SCOUT PARENTS NIGHT

Taneytown Troop 348 Celebrates 41st Anniversary

Celebrating the 41st anniversary week of Scouting in America, Troop 348, Taneytown, invited parents to witness the conduct of a typical troop meeting on Thursday, February 8th. Despite severe weather, a good turnout of those not snowbound observed the program stressing first aid bandages, prepared by Assistant Scoutmaster Stanley F. Frock and Junior Assistant Andrew Alexander.

A word of welcome was given and the meeting ceremonially opened by Senior patrol leader Philip Lawyer, who called on Kenneth Frock, Robert Fuss, Robert Ohler, John Perry, and Miles Stoniesifer to assist him. After the evening's game of "Grab the Bacon" played blindfold was enthusiastically enjoyed, patrol sessions were devoted to routine business such as dues collecting and to the practice of bandages. In the succeeding bandage relay race, using only the scout neckerchief, the Raccoon patrol Robert Bowers leader, and Larry Eckard assistant, placed first.

Standings in the inter-patrol contest disclosed that the Foxes, Donald Lawyer leader, Frederick Markle assistant, were leading. Presentation of 3-year service stars was made to Donald Lawyer and John Perry, and the officers of the troop present were then introduced by Scoutmaster Wilber O. Thomas: Francis E. Lookingbill, Commander of the American Legion Post 120, institutional representative; Raymond E. Haines, committeeman; Assistant Scoutmaster Frock, Senior patrol leader Lawyer, Junior assistant scoutmasters Andrew Alexander and Fern Bachman; patrol leaders Bowers and Lawyer; assistants Kenneth Frock and Larry Eckard; assistant quartermaster Robert Ohler, and chief engineer John Jerry. A newly posted advancement chart test and merit badge ratings was displayed, it being the province of Junior assistant Alexander to record future progress. A calendar of coming events showed that swimming on Friday in the Frederick "Y" was the next scheduled, to be repeated Friday, February 16. Valley Forge Jamboree reunion in Baltimore, February 17 was of interest to the three who had been troop delegates, S. W. Frock, Alexander, and Philip Lawyer.

Commander Lookingbill then presented the institutional charter for the year 1951, addressed a few remarks to the guests on the relationship of the troop to its sponsor, Hesson-Shider Post, and presented membership commissions to the adult leaders. Assistant Scoutmaster Frock, who is Explorer adviser, then awarded registration cards to the Explorer members, while Junior assistant Bachman gave the Scouts their certificates. Chairman Lawyer then dismissed Scouts and Explorers for a round of bowling at Taney Recreation Center during the period set aside for an informal discussion by parents and the scoutmaster of mutual problems. On the boys' return a few refreshments were served prepared by that committee, Philip Lawyer and Robert Bowers. The meeting was brought to a close with the sounding of Taps by Alexander, who afterwards favored with a number of tunes on his banjo-uke, all joining in the singing. By the time the guests and leaders had concluded their chats and the pingpong enthusiasts had finished their games, the hour was late and the evening's promise well fulfilled.

TANEYTOWN H. S.

P-T. A. MEETING

Topic: "Should Agriculture Be Taught in T. H. S.?"

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Carel Frock. The first item on the program was a Patriotic organization and chorus by the 8 and 10th grades directed by Mrs. Wallace Yingling, music teacher. In the committee reports, Mr. Shower, the high school principal reported that the repair committee will meet with Mr. Jenness, County School Superintendent, about furnishing cooler water at the school drinking fountains. The treasurer, Mr. Dougherty, reported that the cost of putting on the square dance for the PTA at the November 14 meeting was slightly greater than the income from the refreshment stand. In answer to an inquiry from the floor, Mr. Shower reported that the school cafeteria menus would be posted sufficiently early to permit parents to help in selecting their child's lunch. In answer to another inquiry, as to whom was to bear the cost of having the school evaluated Mr. Shower replied that this expense was being borne by the county school board. He went on to explain the evaluation survey. This survey will take place April 9, 10, 11 and 12th.

The question "Should agriculture be taught at Taneytown High school?" was placed on the floor for discussion. Mr. Shower explained that in order to have the course it must meet the minimum requirement of the Smith-Hughes Act which calls for a minimum enrollment of 20, with a daily average attendance of 15. The course would need two or three thousand dollars worth of equipment. From the schools past experience in order for the course to succeed, it must not only have the interest of the pupils, but also both the interest and backing of the parents. Mr. Robert Miller, agriculture teacher at Westminster high school explained several requirements for a successful agriculture course. He felt that it was impractical to have in such a course, any town students who could not have a farm project or maintain interest in the course. He also felt that an agriculture teacher should not be burdened with subjects not related to agriculture. Mr. Shower said it was the usual thing to start the course with boys in the 10th grade, but in some cases, it might be possible, in order to get enough pupils, to have some pupils from the 8th or 9th grades, but that the latter would work hardships on the school's schedule.

It was finally decided that those interested in having their children take an agriculture course would attempt to get together a group of parents representing at least 20 pupils, and for this group to meet Mr. Jenness, Supt. of schools, at an open meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 21, at 8 p. m., at the High School to petition him to start the agriculture course. Twelve parents signed up and as chairman of this group, the president appointed George Gunther. Anyone else interested is to contact Mr. Gunther, Taneytown Rt. 2, or Mr. Shower at the school.

The 12 who signed at the meeting are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. George Gunther, Mr. Ralph Stoniesifer, Mr. Paul Weant, Arthur Angell, Mr. and Mrs. Lake Weant, George Shriver, Mrs. Mary Clingan, Mrs. Ethel Strickhouser, Wm. Flickinger, Raymond Lawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider, Earl Row, and Mrs. Leonard Reifsnider.

OPPOSES OVERLOADING

Truckers Voice Their Stand on This Subject

The Maryland Motor Truck Association Monday night took the position that illegal loading of trucks on Maryland highways should be stopped through the levying of severe penalties on violators.

Following a meeting of a special committee, J. Marshall Stewart, Executive Vice-President of the Association, said, "Although the overwhelming majority of the operators have always complied with the weight laws of Maryland, a small number of violators have created an unfavorable impression of this essential industry."

"The meeting was called," Mr. Stewart continued, "for the purpose of finding a means of more effectively policing the industry in order to preclude the possibility of certain elements from attempting to operate trucks in violation of the law. The committee resolved to advocate and support the amending of the present weight law to include a higher level of fines, which would make it economically unsound to load illegally. As a result of our own self-policing policy, plus the present enforcement program, weight violations have been substantially reduced."

"We have consistently offered our assistance and cooperation to all State agencies and will continue to do so in every possible way."

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER AT KEYSVILLE

The two churches of Keysville joined in a community World Day of Prayer service on Friday evening in the Keysville Lutheran church. Rev. R. S. The address of the evening was given by the Rev. Norman S. Wolf of the Lutheran Church, of Fairfield, Pa. He spoke on the "tide" of prayer around the world on this, the World Day of Prayer. His talk was an inspiration and a challenge to everyone present.

A trio from the Reformed church, consisting of Mr. Clarence Stoniesifer, Mr. Paul Six and Mr. James Six, rendered two numbers, "God's Way is the Best Way" and "Sweet Hour of Prayer" with Miss Miriam Doble presiding at the piano. After which prayers were offered by Miss Ina Doble, and Mrs. Glenn Grushon of the Reformed church, and Mrs. Roy Kiser, Mrs. Carroll Wilhide, and Mr. Lloyd Wilhide, of the Lutheran church.

ANNAPOLIS LETTER

FROM SENATOR HOFF

Several Local Bills are Being Considered by the Legislature

To the Editor,

Dear Sir:
I recall that several years ago I prepared a letter on the subject of County-wide zoning as a trial balloon to determine what the reaction might be from the general public. The response at that time indicated only mild approval and the matter was dropped.

Recently, however, the Chambers of Commerce of several of our incorporated towns have revived the subject and called a meeting for the purpose of discussing whether or not legislation should be prepared to enable Carroll County to adopt some form of zoning regulations. After a full discussion of the matter it was decided that a further meeting should be called for the purpose of inviting representatives from each of the incorporated towns in the County, together with representatives from all other civic groups, to attend.

This meeting will be held at the Westminster High School on Friday, February 23rd, 1951, at 7:30 P. M. Anyone interested in this matter is invited to attend. Town officials of all of the incorporated towns in the county are urged to be present.

LOCAL BILLS

House Bill 178: This Bill was introduced to remove from the Code of Public Local Laws the matter pertaining to the salary of the County Treasurer as this salary is fixed by Section 38A of Art. 25 of the Code of Public General Laws.

In spite of rumors to the contrary this Bill does not authorize any salary increases nor does it provide for any new county office to be filled by appointment or otherwise.

House Bill 187: This Bill amends the law to permit the Sheriff to appoint "such deputies as may be necessary for the proper execution of the duties of his office, who shall receive such compensation as may be determined by the County Commissioners." Heretofore the Sheriff was (Continued on Eighth Page)

THIS 'N' THAT

(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning
A smile that shall last until the next day's dawning.
I wish you health—life's greatest wealth!
I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer
Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

The first heavy snow has fallen of the winter making the roads most dangerous and that convinces us even if the days are getting longer, winter will be with us for two more months. February is the most treacherous month. Eh?

That reminds me—down Florida way word comes that it is really winter there and one reader states in Orange Park in their home—just $100. worth of oil has been used in keeping warm and that for one month only! Umph!

Thank you, dear Reader in sending that nice big newsy paper to me, "The Los Angeles Examiner" all the way from the big coast! It was most interesting and I read it for two entire weeks! Never saw as big paper and so much reading for one edition. The contents made me wish I was headed that way for a vacation!

Years ago, eye glasses were fragile affairs and most neat and refined but today the ones that sell mostly are the big, bold affairs that hide the eyes almost entirely.

Now, here is something and that just about awful! During the last war, two women were in an elevator in Washington, D. C., and as the elevator was in motion to the upper floors, one was heard to say to the other, "Well, the war will be over soon but I wish it would last until I was finished paying for my house!" That dear late Bishop Hughes of the Methodist church was in the same elevator and looked at the speaker and then said, "Woman, you should be given matches to start a HELL of your own!"

Did you know that the original script of The Star Spangled Banner in Baltimore and $27,000. was paid for it?

Here's a cute one! That big black dog on The Square around our town sits outside of the butcher shop and waits until he gets his daily bone and walks hurriedly up the street with it from the kindly butcher!

There is a very clever lady in our (Continued on fourth page.)

ACRES OF DIAMONDS

The great Russell Conwell founder of Temple University had a lecture on the subject Acres of Diamonds which he is said to have delivered six thousand times and devoted every penny of the profits to the educating of young men.

One illustration is I recall it was that a farmer who had the itch to get rich in the diamond fields sold his farm and went in search of wealth while the men who bought the farm found in the spring one of the largest diamonds that had up to that time been found. Distant pastures look green. A crazy mule turned out into a clover pasture knee high looked at the distant fields and left his pasture to land in a scrawny hedge field. There are plenty of opportunities all about us if we will but see and seize them.

EDISON'S BIRTHDAY

On February 11th, the birthday of Thomas Alva Edison was observed once again. Few men have contributed so much to the happiness and welfare of the peoples of the world.

A list of Edison's inventions would fill many pages. Many of them were of the highest importance. But one stands out above all others—and that one is the electric light.

When Edison produced his first crude lamp, a revolution had begun, though most people thought it useless and dangerous, and the majority in those days regarded it as being little more than an amusing sort of toy. Yet, from that lamp came a force which changed the face of nations, and which revolutionized industry, agriculture and the life of the home.

The electric age brought living and working standards which had never been dreamed of before. It has directly and powerfully influenced every phase of civilized life. It as reached its fullest flower in this country. And we should never forget one fact of the utmost importance—it was the work of free men and of free enterprise. The great industry whose beginning was Edison's lamp was pioneered and developed by free individuals. In spite of the scoffers, men risked their time and energies and savings—and the splendid power industry of today is their monument.

We hear much of socialized power projects these days—developments which are run by politicians and bureaucrats and paid for with everybody's tax money. But free enterprise made possible electricity for all the people—and free enterprises is still meeting the greatest part of our needs.—Industrial News Review.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

LAWDALE, CALIF., TRIBUNE: "Washington experts tell us that the only way to get the necessary military production is to cut production of civilian goods to the bare necessities. Before such a drastic step is taken, it might be well to review the situation and see what other things can be done. The first thing we can do is to end the appalling waste of manpower in the swollen bureaus of our government."

SOMERSET, PA., DAILY AMERICAN: "The President tells us that there is great need for the expansion of electric power. That has been the story for fifty years. The expansion of electric power plants by private industry has been slowed down by governmental hobbles. Removal of the hobbles would probably result in provision of abundant power."

Free . . . Telephone Almanac for 1951

You can get your copy of the Telephone Almanac for 1951 from the nearest telephone business office. Write for it, or if you like, drop in and pick it up. The Telephone Almanac contains valuable information for farmers, business men, housewives, and other telephone users. It gives many interesting facts about the important developments and inventions that combine to make possible your telephone service, as well as radio and television. The French had a word for it

"Chaufeur" is French for "stoker." It was applied to operators of early coal-burning road wagons, who literally were stokers as well as drivers. Operators of the Telephone Company's motor vehicles—in common with other drivers today—have no stoking to distract them. They concentrate on safe driving and consideration for other motorists. Last year, most telephone drivers in Maryland covered thousands of miles—in all kinds of weather—without a single accident.

From one good neighbor about another

Not long ago, we received a letter from a rural telephone user complimenting the others on her line. She said: "In the years that we have been on the same line, there hasn't been one single incident of discourtesy. We want to thank the others on our line who do so much to make possible such good telephone service." Yes, party-line service is better when each person on the line is considerate of the others. And it isn't hard to be a good party-line neighbor. It simply means treating the other person as you would like him to treat you.

Thursday, Feb. 22 we honor the birthday of the father of our country, the best of great men. Wherever the name of America is known, wherever liberty or the desire for liberty dwells on earth, there his fame is hailed. General Washington was built of such earnest spiritual fibre that it grieved him sorely to learn that the habit of profane swearing was becoming widespread among his soldiers. He issued a general order condemning the practice, and urged that his officers especially refrain from it, and thereby be an example to the common soldier. He closed his order with this indictment, "We can have little hope of the blessing of Heaven on our arms if we insult it by our impiety and folly. Added to this, it is a vice so mean and low, without any temptation, that every man of sense and character detests and despises it."

"A thousand winter snows may spread their mantle on the face of the land, a thousand setting suns may cast their golden rays on the hills, dales and valleys of America, but the spirit of George Washington will live on forever."

FEESERSBURG

If we think about it at all, most of us imagine the wage-control law as an idea just recently thought up but this proves not to be the case. The Brooklyn public library found a copy of a law passed in 1776 by the States of Massachusetts Bay, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island aimed at "unbounded avarice of many persons." Here are some of the things the law did: 1. Freeze farm workers wages at 47 cents a day. They were demanding 56. 2. Set house carpenters wages to a charge of 3 1/2 cents and tailors to 40 cents a day. 4. Set the price of a suit of the best broadcloth at $33.65. 5. Put a 3 1/2 cents a pound ceiling on choice beef, 7 cents a pair on women's stockings, 5 cents for a pound of rum. Milk was frozen at 9 cents a gallon.

The Elmer Wolfe P.-T. A. held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening in the school auditorium with the president, Frank Bohn presiding. The meeting opened with a song and scripture reading, followed by a short business meeting. The main program consisted of a round table discussion on the topic "Dating—Big Business of Youth." Dr. Reuben S. Holthaus opened the discussion by presenting his views and then the pupils and parents were given a chance to have their say, of which they took full advantage. The subject matter seemed to be a very personal matter for most of the audience and the discussion was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

The Union Bridge Girl Scouts collected the "March of Dimes" coin boxes from the stores and restaurants on Friday. Twenty five boxes had been scattered throughout Union Bridge. The highest amount in any one box was $7.35 and the lowest, one cent. The total amount collected was $42.67. This was a decrease in the amount under last year of about 25 dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Dutterar of Frederick and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bohn of Mt. Union spent Sunday in Baltimore visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers.

Columnist Eleanor Roosevelt recently wrote in her daily column about something that must eventually reach us all. Here it is: "As I grow older I get the feeling that we should put our house in order, so to speak, and not leave too many things at loose ends, for when will our own call come?—The difficulty about getting these things accomplished is that you always think a little more time lies before you. And yet, when you open the morning paper and read that someone you talked to a short few days ago is gone, it makes you stop, look and listen."

In spite of the icy roads and bitter cold about 75 persons were brave enough to attend the dance last Thursday for the Polio fund sponsored by the Elmer Wolfe PTA while the margin of profit was less than 15 dollars, everyone had a good time. In fact some of the older folks had a better time than the teen agers. It just goes to prove that a dance once in awhile doesn't hurt anyone.

Mrs. Merle Wilhide who has been confined to her house with some form of arthritis is able to be out again.

Ever since the time of Adam, men have been wondering just why women make such a fuss over clothes. The usual male assumes that women dress to please the men. That is a silly notion and should be discarded along with last year's hat. The truth is, of course, that most women dress to annoy other women. And it is just possible that a large number of women dress to please themselves.

There was a time, when it was easy to tell a lady by the way she dressed. When a girl goes all out to get dressed up today, she likes to wear a bare minimum of clothing, and there's usually insufficient evidence to prove whether she's a lady or not. Except for some of the low cut evening dresses, which I think is disgraceful, American women have learned how to wear clothes well and to dress for the occasion. Sport clothes especially are beautiful and appropriate. How well, I remember when I was growing up, of the awful styles and how a 16 year old girl at that time looked like a woman of 60. In fact if most women of 60 today looked like we did they would go jump in the nearest lake. When I get out the family album and see my generation in their finery of 25 years ago, I wonder how the men ever got the notion that we dressed to please them, for we looked like we were dressed for a rag pickers convention.

One of the best loved American's birthdays was celebrated this week. On this birthday of Abraham Lincoln the great question is whether this is the glorious nation he fought so hard and so well to save. Are its people as determined in 1951, as they were in 1861 to preserve its freedom? Only the future can answer that question. There were numerous Americans in 1861 who wanted peace at any price. Throughout the Civil War there were disloyal people who secretly or openly tried to aid the enemy. Abraham Lincoln's steadfast wisdom overcome them all. Today we need his wisdom and his way to discharge our duty of world leadership to save America and with it human liberty on this earth.

Back in 1850, men did 15 per cent of the work, animals 79 per cent, and machines 6 per cent. The production of goods per man-hour averaged 27 cents worth. In 1930 men did 4 per cent of the work, animals 12 per cent, machines 84 per cent, and the product amounted to 82 cents an hour. In 1960 it is estimated that men will be doing only 3 per cent of the work, animals 1 per cent, machines 96 per cent and the product will be worth $1.61 an hour.

MARRIED

WILT—BROWN

Meadow Branch church, near Westminster was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Margaret E. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown was married to Donald E. Wilt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wilt, on February 4, 1951, at 2:30 P. M.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Malcolm Wright. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Granville Arbaugh played a short recital and traditional wedding music. Lewis Erb was the soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white slipper satin with a fitted lace bodice, styled with mandarin collar and long sleeves with points over her hands. The full gathered skirt ended in a circular train. Her illusion veil, edged with chantilly lace was held in place by a seeded pearl tiara and was of finger-tip length. The bride's bouquet was of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Leah Hockensmith served as maid of honor and wore a gown of yellow taffeta. Mrs. Donald Cartzendorf and Miss Nancy Heiner, cousins of the bridegroom served as bridesmaids. They wore gowns of orchid and Nile green taffeta. All attendants carried bouquets of mixed carnations and sweet peas. Miss Regina Brown, sister of the bride was flower girl.

Ronald Brown nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

The groom had as his best man Donald Cartzendorf, Earl Cartzendorf and Melvin Leppo served as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for about 300 guests. Out of town guests were from Wilmington, Delaware; Baltimore, Washington, Littlestown and Taneytown.

The bride chose for her going-away outfit a navy suit with navy and white accessories and a white top coat with an orchid corsage.

The bride is employed at the J. C. Penny Store; the bridegroom is engaged in farming.

CRABBS—In Loving Memory of my dear father, BERNIE W., who passed away Feb. 18, 1950.

Our kind and loving father,
We think of you today,
And recall the happy hours
Ere the day you passed away.

Never shall your memory fade,
And although we miss you so,
We are waiting till we also
Leave this world of strife and woe.

MR. JAMES F. CRABBS & FAMILY.

In Memory of my Father,
BERNIE W. CRABBS,
who passed away one year ago, Feb. 18, 1950

You have taken your last journey
On a beautiful ship called rest,
Away from this world of sorrow
To a land of peace and rest.

And when our call to follow comes
Where you have gone before
We hope to see you waiting, daddy
To meet us at Heaven's door.

Loving son,
GEORGE B. CRABBS.

CRABBS—In sad and loving memory of our dear father, BERNIE W., who passed away one year ago Feb. 18, 1950.

Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.

A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.

We saw you fading like a flower
But could not make you stay
You nursed you with tender kindness
Until God called you away.

Oh Father, dear, we loved you,
And our hearts ache for you still
Forgotten by some others
But by us you never will.

No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain,
We have suffered since we lost you,
Life has never been the same.

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear father,
That we do not think of you.

Daughter and son-in-law, MR. & MRS. NORMAN SELBY & FAMILY.

midst who is a real and artistic paper hanger and has 200 rooms to paper from now until Spring. The work is most beautiful. You see what I mean, folks in stating that women can do anything a man can do and this last war has proven that.

I think in as much as there are "lady" wrestlers like "Gloria" there never will be a "Lady Referee" Why—because women are more honorable than men in many game of life! Women would not permit the dishonorable wrestling that goes on today! Eh?

Around our town, there is the very sweetest love story attached to a grand couple. The gentleman purchased a lot some years ago in the Blue Ridge Summit location and at the time he asked the salesman who owned the lot next to his. After being told who the lady was and a meeting took place where the gentleman in question had the pleasure of meeting his next door neighbor. Now they own together both lots and two darling red-haired babies!

Did you know, folks that the great "MOZART" had a piano with a reversed keyboard—the black keys were white and the white keys were black!

How wonderful of our Governor in stating that only soft drinks will be stippled in His House! Now, that is original and as it should be no matter of all those objecting!

That reminds me thinking of something good to drink and if you cannot drink coffee just try Nestle's "Nescafe" pronounced "NES-CAFEY". It is truly a Nestle's real product and who hasn't heard and tasted their fine carbohydrates (dextrins, maltose and dextrose) added solely to protect the fine flavor. All you do is add hot water to a teaspoonful of Nescafe in a cup and you will be amazed for it is rich, full bodied coffee made instantly right in your cup! It excels all others on the market today as Your Observer has tasted other brands which appear as an imitation. Serve it in your home and to all church and social gatherings. You will never go back to coffee which you are compelled to cook in a pot. And to think Your Observer thought that it was impossible to do ever without the old fashioned breakfast time coffee which was made each and every morning. Now, you can serve "NES-CAFEY" with every meal and there is nothing to make you lose a wink of sleep! See if you don't agree! You will be convinced with one try as Your Observer experienced. I did not believe that I was not drinking the old-fashioned coffee until I was shown the contents of the packages!

Your Observer was always an admirer of "The Canadian Mounted Police" which had been in the limelight for many years and were considered the bravest men the world over. These men had or have nothing on today's "State Police"—the only difference is—the former on horseback and the latter in motor driven vehicles which even cover more territory today.

There is something about our American State Police that makes one think of Lieut. of the United States Army. Did you ever notice how polite they are no matter the situation and I am writing mainly of the Maryland State Police? They are real gentlemen and much credit is due them. My eldest son desired to be a State Policeman right here in Maryland while he was studying law but he soon found out all the hardships and the little pay and he withdrew!

Thinking of real friends! That nice Druggist's wife is 'tops' and one feels so 'at home' when calling at the residence. That tiny precious daughter is the sweet type of years gone by in the interesting English stories. She is dainty and demure. That famous name is connected with the big hospital in Baltimore, too! Thinking of Drug Stores, folks that Pharmacist is the very finest that comes in preparing your Dr.'s prescription. Did you know before coming around the town that he was the 'big guy' in the big drug stores in the 'big city'! Anything and just about everything can be purchased in that store!

Word comes from Jacksonville about the Stewardess who lost her life in the Airline crash in Philadelphia a few weeks ago who went back into the burning plane to save a four month's old baby after rescuing nine other lives. She was a close friend of my friend and they had lunch together just the couple of days previous to the accident. The Stewardess was to have been married in June and her home was in Tennessee. Her room mate collapsed upon hearing the news and was taken to a hospital in the Florida city!

We never know, folks, in saying, "Goodbye" to a loved one if it will be our last on earth. Never hold a grudge of any kind for it may be too late in life!

So long, folks. Have a grand week-end. Be careful and if the roads are icy or wet do not venture out unless it is absolutely necessary to use your car. Until next week, D.V. I am,

Faithfully,

YOUR OBSERVER.

MUSIC FETE AT WESTERN MARYLAND COLLEGE

Frederick Keefer, a senior at Western Maryland College and son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard T. Keefer of Keymar, has been appointed Production Manager for the Western Maryland College Music Fete to be given Wednesday, March 14, in Alumni Hall at 8:15 p. m.

This unique production is being given as a part of the Student Fund Drive, a part of the Western Maryland College Mid-Century Advance Program. The proceeds will go to bolster the funds being raised on campus by the student body for the over-all Advance Program at the College.

Various campus musical organizations, including the College Choir, the Glee Club, the Orchestra, the College Singers, the original T-V Octet and Quartet, and the String Trio, will take part in the production. Instrumental and vocal soloists will also take part.

Professors De Long and Royer are assisting in the direction of this music fete, while Don Bailey will supervise the stage settings.

To date more than $390,000 has been given in Carroll County through special gifts and pledges to the college in this mid-century effort. The student goal of $3,500 will supplement the home-town community effort, and 74% of this goal has already been pledged. $1,600,000 is the goal for the entire college-backed drive which is now running concurrently in Frederick and Carroll Counties.

Jesus is Christ

Lesson for February 18, 1951

IT SOUNDS odd to modern ears (or to any ear for the past 18 centuries) to say that Jesus "is" Christ. It sounds like saying Abraham is Lincoln, or Winston is Churchill. "Jesus Christ" has become long since a proper name like any other combination of name and surname. But in the early days of Christianity it took sermons to persuade people that Jesus was indeed the Christ; and if people knew what "Christ" means, they would see that most sermons today are really aimed at convincing people of the same thing: Jesus is Christ. When Peter said to Jesus "You are the Christ," Jesus' reply shows that Peter had not only said something important, but something which up to that time had not dawned on any one else.

Dr. Foreman

Only One Christ

WE shall have to think what the word "Christ" meant as Peter used the word and as Jesus understood it. The Jews of that time were looking with eager excitement for an "anointed one" (the literal meaning of Christ, or Messiah) who would put an end to all the evil of the world and usher in God's New Age. They were not quite clear how this would be done, but they were sure that only the Christ could do it.

Consider three points. First, when Peter said "You are Christ," he meant "You are unique." No Jew looked for two Christs. There is no one else in Jesus' class, there is only one of him. Every human being, to be sure, is different from all others; but Simon Peter did not mean that. What he did mean was that Jesus could not be classed as "a" teacher or "a" prophet or "a" man of God. He was the Teacher and Prophet. He was God's Man as no other man was.

We make a mistake, we get away from the original Christian faith, the faith which Jesus praised, when we put Jesus on the same level with other men, any other men. There is only one Christ.

God Was in Christ

IN the second place, when Peter called Jesus "Christ" he meant that God had anointed him. He was not a man who took a notion to do what he did; he was one whom God had appointed to be and to do as God willed. We cannot understand Jesus apart from God, for his source is God.

Any one who reads the gospel of John will find this very prominent in Jesus' thinking always: "I was sent . . . My meat is to do the will of him that sent me."

Christians later than this saw that the relation between God and Jesus was even closer than that between sender and sent. Jesus is called the Son of God, he is called the Word that was with God and was God. Paul says God was in Christ.

Later generations would develop the doctrine of the Trinity as it is expressed (for instance) in the Nicene Creed. Every century has its own formulas. Peter in the first century does not use the language of the fourth century, still less of the 20th; but all the formulas express in various ways the conviction Peter had: that when Christ confronts us, God confronts us.

Christ Is Lord of All

A THIRD thing Peter meant when he called Jesus "Christ" and that the church means now—is that he has complete authority. All other authority, in the church or out of it, is less than his.

A word often used to express this truth is "Lord." But the word alone is not enough. It really makes less difference what words we use about Jesus than what our attitude to him is. Jesus himself once spoke sternly of people who call him "Lord, Lord," but do not do the things he says to do.

It is one thing to say, in the Creed, that we believe in "Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord;" it is another thing to carry that part of the creed into life. Jesus is our Lord; not the church, not Moses, not Paul, not any hero or saint of the church, but Jesus. Christians take orders from him first of all, for we believe that his mind was the mind of God.

A Christian profession of faith, therefore, is more than a statement of belief; it is an oath of allegiance.

permitted to appoint any "a chief deputy." The Bill does not change the Sheriff's salary. It does permit deputies salaries to be controlled by the local Commissioners.

STATE ELECTION BOARD
SENATE BILL 8, recommended by the Case Commission, would establish a state-wide board for the licensing of electricians who are able to demonstrate their proficiency in performing electrical work through an examination to be given by the State Board.

At the present time only seven counties and Baltimore City have any form of licensing of electricians. No regulatory license is required in the remaining sixteen (including Carroll) Counties.

The Bill applies to "those engaged in the business" of installing, erecting or repairing electric wires or conductors used for the transmission of current for heat, light or power purposes.

The types of licenses authorized are:

Master Electrician General.

Limited License "A" for those who specialize in heating equipment, air conditioning, refrigeration, electric elevators, moving stairways, or display signs.

Limited License "B" for those whose work is confined to not more than two counties and whose work is limited in scope.

Limited License "C" for those who do repair work only.

Limited License "D" for those who do electrical work for a single employer at a specific plant, factory, etc.

The fee for the examination is set at $10.00 with a cost of $35.00 for a Master's license and an annual renewal fee of $25.00. The fees for the Limited licenses are somewhat less.

As this Bill is some 9 pages in length I will not attempt to cover more than the above general features. I will be pleased to send copies of the Bill to anyone who desires to study it further.

STATE PLUMBING BOARD
SENATE BILL 11 repeals all local laws relating to the licensing of plumbers and permits the holder of a State license to work anywhere in the State without the necessity of first securing an additional local license.

It further provides for greater facility in taking the examination and provides additional rights for those who are in any manner aggrieved by any action of the State Board.

MOTION PICTURE OPERATORS

SENATE BILL 10, establishing a State-wide Board for the examination and licensing of motion picture operators was killed by reason of an "Unfavorable Report" by the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee. The Senate adopted the Committee's report, thereby defeating the measure. The Committee felt that the proposal was much too far reaching and was without practical necessity or desirability. Until next week I am sincerely,

STANFORD HOFF.

MIXING ACCURACY OF FEEDS APPROVED BY PURINA

Taneytown Grain & Supply Co., has been issued a Certificate of Mixing accuracy by the Ralston Purina Company, following an analysis of samples taken from custom-mixed feeds prepared specially for customers of the mill.

The proper mixing of ingredients, using grain grown locally by farmers in this area, has long been recognized as an important factor in the efficient and economical feeding of livestock and poultry.

Before Purina approved the mill as an authorized mixing station using Purina formulas and ingredients, laboratory tests were made to determine the accuracy and uniformity of the mixing service rendered.

The samples which passed the most recent laboratory tests, and qualified the mill for the Certificate, did not vary more than one-half of one per cent in protein content.

A certificate is issued for each formula manufactured and approved.
