(Your Chatty Column)

With all my heart, I wish you every morning smile that shall last until the next day's dawning. I wish you health—life's greatest wealth! I wish you always near so that I may help to cheer Each future day and in some way—help to bring you happiness!

What is nicer than all the home town and around the town folks gathering in the little town in any County to do their shopping on week ends? Perhaps, that is just it that makes those home town folks in the big cities just a wee bit homesick for the little town. Eh?

Wow! You surely read about the "White House" when it is finished it's expensive repairs and additions will have 24 bedrooms and 24 baths! Umph—now I know the Royalty will be heading this way in the near future! Thinking of Kings—Your Observer has observed the grave condition of that nice King of England He is very much liked in his own Native land and even more so because he took over for that wonderful Duke of which he was given the title. Remember?

When I see those signs of the Financing companies stating, "Let us finance a vacation for you and you pay back in small amounts weekly" Now, I ask you how could anyone enjoy themselves on borrowed money? Betcha, there are many sick headaches for those who fell in this type of trap.

Here's a cute one. A tiny tot of four asked this question, "Where does the wind go when it stops blowing?"

Now, there is a shampoo "Shade" for the tiny tot with a lot of hair. Never a case of soap in baby's eyes with the self-adjusting shampoo shade and it makes hair-washing fun instead of tears. It is made of Vinylite plastic and comes in assorted colors. Kleiner's is the brand.

Many Mothers could avoid worry. Here's one for instance. My three little sonny boys when young and only very little difference in ages would naturally need suits all at one time and Your Observer use to say, "Just imagine, we will have to purchase six men's suits at one time for each one must have a week day suit and a Sunday suit. Where in the world would we get the money." It all worked out beautifully for instead of six suits, Your Observer purchased three and then odd pants, sweaters, and odd coats when they were on sale. Remember that old saying, "Where there's a will, there's a way." So don't worry, Mother everything adjusts itself.

WILD-GEESSE AND DUCKS

Time was when great flocks of wild geese and ducks flew North in Spring time and South at Autumn time. Now few are seen. Why? Perhaps the advance of civilization that drained the marshes that were then nesting places in the Canadian north may be the answer. There are compensation we must pay for our advancement in civilization. I have read somewhere that over on the Eastern Shore there is a man who owns a bay side farm and that he plants a field in corn and leaves it unharvested for the geese, and that year after year great flocks of geese come to this field to feed. He will not permit any hunting on the premises and takes great delight in walking among them. Perhaps that may be the way some one in the past tamed the geese that are the ancestors of the great flocks that dot our farms.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

COVINGTON, TENN., LEADER: "This is not the time to be building bridges, dams and buildings. Rather it is a time to be cutting out all expenses which can be put off until later times. All the crying for government economy will not have half the effect of cutting expenses that a little self-discipline on demands for local projects will have. It is difficult for a man with his hand in the till to accuse another of misusing funds."

OSKALOOSA, IOWA, DAILY HERALD: "It is a commonplace of history that nations do not realize what is happening to them until it has happened. Thoughtful Americans have in recent years been deeply concerned over the trend toward socialism. The truth is that we already have socialism in America, not complete as yet but far advanced."

GREENVILLE, TEXAS, EVENING BANNER: "The statement by an official of an anti-vice group in Lake Charles, Louisiana, that the indictment of five newspapermen in Lake Charles for alleged defamation is a threat to freedom of the press is one that not only the people of the Louisiana city, but all over the nation should consider seriously."

The five newspapermen were charged with defaming the characters of sixteen Parish officials and three admitted gamblers. Without attempting to defend the newspapermen involved there is a danger in connection with the indictments, and it is a danger that affects the freedom of the press. Their conviction would not only close the door on newspaper anti-crime campaigns in that particular Louisiana section, but would open the doors to the gamblers. And if such a thing could happen there it might easily happen anywhere else in the nation."

FORT PAYNE, ALABAMA, DEKALB TIMES: "We don't read The Wall Street Journal but we've seen a quotation from it that we think is worth passing on: 'The world has become so small that almost any nation is within reach of Uncle Sam's pockets.'"

NELIGH, NEB., LEADER: "The basic industries of the country, together with the transportation, communication and research facilities, are in excellent shape. Our one weakness is the unsound financial policy of our Government. Through its wasteful and reckless expenditures we are seriously impairing the margin of financial safety and undermining our national security."

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, DAILY CURRENT-ARGUS: "We hope that President Truman was listening the other day when Sen. Clinton Anderson of New Mexico declared that abundant production, rather than price controls, is the best way to keep prices in line. We think the senator is right. Only production will halt inflation. And price controls and credit restrictions don't produce anything."

GOD RIDES WITH ME!

When I drive, I am ever watchful where children play
 (A nephew of mine was killed, one day)
 And as the car slowly glides along,
 I pray—
 That He will direct me every foot of the way!
 That He will give me wisdom with my hands upon the wheel
 To Guide me through traffic, even when I stand still!

I thank God each mile for all the beauty so rare,
 Which many drivers honestly do not share!
 And then I wonder at those racing by
 How much wiser it would be if they would try
 To see much of God's beauty while they can
 And protect a child if he suddenly ran!

As I cover the distance to and fro
 And arrive back to the garage and so—

I Thank Him again for my safe trip because I know,
 I have obeyed the signs, driven carefully and wisely slow!
 I then Thank God for the many years of auto accident free,
 I am confident with FAITH because HE SITS BESIDE ME!
 By IRENE DELEON LOVE.

SAFETY PAYS

It's a man sized job on this old earth
 To get on your own and prove your worth
 But its tougher still to have a mishap
 And face the world with a handicap.
 No matter how smart you think you are,
 You cannot depend on your lucky star
 To keep your limbs and your eyes intact
 Or to keep your skull from being cracked.

It takes constant care and a mind that's alert
 To stay on the job and avoid being hurt.
 A beautiful epitaph can't be read
 By the man it's written for, when he's dead.

The age-old plea, "I wish that I had...."
 Is no relief when you're hurt and sad
 And you dream of an eye that once could see,
 Or think of a limb that used to be.

It's worth far more as the days go by
 To give safety a break and honestly try
 To avoid the cost of careless ways,
 And prove to the world that Safety Pays.

Delegates from 108 clubs in the district, representing a membership of 6,730 business and professional leaders, will participate in the various sessions. Committee conferences a discussion of plans for the coming year, and election of officers will highlight the convention program, Smith said.

The presiding officer will be Arkley L. Fleming, governor of the Capital Kiwanis District, which is comprised of the District of Columbia, Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia. Mr. Fleming is professor of economics and government at the State Teachers College in Salisbury, Md.

Mr. Dubail, who will serve as official representative of Kiwanis International at the convention, was elected trustee of the community service organization last summer. In June, he was chairman of the General Convention Committee which guided the successful Kiwanis International convention in St. Louis, which more than 10,500 Kiwanians and their families attended.

Delegates who will represent the Kiwanis Club of Taneytown at the meeting are David Smith and Norman Graham.

The continued prosperity of this state, and of this nation, depends largely upon the sustained productivity of its agricultural land. Maryland Land Week, October 7-13.

MY FIRST POEM

This note I write to let you know
 The reason why I go;
 It is because you have said
 You would be glad
 When you get rid of me,
 Now if you're glad
 Jump up and shout,
 But if you are sad
 Sit down and pout.

I wrote that, my first effort at poetry in the spring of 1882; and have been trying to write poetry ever since. It was to an aunt with whom I then lived. W. J. H.

FEESERSBURG

With radio and TV installed in nearly every home, we often think that the art of conversation is fast disappearing from our midst. Some people contend that there isn't very much left to talk about since most subjects have been talked to death. Be that as it may, we have a feeling that we don't talk to the right people. We expect brilliant conversation to come from brilliant people but generally brainy people keep quiet and write books instead. Some of the best philosophy we have ever heard, came from an old 85 year old lady who could neither read or write. She had stored away in her mind all the experiences of her years and could entertain one for hours with her wit and wisdom. Children are another source of conversational delight. Their imagination runs riot and if one is young enough to follow their line of thinking, many a happy hour can be spent wandering with them in a land of "let's pretend."

Mr. and Mrs. Cleon Wolfe spent Saturday visiting relatives in and near Philadelphia. Their first stop was at Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wolfe and then later in the day they stopped in Coatesville to say hello to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Vicking.

The boy is indeed the true appreciator, and is not to be questioned how he came by the fruit with which his pockets are filled. It belongs to him, and he may steal it if it cannot be had in any other way. His fruit eating has little reference to the state of his appetite. Whether he be full of meat or empty of meat he wants the apple just the same. The apple is indeed the fruit of youth. As we grow old we crave apples less. It is an ominous sign. When you are ashamed to be seen eating them on the streets; when you can carry them in your pockets and your hand not constantly find its way to them; when your neighbor has apples and you have none, and you make no nocturnal visits to his orchard; when your lunch-basket is without them and you can pass a winter's night by the fireside with no thought of the fruit at your elbow, then be assured you are no longer a boy either in heart or years.—John Burroughs.

Every year, 600 children die from accidentally swallowing poison. Lye is one of the most frequently taken, followed by kerosene, iodine and any type of pill that one can find in a home medicine chest. Why children put everything in their mouth when you don't want them to and why they refuse to eat or drink that which you try to induce them to take is beyond the comprehension of every parent. Not so long ago a neighbor poured some hair shampoo in a cup and turned around to get a towel. In that instant her three year old daughter had gulped the liquid down and seemed to relish it. The mother was frantic and called the doctor. Fortunately the only bad result was that the child blew bubbles the rest of the day. Allowing old pills to accumulate is one sure way of having a tragedy because most adult medicine is harmful to children especially heart and kidney medicine. One cannot too often be warned to keep the medicine chest out of reach of small children and as an extra safety measure—keep it locked.

Pfc. Byron Crouse spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crouse.

The time is here when farmers who want competent help on their farms must have a wage-bonus agreement with their hired help. Since farming today requires almost skilled labor, the method of rewarding such labor must be changed. It is only fair that a competent hired hand be given a flat wage plus a bonus on the net income of the farm's main products. For instance, if the main income of a farm is from the production of milk then the bonus could be based on a certain percent of the milk check. To some farmers this may sound revolutionary but it is also good common sense. Good farm help is entitled to a share in the income he helps produce and is also entitled to a modern, pleasant house to live in. If he and his family are reasonably happy then he will make a better farm hand.

The spirited magazine contest between the Green and White teams at Elmer Wolfe School ended Tuesday morning with the White team the winner. Over a thousand dollars worth of magazines were sold which will give the school a nice little nest egg to be used for various items in the school.

And while we are on the subject of schools, the article on the Little Red School house, so ably written by the Johnsville reporter, took me back to my first year in school which happened to be a little Red School house in Lancaster County, Pa. The state of Pa. still has a good many of these schools in use, and while we know change must come, even to the schools never-the-less, we shall always have a deep respect and affection for the little Red School house and its teachers who gave so much of their time and talent to give their pupils a real knowledge of the three R's. And while we are not one to want the clock turned back, never-the-less we still believe that we received something more from the Little Red School houses than do our children in the most modern school buildings in the world. We did not receive more book knowledge but our knowledge of the fundamental keystones of living were broader. We did not mind manual labor, nor was everything measured by the dollar sign. And we did learn to respect law and order and not resent discipline.

Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Ben King were Mr. and Mrs. Omer Wood of Emmitsburg.

Our faithful mail carrier, James Myers met with an accident Tuesday afternoon as he was delivering mail over his route. A truck collided with his car on the Taneytown-Crouse mill road. Fortunately Mr. Myers was not seriously hurt although his car was damaged.

Don't lose faith in humanity, think of all the people in the United States who have never played you a nasty trick.

One thing about this decoration, he put it in and decorated it himself which took the best part of three days. Well, all through the afternoon and evening, Sunday, folks from different churches viewed the display and took pictures of it. Pork Loin Roast Gives Good, Economical Meal
(See Recipes Below)

LOOKING FOR WAYS to have meat on the menu and still live within an economical food budget?

Proper preparation of even the thriftiest cuts makes them simply delicious. Along with eating hand-somely of these nutritious cuts, you may also want to take a few bows for keeping the budget straight-laced.

Some of the really economical cuts of meat are scarcely heard about, any more. Many of the butchers don't stock them because the demand is low, but usually they're happy to get them simply for the asking.

Salt pork, for example, was an old-time favorite and grandmother knew how to prepare it deliciously. Pork hocks are another tempting dish and so are lamb shanks.

Try some savory liver dishes, using beef or pork liver because they're more economical. Stretch inexpensive roast pork with clever dressing sticks and vegetables. All these will make a difference in how much more you get out of the meat dollar!

Salt Pork and Cream Gravy
(Serves 4)

- 1 pound salt pork
- 3/4 cup cornmeal
- 2 tablespoons fat
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 cups milk
- Salt and pepper

Have salt pork cut in slices, 1/4-inch thick. Cover with hot water for a few minutes, then drain. Dip each piece in cornmeal and brown slowly in fat, in skillet.

Drain off all but 2 tablespoons of the fat and mix in flour. Cook 2 minutes, stirring well, then add milk slowly and cook for 5 minutes. Add salt and pepper, if needed. Serve with onion slices, marinated in French Dressing and potatoes cooked in their jackets.

Pork Hocks, Sauerkraut
(Serves 4)

- 4-6 fresh pork hocks
- 1 tablespoon lard or drippings
- 2 medium onions, sliced
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 No. 2 1/2 can sauerkraut
- 1/2 teaspoon caraway seed

Brown pork hocks slowly in lard or drippings. Add sliced onion, salt, pepper and boiling water. Cover closely and cook slowly for 1 1/2 to 2 hours, or until meat is tender. Add sauerkraut and cook until heated through. Remove to hot platter. Sprinkle caraway seed over sauerkraut before serving.

Pork Loin Roast
3-5 pound pork loin roast
Salt and pepper

Have backbone removed from pork loin. Season with salt and pepper. Place fat side up on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so the bulb reaches the center of the thickest part. Be careful that the thermometer does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not cover. Roast in a moderate (350°F.) oven until meat thermometer registers 185°F. Allow about 30 minutes to the pound for the roasting time. Serve with lima beans, onion rings and these dressing sticks:

- Dressing Sticks
- 4 cups soft bread crumbs
 - 2 tablespoons finely cut parsley
 - 3 tablespoons finely chopped onion
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon celery seed
 - 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/4 teaspoon thyme
 - 1/4 teaspoon paprika
 - 1 egg, slightly beaten
 - 3 tablespoons hot water
 - 3 tablespoons melted lard

Toss the dry ingredients together lightly. Stir in beaten egg, hot water and melted lard. Press dressing into shallow 5x7 inch pan and chill. Turn out on greased cookie sheet and cut into sticks 1x3 inches. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven for 20 minutes.

- Swiss Style Liver
(Serves 6-8)
- 1 1/2 pounds beef or pork liver
 - Flour
 - 2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 - 2 tablespoons lard or drippings
 - 2 onions, sliced
 - 2 1/2 cups cooked or canned tomatoes

Buy liver in one piece. Dredge with flour mixed with salt and pepper. Brown liver in lard or drippings. Add onions and tomatoes, cover closely and cook in a moderate (350°F.) oven or simmer gently on top of range for 1 1/2 hours.

- *Liver Roll-Ups
(Serves 4)
- 4 slices beef or pork liver, cut 1/4-inch thick
 - Salt, pepper, nutmeg, thyme
 - 4 sausage links
 - 4 slices bacon
 - 2 tablespoons lard or drippings
 - 1/2 cup boiling water
 - 3 tablespoons worcestershire sauce
 - 1 small bay leaf
 - 1 whole clove
 - 1 small clove garlic, minced
 - 1 small onion, sliced
 - Flour for gravy

Remove any membrane from sliced liver. Sprinkle slices with salt, pepper, nutmeg and thyme. Roll sausage link in each slice, then wrap with a bacon slice and fasten with toothpick. Brown the rolls on all sides in lard. Pour off drippings. Add water, worcestershire sauce, bay leaf, clove, garlic and onion. Cover and cook slowly for 30 minutes. Thicken liquid with flour for gravy.

While you broil fish, cook lima beans or reheat canned ones. Par-boiled potatoes fry in the skillet in drippings while you toss some greens for salad. Open a can of fruit or serve fresh fruits with cookies from the jar.

Put canned baked beans in a casserole and top with frankfurters and bake to heat through. Tomato aspic prepared in advance can contain bread and butter pickles. Baked apples can be cooked the night before.

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

SCRIPTURE: Isaiah 60:1-3; Acts 1:4-8; 8:4-8, 26-29, 35-38; Romans 15:14-29

Into All the World

Lesson for September 30, 1951

SO YOU don't believe in missions? That's a position not easy to defend, if you make any show at all of being a Christian. Can you be a business man and not believe in customers? Can you be your business? successful and not want to expand "Missions" is a name given to the growing edge of Christianity, a name for its expanding program. It is a name that stands for everything we believe in as Christians. It stands for the proposition that Christ is the answer to all the world's needs, not yours and mine alone. Christ died for the world, not for the western hemisphere or the democracies alone.

Dr. Foreman

Greatest Missionary Religion
THERE ARE religions you cannot "crash," no matter what you do, unless you are born in them. For example, either you were born the child of a Parsee, or you can't ever be a Parsee.

Again, there are religions which you can join if you insist, but nobody is going to try to talk you into it. Take it or leave it. Hinduism is one such religion.

But there are three missionary religions, religions that set out to claim all the world for their territory; besides Christianity these are Buddhism and Mohammedanism.

Buddhism is 600 years older than Christianity, Mohammedanism some 600 years younger; but neither has spread into so many corners of the world as our religion has; neither has won anything like Christianity's number of converts.

Pessimists Are Always with Us
IF THE first Christians had not believed in missions, where would we be? Where were your ancestors when Christ was living on earth? If you are descended from any of the nations of Europe north of the Alps mountains, or from Africa, then at the time of Christ your ancestors were a barbarous lot. Using paint about as much as clothing, their favorite sports getting drunk and savage fighting, they had contributed nothing whatever to civilization.

Or, if you are descended from the peoples of western Asia or around the Mediterranean, then at the time of Christ they were civilized, but time was running out. The Roman Empire, which looked as if it might endure forever, was doomed, even though its final death-knell was still 300 years away. But decay had set in.

If you had been a church member in Antioch when Paul was the foreign missionary pastor sent out by that congregation, you could have thought of all sorts of good excuses for not supporting him or his work.

"Why bother with those heathen?" you might have said. "As for the nations around the Mediterranean, they are on the way out. Even if they take to Christianity, it will be only a shot in the arm. It won't save them from the crash."

As for those savages up north and out west (you would mean, in the countries now known as France and Spain), what have they ever amounted to? They haven't asked for missionaries; they will probably kill them if we send them. Sending missionaries or spending church money on those people is just throwing it down a rat-hole."

Missionaries Once Came To Your Home Town

LOOK over the churches in your home state, whatever it is. You will find, on investigation, that most of them, however large and prosperous they are now, were once "home mission" churches, set on their feet through the generosity of older Christian communities.

Without missions the Christian church would never have lived; if it ceases to believe in missions it can still die.

The secret? There is nothing mysterious about it. Read what Paul said and see how simple it all is, at heart. The preaching of the good news of God; the enthusiasm and heroism and determination of the missionary; the inspired ambition to do something for God that was never done before; the two-way contributions, of older churches to new and new ones to old; and the circle of prayer uniting Christians everywhere, old and new. That is what made missions work then; it is what keeps missions going on now.

Appliance Purchases Exceeding Output

James J. Nance, able, energetic president of Hotpoint, believes "it is safe to assert that purchases of major household appliances are beginning to outpace production."

The industrialist is credited with being the first business leader to clarify the general misconception about supplies of good appliances. He said that factories are not able to meet the demand of farm and city homes for most of the appliances in the automatic electric kitchen and home laundry. This demand is up sharply now that women are going back into defense plants, placing a premium on electric aids to operate their homes on crowded schedules.

Nance has championed the idea of keeping civilian production at highest possible levels during the nation's "dual economy." Hotpoint is a heavy producer of jet engines.

Newer appliances, never in over supply, are automatic electric dishwashers, pushbutton electric ranges, electric tumbler clothes dryers, and garbage disposal units.

Homes throughout the nation using automatic dishwashers passed the one million mark in 1951, a milestone which the industry considers the mark of acceptance for a new appliance. Leading brands of electric appliances for complete kitchens and home laundries are being bought faster than they are being built. This condition will be more pronounced at the end of the year when indicated materials restrictions for defense work further cut into civilian goods output.

THIS 'N' THAT

$12,000. Nice, Betcha, it came in nice for that elderly Minister!

Did you know that it was just 75 years ago on March 10, 1876 on the top floor of a Boston boarding house room that Mr. Bell invented the telephone? And in the past few years the telephone advertises your voice in other words talk with a smile! There have been many marriages through just such a thing as a voice you love to hear on the phone.

A girl around our town won the Campbell, Walter O'Keefe Sweepstakes recently to the amount of $110. So you see it is a free for all and not 'fixed' as many individuals think. Pillsbury is now coming up with the third grand contest (that flour with the four kisses on the front of the package to the little housewife) so if you are a good baker—send one of your favorite recipes in. Ask your grocer about that one.

Have you been to "Carrie's" Gift shop lately? Better hurry and hold those Christmas gifts for there is much to choose right there. "Rose Meade" Pottery can be found in the gift shop around our town and it is beautiful, the National Geographic Magazine is featuring an entire page on this pottery and it all will fascinate you. Betcha, after awhile the entire floor of "Carrie's" will be remodeled into an up-to-date affair for she knows what is foremost in merchandise.

Now, all the fine TV shows are returning for the winter. What a treat it was to hear that fine voice of the Service man singing, "The Donkey Serenade" in the Horace Heidt show of Phillip Morris. He should have been the winner of last week (if I had been one of those judges.) This coming week will tell the tale who will be tops for that big amount of cash on that special programme.

While looking at TV WAAM—"The Teen Ager—The Highway Menace" it was called, would have done wonders for the youngster behind a wheel if all had looked at this special programme.

Here's to the Ladies! Plumes will be in great favor this coming season and worn just about on everything. A skirt, a hat, a Stole and what have you. They have always been most flattering especially with those natural curls of yester year. Phila. and New York are showing many of it's kind with the various colors. The evening gown appears glamorous with the skirts trimmed with the plumes and also upon Milady's fan!

You recall the song, "I Met A Million Dollar Baby in the Five and Ten Cent Store?" That really happened. Folks and Your Observer attended the sweet and simple wedding. A manager of Woolworth's fell in love with the sweet clerk and after two years that knot was tied. They are now residing in College Park where he is still a Manager!

Just for fun ask someone to write, Eleven thousand, eleven hundred and eleven. See if he looks up at you and immediately gives you the correct answer without writing it down.

Can you recall what wish you took when standing before the "Wishing Well" in St. Augustine, Fla. of Ponce deLeon?

One of the most sincere and (chucked full of stability) women I know around our town is the Mother of that Union Bridge school teacher! Next week, Folks will be writing of the Horoscope of The Libra person that is the sign from the 20th of Sept. to the 20th of Oct.

Have a grand week-end, Be good and be careful. Until next week D.V. will be seeing you. I am,

Faithfully,

Pay By Check

You will have a ready-made record of your spending—your cancelled checks. Also, you build up your credit standing at the bank. This will be useful to you should you ever seek to borrow money, for many purposes. Yes, just as the tradesman in town is better off with a checking account, so is the farmer, also.

This bank will welcome you
as a Checking customer.
