also, just as much as life itself, ours only as a trust from God.

Stewardship

"STEWARDSHIP" is the word which recognizes God's right in our lives; it is the word which describes the principle of life for those who honor God as source of all they are and have. When the proverb-writer says, "Honor God with thy substance," he has just said, "in all thy ways acknowledge him." No man is likely to do what is right with his money who habitually does wrong with his life. No man is going to admit his partnership with God in money matters who does not confess God to be the Lord of all his life.

Now there are two principles brought out in our Scripture about stewardship of money in particular. One is this: God looks on what we have, not on what we haven't. A widow who gives one tiny coin, if that is all she has, is more generous than a millionaire who has just given half a million to Charity. Second is the principle of willingness. The Lord loves a cheerful giver. Sour givers, regretful givers, stingy givers, no. But the Lord does love the man who gives with a smile. It isn't how much you give, it isn't the fact that you give, it's HOW you give. Is your heart generous in the first place?

THE LABORER'S HIRE

THE BASIC TEST OF ANY WAY OF LIFE IS HOW IT PAYS OFF IN COMFORT AND WELL-BEING FOR THOSE WHO "DO THE WORK FOR WHICH THEY'RE PAID THE WAGE."

THE AMERICAN WORKER BENEFITS FROM THE HIGHEST STANDARDS OF LIVING AND FAMILY SECURITY IN THE WORLD TODAY. WITH THE EARNINGS OF AN 8-HOUR DAY, FOR EXAMPLE, HE CAN BUY MANY TIMES THE GOODS AND SERVICES THAT A WORKER UNDER COMMUNISM CAN FROM THE SAME AMOUNT OF WORK.

HE ENJOYS THIS ADVANTAGE BECAUSE OUR FREE SOCIETY ENCOURAGES THE EMPLOYER TO DEVELOP NEW MACHINES AND IMPROVED PROCESSES SO THAT THE WORKER CAN PRODUCE MORE WITH A GIVEN AMOUNT OF LABOR — AND GET MORE FOR WHAT HE PRODUCES.

MORE IMPORTANT, TO HIS COMFORT AND WELL-BEING, IS THE FACT THAT THIS GREATER PRODUCTIVITY AND GREATER REWARD GROW LOGICALLY OUT OF THE AMERICAN WORKER'S FREEDOM TO WORK, THINK AND LIVE AS HE WILLS, WITH NO SHACKLES ON HIS SOUL, NO BARRIERS TO HIS OPPORTUNITIES.

SUMMER DAYS

Summer days are ended, Autumn days are here
 The weather man dependent makes everything quite clear
 Soon frost is on the pumpkin
 And the pumpkin on the vine
 Everything becomes more ready
 Yes, everything seems fine.
 If we stretch imagination
 To the point where it does break
 We may come to the conclusion
 That we only thus can take
 Make the best of an endeavor
 To do things that fall in line
 Then you'll know that you've accomplished
 Things that are very fine.

THIS DAY

If I have moved a single grain of sand
 This day, to help my fellow man;
 If I have brought one stray into the fold,
 Or sent a ray of hope to one lonely soul,
 Like a sunbeam in a prison cell;
 Or, on the desert sands, a water well
 To quench his anguish on the way of life,
 Or ease his heartbreak in the battle strife—
 This day is not lost.

EVERY MEMBER VISITATION IN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Next Sunday and the week following has been set for the Every Member Visitation in the Taneytown Presbyterian Church. This is part of the planned program recommended by the Presbytery and being carried out in almost every Presbyterian church. Visitors will call on every member for a friendly visitation about the work and program of the church. Such a visitation has long been the custom in almost every progressive church.

A few weeks ago the Trustees drew up a suggested budget for next year. This included a sizable sum for enlarging the church plant either by constructing a basement or an extra room on the rear.
