I. O. O. F. Meeting

The Carroll County I. O. O. F. Past Grand Association met on Thursday evening with Taney Lodge. The president, Birnie Staley presided and opened the meeting with all singing one verse of "America", followed with the invocation by Rev. A. W. Garvin. Greetings were extended by the secretary of Taney Lodge, Norman S. Devilbiss, and the response by Clark Taylor of the Manchester Lodge.

After conducting the regular order of business the meeting was turned over to the chairman on entertainment, Walter Hilterbrick who presented the following: piano solo of several numbers by Mrs. Harry Welty. Trumpet solo of several num bers by Charles Conover, accompanied by Mrs. Mervin Conover.

A very stirring and inspiring advin of Taney Lodge. His theme was the practical exemplification of the very theme of Odd Fellowship by George Washington; by denying him-self personal comforts and staying with his men at Valley Forge he displayed real Friendship, by continued interest in his Countrymen showing true Love, and his strict adherence to the Cause of Right in the face of adversity demonstrated that Truth is indeed an imperial virtue. The speaker pointed out that conditions would be greatly improved today if all men had a deeper concern and a higher regard for the welfare and rights of his

Elementary School News

Through the efforts of the local ions Club, the Elementary has reeived a complete flag set, consisting of both United States and Maryland flags. These will be used at assembly programs, public gatherings and other similar occasions. The flags were greatly needed to complete the equipment of the school.

As part of the State reading instructional program, Miss Ruth Devore, Elementary Supervisor, conducted a faculty meeting held on Tuesday. She discussed the various reading levels found in most grades, and the use of informal tests to determine the reading ability of any pupil. The need for continued emphasis on independent reading and useful spelling was also stressed. In order to develop a wider understanding of the Elementary program, several teachers have been privileged to visit away from the school. On Monday, Mrs. Novella Phillips, second grade teacher, recently attended meeting at Towson State Teachers College, where a demonstration by Miss Lilla Belle Pitts, Professor of music at Columbia University, New York. Mrs. Phillips brought back many noteworthy ideas which will be incorporated into the school music program. On Thursday, Miss Case, 3rd grade teacher, visited the West-minster West End school, observing the teaching methods used there.

As part of the sehool lunch program, an effort is being made to improve the quality of lunches being consumed by pupils, both those purchased at school and those packed at home. Parents will note that on the backs of menus sent home for the month of March, suggestions have been made as to how packed lunches may be made more adequate for the needs of the child.

C. OF C. MET

Guest Speaker was a Representative of Auto Club

The Taneytown Chamber of Commerce held the February meeting in the Town Hall last Monday night with Rev. Charles S. Owen, Vice-President in the chair. The matter of a correct voting list of citizens within the incorporated limits of Taneytown, was discussed. On motion a committee was appointed to take the matter up with the Town Council and to bring back a report at the March meeting.

Numerous other items of business for the improvement of the town, were presented and discussed. These included the parking problem and zoning question.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Robert L. Leese, Branch Manager of the Automobile Club of Maryland. In connection with his address on the problem of safe driving, the speaker showed a movie to illustrate his address. The picture showed the danger of overdriving one's lights and the high value being ing now being taught in many high schools.

About two years ago Mr. Leese was here and spoke on the same problem As a result the Chamber of Commerce petitioned the School Board for such a course in Taneytown. And the petition was granted so that during the past year students are receiving such instruction. In the open forum that followed Mr. Leese answered many questions from the floor. After adjournment refreshments were served to the members and guests at the Central Hotel.

Young Man Drowns

Word was on Monday received in Taneytown of the accidental drown-ing of 19-year-old Baxter Chenoweth Weber, son of Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Weber, Olney, Ill., and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Chenoweth, Tan-

According to the message received from his parents, the youth, a sopho-more pre-medical student at Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., was with two schoolmate companions riding in a rubber raft on a river near the col lege when the raft went over a dam and the three young men were thrown out. Two of the boys were able to hold onto the sides of the raft until they were rescued. Young Weber, it is thought, may have been injured in the mishap. His body was seen to float for some distance in the river and then was lost from the sight of persons along the bank of the stream. Searching parties continued looking for him until dark but up to late Monday night the body had not been recovered. The youth, who resided in Taneytown with his mother and family while his father was serving with the Army Medical Corps overseas during World War II, was well known here and had been a student of the Tan-eytown High school. He is the second son of Dr. and Mrs. Weber and is survived, in addition to his parents, by two brothers and two sisters, all of whom live in Olney, Ill. His grand father, B. B. Chenoweth and aunt and uncle, Mrs. Dorothy Koons and John Chenoweth left for the Weber home in Olney upon receiving word of the wealth! I wish you

I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer

Each future day and in some way—
help to bring you happiness! It is nice to read of the weekly news coming from Annapolis by our own Senator and the wonderful part about the historical news of which Your Observer had written from time to time was the desire to have our own Carroll County hospital! If that was to be put into actual reality, we could all get down on our knees and Thank God as that is a real necessity in these parts. Just think how many miles it is to the nearest hospital and at times to go over the line just does not seem to be the right thing! It does not look good for these parts Your Observer offers any assistance that may be needed in any offers to for which she is canable to any effort of which she is capable to aid in the process of such a wonderful cause! Thinking of all the icy streets in the big city and so many of the pavements most dangerous to walk upon there rose before me the city upon there rose before me the city streets of Philadelphia when I was a little girl and this is exactly what happened. If your pavement was not cleared of snow and ice, a policeman would ring the bell and notify you that it had to be cleaned and that within a few hours. It was carefully followed up and then you were fined followed up and then you were fined and if that did not bring about reand if that did not bring about results, you were given a summons to appear before you know what and state your reasons! It may be continued in that big city to this day so it really meant that you could feel safe upon walking upon all the pavements! Ortabealaw in all cities!

Eh?

A cute letter comes from a little boy asking me why I named the new arrival Abigail? So here it is Sonny exactly as it happened. I was expecting to be presented with that little puppy from a friend and was told that the little girl was to arrive on a Saturday evening. The bell rang and the music was on Teevy, "Abaaba-aba" etc and she was really from Aberdeen so I quickly said to myself, "That's it, I'll name her "Abigail from Aberdeen." Of course, too that was the name of David's wife in the Bible!

Thinking of letters, Folks. Here is just the most queer letter that is love letter of any on record and the most remarkable offer of marriage ever offered. It is a love letter without a word of love and a proposal of marriage that does not propose. It was written by our wonderful Abe Lincoln to Mary—the lady he afterward married—MY DEAR MARY—

I want in all cases to do right and most particularly so in all cases with women. I want at this particular time more than anything else to do right with you and if I knew it would be doing right as I rather expect it would to let you alone, I would do it. And for the purpose of making the matter as plain as possible, I now say you can drop the subject—dismiss your thoughts—if you ever had any—from me forever and leave this letter unanswered without a calling forth an accusing murmur from me. And I will even go further and say that if and Farm Supply Warehouse and Feed Mill last Wednesday. Those making the tour were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hahp. REPORT OF CHILDREN'S AID

During the November, December and January meetings of the Carroll County Welfare Board, plans were made to compile and use an annual report. At the February 13th meeting of the Board of Director, William H. Koelber, presented the facts about services rendered during 1950 and the cost of the total program of public welfare in Carroll County. At this meeting the Board decided on publication of this information.

During the year 1950 the Carroll County Welfare Board granted financial assistance to approximately 754 different families and individuals. 754 different families and individuals.
492 received old age assistance; 136
received aid to dependent children;
93 received general public assistance;
and 8 received public assistance to the needy blind. Twenty-five individuals received general public assistance for employable persons during the first three months of the year.
This type of assistance to people who were physically able to work was stonned in March, 1950, and has not stopped in March, 1950, and has not been resumed.

The total cost of the program including assistance payments, administration, salaries, and other services was $193,071.68. The source of this money is broken down as follows: State of Maryland 32%..$61,857.54 Federal Government 48%. 91,948.02 Carroll County 20%..... 39,266.12

Total.....$193,071.68 The various programs cost the county, state and federal government as

General Public Assistance for 2,496.00

Board of Children..... 434.01 2,491.02 Administration (General)... (Salaries) 18,058.54

To help these 492 old age people, the agency made grants totaling $103,162.62 at the average monthly grant per person of $33.25. This grant is to meet the basic needs of food, clothing, fuel and rent. Carroll County's share of this amount of money was $17,260.43 or about 2.7 cents on the tax dollar.

Aid to Dependent Children is a category of assistance that is given to families where the father is too ill or disabled to work, deserted and not contributing to the support of the family sufficiently, or where the father is dead. The parents must also be residents of the state to be eligible for this kind of help. Assistance is available for chillren until they are 16 years old and 18 years if they continue in school. We helped 136 different families this past year and are still helping 51 of these families who have not yet been able to make any plan to meet their own expenses. In order to take care of their food, clothing and rent expenses, we mailed an average grant of $62.54 a month to the families. This is the average of all the families; the amount of assistance varied a great deal according to the size of the family and the other sources of income that they had,

The Carroll County Welfare Board spent $44,730.04 for this Aid to Dependent Children. This money came from the State of Maryland, the federal government, and from Carroll County tax money. $6,160.37 came from Carroll County and this represents about 1.3 cents on a tax dollar.

We assisted only 93 different individuals with funds from General Public Assistance with an average monthly grant of $31.39. Half of this paid by the State of Maryland and half by Carroll County; Carroll county's share was $8,919.51 or approximately 1 cent on the tax dollar.

Aid to the Needy Blind, which was given to eight different individuals during the year, cost $3,860.47. The average grant to an individual for a month was $47.47.

The cost of administration was approximately 16.6% of the cost of the total program, and the cost of salaries was 9% of the total cost. Administration cost the county ½ cent on each tax dollar. each tax dollar. Cost to Carroll County for speci-

LEGISLATIVE NEWS

The Carroll County Delegation introduced a House Resolution in Feb. 1950, requesting the State Engineer and the Supt. of Buildings to study the feasibility of installing a mail chute in the State House for the convenience of the house members and other state employees. Since then, a bronze mail chute has been installed.

State at any time must first procure a hunter's license. It also increases the County hunting license from $1.25 to $1.75 with the additional .50 being earmarked for use in the provenience of the house members and other state employees. Since then, a bronze mail chute has been installed.

The committee. bronze mail chute has been installed from the ground floor to the top floor. Mail can now be deposited in the chute from each floor.

Members of the Inland Game and Fish Commission has informed us that the following streams in Carroll County will be stocked with trout this spring: Beaver Run, Bear Creek and Piney Run. This has come about through a House Resolution introduced in the 1950 session by the Carroll Cosnty Delegation asking for a more equitable distribution of fish and game, and that Carroll County should receive its just share.

and game, and that Carroll County should receive its just share.

The House Ways and Means Committee gave an unfavorable report on HB 176 which would exempt from the sales tax fuels for cooking and heating of buildings. It was estimated the State would lose $840,000 in revenue if this bill would be passed. The committee felt that due to the demand committee felt that due to the demand for increasd appropriations and pay raiss, the State could not afford to Motorists in Maryland killed one person every 15½ hours through Jan-uary. The 48 total dead on the state's highways last month represented a 45 percent increase over January 1950. The state in January had 1895 traffic accidents, 551 persons being injured 188 of them pedestrians. One of the most dangerous sections of road in the State if not the very worst, is the few miles from Liberty to Union Bridge.

In the short space of ten years or less there have been 12 persons killed on Is after me tonight.

But don't turn out the light. The villain on that T.V. show Is after me tonight. this road in traffic accidents.

The annual meeting of the Carroll County Chapter for Infantile Paralysis last Tuesday evening at Legion Square in Westminster disclosed that the goal for $10,000 for the 1951 March of Dimes campaign was exceeded. This was one of the largest drives ever put on in Carroll County Union Bridge district with Mrs. Mil lard Roelke as chairman reported $473.41. This is an incomplete re-port as there are still some organi-zations that haven't sent in their contributions. With 14 districts reporting, Union Bridge ranked sixth in the amount of money collected.

The hen that laid the Nation's biggest egg-an eight and one-half ouncer—is dead. She expired after delivering the giant egg at the poultry farm of Dr. Henry F. Dearborn, Lawrence, Mass. The egg was 10 inches around the long way and eight and one-half inches around the middle. And as if this wasn't enough another hen—a Rhode Island Red— owned by Mrs. Minnie Wells, West Liberty has been laying two eggs a day for more than a month. The hen has two egg-laying outlets.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shirk, Taneytown, were Sunday visitors at home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stuffle.

This balmy spring weather has brought the robins up from the South. Mr. and Mrs. Mehrle Wilhide were visited by a flock of approxi-mately 150 last week, that spent the day pulling fat, juicy earthworms out of their lawn. Some of the rob-ins toppled over backward when the worm they were extracting from the earth, suddenly loosened its grip and gave up, evidently saying to itself—"What's the use; the early bird always gets the worm anyway."

The Senate Bill No. 93 is creating some little discussion here in Carroll county. As those interested know, this proposes to tax the people of the county for the support of a hospital in Westminster. The initial cost of a hospital is only the beginning for no hospital has ever been self-supporting. This reporter, therefore is not in favor of this bill. We are situated close to Baltimore, which offers the best medical care in the whole United States. Also near are three small local hospitals, namely Annie Warner Hospital, at Gettysburg, Frederick Memorial Hospital in Frederick in erick and the Hanover hospital in Hanover. If any citizen in Carroll County has money to give to a hospital it would be more in keeping with the times to give it to a hospital already functioning. Either one of the three small hospitals I have mentioned are worthy of a gift and really need a helping hand. Since many of our citizens do use these hospitals it would be a nice friendly gesture on our part to offer them a little financial help once in a while. What Carroll County does need is a mental health clinic operating at least two days a week where the people in need of such help can get it. There are many children in our schools to-day who are badly in need of psychiatric care, but cannot receive because there is none available. If these children are not helped now, they will eventually become serious mental cases when they become older. Another draw back to a hospital in Westminster is finding nurses and other trained technicians to operate it. Trained nurses are still at a premium and with the armed forces expanding the situation will not get any With the high cost of materials, unless Carroll County is willing to spend a million dollars, the idea of a hospital in Westminster had best be forgotten.

Recent visitors of the David Millers were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bush and daughter, Charlene; Mr. and Mrs David C. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lease.

Mrs. Maude Martin spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs.

Blanchard Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gordon were callers at Merry Knoll last Friday. The sick in the community seem to be recovering. This has been a year of colds, grippe, infected throats and scarlet fever and all forms of arthritis thrown in for good measure. Parents of children have an obligation to themselves and their community to keep their children isolated if they suspect a contagious disease. All childhood diseases are dangerous because they leave so many lasting effects such as bad ears, poor eyesight, nephritis and bad hearts. Not too many years ago a sign was tacked on the door saying "measles,"
"Whooping Cough," Scarlet Fever"
or whatever the occupants of the house had contracted. Today it's a rare sight to see a quarantine sign anywhere. Not that the need for them isn't necessary for childhood diseases are just as dangerous today as they were years ago. But, I suppose due to the new drugs, people just feel safer-or have become careless.

Two German exchange students at Frederick High school say the United States is very nice but no paradise as people who listen to the "Voice of America broadcast" are led to believe. They both are home sick for Germany and will be going back as soon as school ends. One of the faults they find with American youth lack of respect for their elders. In fermany there is too much formality and too little here. I think most of us will agree with the German boys elders or authority very much. Is it the parents' fault or is it due to the shifting of responsibility to the young people? Maybe it's just a sign of that our youth do not respect their maturing—resenting authority and sort of feeling out for oneself the whys and wherefores. One thing though should be drilled into everyone—young and old—if someone has earned the right to your respect—give it wholeheartedly.

Please tuck me in oh mother dear,

Replying to the tributes paid to him at a testimonial dinner, Herbert Bayard Swope said: "I cannot give you the formula for success, but an give you the formula for failure -Try to please everybody.

THE big man who had just spoken picked up a twig, snapped it, and threw it on the fire.

"Hey, Joe," he grunted to his companion, "what yuh say duh kid joins up wid us?" He put his hand on the boy's shoulder.

"You mean go around tramping with you?" Billy broke in.
"'Yuh know how tuh ride rails, kid?" Joe inquired.

"Sure-sure I do." Billy wasn't as certain as he sounded, but from what he had seen of "riding the rods" in the movies it looked easy enough.

The first tramp picked up a rusty can and with the aid of a stick propped it on the center of the crackling twigs. He was still poking it into position as he drawled out, "Hey, Joe. 'Member Horsey Sindler? Jus' heard other day he lost his leg ridin' onnah Santa Fe. Trackman followed up his blood fer 10 miles."

"Mike, wouldjah ast dah kid tuh gimme his shoes? Mine's ain't got 'nuf sole on 'em tuh grind up fer chewin' tobacco."

"Mine?" Billy cried. He held one foot forward for them to see. "These are my only school shoes and I—"

"No-no thanks. 1-1-" Billy's lips clenched together and his hands went instinctively over his mouth. He shook his head and fled.

Mike dropped the can, threw back his head and laughed until he sank to the ground exhausted. His companion wiped a laugh-tear away. "What did you do, Mike?" panted. "Broil our worms?"

Mike nodded. "The fishing was getting terrible, anyway." He rose wearily off the ground. "Come on, let's look for the canoe and start home. And please remember, dear brother, that it's your turn to take mother to a fish dinner at the Seafood Grotto."

Interruptions

Lesson for March 4, 1951

DEOPLE KEEP making your life shorter every day. For time is the stuff of which life is made, and you never do have a full 24 hours a day. After taking out what has to be spent in sleep, eating and so on, and taking out what has to be spent on your job, whatever it is, there still ought to be a few hours to call your own. But you are like people, you live from one in- Dr. Foreman terruption other. If it isn't the telephone it's the door-bell. The more important you are, the more you are likely to be interrupted. Once there was a teacher who became president of the coilege where he had taught. In later years he mourned the change. "It seems to me," he said, "I never get a consecutive half-hour any more to think about anything. No day is ever what I planned. Life has become one long series of in-terruptions."

Unscheduled Stops

THE LIFE of the Master himself, to judge from what we read in the Gospels, was a long series of interruptions. The tenth chapter of Mark is a good example. Jesus himself at this time had one great thing in mind: the Cross. He was going up to Jerusalem not to talk to beggars or to listen to lawyers' arguments or to hold interviews with puzzled young people. He was going

A man on his death-bed might be spared interruptions. He could not be blamed if he said to interrupters one and all: "Sorry, I can't be bothered. See my assistants if there is anything you want done."

But Jesus did not say anything of the kind. He did not fume over the unscheduled stops on his life's highway. He took time to clear up mis-understandings; he took time for little children when even his best friends thought he ought not to be disturbed; he took time to answer the question of the rich young man; he did not brush off James and John when they came to him with their ill-considered petition; he even took time to take care of a beggar's

Ministries by the Wayside

TESUS DID not always take the initiative in every situation, though indeed he controlled every situation. When the Pharisees asked nim about marriage he did not say, "Let's not talk about marriage; let me suggest the topic of salvation instead." When the young man ran up to him, Jesus did not ask: "Did you have an appointment for an interview?" Jesus not only did not resent other people's initiative. He never seems to have resented an interruption in his life.

Does this example of Jesus mean that we ought not to plan our days ahead of time, or that we ought never to try to "budget" our time? Must we never plan any project, but always wait till other people suggest what we are to do?

Not at all. The example of Jesus means that if and when interruptions occur, if we share his spirit we shall not be irritated by them or resent them. For what Jesus did, always, was to make use of the interruption. Each one was turned into a "Wayside Ministry." Indeed, a large part-some would say the larger part-of Jesus' life was made up of just such by-the-way minis-

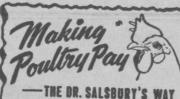

Life's By-the-Ways

HOW MANY of Jesus' teachings we would never have had, if no one had interrupted him or asked him questions! How many of his miracles would never have been done if he had refused to perform any but those he planned and sched-uled himself! It is what we do "by the way" that makes up life's service, for the most part.

In Jesus' story of the Good Samaritan (no doubt an incident from real life) we are not told what were the original errands of the priest, the Levite and the Samaritan. Very likely the first two were on time for their appointments.

But the priest and the Levite missed a wonderful chance, justbecause the poor beaten traveler was not, so to speak, on their agenda. The Samaritan was delayed, and maybe bothered, by what he did for the man in trouble. But what he was willing to do by the way, something he had not planned for at all, won him the immortality of the Master's praise.

Your friend, Lincoln.

Lincoln.

How very much like the noble character our President was in those plain simple words—such a conscientious soul—one can read between the lines—for fear he was hurting Mary and that he would not want to have done at any price—the fear of saying the wrong thing to the one he loved! He was as plain as his attire!

All February people are like that, Folks. They are the most courageous, brave and finest friends in all the world! The most tender hearted that comes and they would give up their shirt if it meant making the other individual happy. They are noble and have many scterling qualities—too numerous to mention! That's Aquarius! And hope you did not miss the grand Teevy show on Lincoln's birthday with Raymond Massey the movie actor, celebrated for his impersonating roles of Honest Abe. He was sunerb in this one on the Lux Video Theatre over WMAR—Channel 2 at eight o'clock. All the leading dramatic stars shine on that half hour!

Your Observer has studied, "The Grand Man" in the familiar almanac illustration of the signs of the Zodiac for ten or more years by Professor Seward, of Chicago, Fla. and Los Angeles. And the more I study, the more interesting and fascinating it becomes.

So long, Folks. Have a grand week end. Be good and be careful and always remember these words. Four things come not back: The SPOKEN WORD; the SPED ARROW; TIME PAST: and the NEGLECTED OP-PORTUNITY! Until next week D.V. I am,

Mother and Daughter Red Cross Campaign Banquet

The annual Mother and Daughter banquet was held at the Piney Creek Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening, February 28th. There were about forty mothers and daughters present

Invocation was given by Mrs. Maude Wantz. A committee of the Brotherhood of the church then served the group a most delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings, topped off with delectable cake, ice cream and coffee. These men are to be commended on their culinary art. This dinner, if possible, was even better than last year. The table service was excellent. The waiters wore colorful aprons and were right on the job with Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Elwood Baumgardner, who spoke of the "Big and Little Things in Life" and the next women play in in Life," and the part women play in the home, church and community. She the home, church and community. She also quoted some amusing excerpts from "A Conversation Between Two Men". One said that a woman could do anything, but listen! And that a woman is one who puzzles when she pleases, and pleases when she puzzles. In closing Mrs. Baumgardner read a most expressive poem by Edgar A. Guest entitled, "Little Things."

Later we were entertained by Miss

Later we were entertained by Miss Jackie Markle and Miss Jean Martin. Dressed in lovely ballerina dresses these girls did a beautiful ballet number. They were ber. They were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Hilda Harver. After a brief intermission Miss Markle and Miss Martin performed some graceful acrobatic dancing, also accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harver. A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was brought to a close by sing-and her very able assistants for another successful banquet.

ou more this year than ever due to the fact that many very important services are being organized and that he Carroll County Chapter, American Red Cross is expanding. First of all, the quota for the county is the large amount of $10,500. Every bit of this and more is needed to carry on a vitally important First Aid, Dis-aster, Blood Bank, Home service and other programs. These are not only wartime but peacetime services and your contributions alone keep these going. We also have a wonderful group of Gray ladies, who give one day a week, voluntarily, at the Springfield State Hospital. This service is greatly appreciated by the hospital and one that is needed for the mentally ill. The Home service in indeed extremely important to the servicemen and their families, and the veterans and their families. It is a 24 hour duty job. Few of us real-ize it but nevertheless it is true. Then, first aid. How wonderful it is to be able to know what and how to do until the physician arrives. The Blood Bank, too, should grow as one pint of blood can save a soul. Much can be said about the disaster program. Oh, how important are the first to be called in case of a bad fire,
