CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Ladies Night Observed by Taneytown Kiwanis Club

The annual Christmas observance of the Taneytown Kiwanis Club was held on its regularly scheduled meeting night at Taney Inn. The program for the evening was in charge of the program committee with Howell B. Royer chairman of that committee, presiding. The Rev. Mr. Harold G. Bomburg, pastor of the Westminster Church of the Brethren, addressed the gathering.

The meeting as usual was opened by the invocation being given by Clyde Hesson. Group singing was under the leadership of Wallace Reindollar with Mrs. Estella Yingling at the piano. After a delicious turkey dinner the ladies present were presented with Christmas corsages while the men in attendance received a token gift. Mr. Lawrence Simpson accompanied by Mrs. Simpson sang two solos, "O Holy Night" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Rev. Mr. Bomburg addressed the gathering using as his topic "Christmas During an Age of Jitters." He stated that like many of the ages through which our world has survived, we are living in an age of seeming despair thus having the result of people seemingly suffering of a case of jitters. His remedy for this condition was as follows: First, to keep busy, urging each person present to keep themselves pre-occupied in a worthwhile task; Second, to assume leadership, particularly in connection with the various youth organizations by encouraging the youth and young people of these groups such as boy scouts, girl scouts, camp fire girls, and other young peoples organizations to prepare themselves for the facing of the world of tomorrow by endeavoring to strengthen their faith in humanity; and third, he urged each person present to endeavor to develop a deeper and more sincere understanding and appreciation of the Christ who came into this world almost two thousand years ago. This Christmas season, he said, can mean much to each of us if we will accept the message that it brings.

Those present at the meeting were: Mr. and Mrs. Harmon G. Albaugh, J. Thomas Albaugh and mother, Mrs. Nettie Albaugh, Mr. and Mrs. G. Albert Baldwin, E. Elwood Baumgardner, Chandos M. The Christmas Season in Taneytown Officially Opened Last Friday Evening

Festival of Music Dec. 18-24. Festival of Gifts Dec. 21. Festival For The Children Dec. 22

The Yule season was officially opened in Taneytown last Friday night by the Festival of Lights featuring a parade and ceremonies by which Santa Claus was welcomed to town. It was the most elaborate festival of its kind yet brought to Taneytown, and witnessed by far larger crowds than ever before for a similar event here.

As a prelude to the parade Christmas Carols were played over the loud speaker installed in the Town Hall tower. Preliminary to the parade the William F. Myers' Band of Westminster, gave a brief concert at the rostrum erected in the center of town. Then the band and officials of the Town proceeded west on Baltimore Street to meet Santa Claus. Roy Smith acted as parade marshal.

The Hesson-Snyder Post No. 120, American Legion Color Guard and Drum Corps, headed the parade. Following the Myers' Band came the Chamber of Commerce officials. Girl Scout No. 1, Boy Scouts, and other organizations were represented in the line of march. Attractive floats were prepared by the Lion's Club and Reid's Food Market. The big attraction was the bright red sleigh on which Santa Claus rode. It was perched high atop a pine tree-decked motor towed float. This was done so that everyone in the line of march could see Santa Claus waving and smiling to the crowds on both sides of the streets. His float was ornamented with many kinds of toys. As Santa Claus passed under each string of Christmas lights they were turned on so that soon the whole town was glowing with a display of beautiful colored lights. One new feature of the parade was the mail boxes which Santa Claus sent along the streets to receive letters from the children. A lot of letters were received.

The program of festivities took place on the rostrum prepared in the center of town. There Rev. Charles S. Owen, Chairman of the Christmas committee, gave greetings and outlined the other Christmas festivities to follow. Then he presented Mr. Merwyn C. Fuss, master of ceremonies and president of the Chamber of Commerce under whose auspices the program had been prepared. Mr. Fuss gave greetings to the children and parents over the loud speaker and pointed out to the children the mail box installed in the telephone post nearby where they could place their letters to Santa Claus. The master of ceremonies presented Rev. Morgan Andreas who offered the invocation. The Mayor of the town, Raymond Perry, was also presented. He addressed the audience briefly with a very splendid and thoughtful message appropriate to the hour.

These ceremonies officially opening the Yule season in Taneytown, marks the time when the merchants begin to give away tickets for the prizes to be given away on December 21. One ticket goes with each dollar purchase. Also it marked the time when the stores keep open at night until Christmas.

Three other events still ahead in our Christmas festivities in the community:

- 1. The Festival of Music. This will be from December 18 to 24. Each night one of the church choirs will sing over the loud speaker from 7 to 7:30 p. m. The schedule is as follows:
 - Monday 18, the Reformed Church Choir.
 - Tuesday, St. Joseph's Choir.
 - Wednesday, The Lutheran Brotherhood Chorus.
 - Thursday, the E. U. B. Choir.
 - Friday, The Presbyterian Choir.
 - Saturday, The School Choir under Mrs. Yingling.
 - Sunday, Christmas Eve, Caroling by the Scouts and Young People of the churches.

2. The Festival of Gifts. This is the Adult Christmas party where the prizes are given away. It will be held on Middle Street as last year. The date is Thursday, December 21, at 6:30 p. m. In case of bad weather it will be held in the High School auditorium.

3. The Festival for the Children. This is the Christmas party for the children. It will be held on Friday, December 22, at 2 p. m. This year it will be different than heretofore. It will be held in the High School auditorium. The Chamber of Commerce has booked up an Animal Circus for the occasion. Also the children will be treated to candy and oranges.

All the above Christmas festivities have been set up by the Chamber of Commerce as a service to the community, under a special committee appointed for that purpose. The committee consists of the following persons: Rev. Charles S. Owen, chairman; Raymond Perry, Charles Cashman, Edward Reid, R. M. Polly, C. G. Bowers and George Shower.

CHILDREN—GREETINGS FROM SANTA CLAUS

Here is a message for you from Santa Claus. My private mail box is on the telephone opposite the Post Office in front of the Town Hall. Put your mail to Santa Claus in this box and you will receive a reply from me.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Held by W.M.S. of Trinity Lutheran Church

The Women's Missionary Society of Trinity Lutheran church held its annual Christmas party Wednesday night, Dec. 13, in the Young People's Department of the evening "Bethlehem Then and Now" was prepared by Mrs. Mabel B. Fenner, Secretary of the Missionary Education on the staff of the Parish and Church Board of the ULCA. A corsage of pine and red berries was given to each lady as she entered the room.

After a short business meeting conducted by our Vice-Pres., Mrs. Albert Wilhite and our secretary, Miss Clara Devibiss the program was presented by the leaders of the meeting, Mrs. Percy Putman and Mrs. E. Elwood Baumgardner. A choir composed of members of the society told the Christmas story and led in the singing of the Christmas carols, composed of Mrs. Percy Putman, Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, Mrs. Norman Baumgardner, Mrs. Elliot, Mrs. Ross Fair, Mrs. Franklin Fair, Mrs. Maude Norton, Mrs. Lulu Basehoar, Mrs. A. D. Alexander, Mrs. Chas. Wantz, Mrs. W. O. Ibach, Miss Clara Devibiss, Miss Beulah Englar, Miss Edith Hess, pianist, Mrs. John Hoagland. We were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider, and her sons, David and Kenneth. The boys playing the cornet and trombone accompanied by their mother on the piano, "Medley of Christmas" was the music played.

The committee and leaders had decorated the front of the room, by the arrangement of a manger scene, the above which was a representation of the blue sky, studded with silver stars, several large candles, were placed on each side of the stage, also two Christmas trees trimmed with silver stars, on which was written a prayer. The stars were given to each one present, to take home and hang on her Christmas tree.

A group of primary and juniors sang a carol "Away in a Manger" after which they knelt around the manger, during prayer by Mrs. Percy Putman. A committee consisting of Mesdames Francis Elliot, Harry Forney, Franklin Fair, Kenneth Gilds and Miss Beulah Englar, deserve much credit for the unusual table arrangement and the table decorations. The tables were placed as nearly as possible in the form of a star, pointing toward a white Christmas tree in the center, decorated with shining blue balls. Through the center of the tables, branches of pine on which were pine cones, touched with white to represent snow.

The food committee: Mesdames Claude Derr, Amanda Bair, Rhoda Dayhoff, Harry Crouse, Charles Cashman, Merwyn Fuss, Russell Eckard, Ross Fair and Miss Ada Englar served delicious refreshments of chicken sandwiches, potato chips, cake, ice cream, pickle and coffee. Generous free-will, social and Christmas offerings were received.

More than one hundred persons enjoyed the evening's festivities. We were glad to add a new name to our roll of members. Mrs. Ellsworth Liepins and her daughter, Millya and Liepin and her daughter, Milysa and our Pastor and his family and several children and their mothers, members of Y. P. Circle to enjoy the evening with us.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

The regular meeting of the Elementary school Parent-Teacher Association will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 19, at 7:30. The program for the evening will be centered around the Christmas theme and will be in charge of the second and fourth grades. Teachers will be in their rooms at 7:00 to talk with parents.

The Elementary school will close at the regular time for the Christmas holidays on Thursday, Dec. 21. School will reconvene on Tuesday, January 2, 1951.

The film "Scrooge", telling the famous Christmas story of Charles Dickens will be shown at the school to all pupils on Wednesday, Dec. 20. There will be a small charge to cover the rental of the film.

Through the courtesy of the AAA Club of Maryland, two safety standards have been procured for use at the intersection, thus helping to eliminate a severe traffic hazard. Parents using the school driveway in the morning and evening are reminded of the State Laws concerning the passing of a school bus which is loading and unloading. The law would apply to a bus unloading in front of the school.

It is the policy of the Board of Education to have teachers of the county, particularly those new to the service, to visit more experienced teachers to observe techniques and methods used. The Taneytown Elementary School has been proud to play host to quite a few such visitors this year and it is hoped the interchange of ideas will benefit all concerned. Visiting teachers and the grades visited have included Miss Elizabeth Beamer of the Uniontown school, Grade 6; Miss Audrey Baumgardner of Charles Carroll Elementary, Grade 4; Mrs. Charles Sachett, Westminster Elementary, Grade 4; Mrs. Clrella Noss, East End Elementary of Westminster, Grade 2; Mrs. Glenna Gardner and Mrs. John Kroh, West End Elementary of Westminster, Grade 2; and Miss Betty Babylon of Charles Carroll Elementary, Grade 2. Mrs. Madeline Bankert, Principal of the West End Elementary School in Westminster visited to observe the methods and plans used in the carrying out of the school lunch program.

THIS 'N' THAT

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

Remember way back when this column was started when it was called, "Around The Town" exactly one year ago. You Observer and the little Editor had everyone guessing! The column is just three years old! This month!

What a grand dinner on Thanksgiving Day down Frizellburg way! Ummmmmm Good!

There is a nice new "Gift Shop" around the town and as time goes on there will be many articles on display. It's about time there was one as every town boasts of a gift shop. Best wishes!

That nice Bachelor lady who is the artist of "Still Life" moved to Walkersville. We miss you!

Now, here's one for the Ladies! Queen Victoria uses heavy cream instead of egg for the oyster before padding for frying and it is much more delicious. Try it once and you will never go back to the egg! At last! The genuine Christmas Balls from Germany! They top us on that One! Eh?

Ed Sullivan surely knows exactly how to introduce those on that Lincoln-Mercury hours. He has a personality all his own!

Passing through Littleton just before election, I saw a little antique of a car (the kind shown in pictures) painted recently and beautifully done to restore the original colors. I turned my car around to get the low down of the object, and folks it was a 1909 "Brush" make, one cylinder, chain drive car with wooden axles! The man driving it was out for votes for a "Congressman" whom he said was "Win with Lind"!

Now, here's a real laugh and a true one! A man over in Washington ran into a grocery store where he had been dealing for many years, carrying a big bundle. He said to the owner laying the big package down on the counter, "Here are the 250 lbs. of sugar that I bought during the war and I would like to exchange them for 250 pounds of fresh sugar as these are stale!"

"Open House at the Elementary school was most interesting and charming!"

Upon entering there was the sweetest little "sixth year" student to greet the interested parents. The little host at the lunch period was most attentive to the table to which he was assigned and nothing was too much trouble. It was fascinating to sit right in the class where the teacher was going about her regular and customary duties. The patience, kindness

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETS

The regular monthly meeting of the Taneytown High School Alumni Association was held Monday night in the High School. The report was given on the recent Thanksgiving dance and it was reported very successful.

Basketball teams have been organized and will start playing soon. It is hoped that the community will come out and cheer these Alumni teams on to victory. Advertisements of games will appear in the "Special Notices" columns of the "Record" and signs will be placed in the Post Office and several other places. Watch for these signs and then attend the games! Boys uniforms have been ordered and Girls uniforms are being ordered. Minnie Ingram was appointed advertising manager and will take care of advertising coming games. David Wilhite will be in charge of refreshments at the games and Miss Helen Bankard will take charge of the money.

A letter was then read which stated that the film strips which the Association had decided to give the High school had already been gotten with other funds. The Association decided to wait a while before donating something else to the school.

The nominating committee gave their report and after additional nominations were received election of officers was held. Those elected for the year 1951 were: James Fair, Pres.; Leo Sanders, Vice-Pres.; Anna Sanders, Secretary; Phyllis Smith, Treas.; and Mary Clingan, Historian. Mr. Edmund Morrison who was elected President in 1949 and '50 was recalled to our armed forces in October. He deserves a lot of credit for his splendid work in making the Alumni Association the most active in the county and probably one of the most active in the State, and the Association regrets that he was forced to discontinue his work.

It was decided by the group that the meetings would be held at 8 P. M. instead of 7:30 as had been the custom. This will remain the meeting time year round.

Membership cards were printed and will be ready for distribution for 1951 now at any time. It is hoped that Alumni will send their dues in early for the year '51 and receive their membership cards. Remember. One year's attendance in T. H. S. is all that is required to be a member.

An outline of the yearly report was read and accepted by the Association. This letter will go out to all Alumni whose addresses we have, as soon after the first of the year as possible.

After the meeting delicious refreshments were served by Francis Myer and David Wilhite.

PERPETUAL PEACE

Jesus once said "My Peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth. Let not your hearts be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in Me."

He also said "I come not to bring peace but the sword." These statements seem to be contradictory but they are not. Each is true.

The United Nations now in session are vainly striving to attain universal peace but if Christ's words be true (and they are) we will not now have peace. The devil has not been chained.

LIONS CLUB NEWS

The Taneytown Lions Club held their bi-monthly meeting on Tuesday evening at Taney Inn. Lion Don Webb, program chairman for the evening, secured as guest speaker John Morgan, who is operating manager for the Potomac Edison Company of the Frederick District. Mr. Morgan spoke informally of the development of electricity (of the Taneytown area in particular) from around 1918 up until the present time. The talk was pictorially illustrated with graphs and maps which showed the first single 3000 watt line and then the alterations and additions to the present time. It is to be noted that not only industry but electrification of the farm in this area has greatly increased the need for more and better power service. It was pointed out that the Potomac Edison Company has, in the last year installed lines in this area to supply more than the required power and to render uninterrupted service. It was pointed out to the Lions that even with the new equipment and methods service interruptions still happen.

A lively question and answer period followed Mr. Morgan's talk. Lion Curtis Bowers inquired how many homes in the community was not electrified in order that he could determine how many lamp shades to keep on hand. The Lions expressed their appreciation to those responsible for making such a fine meeting possible.

KEYSVILLE MISSIONARY MEET

Members and friends of the Evangelical Lutheran Missionary Society of Keysville enjoyed a very impressive meeting Tuesday evening. The topic "Bethlehem Then and Now" was under the direction of Mrs. John Harner and Mrs. Vernon Schaeffer. Mrs. Schaeffer read the scripture lesson and Mrs. Harner conducted the discussion. The aim of which was to draw near to Bethlehem and worship the newborn Saviour of the world and to consider Bethlehem as it was on that first Christmas Eve and the Bethlehem of today. The discussion was interspersed with the singing of "Silent Night," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "Joy to the World," and "O, Come All Ye Faithful." It was indeed a real pleasure to listen to the Taneytown High School Chorus sing their numbers: "Wake Ye Shepherds" Moravian; "Under the Stars," Girls Sextette; "Born in a Manger," Boys double quartet; "Ring Christmas Bells," Russian, mixed ensemble under the leadership of their capable director, Mrs. Yingling. Your contribution to the meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Thank you boys and girls for coming out during the busy Christmas season and do come again. It was so nice of you to be with us. Thanks to those in charge of special: Mrs. Earl Roop and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty. A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Gregg Kiser after which the "White-Gift Service" was held under the direction of Mrs. Roy Baumgardner and her helpers Mrs. Guy Warren and Mrs. Mehrle Wilhide. The front of the church was artistically decorated in white. The altar vases were filled with white chrysanthemums. Thirty-two candles in white candle holders gleamed during the service and the lone evergreen tree heavily laden with snow and dark blue lights added to the solemnity of the occasion. Mrs. G. Kiser presided at the organ while the march to the altar with the gifts wrapped in white took place. Mrs. Chas. Trout sang "Noel," Mrs. Charles Devilbiss read the scripture, prayer was offered by Mrs. Cluats and Mrs. Carroll Dougherty, read "Silent Night" was sung all marched out and down to the basement where the social committee, Mrs. Mark Baumgardner, Mrs. Gilbert Stine, Mrs. Edith Wilhide, Mrs. Luther Keeney and Mrs. Marion Cushon served refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, cookies, coffee, potato chips and ginger ale. The tables were decorated in keeping with the holiday season and made an attractive appearance. Mrs. Lloyd Wilhide returned thanks. While seated around the table Christmas songs were sung. It was generally conceded the true Christmas spirit prevailed. May the prayer on the stars that were distributed be our Christmas prayer during the Christmas season.

THE NEW LIGHT

The earth is flooded with new light Which shines from Bethlehem's blazing star.
The shadows of war's freezing blight Are everywhere, both near and far.
Will the birthday of Gods own Son Be celebrated as it should, Or will war's battles be begun To drench the whole world with its blood?
Will angels bright on heavenly wing Their glorious anthems longer sing, Or will they fold their wings and leave, Because war's horrors they perceive?
How sadistic mankind can be, When if he would he could be free. Why is it that this creature man Cannot comprehend God's great plan?
Man given power goes where he please— Up thru the sky, down thru the sea He scurries hither, yon, and there, Goes where he pleases everywhere.
Does what he will with what he has Nor gives he care for what he was, Nor conscience grieves for what he does, He stands for liberty with laws.
Poor man, besotted, fouled by sin Seems not to know where to begin To purge himself from sin and shame Because he has forgot God's name.
One hope there is and only one, In Bethlehem's manger lay God's son; If to him all mankind would bow And follow in the tracks he'd show.
'Twould not be long until the day Would come when man would Him obey Sin stands on guard, directs man's way But where to go, sin will not say. Why not the straight and narrow way? W. J. H. 1941-2
ECCE HOMO!
See the man of Galilee—striding down the road, See the tears upon his cheek—sorrow is his load. Out from Bethlehem he came, joyously he came, But the burden that he bore, His human strength o'ercame.
See the man of Galilee—Saducee and Pharisee Smug in self righteousness, standing round Finding fault with what He did, earthen bound. Has the world found anywhere, either far or near, Him who could the Christ confound, with a sneer or leer?
So as we this Christmas Day, heads bowed low, Begin to pray that we each may, all escape the blow. Christ o'er all, Mighty One, Humble born, carpenter's son, Show us ways Thee to praise, e'er the day is done! W. J. H. Dec 6, 1942
SNOWFLAKES
There isn't much to life you know, If life isn't worth living; Life, you know, isn't a show, Life is receiving and giving.
I know not what her heart contains, Love, hate, woe, all three? I only know I loveth her, And that's enough for me.
No one lives to himself alone In this world of sorrows and joys; All cannot be lassies, For there are also boys.
Man squeezes the narrows and rides the tide, He follows the plow and reaps for the bride, That's the secret of a happy life In a world of struggle and strife.
The Lover chooses, the Loved is chosen, But each must agree, That I am the One, and You are the One, The One for You, the Other for Me.
It cannot be that I can see The end from the beginning, If that be true, then faith Would be only seeming. G. H. ENFIELD.

 ness and guidance which she displays could not be modified with any adjective, whatsoever! All in all, "Open House" was worth the wonderful efforts of all concerned! Here's hoping that the fine school Supt. of Carroll County realizes how very much it went over with the parents!
 Here's to all parents! By no means miss the next meeting of the P.T.A. It will interest you and teach you from start to finish. You will leave with that sweet taste in your mouth and I think you know exactly what I mean! It was an evening of charm and chucked full of interest for adults as well as those precious children. It went over very big with Your Observer because each and every parent there was most sincere and that is the down to earth basis of it all. So do attend the next meeting and register with the P.T.A. When you belong to such an organization you will desire to do for it all. The entire set up is just grand! So be one of them, Folks and you will be greeted warmly by the excellent young Principal. That school was a "God Send" around the town!
 Have you been reading those eloquent letters of F. D. R?
 Here's to the Executives of The Amoco Co! What a grand advertisement in presenting the ladies with Orchids on those two days. Betcha, there were many ladies by that method who had their very first orchid! It pays and pays to advertise.
 "Burns and Allen" made their T. V. debut several weeks ago and are even better than on radio. Their Sponsor is the "Carnation Company" Gracie says, "Why, George, I never knew before that milk came from Carnations!" George looks disgusted and says, "Now, Gracie when you go to the hospital to see Ruth, be sure and take some flowers!"
 Upon entering the house, George says, "Oh, what lovely flowers you bought! At which store did you get them, Gracie?" Then in astonishment, Gracie says, "Why, George! Don't you remember? You told me when I went to the hospital, be sure and take some flowers and I did! I took the best ones that Ruth had!"
 So long, Folks. Have a grand week-end. Will be seeing you next week. D.V. I am,
 Faithfully,

Winning Every Day

Lesson for December 17, 1950

SCRIPTURE: II Corinthians 11:16-33; 12:7-10; Philippians 3:4-11; II Timothy 4:1-8. DEVOTIONAL READING: II Timothy 4:1-8.

THE idea that religion is the opiate of the people has been circulated only by those who know nothing about religion from the inside. The Christian religion is no kind of drug. You may hunt through the New Testament from end to end and find not a single expression reminding you of a drug store. What you do find, over and over again, is the idea that this life, for the Christian, is a fight, a race, a grueling test run. What Christianity offers (among other things) is power: power to run the race to stand the test, to win the fight.

Dr. Foreman

Paul Knew How It Was

THE Christian life is a fight . . . but not a losing fight. Countless Christians have proved it by living it. We can pass up the number one example, Jesus himself, because some people might say that he had access to some source of power that ordinary men do not have.

Look, if you please, at Paul of Tarsus. There was a man who looked trouble in the eye many a day. In fact, there never was a single day when troubles left him free and easy.

Whatever we may say about Jesus, Paul certainly had no special "pipeline to heaven" which any other Christian might not have. Yet he lived, so to speak, on top of his troubles, not down under them. Even now, centuries later, Paul's struggles are still an asset for every Christian; each one of us can say, "Well, if Paul made it, I can."

On Many Fronts

AT the end of Paul's life he wrote those famous words, "I have fought a good fight." Our Scripture brings that statement down to cases. What was Paul's fight?

To his Corinthian friends he tosses off a rather hair-raising list of adventures, disasters and calamities through which he had passed. We don't need details. Just to name them is enough: famine, robbers, beatings, jail sentences, riots, three different shipwrecks . . . What a life! But Paul rode these things; they did not ride him.

Or again, there was his "thorn in the flesh." Nobody knows certainly what that was; but it was no doubt some kind of physical ailment or pain, and it did not go away. Pain is often far harder to stand than some exciting experience like a shipwreck. In the face of pain such as Paul suffered, one cannot fight back. All one can do is to take it. Yet Paul lived through this, too. It was part of his "good fight."

To the Philippians, again, he reports another sort of victory, though he makes no boast about it. He had conquered his besetting sin of conceit and pride. Paul was by no means a naturally humble man. Yet when a man can write as he does in Phil. 3:4-11, it is plain that he had crushed pride down and out. Perhaps Paul, like many another man, had found that his worst enemy was himself, his worse self.

In the second letter to Timothy, written at the end of his life, he tells of still other kinds of things that cost him a struggle—friends abandoning him, a trial that went against him. Yet these too he had not simply endured but conquered.

Available Victory
TWO thoughts come to us from all of this. One is, that it takes a fight to make a man. That is to say if Paul had had a perfectly easy life, he would never have been the grand character we know. For him, and for many a Christian since, reverses, disappointments, suffering and pain, tragedy, sorrow and mistakes will contribute to creative spiritual experiences if these are met in the Christian way.

And that leads to the other thought: The Christian way to power, the Christian secret of living a winning life every day, is today exactly the same as what Paul said it was: the strength of God, "made perfect in weakness." The Christian never becomes God; but God's grace and power can live in the Christian.

It is not the Christian who lives the victorious life, after all; left to ourselves we should bog down. But God be thanked, he does not leave us to ourselves! It is not we who win, but He in us. This does not excuse us from the fight; God lives not in the lazy but in the loyal.

The Happiest Kid on the Block

... will he be yours this Christmas?

HE CAN BE—he will be—if you bring home the television set that he's wanted so long, that he'll use so much.

Laughter, music, adventure, magic—television at home means all that to a growing boy these days, but it means a lot more than just programs.

Now he'll be able to invite the gang over to his house for TV instead of having to slip over to the neighbors to see television himself.

Now he can choose his own programs, with you to help develop his tastes, instead of viewing the choices of someone else.

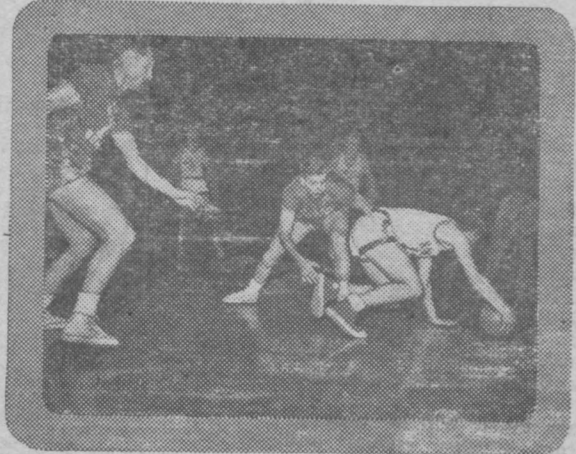

Now he'll spend a lot more time with Dad, watching ball games together and listening to Dad's stories about the very teams they're watching.

No wonder the happiest kid on the block will be your son when you make this year his "Television Christmas."

With TV
this magic world
is his to enjoy
every day!

CHILD PERFORMERS—Talented singers, dancers, musicians, inspire your children to cultivate their own talents. They'll be more eager to learn—practice more willingly.

WORLD'S GREATEST athletic events—Fathers and sons follow their favorite teams together from a front row seat. Television helps teach your children sportsmanship.

THE WONDERFUL world of make believe enchants children for hours—is often both educational and entertaining. It sure helps Mom—especially on rainy days.

MUSIC DELUXE! Now you can see as well as hear your favorite orchestras, singers, instrumentalists! Yes, Television gets you right "on stage" seats, no money could buy!

LAUGHTER under your roof—the shared pleasure that binds your family closer. The greatest comedians of the entertainment world are in your living room every night on TV.

Peter Capra

Executive Director of the Boys Club of New York, says:

"Television is more than fun for boys. It is significant and true that since the inclusion of television in the Boys Club program, the Glee Club, Drama and Music Groups have improved tremendously in the number of boys participating. Television properly integrated in the over-all program of wholesome recreation will continue to make an increasingly valuable contribution by keeping growing boys informed, entertained and happy . . . essential factors in building character and developing personality."
