Sonny Eyer told of La Galle and his experiences upon the Great Lakes. Leon Fritz told of Marquette and Joliet and their exploration down the Mississippi. PURCHASES ASSETS OF NEIGHBORING BANK

The Birnie Trust Co. Will Open Branch Bank in Uniontown

With the approval this week of the State Bank Commissioner and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation The Birnie Trust Company purchased the assets of The Carroll County Savings Bank of Uniontown, Md.

Plans are about completed for the Taneytown bank to continue the operation of the Uniontown bank beginning Tuesday, February 13, 1951. The official title of the Uniontown institution will be known as the Uniontown Bank Branch of The Birnie Trust Company.

Both banks have enjoyed a long period of years of banking business in Carroll County, the Uniontown bank being founded in 1871 and The Birnie Trust Company in the year 1884.

These two banks have weathered a number of financial storms and several depressions that proved too much for some banking institutions and businesses but under the able management of their officers and directors survived these threats and today have the respect and confidence of their many patrons and customers.

Combining the assets of these two banks will give The Birnie Trust Company assets in excess of two and three quarter million dollars. The Trust Company has recently increased its capital from $50,000.00 to $75,000.00 and its surplus from $60,000.00 to $85,000.00 by the sale of new capital stock.

The transaction between these two banks not only assures the people in the Uniontown and Taneytown community a continuance of the best in banking service but permits the new bank increased loaning powers.

G. Fielder Gilbert is president, Earl Young, Vice-President and C. Oren Garner, Treasurer of the Carroll County Savings Bank.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

The Publishing of a Book is Being Planned

Approximately 65 new fiction books have been added to the resources of the Elementary school library. The new books have been chosen to cover all grade levels and to meet the interests of as many pupils as possible. Quite a few books of biographical nature about famous Americans were also selected.

Through the cooperation of all teachers and pupils, a television research has been conducted recently. The purpose of the research is to determine to what extent the lives and study habits of the pupils are being effected by television, and to plan a pattern of education accordingly. Results of the research will be given as soon as tabulated.

Student editors and faculty sponsors have begun work on an elementary school magazine which will be sponsored this spring. In addition to providing an excellent opportunity for creative and factual writing in English classes, it is hoped that the magazine will also be a summary and record of the first separate elementary school unit in Taneytown.

A special meeting of the elementary P.T.A. executive committee was held recently for the purpose of formulating a resolution to be sent to the proper authorities concerning the need of continuing the county school building program, raising teachers salaries, and improving present playground facilities.

ANNAPOLIS LETTER FROM SENATOR HOFF

Bill for Sunday Movies in Taneytown Being Considered

To the Editor:

Dear Sir:

PROPERTY ASSESSMENTS

For some considerable time there has been a growing demand for some change in the law governing real estate assessments. The greatest complaint arises over the inequities resulting from the present system of five year assessments.

Each county in Maryland is divided into five parts and one of these districts is reassessed each year. When a new schedule for determining assessment values is put into effect one assessment district will pay taxes on the new assessment for five years before the last district is reassessed.

In times of reasonable stability of property values this system works fairly well. In times of steadily rising property values such as we have experienced for the last ten years, this system produces results that are greatly unfair to a large portion of our landowners.

In an attempt to cure some of these existing weaknesses in the present system the Case Commission (Maryland Tax Survey Commission of 1949) prepared Senate Bill No. 28. This Bill contains the following provisions, among others:

1. That there shall be assessments of all property in each county every year.
2. That appraisements shall be at the full cash value of the property. (The price at which a willing seller would sell a willing buyer would buy)
3. That all State Taxes would be based on this full appraised value.
4. That County Taxes would be based on a uniform percentage of full valuation. (For example a county could determine that its taxes would be levied on 65% of the full appraised value of the property in the County. The tax rate would then be fixed at so many dollars and cents per $100.00 assessment up to 65% of full property values.)

Some of the advantages of a system of this type are (1) That each county in the State would contribute its proper share of state taxes. Under the present law a county with a low assessment escapes paying its full share of the real estate tax burden. (2) That each county would receive a proper proportion of School Equalization and Incentive Funds, Welfare Funds, and any other state grants or aid based on property tax assessments. Here again the counties with the low assessment have a distinct advantage, in the way of receiving state benefits, over the counties with higher assessments. (3) That all property owners within a county would be taxed on the basis of

Gettysburg College Choir Will Sing in Trinity Lutheran Church

Recognized by musical authorities as one of the leading collegiate choirs in the East, the GETTYSBURG COLLEGE CHOIR, under the direction of Professor Parker B. Wagnild, will present a concert of choral music in the Trinity Lutheran Church, at 8:00 P. M., Wednesday, Feb. 14.

Coming from Gettysburg College which is located on one of the great national shrines of Pennsylvania, the choir plans to celebrate its 15th anniversary with a 13-day tour through parts of Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and West Virginia. Last year the organization journeyed south to sing in Virginia, North Carolina, and Maryland.

Through the efforts of Founder and Director Wagnild, the choral group has gained the prominent position it now holds among musical circles in the country. Appreciation of his dynamic work is expressed by one critic who said, "Professor Wagnild conducts with a flawless precision, never leaving the chorus or the audience in doubt as to the message presented."

From the Roanoke Times, Roanoke, Va., come reviews praising the group for its unusual precision of pitch and its exceptional blending qualities in both full-choir and small-choir strains. The reviewer of the Daily News, Newport News, Va., gave special notice to the resonance and depth of tone displayed in the bass section. "Listening to this program," he concluded, "was more than what is sometimes called 'an experience.' It was a thrill."

In Kannapolis, N. C., the choir was acclaimed for giving "faithful interpretation of sacred and semi-sacred numbers, excelling in tonal blending and precision." After a concert in the camp chapel at Camp Lejune, N. C., the Camp Lejune Globe, official organ of the United States Marine Corps, noted that the "artistry of the perfectly trained group of songsters was obvious from the first note to the last."

In addition to the tour, which will include such cities as Buffalo, N. Y., and Pittsburgh, Pa., the organization will present concerts at the Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Md., and at Philadelphia, Johnstown, and Baltimore. In all, 31 programs will be given by the choir during its 1950-1951 concert season.

The numbers constituting the program to be sung this year will be "The Spirit Also Helpeth Us," J. S. Bach; "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," Plain-song; "When God Paints the Sunset," Norse Folk Song; "Bread of Tears," Paul Christiansen; "Vinea Mea Electa," Francis Poulenc.

In the second section will be included "Benedictus," Franz Liszt; "Yea, Though I Wander," Georg Schumann; "Lost in the Night," Finnish Folk Song, solo by Jean C. Sloop; and "Nodie Natus Est," Healy Willan.

Concluding the program are "We Have No Other Guide," Schvedoff; "Beauty in Humility," F. M. Christiansen; "Autumn's Art," F. M. Christiansen, solo by Maude Aurdand; and "Advent Motet," Gustave Schreck.

THIS 'N' THAT

(Your Chatty Column)
With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning,
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

On February 14 is Valentine Day so don't forget the one you love and admire. If you can't express yourself, flowers can say things which you cannot dream of saying and a lovely Valentine with eloquent words will mean much. There are many husbands who give and give to the "best" half but when it comes to saying just the nice things which would please his lady, he is stumped and that Valentine touch will mean much. There are so many beautiful and old-fashioned Valentines this year—more so than for many a year. There is a very special Valentine which I have kept for the past seventeen years. It was made entirely by my eldest step-son. There is a big heart drawn and a few drops of blood which he colored and then the printed words which read, "Roses are red, violets are blue, and here is my love and my heart for you."

As I type this column, the new addition is sitting by my chair—a "Boxer" puppy which I have named, "Abigail from Aberdeen" which was presented to Your Observer by a friend from Aberdeen.

Now, here's to the ladies! If you are planning a wedding be sure and write to "Wedding Etiquette" Box 172 New Windsor and they will in turn send you a free booklet.

As Spring, is just around the corner, ladies be sure and make the appointment at your favorite "Beauty Salon" as Easter is very early this year—MARCH 25! Here is an old one but a grand one. If you really want beautiful and glamorous hands run right to "Doc's" and get a large bottle of Vaseline and upon retiring rub the Vaseline into your hands and cover them with an old pair of gloves which are about done—Kid ones are the best for this purpose and you will be delighted with the transformation the next morning! No one will believe that you do all the household chores!

If you have any paper left over from the walls which have been newly decorated, line your bureau drawers with it and they will appear beautiful.

Your Observer has attempted to start painting, "Still Life" Have always been most fond of drawing and sketching so believe it or not two Oil Paintings on Canvas have been completed. That goes to show, Folks anyone can do it if they really want to. Now, I will have had the experience to paint the gorgeous Sunsets of Summertime of which I have written about from time to time. So when you drive by and see Your Observer parked with brush and palette with the Easel 'N' Everything, you will know just what it is all about. Even a beginner must have the proper tools just as a carpenter which then will bring about finer workmanship. No one can appreciate a "Master's" piece of Art until he or she takes the brush in hand!

If you were asked very suddenly the number of your car License plate and if your watch hours were printed or in numerals would you be able to give the correct answers?

If you were asked who earned the title of "The March King" would you know that one, too? None other than John Philip Sousa! Remember?

Did you know that the great Woolworth, the five and dime Millionaire was a farmer's son? Every boy has a dream as to what he wants to be in life and this boy at seven years of age had the ambition to work in a store and then at some distant day to own one himself! That really happened and his very first 5 cent store was opened in Lancaster, Pa., and the sales amounted to $6,750. the very first year and that was in the year of 1871! He—F. W. Woolworth—is the greatest retail merchant in the world! When he was just nineteen years of age after completing a Commercial College course at Watertown, N. Y. in preparation for what he determined was to be his life's work, he drove around in a cutter in hunting a job. For quite a while his search was fruitless, merchants telling him he was too young. AND TOO GREEN! But finally, joy of joys, his opportunity came as he was given a place with the dry goods firm of Augsbury and Moore at Watertown, N. Y., which later became Moore & Smith. At first, Woolworth was not offered any salary only to remain around and look and after three months was given $3.50 per week! In two and a half years, he was offered $6 a week. Then another merchant in the same town offered him $10. a week. He accepted. One day his health broke and soon he was forced back into

LENT IS WITH US

Lent representing the forty days fast of Jesus would be a good time to rid the body of its sluggishness. I think the Roman Catholic Church has the right idea when it fasts during the lenten season. We all eat too much, especially of meats and fats.

Fish is a splendid article of diet and of this the Catholics eat abundantly during the lenten season. Unfortunately, somehow, the fish merchants manage to raise their prices during the lenten season. This need not be so if people regulated their diet to the necessities of the occasion.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

BEACH HAVEN, N. J., TIMES: "Faced with higher and higher taxes, more and more citizens today are demanding all possible curtailment of non-war expenditures and the highest possible value for every dollar spent by government."

REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., STAR: "Those who are raising the cry today that the Federal government is rapidly entering every phase of this country's economy, can only ask themselves one question, 'How many times did I invite it to do that very thing?' The less we cry vitiously in both our state and local affairs, the more this trend of benevolent control from the Capitol will diminish. It is time to choose our masters."

TAYLORVILLE, ILL., DAILY BREEZE-COURIER: "Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered." These stirring words were uttered during our Revolution by that undaunted fighter for liberty, Thomas Paine. They are worth remembering in dark days. Despite many discouragements tyranny was finally conquered then, and so it will be again."

FEESERSBURG

The farmer, as usual, is getting blamed for the present high prices. To hear the commentator on the radio only the farmer is making any money these days. The manufacturers, the bakers, the store keepers, and business people in general are having a hard time keeping the wolf from the door. The farmer is pictured as a profiteer by city newspapermen and as a villain whose political influence is so great that Congress dares not impose effective control on agricultural prices. Yesterday Drew Pearson blamed the high cost of bread on the farmer, saying that the high price of wheat and lard is responsible. Every farmer knows that bread took a jump skyward when wheat was selling at its lowest price in 5 years and the same was true of lard. I do not deny that the farmer is better off today than he was 10 years ago, but then so is everyone else. It's no use passing the buck on the high cost of living to the farmer. The truth of the matter is everyone is getting too much profit. The other day I happened to be in a butcher shop when a woman of about 60 years complained about the high price of meat. The owner of the shop had the audacity to tell the woman the reason his meat was so high was because the dollar is only worth 33 cents. The woman looked as bewildered as I did, but a man standing by said, "Well, a dollar ten years ago may have been worth 100 cents but I never saw any of them; today I have plenty even if they are only worth 33 cents and I am satisfied." So don't let anyone confuse you with talk of the cheap dollar; just look around and see how much better off everyone is now compared to ten years ago.

This is Boy Scout Week. This isn't an easy world to grow up in. We ask our boys to mature quickly, to make sound searching decisions that suits would find difficult, often to sacrifice everything for the sake of our liberty. True, America offers its boys many roads to follow. That so many of our young men choose the right road, often is due to the work of the Boy Scout movement and to the many thousands of adult volunteers and civic organizations who guide and support it. Since 1910, seventeen and one-half million Americans have been in Scouting. During that time the program has grown to include all interests and ages—everything from first aid to plumbing, everyone from Cub Scout to Adult Scout. The Comradship, the character building, the interest in community affairs that result from Scoutings fine leadership and program can never be measured. But the effect can be seen in almost every boy who has once been a Scout. For what he learns in Scouting, he learns for life—for living. This week is the 41st Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. We are happy to congratulate the Boy Scouts on 41 fruitful years.

What you are is God's gift to you; what you do with yourself is your gift to God.—Emerson.

In Loving Memory of our dear wife and mother,

MRS. DAVID H. HAHN, who passed away five years ago, Feb. 7th., 1946

Time passes on, five years have passed. Since death in gloom, its shadows cast; Into our home which once was bright, And took from us a shining light. We miss that light and always will, Her vacant place, no one can fill.

The world may change from year to year And friends from time to time, But never will the one we loved From memory pass away. The depth of sorrow we cannot tell Of the loss of one we loved so well, And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep Her memory we shall always keep. By her HUSBAND and CHILDREN.

two minutes that made history
The now forgotten orator who spoke for more than two hours at Gettysburg was outshone by Lincoln's immortal address given in about two minutes. Today, in solving our major problems, we could well use more of the patriotism, clarity and directness so ably exemplified by Abraham Lincoln.

LOCAL FEED MAN ATTENDS SERVICE CONFERENCE

George C. Flohr, Manager of Southern States Taneytown Cooperative has returned from a two-day farm service conference at Frederick, which was conducted by Southern States Cooperative for managers and employees of local cooperative service agencies. Purpose of the conference, according to Southern States Coop, was to give Agency employees and managers a better understanding of the cooperative and supplies offered patrons. Officials of Southern States, from central headquarters in Richmond, presented talks on seed, feed, fertilizer and farm supplies. In addition to the commodity talks, J. E. Givens, Director of Community Services, spoke on "Southern States Members and You," at a banquet held for the men attending the conference.

Another highlight of the conference The Fertilizer Department said, was a presentation of the outline of the Southern States-sponsored $20,000 essay contest which will be open to boys and girls under 18 years of age in Virginia, Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, Tennessee and Kentucky. First prize in the contest will be a $2,000 college scholarship. Over 70 Agency managers and employees were on hand for the meeting which was held in the Francis Scott Key hotel in Frederick. Herbert Manuel and Julian Smith, district managers of the Cooperative, were in charge of the conference.

Friday night of this week from 8 to 8:30 o'clock, Mr. Albert Crews, director of production, Department of Broadcasting and Films, National Council of Churches, and the Rev. Dr. Franklin C. Fry, president of the United Lutheran Church, with dramatic presentation, will cover the needs of Church World Service in Korea, Japan, Burma, India, Pakistan, the Middle East, and Europe. These men left New York on January 4 and have just returned from a trip to these places. This team of two men will be featured on the NBC network and will tell of their on-the-spot survey. This report will come in time for the nation-wide emphasis on "One Great Time for Sharing," in which most of the 14 cooperating denominations will unite on this Sunday, the first Sunday in Lent. The denominations will take offerings in the local churches.

The funds will then be forwarded through their regular world relief channels and then allocated to displaced persons, refugees, and other relief work to which the denomination is giving support. Denominations supporting the appeal include the American Baptist Convention, Church of the Brethren, Congregational Christian Churches, Disciples of Christ, Evangelical and Reformed Church, Evangelical United Brethren Church, Eastern District Conference of the Methodist Church, Presbyterian Church, U. S., Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., United Presbyterian Church of North America, Reformed Church in America, Romanian Orthodox Episcopate of America, Russian Orthodox Church of North America, Serbian Eastern Orthodox Church. SHORT STORY

Always A Payoff

By KATHRYN BEMIS

HENRY HALL came breezing into his suburban bungalow. No Mandy in the kitchen, no wife Grace in sight! "Grace will warm up something and call it dinner!" he sputtered. "Why does she play bridge on Mandy's day off?" But after living 10 years with a bald-headed, flat-chested little scrimp of a man like himself, a modest-salaried manager of a women's apparel shop, he couldn't blame Grace for craving entertainment.

He switched on a lamp in the living room and settled into his chair by the radio.

He took out the first volume his hand touched. Perhaps a little Shakespeare would brighten his talk. He started as something flew out from a leaf, zig-zagged to the rug. A $10 bill! He snatched it up, stuffed it into his billfold. Grace, hiding her money in books! He yanked out another masterpiece, shook it. Two more tens fluttered before Henry's eyes.

Within a few minutes, he had shaken down $200, instead of meagre knowledge, from the awe-inspiring tomes.

BUT from that night on, Henry was worried. The allowance he gave Grace was small. She must have scimped on household expenses a long time to save that money. What sinister project was she planning?

So he was greatly relieved one evening when she met him at the door and quavered, "Oh, Henry, I've been robbed!"

Henry managed to look concerned. He asked, "Robbed? What's gone?" "Two hundred dollars I saved from the house-money! I hid it in the encyclopedia! I've slaved—done without Mandy days on end—saved what I would have paid her—"

Her bitter disappointment overcame his desire to punish her. He jumped up, saying, "Wait! Just a minute!"

He raced upstairs to his clothes closet. He reached into its dark confines for his old brown coat.

"Where in the dickens is my old brown suit?" he called downstairs.

"That moth catcher? I warned you I'd give that rag away or burn it up! But I did even better. The old clothes man gave me 50 cents for it!"

FROM now on, Henry was a changed man. Finding that old brown suit had become his obsession. Then one morning when giving instructions to one of his saleswomen, he abruptly wheeled about, dashed out to the street. He grabbed a passing man by the collar of his shabby brown coat, demanding, "Where'd you get that suit?"

The voice of the stranger shook with fear of the madman he judged Henry Hall to be. "Griss and Griscom made it for me—five years ago," he said conciliatingly.

"Ha!" jeered Henry, not relaxing his hold. "Griss and Griscom made

"Where the dickens is my old suit?" he called downstairs.

that suit for me—the label's inside! Smart, aren't you?"

"What's coming off here?" snapped a policeman, thrusting Henry aside.

"This man's wearing my suit—he's got the money—he's—"

After the matter had been talked out before the police sergeant and Henry was convinced that the stranger had once been affluent enough to buy custom-made suits and now was clothed in one of them, he returned to the shop, a chastened man.

Mandy's black face wore a broad grin that night when she placed the beef roast before Henry. She said, "Mr. Hall—you know what? My boy fren' looks swell in your ol' brown suit he bought off'en that ol' c'los' man. He's sure generous too."

"What's that?" asked the suddenly alert Henry.

"You see, we's fixin' to git married, Mr. Hall. Not havin' steady work, I ain't saved much, but that man's makin' up fur it! He's already bought me a white 'lectric 'frigerator—big as two like you'all's got!"

Poultry House Litter

Chopped straw makes a good litter for poultry houses, since much of the pithy inside surface is exposed to absorb water.

Hessian Fly

Destroying volunteer wheat helps to control Hessian fly infestations. Wheat should not be planted until after the fall brood of flies has emerged and left.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons
By DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Mark 6:7-7:23.
DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 103:1-11.

Jesus Meets Need

Lesson for February 11, 1951

WHAT PEOPLE want would fill many books. What people need is a simpler story. Whatever success Christianity has had, is due to its success in meeting human needs. If Christianity were only an argument, or a system of ideas, it would never have gone as far as it has, nor won so many friends.

Dr. Foreman

Ignorance

THE Church at its best has simply followed in the paths on which Jesus was a pioneer. The gospel stories of Jesus show him as one who "went about doing good" as Peter put it. Seeing a need, he bent himself to meet that need; this has been the ideal for Christians and the church ever since.

One of the first needs of man is to be saved from his ignorance. Jesus saw the human race not as a pack of wolves or a mass of snakes, but as sheep without a shepherd.

So Jesus then, and the church now, set out to teach. A church that does not teach is a poor church. "The church must teach or die," it is true; it is also true that the church must teach or others will die.

Sickness

IT IS not on record that Jesus ever walked by a sick person without making him well. Jesus did not think that sickness and pain are good things in themselves.

When you think of all the loss of time, money and happiness that one miserable little cold can cause, and multiply that by the number of colds in North America alone; when you think of the pain and danger and after-effects of one attack of malaria, and then think of all the cases of malaria in all the warm regions of the world; and when you go on adding up all the diseases there are, you really wonder how the human race manages to stagger along.

Now the Christian church has always been doing something about this. Today, in many backward countries, Christian doctors and hospitals have pioneered in health, and indeed are the only effective disease-fighters in the whole region.

Hunger

WHATEVER else can be said of the feeding of the five thousand, one thing is plain: Jesus did not think it was a good thing for people to stay hungry.

So the church, following his example, has fed the hungry wherever it can. The church protests, and will continue to protest, against any society or institution that leaves people hungry. It is an empty stomach that things like Communism rise.

So when a missionary like Sam Higginbottom in India teaches better ways of farming, or when the Salvation Army adopts the slogan "Soap, soup and salvation," or when heifers are rounded up and sent abroad as a gesture of Christian friendship, when CROP interests the Christian farmers of America in rural reconstruction in war-torn areas of Europe, the church is just following the lead of Jesus.

Slavery

ONE of man's deepest needs is freedom. Jesus did not set free any slaves in his time, it is said; but is this true? There are other kinds of slavery besides that from which Abraham Lincoln freed the Negroes in 1863. Of these other kinds, one of the worst is slavery of the mind. We see Jesus setting his contemporaries free from the heavy chains of taboos and false traditions which the Pharisees had piled on them.

So when the first Christians broke away from the burdens of the old ceremonial laws, or when a Christian missionary in Africa or China or Greenland set men free from the darkness of pagan superstitions, or when the Protestant Reformation came, a great Declaration of Independence in the name of Christ from the traditions and superstitions which had long obscured the truth and burdened the minds even of Christians, the church is only following the example of Christ.

When we stand for a free church in a free land and a government of free men, we stand as Christians ought to stand, enemies of tyrannies in every form.

ANNAPOLIS LETTER

an equal assessment. There would be no lag of one or more years between assessment districts as exists under the present five year rotation system. (4) That differences in assessments upon similar properties would be lessened. It would undoubtedly be easier to find the present market value of a property than to assess the property on values of past years and by formulas that frequently produce absurd results. (Recently a property was sold for $11,000.00. The same year that same property was assessed, by the use of some fixed formula, at $14,000.00).

There are also some obvious disadvantages to the Bill as recommended by the Case Commission. A complete assessment of each county every year would be both difficult and expensive. And it would be no small job to convince the tax paying property owner that a valuation of his property at full value for assessment purposes would not mean that he was going to pay more taxes.

The Bill is opposed by the counties with low tax assessments because it would require them to contribute more state taxes and would reduce the amount received as benefits from the state.

The larger counties are also opposing the measure because the burden of an overall annual assessment would be extremely heavy.

LOCAL BILLS

SENATE BILL 91: Authorizes the County Commissioners to fix the salaries of the Tax Collector and assistant. They are at present fixed by law at $2400 and $1500 respectively. SENATE BILL 92: Authorizes a referendum for Taneytown on the question of Sunday movies between the hours of 2 and 7 p. m. and after 9 p. m. The question would be decided at the regular town election on the first Monday of June, 1952.

SENATE BILL 93: This Bill results from the extremely generous offer of Scott S. Bair to contribute $100,000 toward a general hospital in Carroll County on the condition that this gift be matched with an equal amount by Carroll County.

This gift of Mr. Bair's is in addition to his liberal contributions toward the War Memorial Medical Center to be built in the very near future.

It is planned that the general hospital be erected at the site on the Washington road, in Westminster, selected for the Medical Center.

The Bill authorizes the County Commissioners to levy $50,000 a year for three years to match the contribution of Mr. Bair and to match any additional contributions that may be made by other citizens or groups.

The Bill also authorizes the immediate construction of the hospital or at such time as economic conditions may permit.

Mr. Bair has already turned over to the County Commissioners over $25,000 of the total amount of his gift.

Any individuals or civic groups desiring to contribute toward this excellent and badly needed project should make their contributions directly to the County Commissioners of Carroll County. All such contributions up to a total of $50,000 per year will be matched from County funds.

Until next week, I am,
Sincerely,
STANFORD HOFF.

farming. In June 1877, Mr. Moore his first employer called him in and told him he needed someone to tone up his store and offered him a position at $10. a week. In August the next year, Mr. Moore asked Woolworth what more could he do to earn his salary! "Well," was the reply, "I would like to try to sell some of the goods around this store that people have been slow in buying. Give me a table and a little space and I think I can work out an idea". The only thing available was a small table which was one of those "sewing" affairs and on this table, Mr. Woolworth arranged some goods and put a price card inviting customers to take their choice of 5 cents each.

Nearly every article was sold the very first day! Hence the real five and dime store was made right there in that boy's mind! It then added later, the 10-cent articles and now is the oldest 5 and 10 cent store in the world. The stores all were located in Pennsylvania in the very beginning. After the opening of the Lancaster store, one was opened in Harrisburg, then Scranton and finally an office was opened in New York in 1886 where Woolworth directed activities of his various selling centers through a larger horizon. Then a Reading store was opened in Pennsylvania and the next out of State was Newark, N. J. The Newark store was managed by Woolworth's cousin, S. H. Knox but this cousin became discouraged as the sales had dwindled and Mr. Woolworth went from his New York office to Newark and there found his cousin with tears rolling down his face reading a letter from his mother wishing to help him financially stating, "quite a lot of money" would arrive to save the situation which she had saved bit by bit. It was just $40. Then Mr. Woolworth urged his cousin to hold on until after the holidays and then he would open another store. This time, Erie, Penna., was the place and the very first day it was jammed full of farmers who had come to town for their Saturday buying.

Well Folks, I'll leave Mr. Woolworth right there and you know the rest of the story and that reminds me to tell you that our five and dime around our town is chucked full of just about everything which even amazed Your Observer last week when I called to get several articles. Just go in and browse around!

Have a grand week-end and if there is a little boy in your life, never laugh at him when he has a big idea for no one knows what that idea may amount to at a later period. So long until next week. D.V. I am,
Faithfully,
YOUR OBSERVER.
